

Matadors Off For Great All-Plains Meet At Canyon; Tech Squad Strong Favorite Since Meet With Buffs

The Matadors left today for Canyon where they will take part in the seventh annual Great Plains Meet to be held there today and tomorrow. Some eight colleges of West Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma are entered in the meet and nearly 150 athletes. For the past few years this meet has grown to be one of the most interesting classics of the track and field events.

Debate Team Loses Decision In Close Argument Tuesday

In a close argument which was featured with excellent deliveries and good defensive points, the Tech debating team composed of Ottis Koen and H. Y. Price lost in a two to one decision to the West Texas State Teachers college team Tuesday night before a good crowd in room 202 of the administration building.

Experienced West Texas Team Out-Points Local Boys On War Debt Question; Several Contests Soon.

The visiting team had the best side of the question, it appeared as their argument went across with much more force with the judges. Both teams were experienced debaters and this point alone stood out. Judges were Judges Baldwin, of Slaton, McGehee, of Levelland and Nelson, of Tahoka.

April 28 Set As Date For Second Fish Day Tickets Now On Sale

The second annual Fish Day will be celebrated April 28th at Silver Falls Lake near Crosbyton. The freshmen will leave Lubbock early Thursday morning on a special train engaged for the occasion. Transportation from Crosbyton to the lake and return is to be furnished through the courtesy of the Crosbyton chamber of commerce.

Five Former A. & M. Men Meet At Tech

Five former members of International Stock Judging teams of Texas A. and M. college were together in a meeting in the Tech stock judging pavilion this week. Another member, Ray Mowery, of the Tech faculty, was not present which made six of them on the campus. Three of them are members of the Tech agricultural faculty.

Home Ec Officers Are Re-elected For Term

At a business meeting of the Home Economics club, Friday afternoon all the old officers were re-elected to serve again for the spring term. The officers are Eaye Brooks, president, Frances Ferguson, vice president, and Lila Allred, secretary, and Pauline Koch, treasurer. A very interesting program was the feature of the meeting.

Senate Committee To Be Here Monday In Visit To Tech To Consider Needs

With the entire student body, faculty and Lubbock citizens in convocation at the Tech assembly hall at 11 o'clock Monday, Lubbock will be host to another legislative group with the visit of the senate committee who will also inspect the college to determine the need for appropriations of the school for the next two years. It was announced Thursday in the meeting of the board of city development. Following their tour of Lubbock and the school, the committee will be honored guests at a banquet which will be given at the Lubbock hotel at 7:30.

Tennis Squad Is Likely Winner In Great Plains Meet

With Wilson McKirahan, of Slaton, as the favorite during the past all-college tennis tourney, the Matador tennis squad left today for Canyon where they will take part in the tournament of the Great Plains meet there. Indications are that they will cop the title as the men have been showing up good during the tourney here.

Archway To Campus To Be Senior Gift

As their gift to the college from the first graduating class, members of the senior class of the Tech Saturday night voted to sponsor the building of a magnificent archway at the entrance of the campus at Broadway and a committee composed of Bailey Carroll, chairman, Eldon Thorpe, Kay Ingram and Mrs. R. T. Groves, was appointed to confer with the architects of the school regarding the plans and estimated cost.

Reception Given Seniors Last Night

As one of the entertainments for the members of the first graduating class of the Tech, President and Mrs. Paul W. Horn entertained the senior class in a reception at their home on the campus last night from 8 until 10 o'clock. The affair will be held annually, it has been learned.

The birthday party for those students who were born in the month of April will be held Tuesday, it was announced today by Miss Katherine Harper, director of the cafeteria. The Easter motif will be carried out in the decorations while real Texas Blue-bonnets are to adorn the tables, Miss Harper says.

Fame Of Dr. Horn Now Travels Abroad Faculty Senior Baseball Game Holds Interest

The fame of Texas Technological college and its president, Dr. Paul W. Horn, dressed in a cotton suit manufactured in the textile department of the school, has spread over the entire nation. Newspapers all over the country published the picture of President Horn, appeared in his suit made from the fleecy staple, together with a write-up calling attention to the wearer's claim that he was the "best dressed man in Texas" and that the material in the suit cost $1.00.

Time Of District Interscholastic Meet Draws Near As Committees Of More Than 300 Studes Are Announced

With only a week remaining before the Interscholastic District meet which will be held here April 22 and 23, officials of the faculty and student body are making preparations to have everything in readiness for the meet. More than 300 students are to be drafted for official business in the meet and each student who is able to serve on the committee is asked to notify W. P. Clements, chairman of the student committees.

Manager Pender Announces First Inning Battery; Refuses To Give Out Dope On Hitters.

Younger members of the faculty bolstered and perhaps reinforced by those who wish to stay young, will marshal their baseball talent, utilizing their ancient soup-bones, and contest for the first time in the history of the school, the vaunted diamond supremacy of the Senior classmen.

Spring Football Closes Saturday

Again the third of the pigskin and the grunt of the gridiron will be heard on the campus as Captain Rooden Ferguson brings his Spring training football club to a close in a final game at the Tech field Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Two evenly matched teams will be pitted again each other. Ingerton says and a good game is assured.

April 30th Is Set As First Annual Hodge Podge Date

April 30th was set as the date for the first annual Soph Hodge-Podge by the sophomore class in a meeting in the stock judging pavilion Thursday night. Plans were completed for the affair and committees are already at work. The freshmen are to be guests of honor.

Agriculture Men Pay Visit To College; Are High In Their Praise

Several distinguished visitors were at the Tech this week and made a tour of the plant, especially the school of agriculture. The party included the agricultural experts who are making a tour of the state. They were E. A. Miller, agronomist of the extension service of A. & M.; W. M. Pinson, former Colonel of the A. & M. cadet corps now with the Texas Cotton Seed Crushers association; A. L. Wood, director of extension of the Texas Cotton Seed Crushers association; Paul Huey, of Dallas, associate editor of the Progressive Farmer; A. B. Haines, animal husbandman of the office of experimental stations; V. V. Parr, associate animal husbandman of the Bureau of animal industry.

KNOW THYSELF

Did you ever stop to think that what we are to be, we are fast becoming, and that we become like that which we constantly admire? If one will be thoroughly frank and familiar with himself, he may determine the type, though not degree, of person which he will be in later active life, unless present tendencies are reversed or modified.

Then admitting that we are known to others, and realizing that our position and usefulness in life depends upon our relations with others, it becomes necessary to progress on lines which will be recognized outside of one's own personal preferences.

Every student is daily storing away, either in mind, soul or body, the material out of which his career will be carved and out of which the higher in learning the student is, all the more essential is the proposition of providing the usable material.

Don't deny yourself of the valuable association with friends and student activities and don't fail to unite with the forces which make for the lasting good. Harmonize with the spirit that marks progress, and refuse to pass through the institution without being thoroughly touched with the ideals that endure, even when laid bare to the world. Discover yourself, and then let your own life be the structure of your taste as an architect.

GRAND STAND STUFF

Did you ever go to a football game and see, this sort of thing? A shriveled up shrimp rattling around in sailor pants in an excessive con coat, telling the world in no uncertain terms what he would do if he were down there in the field; one of those fellows who, if he hadn't heavy buttons on his coat, the cruel wind would have disposed of long ago. Yet, there he sits and criticizes some chap down on the field who has just had three teeth knocked out, two ribs twisted, an eye gouged and had a kick on the chin.

College—an institution which operates in conjunction with a football team, with the assistance of the basketball, track and baseball squads. Character is power; is influence! It makes friends, creates funds, draws patronage and support, and opens an easy way to wealth, honor and happiness.—J. Hawes.

being won from a grandstand, yet it is the grandstanders who make the noise, while the players either win or lose the game and take the bumps. They go home limping and they don't tell Mama and Papa anything about it all, but listen quietly while the folks give them blazes for getting all smashed up, and refuse to talk about the game.

So it is in war, business, law, medicine and the great game of life. The chap looking on can tell you what a fool the fellow in the ring is, but put the grandstander in there and tell him to carry on and, as a general rule, he wakes up in a wooden overcoat with a granite paperweight properly marked with his name and last address resting heavily on his chest.

HALF-MINUTE EDITORIALS

Prejudice is opinion without judgment. The best way to teach virtue is to live it. Success treads on every right step.—Emerson. The world is a row that is hard to milk.—Thoreau. Be truthful, we always weaken when we exaggerate.—La Harpe. Give every man thine ear, but few thy voice.—Shakespeare.

CHERI CASA COLYUM

The latest rough element in Cheri Casa is the dormitory cow. Joe Anderson tried massaging her outside plumbing last week and received a jolt that he will possibly remember for at least twenty minutes. She sure is a tough egg and the boss is the only one that can fool with her.

Leslie Easers latest flame is a little girl named Beth or something like that. I can't get the lowdown on him cause he talks about her in his sleep and his articulation is poor. Curtis Reese is paying the way to great things. To hear him tell it, his line is so smooth that the girls don't know just what it all about until it's too late and then they don't care much.

Mis-Concentration

By That Chamberlain Girl Just 11:30, ad gee, but I'm hungry. Won't the English class ever end? I don't see how anyone is expected to learn anything on an empty stomach, anyway. Huh, environment must tell 'cause it's empty stomach, empty mind with me. I wonder what kind of beans they will give us today? Hope we will have some more of that good old chocolate pie. Why, I bet that I could eat almost a dozen slices of that stuff and still leave the table hungry. Whew! I'm just absolutely starving. Think I'll start eating bread.

Studes Informed On Library Regulations

The attention of the students is called to the following points in regard to the Library. Library books are divided into three groups: 1. Reference books which may be consulted only in the Library. 2. Books which may be borrowed for home use for a period of two weeks, used only in the Library except when loaned for use over night or over Sundays or holidays.

EL TORO

Who was the fair coed we heard hollering for Red Keith (pride of Canyon). We thought she was 100 per cent Tech, but now we wonder? From all reports there aren't going to be many studs left at Tech next week-end, holidays sure makes us think of home. Mr. B. F. Condesy of the Government office called at the Post Office for his mail. The new postmistress asked impatiently if he was a freshman or a sophomore.

DOAK HALL DOINGS

Doak Hall girls don't eat noon, just a cheese sandwich now and then. Goober disappeared Saturday and didn't return until Tuesday. We found out later that she had just been home. Lately Sis has been acting rather queer. For example, reading with her book upside down and staring into space with dreamy eyes. We can't imagine what's the matter, she has always been up to now, a sensible innocent girl. Shannon's latest crush is another Prof. Wonder who it can be this time? Wonder why Sally likes Doak so well? She has been staying in all week. All upstairs is rejoicing upon the return of Maggie and Grace to their midst. A feast was held the same night and two days were spent in their rooms following. Miss Wilson found them out. Ask them if they are sorry they moved up.

COLLEGE INN COLYUM

I'll talk about Ella's birthday now, for I was born yesterday. I'm a telling you. We don't know how old she was, cause as Cousin Agnes let out inadvertently like she bribed her mother to leave the candles off just this once, but never-the-less it surely was a big feed she got from home. Long live Ella, and to a mighty woman, may she grow old.

THEY'RE PRETTY TO LOOK AT FROM A DISTANCE

Porch Swings, Moon and Dates are in Vogue

Well, Mr. Editor, I and she wuz sittin' in th' ole porch swing—the tattered piazza barque wot had toiled many a turbulent couple through a stormy nite—when ye late skipper came in possession of a shippie to disseminate on wot 'pears to be man's chiefest perplexin' problem.

I wuzt persued English books with a intent of vocabularizin myself for a journalist career, but on a nuther that I concluded that as English is jest a attempt to lose your own individuality by acquirin' other viewpoints I woud rather be a Ph. wot cud actually Ph.

In this dissertat, it is my dooty to philosophize on wot's man's Jonah, which is wimmin. I don't know nuth about 'em 'ceptin' that I have saw Now, D. Webster's lexicon quotes Ika Oroelast's definition as to how philosophy is th' application of reason to things unreasonab, wch presumption bids fare to closely inclinate itself en toto to th' subject of this jingle. Wimmin is critters uv th' fimmale gender. Some is proofs—those sometimes indispensable and sometimes negligible considerations in a college career—wch group is usually diversified in type. Per instinct, there is th' sociological inst wot is out and out a sarcastic cynic wch assumes a colly calculatin scrutiny, wch is afraid of wot its mouth will utter and pounds on th' desk with a mighty reverberant thud, hops around in ekstasy, and assaults the ambient air with vociferous fexetive wch its class holds its breath with horror for fear its first will miss th' desk next time, and then ends the hour's assault with a measure uv remarks about the perspicacity of Masculinity. And wot then finely concludes said Masculinity is th' missin' link twen the monkey and the donkey, wch at this time ain't in no disposition to take issue.

Wimmin is marathon tongue athletes and ain't in no way understandable—some because they got too much sense an' some because they ain't got enuff. Mostly, hits the later i. e., they will go an' pull a bonehead and wen you aks 'em "how cum?" wy they exty distinctly explain "beozz" An' I don't give r'n sports wot yuh do, yuh ain't gonna get no more out a 'em.

As a gal for a date an' she will flip and toss her bobbed heq wot 'pears the forelock of a roached boss th' way in wch they most generally fix their hair an' she will give yuh one if she wants too, no she will say "nax" an' give bit to somebody else of she wasn't too, and she will sweetly tell yuh somethin' about havin' two study after wch she skips away looking as innocent as a new laid egg.

But wot kin yuh expect? She wuz made out a exty r'n ut a man an' bebad if she hain't bin a bone of contention ever since. They is somethin' to fight about if they is a sister, or your wife. In wch later case, they is always somethin' to fight wth.

Yes' read betwixt the lines of th' Good Book, an' see wot transpires. Ol Adam a follin' aroun' th' Garden uv Eden, wantin' sunebuddy to wch he cud talk. Elnely, the Good Lord got tired er follin' wth 'im an' took his stered r'n in th' Garden. He put her down in th' Garden an' tole Adam "Yuh ain't gonna b' lonesome no more but remember yuh brought hit all on yourself, so don't blame me. Woe man! So ever since them daze she wuz called "wo-man," wch wen translated in the vengular means man ain't never jublant no more. Then to illustrate how much she 'preclated old Adam havin' prayed for her, as it wuz, she stole the Lord's best banana an' got Adam bootet out Eden an' completely to lose his job as caretaker, so to speak.

Wth this beginnin' the flimse sex kept r'n on its way down hit's career, runnin' Troy (not the one's in N. Y.) an' gettin' old Mark Anthony in trouble as well as numbers of other guys wch I ain't got no space to enumerate. Queen Lizzie got fummie wth Uncle Philip from Spain, an' he cudn't so much obtain Bicelet's pardon as proceedings beuz the critter woudn't allow Philip to proceed under the benediction of her acts.

Even ol Patrick Henrie, wch wuz a married man, finely give in an' hollered, Gimme liberty or gimme death! He croaked.

Shuz, didn't King Henry, th' atech try an' half doz us the critters wthout no luck? Fer shore and he did. Jone uv Are wuz a typical woman, an' cud uv done somebody happy probably, 'cept uv her curiosity she got two close to th' fire and wuz burned fately.

Yes, wimmin is pretty to look at from a distance.

GRACE

WOMEN ARE GRACEFUL Naturally, what they wear should enhance that grace. Awkward lines, bulkiness, and clumsy patterns are to be avoided.

And they are avoided exquisitely in the new arrivals in wraps. Patterns are daring and modernistic, giving the figure an added liveness. Fabrics are soft to give full play to every supple movement.

Grace, too, is in the silk stockings available in harmonizing tones. These are full-fashioned Gotham Gold Stripe Stockings. Their clinging fit is a joy, the purity of their silk is absolute, and their wear is a revelation.

Matadors Down Buffs In Second Dual Meet

The Matador-track team sprung a surprise on their opponents from the north Saturday and capped the second annual dual meet from the West Texas Buffaloes by a score of 64 to 53. Doped to lose the Tech team put forth extra effort and counted in events which the Buffs had already marked as their own. Percy Walker, although he was beaten in his dashes by Red Keith of the Buffs, was high point man in an easy manner, taking second in the 100 and 220, first in the broad a total of 17 points.

Coch Grady Higginbotham smiled broadly as the various men began to turn better time, distances and heights in the events. Dick Davis rose to the clouds in the pole vault to clear the bar at 12 feet two while the relay team was an easy winner.

SCORE OF EVENTS

120 High Hurdles—Christian, Tech, first; Tadlock, Tech, second. Time 15.7 seconds.

100 Yard Dash—Keith, W. T. S. T. C., first; Walker, Tech, second. Time 9.9 seconds.

1 Mile Run—Turner, W. T. S. T. C., first; Garrett, W. T. S. T. C., second. Time 4 minutes 52.8 seconds.

220 Low Hurdles—Christian, Tech, first; Bennett, W. T. S. T. C., second. Time 25.2 seconds.

440 Yard Dash—Cannon, Tech, first; Gamble, W. T. S. T. C., second. Time 54 seconds.

220 Yard Dash—Keith, W. T. S. T. C., first; Walker, Tech, second. Time 22 seconds.

880 Yard Run—Reagan, W. T. S. T. C., first; Neal, Tech, second. Time 2 minutes 7.2 seconds.

1 Mile Relay—Tech team first; Corley, Cannon, Burroughs and Brown.

2 Mile Run—Ramsey, W. T. S. T. C., first; Crane, W. T. S. T. C., second. Time 12 minutes 5.2 seconds.
