

State Hitting At Browning Murder Denial

COLORADO CITY, May 21.—Through rebuttal witnesses, the state today sought to discredit the categorical denials of Albert Browning, 42, Snyder, that he intentionally shot his wife to death on Feb. 8.

Asked by District Attorney Eldon Mahon "did you shoot your wife?" Browning replied: "I wish I could answer the question to satisfy my own mind. We were scuffling over a gun. Whether she fired or I fired it is something I cannot say. I did not shoot my wife intentionally."

EXES NOW

Diplomas Are Given To 152 Graduates

Public school days were over for 152 boys and girls who assembled at the municipal auditorium Thursday night to receive their diplomas from Big Spring high school.

The auditorium was packed with relatives and friends, who, with the seniors, heard W. R. Smith, vice president of Abilene Christian college speak on "Living Life To The Fullest," and heard two members of the class—Lynn Porter, a girl, and George Oldham, Jr.—give brief inspirational talks.

Announced by High School Principal W. L. Reed as the 1948 honor student was Barbara Olson. The salutatorian was Donnie Reeves, and there were 21 others announced as entries in the National Honor Society by ranking scholastically in the top 15 per cent of the class. These are:

Roy Bailey, Joyce Beene, Nita Betterton, Holly Bird, Telestero Fierro, Tommy Hill, Joyce Howard, Beverly King, Billie Sue Leonard, Rebecca Lloyd, Juanice McKeown, Vivian Middleton, Max Murry, Betty O'Brien, Lynn Porter, Ike Robb, Donnie Roberts, Odell Vincent, Dorothy Wasson, Edith Williams and Wilma Williams.

Special mention was given by Principal Reed also to Jimmy Barkley, who has attended high school here for five years without a day's absence, and to 11 students who received certificates marking completion of diversified occupational courses.

Smith cited for the graduates the goal of real education which he defined as to live harmoniously, helpfully and happily with one's fellow man.

"People have to be right for the world to be right," he said. "We all have to learn the lessons of self-discipline, of composure in time of stress, of faith in the ultimate triumph of good." Life is not simple, he reminded, and must be adaptable to change; it cannot be found, but has to be created.

The college official concluded: "Even though all our dreams do not come true, we must continue to dream; if all our prayers are not answered we must continue to pray; though there may be some who violate that trust, we must trust humanity; though there may be some failures, we must always sow for the harvest; though there

SUSPECT PROVES WOMAN'S POINT

BIRMINGHAM, England, May 21. (U-P)—Trembling, Miss Jane Underhill, 57, told a Birmingham court she sat petrified while a holdup man threatened her with a knife and ransacked her home.

"But," she told the court, "he suddenly turned to me and said: 'I am just as frightened as you are, really.'" There was a thud in the dock. James Battle, 34, accused of the holdup, had fainted.

Taft To Ask Changes In Oleo Bill Despite Protest Letter

WASHINGTON, May 21. (U-P)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said today he intends to press for changes in the House-passed oleo tax repeal bill despite a warning that any revision might kill it.

"That's perfectly silly," Taft commented tartly when reporters told him Rep. Rivers (D-SC), author of the bill, had cautioned against amendments.

Rivers wrote the Senate Finance Committee that, because of a "peculiarity" in House rules, the measure might be scuttled if the Senate sends it back across the capitol for further action.

"They can't tell us what to do," Taft said. He added that the fate of the bill in the House is "their

He said that had he ever thought anything of the kind could have happened that "I would have expected it to be me."

Browning repeatedly told of instances of jealous rages he attributed to his wife, saying that he was obliged to hunt her sometimes four times a year to bring her back home, that she had threatened him on many occasions.

It was his wife, the slain Viola Browning, who broke up his marriage to Ivy Browning in 1946, he said.

Browning denied under cross examination that he had ever beat his wife. When Mahon asked him about the incident in which a son, Dennis Browning, had said the defendant struck Viola Browning over the head with a washboard, Albert Browning replied that it was an accident. He said that his wife had attacked him and in a scuffle the board fell down and struck her.

Maehon wanted to know if the shooting was an accident like the "washboard" occurrence.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stavey, who had been neighbors of the Brownings, testified that on one occasion they could see Browning beating his wife and hearing her scream; that later she had black eyes and bruises. Alfred Browning a state rebuttal witness and cousin to the defendant, said that on one occasion that Albert Browning came to him and asked that he accompany him to San Angelo to beg his wife to return. Alfred said he would not go until he extracted a promise from Albert that he 'Albert' would never again mistreat her.

Charles Lavender, brother-in-law, testified that he had seen her.

Water Use On Increase

Water consumption figures moved upward again Thursday when city pumping facilities moved 3,322,000 gallons, officials reported this morning.

The Thursday volume was handled without taxing production sources, however. The new well in the O'Barr field is helping furnish supplies there, which has resulted in an increase in potential capacity for the pipeline leading to the well field.

Officials were doubtful this morning, however, that a second new test in the O'Barr field would produce sufficient volume to justify pipeline connection and pumping equipment. A test pump there has been able to bring only about 50 gallons per minute to the surface. Considerable difficulty was experienced in drilling the second test when quicksand was reached about two weeks ago. The sand was cased off and deeper hole was made, but only a small amount of water was obtained.

States' Union Shop Laws Are Upheld

WASHINGTON, May 21. (U-P)—The National Labor Relations Board ruled today that it cannot hold union shop elections in 10 states which have bans or regulations covering the subject.

The board issued an administrative order making the ruling. It is based on a majority opinion of three of its five members.

SAY DOOR STILL OPEN

Politicians Wary Of O'Daniel Quitting

AUSTIN, May 21. (U-P)—Most political professionals here today took a "wait and see" attitude toward Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel's announcement that he did not choose to seek election.

Keeping fingers on both hands firmly crossed, they read or listened to his Fort Worth speech, and read hidden meanings into its phrasing or between the lines.

Their frank and off-the-record view was that the junior senator was leaving the door open, not only for running for office in the distant future, but in the near future, if his announced withdrawal stimulated enough demand.

At one place in his speech, he reminded the voters that his address is the Senate Office Building, Washington. He said they could write him and obtain copies of his speech. He didn't say so, but also they could write him and demand that he run again.

Few professional politicians have forgotten that O'Daniel got into his first race after announcing that 50,000 persons had written him demanding that he run for governor. One of the most flat-footed statements in the speech was that he had chosen to get in the race for senator to begin with, and now he was choosing to get out. O'Daniel's political history reflects a remarkable sensitivity to public opinion—he may have felt this wasn't his year in the senatorial race, but a barrage of postcards promising votes might change his mind.

There has been a good deal of talk that O'Daniel was toying with the idea of running for governor. He devoted a considerable portion of his speech to a review of his record as governor, bearing down on the pay-as-you-go constitutional amendment, aid for the old folks, increased state contributions to teacher retirement funds.

Lubbock Bus Strike Called

LUBBOCK, May 21. (U-P)—A threatened strike of bus drivers here tonight would paralyze 90 schedules daily serving every large town in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

A strike affecting all drivers of the Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Coaches in Lubbock has been called for 10:45 p. m.

J. W. Thompson, Kansas City, representative of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, made the announcement yesterday.

The walkout would affect 72 employees. Thompson said the strike was called after several months of futile wage negotiations. The bus drivers are asking an increase from five cents to 6 1/2 cents per mile for men of three years service or more.

Aleman Planning Tour In Mexico

MEXICO CITY, May 21. (U-P)—President Miguel Aleman is tentatively planning an early June trip up the Pan-American Highway through Northeastern Mexico, informed government sources said today.

There was no official confirmation.

The sources said the president hopes to attend the June 6 inauguration at Saltillo of Coahuila Governor-elect Raul Lopez Sanchez. He may take advantage of the trip to throw the first switches at a new Torreón electric power plant, inaugurate the Ciudad Victoria-Matamoros Highway and visit Nuevo Laredo on the U. S. border for the city's centennial celebration.

U. S. Retaliates For Russians' German Clamp

Border-Crossing Is Restricted For Reds, Too

BERLIN, May 21. (AP)—United States occupation authorities retaliated today against Russian border-crossing taboos. They restricted the entry of Soviet missions to the American zone of Germany to a single frontier point.

American officials said last night's ruling was made by European Command Headquarters at Frankfurt because the Russians decreed that the American military mission stationed at Potsdam could cross into the Soviet zone only at Helmstedt.

The Americans responded by notifying members of the four Russian missions in the U. S. zone that they, too, could cross only at Helmstedt.

Helmstedt is in the British zone on the Soviet border and is on the highway linking Berlin with the west.

The American mission previously was allowed to cross the Soviet zone border at any point.

American authorities emphasized that the action does not mean a closing of the border between the U. S. and Soviet zones.

They called it merely a reciprocal move affecting only official Soviet missions.

The American Military Government in Berlin announced that Germans in the U. S. sector will be "protected against molestation and intimidation" by persons seeking signatures for a Communist-inspired national plebiscite on a unified Germany.

Rail Union Head Is Hit

CLEVELAND, May 21. (U-P)—Alvanley Johnston, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, was accused yesterday of "trying to break a strike."

The accusation came from William Finegan, secretary of the AFL Cleveland Federation of Labor, in connection with the five-day-old strike of 32 maids and elevator operators at the Park Lane villa. The brotherhood owns the villa.

"He (Johnston) is trying to break the strike by inserting ads in the newspapers offering jobs," said Finegan in a CFL meeting.

"He said before the strike began

WASHINGTON, May 21. (U-P)—Negotiations to settle the 11-month-old railroad labor dispute broke up in failure today.

Workers who struck would not be returned to their jobs and now he is going through with this plan through these ads."

Finegan said he had tried to reach Johnston on the telephone but that Johnston hadn't paid him the courtesy of talking with him.

Johnston, who was in Washington for another conference on settling a dispute between the railroad brotherhoods and the railroads, could not be reached for comment.

Park Lane villa strikers want six-months retroactive pay and a union shop. They are members of the Building Service Union (AFB).

Plagued By Locusts

MEXICO CITY, May 21. (U-P)—The Agricultural Department said last night it had received messages from Guatemala that large swarms of locusts had entered that country from Honduras.

Between the gold and zinc and up to the dial.

The next two steps are technical, and about as hard to understand as why the old dowser's twig bent downward. They include adding an electroline to the water in the well and then withdrawing some of the same.

After that comes the magic. As the dowser fork goes down the well, it shows the point or points at which water is entering. And it shows how much water is entering at each point. All this takes place in water that may be a mile or more underground, and right in the water. That is, the inflow of water may be well below the top of the water level. Even if the water is pouring in at several points the dowser locates them all and tells how much at each one. This information enables the driller to know where to seal the well to get rid of the water.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT

Vote May Bring Meat Strike End

The possible end of the prolonged meat strike and removal of a strike threat at International Harvester Company plants were bright spots in the nation's industrial strife today.

Results of the vote by the striking CIO Packinghouse Workers on whether to end their 67-day old strike were expected to be announced today at the union's national headquarters in Chicago.

Herbert March, strike director, predicted the vote to end the work stoppage on company terms will favor return to all plants except Wilson and Company. He predicted a close vote for returning to work at plants of three other major packers—Swift, Cudahy and Armour.

The estimated 100,000 striking Packinghouse Workers voted last night on acceptance of a nine-cent hourly pay boost, retroactive to the March 16 strike call; retention of all seniority rights and arbitration with the companies on possible discharge of workers accused of unlawful acts during the strike.

In Washington, John L. Lewis was asked by the soft coal operators to resume contract negotiations which broke down Wednesday.

The United Mine Workers president did not immediately reply to the invitation.

Rath Workers Are Threatened

NATIONAL GUARDSMEN stood alert with fixed bayonets today to assure protection for non-striking workers returning to their jobs at the Rath Packing Company plant here.

A number of the workers had reported to police yesterday that they had received anonymous telephone threats that "If you think anything of your home, you'd better not go to work."

However, Major Roy L. Stephenson, deputy commander of the National Guard units who took over the plant yesterday morning after a riot which followed the shooting of a CIO United Packinghouse Workers union picket, said "We are prepared to guard the safety of the workers going to and from the plant."

The picket who was killed was William J. Farrell, 40. A woman picket, Margaret Draheim, 34, was wounded in the shoulder in the shooting affray.

SCIENTIFIC 'TWIG'

Robot Dowser Can Find Water Source

TULSA, Okla., May 21. (U-P)—A robot dowser, which detects underground water much like the human dowsers used to do it with a forked stick, is one of the new things at the International Petroleum Exposition.

This water locator is shown by the Dowell Company of Tulsa.

The robot dowser like the old stick, also has a forked end. One leg of this fork is a strip of gold and the other a strip of zinc. The dowsers said their forked sticks bent irresistibly downward when passing above underground water.

The gold-zinc fork does the trick electrically. The fork is lowered down a well in a steel housing. An insulated wire runs from each metal strip to the top of the well, to join in a meter there.

Jewish Rabbis Order Prayers For Holy City

Trans-Jordan Hurls Armor At Strongholds

By The Associated Press

The violent battle for the old walled city of Jerusalem appeared about ended today, with the Arabs claiming 80 per cent of the sacred area.

Jews in Tel Aviv expressed increasing fears. Rabbis ordered prayers for Jerusalem.

The British-trained Arab Legion of Trans-Jordan hurled armored strength and artillery against the last Jewish strongholds in the Holy City.

Haganah and Irgun Zvai Leumi troops were driven back to a thin line of defense along the west side of the Jewish quarter. They held up a last stand in the Beit Yaacov of Hurva Synagogue where the Arabs captured the Tiferet Israel Synagogue, Jerusalem's tallest structure, to the east.

The loss of Jerusalem would be a serious blow to the Jews. Defense forces were estimated by the Arabs to number 8,000, a considerable chunk of the army of Israel, estimated at about 50,000. Besides 50,000 Jewish civilians are in the city, which stands as a great road block on the main Arab east-west and north-south supply lines.

Jewish planes attacked the Arabs in the Gaza coastal area south of Tel Aviv and at Shu'fat, north of Jerusalem. Egyptian planes raided Tel Aviv four times yesterday and the Jews indignantly said four British Spitfire fighters flew over the capital during one of the attacks. The Jews bombed Samakh, south of the Sea of Galilee, yesterday.

Boys Use Plan In Comic Book To Fly Plane

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 21. (U-P)—Two fifth-graders who studied flying in comic books confessed to the state patrol last night they piloted a stolen plane almost to Texas.

"There is no doubt about it," the patrol said.

The plane was a two-place Ercole with simplified controls advertised as nearly fool-proof.

"They said it was easy," Trooper Arch Hamilton said.

"They'd looked at some comic books that told all about it. They thought we were silly not to know how."

"They made a perfect landing." Astonishment at the 120-mile flight—air distance—almost drowned out talk of a juvenile court hearing tomorrow morning.

"It's incredible. I am astounded. This is more than mere mischief," one of the fathers, Attorney Burney P. Bodard, said.

The grade-school aviators are Jimmy Bodard, 11, and Robert Ronald Peterson, 12. Both families are prominent here. Robert, the largest, weighs 85 pounds.

Jimmy and Robert played hooky from school Monday, and were reported missing the next day. Tuesday night they were picked up in the little western Oklahoma town of Cheyenne, due west of here and 18 miles from the Texas Panhandle. They told a likely story of hitch-hiking by road, and Wednesday their folks brought them back home.

But yesterday the sheriff of Roger Mills County found the Ercole abandoned in a field eight miles northwest of Cheyenne.

WILL BACKS WORLD PEACE

LONG BEACH, Calif., May 21. (U-P)—World peace was worth $70,000 personally to Elbert L. Durham. Durham, a former Tenn. farmer, left that amount in government bonds to the U. S. Treasury "to promote the cause of world peace," it was disclosed yesterday when his will was filed for probate.

Durham, a bachelor, came here 10 years ago from Sharon, Tenn. He died May 13 at the age of 82.

The rest of his estate, valued at about $27,500, was bequeathed to relatives.

Know More Of Our Curriculum

One of the passing criticisms leveled at the high school is the popular notion it is utterly devoid of vocational training. The certification of 14 students from the trades and industries class ought to be occasion for a reminder that while our vocational set-up is far from what most of us would like, it certainly isn't non-existent by any means.

Take the case of these 14 young men and women. For the past two years they have been spending half a day on the job in some local establishment, the other half in the classroom on related course of study. Consequently, they have put in 2,450 hours of classroom work and two or three times that on the job. It's no surprise they graduate right into regular jobs.

If 14 students were all that were reached by a vocational program, it would stand indicted per se. In the year just past, vocational agriculture, certainly a subject adapted to this area, was offered for the first time. Commercial subjects, as they have for the past quarter of a century at least, have had good enrollment and some excellent results. Beyond that, numbers of young women have had good experiences in their homemaking courses, definitely vocational as well as domestic.

So in looking toward a point of action, let's plug for expansion into manual arts as rapidly as finances will permit. Meantime, let's see that more and more people know about the opportunities already available.

Situation Is Getting Bad

Local livestock markets are experiencing heavy volumes these days. Under ordinary circumstances, this might presage a generous supply with lowered prices.

But no ordinary circumstances exist. One effect is that at the moment we are experiencing a period of apparent plenty in beef, although the price continues firm to higher. The prospect is for less and less meat and higher and higher prices.

This is the sort of thing we were told would not happen were price control and rationing lifted, and had conditions remained normal, this might have had at least a sporting trial.

The thing which is causing the greatest degree of concern is protracted drought. It all started last year. The first big blow was in the corn belt when prolonged floods and cold, followed by tenacious drought, cut the crop far short. Naturally, this discouraged feed lot operations and practically eliminated finished beef from the market.

From mid-year on, the great cattle breeding belt of the Southwest has been in the grips of a severe drought. There was a period of unloading last autumn which flushed the market about the time the so-called recession on the commodity market occurred, but it didn't last. The drought did and it still persists. Consequently, stockmen are steadily reducing their stocking. So long as the shortage was confined to feed lots it was no more than serious, but when the breeding grounds are being bled white, the situation is becoming critical.

Tarts, Darts And Dashes

One nice thing about a one-way street is that you can only be bumped from the rear.

It is as hard for a rich man to enter heaven as it is for a poor man to live on earth.

Women who really know how to raise children are too busy to tell.

Correct this sentence: "We want you to be chairman; you won't have much to do."

Truth is best understood by those who have experienced its value.

Thank goodness there are still a few people who can radiate friendship and conversation without running for office.

Texas Today—

Defenders Of Boot

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD

No chamber of commerce ever touted a town so expertly as the Madisonville Sidewalk Cattlemen's Association has plugged Madisonville, Tex.

Operating strictly with ideas, the association has consistently drawn national attention to the quiet, pleasant, undistinguished county seat of Madison County in East Central Texas.

Current project of the association is to bring to Texas the out-of-state war veteran who hates the Lone Star State most—and change his mind. Winner of a national contest and chosen as Texas Hater No. 1, Ray F. Holloran of Cincinnati, Ohio, lands at Houston today and will be subjected to entertainment and hospitality in every section of the state.

This is typical of what the cowboy association tries to do—get a newsworthy idea and back it up with money.

President of the group since it was organized in 1939, Dr. J. B. Heath told us:

"We started the association to provide a little humor to combat the tension of war nerves."

Stated purpose of the organization is to control the wearing of cowboy boots. Its slogan: "Cowboy boots for cattle owners only."

Here are the rules: If you own two head of cattle you are entitled to wear boots. If you own three, you are entitled to stuff the right pant leg in your boot. The owner of four head can stuff both pants legs in and the owner of six can wear spurs.

On many occasions the association has threatened boot-wearing, cattle-less celebrities with a ducking in Madisonville's horse trough should they venture to Madison County. It should be stated, however, that the extreme penalty, so far, has been to make the culprit buy drinks for everyone within yelling distance—and remove the boots.

H. B. Fox, former Madisonville newspaperman and now a resident of Granger, helps provide the cattlemen with ideas. Once a little girl in Boston couldn't find a pair of cowboy boots for a school entertainment. She wrote the sidewalk cattlemen a letter. They bought her the boots, flew her to Texas, and made her honor guest at their annual barbecue.

Madisonville has a population of 2,095, Madison County, 12,029. The association has 4,000 active members, all of whom pay dues of $1 per year. When real money is needed, the group throws a dinner or a barbecue. There'll be plenty of money to care for the Ohio veterinarian—the cattlemen are giving a dinner and the tickets are selling for $25 each.

The tickets, printed on leather, are going like hotcakes. One that was bought for $25 worth of food." Heath smiled, "but this county knows a good cause when it sees one."

Notebook—

Malmedy Massacre

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, May 21.—Where does war end and murder begin? That question is posed today by a stalwart six-foot-two-inch former adjutant of Heinrich Himmler—Col. Joachim Peiper, who might in time have taken Adolf Hitler's place.

This handsome Nazi soldier—still only 33 years old—is one of 43 German SS troops condemned to death on charges of murdering 750 American soldiers and 150 Belgian civilians during the Battle of the Bulge.

Among the victims were more than 70 unarmed members of a U. S. artillery observation battalion, shot down in the infamous "Malmedy massacre."

The death sentences for Peiper and his pals were passed by an international court sitting at Dachau, where the trial judge for hundreds of thousands of German concentration camp prisoners had been the gas chamber.

There was no appeal from the gas chamber. The sentences against the Nazi storm-troopers were appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court which refused to review it on a 4-to-4 decision that it had no jurisdiction.

This only points up again the legal difficulties in assessing war guilt.

Meanwhile Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall has ordered a stay of execution against 17 of the condemned men pending investigation of charges the Nazis had been beaten and forced to confess at "mock" trials in prison by American prosecutors.

The case has an added interest because Peiper was a bold and outstanding soldier for whom some American commanders profess a reluctant off-the-record admiration.

They don't condone the crimes committed by his men. They do recognize his leadership in battle. It is hard to remove the "Malmedy massacre" from the scene and the time—and the feeling at that time. I have heard some American officers say it has been overemphasized because an armored column on the march sometimes has to execute prisoners because it has no way to pass them but can't let them go to signal their own troops ahead.

"I WANT A LIVE ONE"

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Long Makes Campaign Backer Solon

WASHINGTON.—It will be interesting to see what the Senate does about the seating of William Feazel, appointed to the vacancy left by the late Senator Overton of Louisiana by Governor Earl Long.

Two aspects of Mr. Feazel's career are interesting. One is the large amount of cash he contributed to Governor Long's campaign. Second is a grand jury proceeding held by Assistant Attorney General John Rogge in 1939 showing that Feazel was involved in a big gas deal with Governor Dick Leche, who served a jail term in connection with another matter.

Louisiana politics say that Mr. Feazel was by all odds the largest contributor to Gov. Long's campaign—donated over $200,000. Louisiana, incidentally, isn't bothered about limits to state campaign contributions.

In the past, the Senate has been cranky about large amounts of money influencing senatorial elections. Senator Smith of Illinois was denied a seat when his campaign contributions went over $100,000. Senator Lorimer of Illinois was not seated for the same reason. Senator Newberry of Michigan finally resigned from the Senate while his colleagues were probing his large campaign gifts, and Senator Vare of Pennsylvania was denied his seat when his gifts ran around $200,000.

All these were Republicans. Now comes a Democrat who was not running for office but helped hand-somely to put a governor in office. Then that governor turns round and puts his chief monetary benefactor in the Senate. A Republican Senate may want to think this over.

On top of this is the fact that when the Justice Department was probing the Louisiana scandals, John Rogge unearthed the fact that $125,000 had been paid by United Gas Improvement Corp., an Electric Bond and Share subsidiary, to Tom Hill, a big New Orleans gambler, who in turn passed part of the money on to Governor Dick Leche, part to Louisiana's new senator, William Feazel, and kept part for himself.

Reason for this unusually large payment by a big corporation to three interesting Louisiana figures never was revealed. For about that time Roosevelt threw cold water on the Louisiana probe. However, the present Republican Senate may want to continue the unfinished story of Louisiana where the Justice department left off.

NOTE.—Governor Long would like to appoint his nephew Russell Long, eldest son of the late Huey Long, to the Senate. But Russell is only 29, and under the law a U. S. senator must be thirty. Therefore it's reported that Feazel will make way or Russell later.

MODEST MIKE MONRONEY. It was like Congressman Mike Monroney of Oklahoma never to breathe a word about the fact that President Truman offered him the job of secretary of agriculture. However, he did—just after Clinton Anderson resigned.

It was also like Monroney that he turned the offer down. His refusal was on the very simple ground that he didn't know enough about agriculture or the farmers' point of view.

"All my life," he told Truman, "I have spent defending the consumer and thinking about his point of view. Therefore, I just wouldn't be a good man to champion the farmers."

So, without saying a word to anyone, Monroney, one of the most respected men in Congress, has gone back to the job of battling for his constituents.

NOTE.—Monroney comes from Oklahoma City, where oil wells almost sprout from city streets. Yet during the war he had the courage to fight the oil lobby's clamor for increased prices. Came elections, and the oil lobby tried to get revenge, but the people of Oklahoma City voted for Monroney's courage even though they didn't all agree with him.

LEWIS'S CAPTIVE SENATOR. John L. Lewis has sometimes been labeled the big steel companies for having "captive" coal mines, but it looks as if John now had a "captive" senator—namely, Eugene Millikin of Colorado.

For months Millikin has been blocking Senate confirmation of Dr. James Boyd as chief of the Bureau of Mines, due to the fact that John L. Lewis is opposed. Boyd was former dean of the Colorado School of Mines and cleared with Millikin before his appointment. The Interior Department phoned Millikin, asked if he objected to Boyd—they come from the state—and Millikin said O.K.

That, however, was before the Colorado Republican knew John L. Lewis was opposed. Lewis named the last director of the Bureau of Mines, Dr. R. R. Sayers, also had his own brother planted inside the bureau at a juicy salary until Secretary of the Interior Krug cleaned them both out. But now with Senator Millikin's help Lewis wants his control back again.

NOTE.—Dr. Boyd, who has several children, has been patriotically serving the government without pay since last summer. Lewis hopes he will soon be started out.

TYDINGS' BROTHER-IN-LAW. When Senator Tydings of Maryland, Democrat, rose on the Senate floor to oppose the confirmation of Oklahoma's Jess Larson for the thankless job of War Assets Administrator, he claimed he had absolutely no personal interest in the matter. Among other things, Tydings supposedly had no interest in American Potash, the company which Larson ruled against when it sought to buy the government's kalumite plant in Utah.

However, here is what Tydings did not tell his fellow senators: Tydings' brother-in-law, former Brig. Gen. John M. Eager, happens to represent the Heyden Chemical Corporation, a large stockholder of American Potash. Furthermore, it was Eager who actually signed the letters on behalf of American Potash protesting the fact that it did not get the kalumite plant.

Yet Tydings said he had no personal interest in the matter. Perhaps in Maryland a brother-in-law isn't considered personal.

Young Jarman Wants To Be Footballer

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD.—Young Claude Jarman, the memorable Jody of "The Yearling," indicates that a life-long film career is not for him. Claude's ambition is to study agriculture and play football at the University of Tennessee and he's aiming at that goal. Now five-foot-seven and approaching high school, he still has a few years of film work left.

The lad is now cavorting with Lassie in "Sun in the Morning." His next film probably will be "The Secret Garden," to be made in England with Margaret O'Brien and Dean Stockwell. That's the picture which has been on the fire for a couple of years, and if MGM doesn't hurry, it will have to be made as an adult story. The kids are aging.

Fred Astaire happened to remark to Irving Berlin: "I suppose now that you've had 'Alexander's Ragtime Band' 'Blue Skies' and 'Easter Parade,' you'll undoubtedly have a picture called 'White Christmas.'" So the tunesmith whipped up one and Fred and Bing will star in it at Paramount next year.

Fred wrote Bing: "I suppose you will have another string of night clubs (as he did in 'Holiday Inn' and 'Blue Skies'). Only this time there'll be snow on the ground."

Says David Niven: "People in Hollywood worry too much, and it doesn't help a bit. You're either going to work, or not work." He has reason not to worry—rank, Korda and Warner are all seeking his services this summer. Korda is the apparent winner; after "Take Three Tenses," Niven sails to London for another "Scarlet Pimpernel."

Clark Gable's European jaunt is in doubt. "Command Decision" is taking longer than he expected. And with all the Hollywood people planning summer trips abroad, Clark says "Europe will look like the Sunset Strip."

Hollywood confusion: MGM is now filming "Connec'ticut Yankee" with Jane Ailstone. Last year, Para

Affairs Of The World—

Religious Stand

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Foreign Affairs Analyst. From the sturdy land of Highlands and Purple Heather, where folk r-r-roll their R's and r-r-remember the Sabbath, comes word that the Scottish Association of the Lord's Day Observance Society has sent Prime Minister Attlee a telegram recording in part:

"We feel constrained to express our profound regret that the itinerary arranged for their royal highnesses, Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh (Prince Philip), while on their official visit to Paris, included attendance at racing, theatre and night club dancing during the Lord's Day."

"Too strong mustard?" Well, whether we agree with this rebuke, or feel that it's a wee bit austere, there are many people who will find it encouraging to encounter such a staunch stand for religion, especially in the face of the world-wide Communist drive to deprive humanity of a God.

Of course, probably nobody claims that the charming lady, who one day likely will be queen, and her husband committed any terrible sin by their activities on Sunday. However, members of the royal family do have a mighty influence on the habits of the rank and file, and must expect criticism at times. For royalty isn't immune from the afflictions of ordinary man, as witness that Princess Margaret Rose, sister of the heiress presumptive to the throne, is suffering with measles.

The Scots as a whole are intensely religious. The Sabbath is a day for worship and contemplation. Scots who believe in the old time religion have no place for sports or recreation on Sunday.

But that religious austerity isn't confined to Scotland. You find the same things in parts of England. Down in the picturesque old fishing village of St. Ives, on the southwest coast, the fisher-folk take their religion so seriously that they won't even permit visitors to break the Sabbath. For example I have known the fishermen to stop a woman from knitting on the rocks by the sea, and a man artist who was painting beside the water was thrown into it.

The Nation Today—

Stalin Answered

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Premier Josef Stalin has listed 11 major problems he thinks this country and Russia can sit down and talk about.

To this idea, the State Department has said in effect: "Wait a minute. Not so fast. They're not a few problems. They're old ones. Let's look at the record on each one."

Henry Wallace, third party presidential candidate, in an open letter to Stalin had listed a number of problems which he said should be a starting point for American-Russian peace talks.

Stalin chose 11 problems from the Wallace list and, in a public reply, said yes, indeed, they would be good starting points.

Below are the 11 Stalin-Wallace points: Following each is the State Department's explanation.

1. Nations should reduce their armaments.—The United Nations has been considering this since 1945. Result: zero.

2. International control of atomic weapons.—The U. S. offered UN a plan. Russia didn't agree, offered ideas of its own. The U. S. blames Russia for blocking a solution.

3. Reaching a German peace settlement.—The U. S. blames Russia for blocking this.

4. Reaching a Japanese peace settlement.—No real peace talks on Japan have begun. The U. S. wanted the talks handled one way, Russia another, China another. Eight nations mixed up in the Japanese peace talks agreed with the U. S. Result: zero.

5. Getting troops (meaning U. S. troops) out of China.—There are no Russian troops in China but there are about 5,500 American soldiers, sailors and marines there. Why? The Chinese government requested them.

6. Getting troops (U. S. and Russian) out of Korea.—The UN had a plan for getting both nations' troops out. Russia has blocked this by refusing to cooperate.

7. Respecting other nations' rights and not interfering in their internal business.—(The State Department is vague on this. It says the facts are too well-known to be repeated.)

8. It's wrong to set up military bases in member countries of the UN.—The UN knows where we have set up bases. We've told UN it's all in keeping with UN rules and regulations. We've set up bases only in those countries which said we could.

9. Developing international trade.—After two big international conferences—at Geneva and Havana in 1947 and 1948—the U. S. and 54 other nations signed agreements for better world trade. Russia refused to take part.

10. Helping countries which suffered from the war.—

This Judge Had Special Interest

Mercury in the political thermometer is beginning to move upward now, but there is plenty of evidence to indicate that the general public will maintain interest in other affairs until the late innings of the campaign.

It seems that one of the first to be alerted to this condition was Senator Glen Taylor, who has fused his political ambitions with those of Henry Wallace. However, it is possible that the Senator failed to detect what some observers believe was the most significant development during his recent escapade in Alabama.

Senator Taylor no doubt was bent on gobbling up space in the public press. If that was the chief objective of his trip to Alabama, he had cause to send Wallace a telegram with the brief message "mission accomplished." Or, if economy entered his thoughts he could have merely proceeded on his way and let Wallace read about it in the papers. Speculation on how Wallace got the word is of little concern at this late hour, however, especially since on unobtrusive incident in Birmingham police court has been disclosed.

Needless to say, Judge Oliver Hall was intensely interested in the Taylor case, and it is doubtful that more than a few publicized political figures could have claimed more attention in the court proceedings than Senator Taylor himself. But Judge Hall had other interests, one of which could not be crowded out for long by the third party vice-presidential candidate. To the judge it was worth the time to scribble a hasty note which he handed to reporters in the courtroom. He requested the score on the Birmingham-Chattanooga baseball game. When that information was furnished the trial of Taylor's case proceeded.

Today And Tomorrow—

Unity Drive In Europeans

By WALTER LIPPMANN

"But our aim here," said Mr. Churchill to the Congress of Europe, "is not confined to western Europe. We seek nothing less than all Europe."

Is this a dream? Or is it an aim which responsible governments in Europe can take seriously, and which this country can support?

If we think of the unification of Europe in terms of a federal union comparable to our own in its integration and centralization of authority, we cannot, I think, in any near future expect to see it achieved. Even the Benelux nations have not yet in fact resolved the disparities of their currencies and their prices and terms of trade. The British dilemma, as between their role in Europe and their interests in the Commonwealth and Empire, is not in sight of being resolved. The sense of a common European destiny is indeed thin and abstract as between the progressive countries of northern Europe, the Scandinavians, the Dutch and the Belgians on the one hand and on the other the countries of the Balkan and Iberian peninsulas.

Nevertheless, once every allowance has been made for the divisions, there is almost certainly a deep and growing feeling all over the continent that somehow all of Europe has a common interest in becoming an independent great power in the world. It is to this feeling that Mr. Churchill, with his genius for discerning the reality of things, addressed himself. It is the feeling, of course, that the domination of Europe, or of any large part of it, by Russia is in the end intolerable; that it would be intolerable even if Russia were not Communist, even if Russia were not a police state.

Though it is impossible to prove it, I think it is true that in eastern Europe—I am thinking particularly of Poland and Czechoslovakia—the greatest and strongest and most genuine sentiment is not pro-Communism or anti-Communism but nationalism rooted in religion and in history, which causes almost all Poles and Czechs to identify their patriotism with membership in the community of Europe. The issue is deeper than whether industries shall be nationalized or the land redistributed, far deeper than whether they shall remain within the Russian diplomatic orbit. It is whether the regime of their lives shall conform with what they are and have been throughout their history—nations belonging to European civilization and not to an alien civilization which has had its center in Byzantium, St. Petersburg, and Moscow.

But it is not only this feeling that Russia is an intruder in Europe which possesses the nations of Europe. In a different way they feel also that their dependence upon America for sustenance, rehabilitation, and protection is, however necessary today, in the long run intolerable. If they cannot be slaves to Russian despotism neither can they be the clients of the American republic. We must welcome that feeling, which is general in Europe, and most emphatic among those Europeans with whom we are most closely associated. If this feeling did not exist, the best hope of the European Recovery Program would be doomed to frustration.

The unifying sentiment of the Europeans is not Socialism or anti-Communism but the will to be masters of their own continent, to be independent again, and to be not the stakes of Soviet-American diplomacy—but to be a power in their own right in order to decide the fate of Europe and the destiny of the world. This sentiment, which springs from their dignity and the remembrance of their historic greatness, is fortified today by the fear that if they do not intervene in the diplomatic struggle, their continent will become a battlefield on which non-European powers fight a ruthless war.

Identity Mistake May Give Convict Freedom Again

PHILADELPHIA, May 21. (Sp)—A case of mistaken identity may free 35-year old Howard Smith from Holmesburg Prison.

Smith has served two years on larceny charge. But Tuesday Mrs. Areda Woodward faced him in police court and said:

"I am sorry but I made a mistake when I identified you as one of the men who took my money."

It was on the identification of Mrs. Woodward that Smith and Edward Bryant were convicted of tricking the woman out of $112 in a confidence game.

Smith denied the charges but received no support from Bryant. Before Bryant's recent death in prison he gave Smith the nickname and description of his accomplice.

The police permitted Smith to examine the records but he found no trace of the man.

Last month in Holmesburg Prison, Smith spotted 42-year old Foy Faison in the exercise yard. Faison was serving time on a separate larceny charge.

County Prison Agent Charles M. Gibbs said Smith raised such a racket they took both of them to city hall. There Mrs. Woodward identified Faison as the man who had tricked her.

Pending trial of Faison both men were returned to prison but Gibbs said:

"We're going to take steps immediately to have Smith freed. It is clearly a case of mistaken identity."

Steeds Return Home To Face Ballinger Felines Tonight

Abilene Loses Double Bill

Pat Stacey and his Big Spring baseball Broncs limp into the village tonight to begin a five-day home stand, licking their wounds from the effects of a disastrous road trip that saw them lose four contests in five starts.

Guests of the aroused Hosse tonight will be the harassed Ballinger Cats, who of late have been battered by the Longhorn pace setters, the Vernon Dusters. Starting time of tonight's adventure is 8:15 p. m.

Roland Viadors, who should be fresh as the proverbial daisy after a week's rest, is set to mount the knoll for the Cayuses this evening.

MIDLAND, May 21—Jimmy Perez, who has been in dry dock for nearly a month, mesmerized the Midland Indians to lead his Big Spring Broncs to a well-earned 6-1 triumph in the final of a two-game series here Thursday night.

Perez had the Tribe eating out of his hand from the first stanza on and his mates gave him ample support.

Leland Crissman, recruit from Marshall, hurled most creditably for the Wigwag but he was victimized by seven Midland misplays four of them by Rip Collins, second sacker. Clyde Perry, who was filling in at short stop for Henry Melillo, contributed two bunts, Eddie Melillo another.

Crissman whiffed an even dozen of the Bronc hitters. His double scored the only Midland run. He limited the Hosse to five safeties and did not give up an earned run.

Pat Stacey drove home two Big Spring tallies with a two-baser.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Big Spring high school finished a lagging last in the District 3AA baseball standings this spring but Coach Conn Isaacs can look to a more successful 1949, if the boys he has coming back perform up to par.

The offense of the 1949 squad will be built around hefty Donnie Carter, a first baseman-pitcher who hit in the neighborhood of .406 in league play.

Carter was such a threat at the plate, the opposing flingers usually walked him when there were men on base, if a run or two meant the difference between victory and defeat.

Besides Carter, back next year will be Howard Jones, an infielder-outfielder-pitcher who someday would like to play professional ball; Howard Washburn, one of the brightest prospects in 3AA play this year; Virgil Rountree, who threatens to become as good a hitter as Carter; Ray Walker, and Harold Rosson.

Then there is Floyd "Little Pepper" Martin, brother to the manager of the San Angelo professionals, who didn't play this year because he was not eligible but who worked out faithfully every day with the Herd. Floyd, who wears a brace on his knee because of an operation, was the best pitcher in the Steer camp. He should be a tremendous ball player by next season.

LONGHORN LEAGUE MUCH STRONGER THAN LAST SEASON

Fact that the Big Spring professional Broncs are getting banded from pillar to post by other Longhorn league teams proved that the league is much faster than it was a year ago.

The Hosse are a better team than they were in 1947, when they jumped out in front of the race early and remained there. Only in center field, where Ace Mendez has yet to perform up to the standard of Pepper Martin, do the Hosse appear weaker than they did last year.

True, Joe Arencibia is not the hot corner attendant Orlie Moreno was but he may be a better stick man. Those who know him say he'll get better and better as the season wears on.

There's no Jose Cindan on the pitching staff, either, but the pitching staff as a whole is probably stronger than the one here last year.

VERNON DUSTERS TO REMAIN A CONTENDER ALL SEASON

Vernon's Dusters are much better than they were in 1947. They'll probably be in a contending position all season. Harold Webb has a top drawer club at Midland. Sweetwater is not up to par but may be ere long. Bill Davis is certain to whip his Odessa team into shape. Ballinger remains a question mark.

Those who have seen the Cats play say Bill Atwood has pitching troubles and lots of them.

If Martin had two other pitchers like Sherwin Cox and Jimmy Baker, he'd have a club high in the money. Del Rio's Cowboys must have strength but the addition of Sam Harshany will mean a lot to the team.

HAROLD DAVIS TO SPEND THE SUMMER IN DENTON

Harold Davis, the Howard County Junior college baseball coach, will spend the summer in Denton where his wife will attend college but the Jayhawks will continue operations in the Tri-County independent circuit.

The Hawks have not yet selected their manager but will probably choose someone from the ranks.

McCLAIN CONTRIBUTES FIELDING GEM AT MIDLAND

Those who saw it say Jake McClain turned in one of the most sensational plays of the 1948 season when he retired Eddie Melillo in the Wednesday night battle with Midland.

McClain has his critics but his mates (and his superiors) give him credit for holding the Broncs infield together and making it perform as expertly as it does.

Favorites Win In Fem's Golf

SAN ANTONIO, May 21.—Defending Champion Mrs. Leonard Keating of Houston, Former Champion Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth and two veteran campaigners tangled today in the semi-final round of the 27th annual Women's Texas Golf Association tournament.

Mrs. Keating, the former Kay Pearson, meets Mrs. Hack Willford, Sherman, while Mr. Goldthwaite takes on Mrs. Bettye Mims White of Dallas.

For Mrs. Goldthwaite and Mrs. White it will be a replay of last year's semi-final round. The Fort Worth woman, three times titlist in this tournament, advanced to the finals last year.

Mrs. Keating came from behind for the third day yesterday in ousting co-medalist Bettye Raws of Austin, 1 up. She evened the match on the 15th hole, took the lead on the 17th and won the match when the 18th was halved.

Local Brigade Hosts Forsan

Big Spring's Westerners host the Forsan Oilers in a Tri-County baseball league contest on the Bombarider school diamond here Sunday. Starting time is 3 o'clock.

The Westerners, strengthened in several departments, scored their initial win of the campaign last week at the expense of Colorado City and may be hard to stop.

Forsan will be tougher with the return of several veterans. Lefty McCabe will probably hurl for Forsan. Johnny Daylong for the Westerners.

SATURDAY Cosden Meets Sunbeamers In Twin Bill

Blacky Hines takes his Forsan-Big Spring Cosden Pipeliners to Lubbock Saturday night where they will be saddled with the task of trying to trip the Texas Softball league leaders, the Bluebonnet Sunbeamers, in a twin bill. Starting time of the seven-inning opener is 8 p. m.

The Pipeliners, who need one victory to pull themselves to a .500 playing average, will send their ace, L. D. Cunningham, to the rubber in the opener. L. D.'s brother, Winifred, may hurl the second.

Jackie Neel is set to fire his tricky slants at the Howard county troupe.

Other league contests find Ragsdale of San Angelo invading Odessa. Crane goes to Angelo to face Nathan's, and Stamford converging upon Monahans. Baldrige of Lubbock draws a bye this week.

Guy Watts of Monahans continues as the league's leading swat-smith with an average of .417, followed by Ralph Earhart of Bluebonnet with .387. Jimmy Arington of Forsan-Big Spring is sixth in the hit parade with a .333 mark.

Bulldogs Play Knott Sunday

KNOTT, May 21.—Coahoma's power-laden Bulldogs invade Knott Sunday afternoon for a Tri-County baseball league game with the Knott Billies.

Coahoma needs the victory to remain title contenders and will probably send their pitching ace, Bill Brown, to the hill in quest of victory. Brown has lost only one outing this year, a 2-1 game at the hands of Howard County Junior college.

Felines Tripped By Oklahomans

Associated Press Staff

The first division of the Texas league is back where it was a couple of days ago. San Antonio and Houston are tied for second and Tulsa holds down fourth.

The Oilers made their stay in fifth place brief, edging league-leading Fort Worth, 5-3, last night as the Oklahoma City Indians knocked Dallas out of fourth, 10-3.

Carl Ray held Houston to three-hits as Beaumont took a 3-0 shut-out and San Antonio used a 6-5 decision over Shreveport to climb into a tie for second.

Harry Perkowski set Ft. Worth's Cats down with five hits, snapping a four-game winning streak by the loop's top team Vic Marasco's two-run homer in the ninth cut Tulsa's winning margin.

DEMARET CARDS 136 Skip Alexander Equals PGA Record With 134

ST. LOUIS, May 21.—Big Stewart (Skip) Alexander, who qualified with a record-tying 134, led the field today into first round matches of the Professional Golfers Association tournament.

Alexander, playing in his first PGA meet, yesterday equaled the PGA record set by Jim Ferrier at Portland, Ore., two years ago.

Sixty-four players, the best in a starting field of 130, match shots in 32 duels of 18 holes this morning. The winners will play another 18 holes this afternoon to determine the 16 third-round players.

Alexander, of Lexington, N. C., has been playing golf six years for money. He's a long-ball hitter, a hefty man weighing 210 pounds. His seven-under-par play yesterday gave him a round of 32-32.

Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., had 136's. Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., came through with a 138.

Snead was paired with Clay Gaddie of Cincinnati, who qualified with 146. Demaret had a formidable opponent in Horton Smith of Detroit, one of the old time stars who also qualified with 146.

Hogan was matched with Jack Hutchison, Jr., of Glencoe, Ill., son of the 1920 PGA champion. Young Jock got in with a 147.

The $3500 first prize finale will be played over 36 holes next Tuesday. The third round is scheduled for tomorrow.

Cheers Turning To Jeers In Brooklyn As Dodgers Lose Fifth Game In Row

Home sweet home has a strange tune in Brooklyn this year. Cheers instead of cheers greet the Dodgers after five straight defeats in "friendly" Ebbebs field.

No longer does a return to Flatbush guarantee success. First the Boston Braves and then the feared St. Louis Cards swept series in the flock's own backyard where the Dodgers are supposed to be toughest. Even the mighty Casey is getting the bumps.

Despite the Dodgers' depth in bright, young players who can run with the speed of light, they find themselves with an inadequate pitching staff.

Hugh Casey was bumped again yesterday in his second straight relief appearance when the Cards slugged their way to a 13-4

City Trophies Are Assured For 12 Years

Drs. P. W. Malone and J. E. Hogan are planning to provide individual trophies for the annual city golf tournament for the next 12 years.

They already have delivery on a huge trophy measuring 45 inches in height which will be installed in a permanent case at the Mundy course. The name of the city champion will be inscribed on the base each year.

In addition, orders have been placed for 12 small trophies of the same type and pattern, one of which will become the possession of the city champ each year for 12 years.

HCJC Invades Colorado City

COLORADO CITY, May 21.—The Colorado City Wolves will try to slow the pennant charge of the Howard County Junior college baseball Jayhawks in a Sunday afternoon contest here.

The Wolves have won only one Tri-County league contest to date while HCJC is unbeaten in six starts.

In a previous meeting this season, the Hawks edged the Wolves, 7-2.

KNOTT, May 21.—Coahoma's power-laden Bulldogs invade Knott Sunday afternoon for a Tri-County baseball league game with the Knott Billies.

Coahoma needs the victory to remain title contenders and will probably send their pitching ace, Bill Brown, to the hill in quest of victory. Brown has lost only one outing this year, a 2-1 game at the hands of Howard County Junior college.

Baptist Leader Will Speak At Forsan Church Ceremony

R. A. Springer, Dallas, treasurer of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, will be the guest speaker at the homecoming program of the Forsan Baptist church on May 30.

The occasion also will be the signal for launching a campaign to raise funds for a new educational building, according to the Rev. Jay Dannelley, pastor.

Following the morning worship services, a picnic dinner is to be served at the church for members, former members and friends.

The Forsan Baptist church was organized in 1930 in an abandoned drug store building, and the Rev. B. G. Richbourg was called as first pastor.

Population of the community and immediate area was then estimated at some 2,000 people, a figure that declined rapidly as the depression and the East Texas oil boom attracted many families.

By 1938 a new church plant had been completed and the original structure moved to the rear of the lot and converted into an educational building.

Now, with the area population on a sharp increase and the fruits of the labor of former pastors manifest, the facilities once more are overtaxed, said the Rev. Dannelley.

Several samples showed traces of oil staining, but none sufficient for testing. These occurred at 3,250-3,300, 3,510-30, 3,940-90 (circulation was lost at 3,966), 4,060-4,130 and 4,300-4,340 feet.

The test topped the anhydrite at 978, the Yates at 1,520 (estimated to be 47 feet high), the San Andres at 2,717 (estimated 60 to 75 feet high), the San Angelo at 3,475 and the Clear Fork at 3,648 feet.

Elevation was 2,511 feet at ground floor and bottom of hole was 4,518 feet, completing the 4,500-ft. farm-out requirement from Cosden Petroleum. Location is 530 feet from the south and east lines of the northwest quarter of section 9-31-1n, T&P.

Will Address Fashion Meet

Mrs. Eva Pycatt is to be a featured speaker at the meeting of the American Fashion association in Dallas Sunday through Friday.

She is to conduct a children's "back-to-school" clinic and style show at 5 p. m. Monday in the Adolphus Palm Garden.

This is one of two clinics to be presented during the meeting. A breakfast fashion clinic is to be presented at 8 a. m. the same day in the Baker Crystal ballroom.

In each case there will be a roundtable discussion of the problems of a small store with Joseph Ross, Dallas, as moderator, assisted by a board of experts.

An estimated 4,500 visitors from Texas and 15 other states will attend the meeting which features the first showing in Dallas of advance fall fashions for women and children.

Some 650 exhibits will be displayed by 265 association members on 11 floors in the Baker and Adolphus hotels.

There was some conjecture that the test might be carried to Vealwood pool horizon in the Pennsylvania gap, but no official word to this effect was forthcoming.

Other seniors having a part on the program were Joyce Howard, who sang as a solo, "Let All My Life Be Music;" and Eddie Houser, who played the professional and recreational.

Supt. W. C. Blankenship presided for the program, which was opened with invocation by the Rev. Aubrey White and concluded with the class singing the school anthem and the benediction by Dr. C. A. Long.

Reader Thinks Big Spring Has Backwardness

Dear Editor: It seems an Out-of-towner has to be the first to bring to our old timers attention there's something backward about our town.

I've been in Big Spring most of my life and until the oil boom about 20 years ago scarcely anyone knew there was such a place as the home town. Since the boom, we seem to have fallen in the same old rut.

Personally, to me, there's nothing like self-expression from logical reasoning, and I'm inclined to agree with the party from Phoenix. Yours truly Mrs. M. I. Reid

Club Warned Of Dry Rot Period

The 'dry-rot' period of a club's existence, said Joe Pickle in speaking before the American Business club at noon Friday, is the time to beware.

The danger period comes when members have only a social interest in the club or when they merely want to increase the group's finances.

Tunis Arabs Lash Israel

TUNIS, TUNISIA, May 21. (AP)—Arab nationalist leaders in this French protectorate warned today that French recognition of Israel would bring "disastrous consequences."

They sent a message to Premier Robert Schuman and Foreign Minister Georges Bidault saying: "All Arabs of Tunisia proclaim that they will consider recognition of the state of Israel as a hostile gesture towards 25 million Moslems in North Africa and call the government's attention to the disastrous consequences such recognition would have on future relations between Tunisia and France."

There have been unconfirmed reports that France intends to join the nations, including the United States and Russia, which have recognized the new Jewish state in Palestine.

Daniel Passes Fiery Test Of Moral Courage

Scripture—The Book of Daniel
 By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
COURAGE, both moral and physical, is more necessary in the world today than ever before. Fear is rampant. Nations and ideologies are opposed in this modern world, and all peoples fear the future. Fear is the most primitive of all emotions. It is felt by animals and men alike.

However, courage also is inborn in humans and also in the animal world, and is the most admired of all virtues. To call a man "yellow" or cowardly, is the final insult. Moral and physical courage are the hope of the world, for our leaders and for the common man. With wisdom coupled with courage our problems can be worked out and the world become a place of co-operation and security.

In the time of which we are studying, when the Jewish people were exiled to Babylon, they suffered from terror, too. If anyone dared disobey the whim of a tyrannical king, who had absolute power of life and death, he might be killed in the most brutal manner. If he made enemies, he was in grave danger of losing his life, which was indeed a cheap commodity in those days. High moral and physical courage was needed to do what one knew was right, regardless of circumstances.

Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, who conquered Jerusalem and took its king and people captive, ordered his master of eunuchs to bring to the king's court four Jewish youths who were well born and comely, to be brought up to learn the Babylonian language and to be educated in palace routine.

The four chosen were Daniel, Hannaniah, Mishael and Azariah. Their names were changed to Belshazzar, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. Now the food and wine served at the king's table was not what Hebrew youths were allowed by their religious law, so Daniel told those in charge over him. He begged that he be not made to defile himself, and finally won permission to live on pulse (a sort of porridge) and water for 10 days to prove that he and his friends were better physically and mentally on that fare.

When the 10 days were up their guardian saw that the Jewish lads were fuller of face and fairer than the other boys, and when the king called them before him he found that no one at court could equal Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in wisdom and understanding.

Nebuchadnezzar made a golden image and decreed that all his people must bow down before and worship it. Everyone did but the Jewish youths, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and when the king was told of this he was furious and ordered them thrown into a fiery furnace. The three were bound and cast into the furnace, where they sang and glorified God, not being harmed. When the king saw that their courage was rewarded by this miracle, he acknowledged their God was all-powerful and promoted the three to places of high honor.

In the reign of Belshazzar Daniel told that king that he was living sinfully, but Daniel was rewarded, nevertheless, by being clothed in scarlet and having a golden chain put about his neck.

When Darius came to the throne Daniel was high in his favor. Daniel had enemies in the kingdom, however, who conspired to destroy him. They consulted together and decided that only through his religion could they bring this about. They persuaded the king to sign a decree that anyone who addressed a petition to any but the king would be thrown into a den of lions.

Now when Daniel heard that the decree was signed, he went to his chamber, opened the window toward Jerusalem, and kneeled in prayer three times a day, as was his custom.

This was told to the king, and very reluctantly and sadly, the king ordered Daniel thrown into the lions' den. That night the king could not sleep, and early in the morning he hastened to the opening of the den which he had sealed the previous night with his own seal, and called to Daniel: "O Daniel of the living God, is thy God able to deliver thee from the lions?"

Daniel replied: "O King, my God hath sent His angel, and hat shut the lions' mouths and they have not hurt me." The astounded king looked and saw that this miracle had indeed occurred.

Darius then made a decree that in every dominion of his kingdom men should tremble and fear before the God of Daniel, for "He delivered and rescueth... and delivered Daniel from the power of the lions."
