Tech Cattle, Dairy Teams Place High

Texas Tech's highly-ranked cattle and dairy judging teams placed well up in the final ratings of the Southwestern Livestock Exposition in Fort Worth last week.

The cattle judging team, coached by Stanley E. Anderson, assistant professor of animal husbandry, finished in seventh place in their division overall, after hauling in one first place—in quarter-horse judging. Members of the team included Henry Blackburn, Amarillo; Jimmy Jayroe, Amarillo; Joe LaGendre, Shreveport, La.; Darrel Renfro, Borger; Carrol Robertson, Jayton; Billy Taylor, Lubbock; Hershell Wade, Spur and B. F. Yeates, Matador.

Tying for third place in dairy cattle judging with the University of Arkansas was Tech's team composed of Jimmy Howard, Canadian; Oakley Stevenson, Bovina; Bill LaRoe, Happy; Robert Akers, Follett and Keith Brock, Friona. Coach of the squad is Dr. W. H. Cloninger, associate professor of animal husbandry.

Howard took top honors in individual judging. Earlier, the five-man cattle judging team had nosed out Arizona U. to take first place in the Intercollegiate Livestock judging contest in Denver, Colo.

C. Stanley, all of Lubbock; Patrick A. Watson, Marlow, Okla.; Joe L. Bullock, Port Neches; Jimmie J. Russell, San Angelo; Bobby C. Reese, Temple; Kenneth C. Whiteley, Wheeler; Oscar J. Sexton, Helen La Nell Brown, Mary T. Templeton, all of Lubbock.

Arts & Sciences

Arts and Sciences: Everett J. Tarbox, Jr., Follett; Margaret E. Lee, Houston; Clyde C. Walter, Levelland; Joy Yvonne Bowles and Donald W. Reece, Lubbock; Roy C. Craft, Odessa; Jerry Nell Reeves, Wellington; John Emmet Peterson, Ladysmith, Wis.; Charles L. Hoskins, Sante Fe, N.M.; Kindred D. Muse and Dudley R. Stanley, Lubbock; Edward W. Sampson, Monahans; John V. Thompson, Brownfield; Joann Hampton, Crowley; Joyce (See GRADUATES, Page 6)

Enrollment Total Tops '54 By 1,000

Texas Techsans, numbering 5,311 represent an enrollment increase of nearly 1,000 students over this time last year.

There are 1,321 enrolled in the Engineering Division, 1,187 in the Division of Business Administration, 663 in the Division of Arts and Science, 623 in the Agricultural Division, 272 in the Division of Home Economics and 245 in the Graduate School.

Miss Evelyn Clewell, assistant registrar, said registration will end Feb. 11 and registration for the evening program ends tonight at 7 o'clock.

Almost three times as many men students are registered as women said Miss Clewell.

Men's Spring Rush To Begin Feb. 13

Spring rush for men is scheduled to open with a convocation in Aggie Auditorium Feb. 13 at 2 p.m.

According to Dean James Whitehead, assistant dean of student life, all rushees must be present and fraternity members and pledges are invited to attend.

Brad Wilde, Men's Inter-Fraternity Council president, will explain rushing regulations.

Tech President Organizes Board Of Student Affairs

A Code of Student Affairs Board was set up this week by Dr. E. N. Jones, Tech president.

The organization will serve as a reference board for such recommendations on student affairs and policies as the governing boards and administrative offices may wish to call to its attention.

Members of the board are: Dr. G. E. Giesecke, academic vice president; Marshall Pennington, vice president and comptroller; Associate Professor George Whetstone, chairman of the faculty advisory committee; Miss Florence Phillips, Dean of Women; Dean Lewis N. Jones, dean of men; Glenn Rainer, president of the student association; Brad Wilde, president of Men's Inter-Fraternity Council; Doris Ellis, president of Panhellenic Council; Richard Gray, executive committee chairman of the Board of Student Organizations; Iris Bruson, president of the Association of Women students; Shirley Massey, president of Forum; Bob Moore, president of the Inter-dorm Senate; and Dean James Allen, dean of student life, who will serve as chairman.

In his letter to board members, Dr. Jones stated that the board will make final decisions on recommendations "... on modifications, changes, additions and deletions of the policies of the college."

This organization will eliminate the several channels that one must go through to bring about a change in the student code.

Writer of Tech History Arrives From New York

The history of Texas Technological College may be published in conjunction with the school's 30th Anniversary Celebration in June, 1956.

Mrs. Ruth Horn Andrews, an early graduate and a friend of many of the persons who hold significant places in the development of the school, has been commissioned to write the history and has already arrived on the campus from her New York home.

IDENTIFICATION CARDS

New identification cards for the spring semester will be distributed in the east foyer of the Administration Building, Monday, at 9 a.m.

MILTON KATIMS, shown above, will lead the Houston Symphony at 8:30 tonight in Lubbock Senior High Auditorium. See story at right.

Katims Here For Concert Presentation

Houston's Symphony Orchestra, led by youthful conductor Milton Katims, will be presented in concert tonight in the Lubbock High School auditorium.

The program, the third Artists Course series, is scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m. as announced by Dr. Gene Hemmle of the Tech music department. Students will be admitted upon presentation of their activity tickets.

Katims, who has had experience in the United States, Europe, and the Near East, is at present the conductor for the Seattle Symphony. He has been leading the Houston group in the absence of regular conductor Ferenc Fricasay.

A master of the viola, soon after his graduation from Columbia University he switched from the violin in order to become assistant conductor of the National Orchestral Association.

"The viola made it possible for me to play in orchestras without having quite so many notes to play," he says, "I had a greater opportunity to observe conductors and conducting first hand."

The program is: Berlioz, Overture to "Le Corsaire," Op. 21.

Brahms, Symphony in E Minor No. 4, Op. 98.

Copland, Excerpts from the Ballet, "Rodeo"; Saturday Night Dance, Corral Nocturne, Hoe-Down.

Tchaikowsky, "Romeo and Juliet" Overture.

Junior Favorite To Be Elected

The Junior girl favorite will be selected in a special election Tuesday.

Dormitory students will be allowed to vote in their dorms from 12 to 1 p.m. Tuesday. This includes all dorms except Drane and West. Other students may vote in the Student Union Building Tuesday.

The election was made necessary because a name was left from one group of ballots in the general election, Jan. 11. The girls nominated for Junior class favorite are: Mary Alice Braselton, Plainview; Virginia Carr, Lubbock; Bette McGehee, Canyon; Virginia Mitchell, Fort Worth; and Patti Price, Lubbock.

Second Ag-Chem Conference Closes

The second annual Agricultural Chemical Conference will close today in the Tech Student Union ballroom.

The conference, which opened Tuesday night, was designed to bring the latest information on agricultural chemicals to dealers, distributors, processors and manufacturers.

Theme of the conference this year is "The Place of Chemicals in West Texas Agriculture."

Late arrivals today are expected to bring the total number of chemical representatives and professional agricultural workers in attendance to approximately 400. Most of those in attendance are from Texas and the surrounding states.

Treador Staff Positions Filled For Spring Term

LaDoyce Lambert, Alton Slagle, and Max Williams have been named to fill newly created editorial posts on The Treador, for the spring semester, according to announcement made today by Editor David Clark.

The position of society editor has not been filled and Clark said that applications are still being accepted for that post.

Lambert, sophomore journalism major from Abernathy, has been named news editor and will be assisted by Clyde Walter, senior journalism major from Levelland. In high school Lambert served as assistant editor and editor of the school yearbook and for the past semester has been a Treador reporter. Walter formerly was copy editor and a reporter for the Treador.

New assignment editor will be Alton Slagle, sophomore agriculture major from Lubbock. He will be assisted by Harold Creswell, sophomore engineering major from Rockport, Ill.

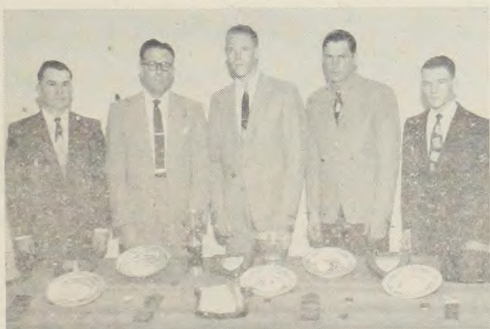

Heading the three-man sports staff will be Max Williams, senior journalism major from Hale Center. Joe McLaughlin, Kenneth Bennett and Wayne James will be his assistants.

Williams has served as associate sports editor and reporter for the Treador; McLaughlin is a former sports writer for the Amarillo Globe-Times and presently is a staff reporter for the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. He has additional experience as sports editor of Amarillo High School and Amarillo Junior College publications. Bennett was sports editor of the Treador last semester. James is an (A&S) sophomore from New Deal.

Local Churches Sponsor Parties

Four local churches are planning open houses for Texas Tech students in the near future.

Students will be entertained tonight at the First Christian Church and at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church, beginning at 7:30 p.m. The Methodist Student Center will have a "famous persons" open house party tomorrow night. The First Baptist Church is planning a banquet for students Feb. 10.

Women's Rush To Start Today

Approximately 52 rushees and nine sororities will assemble this afternoon for a convocation in the Student Union that starts off women's spring rush for 1955.

Informal parties begin tomorrow at 7 p.m. and last until Sunday at 6 p.m., with each sorority giving one hour-long coke party during that time. Monday and Tuesday mark the periods of open rush with no pledging, followed by "silence" in which there are no conversations on topics of sororities with anyone. Preference cards, signed by the rushees, must be in the Dean of Women's office by Feb. 18 at 5 p.m., and bids will be delivered Feb. 19 to the dorms. Town girls will report to the Dean of Women's office at 2 p.m. Feb. 19 for their bids.

Schedules for coke parties, which all rushees must attend, are as follows: Kappa Kappa Gamma, 7 to 8 p.m. Friday; Zeta Tau Alpha, 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. Friday; Sigma Kappa, 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. Saturday; Alpha Chi Omega, 3 to 4 p.m. Saturday; Delta Gamma, 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. Saturday; Alpha Phi, 7 to 8 p.m. Saturday; Pi Beta Phi, 2 to 3 p.m. Sunday; Kappa Alpha Theta, 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. Sunday; Delta Delta Delta, 5 to 6 p.m. Sunday.

In comparison with about 150 fall rushees, most of whom were freshmen, the 52 spring rushees are comprised of approximately 34 freshmen, eight sophomores, six juniors, and one senior.

GUY TO SPEAK HERE

Chas. A. Guy, editor and publisher of the Avalanche-Journal, will speak at 11 a.m. Friday in Rm. 206 of the Journalism Building. All students interested in newspaper opportunities are invited to attend, according to Dr. W. E. Hall, journalism department head.

Gilbert and Sullivan Comic Operetta "Yeomen of The Guard" Scheduled

More than 100 Tech students, faculty and townspeople are combining talents and efforts to make the College's first full-length operetta a success.

The operetta, Gilbert and Sullivan's famed "The Yeomen of the Guard," will be presented Feb. 14 and 15 in the Lubbock High School auditorium.

The central figure in the "behind the scenes" preparation is Robert Elson, Tech music instructor, director of the operetta. Elson has two degrees from the University of Michigan, and sang in many campus operas. He organized a Gilbert and Sullivan club, and once played a main lead in "Yeomen of the Guard."

Music for the operetta will be furnished by the Tech Theatre Orchestra, a newly-organized group, under the direction of Paul Elsworth.

Curtain time for both performances is 8 p.m. Tickets are $1.20 for adults and 60 cents for students, and may be obtained by calling the Tech music department at PO5-8541, extension 345.

The plot concerns the efforts of Colonel Fairfax, who awaits execution for charges of dealing with the devil. The charges are those manufactured by a cousin who inherits the Fairfax estate should the colonel die unmarried. Elsie Maynard, a strolling player, consents to become a blindfolded bride for an hour for 100 crowns. Fairfax falls in love with his bride for an hour and proceeds to woo her without the blindfold. As in all Gilbert and Sullivan operettas love wins out in the end.

Methodist Church Provides Buses

To encourage more Tech students to attend church school and church services, First Methodist Church will provide free round-trip bus service from the college to the sanctuary, beginning Sunday.

So that students can go to either the 9:45 a.m. church school or the morning worship at 10:50, two buses will run. A bus also will be available for taking passengers to the evening services.

at 16th Street and stop in front of Horn and Drane Halls at 9:20 a.m. It will go by the Bookstore and H. E. Building and stop between Sneed and West Halls at 9:25. It will leave the church parking lot to return at 10:50 a.m.

A second bus will load at the two girls' dorms at 10:30 a.m. and the boys' dorms at 10:35. It will return at 12:10 p.m.

The Sunday night schedule is: 7:10 — girls' dorms, 7:15 — boys' dorms, and 8:55 — return.

THEY'RE CLAMORING FOR THEM! Who? Students. What? Luckies. Coast to coast, dormitory to dormitory, college smokers prefer Luckies to all other brands, according to the greatest up-to-date college survey. Again, the No. 1 reason for Luckies' wide lead: Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. So enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike. ## Newest Campus Fraternity Seeks National Sigma Chi Affiliation

Chi Sigma, a new fraternity recently organized on the Texas Tech campus, has its sights set on becoming a chapter of the national Sigma Chi fraternity according to James B. Whitehead, Assistant Dean of Student Life.

Dean Whitehead disclosed that alumni of Sigma Chi chapters throughout the country will vote in June on whether the local organization will be accepted on the national fraternity role.

Of the 63 Tech students who originally signed as prospective members of Chi Sigma, only 23 were deemed eligible for scholastic reasons, the assistant dean noted. Nineteen of the group actually proceeded with plans to form the fraternity.

Besides having its constitution already approved by the board of student organizations recently, Chi Sigma has been recognized by the College and the men's interfraternity council.

Chi Sigma members and their home towns are:

Union To Present Jazz Music Group

The Cell Block 7, a jazz music group from Dallas, will perform Feb. 18 at 8 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom. Tickets are on sale in the Union at $1 each. Only 600 tickets are available.

This group of seven musicians were originally students or faculty members from Southern Methodist University at Dallas and they have since become recording stars. Their performance at Tech will be in jazz concert form.

Interim officers elected last December were Jerry Clark, president; Robert Lambert, vice-president; and Gary Bearden, secretary-treasurer. Permanent officers were scheduled to be elected this week.

Union To Initiate Coffee Discussion

First phase of a new Student Union program will be initiated Sunday when "Coffee: Grounds for Discussion" will be conducted on the subject of school spirit in the Union Building at 3 p.m.

The discussion is part of a new program aimed at interesting students in active participation in the study of important current events—campus, national, and international.

Included in later weeks will be Oxford style debates, panel discussions, and lectures by well-informed speakers. All attending will be invited to take part.

According to Jack Gibson, chairman of the new program, the time, subject, and place of other programs will be announced later.

BELLES TINKLE

The "Melody Belles," a trio of singing Tech students from Monahans, Margaret Ammer, Ann Hogg, and Margaret Schindler, were featured last week at the Lubbock Kiwanis Club annual "ladies night."

Theta Dance Set For Country Club

AN EDITORIAL

The Case for Culture

Do you believe in Free-Will or Pre-Destination? Or have you ever thought the question through?

Can you tell a symphony from a concerto, or sonata? You don't like "long hair" music? Maybe it's because you don't understand it.

What about Van Dyck and van Gogh? Can you tell their paintings apart? Or did you even know they were artists?

These are only a few examples of the things we term "culture." We are exposed to the science of religion, music, and art every day. And yet, many of us graduate from college with a knowledge of only one subject—our major.

Several colleges throughout the United States feel that it is equally important to have a well-rounded, "cultural" background, and so they have established a humanities course. In some colleges it is offered as an elective, and in some it is required of all freshmen. The course is usually divided into sections, which include science, art, music, and etiquette.

Do you think Tech would improve itself and help you by giving students the opportunity to have a better-rounded knowledge? If students had a broader understanding of these cultures we feel that the Artists Courses, Twilight Music Hours, Art Gallery Shows, and many other programs that are offered on the campus and in town would be better attended and more widely enjoyed.

CHESS AND BRIDGE PLAY

Students interested in participating in chess and bridge tournaments may sign up this week in the program office at the Union. The tournaments will be held next week.

RAIDER CANDIDATE

Dalton Bleeker has accepted an athletic scholarship and has enrolled for the second semester at Tech. Bleeker, highly sought-after guard from Brokenridge and Ranger Junior College, will be a candidate for the Red Raider football squad when spring training opens Feb. 14.

Four Weeks Remain In Writing Contest

Four weeks remain in which campus authors may enter a creative writing contest sponsored by Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity.

Several entries have been turned in this week. Deadline for entering the contest is Tuesday, March 1.

First prize of $10 will be presented the winner of each of the three divisions—short story, poetry, and essay. Resident undergraduate students may submit as many entries in each of the divisions as they desire as long as entries are original and unpublished.

It was announced early this week that a professional writer will be the final judge in the contest.

Maximum length for short story is 4,500 words, and essays are limited to 2,500 words. Poetry may be any length.

Entries must be typed double-space on regular typing paper. The author's name should appear with the title on a separate sheet, but should not be on the entry.

Entries may be submitted to the Toreador office or to Shirley Massey, Patsy Donn, Pat Carter, David Clark, or David Rackley.

Hurd's "Mountain Village" Given To Tech Museum

"Mountain Village," a superb tempora landscape by the noted New Mexico artist Peter Hurd, was presented Jan. 27, to the Tech Museum by Mr. and Mrs. Retha Martin, 2701 19th Street.

The Hurd painting, which is currently hung in the alcove of the museum rotunda as the "picture of the month," may be viewed during the regular hours until Feb. 20.

The painting depicts a springtime view of the town of Villanuevo, N.M. In the distance are the blue-shadowed mountains, background for the low rolling hills along whose crest is the spread of the town. In the foreground the fields are being tilled by a young man who has paused in his labors to talk with a girl. Irrigation is seen, fed to the land from the winding tree-lined stream. Throughout the work there is that brilliance of light and deftness of color that have become so identified with Peter Hurd's work.

Zeta Tau Alpha's Perform At TCU Chapter Planning

The Tech chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha was in charge of a skit as a new chapter of Zetas was launched on the Texas Christian University campus in Fort Worth last weekend.

Eight girls from Tech journeyed to TCU. They took part in an open house Sunday and the parties Monday. Making the trip were: Patsy Harris, Joyce Wright, Joyce Davison, Keith Morgan, Mary Jane Miller, Averill Brinkman, Glenda Moses, and Beverly Champion.

THE TREEHOUSE OF THE AUGUST MOON

Spring is just around the corner, and with spring, as always, will come tree-sitting contests. This I applaud. Tree-sitting is healthful and jolly and as American as apple pie. Also it keeps you off the streets.

Tree-sitting is not, however, without its hazards, as you will presently see when I tell you the dread and chilling tale of Manuel Sigafoos and Ed Pancreas.

Manuel and Ed, friends and room-mates, were walking one day past the folk music room in the School of Dentistry and Fine Arts. Suddenly they stopped, for coming through the door of the folk music room was a clear and thrilling alto voice singing the lovely folk tune, I Strangled My True-Love with Her Own Yellow Braids, and I'll Never Eat Her Sorghum Any More.

When the last shimmering notes of the ballad had died away, Manuel and Ed rushed into the room, and there they thought their swelling hearts must burst asunder. For the singer was as beautiful as the song! Fair as the morn she was, doe-eyed and curvilinear.

"My name is Manuel Sigafoos," cried Manuel Sigafoos, "and I love you madly, wildly, tempestuously!"

"My name is Ed Pancreas," cried Ed Pancreas, "and I love you more than Manuel Sigafoos."

"My name is Ursula Thing," cried the girl, "and I've got a jim-dandy idea. Why don't you two have a contest, and I will go steady with the winner?"

"What kind of contest?" cried Manuel and Ed.

"A tree-sitting contest," cried Ursula Thing. "Natch!"

"Done and done," cried Manuel and Ed, and they clambered up adjoining aspens, taking with them the following necessities: food, water, clothing, medicaments, bedding, reading matter, and—most essential of all—plenty of Philip Morris cigarettes.

We who live on the ground, with all the attendant advantages, know how important Philip Morris cigarettes are. Think, then, how much more important they must be to the lonely tree dweller—how much more welcome their vintage tobaccos, how much more soothing their mild pure flavor, how much more comforting to know as one sits in leafy solitude that come wind or weather, come light or dark, Philip Morris will always remain the same dependable, reliable, flavorful friend.

Well supplied with Philip Morris, our heroes began their contest—Manuel with good heart, Ed with evil cunning. The shocking fact is that Ed intended to win the contest with a Machiavellian ruse. It seems that Ed, quite unbeknownst to Manuel, was one of three identical triplets. Each night while Manuel dozed on his bough, one of Ed's brothers—Fred or Jed—would sneak up the tree and replace him. Thus Ed was spending only one-third as much time in the tree as Manuel. "How can I lose?" said Ed with a crafty giggle to his brother Fred or Jed.

But Ed had a surprise coming. For Manuel, though he did not know it himself, was a druid! He had been abandoned as an infant at the hut of a poor and humble woodcutter named Winthrop Mayhew Sigafoos, who had raised the child as his own. So when Manuel got into the tree, he found to his surprise that he'd never felt so at home and happy in his life, and he had absolutely no intention of ever leaving.

After four or five years Ed and his brothers wearied of the contest and conceded. Ursula Thing came to Manuel's tree and called him to come down and pin her. He declined. Instead he asked her to join him in the tree. This she could not do, being subject to acromegaly (a morbid allergy to woodpeckers) so she ended up with Ed after all.

Only she made a mistake—a very natural mistake. It was Jed she ended up with, not Ed.

Ed, heartbroken at being tricked by his own brother, took up metallurgy to forget. Crime does not pay.

Industrial Firms Will Interview Tech Engineers

Representatives from almost a dozen American industrial firms will be on the Tech campus in the next few days interviewing graduating seniors in almost all fields of engineering.

Beginning today and continuing through next Thursday, applicants will have the opportunity to present their qualifications.

For chemical, electrical, industrial and mechanical engineers, the General Electric Co. will conclude its interviewing this afternoon.

Friday, Cutler-Hammer Inc., of Milwaukee, Wis., will be speaking to electrical, industrial and mechanical engineering majors.

Navy Represented

Monday, the U.S. Naval Air Material Center, the U.S. Naval Air Development Center and the U.S. Naval Air Turbine Test Station, all located on the East Coast, will be looking for electrical and mechanical engineers and physicists, while Lockheed Aircraft Corp. of Burbank, Calif. will be seeking civil, electrical and mechanical engineers.

Tuesday's schedule calls for electrical, industrial and mechanical engineers for the Amarillo Division of Westinghouse Electric Corp.

Tuesday and Wednesday, the Atlantic Refining Co. will conduct interviews with chemical, petroleum, mechanical, chemical and civil engineers and petroleum geologists and physicists for full time employment after graduation, and with juniors interested in summer work. Wednesday only, Core Laboratories, Inc. will be speaking to seniors in the same areas of engineering for work in their operations and well logging.

Home Ec Too

On Thursday, Sohio Petroleum Co. will interview petroleum geologists and electrical engineers and ARO, Inc. will speak to electrical and mechanical engineers.

In addition to these, the Tech Placement Service has also announced approaching interviews for home economics, physical education and social science graduates by the Fourth Army's Office of the Surgeon on Tuesday and Wednesday, and for accountants by the Army Audit Agency on Thursday. The latter will follow a general meeting Wednesday.

Additional information, application blanks, and appointments may be secured at the Placement office now.

NEWMAN OPEN HOUSE

Mel Lemos, president, invites all Catholic students to the Newman Club Open House at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in St. Elizabeth's School Hall, 2305 Main St.

Faculty Busy Between Terms

Faculty members were busy between semesters.

Dr. John C. Dowling, head of the department of foreign languages, gave an illustrated talk on Spain at a meeting of the Lubbock Council of the United Nations.

Charles G. Decker of the department of civil engineering has been elected a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Underwriter's Meeting

Dr. Robert Rouse, professor of economics, spoke on investments of life insurance companies at a noon meeting of the South Plains Underwriters Association in Caprock Hotel.

Dr. L. E. Bowling, instructor in the English department, announced that he has accepted an invitation to conduct special courses at the University of Nebraska during the summer session. Dr. Bowling will offer advanced courses in Shakespeare and modern fiction.

Appointment of Miss Marie Miles, English instructor, as part-time administrative assistant to the dean of the graduate school was announced by President E. N. Jones.

Dr. Bob Black, head of the department of animal husbandry, led a discussion on "The Modern Type Hog" at a recent Vocational Agriculture Teachers' Mid-Winter Conference banquet in Amarillo.

Panel Discussion

Dr. Agnes True, associate professor of psychology, was on a panel discussing "Our Responsibility for Child and Family Guidance" before the Lubbock Chapter of the American Association of University Women.

Raymond P. Elliott, an authority on American and foreign folk songs, spoke at the annual membership banquet of the Andrews County Chamber of Commerce. Dairy Show Association to serve as breed superintendents in various contests of their show in Plainview.

ENGINEERING GRADUATES

Lockheed representatives will be on campus Monday, February 7, 1955 to discuss how the company's diversified development program can advance your career

Thirteen commercial and military models of aircraft are in production at Lockheed.

Development projects are even more diversified, include jet and turbo-prop transports, advanced versions of vertical rising aircraft, fighters and bombers far exceeding present-day planes in performance, radar search planes, nuclear applications to aircraft and a number of significant classified activities.

This capacity to develop and produce such a wide range of aircraft is important to career conscious engineers. It means more scope for your ability, more opportunity for promotion with so many projects in motion. It means more security—because your career is not restricted to one type of plane.

News in Briefs Three Accepted by Medical Schools

Howard Bruckner, junior pre-medical student from Lubbock, has received word of his acceptance by the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School in Dallas, beginning in September. Lynn Rodgers, Lubbock junior, and Scott Grundy, Memphis junior, are among others who have received offers from medical schools. Ten of 15 students from Tech enter medical school each year, according to Dr. Joe Dennis, head of the chemistry department.

Mrs. C. H. Schrader, director of the Child Training Center in Lubbock, will speak on "The Needs of the School for Retarded Children" at a meeting of the Sociology Club Tuesday at 7 p.m. in Room A of the Student Union.

The West Berlin Toylift committee of the German Club will meet at 4 p.m. Wednesday in Ad. 328 to discuss possibilities of financial and material assistance to underprivileged children in West Berlin.

Douglas Poe, publisher of the County-Wide News in Littlefield, spoke before journalism classes Tuesday morning. He stressed the newspaper as the "nerve center" of the community.

New Museum Art Display Represents Varied Skills

Works of Texas artists now on display in the Museum represent a varied field of method and design.

A majority of the number of pictures on exhibit are conventional types. Included in this group are a variety of rural landscapes such as "Driftwood" by Fran Golden, Austin; and "This Old House" by Hazel Wiseman, Sudan. "The City" by Ruth Cox of Fort Worth is the only cosmopolitan work included in the display.

A more impressionistic view of subjects is represented by "Aquareama" by Phillip Maginot of San Angelo and "Disenchanted Meeting" by Raymond J. Fletcher, San Antonio.

Oils predominate in the collection which also includes watercolors, caseins, gouche, and chalks.

GRADUATES—

R. Johnson, Hereford;

Barbara J. Barrow and Derwood N. Peterson, Lamesa; Mildred K. Simms, Levelland; Robye Williams Baker, Elizabeth Oats Franklin, Sylvia R. Gibbs, May-selle B. Gimp, Mary F. Oliver, JoAnne Batson, Jeanne Mullins and Marie H. Hofman, all of Lubbock; Earl G. Stinson, Olton; Rowena V. Hodges, Post; Don Ray Lewis, Quitaque; Thomas F. Bryant, San Angelo; Eva J. Toler and Velma G. Carter, Tahoka; Patsy Jean Williams, Pampa; Anne Spikes Campbell, Ralls; Richard L. Baird, Vernon.

Home Economics: Mary Rose Templeton Bowen, Caryetta G. Crume, Betty Bob Fletcher, all of Lubbock; Patsy Jane Haws Echols, Ropesville; Barbara Eudy, Turkey; Bonnie Beth Hatfield, Midland; and Sarah Lucy Mickey, Plainview.

KDUB-TV Official Press Club Speaker

W. H. Shipley, KDUB-TV, promotion manager, will speak on "What To Expect from Television," at Press Club meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., room 208 in the Journalism Building.

Mr. Shipley has been affiliated with KDUB more than a year, and prior to his television experience was in the advertising business.

A brief business meeting will follow the talk by Shipley in which initial planning for the following semester will be discussed.

Harold Creswell, Press Club president, urges all members to be present at the meeting, and invites anyone interested in Mr. Shipley's topic to attend as guests.

RIFLE TEAMS TO RENO

Three Air Force ROTC rifle teams will leave Reese Air Force Base tomorrow morning for Reno, where they will be guests of the University of Nevada. They are to compete with AFROTC rifle teams from the host school and Arizona State University, according to Sgt. Robert D. Schultz, supervisor of the local teams.

Raiders Face Longhorns In Basketball Headliner

Texas Tech's Red Raiders will be a slight favorite to hand the Texas Longhorns their 15th straight cage loss of the season when the two teams collide at 8 p.m. Friday in Austin.

Last Friday Coach Polk Robinson's Raiders dropped their first Border Conference tilt of the campaign, losing to the West Texas State Buffaloes at Canyon, 87-78. However, Tech surged right back with an impressive 72-59 win over Hardin-Simmons' Cowboys at Abilene Tuesday night.

The Tech-Texas tussle is expected to draw another capacity crowd again this season, with all proceeds of the inter-conference game going to the March of Dimes. Texas won last year, 64-56.

Steers in Dismal Season

Coach Slue Hull's Steers are having one of their worst seasons in history having absorbed 14 straight defeats. Even so, the Longhorns showed vast improvement earlier this week by holding powerful Houston to a seven-point victory.

Texas is long on material, as usual, but short on experience. George Gage, Arthur Stewart and Sam Bradshaw are the only seniors on the 16-man roster, with five juniors and eight sophomores comprising the rest of the squad.

Big 6-10 center Ellis Olmstead paces the Longhorn scoring attack and will be the tallest player on the floor tomorrow night.

Reed Scoring Leader

Jim Reed is Tech's scoring leader with a 21.7 average per game. Carl Ince has a 16.8 average; Gene Carpenter has 14.2; and DuWayne Blackshear has 13.2.

Tech will carry an 11-5 record into the game. Almost perfect accuracy from the free throw line was probably the biggest reason for Tech's easy win over Hardin-Simmons Tuesday. The Raiders meshed 30 of 33 charity pitches!

Reed was high scorer for the Raiders with 19.

Against West Texas, it was a case of the Buffs being too hot to handle. West Texas tossed in 46 per cent of their field goal attempts.

Reed again paced the Raiders with 24 points, but he had to take back seat to West Texas' James Scott, the nation's leading free throw artist, who tallied 25 points.

Tech comes home Saturday and will entertain Arizona State of Tempe at 8 p.m. in the Tech Gym in a Border Conference clash.

26 Techs Join Before Deadline

An estimated 26 Texas Tech students are members of the Armed Forces today after a January enlistment rush resulting from the announcement of the GI Bill of Rights expiration deadline, midnight, January 31.

According to Lubbock Armed Forces recruiters, nine Tech students entered the Navy for a tour of duty, 11 selected the Army and six Techs took the Air Force enlistment oath, in an apparent bid to get under the Monday evening deadline. Enlistment figures were unavailable from Marine Corps recruiters.

Enlistees who have entered military service after midnight, Jan. 31, will not be eligible for GI Bill benefits, through a directive of President Eisenhower.

Former Tech students eligible for benefits will receive one and a half days of training for every day in service.

Tech Baseballers Meet Tomorrow

Texas Tech students interested in playing varsity baseball this spring should report to the lounge on the second floor of West Hall at 7 p.m. tomorrow, according to Coach Beattie Feathers.

At that time Coach Feathers will announce the starting date for practice.

So far Coach Feathers has scheduled games with University of Colorado, Texas Lutheran, Sam Houston State, and Sul Ross State.

Tech, which fielded a team last year for the first time since 1929, will practice on a new diamond constructed near the Auditorium-Coliseum site.

Coaches Choose To Stay At Tech

Three Tech coaches have turned down offers of jobs with other schools and professional leagues since the close of the 1954 football season.

Already announced is the decision of DeWitt Weaver, head football coach, to take a similar position at the University of Arkansas, replacing Bowden Wyatt. Dee Gus Andros, Tech assistant coach, has also turned down an offer to become the Razorbacks' line coach. An offer of a position in the Canadian pro league at Edmonton, Canada, was sent to H. M. Sherrod, Jr., also an assistant coach at Tech. Though Sherrod was not available for comment it is known that he has turned down the job, preferring to remain in Lubbock.

Since Weaver has taken over coaching duties at Tech, Raider football teams have won 28 games, lost 14 and tied two. They have won the Border Conference championship three times and posted two victories in post-season bowl games.

Community Development Forum Is Held At Tech

Dr. E. N. Jones, president of Texas Tech, and Dr. Ernest Wallace, assistant dean of arts and sciences at Texas Tech, were among participants at the second annual Midwinter Forum on Community Development at Texas Tech Jan. 20-21.

Dr. Jones made the opening remarks and introduced the speaker, Peter Hurd, famous artist and painter of the mural in the Texas Tech Museum from San Patricio, N.M. Dr. Wallace was a panel member for a roundtable discussion of the main topic "What Makes West Texas a Region."

Sneed, Phi Gams Leading League

As intramural basketball begins the last half of the season, Sneed Hall leads the Dorm League with three wins and no losses. Phi Gamma Delta heads the Fraternity League with the same record of 3-0.

Wednesday night the champion of the Independent League will be determined when the Ku Klux Klan tangles with the Nameless Wonders. K.K.K. forged its way into the finals with a close 45-41 win over the Tech Vets just before the end of the fall semester. The nameless Wonders edged out the Linksters 42-39 for the other finals berth.

Last night the Tech Vets and the Linksters clashed for third place honors. The Krew and the Hoods hooked up in a consolation bracket semi-final match as did the Dairy Industry and the Hornets.

Standings in the Dorm League:

Sneed Hall	3-0
Gordon Hall	1-0
Doak Hall	1-1

GRIDDERS LEAVE

Seven athletes dropped out of Texas Tech at mid-term, according to Athletic Director DeWitt Weaver.

Three of the athletes enlisted in the armed forces. They are Jackie Miller, Red Shirt end; Bill Perryman, a center; and Chad Moore, a tackle.

The other four are George Thacker, a tackle; Joe Black, a Red Shirt end; and two freshmen, Jesse Hatfield and Ken Thompson. All four failed to pass the required number of hours to be eligible.

Amateur Radio Club Plans Spring Election Tuesday

Officers for the spring semester will be selected by the Tech Amateur Radio Club, in the Student Union Building at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

President George Baker, senior electrical engineer, announced during the last meeting that John Homsy, Federal Communications Commission engineer in charge of the Dallas district, has been asked to speak to the club in March. Mr. Homsy will be in Amarillo March 25, to conduct examinations for prospective amateur radio operators seeking 'CC' licenses.

The club plans to organize code classes soon. Classes in theory will be offered when sufficient interest is indicated.

Meetings will continue to be held in the Union Building each Tuesday evening until permanent quarters can be located.

Camp Davis Site Of Skiing Party

Members of Tech's Disciple Student Fellowship had Camp Davis in the northern New Mexico mountains all to themselves for their annual ski party between semesters.

Camp Davis near Tres Ritos is owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. Mule Davis, members of the First Christian Church of Lubbock.

Broadway Musical "Good News" Set As Annual Varsity Show Production

Shades of the Roaring Twenties! The Texas Tech Varsity Show Committee will stage the great Broadway musical comedy, "Good News," March 28-30 as its annual production in the Lubbock High Auditorium.

Tryouts for the show are tentatively set for Feb. 10-11 in Aggie Memorial Auditorium. Anyone interested in a part is urged to attend.

"Good News," by Laurence Schwab and B. G. DeSylva, had a successful long run on Broadway and is especially popular for its catchy tunes and light, collegiate plot centered around Tait University.

Some of the tunes in the production are "Varsity Drag," "Best Things in Life Are Free," "Lucky in Love" and "Good-News." The Varsity Show Committee is composed of Roy Smith, chairman; Don Dilley, business manager; Donnell Phillips, secretary; Jack McCracken, publicity director; Pat Boles, program; and Don Jordan, house manager.

Mary Ann Ponewczynski, Lubbock junior, has been chosen dialog director. Application for dance director and chorus director should be addressed to Smith, Box 299, Gordon Hall.

Miss Ponewczynski's experience includes professional and semi-professional work in New York as a participant in the French Art Theater, a traveling troupe.

16 To Perform In Tech Recital

Sixteen students will take part in a recital in the Music Building auditorium at 4:10 p.m. Tuesday. Students are from the classes of Herbert Colvin, Robert Elson, Mary Helen McCarty, Myrtle Dunn Short and Robert Taylor.

Appearing on the program will be vocalists Sarabeth Simpson, Ann Hogg and Margaret Schindler; pianists James Carthel, Lynn Harrison, Judy Moss, Joyce Thorp, Margaret Schindler and Nancy Hays; cornetists Scott Couch, Phil Pearce and Jim Edmondson and horn players Kathaleen Gilbert, David Wiggins, Gordon Collins and Robert Taylor.

Puppet Revue To Be Given In Union Ballroom Tuesday

"A puppet program with brilliant costuming, spectacular lighting and exotic scenery against a background of thrilling music timed to the most minute detail."

This is the way one critic described the Lord's Puppet Revue coming to the Tech Union ballroom Tuesday at 7 p.m. The show is free.

The marionette show, sponsored by the Union Special Events Committee, is geared especially to the adult level. Lord's uses over a hundred puppets in each performance.

ROTC Graduates Get Commissions

Twenty one Tech graduates are sporting shiny new gold bars today, the result of two recent commissioning ceremonies of the ROTC and the Air Force ROTC.

New second lieutenants in the U. S. Army are: Garland S. Reese, Roma G. Oaks, Jacob G. Watson, Cecil A. Barton, Donald L. White, Travis L. Hext, John L. Koonsman, Rodney C. Denton, and Rex H. Phillips.

New Air Force lieutenants were guests of honor at the Reese AFB Officers Club last Thursday night at a reception given by officers of the Tech detachment. Col. William A. Schulgen delivered the commissioning address. Maj. Harry F. Collins, adjutant of Tech's detachment, swore the graduates into the Air Force.

Gold bars were presented and the oath of office administered by Col. Hampton L. Green, professor of military science and tactics.

Accidents Claim Three Techsans

Three students lost their lives in traffic mishaps between semesters.

Edith Aldridge, sophomore from near Tahoka, and James Philip McGee, senior from Fort Worth, were killed when their car crashed into the rear of a truck near Jacksboro. They were en route to Fort Worth to visit McGee's parents.

Miss Aldridge was a resident of Horn Hall and was runner-up in the recent Tech Band Sweethear contest. McGee lived in Bledsoe Hall and was recently named to serve as president of Pi Kappa Alpha, social fraternity.

Harold Dean Key was fatally injured when a car struck him from behind as he was helping another man push his car on 19th Street. Key lived with his parents 3711 22nd St., and had completed his first semester at Tech.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

His territory:

TWO CITY BLOCKS

James O'Hara, Stevens Institute of Technology (M.E. '51), is an installation foreman for the New York Telephone Company. His present assignment is two city blocks between 45th and 47th Streets in the middle of Manhattan.

"It doesn't measure very big horizontally," Jim says. "But vertically it makes up a lot of telephone business—7500 telephones to be exact. My eight-man crew does everything from installing a single telephone to working on complete dial intercom systems for some of the nation's biggest businesses."

"I've got to know about each of these jobs that my men do. My training with the telephone company took me through the installation, repair and testing of the various types of telephone equipment and service for which I am responsible. I even had a chance to do a little experimenting of my own and developed a new way of preventing oil seepage on automatic switching equipment. I understand it's being written up for use throughout the Bell System."

"That's what I like about telephone work. Even two city blocks are full of opportunity."

You'll find that most other college men with the telephone company are just as enthusiastic about their jobs. If you'd be interested in a similar opportunity with a Bell System Telephone Company—or with Sandia Corporation, Western Electric or Bell Telephone Laboratories, see your Placement Officer for full details.
