Estimated Expenditures Trimmed By About $3,000; General Fund Appropriations Amount To $119,613

City commissioners approved the proposed budget submitted by City Manager E. V. Spence Thursday evening minus suggested salary raises.

Debate on this one point previously had occupied the commission in its budget deliberations. By omission of the increase in certain salary levels, the proposed budget was whittled by about $3,000.

Estimated revenues were fixed at $138,075 with an additional $900 to come out of the interest and sinking fund. General and interest for the year were estimated at $172,996.92, leaving an unappropriated balance of $13,028.08.

Hearing May 18
In connection with the figure for estimated revenues, it was pointed out that collections last year were $293,882.84.

Although increases were recommended for the police, health and welfare, water, sewer and park departments, the net under-run from last year's expended total was $9,704.

Commissioners set May 18 as the date for a public hearing on the proposed budget. At that time citizens interested in the budget may express their views to the commissioners. Soon after the hearing, commissioners will take final action on the budget.

Ranchman Is Found Dead, Gun Victim

Shot Fatal To Mose Sanderson; Funeral To Be Saturday

Funeral services for Mose-Palma Coats Sanderson, 31, ranch worker who was found fatally shot Thursday in a house on the Tom Good Mesquite ranch north of here, will be held at 4 p. m. Saturday from the Eberley Funeral chapel.

The body was brought here from the ranch, where Sanderson, a native of this section and a brother of Mrs. Tom Good of Big Spring, was found dead, a bullet wound in his head, about 4 p. m. yesterday. Discovery was made by a brother, Morris Sanderson, and a group of Mexicans who had returned to the Mesquite ranch house after shearing sheep. They had left Sanderson about three hours earlier.

Health Impaired
He lay on a bed, a 45 calibre pistol in his hand. A bullet had entered his right temple. Justice of the Peace Morrow of Lamesa, called to the scene, rendered a coroner's verdict of suicide. It was understood Sanderson left a brief note.

Sanderson's health had been impaired following a mishap last year, when he was caught in a hay baler and seriously injured.

Born in Lamesa in 1904, Sanderson for most of his life had resided in this section, working around Lamesa, O'Donnell and Big Spring. He lived for several years at Wink.

Surviving are his father, W. R. Sanderson, two brothers, Raymond W., of Albuquerque, N. M., and Morris W. Sanderson of Borden county; five sisters, Mrs. A. M. Johnson of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. J. C. Lyons of Portales, N. M.; Mrs. T. J. Good of Big Spring; Mrs. J. B. Johnson of Santa Fe, N. M.; and Mrs. Fred Henderson of O'Donnell. His mother died last year.

Following rites conducted by Rev. R. E. Day, pastor of the First Baptist church, burial will be made in the New Mt. Olive cemetery. Ira M. Powell will be in charge of music for the funeral.

Active pallbearers will be Flint Cashey, Lester Brown, Harvey Jordan, Charley Catey, Doc McVickers and J. Mack Nobles, Jr. Named as honorary pallbearers are C. J. Beach, G. Bert Davis, E. J. Boyd, C. A. Baldwin, Reuben Kelly, Claude Tomlinson, L. A. Tedford, Fred A. Henderson, Jess Slaughter, Albert Fisher, Kirby Miller, Harry Lees, Lloyd Wasson, Harry Hurt and A. E. Service.

CONVENTION CITY WILL BE FEATURED IN WTCC MAGAZINE

AMARILLO, May 8.—Much of the material in the convention number of "West Texas Today," official publication of the West Texas chamber of commerce, will be devoted to the host city.

On the front cover of the magazine will be a Palo Duro canyon scene in colors.

There will be a full page picture in sepia of the late Wilbur C. Hawk, a past president of WTCC and one selected by that organization as the most outstanding citizen in West Texas.

Max Bentley of Abilene is chairman of the editorial board and issues the magazine.

Next Monday, May 11, marks the opening of the three-day convention here.

Mrs. B. L. Bailey and son, Bishop, Jr., are visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pickle. She was accompanied here from El Paso by Mr. and Mrs. W. V. P. Baker and Lambert Duke of Lamesa who visited her Friday.

League Not Expected to Take Action

War Aftermath Reported To Be Brewing Trouble For British Cabinet

(By the Associated Press)
A Roman newspaper correspondent today reported that Harar, Ethiopia's second city, had been captured by Italian troops, completing Italy's conquest of the East African empire.

Earlier reports said Harar was partly destroyed by fire after violent outbreaks of rioting similar to those which made a shambles of Addis Ababa.

Emperor in Palestine
Meanwhile, the fleeing Emperor Haile Selassie reached Palestine on a British warship and received a monarch's tribute as armed troops guarded Palestine's port city of Haifa.

In London, strong British anti-sensations sentiment inspired predictions that a cabinet crisis was looming for Britain's Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin.

In Geneva, league of nations officials insisted that Ethiopia is still a sovereign member of the league.

Addis Ababa was calm. It was patrolled by Italian police forces and the native constabulary.

There were predictions that the league would fail to take any action Monday on Italy's conquest but that a movement would get under way in September to re-form the league structure.

The ministry of colonies, it was reliably reported, has completed a tentative administrative plan for the combined East African possessions.

It embraces the following main features:
Construction of a new capital replacing Addis Ababa, which will become merely a garrison town.

Possible designation of a prince of the royal house—a first rate figure in Italian civil and industrial life—with advisors to direct the development of the new empire.

Maintenance of an "open door" policy for all nations which recognize Italy's political control of the conquered territory.

Best informed circles said they believed Great Britain and France would accept the accomplished fact of annexation. Diplomatic sources said Britain's attitude had changed considerably almost overnight and that she was more in favor of accepting Italy's rigid stand than in France.

At any rate, when the league council meets Monday it will be faced with an annexation already decreed.

MANY TOURISTS TO CALIFORNIA WITHOUT FUNDS

SACRAMENTO, Cal., (UP)—More than 50,000 of the persons who entered California by automobiles the last six months of last year were destitute and unemployed, and three-fourths of them were from the so-called "drouth states."

Records of the state department of agriculture border checking stations revealed that Oklahoma furnished the largest number of unemployed visitors, sending 7,183 into the state. Texas sent 3,560, Arizona, 2,467, Arkansas 2,786, Missouri, 2,425, Kansas 2,207, Colorado 1,829, New Mexico 1,507, Nebraska 1,292, and Idaho 1,188.

The combined itinerant labor and refugee migration to the state constituted only about 5 per cent of the total number of passengers of all classes who entered California by motor vehicle during the six-month period.

Keys Sisters Leave For Callander To Invite Quints To Texas Centennial

WACO, May 8 (UP)—The Keys sisters, only living girl quadruplets in the world, were to leave today for Callander, Ontario, to invite the Dionne quintuplets to visit the Texas Centennial.

Pat M. Neff, president of Baylor University and former Texas governor, will accompany the sisters—Mary, Roberta, Mona and Leola Keys, now students in Baylor.

Stops will be made in St. Louis and Washington, to visit St. Louis University and George Washington University.

The party will arrive in Toronto next Monday, going by way of Chicago.

A hand-lettered invitation and gifts will be presented to the Dionne babies by the Keys sisters, who will be guests at a reception arranged for them at North Bay, near Callander, by Ontario officials.

Neff will address a luncheon meeting of the combined service clubs of Toronto next Tuesday and the Keys sisters, accomplished musicians, will sing.

On the return trip, the Keys sisters will be presented in a national radio broadcast from New York and another from Washington.

To Consider School Fund

Increase In Per Capita Apportionment Advocated By Some

DALLAS, May 8 (UP)—B. F. Tinsler, president of the state board of education, announced today that the board would meet May 16 in Austin to discuss whether to retain a surplus of $4,000,000 in the available school fund or use the money to increase the per capita apportionment from $17.50 to $20.

Tinsler said the meeting was called at the request of the Texas State Teachers' association, which favors an increase in the school child apportionment.

The board president said the educational advisory council would hold its initial meeting in Austin on May 16. The council was created on April 1.

The board will hear arguments of attorneys on the question of the legality of increasing the per capita apportionment.

TRUCK BIDS MUST BE SUBMITTED TODAY

Bids for a truck to be used in the collection, delivery and relay of mail in and around Big Spring must be submitted to Postmaster Nat. Snicker at 6 p. m. today, he said.

All proposals are made on an annual basis and are for the truck without a driver.

Group Loses In Effort For Fund Marking

Beaten In Caucus, Demos Take Modified Drive To House Floor

WASHINGTON, May 8 (UP)—House democrats, falling in an attempt at a party caucus last night to obtain the earmarking of $700,000,000 of the $1,425,000,000 relief fund, modified their campaign with a drive on the house floor to have half the original sum—$350,000,000—earmarked.

House leaders—described by Representative Better of New York leader of the PWA bloc, as using "steam roller methods" came out of a two-hour conference last night with renewed confidence that the $2,364,229,712 deficiency bill carrying the relief funds would pass unchanged from the form in which it was handed up by the appropriations committee.

The majority leaders propose to bring the bill to point of passage by tonight then recess the house until Monday before voting.

Republicans demanding substitution of state grants for the proposed continuation of Harry Hopkins' WPA met last night and indicated their intention of fighting the relief program.

Speaking for the PWA demands, in addition to Better's 25 minute argument, were Representative Dies of Texas, Dobbins of Illinois, McFarlane of Texas, Monaghan of Montana, Kramer of California and Maverick of Texas and others.

As reported only yesterday by the house appropriations committee, the bill called for $1,425,000,000 for the Works Progress and Rural Settlement administrations, $208,000,000 for the Civilian Conservation Corps, $65,550,000 for emergency public building, and $408,631,860 for the social security set-up.

Turman Back In Ft. Worth

Says He Wants To Bring Family To Texas To Reside

FORT WORTH, May 8 (UP)—Luther C. Turman, former Fort Worth oil man, fled to Mexico five years ago with his two sons and was charged with kidnaping, returned here Thursday to make his home.

He said he was tired of living in Mexico and wanted to make his permanent residence here with his children and second wife, the former Zillah Mae Ford of Big Spring.

Turman was accompanied here by Steve D. Ford, Sr., his father-in-law who had been visiting in the Turman home.

He said he had made arrangements before returning to post whatever bonds were necessary on the kidnaping charges.

When Turman left here in June of 1931, his two sons, Tommy and L. C. Turman, Jr., were in the plane with him. Kidnaping charges were filed less than an hour after his departure.

In 1933 he was married to Miss Ford. A daughter has been born to the couple.

COAHOMA STUDENTS TO STAGE PAGEANT MONDAY EVENING

Students of the Coahoma school will present a centennial pageant, "Bluebonnet Land," Monday at 8:15 p. m. from the school auditorium.

The pageant is being staged under the directorship of Mrs. George Boswell with Mrs. Ethel Byrd in charge of music. Other teachers assisted in the production.

Past and present of Texas will be shown in the pageant which will also parade the beauties and economic wealth of the state.

Some girls will be presented as queen of the festive and given the title of "Miss Texas" for the evening.

Mrs. Boswell said that approximately 150 would be required to stage the show.

BRITAIN MOVES TO PREVENT FURTHER JEWISH-ARAB FIGHTS

LONDON, May 8 (UP)—Reliable sources said today that the British government had ordered transport planes filled with British soldiers to fly from Cairo to Palestine to prevent further Arab-Jewish rioting.

From Jerusalem came reports that emergency measures had been invoked to preserve order following a decision of 150 Arab leaders to launch a campaign of civil disobedience, including a rigid boycott of everything Jewish. Barbed wire entanglements were erected in Kaffa, an Arab city, and traffic was discontinued between Jaffa and Telaviv, Jewish city nearby.

Colorado Area Is Blanketed By Snow

Buses, Trucks Are Stranded On Raton Pass

RATON, N. M., May 8 (UP)—Five passenger buses and four trucks were reported stranded on Raton Pass, south of Morley, Colo., today as the result of a spring storm which left a four-foot snow blanket over southern Colorado and northern New Mexico.

Officials were unable to determine the number of persons trapped in the storm.

Rescue Party Out
Rescue parties, hampered by the continued snowfall, expected to reach the pass by nightfall.

Heavy wet snow, falling through out the night in a sudden spring "blizzard" virtually isolated the area around Trinidad, Colo.

Communication lines were out of order, the highway southward from Trinidad was blocked, and all schools were closed. Temperatures were around the freezing mark.

New Airliner Stops Here

24-Passenger Douglas Ship Visits During A Test Flight

The most modern of all air transport liners landed at the Big Spring airport Thursday afternoon on a test flight.

Ray Mitchell, chief pilot for the southern division of American Airlines, set the huge 24-passenger Douglas monoplane down on the local field and took off with great ease.

Several local people inspected the interior of the palatial craft, which accommodates 24 passengers, a stewardess, a pilot and co-pilot. The ship carries 16 berths for night flying in addition to two private compartments.

The control compartment was bedecked with scores of instruments and gadgets, each one designed for safer flying.

A gigantic monster of the air, the plane stretched 90 feet from wing tip to wing tip. It has a fuel capacity of 820 gallons of gasoline and is propelled by two 600 h. p. engines, each equipped with supercharging up to 900 h. p. The ship could land or take off with either motor.

On it were six engineers and company officials, checking performance on the trial run. Having made the hop here from Abilene in 46 minutes, the plane took off for Douglas, Ariz., as its next stop.

CHINESE REDS SLAIN BY ARMY BOMBERS

TAIYUANFU, Shanai Province, China, May 8 (UP)—National army fliers reported they killed a thousand Chinese communists this afternoon.

Military authorities said the bombing planes dealt a crushing blow to the communist troops. The news was reported following an attack into the northern part of Shanai province.

Showers Are Spotted In This Section

Farm Lands Greatly Benefitted In Territory East Of Here

Rains ranging from downpours to light showers soaked a wide strip of the state last night and today, an area running across central Texas from San Antonio and Del Rio to the Oklahoma border receiving moisture.

While the Big Spring area received spotted showers, the fall generally was insufficient to be of benefit to farm lands.

Farmers Jubilant
Elsewhere, however, it was a brighter story. In the region east of here, farmers were jubilant as rain vitalized dust-dry crops. Cotton particularly was benefitted, farmers reporting sufficient moisture on much of the land that previously had been too dry for planting. Wheat and oats crops were expected to be greatly improved. Agriculturists said rains would bring ungerminated garden and vegetable crops out of the ground. Pastures were greatly benefitted.

The rain extended no farther west than Stanton, where light showers were reported last night, and the fall in Howard county was spotted. A brief but heavy downpour in Big Spring late Thursday evening was accompanied by high wind and dashes of hail. The precipitation was gauged at one-fourth inch at the airport, but it was estimated the fall was some heavier in the city proper.

There were light showers at Coahoma, while in the nearby East Howard oil fields there was a "brak" downpour. Vincent, Green Valley and Luther, northwest of here, reported approximately one-fourth inch rain. There were good showers at Fairview, north of the city, and the Rockerly area received spotted showers.

Those regions, particularly the communities northwest of the city where the rains were heavier, were believed to have received sufficient moisture for planting.

Abilene reported 1.3 inches, Bridgeport 2.1 inches. Archer county had more than an inch of rain, Coleman an inch and a half, and Haskell county more than an inch. Good rains fell at Wichita Falls, Vernon, San Angelo and Corsicana.

Winters, Merkel, Sweetwater and Hamlin reported good showers.

South and southwest of here, Big Lake, McCamey, Sterling City and Texon reported rains. Ozona and Sonora shared in the rainfall.

Partially benefitted was the Panhandle-Plains area, drenched Thursday by torrential rains. In some sectors the fall was reported as the most general in several years. The Memphis section had two inches of rain and a one-inch fall was recorded at Borger.

Campus Work Progressing

WPA School Project Due To Be Completed By End Of Term

By the last of school the WPA high school campus project will be virtually completed, Supt. W. C. Blankenship said Friday. At the present new steps and sidewalks are being laid and should be ready for use by the latter part of the coming week.

Trucksloads of turf from the high school campus are being hauled away to make possible the widening of Tenth street. The street will be made approximately 20 feet wider.

The old tennis courts which were destroyed to do the campus work will be replaced by new and larger ones somewhere on the school block. Several new doors will be added to the east wing of the high school building, so that junior high school students can go from one building to the other without going through the halls of the high school building. The doors will swing onto the newly-constructed sidewalks, so that students may go from one building to the other in any kind of weather.

Examinations For Civil Service Will Be Given Saturday

Sixty-nine persons will take civil service examinations here Saturday morning with one and perhaps two positions at stake.

Postmaster Nat. Snicker said that the examinations would be given for the positions of substitute clerk and carrier.

Lindsay Marobanks, local civil service secretary, will administer the examinations and will be assisted by A. A. Porter.

Those taking the examination have been called to meet at the high school at 8:30 a. m. Saturday. The work will start half an hour later.

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BIG SPRING, TEXAS, CALLING AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON THE 18TH DAY OF MAY, 1936, SUBMITTING TO THE QUALIFIED VOTERS OF THE CITY OF BIG SPRING THE QUESTION OF WHETHER THE CITY OF BIG SPRING SHALL PURCHASE AIRPORT PROPERTIES FROM BIG SPRING AIRPORT COMPANY, INC. AND ISSUE WARRANTS OF THE CITY OF BIG SPRING IN PAYMENT THEREFOR AND FOR IMPROVEMENT OF SUCH AIRPORT PROPERTIES AFTER PURCHASE, AND LEVY TAXES TO PROVIDE FOR PAYMENT OF SUCH WARRANTS.

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to the City Commission of the City of Big Spring, requesting the City of Big Spring to purchase airport properties now belonging to Big Spring Airport Company, Inc.; and

WHEREAS, it is considered necessary for the City of Big Spring, if said airport properties are purchased, to expend considerable money, not exceeding $6,000.00, for the improvement of said airport properties in order to place same in condition so they will be of any material value to the City after purchase; and

WHEREAS, the City of Big Spring does not have current funds with which to purchase said properties, and—

WHEREAS, the City of Big Spring is authorized by law to purchase, improve and maintain airports, after being duly authorized thereunto by a vote of the citizens at an election held for that purpose, and is further authorized to levy tax of not exceeding five cents on the one hundred dollar valuation for the purpose of maintaining and operating such airport after acquired; and the City Commission of the City of Big Spring desires to submit to the citizens of the City of Big Spring at an election held for that purpose the question of whether the City of Big Spring shall acquire and improve such airport properties; now, therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF BIG SPRING, TEXAS:

SECTION ONE: An election shall be held in the City of Big Spring on the 18th day of May, 1936, at which election the following propositions shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said City: "Shall the City of Big Spring purchase from Big Spring Airport Company, Inc., airport properties, consisting of 272.5 acres of land, together with buildings, equipment and other improvements located thereon and Common constipation* keeps you f. s. m. being at your best. It causes discomfort, and may lead to headaches and loss of appetite. You feel below par, lack your usual vigor.

So many people treat this condition as a slight matter. But it can be the starting point of serious trouble. It contributes to a general run-down condition. With lowered daily resistance, you are more likely to pick up the first chance infection you meet in your everyday routine.

Common constipation is due usually to insufficient "bulk" in meals. Fortunately, a delicious cereal supplies gentle "bulk." Within the body, the "bulk" in Kellogg's ALL-BRAN absorbs moisture, forms a soft mass, and cleanses the system.

Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal, with milk or cream, or cook into muffins, breads, etc. Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. Stubborn cases may require ALL-BRAN softener. If not relieved this way, consult your doctor.

ALL-BRAN is guaranteed by the Kellogg Company as an effective laxative food for constipation.* Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Bob Steele Star Of Western Story Billed At Queen

"The Kid Ranger," a new outdoor melodrama with its share of thrills as well as an interesting plot, is chief item on the screen menu at the Queen theater for Friday and Saturday. Bob Steele is starred.

He appears in the role of a youthful ranger on the trail of a band of border outlaws. The chief of the gang has acquired a hold over a former sheriff who lives quietly in the border town with his adopted daughter—the girl Steele loves—the ex-officer is threatened by the outlaws unless he joins them in a robbery. He tries to trick them, but fails, and Steele is called in to chase down the bandits.

The young ranger eventually is successful, with the aid of the former sheriff, and the picture ends happily with Steele getting the girl and her foster-father winning back his job as sheriff. The part of the ex-sheriff is played by William Farnum, one of the stars of silent-picture days.

MODERN FOOD CONCERNS: LINCK FOOD STORES IN BIG SPRING

Examples of modern stores devoted to food retailing are these three units of the Linck organization in the city—Marks the completion of nine years of progressive merchandising.

Remodeled Unit Marks Another Step Upward For Linck Food Stores Here

Remodeling of the No. 2 store, key unit of the Linck Food Stores in Big Spring—largest retail food organization in the city—marks the completion of nine years of progressive merchandising.

Starting out in Big Spring with one store and one employe in August of 1927, Ralph Linck has developed his business here until today it has three stores with a total of 20 employes.

In remodeling the No. 2 store, Linck has moved the meat market to the rear, placed shelving against the walls, angled display counters into the cashiers block and added several attractive center displays.

Meat vaults have been built into the rear portion of the store and lattice work run to the ceiling. Fixtures throughout have been painted white.

Linck came here in 1927 from Memphis, Tenn., after having been out of St. Louis. Practically all of his territory in Arkansas had been inundated by the floods of that year, and he was ready for a drier country.

With 15 years experience as a salesman for a wholesale grocery company, Linck decided to enter the grocery business and selected

Big Spring. He opened the Clarence Saunders store on lower Main street.

Second, Third Stores In October of 1928 he added his second store, the No. 2 unit which is still in its same location at the corner of Third and Gregg streets. The original store was moved to South Scurry street in May, 1929, and three years ago was remodeled along the lines which No. 2 now features.

The third unit of the system was acquired by Linck from Hely Seify in December, 1933, and soon be given a repaint job.

For three years Linck has been operating his own truck from San Antonio and El Paso, hauling the fruit and other produce which his stores require. Green and bunch stuff comes out of San Antonio and citrus fruits, lettuce and celery are hauled from El Paso.

All lines of goods handled in the three stores are nationally advertised brands, a practice which insures quality for customers.

Managing the stores are: No. 1, Charles Badwick; No. 2, Jewel Fox, and No. 3, Bob Lee.

VEGETABLES

We start by asking you to try a mess of our green beans at 5c per pound; or white and yellow squash at 3c per pound; then, too, we have nice crisp celery at 12c per bunch and new potatoes at 3c per pound. These are not all the vegetables, as we will have for you to choose from for your Saturday and Sunday meals, a complete line of all that the market affords.

DELICATESSEN

Mrs. D. Burrell wants you to come in and get acquainted with her, as she feels that after you have tried her cooking, especially her pastries, for your noon meals, you housewives will soon see how much better it is to come by and select what you want, cooked as you want it, than to stand over a hot stove these days, and still spend more money on your meals. For Saturday, in meats, beef, pork, chicken, cooked, hot and ready to serve, delicious meat loaf, chicken fried steak and barbecued beef. For salads, if you don't want combination salad, then how about some banana-nut or salad for a change? You should be able to find several vegetables among those cooked for you Saturday noon. They are: fresh turnip greens, baked stuffed potatoes, spaghetti and tomatoes, fresh cabbage with ham and small lima beans, all deliciously cooked. For dessert, if pineapple pudding does not tempt you, how about peach cobbler? And for the staff of life part, do you prefer hot rolls or hot corn bread?

MEATS

We have, at all times, all cuts of the finest Kansas City, fancy beef, and you will be surprised how economical it is to buy the best. We will have a nice lot of dressed fryers for you Saturday, at a price that will surprise you, as well as plenty of dressed hens, dressed to suit you, and priced likewise.

The Sports Circuit

PAP PAYNE and John Hill will share pitching honors Saturday afternoon when the Cosden Oilers and the Coahoma Bulldogs meet on the East Third St. diamond.

SUPERSTITIONS, OR temperament if you prefer to call it that, are noticeable among baseball players who maintain winning is a matter of a little strength, some brains and a world of luck.

BILL LEE, Chicago Cubs' pitcher, for instance, is mighty superstitious on days he is going to pitch. He won't say a word to anyone and the mere suggestion of being photographed sends him scurrying for cover.

THE .656 average with which the Cincinnati Reds won their only National League pennant, in 1919, is the highest percentage standing of any pennant winner since 1909.

GRAPEVINE REPORTS say that Bloddy Cross, San Angelo scribe, has the inside track for a place on the San Angelo school board.

COSDEN LAB CHALKS UP FIRST SOFTBALL VICTORY

FREEZERS LOSE 2ND STRAIGHT

By HANK HART
Coming from behind with a three run rally in the fourth after the Freezers had batted completely around to take a 10-8 lead in their part of the same frame, the Cosden Chemists added six runs in the sixth to win out, 17-12, over Frost Thursday night on the Mundy diamond.

It was the Lab's first victory and the Druggists' second loss in as many stunts.

Lab counted in every inning but the fifth in chalking up their initial win, and capitalized on numerous Frost miscues for several of their runs. They recorded only 14 base blows in turning back the Soda Skeets, while the Druggists got to Horace Wallin for 10 safe ticks.

W. Phillips was the leader in batting, the Lab "hot corner custodian" collecting a circuit smash and three singles in five attempts.

The Druggists were forced to play the whole game with eight men, leaving the center field and second base open.

Roland Swatzy, doing mound duty for the Frost aggregation, did well enough until the third when the Chemists showered base hits to all corners of the field.

Injury Jinx Strikes Early At The Four Leading Contenders For The American League Pennant

SWING IN EAST HURTS BENGALS

DETROIT, May 8 (AP)—That old jinx, injuries to key players, wasted little time before striking the four leading contenders for the American league pennant—Detroit, Boston, New York and Cleveland.

The Tigers have been most fortunate in the past in the matter of avoiding injuries. They have paraded to two consecutive pennants with their line-up practically intact. But this year their luck seems to be failing.

The Cleveland Indians suffered the saddest blow of all when Bruce Campbell was stricken with cerebral spinal meningitis for the third time in ten months.

Inspiration To Team
The entire Cleveland team had been rooting hard for Campbell to make a successful comeback after the game fight he put up for his life last summer when he suffered a fracture of the left wrist—the same one which kept him out of the World Series—when Jake Powell the Washington outfielder, accidentally crashed into him at first base.

Sox Suffer, Too
The luck of the Boston Red Sox did not even hold out until the season got under way, for Johnny Marcum, a newcomer from the Athletics, suffered a sore arm in training camp and threw cold water on the Red Sox's high hopes for a pennant. Marcum was counted on to add 20 victories to the Sox total. And then to make matters even worse, a bad bouncer cracked Manager Joe Cronin's thumb in one of the early games and put him out of commission for six weeks.

The New York Yankees had to get along without the services of their prize rookie, Joe DiMaggio, for the first three weeks of the season as the result of a training camp accident. Joe strained his ankle in practice and when heat treatments were resorted to he suffered a severe burn on his instep.

JESSE OWENS IS ALL-TIME PICK OF OHIO STATE COACH

(This is the sixth of a series of stories on the all-time all-star selections of the nation's leading college track coaches.)

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, May 8 (AP)—Jesse Owens, the answer to a track coach's prayer, simplifies the selection of Ohio State's all-time all-star track and field team.

After naming Owens for four of the 15 events on the list, Coach Larry Snyder found practically no difficulty in rounding out the squad, despite a surplus of exceptional talent in two specialties.

Owens would be in a sprint class by himself at most any other university, but on Ohio State's roster he shares the honors with George Simpson. Jesse equalled George's best mark of 9.4 for the 100 and reduced the world standard for 220 yards to 20.3 seconds last year, but he has yet to parallel Simpson's consistency.

George won the 100 at the Penn relays three years running, twice at 9.8 seconds. He ruled the Big Ten roost in the dashes, placed in the finals of both Olympic sprints in 1932 and had a mark of 20.6 seconds for the 100.

Because he used starting blocks Simpson's 9.4 mark in the century was never recognized internationally.

Owens and Charley Beetham, the best collegiate half-mile in the country, are Ohio State's all-star nominations for this year's Olympic team.

The negro is pointing for both sprints as well as the broad jump, in which he extended the world record to 26 feet, 8 1/4 inches last year.

Beetham, a sensation at the recent Penn relays, has a best mark of 1:52 for 880 yards. Undoubtedly he could qualify for the Olympic 800, teaming with Ben Eastman to strengthen Uncle Sam's hand.

However, Snyder thinks he will make an ideal man for the 400 meters hurdles and may point Beetham exclusively for that event, with the idea he has a better chance to gain an Olympic gold medal for it.

Moderns Miss All-Time Nine Of Bresnahan

Great Catcher Picks Only Gehringer With Great Of Another Era

By GEORGE KIDD
United Press Staff Correspondent
TOLEDO, May 8 (UP)—Roger Bresnahan, one of baseball's great impersonals, who caught Christy Mathewson, doesn't think the national pastime is what it used to be.

"Modern baseball lacks strategy," he says. To emphasize his conviction, he has named an all-time, all-star team on which he has placed only one man who is playing today. He is Charlie Gehringer of the Detroit Tigers.

"Inside baseball, as practiced by Joe old-timers, is missing from the game today," Bresnahan believes.

"In the old days, ball teams always were trying to out-guess and out-smart the opposition. They always were thinking one play ahead of the game. The only time they would get crossed up would be when the other side pulled a boner, and did the wrong thing."

Day of Individualism
"But take the game today. Nine times out of ten you know what each batter is going to do. He's going to try to knock the cover off the ball. Players on old-time teams dove-tailed. Today, most teams are just so many individual ball players."

Bresnahan probably is best known as a partner of one of the great batteries of baseball. He caught Christy Mathewson during "Matty's" hey-day with the Giants, from 1904 to 1908.

He began his 36 years of active baseball before the turn of the century.

Following is the all-time, all-star team as Bresnahan sees it: Willie Keeler, Baltimore, right field.

Clarence Beaumont, Pittsburgh, center field.

Fred Clark, Pittsburgh, left field.

Frank Chance, Chicago, Cubs, 1st base.

Charlie Gehringer, Detroit, 2nd base.

Honus Wagner, Pittsburgh, short stop.

Jimmy Collins, Boston Nationals, 3rd base.

Martin Bergen, Boston Nationals, catcher.

Pitchers—Christy Mathewson, Giants; Rub, Waddell, Athletics; Walter Johnson, Washington.

Ex-Steeple Chaser Gum Shoes Way Into Society; Billy To Be Guest Of Honor At Big Preakness Ball

Dignitaries To Turfdom To Be Assembled Soon

BALTIMORE, May 8 (AP)—Billie Barton, the ex-steeplechaser, is going to step out on May 15 with gummed shoes on.

Billy will be a guest of honor that night at the Preakness ball celebrating the race of that name to be run the next day at Pimlico.

He should feel at home among the dignitaries of turfdom and their guests, for he has met the best in the society race realm.

Met and Conquered
In his day, he not only met but conquered some of the most formidable contenders of the turf and brush. It must be said, though, that he was on the running and not the riding end of these triumphs, for he is a racehorse, now 19 years old and retired after a notable record.

For that reason, he must wear heavy rubber shoes to keep his hoofs from scarring the ballroom floor. So attired, however, he will

Stalcup, Ellis, Worley Are Other Pictorial Review Qualifiers

Mrs. Theron Hicks led the four qualifiers from this section for the sectional Pictorial Review play on the Dallas Country club this month.

The four qualifying on the municipal course here yesterday were: Mrs. Hicks, Harry Stalcup, H. L. Ellis, and Chas. Worley. Only six played.

Mrs. Hicks, who shot a 47-39 in the high wind, led the qualifiers with an 80. She had a six handicap. The same handicaps used in the qualifying play will be used in the matches on the Dallas course.

Her card:
Par out—444 553 553—28
Hicks out—447 765 563—47.
Par in—444 553 553—38.

Mrs. Hicks was only one above ladies' par on her final round. She was awarded a bronze medal as low qualifier from this district.

Mrs. Stalcup had an 88, Ellis an 86 and Worley 88.

One of the longest highway tunnels in the world, the Busk-Ivanhoe, near Leadville, Colo., originally was constructed for railroad use.

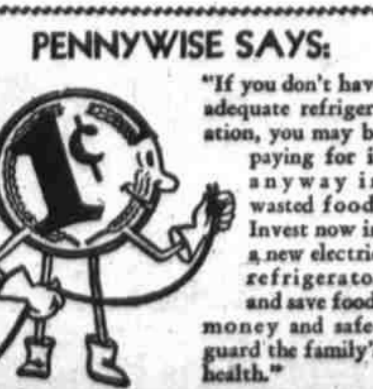

Nebraska Track Star Wins Discus Throw By Accident

LINCOLN, Neb., May 8 (UP)—Sam Francis, University of Nebraska, braska port sided weight topper and football star, was crowned a winning discus thrower of 149 feet 3.1 inches at the Drake Relays, but it was all an accident.

Francis, better known as a shot-putter than as a discus thrower, attempted to show a teammate, Fred Shirley, what was wrong with his discus form. Both were entered in the event, and Francis' effort, which served the dual purpose of a lesson and an official trial, exceeded even his fondest hopes.

Internationalism In Dress And How To Change Your Complexion To Suit, Suggested By Authority

Internationalism has walked out of Geneva into the smartest drawing rooms of Paris, London and New York this spring. And all you need with your international clothes to go Chinese, Spanish, English, Parisienne or American with acknowledgements to the Gibson girl is the right make-up.

this year. And never has it been more important to keep the peace between the fashions in your face. A 20th century American face over the demure high necks and straight lines of a Chinese frock is a paradox. And the same face over the dashing accoutrements borrowed from the treader and matador is a let down. With the richness and sophistication and grande dame quality of the Empire period that the French gowns have this year incorporated, the American face must be played up or sink into obscurity. And if tweeds are the day-time choice of the American face, it must be given the freshness and transparency that do not come of their own accord in steamheated apartments.

So play up your face and achieve the infinite variety that the international styles this year allow. "Not only can you be beautiful," says Helena Rubinstein, world authority on feminine loveliness, "but you can be beautiful in any style if you will take the trouble to learn how."

Glamorous black net and ruffles below the knee ask for some follow up. However, it doesn't have to be a dagger for that matter a ruse between the teeth. A matador hat because you like the shape and it suits shiny black straw doesn't necessarily call for a bull.

Spanish
"But you do want a glorious, camelia smooth finish to your complexion for Spanish effectiveness," asserts Helena Rubinstein, who has just come to New York from Paris, where she collaborated with the haut couturiers in the production of the Spring 1936 international beauty.

If your clothes are Spanish, Madame Rubinstein claims, you should wear a terra cotta town and country augmentation to conceal small imperfections and give that warm golden glow so characteristic of both blonde and brunette senorita. You must emphasize your cheekbones with just a hint of rouge placed high up and away from the nose, and use mauveque powder to give your skin the right dull mat-like finish. Lipstick must outline the lips distinctly, a foil for the correct brilliantly white teeth.

Eyes are the most important feature of the "Spanish" make-up. And a very special trick to play them up big is to put your eye makeup on first. Ardant and flashing (bathed regularly with eye drops) they must gleam mysteriously through a heavy fringe of curling lashes. That's done by an application of mascara—the definite quality of the midnight blue makes the lashes doubly noticeable and the eyes by contrast seem softer and more languorous than ever. Green eyeladow by day and carefully blended green and gold eyeladow by night will add depth to the eyes of the dark-eyed senorita. And blue eyes will wear blue eyeladow by day and blue with gold at night to bring out unsuspected beauty and brilliance.

With this make-up, your hair brushed back smoothly to highlight your eyes still further, and a tortoise shell comb, you don't have to speak Spanish.

Chinese
Chinese tunic dresses, coolie jackets, jackets showing the Mandarin influence and pagoda hats are being worn now and will continue to be worn through the summer. "But they won't be worn with a baby blue stare or a milk and water expression," according to Madame Rubinstein. You have to build yourself up to the part.

The Chinese lady is slim and exotic. Her complexion is smooth, unlined, creamy, and her eyes limpid and inscrutable. "Because the gowns she wears are rich and bright in color, you cannot successfully dress a la Chinoise without achieving her clear pallor," asserts Madame Rubinstein. A cool, refreshing foundation for the skin, cream powder, Chinese red lipstick, blue-violet eyeladow for dark eyes and blue-green for blue eyes will make a tennis champion look cool and poised and fragile. If you are an ash blonde with a thin transparent skin anyway, try green iridescent eyeshadow to appear superlatively delicate and exotic. Blend your eyeshadow out and up toward the temples and slant your eyes just a trifle at the corners with the eye pencil—and even your enemies won't know you.

English
Or are you taking this opportunity to go casual and English—so English you wear a "coat and skirt" instead of a suit and so casual, what with the fashion for contrasting skirts and jackets in different tweeds, that you've forgotten which jacket goes with which skirt? If you know enough to wear a foundation for your make-up, you know that the right face for the tweed ensemble and the classic felt is the natural face.

The "Men-of-the-Church" will meet Tuesday at 7 p. m. for a supper program. The pastor will bring scholars from the Laymen's Missionary convention which met in Dallas the first of this week. All men are most cordially invited to attend this meeting for entertainment.

Pegtop skirt and fitted blouse, feminine curves and lingerie touches along with the masculinity of shirtwaist stripes, high necks, raised, emphasized shoulders—clothes for the 1936 version of the Gibson girl are a bundle of provocative contradictions.

You can be 100 per cent American this year and yet be as dramatic as you like. In fact you must be dramatic if you want to be in style. Clothes alone may make a man, but when a woman is concerned, they must complement and compliment.

To make your face more irresistible than the clothes of the gay nineties, Helena Rubinstein advises that you be sweet, but not insipid; coy, but not a vamp. A spot on the chin cleft will produce the illusion of a dimple—if you're interested in dimples, and peachbloom enchanter powder and red coral lipstick are right for the modern Gibson girl face. Let yourself go with the lipstick because Victorian notwithstanding the rosebud mouth is out of date. A touch of eye tissue oil will give your eyelids a youthful, appealing gleam. Eyelash grower and darkener keeps every hair of your well arched brows in place and brown Persian mascara is the final touch in this charming make-up for the face.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY
Services, Sunday 11 a. m. Room

1, Bettles hotel. "Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientists on Sunday, May 10.

The golden text is: "Cease ye from man whose breath is in his nostrils; for wherein is he to be accounted of? (Isaiah 2:22). Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." (Matthew 5:48).

The lesson-sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Christlike understanding of scientific being and divine healing includes a perfect principle and idea—perfect God and perfect man—as the basis of thought and demonstration" (page 259).

1st Baptist Picnic At City Park

Rain Does Not Hinder Intermediates' Good Time

Members of the Intermediates department of the First Baptist Sunday school, their teachers and officers, went to the City park Thursday afternoon for an enjoyable picnic. The little rain that fell at the City park did not hinder their fun in the swimming pool and on the playground.

A sandwich supper and ice cream was served.

About 85 were present. Many special visitors went out for the evening. In addition to the superintendent of the department, Mrs. J. C. Douglass, the following officers were present: Mmes. Elton Taylor, M. L. Burch, W. D. Cornell, J. P. Dodge, George Gentry, G. H. Hayward; Misses Pearl Butler, Lois Carden, Mabel Robinson, Dorothy Nummy, Edna Phillips; Messrs. W. D. Cornelison, George Williams, Wayne Mathews, J. C. Douglass, Jr., and Scott Duncan.

Mrs. Victor Martin Is Hostess To Ely See Club

Mrs. Victor Martin was hostess for a luncheon bridge party for members of the Ely See club Wednesday at her home.

Mrs. Wasson scored highest and Mrs. Bliss second.

Only members were present. They were: Mmes. Lee Rogers, Robert W. Turner, Tom Ashley, J. E. Young, Turner Wynn, R. E. Bliss and Elmo Wasson.

Mrs. Wynn will be the next hostess.

Mrs. Hill Talks On Diets for Overweight

The Elbow Home Demonstration club met at the school house Tuesday. Mrs. Hill gave a talk on "Diets for the Overweight." She gave causes and disadvantages of being overweight, related special diets and exercises to be taken under the supervision of a doctor.

Mrs. Burnett talked on various kinds of non-fattening mayonnaise and gave the recipes for making them.

Mrs. Virgil Williamson was present as a new member, and Mrs. Smith McKinnon and Miss Lucy

Famous Children Set 1936 Styles For Well-Dressed Young Americans

By ADELAIDE KERR
NEW YORK (AP)—Famous children are setting styles for young America this spring.

From England's fair-haired Princess Elizabeth to youthful "royalty" of the movie world, they are launching frock and coat fashions for the rest of the juveniles.

Princess Elizabeth's love for yellow has produced a vogue for daffodil shade in summer frocks, while the preference of her small sister, Princess Margaret Rose, for pink has kept that in the foreground.

English smock frocks of pastel crepe or soft flowered silk with the skirt falling from a brief yoke are shown by many children's designers. "Princess" frocks fitted to the waistline and buttoned straight down the front, also are seen.

Sailor Suit Vogue
The trim sailor suit worn recently by a movie star is reflected in sailor and middy suits for both boys and girls, designed with big collars banded in white braid.

The new spring coats for the youthful contingent are cut on extreme tailored lines. They are simple, broad-shouldered double breasted.

ed models of dark blue, grey or beige wool.

The vogue for knitted clothes which has swept the grown-up world is reflected in bright wool sweaters for wear with brief pleated skirts on cool days and in pastel knitted or crocheted cotton frocks for warmer weather.

The rest of the juvenile spring frock pageant shows a galaxy of old fashioned materials and combination of colors as striking as a flower garden. Flowered dimities, shantung, printed cottons, checked gingham and piques appear in such color combinations as leaf green and yellow cream, rose and blue, and coral red and white.

Colorful crepe de chine and sheer white dotted swiss make the smartest party frocks. Both these and the school day models are designed with skirts falling from a brief yoke for small three-year-olds and waistlines marked by belts for older girls.

Boys spring outfits feature a combination of shorts and short-sleeved skirt in knitted cotton or crash for playtime wear and simple tailored suits of flannel or linen crash for dress up occasions.

Philathea Class Day Held At First Methodist Church; Mrs. Bailey, Guest

Class day for the Philathea Sunday school class was Thursday instead of Wednesday this month, the members meeting at the First Methodist church for a covered dish luncheon and their regular business session.

Mrs. R. J. Barton gave the devotional and Mrs. Tracy Roberts presided over the business meeting. Members voted to have a wiener roast at the City park next Friday evening and take their husbands and families. They will meet at the church at 8:30.

Mrs. Roberts was presented with a pretty birthday cake topped with candles.

Mrs. W. C. Bailey of Albuquerque, N. M., wife of a former pastor, was an honor guest of the class.

Present were: Mmes. W. K. Edwards, C. F. Lochridge, Tom Slaughter, Ches Anderson, R. D. McMillan, R. F. Bluhm, Charles Watson, I. S. McIntosh, C. A. Bickley, R. C. Badgett, Robert Hill, Jimmy Lett, Carl Williams, L. C. Graves, E. Maddux, E. W. Lowmire, Pascal Buckner, W. L. Hanshaw, Louis Murdock, C. M. Weaver, Tommy Layne, Garner McAdams, J. T. Klingler, A. M. McLeod, H. V. Gregory as visitors.

Present also were: Mmes. W. D. Lipscomb, Ross Hill, Noel Y. Burnett, Jack McKinnon, Roberts. Mrs. Clarence McMurry will be the next hostess. The club will meet at her home.

Crocker, W. J. Goodson, Ralph Fowler, H. E. Howie and M. E. Ooley, Mrs. D. A. Koons was a visitor.

Mrs. Sam McCombs Is Matinee Hostess

Mrs. Sam McCombs was hostess to the members of the Matinee bridge club for a jolly party Thursday afternoon.

Three pretty trophies were awarded. Mrs. Harwell received hose for her high club score, Mrs. Duff, a Mexican feather picture for visitors' high; and Mrs. Underwood a black fruit bowl for winning in bingo.

Mrs. Jimmy Tucker will entertain next.

The three guests of the club were: Mmes. Hollis Webb, F. E. Bluhm, Emory Duff. The members were: Mmes. Sam Baker, Joe Cleve, A. E. Underwood, George Harwell, Charles Badwick, Tom Donnelly, Tucker, Leon Smith and E. C. Boatler.

Ross Shultz Married To Girl In El Paso

Ross Shultz and Miss Henrietta Curly were married Thursday evening at El Paso by the Rev. Edward L. Millican in his Lower valley home. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wilburn.

A few friends and relatives of the couple were present for the ceremony.

Shultz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shultz of Big Spring and was reared here. He has lived in El Paso for the past 10 years and is employed in the Ready-to-Eat shop there.

He and his wife will live at 103 East San Marcial street.

Farewell Party Given For Tulsa Visitor

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Read entertained with a farewell party complimenting her house guest, Mrs. Emma Wilbur Johnson Thursday evening at her apartment at the Settles hotel.

Mrs. Johnson is leaving Sunday for her home in Tulsa Okla.

The evening was spent in dancing.

In addition to many local friends Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Jones of Abilene were party guests.

Lane has been employed by the Texas & Pacific as a brakeman for the last eight years. He and his bride will live at 309 N. E. First street.

PIANO LATEST GIFT TO DIONNE QUINTS

CALLANDER, Ont., May 8 (UP)—The Dionne quintuplets today handed away enthusiastically on their newest possession—a piano—given to them yesterday by Judge J. A. Valin, chairman of their board of guardians, as an advance birthday present.

The girls will be two years old May 28, but Judge Valin decided his gift would be just as acceptable earlier.

The five showed the keenest interest in the new present, all playing it, or attempting to, at the $50,000. It was identified as part of that taken in raids at Lima, Dayton and Greenville, O.

Womanless Wedding To Be Held Tonight At Municipal Auditorium

The performance to be given for the Band Boys this evening at the Municipal auditorium will be a two-part show. The first will employ a variety of local talent in song and dance numbers. The second will be a burlesque staged by the juniors of high school.

The burlesque, "The Womanless Wedding" was given at the high school and was greeted with uproarious hilarity. It was clowning carried to the last degree. Because it was so successful the pupils were prevailed to repeat it.

The cast in order of their appearance will be as follows:

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

By BREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON—Admiral Joseph Reeves, commander-in-chief of the United States fleet, has had a bad attack of the spy jitters.

The other day, at least, he issued one of the most unusual orders in American naval history. He decreed that no officer or enlisted man in the United States fleet could keep a camera of any kind aboard ship.

As a result, several small boatloads of photographic material were taken off the ships just after the order was issued. Officers desiring to take pictures ashore will now have to buy cameras and films while on port and leave the cameras there.

Two-Dollar Language Madame Vargas, charming wife of the president of Brazil, was being entertained at lunch by Mrs. Roosevelt.

Franklin Roosevelt, Jr., asked whether he was engaged to Ethel in Port, the Liberty League-munitions heiress whom he met at quarantine in New York harbor recently.

Not Neglected The army and navy are not the only branches of the military service that have done well by themselves under the new deal.

During the current year more than 125 armories are being constructed, chiefly with WPA funds.

Another secret about these armories is the fact that in most instances their cost far exceeds the $25,000 limit fixed by the president as the maximum to be spent on individual WPA projects.

This year's secret armory building program is only a starter. In collaboration with state officials and national guard executives, the WPA has worked out a program for the construction of 800 additional armories at a cost of $60,000,000.

Erection of these buildings will begin in the new fiscal year, starting July 1. As in the case of practically all those now under construction, most of the armories in the new program will also surpass the $25,000 cost limit.

The strength of the national guard is now at its highest peak since it was organized just after the World War. There are 185,000 officers and men on its rolls; and under an increase authorized by congress last year this number will mount to 195,000 by the close of 1937.

It would be more intriguing if his real name could be used, but it can't—because he wasn't supposed to be in Sfax—but one fellow scribe was there recently and ran into a sad situation—so bad that it makes me laugh whenever I think of it.

Warned about robbers, he was staggering home in the gloaming, with the sands of the desert around him and the exotic sky above, when four ragged fellows with beards and white robes leaped out and cracked him on the head.

What makes the incident so ironic is that he actually went ashore to protect a sailor who was intoxicated in a native dive. And as so often happens, the good Samaritan got a busted pate for his trouble while the sailor who was in danger reeled safely home.

WORK OF THE G-MEN

Recent activities of J. Edgar Hoover and his associates in the bureau of investigation, department of justice, resulting in the arrest of three of the so-called public enemies of high rank, serves to direct again the attention of the nation to the efficiency of its "G-Men."

The G-Men haven't really failed yet. A large part of their work is not the spectacular that makes newspaper headlines, and few laymen can say how many hours of painstaking investigation, of following clues and informative leads, of checking this evidence against that, are spent by the federal agents before the actual arrest that does catch the public eye.

Hoover has gathered about him men who are not only highly efficient, but more. They are honest, conscientious men, devoted to their jobs of trailing, capturing and convicting the criminal. There has not yet come to light the slightest hint of any irregularity in the entire department, or among its personnel.

That is much more than can be said of most of the rest of our law-enforcement agencies. Even the recent arrests by G-Men have brought out unpleasant sidelights on some local situations. Following the apprehension of Alvin Karpis, there were allegations that, some years back, that gangster evaded arrest because of a "leak" of information in the police department of St. Paul.

When the bureau of investigation first launched its vast campaign against crime, there was some criticism in the nation of the centralization of law-enforcement work, with the complaint that local authority was being usurped. If that were true, it was needed. No citizen today wants a return to the crime conditions of two and three years ago, when gangsters were actually flaunting their power over local and state authorities.

The G-Men overrode a lot of that, and as a result have rounded up most of the notorious criminals. The nation has a right to be proud of this division of its government.

Man About Manhattan

By George Tucker

NEW YORK—One of the more fascinating legends, at least to me, about the various far-flung ports of the world, concerns the customs of throwing leis into the sea after leaving Honolulu.

"I have often wondered if you have ever been to Honolulu," she writes, "but recently I read in your column that you had read somewhere that departing visitors from Hawaii cast their leis overboard as they rounded Diamond Head as a sign that they would return."

"This is a very pretty custom but it had a most unromantic origin. The Hawaii Tourist Bureau was told to devise a scheme to discourage tourists from trying to take wilted and possibly termite or bug-filled leis into California when they disembarked there.

Wine is only 9 cents a quart at Sfax. Tunisia, which is near Tripoli, but wandering scribes are urged not to go ashore after nightfall if by chance they are aboard tramp steamers which put in there. Arab thieves are apt to leap from behind a salt pile and rob you after battering you into a state of insensibility.

It would be more intriguing if his real name could be used, but it can't—because he wasn't supposed to be in Sfax—but one fellow scribe was there recently and ran into a sad situation—so bad that it makes me laugh whenever I think of it.

Soviet Orders Purge To End Sale Of Land

Transactions For Private Gain Are Charged To Farmers

MOSCOW, May 8 (UP)—The Soviet government has begun a nationwide drive against peasants, kulaks and merchants accused of buying, selling or leasing land.

the money for their own needs. It was charged they rented the land to anyone who had the price to kulchok peasants, individual peasants, kulaks, disfranchised persons, tradesmen and organizations of the neighboring town of Balashov.

The rate which they established was 50 kopeck a "sajen" (7 feet) for kulchok members; from 1.50 rubles to three rubles a sajen for individual peasants, and four rubles a sajen for village organizations.

Not only did the conspirators lease the land, but those to whom they leased it sabet it at good interest, it was charged. A former merchant, Vassily Tveritin, who escaped from justice, sabet 15 acres of land to kulchok and non-kulchok peasants at a high price.

V. G. Sobolev, a defendant, who was acquitted, said in his testimony that "I let it and let it to others and there still was some left."

Various individual peasants received sentences ranging from a year in prison to a year of compulsory labor. The latter will be allowed to work, but a large part of their salary will be confiscated.

Chapter 22
REMAKING CAMILLA

Iris puzzled a little about Honora. She was housekeeper and more or less maid; but she was also in a way Aunt Phina's confidante, nearly companion. Iris liked Honora. She had something steady and wise about her. But she felt that there was a little mystery. You. Though when Honora came in with the tray, a handsome competent gray-haired Irish upper servant, the idea faded.

She had time to pull her thoughts together as she lay back against her heaped pillows in her lace-and-fur-lined dressing-jacket, tasting the tea and cinnamon toast which really should have been breakfast. It was queer to lose practically a day out of time this way.

In the light of Aunt Phina's attitude, and of broad daylight, she felt rather more than last night that she'd been an idiot, clinging to Aunt Ella's funny code of 1890 in a freer braver wider world.

And Allan Beckley was doubtless saying, Allan who had been such a comfort, after the shock of Morgan's engagement, with his gentleness and admiration. "I won't bother with a girl who has that attitude toward life." Her pride was hurt, and she was feeling more country-mouse than she had since the first day, as if she'd stuffed things, when the telephone rang.

"Good afternoon," said the easy voice at the other end of the wire. (Allan! Still liking her, still her friend! Then he didn't mind her being an idiot!)

"Oh, when did you wake up?" she asked.

"You don't sound so much awake yourself," said the voice. "What do you think? All the rest went to the Stork Club and are pulling a line of being wrong because we lost them. I told them we had the better 'ole, don't you think so?"

"It was an adventure!" She wouldn't be Miss Prudence any more!

"That's what I like about you. Life's all an adventure to you yet, an excitement. I suppose—his voice was teasing—even driving down to look at your new home on Long Island with me tomorrow would be exciting. We may meet your aunt there, or it may turn out I am kidnapping you for ransom, of course. Want to take a chance? Ten, say."

She laughed. "I'll try you once more. If we get lost again I'll have mad money, this time."

She rose and dressed, light-hearted. She couldn't help being a bit thrilled and pleased at all this. The telephone rang again. Camilla.

"Can I come up to tea?" she said.

"Oh, do!" She got downstairs as Camilla came in.

"What did happen after we went?" she demanded.

Camilla laughed. She settled back in her chair. She was at ease with Iris by now, and in the gray dress which modeled her stately handsome statuesque figure, instead of trying to make her look adolescent, she was rather attractive.

The glasses and the eager round and careless make-up of the hunched shoulders, were really all that was wrong. Camilla was not the fashionable type, but she had her own possibilities.

"You and Allan vanished entirely," she said. "As Dicky said, the idea of taking him off that way was the slickest thing he ever saw. The rest of us went trustfully to the Stork Club. When you didn't turn up we went to Georgia's and had some breakfast and went home. Where on earth were you and Allan? Georgia made a terrible row."

"We drove to a place called the Chateau, way past Tarrytown," said Iris. "Allan Beckley thought that was where he was, and I thought he knew. And then the differential broke, and nobody came."

Camilla gave a delighted shriek. "Georgia's last year's hangout! Oh, grand! It served her right. She telephoned at intervals all over the world. She was worse than a cat with her robin's tolen. The Chateau! Oh, em, I like it!"

"But I didn't take him off. I thought—" She changed the subject, jumping at the next thing in her mind. She had awakened this afternoon to a delightful world; she wanted everybody to be as lucky as she was.

"Camilla, why do you wear glasses?"

Camilla jumped, then said, "Why—why—to read with."

"Then why don't you leave them off except for reading, and carry round the funny bone kind that never look as if they belonged to you, instead?"

Vandenberg's 'Dark Horse' Role Upset

Pre-Convention Strategy Is Altered By Michigan Endorsement

By BYRON PRICE
(Chief of AP Bureau, Washington)

The Michigan republicans surprised many of the political prognosticators by their open endorsement of Senator Vandenberg for president.

It had been assumed widely that, however strong the sentiment for him might be in his home state, that the brakes would be kept on effectively until convention time.

Senator Vandenberg long has been viewed by his friends as the No. 1 dark horse possibility for the nomination in case of a deadlock. Many of these friends have argued that absolute aloofness from the pre-convention scramble would strengthen him in that position.

If he had no delegates at all pledged to him, it was suggested, he could hardly be accused of having kept a single vote away from any other candidate, and he would come up to the starting post singularly free of those animosities which normally spring up among presidential aspirants.

It can only be conjectured whether, or in what degree, the action of the Michigan state convention may have changed that situation.

Faithful To Role
The senator himself has been entirely faithful to the role marked out by tradition for presidential dark horses.

He has become somewhat more active in recent months in the senate where he has sworn official duties to perform, but he has embarked on no extended speaking trips and if he has any organization outside of Michigan no one has been able to discover it.

He rarely has referred in his speeches to the coming presidential contest, and he had made no public comment on the activities of the several candidates. He has conferred in private with adherents of the various rival camps, but seems to have done nothing and said nothing to offend any of them.

During all of this time talk of his availability as a compromise candidate has persisted. In some respects, the prevalence of this talk has gone against precedent, in view of his own continued failure to ask for delegates or even declare himself receptive.

The innermost thoughts of Senator Vandenberg's Michigan admirers are not available, but it would seem that only one or two explanations are possible.

Perhaps they felt this style of campaign really was getting nowhere, and that the nomination was about to be foreclosed for someone else; or perhaps they decided that regardless of the wisdom of the first approaches, the time had come for a bolder strategy.

Not a Candidate?
At any rate, the Michigan republicans have done what they could to put the Vandenberg hat into the ring, and he has expressed gratification at the act. Future calculations of the delegate situation must go on from that point.

The development, furthermore, has come at a time when it appears certain the national convention will contain a very large number of uninstructed delegates. Many of these are pledged to one candidate or another, but the nature and binding quality of such pledges vary widely. Many are not openly pledged to anyone.

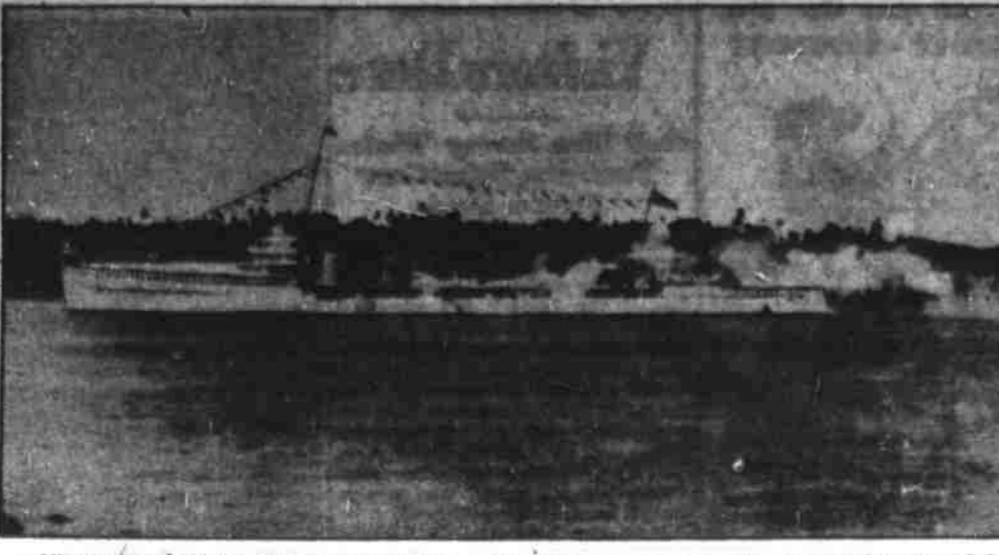

Does the Michigan action, plus the circumstances under which it was taken, remove Senator Vandenberg technically from the dark horse paddock weeks sooner than expected, and list him definitely among the candidates?

If so, does it mean that Senator Stetson or someone else now moves up into the vacancy thus created?

Only "the future"—perhaps only the convention itself—can answer these questions.

BRITISH CRUISER AT DISPOSAL OF FALLEN NEGUS

His armies shattered, his capital at Addis Ababa, where once he ruled the ancient kingdom of Ethiopia, in the hands of plunderers and within the grasp of the Italian invaders, Haile Selassie and his court fled the country to French Somaliland. In London it was disclosed that the fleet British cruiser Enterprise (above) had been placed at the Negus disposal. He was to go to Haifa, Palestine. (Associated Press Photo)

'Pretty Nice Ship' Says Skipper Of Liner Queen Mary

SOUTHAMPTON, England, May 8. (AP)—A gray-eyed, square jawed Yorkshireman, in excellent trim despite his 62 years, will be Britain's public hero No. 1 if the new superliner Queen Mary takes the blue ribbon of fast ocean travel away from the French liner Normandie.

Sir Edgar Britten, commodore of the Cunard-White Star line, who has been to sea 44 years, will be in command of the Queen Mary when she puts out to sea on May 27 on her maiden voyage to New York.

There will be a dual control, however, because of the size of the ship, with Capt. George Gibbons, 57 and a bachelor, sharing the command for the time being.

Reticent About New Post
Sir Edward is unquestionably proud of his new ship, but his natural reticence keeps him from talking a great deal about his new command.

"I don't know any more about her speed than anyone else," he states. "Nor do I know whether her speed will be really tested on the first voyage. I won't get my orders until we sail."

While the Queen Mary was in dry dock there, being scraped and painted, with workmen clambering over her sides like ants, Sir Edgar stood one day on the dock, gazing reflectively at the enormous bulk.

"Yes," he said finally to his wife who stood beside him, "she's a pretty nice ship."

Dozens Of Mascots Sent
Although 63 is the normal retirement age for men of his rank, there is no indication that Sir Edgar is ready to begin life ashore. He is a strict believer in daily exercise to keep fit, going through a "daily dose" without fail, whether afloat or on land.

He has received letters from all parts of the world, congratulating him on his new appointment, and dozens of mascots have been sent to him to encourage good luck on his maiden voyage on the Queen Mary.

Captain Gibbons, a typical sailor, short, broad and genial, has been captain of the Majestic, Aquitania and Berengaria.

Will Discuss Tax Matters

Clint Small To Be Speaker At WTCC Meeting In Amarillo

AMARILLO, May 8—The tax situation in Texas will be given a thorough airing when Sen. Clint C. Small of Amarillo speaks at the last general assembly of the three-day West Texas chamber of commerce convention here, May 11-13.

Impending legislation, due to raising the estimated $22,000,000 needed for old age pensions, is expected to form the nucleus for his address.

The senator already has called upon local communities to return to the days when death and taxes were considered inevitable.

"Too many people," he has told school officials here, "have been led to believe tax laws were made for somebody else. Death now is believed the only thing that is sure."

Senator Small will insist on prompt payment of the pensions, he said. However, he declared his opposition to confiscation of Texas' $3,500,000 school fund surplus as a means of partial payment.

"The pensions must be paid without inflicting a penalty on public education," he added. "I will favor a selective sales tax on the necessities of life as a last resort rather than see the youth of the state suffer so that the aged may have compensation."

He recalled that favorable legislation and an efficient board of education administration had built up the school surplus while other branches of the state government have accumulated a $10,000,000 debt. He said $25,000,000 is needed to balance the state budget.

"H-m-m! Too bad! Too bad! Yessir! Dern shame! Such a little feller, ya are, too! Yessir!—too bad!"

"What d'ya mean, too bad? It's a good little shack, ain't it got it for almost nothin'?"

"Yeah! No doubt! Ya would see in how th' last three owners disappeared outta it like they did! Ain't was never heard of again!"

DIANA DANE

"Say... will ya come outa that clinch long enough to tell me what's th' idea, Diana?"

"Why, we're merely rehearsing the love scene in the show, bud."

"Oh!"

"Let's run through it again, Diana. I want to get this scene down perfect."

"Well... if ya ask me, I think ya do it too good now!"

BLACK - DRAUGHT

Next Time You Need a Laxative

For constipation, take a dose of Black-Draught as soon as you realize the condition you are in. "If I am bilious, have headache, a cold, I take a dose of Black-Draught at night," writes Mrs. B. D. Thaxton, of Lexington, Ga. "If I have a bad feeling after meals, I take just a pinch of Black-Draught. It relieves me. I recommend it very highly—a good family medicine. I give my children Syrup of Black-Draught. I find both good." Black-Draught paves the way for the relief of many such symptoms as those mentioned above, when constipation is at the bottom of the trouble.

Just try it! Follow the directions carefully and you'll probably learn why Black-Draught is so popular.

Prize Winners In Texas Historical Contest Announced

Miss Bertha Graham, Dalhart school teacher, won the $100 first prize in the second of a series of nine weekly Texas history contests sponsored by the makers of Post cereals, according to the judges, E. W. Spence, president of the Texas Daily Press League, Inc., C. C. Maen, general manager of the Houston Post, and Victor Schoffeleers, president of the Texas Geographic society, of Dallas.

Miss Graham's answer to the second contest question, dealing with the massacre at Goliad, March 27, 1836, received the highest rating among thousands of entries sent in from all parts of Texas.

A second prize of $75 was won by Mrs. Beasle Ashenhurst, 2723 Gould Street, Dallas, mother of two grown daughters.

The $50 third prize was awarded to a 14-year-old high school pupil, John Price, son of Mr. and Mrs.

(LEGAL NOTICE) NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON CITY BUDGET

The City Manager has prepared and filed with the City Secretary of the City of Big Spring a proposed Budget for the City of Big Spring for the current fiscal year. The City Commission will convene in the City Court Room at the City Hall in the City of Big Spring on the 18th day of May, 1936, at 8:30 p. m., at which time a public hearing will be had on said budget. All citizens of the City of Big Spring have a right to be present at said hearing, and are hereby notified to be present at said time for said purpose, if they so desire.

E. V. SPENCE, City Manager.

Walter Price, of 205 East Pine street, Palestine.

Weekly advertisements published in Texas newspapers outline details of the contest, which has aroused interest among youngsters and adults. The advertisement announcing the seventh history contest, which appears in this paper today urges readers to hurry their entries before the series ends in a few weeks. Contestants must answer, in less than 25 words, a question based on a momentous incident in Texas history and put to the contestant in this manner: "As a Texan—What would you say?"

In addition to the prize winners named, $10 awards went to ten persons and 46 received $5 awards.

Oil Officials Visitors Here

Shell Men Survey Westex Territory; Sales Conference Held

Officials of the Shell Petroleum corporation were visitors in Big Spring this week, surveying activities of the Westex Oil company, jobbers of Shell products in West Texas and southeastern New Mexico. They were R. D. Ebbert, St. Louis, general manager of tank car sales; R. C. Robinson, New Orleans, tank car sales manager for Shell's southern division, and A. G. Henshaw, aviator with the Shell corporation. Ebbert was accompanied here by Mrs. Ebbert.

Robinson conducted a banquet meeting of dealers connected with the Westex company, 52 from Big Spring, Wink, Hobbs, Midland, McCombs, Hermleigh, Colorado and other towns gathering for sales discussions and the showing of moving pictures. The conference was featured by talks on tests and trials, over a two-year period, of Shell's new Golden Shell motor oil, which soon will be marketed in cans.

Mr. and Mrs. Ebbert, Robinson and Henshaw were entertained in the Ted O. Groehl and Joe W. Flicker homes while here. Henshaw made several plane flights over the city and territory, obliging several Shell dealers and Westex associates with rides.

'COSDEN COP' TO BE FEATURE ON RADIO

A new radio feature makes its bow to the public on Station WFBP at 5:30 p. m., Saturday, May 9th. The program will feature the Cosden Traffic Cop who will make weekly talks on safe driving and traffic regulation. This series of talks will tie in with the efforts of the various civic organizations in their efforts to reduce the loss of life and limb caused by reckless and careless driving.

The entertainment feature of this program will be furnished by a selected orchestra and a ladies' trio. The program is sponsored by the Cosden Oil corporation.

Hank McDaniel Is A Candidate For District Clerk

Hank McDaniel, for 15 years a resident of Big Spring and Howard county, Friday announced his candidacy for the office of district clerk. He made his announcement subject to the action of the democratic primaries.

During the first ten years he lived here, he was engaged in clerical and office work, experience which he believes adds to his qualifications for the position.

In asking support of his candidacy, McDaniel said, he believed he was fully qualified to discharge the duties of the office and would attempt to serve efficiently if elected.

For the past few years he has been engaged in the dairying business here and is known to most local voters.

WESTERNER

ture almost falls because of treacherous guides. Miss Stanwyck is wounded in an encounter with the enemy and is left behind by Boles and Beery as they forge ahead to their goal.

The climax of the picture is approached when Beery mistakenly lets Boles fall into a trap laid by Alan Hale, then leads Garcia's forces in a charge to the rescue that sets things right, reunites the lovers and brings the story to a happy close.

In the supporting cast besides Hale are Herbert Mundin, Enrique Acosta and Mona Barrie.

RANGER

Bob Steele (above), has the role of a ranger in "The Kid Ranger," a story of outlaws on the border which plays at the Queen on Friday and Saturday.

Program Is Given By Abilene Chorus

The Abilene high school chorus on a two-day good-will tour of nearby towns presented a program in the high school auditorium Friday morning. Twenty of the 43 members of the organization are making the appearances. Students are accompanied by L. E. Dudley, principal of the Abilene school, and the director, Miss Ouida Clemons.

Among the selections played are "Sing Me a Chanty with a Y-Heave-Ho," "Song of the Jolly Roger," "Alexander's Rag-Time Band," and "The Song of Man." An unusual arrangement of "Anchors Aweigh" was featured by the quartet. Earnest Reynolds, a member of the club, played an original composition entitled "Dear Girl." Words to the chorus were sung by the club. Pianist for the group is Aline Hardy.

A similar program was given by the organization in Midland, and was to be presented to the Colorado schools this afternoon.

Beery, Boles Seen In Film Of Adventure

'A Message To Garcia' Is Ritz Feature For Sunday And Monday

High adventure, romance and a full measure of comedy—those are the elements from which the action of "A Message To Garcia," a new screen production which is booked at the Ritz theatre Sunday and Monday, following a midnight matinee showing Saturday night.

Bringing together Wallace Beery, John Boles and Barbara Stanwyck in their first roles in the same picture, the new film is an engrossing story of the adventure—known to every school child—that changed the destinies of nations.

Boles is the hero of "A Message to Garcia." Entrusted with a dispatch to Garcia, somewhere in the tropical interior of Cuba, he sets out with Beery, a crafty, humorous renegade. In the course of their wanderings they meet Barbara Stanwyck whose father has been executed, and who is willing to lead them to Garcia. Their ven-

No Weed, But Real West Texas Flower

Spare those prolific weeds with lavender blossoms—they are machaeranthera tanacetifolia, a real West Texas flower.

According to information compiled by the WPA writers project department, these lavender blossoms are known by horticulturists as the "Tahoka daisy."

Botanists have classified them as an aster, of which the American daisy is a member.

These peculiar flowers which dot this part of the West Texas landscape were first discovered by Mrs. W. A. Myrick, Sr., Lubbock, who named them for Tahoka, the county seat of Lynn county where they were found growing most abundantly.

In 1934 the flower was commercialized to some extent and is now growing in England and Germany. The plant, which most Texans consider a weed, blooms usually in mid-June for the remainder of the summer. As a cut flower, it will close the first night, reopen the next morning and remain open until it withers.

Roofing Firm Opens For Business Here

Another new firm for Big Spring—the Underwood Roofing company—has opened for business. Location of this new establishment, with A. F. and J. E. Underwood, formerly of Ballinger and Winters, as proprietors, is 208 Donley street. The Underwoods have been in the roofing business for the past 10 years. J. E. Underwood has served with the civil service unit of the United States government as a roofer, having been sent to various islands in the Pacific ocean in connection with construction work of the Pan-American Airways. He spent two years in the Hawaiian Islands as a roofer.

The Underwoods have moved their families here to make their home.

MRS. MOLLISON SETS NEW FLIGHT RECORD

CAPETOWN, South Africa, May 8 (AP)—Mrs. Amy Johnson Mollison, British flyer, arrived here yesterday, creating a record for the flight from England to South Africa.

Mrs. Mollison's time was three days, six hours and 25 minutes. The previous record, set last February by Flight Lieut. Tommy Ross, was three days, 17 hours and 28 minutes. Rose beat the earlier record of Mrs. Mollison, but she has now regained it.

Mrs. W. R. Douglass is leaving Saturday morning for Longview, called there by the illness of her sister's baby. Her sister is Mrs. Frank Hincley, the former Miss Eleanor Antley, who taught in the Big Spring schools for several years.

HUSKIES are "Clicking"

"HERE'S A BRAND-NEW CEREAL TASTE... HUSKIES GIVE YOU FOOD-ENERGY AND HELP BUILD MUSCLE, TOO!"

LES MALLON, the Dallas Steers' leading second baseman, says: "For a swell flavor and food-energy athletes need, you can't beat HUSKIES."

GEORGIA COLEMAN, Olympic Diving Champion, writes: "They're a new cereal with a zesty tang you've never tasted before."

VINCENT RICHARDS, famous tennis star, a "power-house" of energy himself, declares: "HUSKIES are the easiest flavor I ever tasted in any cereal."

HUSKIES will click with you, too! Everybody who has tried HUSKIES has a good word for this new cereal! Just one spoonful of these crisp, crunchy flakes of whole wheat will tell you why—they have a zesty flavor you've never tasted before.

And in every delicious bowlful you get valuable food essentials of the whole wheat berry. (See panel at right.)

Let HUSKIES add a new tang to breakfast! And for lunch—or that after-school "snack," they're just as great. Ask your grocer for HUSKIES today!

FOOD ESSENTIALS HUSKIES GIVE YOU
Iron for blood. Phosphorus and other valuable mineral salts for strong bones and teeth. Carbohydrates for food-energy. Protein to help build muscle. And vitamins A, B, E and G—important to good nutrition.

HARRY McCURDY, Catcher-Manager, Ft. Worth Cats, makes that statement.
