— For April 9 Talk —

Shriver Will Visit

Sargent Shriver, director of the Peace Corps, will visit the Tech campus to speak at an all-school convocation April 9.

Royal Furgeson, president of the Student Council, making the announcement, said, "Congressman George Mahon is directly responsible for Mr. Shriver's visit to our campus. We are very grateful to him for his efforts in getting Mr. Shriver to speak to the Tech student body."

MAHON MAY VISIT

Furgeson also said that Congressman Mahon might accompany Sargent Shriver on his visit to Tech.

SHRIVER WILL speak at 10 a.m. in the Municipal Auditorium, and classes will be dismissed to allow all students to hear the address.

The Peace Corps director was instrumental in organizing the corps and making it a success. Shriver was chosen by Kennedy to head the Peace Corps when the corps was nothing more than an idea.

He is a brother-in-law of the late President John Kennedy.

Shriver, 48, is often mentioned

• Noon Deadline

Petitions for cheerleaders, Student Council representatives and Council officers must be turned in at the Student Council Office by noon today, according to Pat Hamilton, Student Council secretary. Miss Hamilton says that no petitions will be accepted after the noon deadline.

as a possible vice presidential candidate to run with President Johnson in 1964, but such mention is still mere speculation. The President did nothing to decrease the rumors when he chose Sargent Shriver to spearhead the "War on Poverty," in addition to directing the Peace Corps.

IN SPITE OF his relation to the late President, Shriver has considerable political reputation of his own. Shriver obtained his law degree at Yale, joined one of the choice law firms in New York, served in the Navy during World War II, became the youngest president of the Chicago Board of Education, was an Illinois State Legislature lobbyist with a remarkable winning streak.

Shriver was an Adlai Stevenson booster, and, in 1957-58 was widely considered as one of three or four men likely to become the next governor of Illinois.

Furgeson said that present plans call for the Peace Corps director to arrive in Lubbock sometime April 8, visit the campus and speak April 9 — and probably return fairly quickly to Washington, D.C.

Department Sponsoring European Speech Tour

Dr. P. Merville Larson, professor and head of speech at Texas Tech, has announced that his department will sponsor a European Theater Tour for credit through the extension division June 4-July 14.

The summer's itinerary will include visits to important theatrical centers and festivals in England, Scotland, Denmark, Holland, Germany, Austria and France, with attendance at a wide variety of performances.

BY CHARTERED BUS

Travel in Europe will be in chartered bus, with en route discussions of current developments in the European theater, making up six semester hours of Speech 3313 and 3314 through Tech's extension division.

DR. LARSON reports that enrollment and reservations are being accepted through April 1 at the Tech speech department on campus. A deposit of $100 is required with the balance, $1,250, due by April 1.

The fee includes all transportation from New York and return to Chicago by Scandinavian Airlines System; lodging; all meals, except for one day in London, Rome and Paris to give participants an opportunity to visit famous eating places of their choice; all theater tickets; and extension registration fees.

LIMITED TO 25

Enrollment will be limited to 25 students taking the course for academic credit. Additional enrollment of persons not desiring credit will be accepted to make the total party of not more than 35 persons.

DR. LARSON said that those who wish to do so may make arrangements for return from Copenhagen by ship at the same or later time than the scheduled plane departure July 13, with a slight modification in cost.

Plays definitely scheduled in Europe include "Love's Labours Lost" by the Brisol Old Vic Company in Amsterdam; "Murder In The Cathedral" in Canterbury; "Twelfth Night" and "Ring Around the Moon" at the Pitlochry Festival; "Henry V" at Stratford-upon-Avon; and "The Easter Man" at the Birmingham Repertory Theater.

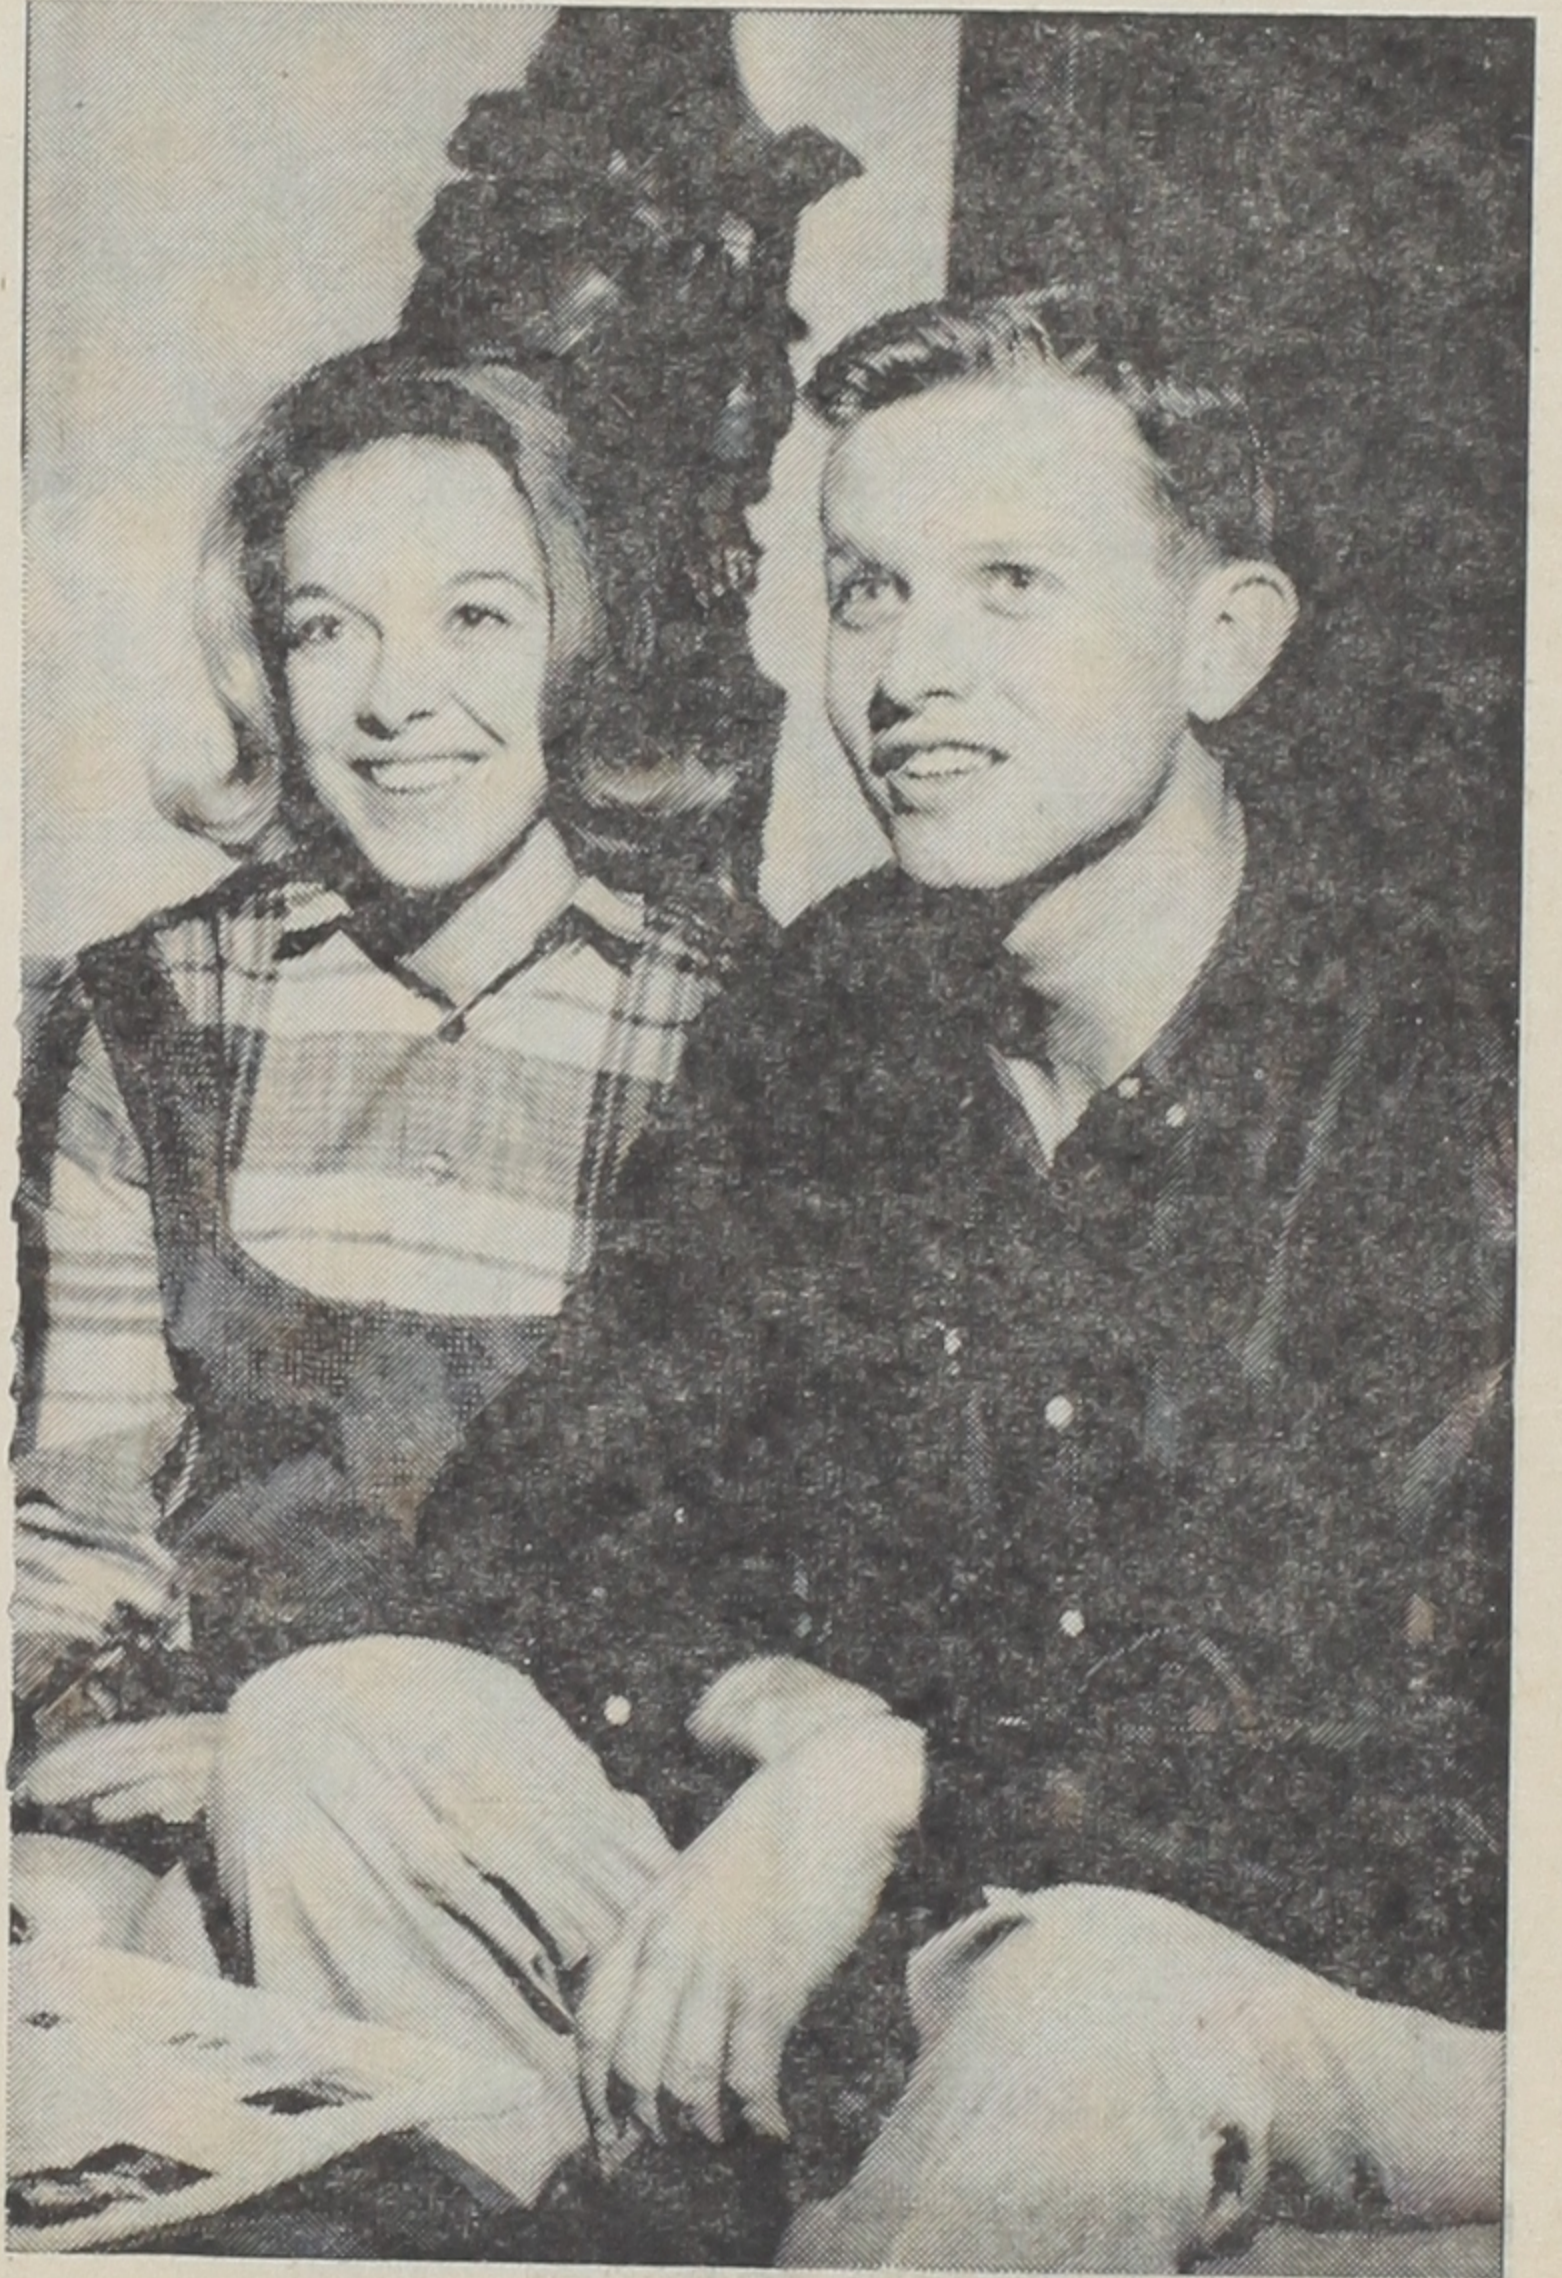

Band Society Cops Honors At Convention

Members of Texas Tech's men's and women's honorary band organizations have returned from the District 6 Convention in Waco with several offices and awards.

Wells Teague of Lubbock was elected president for District 6 of Kappa Kappa Psi, men's band fraternity. Miss Barbara Sherrell, Lubbock, was elected District 6 vice president of Tau Beta Sigma, women's band sorority.

In addition the Tech chapters placed second with their school and band display during the three-day convention. Fourteen students from the two Tech chapters attended.

District 6 is composed of chapters from Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas.

Grad Fees Due Today

Today is the deadline for paying graduation fees. The fee must be paid at the cashier's window of the comptroller's office in the Ad Bldg., room 111.

All seniors must pay the fees by the deadline in order to graduate. Invitation and robe fees must also be paid at the College Bookstore.

Robert Melton Jones

Techsan Dies Saturday

ROBERT MELTON JONES

Robert Melton Jones, 19-year-old Tech sophomore, died Saturday morning shortly after admission to Methodist Hospital.

He had been ill several days, and death was apparently due to a heart condition.

Services were Monday in Odessa and graveside rites were at Resthaven Memorial Park in Lubbock.

Jones is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tilden A. Jones, Lubbock, and one sister, Susan.

Jones was a business administration major and assistant advertising manager of the Daily Treador.

Friends of the family and relatives have set up a memorial scholarship fund for Jones. Contributions may be mailed to 1501 College Ave., St. John's Methodist Church.

Bobby Baker May Be Charged With Contempt Of Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — A report on the possibility of bringing contempt of Congress action against Bobby Baker was laid before the Senate Rules Committee Monday.

The report was submitted by L. P. McLendon, special counsel in the committee's investigation of the former Senate aide's business activities.

Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., told newsmen that the report, which also covers the refusal of other witnesses to answer committee questions, made no recommendation.

The committee decided at a closed meeting to consider calling additional witnesses whose testimony is demanded by Republican members.

The action represented at least a tactical victory for the Republicans, who raised a cry of white-wash against Democratic insistence that the inquiry has run its course.

Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W. Va., announced that the group voted unanimously to approve a motion by Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., under which a GOP list of more than a dozen proposed witnesses will be reviewed one by one and acted on individually.

The first three names on the list were voted on and rejected. Cooper declined to identify them, but from other sources it was learned they were Margaret Broome, a former secretary of Baker's and the former wife of Baker's law associate, Ernest C. Tucker, Jessop McDonald, and Rein J. Vander Zee, both former Baker aides.

Among others on the GOP list is Walter Jenkins, a White House assistant whose name figured in previous testimony about the purchase of advertising time on a Texas radio-television station controlled by President Johnson's family.

Baker and some other witnesses invoked the Fifth Amendment, when they appeared before the committee. Conviction on a contempt of Congress charge carries a possible penalty of $1,000 fine and a year in prison.

Others who declined to answer committee questions included Baker's secretary, Nancy Carole Tyler, and three of his alleged business associates—Edward Levinson of Las Vegas, Nev., and Benjamin Sigelbaum and Jack Cooper of Miami, Fla.

ENGLISHMAN VISITS — Lord Balerno, right, British Parliament member, will speak at 7:30 p.m. today in the Agriculture Auditorium. Lord Balerno, was formerly professor of animal husbandry at Edinburg University in Scotland, is in Lubbock to visit his son Jock Buchanan-Smith, left, who is enrolled in graduate school at Tech.

Deadline Set For Teaching

Application deadline for student teaching positions for the 1964-65 school year is April 15.

Elementary and secondary education students who plan to teach during the fall or spring terms must turn in their applications to the Department of Education by April 15, according to Dr. Carey Southhall, associate professor of Education.

This includes all students who plan to graduate by August, 1965. Application blanks are available in room 259 of the Ad Bldg.

Englishman Speaks On Campus Today

Lord Balerno, Tory member of the British Parliament, will speak today on farm and livestock production in Great Britain. He will speak in the Agriculture Auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Lord Balerno was formerly the British scientist Alick Buchanan-Smith, and he served for many years as professor of animal husbandry at Edinburg University.

He owns 700 acres in Scotland, and he and his son — now primarily his son — actively farm on this land.

Lord Balerno said that he is visiting Lubbock to see his son, Jock Buchanan-Smith, who is a student at Tech. He said that he came at this time so that the weather would not be as hot as he had heard Texas weather gets. He said, "I have never been in Texas before; I'm not used to such flat country."

He said that Britain sets the world market price for farm produce because Britain is the largest "buyer of food of all kinds." He pointed out that Britain must export, and export widely, if she is to provide herself with the food she needs.

He also said that Britain is becoming more efficient in food production. In 1939, Britain grew only 50 per cent of the food she required, but now, with a larger population, she produces about 75 per cent of the necessary food.

Asked about recent comments by the head of the British Labor Party that Britain would be withdrawn from the nuclear club if Labor wins the upcoming election, Lord Balerno said, "I am very strong on Britain retaining a nuclear deterrent, under its own control."

He remarked on the scrapping of the Skybolt missile that "all defense ministers make mistakes at one time or another." He did go on to say, however, that he did not know if the scrapping of the missile were one of these mistakes or not. He said that certainly the Polaris missile is a very effective method of delivering a warhead.

He said that the United States is benefiting from a drain on Britain's scientific community, but he said that the drain is slowing and sometimes reversing itself and that Britain was not losing all of her scientists to the U.S.

When he turned his attention towards racial problems, Lord Balerno said that he felt that it was up to countries like Australia, who try to control immigration on a racial basis, to keep the immigration qualifications whatever they wish.

However, South Africa came in for criticism from the Scottish M. P. for its policy of apartheid. He said of the Verwoerd government's policies, "I dislike them, and I think 99.9 per cent of the British people dislike them."

Lord Balerno said he was "low tariffs and free trade." He pointed out that these goals, just as many other desirable goals, are not presently practical.

He also said that he was looking forward to his trips to Iowa State University and Purdue before he returns home.

Two Entries Named For Maid Contest

Two more entries for the 1964 South Plains Maid of Cotton selection have been received by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. They are Ceil Coats, 19-year-old daughter of Maj. and Mrs. J. C. Coats of Roswell, N.M. and Cheryl Ann Poteet, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Poteet, Olton.

Miss Coats is a freshman liberal arts major at Texas Tech. Weighing 110 pounds, she stands 5 ft., 6½ in. tall and has blonde hair and blue eyes.

She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega social sorority, which is sponsoring her in the contest. She is also the 3rd Battalion ROTC Sweetheart at Tech.

Miss Poteet is a freshman elementary education major at Lubbock Christian College. She weighs 123 pounds and is 5 ft., 6 in. tall.

A previously announced candidate for the contest is Ann Orrick, also of Tech. She is the 21-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Orrick of Wichita Falls.

Deadline for entries is Wednesday, March 25. Applications may be picked up at the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce office, 902 Texas Ave., where pictures for the contest will be made.

BULLETIN Effigy Hung On Statue

An effigy was hung from the Will Roger statue on campus Monday night in an apparent protest to the Board of Director's proposed name change for Texas Tech.

Campus police removed the dummy minutes later.

The man-sized dummy, with gold levis and a print shirt, carried a sign reading, "Graduate Students Say No." The initials "M.D.B." were painted on one arm of the effigy.

Several bypassing cars stopped and passengers watched as the effigy was being removed.

"It had a leering smile," one student said.

An anonymous telephone call notified night staff editors working in THE DAILY TOREADOR newsroom.

Not more than a dozen students were on hand to see the effigy taken down.

ATHLETES TRAVEL

While the rest of the school takes a vacation, four groups of Tech athletes will spend the week of spring vacation participating in athletic events from New Haven, Conn., to Houston.

STRICTLY PERSONAL — This sign, located near the Municipal Coliseum, has recently been attracting some attention; apparently proximity to a large university doesn't necessarily educate the sign painters. Or perhaps "personnel" presents a space problem.

Goodwill Ambassadors Receive Instructions

Texas Tech's "good will ambassadors" met last week to receive further instructions on the academic recruiting program they will carry out during the spring vacation.

Floyd Boze, dean of admissions, spoke to the students regarding the information they should give to prospective students.

HE STRESSED that all material given should be factual, and, most of all, that recruiters should remember that Tech is looking for better students and not just more of them.

Steve George of the Honors Committee also discussed Tech's honors program, which has been in service for three years. He briefly explained the program and suggested that each student interested in recruiting be well acquainted with the college.

Jerry Gibson, chairman of the committee for academic recruiting, explained that letters of introduction had been sent to the high schools of the prospective students. He urged each recruiter to contact his school for appointments during vacation period.

STUDENTS ALSO received information to be distributed at the schools. This information included school information bulletins, a recent Texas Tech catalog for prospective students, Mortarboard calendars, copies of THE DAILY TOREADOR and LA VENTANA, and other literature concerning the school.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Gibson or by going by the Student Council office.

Tech's Concert Band Tours West Texas Area

Texas Tech's Concert Band will be on tour throughout the West Texas area Tuesday through Thursday of this week.

Directed by Dean Killion of the Tech music department, the band will travel to Levelland, Brownfield and Andrews on Tuesday.

Wednesday the band will present concerts at Robert Lee High School in Midland and Odessa High School.

Thursday's itinerary includes performances for Odessa Permian High School and Midland High School.

Know Your Representatives?

Do you know who your state representatives are in your home county?

If not, you can check the map at right, the district-county list, then match your district number with the list below.

Bingo. You'll find your representatives' names, including incumbents and candidates.

Since Spring Vacation starts Wednesday and most of you Techsians will be going home, this seems like a good time to get to know your representatives.

May primaries aren't far away, so local politics should be hot in your home counties.

Also, if you get a chance, you might ask your representatives and legislative candidates if they are familiar with the Tech name-change issue.

If they're not, you might explain the controversy to them, from which ever standpoint you take.

Also, while you're looking at the districting map, you might note how Texas is divided into legislative districts. The issue of redistricting Texas has been much debated recently.

Action is pending in a Houston court on a request to wait until after the 1964 elections to redistrict Texas.

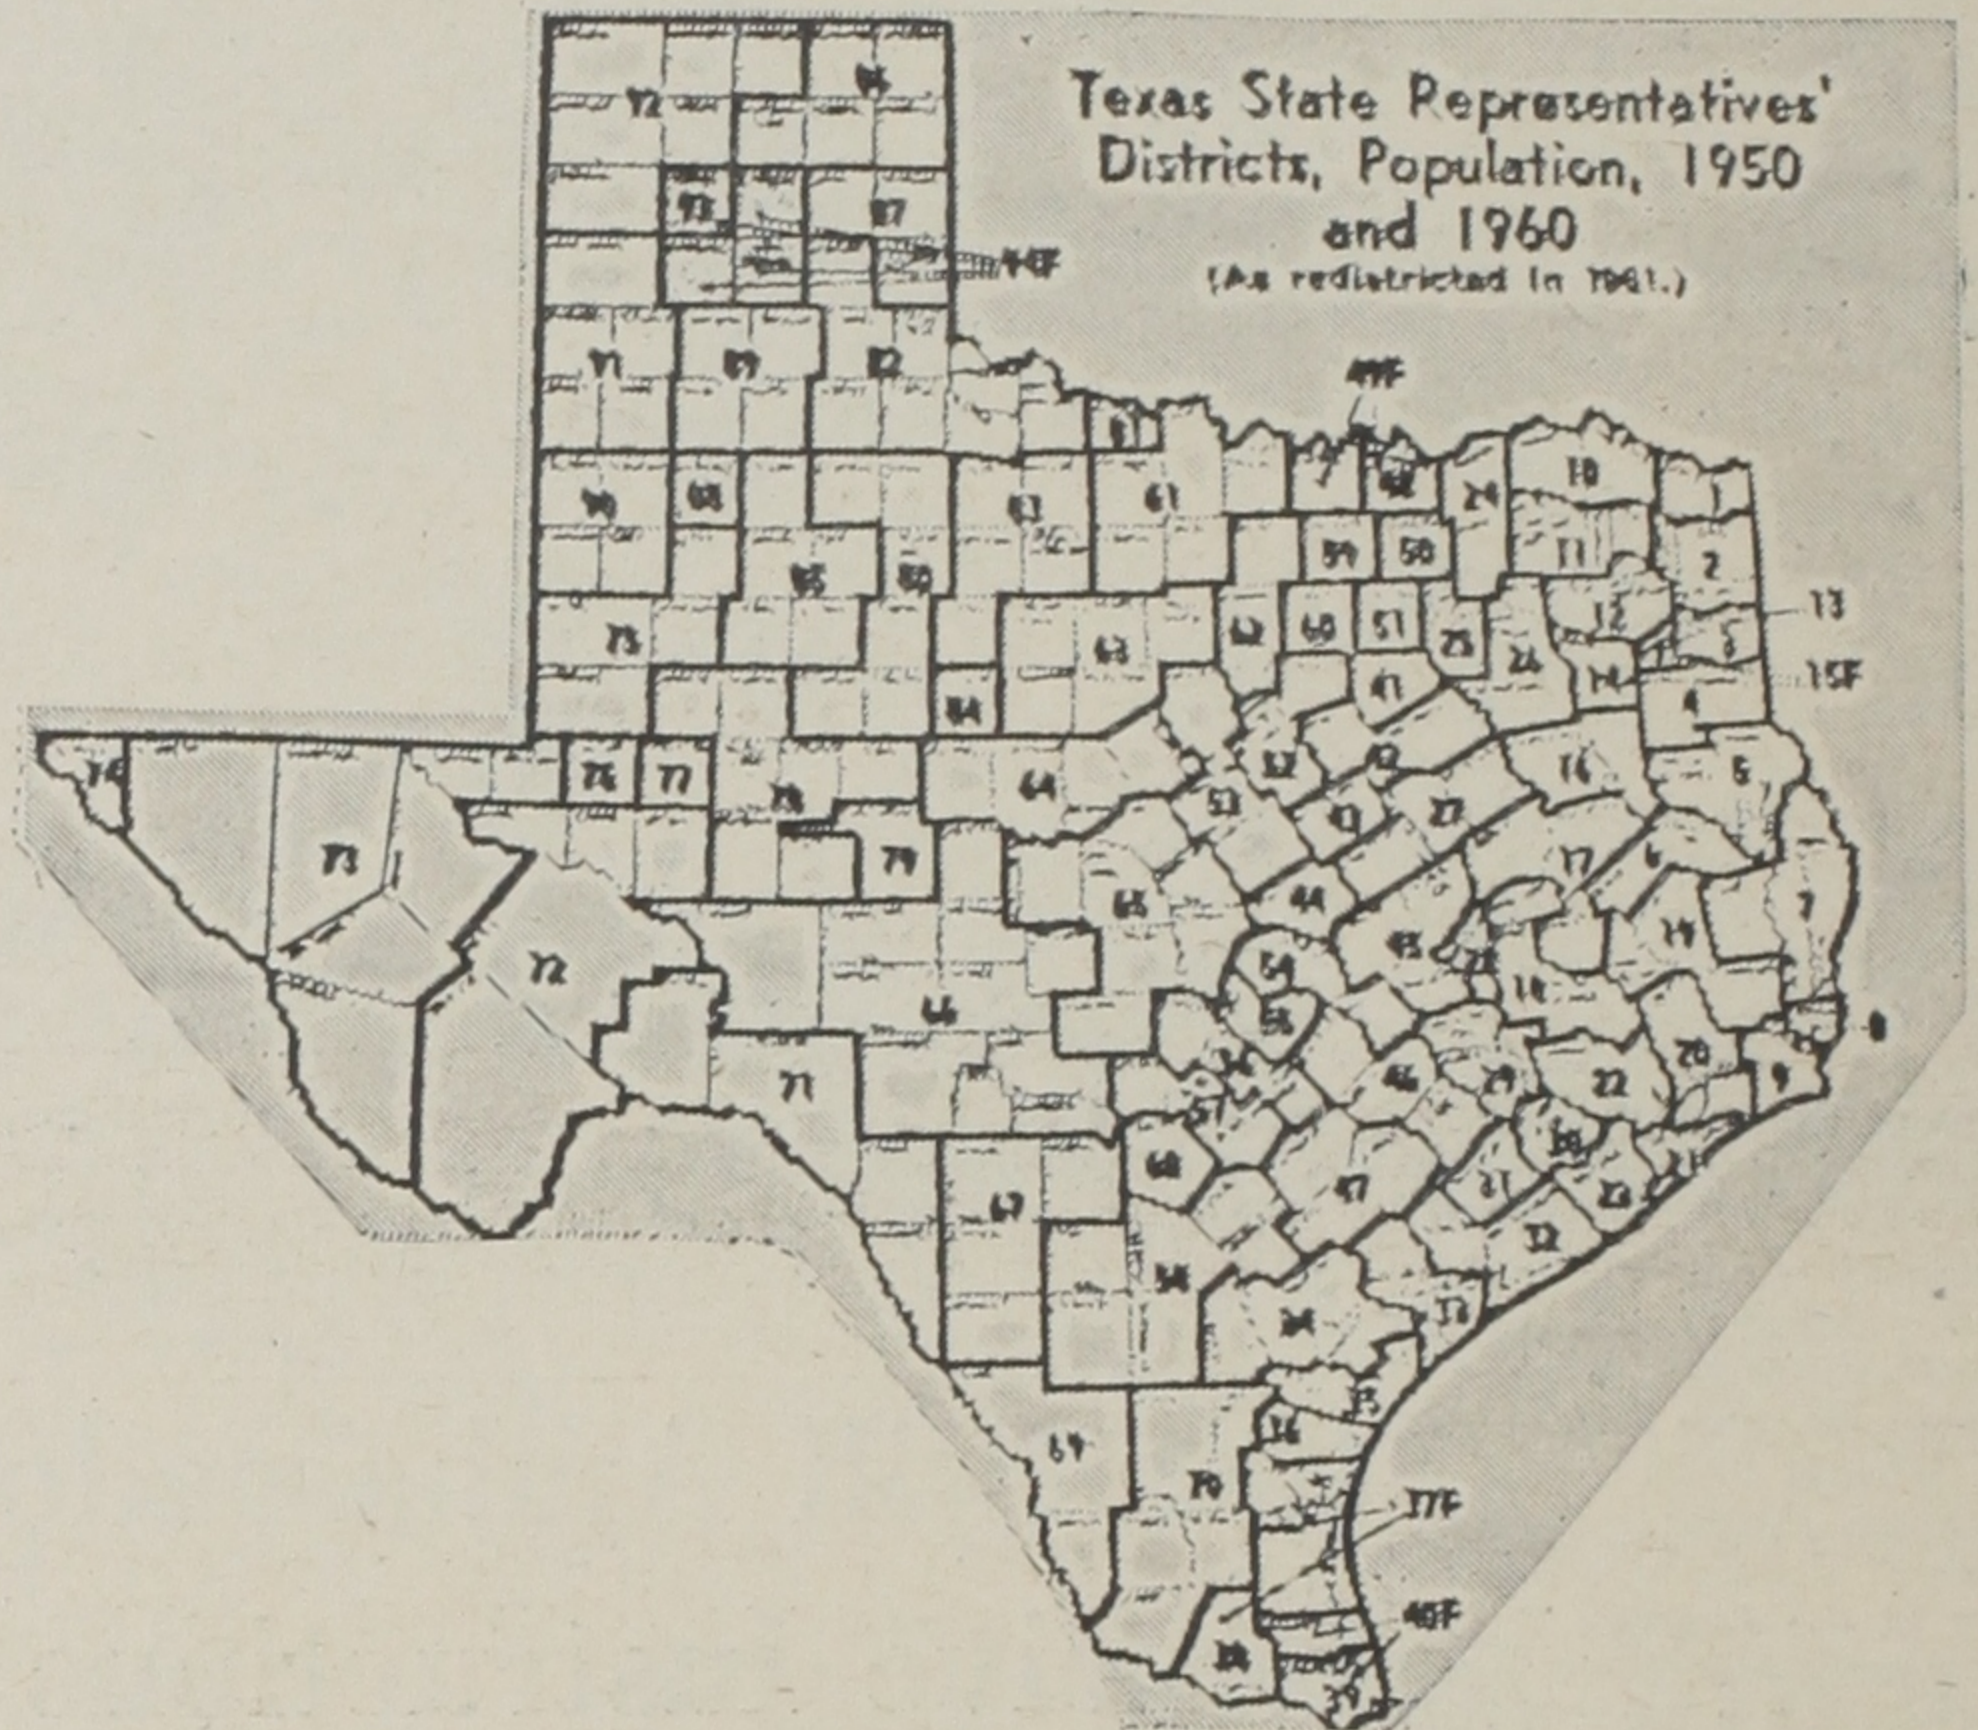

The request came after a raft of legalities which began early this year when a Houston District Court handed down a ruling that Texas had to redistrict.

The case then went to the United States Supreme Court which upheld the ruling but referred the case back to the Houston court for further action.

Then Waggoner Carr, Texas attorney general, filed a request, asking the Houston court to wait on the redistricting until after this year's elections. The court's decision is expected this spring.

Obviously, the Texas Tech name-change bill will be introduced in the legislature next spring and as a voter in your home county, you have a right and obligation to express your opinion to your legislators on this redistricting or any bill.

Witchcraft Still 'Invincible' As Religion, Student Says

Buford Terrell, philosophy major and president of Channing Club, told members of the club Sunday that witchcraft, long relegated to past history, still exists both in Britain and in the United States in varying degrees of activity.

TERRELL SPOKE on "Witchcraft as a Modern Religion." He pointed out that witchcraft is not primarily concerned with magic and is quite different from voodoo, sorcery or other black magic.

He said that witchcraft is a continuation of the pre-Christian religion of the British Isles. The Christian church in Britain drove the older beliefs underground, robbed them of any effective influence but failed to destroy them completely.

WITCHCRAFT, according to Terrell, is a worship of nature, as represented by the "great mother goddess," and is, therefore, a fertility cult. He said, "The intimate connection between the goddess, the moon and the dominance of the female in the cult still influence beliefs and practices of witches today."

Terrell said that, although few people know the fact, men can be witches just as well as women. He said that the "life force" aspect of the religion meant that the worshippers greatly emphasized sex and sexual processes.

He concluded that as long as people are aware of the forces of nature, there will probably be some who continue to worship the "goddess of nature," and no organized religion will ever completely destroy the cult—small as it may be.

Volunteer Committee Makes Work Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — A volunteer committee has taken a look into the future and proposed to President Johnson that the government pay all Americans an adequate income whether they work or not.

THE PROPOSAL was presented by the "Ad Hoc Committee on the Triple Revolution" composed of economists, educators, union leaders and others.

In a 29-page memorandum delivered Sunday to the White House, the committee based its finding on three great upheavals in the modern world, one economic, one military and one social.

1. The cybernation revolution — or the age of computers and mechanical brains. "The combination of the computer and the automated self-regulating machine results in a system of almost unlimited productive capacity which requires progressively less human labor," the report said.

2. The weaponry revolution — which has brought about means of mass destruction "which can not win wars but which can obliterate civilization."

3. The human rights revolution — the report said the civil rights revolt of Negroes in the United States is part of a world movement "toward the establishment of social and political regimes in which every individual will feel valued and none will feel rejected on account of his race."

DISTRIBUTION should be divorced from job-holding by providing "every individual and every family with an adequate income as a matter of right," the committee said.

Signers of the report include Gerald Piel, publisher of the Scientific American; and author Michael Harrington.

Communism's World Crisis Assumes 'Explosive' Look

An AP News Analysis

World communism's internal crisis is assuming an explosive look.

In effect, Soviet Premier Khrushchev's camp is being served an ultimatum by its opponents: Adopt a more offensive policy toward the West or face an open contest with a rival Red movement for global leadership.

COMMUNIST BATTLE

A battle is shaping up between the "haves" and "have-nots" of the Communist world. The have-nots are telling the Russians they have gone soft, and that they must either get behind violent revolution all the way or get out of the revolutionary business.

This cry, an echo of the Red Chinese, has been taken up by the party in North Viet Nam. The criticism was made in private three months ago, but its publication was withheld until the North Vietnamese returned empty-handed from a mission to Moscow seeking more significant help in its effort to envelop South Viet Nam.

NORTH VIET NAM COMPLAINS

The North Vietnamese party secretary, Le Duan, who headed the mission to Moscow, had in December delivered a scorching speech to his own Central Committee in Hanoi outlining difficulties engendered for world communism by the Red Chinese-Soviet squabble. Evidently, failure of his Moscow mission prompted his party to publish the complaints against Khrushchev.

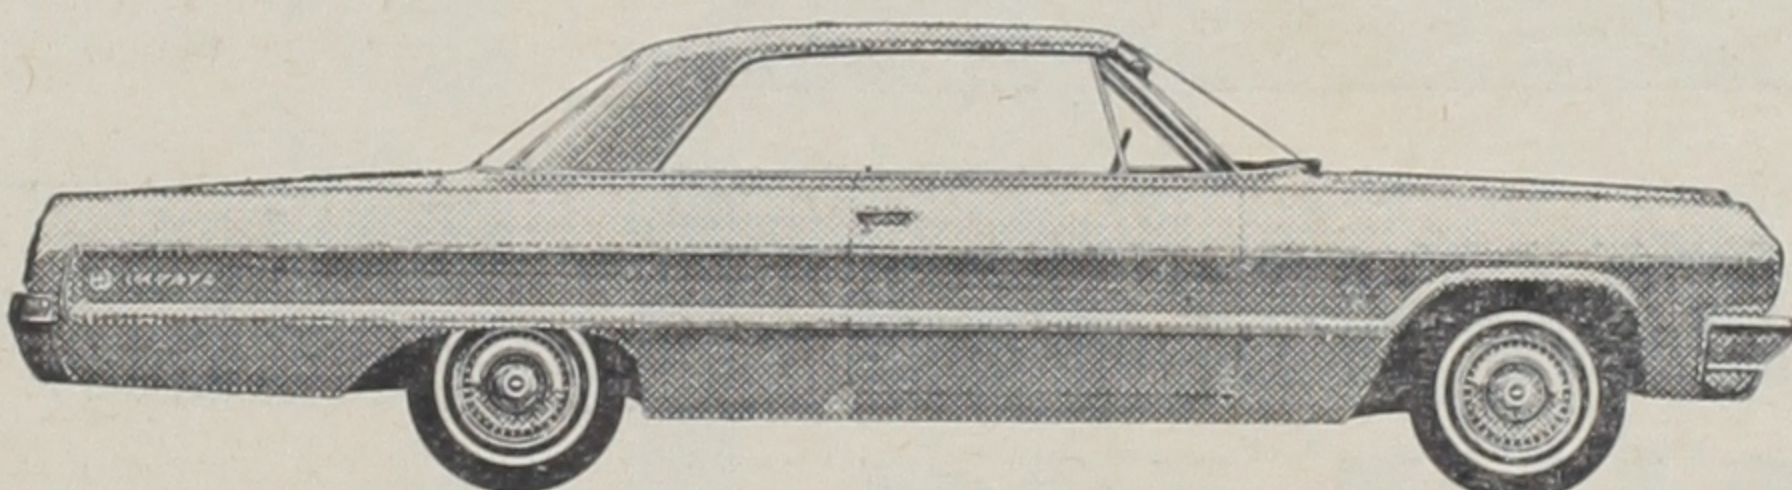

POSSIBLE APRIL FIREWORKS

The time seems to be approaching when Khrushchev's supporters will be obliged to take action. Perhaps the fireworks will come in April, when Khrushchev's 70th birthday celebration provides an excuse for a rallying of Communist bloc leaders in Moscow.

The North Vietnamese leader accused Khrushchev of being afraid of revolutions. Khrushchev, said Le Duan, should realize that the Communist world is stronger than the West and should push revolution immediately in Asia, Africa and Latin America where "conditions are most favorable." This echoes Peking.

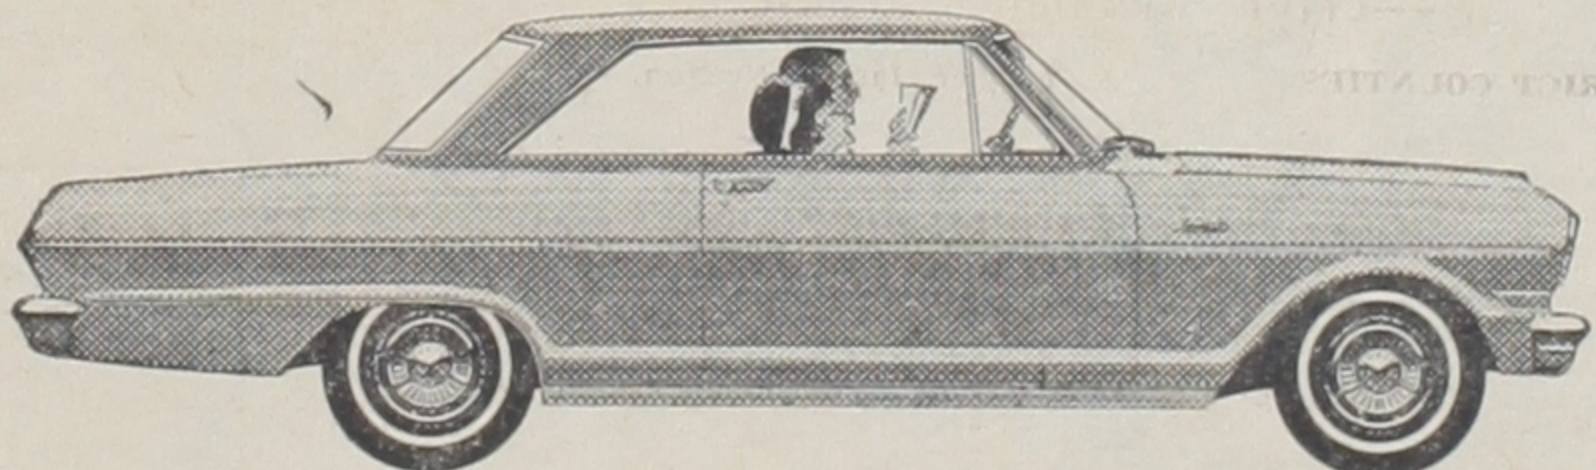

Le Duan's speech, published by the official paper Hoc Tap three months after it was delivered, included a long blast at "modern revisionism," the term the Red Chinese apply to Khrushchev's leadership. The party, he said, cannot be reconciled to it, and the way to combat it is "not to be afraid of perilous revolutionary struggle."

Chevrolet will go to any length to make you happy

Things have changed a lot since a Chevy was only a Chevy. Especially your ideas of what you want a Chevy to be.

So now you have the Jet-smooth Chevrolet—17½ feet of pure luxury, bumper to bumper. The size makes it a luxury car. But not the price.

Or you can choose the thrifty Chevy II, a 15¼-foot family car with all kinds of passenger and luggage space.

This year, your choice might be the new 16-foot-plus Chevelle, sized to fit nicely between Chevrolet and Chevy II (and between parking meters, with five whole feet left over).

Then, too, there's the sporty 15-foot Corvair, so right for so many people (you girls, in particular) that we've never touched an inch of it. And finally, Corvette—still 14½ feet and still too much for any true sports-car lover to say no to.

The long and short of it is, you don't have to go to any length to find exactly the kind of car you want. Just see the five different lines of cars at your Chevrolet dealer's.

FOX, WILLIAMS TAKE WINS

Raiders Blast ENMU, 16-2, 16-0

Coach Burl Huffman's free-swinging baseball team literally ran a hapless Eastern New Mexico team from the field in both games of a doubleheader yesterday, taking the opener, 16-2 and the nightcap, 16-0.

In the opening game, the Raiders collected 13 hits from three New Mexico pitchers to take the big win. Catcher Doug Cannon and fielder Bob Fielder led the Tech batsmen, both collecting three hits in four trips to the plate. First baseman Donnie Anderson wasn't far behind as he connected for two hits in four tries.

Anderson's hits were of the extreme long ball type, as both sailed over the fence.

Joe Fox was the winning pitcher for the Tech team in the first game, allowing only four hits before allowing reliever David Tarter to come in the game in the fifth inning and finish up the pitching scores.

Eastern's runs came in the first and third innings, but the cause was long lost by that time, as the Raiders held a 11 run lead at the end of the third.

In the second game, Doug Cannon again started the Raider batting practice by blasting the ball over the left field fence to drive in two runs.

The Raiders decided to cinch the win however, and blasted three New Mexico pitchers from the mound in a high scoring melee called the bottom of the second inning.

The twin victories left the Raiders with a 3-1 record for the season and set the stage for a doubleheader with the Horned Frogs of Texas Christian on March 28.

The Raiders play another doubleheader with Highlands on the next day to end up the season.

The win by Fox in the first game left his record at 2-1, while the win by Williams in the second was his first in as many outings.

Tennis Team Wins, Defeats Illinois, 6-0

Coach George Philbrick's tennis team swept both the singles and doubles matches yesterday to down North Illinois University, 6-0.

In the singles matches, Don

Draper led off the Tech attack by downing Dave Ray, 6-0 and 6-0.

Beau Sutherland continued the Tech onslaught, blasting Steve Weiss 6-1 and 6-1.

Robert Peterson seemed to like the same set of numerals, as he swept past Wayne Bargren, 6-1 and 6-1.

Greer Kothman finished the Tech sweep in the event, downing Dave Johnson, 6-1 and 6-2.

In the doubles contest, Draper and Peterson teamed up to defeat Ray and Weiss, 6-2 and 6-1.

Sutherland and Kothman then completed the Tech win with a clean sweep over Bargren and Johnson, 6-2 and 6-0.

In an extra game, Tech alternate Jim Collier defeated Dave Falk, 6-1 and 6-2. In the alternate doubles match, Collier teamed with Don Foils to down Falk and teammate Jim Gaverth, 6-0 and 6-2.

The Tech net men take a week of rest before moving into Southwest Conference competition. The Raiders tackle an always strong Texas club on the Tech home courts on April 4, meet Texas A&M on April 10, then turn around and meet Rice at Houston on the 11th of April.

ROUNDING SECOND — All eyes are on first as Raider infielder John Dudley and an unidentified Eastern New Mexico player keep tabs on action in the fourth inning of the last half of a doubleheader here Monday. The Raiders went on to win the game, 16-0, after taking the opener, 16-2.

Negro Olympics Star Urges Athletic Boycott

NEW YORK (AP) — Mal Whitfield, Olympic gold medal winner at 800 meters in 1948 and 1952, urged Monday that every American Negro athlete eligible for the Tokyo Olympics boycott the Games if they have not been guaranteed "full and equal rights as first-class citizens" by that time.

Whitfield called for the boycott in a signed article in Ebony magazine. He said it might seem a "shocking proposal coming from a former Olympics athlete who has traveled in many foreign countries as an official good will ambassador."

Whitfield said he thought the time had come for American Negro athletes to join the fight for civil rights. He added that "it is time for America to live up to its promises of liberty, equality and justice for all . . ."

He said that he expected that the U.S. track team at the Tokyo Games probably would be made up of about 25 per cent Negroes. "This means that in sports Negroes are still carrying the heaviest load in America."

Injuries Sideline Two Tracksters For Week

Two of Texas Tech's track men are expected to miss the San Angelo Relays Saturday because of injuries.

Sprinter Mack Highfill of Carlsbad, N.M., and broad jumper Leslie Lee of Booker, both sophomores, suffered leg injuries in a quadrangular with University of New Mexico, Utah, and Texas Western at Albuquerque Saturday.

Although the Raiders finished fourth Richard Vogan of El Paso set a school record — a clocking of 21.3 for a 220-yard dash around a turn. He established the old 21.8 mark at the Southwestern Recreation Meet. Vogan's 9.6 equaled the Tech best time for the 100-yard dash but was wind-aided.

Three other Tech times and marks were the best the Red Raiders have achieved this season. Scott Wood of Compton, Calif., in winning the 880-yard run, was timed in 1:54.9, and sophomore Ronnie Davis of Brownwood, second by a step, ran the mile in 4:22.5. Lee's broad jump of 21 feet 4 inches was his first try of the year.

Tech's 440-yard relay, which attained a 41.9 time a week earlier came to grief because of a dropped baton — the first such mishap ever to hit a Don Sparks-coached team.

GOLFERS GO TO HOUSTON

Coach Jay McClure is taking a five-man team to Houston for the All-American Intercollegiate tournament Wednesday through Saturday.

In the quintet are a pair of senior lettermen, Captain Housty Brewer of Andrews and Richard Yates of Corpus Christi, 1962 Texas amateur champion; junior Rick Rogers of Corpus Christi, sophomores Joe Euber of Lubbock and Steve LeCrone of Amarillo.

Texas Tech last year finished second in the match play division of the tournament and fifth in overall standings.

Lair Named As Line Coach After Buffington Resignation

Matt Lair, defensive line coach at Kentucky for the past two years has been named to replace Tech Coach Harry Buffington after Buffington resigned from the Tech staff Friday.

Lair coached at Tech for one year in 1961 before taking the position at Kentucky.

Lair played collegiate ball at Kentucky, graduating in 1947. He then stayed on as an assistant coach at Kentucky for five years after serving as a high school coach for several years.

After leaving Kentucky, Lair went to Texas A&M for a two year stint before making the move to Tech.

Lair will arrive in time to participate in the two days of drills before the football squad takes a week's vacation during the spring holidays.

Head Coach J T King said although Lair was designated as defensive line coach, he would be used as an all-around defensive coach.

King continued, "We are very glad to get him back. We think he is well-qualified and one of the better line coaches in the country."

After the holidays, the Raiders will start integrating the separate offensive and defensive units in which they have been practicing into a complete team.

Seniors who have been held out of training thus far this year will begin practicing with the team, and efforts will be made to put together roughly the teams for next fall's campaign.

YOUNG GOP'S HONORED — Glenn Looney, president of the Texas Tech Young Republicans holds the award presented the Lubbock group as the "Outstanding College Young Republican Club" at the group's state convention Sunday in Galveston.

Tech Young GOP's Cop Honors At State Meet

Members of the Texas Tech Young Republicans returned Sunday from the Young Republican state convention in Galveston.

The 27 delegates were among more than 600 Young Republicans from across the state attending the two-day meet. The Tech delegation was the second largest delegation at the convention.

Glenn Looney, president of the Tech YR's, was elected as federation secretary, one of the top posts in the state organization.

Looney, a junior government major from Lubbock, was elected without one dissenting vote being cast against him.

The Tech YR club was named as the "Outstanding College Young Republican Club" in the state of Texas by the convention Awards Committee. The award was based on all phases of the club's activities including programming, publicity, leadership, membership registration, political action and educational training.

Delegates to the convention adopted a Texas Young Republican platform calling for "a strong, firm, and aggressive foreign policy."

Provisions of the platform include:

1. Calling for early reduction of the national debt.
2. Urging for government to get out of competition with private industry.
3. Calling for immediate congressional and legislative redistricting in Texas.

Viet Nam, Cambodia Negotiate

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — A South Viet Nam delegation went home empty handed Monday but still hopeful of making peace with Cambodia despite an explosive frontier incident that torpedoed negotiations.

Both sides agreed to postpone the talks because of tempers raised by an attack on a frontier village last Thursday that killed 17 Cambodians.

As eager as South Viet Nam to keep Cambodia out of the Communist bloc, the United States expressed "profound regret" for the border incident but contended no Americans took part, as Cambodia had charged. South Viet Nam earlier apologized and promised to pay damages.

Prince Norodom Sihanouk proposed to bring France into new negotiations on Viet Nam and Cambodian border issues as a forerunner to a Geneva conference to guarantee Cambodia's neutrality. He said he would go to Peking to discuss his problems if the Western powers do not agree by next Monday to a Geneva conference.

In spite of the setback on the diplomatic front, just as Cambodia appeared ready to settle issues with South Viet Nam, the South Vietnamese delegation got a friendly sendoff.

Sihanouk had words of praise for Brig. Gen. Huynh Van Cao, head of the Vietnamese delegation. He has had nothing good to say about Viet Nam since he broke off relations last year.

Cao expressed hope for future talks as did Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, premier of South Viet Nam, who is eager to settle border disputes with neutral Cambodia. Communist guerrillas use hideouts in Cambodia. It was a chase after guerrillas that led to the bombing of the Cambodian village, during which a Vietnamese spotter plane was shot down, presumably by Cambodia planes.

Nixon Voices Opinions On '64 Political Contest

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, on a round-the-world business trip, said here Monday the Republican contest for the U.S. presidential nomination is wide open and Robert F. Kennedy is apparently in the lead as Democratic candidate for vice president.

Nixon's plane arrived here from Rome. He is spending about seven hours in Beirut before flying on to Pakistan and the Far East.

"There's a good chance for Republicans to win the election if the candidate can unite the party and then if he's able to arouse the country on the major issues, particularly foreign policy," Nixon told an airport news conference.

"No one can predict the outcome," he added.

The purpose of his trip Nixon said, is to look for "possible economic and political indicators for possible expansion of a company client of Nixon's law firm."

Nixon said the Republican contest for the presidential nomination is an open "horse race" in which the winner must be an active candidate before the national convention.

He said he did not expect to be nominated because "I do not intend to become a candidate before then."

DRAWINGS NOT LOTTERIES

AUSTIN (AP) — A give-away drawing in which registrants must furnish information about their anticipated appliance purchases is not a lottery, the state attorney general held today.

The opinion was issued to R. L. Lattimore, district attorney at Edinburg who described a program of drawings he said are being held by certain merchants in Hidalgo County.

Lattimore said registration blanks asked name and address, plus age and make of certain appliances owned by registrants and what type of appliance they plan to buy in the future.

Maj. Gen. Khanh Adopts New Policy

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh expressed confidence a new triple assault policy will wrest many critical areas in South Viet Nam from Communist Viet Cong control by the end of the year.
