— For Toreador — New Staff Announced

The new staff for the 1964-65 DAILY TOREADOR was announced Friday by Bronson Havard, editor-elect.

Selected to the two top positions, directly next in authority to the editor, were Cecil Green, managing editor, and Carolene English, news editor.

ASSISTANTS NAMED

To assist the new editors, Havard appointed Mike Wall, assistant managing editor, and Pam Best, assistant news editor.

Other editors who will direct departments on The Toreador next are Tommy Seay, sports; Liz Lyne, fine arts; and Mike Read, editorial assistant.

New copy editors are Carol Page, Judy Fowler, Rob Johnston, Sally Long and Carolyn Modridge.

Non-paid editors selected for next year are Don Enger, assistant sports editor; Jackie Gill and Gayle Hopkins, feature editors, and Margaret Eastman, assistant fine arts editor.

Commenting on his staff, Havard said, "Consistent with past Toreador policy, each year we try to produce a better product for Techsans. With this very experienced staff I believe that our newspaper will make exceptional achievements."

He added, "Our top editors—Green and Miss English—have received numerous awards for their outstanding journalistic abilities."

W. E. Garets, journalism department head, and Phil Orman, director of student publications, Friday praised the selection of new editors.

The new staff with the appointment of four non-paid editors brings the number of members to an all time high of 17 members. An estimated 100 students will contribute towards the production of The Toreador next year.

Havard also announced he was studying a number of applications from persons desiring to write columns, but would wait until a later date before announcing Toreador columnists and editorial policy.

BEAUTY—WESTERN STYLE—These six Texas Tech coeds were all smiles after being picked as finalists in the Tech rodeo queen contest. The queen will reign over the annual Tech Collegiate Rodeo April 30, May 1 and 2 in the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum. From left, the finalists are Misses Ear-

Women's Day Nears

Women will take over the newsroom Monday to publish a special TOREADOR edition for Tuesday's Women's Day.

• BULLETIN

Confirmation of the appearance of Astronaut Gordon Cooper and James Webb, director of the National Aviation and Space Administration, was announced by Dr. R. C. Goodwin, president, in a letter to faculty members Friday. Goodwin explained that classes would not be dismissed for the April 28 convocation at 10 a.m. in Municipal Coliseum. But he added those instructors who believed the lectures would be beneficial might take their class to the Coliseum for the lecture.

Heading the publication will be Carolene English, editor. Other staff members include Carmen Bauer, managing editor; Carrie Chaney, news editor; and Liz Lyne, copy editor.

All women students should wear white on Tuesday, and a luncheon in Women's No. 7 will begin the day's activities. An open house will be conducted from 1:30-4 p.m. in the Office of the Dean of Women.

HIGHLIGHTING the Women's Day banquet at 6 p.m. in Tech Union will be the announcement of "Woman of the Year" and "Faculty Woman of the Year."

Voting for each award's candidates will be Tuesday from 8 a.m.-1 p.m. with polls in all women's dormitories, plus the Ad and Home-making buildings and Tech Union.

Tickets will be sold for the banquet until noon Monday.

"Woman of Distinction" award will be presented guest speaker Amy Freeman Lee. Mrs. Lee is an artist, author, critic and lecturer. An article in "La Revue Moderne," of Paris, France said: "The name of Amy Freeman Lee is known throughout the United States not only in printing but also in literature."

CANDIDATES NAMED

Candidates nominated for "Woman of the Year" are Sue Boles, Carolyn Cates, Charlotte Dorsey, Mary Gaskin, Hazael Hale, Pat Hamilton, Linda Hill, Annette Inmon, Nancy Jones, Carolyn Kelley.

OTHERS ARE Nancy Lamb, Donna Lovel, Lee McElroy, Betty McFarren, Ann Orrick, Barbara Short, Mary Alice Terry and Carolyn Wood.

Candidates for "Faculty Woman of the Year" are Mrs. Beatrice Alexander, Miss Mildred Bettencourt, Mrs. Nancy Boze, Dr. Mary Carlock, Miss Ruth Cowart, Mrs. Johnny Dorsey, Mrs. Wildring Edwards, Dr. Mina Lamb, Mrs. Ann Miller, Dr. Elizabeth Sasser.

SPRING, MARRIAGE AND MUSIC — Mu Phi Epsilon music sorority will present a concert of wedding music with a "mock wedding" setting the stage Sunday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Shown practicing for the ceremony are Kaye McGee, the "bride," and Judy Sell.

Tech Sorority Slates Wedding Music Clinic

Mock wedding bells will ring next Sunday as Mu Phi Epsilon, women's music sorority, presents a wedding music clinic complete with bride and bridal attendants.

Traditional wedding music will be presented under the direction of a faculty committee, as Mrs. Randal McGee portrays the bride. Her attendants will be Claudia Little of Lub-Dallas, and Mrs. George Sell of Lubbock. Nan Nall of Lubbock and Martha Hollar of Amarillo will act as bridesmaids.

Those attending the clinic, which will be conducted at 2 p.m. at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, are invited to attend a reception which will conclude the program.

Miss Tommie Allen, Dimmitt, will present a narration with the aid of Barbara Sperburg.

Soloists will be Sue Suttle of Hale Center, Miss Barbara Shipp of Shallowater, Susie Johnson of Shawnee Mission, Kans., Roya Harris of Lubbock and Janis Carthel of Lockney.

Sandy Spiller of Houston will preside at the reception. Music at the reception will be played by Sallie Manicapelli of Lubbock, Anita Schloer of Odessa, Michele Schroeder of Lubbock, Gertrude Wolf of Odessa, Betty Jo Walvoord of Amarillo, Karen Parks of Midland and Mrs. Belverd Needles of Lubbock.

Faculty members assisting with the clinic include Miss Heather Woodall, Kent Hill, Dr. Judson Maynard and Benjamin Smith.

Student Publications Present Annual Awards At Banquet

Tech's student publications presented their annual awards at a banquet Friday, highlighted by the naming of the outstanding students on THE DAILY TOREADOR, campus newspaper, and La Ventana, Tech yearbook.

TRAVIS PETERSON of Sudan was named outstanding male journalism senior, and also received the annual W. E. Garets award for service to Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity.

Earlier, Mrs. Gayle Machen Noll of Olton, editor of The Daily Toreador, was announced as outstanding senior woman in journalism by Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalism organization.

THE OUTSTANDING member of the La Ventana non-paid staff was announced as Winston Odom of Brownfield. Outstanding Toreador non-paid staffer was Sally Long of Marshall.

EDITOR'S AWARD

The annual Toreador Editor's Award, to someone who has been of assistance to the editor personally and professionally throughout the year, was awarded by Mrs. Noll to Miss Carolene English of Lubbock, Toreador managing editor.

THETA SIGMA PHI presented its annual newspaper awards to Mrs. Noll, for editorial excellence; Charles Richards of Jayton, best news story; Ed Snow of Harlingen, first place, and Celeste Hardy of Liberty, second place, for best features; Artie Shaw of Olton, best column, Cecil Green of Lubbock, best news series; and Vernon Smith of Athens, best photograph.

GRADUATING SENIORS

Staff awards were presented to graduating journalism seniors by W. E. Garets, professor and head of journalism at Tech. Announcements of The Daily Toreador and La Ventana staffs for 1964-65 were made by Bronson Havard of Clute, editor-elect of the newspaper, and Miss Becky Parker of Sabinal, co-editor-elect of the yearbook.

COMIC AWARDS were presented during the evening by Miss Johnnie Lu Raborn of Waco, co-editor-elect of La Ventana; Mrs. Noll and Miss English.

Mortgage Bankers Day will be Monday from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. in Tech Union Ballroom. Tech's Finance Assn. and the Lubbock Mortgage Bankers Assn. are program sponsors.

PARTICIPATING dignitaries traveling to Lubbock include Carey Winston, president of the Mortgage Bankers Assn. of America, Washington, D.C.; W. M. # Eminent Pianist Plans Campus Performance

Dale Childs, pianist, is being brought to the Tech campus by the Music Department.

CHILDS, PIANIST in residence at Concordia College, began his musical career at the age of four, and made his first public appearance when he was five years old.

His first full-length performance came when he was eight years old.

THE SUMMER of Childs' 14th year, he toured England and Scotland, and became the only student of the eminent English pianist, Denis Matthews.

In 1958, the pianist again toured Europe, playing the capitals; and while in military service he began broadcasting his music over Radio Free Europe.

1958 ALSO BROUGHT Childs the Maestro Superior 'Cum Laude' Award from the University of Naples — this made him the only American since the war to receive this distinction.

Performance time is 3 p.m. Sunday in the Tech Union Ballroom Admission is free. After the performance there will be a reception.

Drama Set For Tonight

The Shakespearean tragedy, "Romeo and Juliet," goes into its second performance today.

The tragic love story of the young couple, marks the opening of the Speech Dept.'s new University Theater.

A formal open house will be given 2 p.m. Sunday and an invitational performance at 8:15 p.m.

Performance time for today's show is 8:15 p.m. Admission is free on presentation of a Tech I. D. card.

Red - White Game Roster Completed

Rosters for the Red-White final spring football game have been completed preparatory to the game to be played at 7:30 p.m. today in Jones Stadium.

Thirteen lettermen headed by co-captain C. C. Willis of Bay City will head the more experienced Red squad, while Donnie Anderson and five other returning lettermen will head the White squad.

Coaches Matt Lair and Merrill Green will act as the directing staff for the Red team, while John Conley, Joe Blaylock and Jim Wright will guide the White team.

The Whites may have problems other than lack of experience, as both Anderson and fullback Leo Lowery may be slowed due to leg injuries.

Admission to the game will be $1 for adults, 50 cents for all others except Tech students who will be admitted on their activity cards.

Khrushchev Observes Birthday And Promises Continued Service

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev was showered with honors Friday in his 70th birthday and in return promised to continue to serve although he is at an age when a man "hasn't much time left."

With Soviet officials and Eastern bloc leaders gathered about him in the Kremlin, he said that despite the conflict with Red China the road always will be left open "for a rapprochement and understanding." Nor will there be a break in relations with Peking, he added.

These were words that many of his supporters in the Eastern bloc wanted to hear, for they fear that a Soviet-proposed showdown meeting on Red China would cleave the world Communist movement beyond repair.

Red China's Mao Tze-tung, Khrushchev's bitterest critic, sent birthday greetings saying their argument was only temporary. Even so, Moscow radio was slow in reporting the message.

And as Khrushchev spoke, the Chinese Communist paper Ta Kung Pao of Hong Kong kept up the criticism by calling him "a stupid fool" for his personal attack on Mao and other Chinese leaders in a speech Wednesday.

It was this atmosphere of clash that made the gathering of the Communist clan so important, even though ostensibly it was only for the birthday celebration.

Few outside the Communist camp were invited to share in the birthday party, but part of the ceremony was shown on television. Khrushchev's voice was low and a little hoarse from so much recent speaking.

The homily on age and continuing to serve came after President Leonid Brezhnev pinned to Khrushchev's coat front the highest Soviet award of Hero of the Soviet Union. The award carries two medals, the Order of Lenin and Gold Star.

Khrushchev commented that so much praise and so many honors amounted to an advance payment and at 70 a man "has not much time left to pay back well for all he is given."

Golfers Win

Texas Tech's golf team took the lead in the Southwest Conference play at Meadowbrook Golf Course Friday, defeating Texas A&M 4½ to 1½. Jay McClure's linksmen, leading 17½ to 6½ with three games to go, play TCU April 23; SMU April 24; and Arkansas April 27.

WHO SAID

Foreign Study is for Language Majors Only.

Of course, it's for them, too.

But it's also for undergrads in history, political science, international relations, economics, psychology, philosophy and some other fields.

We know. Over half the students in our university centers in Europe aren't language majors. They're pursuing studies in their own fields, and giving them a fresh, European dimension—without interrupting their college careers.

Foreign study may suit you, too. (It isn't for everyone.) This is the time of life when the experience of Europe can mean most. It will mean most if you use it to deepen and extend your formal studies.

You might look into it—and learn about our programs, including a new one opening next fall at the University of Madrid.

Our centers don't offer mere "civilization" courses. They aren't cozy little "ghettos" for Americans. Institute programs immerse you in a great European university as deeply as your abilities allow. (We supplement and guide your studies, as necessary, to make sure they satisfy U. S. requirements.)

FREIBURG • Regular university courses at the University of Freiburg, in the Black Forest; taught in German, with tutorials. For B-average juniors with intermediate German. Das Deutsche Jahr: $2,380.* Das Deutsche Semester: $1,605.*

PARIS • French-taught Honors Program in Contemporary European Civilization for B-average juniors (and some top sophomores) with one year of college French. Academic year: $2,650.*

MADRID • Spanish-taught program at the University, for B-average juniors (and some top sophomores) with two years of college Spanish or one year of college Spanish and two in high school. Hispanic Year: $2,610.*

VIENNA • English or German-taught courses at the University of Vienna for C-plus juniors and sophomores. Previous German required only for spring semester. European Year: $2,380.* Spring Semester: $1,605.*

India Madras

'THE EAST SENDS ITS BEST TO THE WEST'

There is perhaps more India Madras worn in America than in Madras, India. Which attests to the good taste of the American male. The craft of handweaving these lovely cottons with their soft textures and subdued coloration has been passed on from father to son for centuries. This is why each piece has a color and texture variation that makes for individuality in every garment.
