

Cowboys Compete In Finale

Record crowds are predicted again when the Tech Intercollegiate Rodeo ends three big days with performances at 2 and 8 p.m. today.

The crowd last night watched events that have attracted 165 amateur cowboys and cowgirls from numerous colleges and universities in the southwest.

APPROXIMATELY 4,000 attended the first performance Thursday night following an afternoon parade through downtown Lubbock to the campus.

At the initial performance Dub Wise, Jackson, Wyo., senior, received the Dub Parks Memorial Award.

Wise was presented a belt buckle by Dr. Walter Rogers, professor of agriculture economics and Rodeo Assn. sponsor, as the Tech Rodeo Assn. member who made the greatest contribution to overall association efforts during the year.

PARKS KILLED

Mrs. Roy Hickman of Morton, mother of the late Dub Parks, was presented a bouquet of roses in the ceremonies. Parks, who was killed in an automobile accident soon after his 1955 graduation, was an outstanding member of the Tech rodeo team.

BEING FEATURED at each performance is Michael Landon who plays the part of "Little Joe" Cartwright on the television series "Bonanza."

The events in the rodeo include the wild mare race, calf roping, bareback bronc riding, barrel racing, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, bull riding and girls' goat tying.

Opening event of the rodeo was the wild mare race, and the making of the best time Thursday was the Agricultural Economics Club.

TECHSANS WIN

Best time in calf roping was made Thursday by Tommy Buckner, Tech, with 13.9 seconds. High point man in bareback bronc riding was J. M. Bradley, South Plains College. Best time in barrel racing was made by Rebecca Ramsey, Tech, with 15 seconds.

PAUL HORNEY, ENMU, posted the best time in ribbon roping with 18 seconds flat. Earl Rankin, Tech, had 60 points in saddle bronc riding to win Thursday.

Leading steer wrestler was Robert Driggers, SPC, with a time of 7 seconds. Rebecca Ramsey, Tech, led in goat tying and Jerry Blocker, Tech, won the bull riding event Thursday.

Seniors Set Hootenanny

A hootenanny will be presented throughout a pancake supper Sunday, sponsored by the senior class.

Sororities, fraternities, and newly elected cheerleaders will cook and give assistance during the dinner from 5:30-7 p.m. in Tech Union.

Charge for the pancake supper is 85 cents per person, and all profits will go to the senior loan fund.

Those sorority and fraternity members who plan to help with the supper should be at the Union by 4 p.m., according to Jeanie Gratton, member of the senior gift committee.

Yarborough's Accuser Confesses Lie To FBI

DALLAS (AP) — U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, (D-Tex.), said Friday the Federal Bureau of Investigation has told him that a man who swore he saw Billie Sol Estes give Yarborough $50,000 has admitted that the statement was a lie.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Herbert Miller confirmed the report.

Yarborough said the development amounted to a confession to the FBI of perjury.

Yarborough's opponent in Saturday's Democratic senatorial primary election, Gordon McLendon, produced two men on statewide television last week who swore to the money transaction.

Yarborough has consistently called the charge "an infamous lie." He had asked the FBI to investigate it.

"Today I telephoned Asst. Atty. Gen. Herbert Miller in Washington and asked him what progress was being made. He said Billie Sol Estes refused to be interviewed by the FBI, but that one of the two witnesses who appeared on television with Gordon McLendon and swore he saw me receive $50,000 admitted to the FBI that the statement was false, that he never saw Estes give me $50,000, and that his statement was a lie," Yarborough said Friday.

The alleged money-giving was said to have taken place Nov. 6, 1960, at Estes' Pecos home.

Yarborough demands that McLendon, a Dallas radio executive, withdraw from the Senate race "because of having based it on perjury and character assassination."

The Senator said he would discuss the matter further Friday night on television.

Miller is chief of the criminal division of the Justice Department.

-For Intramurals- Olympic Star To Visit Campus

The "pole vaulting parson," two-time Olympic gold medal winner Bob Richards, will be master of ceremonies and guest speaker at the annual "Noche de Conquistadores" Thursday, according to Edsel Buchanan, director of the Texas Tech intramural program for men.

The "Noche de Conquistadores" is an all-school intramural competition and climaxes the spring semester's athletic activities on the Tech campus.

INDIVIDUALS HONORED

As master of ceremonies, Richards will present individual awards to all contest winners as well as several special annual awards. These special awards recognize the outstanding participant, the outstanding team, the most winning team and the organization with the greatest percentage of participation in the intramural activities.

THE HIGHPOINT of Richards' athletic career came in the 1952 and 1956 Olympic games when he earned gold medals as a pole vaulter. He also won the United States decathlon championships in 1951, 1954 and 1955.

In 1951, Richards became the second athlete in history to clear 15 feet in the pole vault. Before the end of that year, he had cleared this height eight times.

These performances, together with his decathlon championship, brought him national recognition in the form of the Helms Athletic Foundation's "Athlete of the Year Award" and the AAU's Sullivan Memorial trophy, annually presented to the nation's most outstanding amateur athlete.

NAMED OUTSTANDING

Richards was selected by the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce as one of the 10 outstanding young men in America in 1957.

HIS EXTENDED speaking schedule causes him to make more than 200 addresses each year.

Sources close to Richards say that his main objective is to promote the importance of a sound mind, body and spirit in the young people and adults he talks with.

He received the "pole vaulting parson" nickname because he is a minister-at-large in the Church of the Brethren.

Richards will arrive in Lubbock on Thursday in advance of the Noche de Conquistadores.

Stinson Wins

Mike Stinson, junior, won out in the special runoff Student Council representative election Friday in the School of Engineering. Stinson had 77 votes to Allan Redwine's 57. The light vote concluded the spring general elections.

Bike Race Pits Teams

By DON ENGER
Toreador Staff Writer

The officials have been briefed, the bicycles have been greased and everything seems in order for the Seventh Annual "Little 500" at 2 p.m. today.

The entries, who have been fighting traffic for the past three weeks trying to "get in shape" for the contest, will make their way around the 25 mile race course for trophies.

According to the time trials last Sunday, the defending champion Dolphins boast the best time with Carpenter Hall running a close second.

GIRLS TO RIDE

Preceding the boy's race, the "weaker sex" will compete in a 16-mile "run for the flags" around Memorial Circle at 1 p.m. Twenty teams are entered in the girls' division with 23 in the boys.

All teams will meet in their respective pits at 12:45 p.m. today, for bicycle inspection.

The committee for this year's race consist of Joe Waller, director; Ronnie Botkin, business manager; Thelma Askew, secretary; Jim Sandlin and Bill Edwards, track heads; George Shuckman, awards; Ken Seiler, publicity; John Rinn, program; and Bob Crismer, official.

Sponsors for the race are Alpha Phi Omega, the Circle K, Saddle Tramps and Women's Service Organization.

DOLPHINS POST HIGH

In time trials the Dolphins posted a 3:05, Carpenter Hall a 3:10, and Delta Tau Delta (A team) raced to a 3:10.2.

Eight trophies will be awarded to the top three places in each division; and a sportsmanship trophy in each division.

The Dolphins are bidding for their third straight championship.

Children Quizz 'Little Joe' On Hair, Hoss, Jealousy

By PAMELA BEST
Toreador Copy Editor

Amid a group of wide-eyed youngsters at the Lubbock Children's Home, Michael Landon, alias "Little Joe" of the "Bonanza" series, answered questions that only youngsters can ask.

"Does your wife get mad when you kiss other girls on the show?" one little girl asked.

Landon laughed and at the same time answered "yes." He explained his laughter was because of a particular incident on location for a show.

"I was supposed to kiss this girl—just a peck, you know," he laughed. "It wasn't a big thing but she didn't understand that we couldn't hit noses or we would look like our faces were bashed in," he added. "I finally had to kiss her on the forehead!" All the children laughed.

Other popular questions some of the children asked are: "How fat is Hoss? Is that real hair that you have on? When they hit you, do they really hit you? What do you use for blood? and Have you ever gotten a black eye?"

Landon told THE DAILY TOREADOR that he felt the children were a well-mannered group. He said that they are very fortunate to have such "good facilities" in which to live and play.

"These kids were better mannered than the average group," Landon said. "They were a bright group and certainly asked intelligent questions," he added.

Landon explained why he chose to close his rodeo act with a talk to all the younger children in the audience.

"Kids are more impressionable at a younger age," he said. "Sometimes they don't listen to their parents but they may listen to someone they idolize. I feel that children ought to be encouraged to pray, especially for those who don't have as much as they have," Landon explained.

"You know, the majority of us are so lucky that we sometimes forget and take our possessions for granted," he added.

Folk Singing Trio Gives Tech Concert

By LANE CROCKETT
Toreador Fine Arts Editor

Famous folk singing group "Peter, Paul and Mary," comes to the Tech campus Sunday.

THE TRIO HIT the best-selling charts a few years ago with such recordings as "The Hammer Song," "500 Miles," "Puff, the Magic Dragon" and "The Lemon Tree."

In the latest issue of Billboard magazine, the group was picked as the favorite folk singing group on college campuses.

The folk singers have had the distinction of playing nightclubs from coast to coast. They have been seen from the "hungry i," in San Francisco to the "Lambd's Club" in Miami, Fla.

THE GROUP HAS won two gold records (those records which sell over one million copies) with their albums "Peter, Paul and Mary" and "Moving." They are presently riding high on the popular charts with "Go Tell It on a Mountain."

Besides their numerous club engagements and concerts, they have been interviewed in some of America's leading magazines — "Newsweek," "Playboy," "Show" and "Time" to mention a few.

THEY HAVE ALSO been seen on numerous high-ranking television shows such as "77 Sunset Strip," "Jack Paar" and "American Bandstand."

"We are a cosmopolitan group. It would be dishonest for us to imitate the folk singing style of any particular ethnic group. But our urban background is an asset. We can present in a modern musical form the feelings of many ethnic groups, and do it with integrity," says Peter Yarrow.

A LIFE-LONG interest in folk music brought the trio together in New York's Greenwich Village, where Al Grossman, manager of another folk singer, Odetta, put them under contract.

Previously Peter Yarrow was appearing as a single after his own successful tour that included the "Newport Folk Festival." Paul Stookey was doing stand-up comic routines in the Village, "a lot of sound effects with virtually no plot." Paul was also helping Mary Travers get back on her feet as a singer after going down with Mort Sahl in a Broadway flop called "The Next President."

"WHAT THEY HAVE achieved is a rare artistic empathy that results from their knowing themselves, knowing their music and releasing the natural qualities of both, uninhibited by gimmicks," says Hubert Meeker, the group's press agent.

"They have learned the secret of singing so closely together, passing one another in amazing changes, that they build towering harmonic facades filling the auditory spectrum," he added.

PERFORMANCE time is 3 p.m. in the Lubbock Municipal Auditorium. Tickets are priced at $2.50 for Tech students and at $2.50, $3 and $3.50 for general admission. Tickets may be obtained at the Auditorium box office beginning at 1:30 p.m. Sunday. Students must present their ID's with their student tickets at the door.

DURING INTERMISSION, two records will be given as a door prize to Tech students, so all students should retain their ticket stubs. Tickets will not be on sale in the Union Program Office, and no interviews or autographs will be given by the trio until after the performance.

A Phi O Celebrates Silver Anniversary

Beta Sigma chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, men's national service fraternity, marks its twenty-fifth year of service to Tech tonight at its annual dinner dance.

The Tech chapter was installed April 30, 1939 with members and the sponsor from the University of Texas chapter officiating.

HELPS WITH PARKING

In its early years Beta Sigma took as one of its many projects helping with the parking situation on campus by painting curbs and stenciling "no parking" signs where they were needed.

SINCE ITS first service project, the Tech chapter of A Phi O has expanded its services to include coordinating Homecoming every year, taking care of campus elections, helping in the Tech infirmary in the evenings, selling programs at home football games, co-sponsoring the Little "500" bicycle race and several other service projects.

The Tech chapter of Alpha Phi Omega also sponsors a boy scout troop for handicapped boys which gained national recognition in Time magazine in January 1956 when Avalanche-Journal reporter Ken May wrote a story on the troop.

THE DINNER-dance tonight will be in honor of all those men who did so much for the growth and development of this chapter.

Liz, Richard Meet Eddie

NEW YORK (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor was there. So was husband Richard Burton. And so was former husband Eddie Fisher.

True, Fisher was at a table apart as all three attended the opening of the Sammy Davis Jr. show early Friday at the Copacabana night club.

But it was the first known time that all three had been in the same public gathering since their widely publicized triangle developed.
