It's Bigger than Both of 'em

-but its price makes it one of America's 3 best sellers!

It's as simple as this:

Only two cars in all creation outsell Buick. And they are two of the well-known smaller cars.

So maybe it will pay you to ask how come Buick has zoomed to the No. 3 spot with such fast-selling company.

Well, one answer is the beautiful and brawny Buick SPECIAL you see pictured here — and the low price it carries.

It's the biggest bundle of high-powered performance and high-fashion luxury ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

And that means more people want it and can afford it, because it's priced only a few dollars more than its two smaller-car rivals—even less than some models of those very same cars.

But the big answer comes from a sure fact more folks have discovered: you get more pure automobile for your money in Buick than you get elsewhere.

Here, you get the extra wallop of big new Buick power raised to a new high—and pouring in smooth whisper from a brand-new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine of true high compression.

Here, you get the matchless buoyancy of Buick's great new ride—the extra-safe feeling of Buick's new handling ease—the extra stretch-out comfort of Buick roominess—the extra solidity and strength of Buick structure—the extra pride and prestige of Buick's new styling and dash.

Here, too—and nowhere else—you can get the silk-smooth performance and flash-fast response of Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo*—the world's only transmission with the gas-saving mileage and switch-pitch action of the modern airplane propeller.

This week—this very day, if you wish—you can sample all these Buick blessings to your heart's content and your pocket's joy. Why not drop in on us and do just that?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Mrs. Conley Honored At Entertainment

On Wednesday, May 2nd, a group of women met at 4 p. m., in the home of Mrs. W. E. Vanderford, for a visit with Mrs. Eva Conley of Temple, formerly associated with most of the women in the club work. TV was watched for awhile and the recent rain of flood proportion and the hail, provided sufficient topics for conversations as each told of the damage done at their homes. Those present besides the hostess and honoree, were: Mrs. Edd Jones, Mrs. Arthur Talley, Mrs. Roy Stockard, Mrs. Clifford Stephenson, Mrs. W. A. Standly, Mrs. Doug Moore, Mrs. A. L. Oder and Mrs. Amos Taylor. Mrs. Taylor brought a beautifully pieced quilt top the squares applied in canterberry bells that she had made for Voncille. The hostess served dainty refreshments of a variety of cookies, candy, open faced sandwiches, punch and coffee from a laid table.

20th Century Club Honors Mothers

The 20th Century Club met in regular session on Friday afternoon, May 4th, with Mrs. Edd Jones and Mrs. Roy Stockard as hostesses in the Jones home. A slight chill in the air gave cause for a bright fire burning in the fire place, reminding us of our old homes and cheerful fires. Mother's Day songs were sung to piano accompaniment and a varied program on Mothers was given with each one taking part. Some were spoken tributes to individual mothers and others prepared special articles or read clippings or articles from papers.

Mother Standly told of her love for her Club Daughters. Very lovely and bountiful refreshments of pineapple chiffon cake, pink ice cream, mints, nuts, coffee and punch were served by the hostesses, after secret pals had been revealed with nice gifts.

Those attending the meeting besides the three above mentioned were: Mrs. W. E. Vanderford, Mrs. Charles Bengé, Mrs. Richard Smith, Mrs. Bill Pritchard, Mrs. Clifford Stephenson, Mrs. Doug Moore, Mrs. Arthur Talley, Mrs. George Richardson, Mrs. A. L. Oder, and Mrs. W. L. Campbell. Mrs. Campbell brought a lovely framed picture of an Arizona scene, her mother, 84 years old, had painted for Carolee. A nice sum was added to the clubs finances when several members paid a penny a pound for their birthday weight. Mrs. Charles Bengé and Mrs. Bill Pritchard will be hostesses for the next meeting Friday, May 18th.

PTA Has Final Meeting of Year

There was a good attendance Tuesday afternoon, May 8th, when the Santa Anna P. T. A. met in the last session of this school year. The meeting in the Ward School cafeteria had been postponed from the previous Tuesday because of weather and road conditions.

Pupils of the first and second grades taught by Mrs. Olin Horton, Mrs. J. W. Taylor and Mrs. J. L. Harris, put on an interesting program. Mrs. Horton's pupils won the attendance award.

Good attendance, good programs, and membership cooperation, has been the rule through the year. The organization voted to give $25.00 to the swimming class project.

Landscapeing of grounds has been a project for this year. Ground was prepared and sodded and trees and shrubbery planted under expert guidance.

First Aid kits were placed in all the rooms and a larger kit placed in the sick room.

Looking back on the years work it can be said much was accomplished. Some interesting and profitable affairs were put on to finance the projects.

There was quite a storm in the north part of our community last week doing damage to barns and out buildings for the Daltons, Mr. J. W. Vance and Mrs. Lewellan. Washed out the fences for a number of people. The rain was wonderful, but

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON-SERMON

How spiritualization of thought brings man enlarged ability and opportunity will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mortals and Immortals" at Christian Science services Sunday.

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (265:5-15): "Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual, — they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite, — in order that sin and morality may be put off."

"This scientific sense of being, forsaking matter for Spirit, by no means suggests man's absorption into Deity and the loss of his identity, but confers upon man enlarged individuality, a wider sphere of thought and action, a more expansion love, a higher and more permanent peace."

Recent visitors in the Roy West home were his dad, R. L. West of Stamford, Henry Skiles, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Farr, and Mary of Cotulla and Mrs. Maggie West of Rising Star.

Mrs. R. C. Gay returned home Saturday from an absence of several weeks from her home. She had been visiting with her son, Leeper Gay and wife at Prescott, Arizona, and with a sister, Mrs. J. L. Westerman, and family, at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Robbins and children, Walter and Glenda of Midland, were weekend visitors here in the home of her parents, the Bill Pritchards.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

For All Men

Lesson for May 13, 1956

STRANGE as it seems, one of the hardest things for Christians to get through their heads and into their hearts, is that the Gospel is for all men. Some people have actually believed that God has two lists, and everybody's name is on one or the other; one list is of the people whom God intends to save, and the other is the list of those whom He has no intention of saving. This notion is out of line with the New Testament, especially such a clear statement as I Timothy 2:4: "God our Savior, who desires all men to be saved." Others, as we all know, somewhere back in their minds are very slow to believe that the Gospel is really for all men.

Dr. Foreman

"The Believers Were Amazed" Prejudice is not new in the world, not new in the church. The very first Christians had their prejudices and some of them never recovered from them. We are told that the Roman army officer Cornelius, and his whole household — presumably servants as well as family — were converted, the believers who came from Jerusalem with Simon Peter were amazed, "because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on Gentiles." These Jerusalem believers were all Jews, and Cornelius and his household were all Romans — or some other race, perhaps Egyptian or Greek — and Jews had long supposed that being the "chosen people" meant that God would have dealings with them, and with them alone, of all the races in the world. The "Gospel" was for God's people; and the Romans weren't God's people — as those first believers saw it. So when it was obvious that some Romans had accepted God, and God accepted them, Prejudice, Modern Style

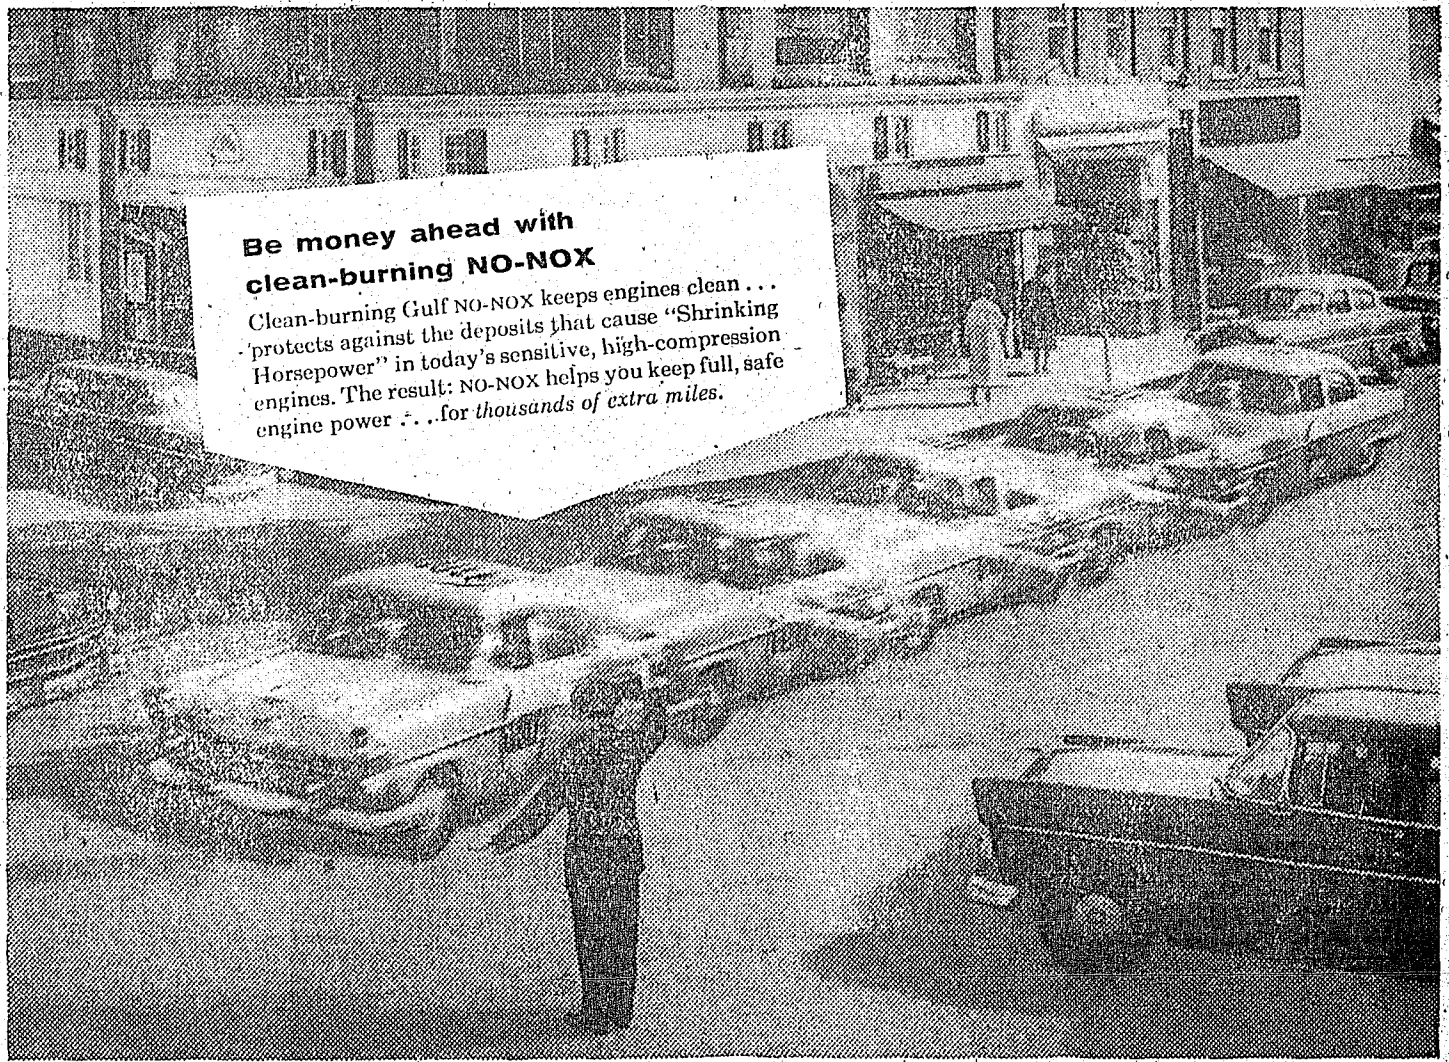

Is the Gospel for all men? No, some would seem to be saying. Only for white people. If it is for anybody else, let it be somewhere else but where white people worship. The gospel can't be preached to any ears but white ears in the white man's church. A preacher in a large all-white congregation reports having received grateful telephone calls from members of another race — men and women who don't get very much out of the sermons in the only churches where they are admitted; so they have stopped going to church and have to "make do" with the radio. Is the Gospel for all men? No, a great many American church members seem to be saying when the offering plates are passed. These members may spend generously for their own congregation. They will put out big money to build an educational plant, or an entire new church. They will buy the preacher a new car. But money for missions? Not a cent from some of these people.

God Loves All Sorts

It was not only the first believers who were "amazed" that Romans could become Christians. Believers today are shocked from time to time in the same way. The fliers in the great war who were shot down over jungles, expecting death, only to find in those rainforests people singing Christian hymns; the prisoner in a Japanese concentration camp who found that one of his guards knew Jesus; the traveler in Russia who finds that there are real Russian Christians even today; these have been amazed too. But such surprises occur not only across the seas; they can happen across the tracks. Many persons show that they don't expect the Gospel to do any good except to some one kind of people. For example, everybody knew Billy Graham could reach the masses of Englishmen, the ordinary kind that will flock to a sports arena to see any kind of sensation. But when Billy Graham proposed to visit Cambridge University, many people advised him not to go. You'll never get anywhere with university students, he was told. It's the old story, the Gospel is for some people, not for all. Sometimes it's the other way around. People well-polished with education and filled with culture to the eyeglasses, don't want certain "other kinds" of people in their church; it might "lower the tone!" No — God loves all sorts; and if we profess to be his people, we had better learn to love other sorts than our own.

Destruction has come through our community last Monday night and Tuesday when Home Creek came down in a rage. Effects of the rain at Valera and possibly other places also. Mrs.

Ann Bryan and daughter, were caught in their home and could not get out and were very fortunate to have large oak trees to climb, spending about 14 hours in the trees. All of their furniture was covered with the water, since the water reached near the ceilings. Mrs. Bryan has been faithfully working with the assistance of neighbors, saving some clothing and bedding, but most of her nice furniture is a complete loss, including a very expensive piano, also her new Pontiac which she purchased the past August is a loss. She is a person who can always look on the bright side and feel fortunate she is alive and her daughter's life.

Mr. Joe Lovelady also suffered a heavy loss, the water was over a foot in his house. I have heard that Mr. Earl Gill stated that that was the first time water had ever got up into the Lovelady house. Joe lost his rugs on the floor and his car and tractor are heavily damaged including all of his fences.

Mr. A. D. Pettit also suffered heavy loss to fences and some livestock. We hear that some few cows have been heard of that are still alive. Mr. Pettit has recently purchased the Joe Barnes place here. Water reached the front porch.

The Gill Ranch suffered heavy fence losses. Warren stated he was sure they had fence lines that were completely destroyed for a mile in length, even posts gone. Mr. Ben Yarborough also suffered heavy fence losses, but all who had property near the creek suffered damage. Also Floyd Morris lost fence, but we can still be thankful no lives were lost.

Purvis' and Louis Newman Honored Friday At Church

On Friday night, May 4th, members of the First Baptist Church, took the lead in a unique all church night service in honor of Rev. A. G. Purvis, the pastor, and his wife, and Louis Newman, for many years the song leader and very active in other lines of church work.

Upon assembling those attending went to the Annex, where refreshments were served. They then went to the church sanctuary, where a service was held. Glenn McClure, conducted the devotions, with Rev. Purvis, and others taking part.

Louis Newman was presented a Bible from the Brotherhood Class of the Church, with W. Ford Barnes, making the presentation. Mr. Newman had taught the class a long time.

Emzy Brown made the presentation of a memory book from the church to Mr. Newman. The loose leaves were removed and passed around for the members to write their sentiments and then placed in the book.

At the conclusion of the service, those attending returned to the Annex, where Rev. and Mrs. Purvis were presented a big old time shower, or pounding, with Mrs. Paul Pembroke, making the presentation speech.

Besides a lot of groceries and other things, they received a nice collection of matching crystal. This will go well with the nice dining room suite, the Purvis family were given when they moved to Santa Anna from his previous pastorate.

Mr. Newman is spending his weekends in San Angelo with his daughter, Ora Alice, and has placed his membership in the First Baptist Church there. He will be greatly missed at Santa Anna's First Baptist Church.
