Regular Meeting The Self Culture Club had a very interesting meeting on Friday afternoon, Sept. 27, with Mrs. Sam Collier as hostess in her home. The club now meets at 3:45 p. m.

The subject for the afternoon was "Flowers." Roll call was answered by "My Favorite Flower."

The Chandor Gardens of Weatherford was described by Mrs. Frank L. Turner. Mrs. Turner had recently made a trip to see these famous gardens. She also passed color pictures of the gardens, as well as some pictures she had taken.

Douglas Chandor and his wife toiled for many years to produce these gardens that people come from all over America to see. Chandor was born in England and died in 1953. His wife still works daily carrying on the gar-

An expert on flowers, Mrs. Collier showed flower arrangements. One of dried grasses and garlac seed pods, colored brightly in a large basket, red roses in a globe container, a mass arrangement of guernsey lillies. She arranges the flowers for the Presbytrian Church, and passed album pictures of these arrangements. She said arrangements should have a base under them, and the base should be darker than the container.

It was voted to continue to have the City Library as a project. Misses Ruby and Elsie Lee Harper have recently donated some nice books to the library. The Club members will likely make a trip to the Chandor Gardens next spring. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Nona Woodruff, instead of Mrs. Hardy

Members present were: Mrs. Collier, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Cullen Perry, Mrs. Otis Bivins, Mrs. Charlie Evans, Mrs. J. L. Harris, Mrs. Charles Ing, Mrs. J. C. Mathews, Mrs. W. B. Sparkman, inger, Mrs. Wall ce, Mrs. Maud Mrs. Nona Woodruff, Miss Dora Amile Watkins, Kirkpatrick and Mrs. A. L. Oder.

Mountaineer's Win Over Rochelle 26-0

Donald Ray and Eugene White scored two touchdowns each Friday night and White kicked two extra points as the Mountaineers won their third game of the season. Rochelle penetrated inside the Mountaineer 20-yard line only one time and that was just as the game ended. The score was 26-0 for Santa Anna.

The Mountaineers received the kickoff to start the game, made one first down and attempted a pass which was intercepted. Rochelle made a first down then failing to gain, kicked to their 27-yard line. The Mountaineers could not gain and kicked to their 17-yard line and Rochelle returned the ball to their 25-yard line. The Hornets fumbled and Santa Anna recovered on the 15-yard line. On the third play, Ray went over from 4-yards out for the first TD. White kicked the extra point. The Mountaineers kicked to Rochelle and the Hornets failed to gain and had to kick. The Mountaineers took the ball on their 35-yard line and White picked up 3 yards, then passed to Robert Perry for an overall total of 52 yards. On the next play Ray ment the remaining distance for the score. The extrapoint was missed.

The second quarter was a secusiaw battle through mid-field until Rochelle kicked to the Mountaineer 39-yard line near the middle of the quarter. The Mountaineers got a drive underway that carried them to the double strip in 11 plays with White going over from 3-yards out. The try for extra point was no good and the half-time score was Santa Anna 19 - Rochelle 0.

The third period was scoreless and most of the activity took place near mid-field. Midway in the final period the Mountaineers recovered a Hornet fumble on the Mountaineer 46-yard line. Three ground plays worked the ball to the Hornet 37-yard line, then White on a keeper went wide around left end and crossed the goal line standing up. He kicked the extra point for the final score

THE EGG BUSINESS With the advent of the new standard-setting Texas Egg Law and accompanying changes in egg marketing, farmers with laying flocks might do well to look at some of the latest trends in producing and selling eggs. however far-fetched they may seem at the present.

Latest developments in poultry science tells us, for instance, that laying hens may pay greater dividends when fed rations which are fortified with some of the new tranquilizing drugs.

It is believed that tranquilizers may be of special help in hot summer months by bringing birds through hot weather without a serious drop in laying and by lowering hot weather death

Promising studies are also un-derway to determine if shell and interior egg quality which drops off during hot weather may be improved by tranquilizers.

If a suitable and inexpensive type drug is found — and there hot weather difficulties.

Something else worth looking et.) into is the spreading use of aumachines to sell eggs.

few months. One New York firm makes an egg vendor which handles two different grades and keeps the eggs cool in summer and warm in winter, selling for $1,495 F.O. B. the factory. A special shelter that fits over the machine costs an extra $150. With saving in time, money and trouble, this type of automation may be just what the egg producer needs.

J. W. Babb Buried Here On Thursday

Funeral services for J. Babb were held in Abilene on Thursday, September 26. Babb died of a heart attack on Tuesday. He was a retired merchant. Before moving to Abilene many years ago, he was a merchant in Santa Anna, in a partnership with the late Judge Pieratt. Burial was in the Santa Anna Cemetery.

He is survived by the wife, who before her marriage was Miss Pearl Hunter of Santa Anna. Four sons and a daughter also survive.

Band News

The Mountaineer Band presented a very enjoyable halftime performance at the Rochellc-Santa Anna football game last Friday hight.

Pete Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Simmons, was the featured performer, playing the part of "Junior" in the show entitled, "Junior Joins the Band,"

The show centered around a young musician's career in the school band with Pete performing the solo passages. He is in the Seventh Grade.

The Band will travel to Rising. Star Friday at 6:00 p. m. to help support the Mountaineers in their first conference game. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Evans will accompany the band on the trip. It is necessary to take two busses due to the increased membership of the band.

The Junior and Elementary Bands are practicing each day and working on fundamentals of playing.

In the near future the band will enter their fall magazine sales contest.

The next home performance of the Senior Band will be at the Santa Anna-Goldthwaite ball game. There will be a concert on Saturday, October 12, for the Homecoming activities.
