Christmas Opening To Be Friday

James Family Hold Reunion Here Thurs.

Thirty-four relatives from several different states were entertained Thanksgiving Day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Jones. Some had come on Tuesday. Much of the happiness of the year was discussed. Also, up-to-the-minute current happenings, while pranks and jokes were pulled.

Quartet tables upstairs accommodated the young fry. They played games, watched TV, played their favorite records and practiced a program, which was given later to the delight of all.

An appropriate dried arrangement, flanked by gold mums, centered the table from which the bountiful dinner was served. Conversation before the sparkling open fire place was enjoyed until late afternoon, when a business session was held. Names were drawn for Christmas and decision made to have the gathering in Houston next year.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Jones and Mrs. Harold Nelson of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones, pastor of St. John's Methodist Church in Houston, reading the vows. Maurine Reid of Austin played the wedding music and Mr. and Mrs. Edd Jones served as attendants. After a trip to Mexico City, they will be at home in Montgomery, Ala.

Oil Martin's Observe Golden Wedding Sun.

By Mrs. A. L. Oder
It was my pleasure to be one of the 112 persons who registered at the Golden Wedding observance of Mr. and Mrs. Oil Martin Sunday afternoon at Trickham.

This pleasant affair was held in the modern home of the Martins, where she lived as a child. Mr. Martin has lived in Coleman and Brown counties 69 years. Mrs. Martin has lived in the two counties for 66 years.

Mrs. Martin is the former Dolly McClatchey. She was born at Jasper, Ala. Mr. Martin was born at Waxahachie, Texas.

Their children were hosts for the nice Golden Wedding observance. They are: Mrs. Ora Stacy of Brooksmith, J. S. Martin of Santa Anna, Herman Martin of Garland, Mrs. Manie Stephens of Bangs and Mrs. Oma Lee Dockery of Trickham. Mr. and Mrs. Martin have ten grandchildren.

For the happy occasion all the receiving rooms had profuse decorations of large golden mums, grown by Mrs. Martin. Corsages were also made of the lovely blooms.

Daughters and relatives of the couple assisted in welcoming guests, registered them and served in the dining room. The table was laid with lace over a golden cloth, had golden ribbons across the table, ending in big bows at the front. A very large decorated cake with names of the honorees centered the table with mum decorations.

Golden punch, coffee, white cake squares, mints and nuts were served.

Although the Martins had requested "no presents" many nice gifts were brought or sent by loving relatives and friends. People came from far and near.

Personally, I was delighted to attend this nice affair, to pay tribute to my good friends, the honorees and to see many old friends I knew and loved in the yester-years. I learned to love Trickham and the people around there during the 13 or more years my husband preached there.

Some I saw last Sunday I don't believe I have seen since his death 20 years ago. He preached at Trickham the Sunday before he became ill. I appreciate your splendid care of his grave in your historic and extra well kept cemetery.

WALDROP-BOYD REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Collin Price entertained Sunday, Dec. 1, with a reunion dinner for 54 kinspeople.

Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bell, Mrs. Lewis Brown, Beverly and Stephen, all of Ballinger; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Priddy, Mr. and Mrs. Al England and Al'an, Mrs. Elvis Selman of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boyd, Vernon and Sandra of Arlington; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waldrop, Danny, Buddy and Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby E. Waldrop, Ronald, Earl and Tracy of Breckenridge; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Waldrop of Canyon, Texas.

Postmaster Urges Early Xmas Mailing

The local post office hopes to keep its good record on handling Christmas mails by getting everything processed and delivered well before Christmas Eve, Acting Postmaster Mrs. C. D. Bruce, said this week.

She added that how well the mail moves will depend a great deal on the cooperation local people give in getting their packages and Christmas cards mailed during the next ten days.

It's important in the small town as well as in the city to mail early during the Christmas season," the Postmaster said. "Most people appreciate the early arrival of a gift or card, and where there is a heavy concentration of mail early mailing could mean the difference in on-time and late delivery."

"And be sure to use the correct address," Mrs. Bruce added. "Wrap and address packages carefully. Take a little extra time and place the address inside the package just in case it should come unwrapped."

The address on all mail destined for the larger cities should include zone numbers to insure faster delivery.

The Postmaster also advocated the use of first class postage on Christmas cards. First class postage — a three-cent stamp — allows a written message to be included inside. There are other advantages, too. The Post Office considers first class mail as preferential mail which is entitled to the fastest handling. Also, a Christmas card with first class postage may be forwarded or returned to the sender.

"Incidentally," the Postmaster concluded, "it is socially correct to place your return address on the envelope bearing a Christmas card."

Sheffield of Gillett; Mr. and Mrs. Malon Sheffield and son of Okra; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dean and children of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Dean and children of Rockwood; Byrl Fellers, Jesse, Lyndon, Weldon, Kay and Mary Haynes of Trickham.

town to Fifth Street, then turn around and back through town and around the block and back to the City Hall, where it will be dismissed.

There will be at least five nice floats and four bands in the parade along with Santa Claus and several children dressed in unique costumes. Bands in the parade will be the Junior and Senior Santa Anna Bands, the Coleman Bands and Howard Payne Band.

Santa Claus will be here and riding in the parade. He will have candies for the small children and will talk with them after the parade. He will be between the bank and hotel buildings after the parade. All small children are requested to write Santa a letter and let him know what they want for Christmas. IMPORTANT QUESTIONS TO BE DECIDED BY COTTON REFERENDUM

College Station — The nation's cotton producers by their votes in the December 10 cotton marketing quota referendum will determine whether quota penalties will apply and also the level of price supports for 1958-crop cotton. Therefore, reminds Chairman R. G. Shrauner of the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, the referendum is of vital concern to every cotton grower.

If at least two-thirds of the votes cast in the referendum favor marketing quotas, the program will be operative for next year's crop, explains Shrauner. Too, price support will be available to growers who comply with their farm allotments for the 1958 crop of upland cotton at a level between 75 and 90 percent of parity, and quota penalties will apply on any "excess" cotton. If more than one-third of the votes are against quotas, there would be no quota penalties and the price support level to eligible growers would drop to 50 percent of parity.

The chairman points out that, even if quotas are disapproved, acreage allotments will remain in effect as a means of determining eligibility for price support. All farmers who were engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1957 will be eligible to vote in the referendum and Shrauner urges them to do so. He also says that if growers have questions they'd like answered, they should visit the ASC office in their county.

Polling places will be announced in each county in advance of the December 10 referendum.

TAX-MAN SAM SEZ:

The 1957 crop has about been harvested. A lot of farmers will find that they can keep a lot more of the harvest in their barn instead of transferring it to Uncle Sam's barn if they read the "1957 Farmers Tax Guide". Your County Agent has this free booklet. Farmers as well as other taxpayers have to pay all the tax they owe, but this booklet has some good hints on how to keep records, what you owe, and don't owe. Farmers interested in paying self-employment tax and qualifying for Social Security benefits will find complete instructions in this booklet.

Simmons-Crawford Vows Exchanged

Miss Shirley Simmons of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Simmons of Santa Anna, became the bride of Antry Crawford of Howard Payne College, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Crawford of Mertens, Texas, Tuesday, Nov. 26 at 6:30 p. m. The Rev. Billy McClellan, pastor of the Rochelle Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony, held in the First Baptist Church of Santa Anna.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of lace and taffeta with a "V" neckline, traced with scallops of lace. Long lace sleeves ending in points over the hands were caught by tiny covered buttons. The bride wore a fingertip illusion veil which was attached to a tiara of pearls and rhinestone. A pearl necklace and teardrop earrings completed the ensemble. She carried a white Bible centered with a gardenia, with streamers tied in lover knots.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Jimmy Lancaster of Bangs, Tex., was attired in a brown velvet sheath dress with a drape neckline. She wore an apricot colored velvet clip hat and carried a matching velvet muff.

The bridesmaids, Oneal Tidwell of Blanket and Martha Ward of Kerens, Texas, both students at Howard Payne, were wearing brown velvet sheath dresses with draped necklines. They wore apricot colored velvet clip hats and carried matching velvet muffs.

Best man was Curtis Morris of Temple, and groomsmen were Dan Dendy of Brownwood and Manning Davis of Corsicana, all students at Howard Payne.

Ushers were Donnie Simmons, brother of the bride, and Kenneth Simmons, cousin of the bride from Colorado City.

The ceremony was performed before a background of palms and candelabra, holding tall white tapers and other greenery and an arch accented with white wedding bells.

Two baskets of white gladiola flanked either side of the arch. A musical program of "Entreat Me Not", "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" was given. The organist was Jean Stewardson.

Soloists were Maurice Mallow and Leroy Pollock.

A reception was held in the church annex following the wedding. The bride's table was covered with a beige lace cloth over dark brown and was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Wilson Griffin, sister of the groom, served the cake; Mrs. Ralph Bullard of Brownwood, was at the register and Miss Carolyn McClellan of Santa Anna presided at the punch bowl.

The bride's going away costume was a black and white fitted suit of cashmere with black and white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The couple will live at 1009 Center Ave. in Brownwood.

The bride is a graduate of the Santa Anna High School and the groom graduated at Blooming Grove High School. Both are seniors at Howard Payne College.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a gray wool suit with white accessories and white gardenia corsage. The groom's mother wore a navy felle suit with white accessories and white gardenia corsage.

Out of town guests at the wedding were from Colorado City, Lamesa, Corsicana, and Brownwood.
