WAY

THE LOBBYISTS

By Raymond C. Baker

Running true to form, diehard liberals and their press, radio and television adherents are voicing their usual post-Congress denunciations of business and the professions for thwarting pet schemes to move the nation closer to a socialistic state.

Particularly rankled over defeat by the medical profession of the President's medicare bill which would have meant socialized medicine, these pseudo patrlots are now crying "lobbyists!" as through it were a nasty word. They are referring of course to the doctors, other members of the profession and private citizens who appeared before Congressional committees at their own expense to testify against the measure, and to the thou-sands of citizens who wrote their Congressmen in opposition to medicare.

Administration Lobby,

But these liberals do not mention that the President's Department of Health, Education and Welfare organized one of the most vocal lobbies ever to invade the capitol in an effort to force this legislation through Congress, With the liberals it's a matter of whose ox is being gored. If, you are for them, you are a "legislative spokesman; if you are for American enterprise, you are a "lobbyist."

Business is learning that if it is to win in Washington it must organize all of the tools at its disposal. Going it alone spells defeat. The administration lobby alone is a powerhouse. When it combines with lobbies supported by labor, and many others dedicated to a socialistic America, it is an almost unbeatable team.

But it can be defeated. Two outstanding examples of well-organized opposition demonstrate this. One is the fight sparked by the Magazine Publishers Association to prevent the Senpassed postal rate bill which Regular Meeting would have meant death for would have meant death for many newspapers and periodicals. MPA retained public relations counsel) and developed a program which included all newspaper groups and allied industries. The result was a drastically modified rate law which preserves America's free press. The second was the program organized along almost identical lines by banks and investor of the Santa Anna Chapter of the Puture Homemakers of America met Monday night, October 12 in the High School Auditorium. Jo Ann Wallace, president, called the meeting to order. After the opening ritual Lawanda Horner gave a projects report. The 87th Congress demonstrated that it does not consider "lobbyist" a nasty word by including in the tax law a provision permitting deductions of expenses incurred for lobbying. For 76 years the Regulation of Lobbying Act has prohibited such deductions.

W T U Receives Safe Driving Award Recently

National honors for outstand-ing safe driver performance were won by West Texas Utilities Company in the Public Utility Division of the 31st National Fleet Safety Contest conducted by the National Safety Council. The West Texas Utilities Company fleet, consisting of 322 vehicles, was awarded 1st place in the Public Utility Division at ceremonies held in conjunction with the 50th National Safety Congress and Exposition.

The award is based on the Company's safety performance from July, 1961 through June, 1962. During this period, the firm's drivers operated 5,289,791 miles and had 1.70 accidents per 1,000,000 miles of operation.

It's Time For ... EYE CARE

Dr. Newton K. Wesley

Now that school days are here again, parents of children just starting should be extra careful of the vision of the child. The examinations of eyes in schools today unfortunately may not tell the complete story of how well Johnny can see. Be-cause a child has 20/20 vision is no indication that nothing is wrong. It is quite possible to have such vision and yet be afflicted with some eye

Watch your child when he is at home reading, and look for these signs. They could be signs of trouble:

Attempts to brush away blur; does he seem to blink more than usual? Does he rub his eyes frequently? Does he squint when looking at distant objects? Is he unduly sensitive to light? Does he stumble over familiar words? Does he frown excessively? Do

Does he frown excessively? Do his eyes appear to be red and swollen? Are his eyes inflamed? If he shows any of the above symptoms, you should have the child's eyes examined soon by an optometrist or ophthalmologist. The National Eye Research Foundation suggests we have our eyes examined every six months. eyes examined every six months. I agree with that statement, but I think it should be observed scrupulously when the vision of children is concerned.
