THE AMERICAN WAY

OUT OF THE FRYING PAN — INTO THE FRYING PAN

By Harry Browne

Good Heavens!

Now we're sending "massive" military aid to India — accompanied by assurances that Nehru has realized the "disadvantage of being neutral."

Disadvantage? Consider some recent history: India's votes in the UN have been strongly pro-Soviet; Khrushna Menon has been famous for his anti-American tirades; while Nehru gained fame in the thirties as an organizer of one of the world's largest Communist fronts. Nehru's armies have brazenly stolen Kashmir from Pakistan and Goa from Portugal. For all of this, he receives over half-a-billion dollars per year in foreign aid from us.

"To The Rescue" Again
And now that Nehru appears to be in trouble with Red China, we rush in and offer "anything necessary" in military aid.

Is this the "disadvantage of being neutral"? Not even our own allies get treated this well by us. Take Portugal, for example:

The Portuguese are firmly anti-communist; and have been extremely generous in giving us a strategic missile base on the Azores Islands. They pursue a benevolent colonial policy in Africa, where they are attempting to prepare the natives for self-government.

Yet when India seized Portuguese Goa by force, we looked the other way.

Realism Needed
What kind of foreign policy is this? We reward our enemies and kick our friends. If we really want to do something about India's intra-family problems, here are a couple of suggestions:

First, let's tell Nehru to give up the plunder of his own piracy — to return Goa and Kashmir to the free world — before giving him even moral support.

Secondly, let's take the leash off Chiang Kai-shek — and let him move against Red China. That would hurt the Communists far more than defensive action on India's borders.

Just these two policies would provide us with something productive for our efforts. But even they aren't lasting solutions.

Our foreign policy needs a complete overhaul. We should refuse to do business — aid, trade or diplomatic — with any rulers that don't recognize the fundamental rights of private property and individual freedom. That's a yardstick that would clearly separate our friends from our enemies.

Let's Assert Ourselves

There are no neutrals on the question of freedom vs. slavery, and most rulers prefer the other side of that issue. Yet the free nations tower mightily over the slave states. Isn't it time we quit fawning over half-pint socialist slave-masters and asserted ourselves?

Until we do, we shall undoubtedly continue this foolish policy of rushing from one crisis to another — of jumping out of the frying pan — right back into the frying pan.

School Board Appoints Text Book Committee

The Santa Anna School Board of Trustees, meeting in regular session on December 4, appointed the following local textbook committee for the local schools:

Vocal Music, Grades 4, 5 and 6, Mrs. Gertrude Martin; Texas History, Mrs. Ruth Dodson and Mrs. Mattie Beth Davenport; Algebra I and II, R. C. Smith; Plane Geometry, Cullen N. Perry; Physics, Daniel Tindol; Spanish I and II, Mrs. Gloria Chandler; and Homemaking I, II and III, Mrs. Winnie McQueen.

New textbooks are to be selected this year in all the above-named subjects. Their use will begin September 1, 1963.

Textbook selection in Texas is a highly organized procedure and is so planned, in order to make use of the opinions of hundreds of people.

Textbooks are selected each year in about one-sixth of the subjects taught.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

Two More Bids Asked On Jim Ned Projects

Two additional floodwater retarding structures on Jim Ned Creek are being advertised for bids to be opened Dec. 28 at 2:00 p. m. in the Soil Conservation Service Office at Temple, according to E. J. Hughes, Area Conservationist at Brownwood. They are sites 2 and 3 located about 3 miles west of Grosvenor on the W. O. George and Dr. R. Bailey places. Easements for construction, operation and maintenance of the flood prevention structures have been granted to the Central Colorado Soil Conservation District. The District will continue to provide technical assistance of the Soil Conservation Service to farmers and ranchers of the watershed in planning and applying conservation programs on the land above each of the structures to prevent accelerated flooding and soil erosion.

Major items in the bid for the two floodwater retarding structures include placement of approximately 175,000 cubic yards of compacted earthfill material in the embankments, use of about 4,500 lbs. of steel bar reinforcement in 520 cubic yards of concrete for principal spillways, placement of 8,300 square yards of topsoil on the dams and emergency spillways for establishing and growing grass for low maintenance costs and construction of about 5,125 feet of net wire fence around the vegetated areas for protection against excessive grazing that would be detrimental to the grassed dams and spillways.

Ralph W. White, Project Construction Engineer, at Brownwood, will supervise construction of the work. The project is scheduled for completion within 174 working days after the award, Hughes reports.

Type II Polio Vaccine Sunday In Brown County

The Type II Sabin oral polio vaccine will be administered in six places in Brown County on Sunday, December 16. Local authorities urge all those who took Type I when it was given here, but did not take Type II, to go to one of the Brown County locations and take the Type II vaccine.

Authorities describe the polio virus as being three completely different kinds, about the same as three different diseases. Each of the three vaccines are for a specific disease. Actually, all who have not had the Type II vaccine are urged to take it.

The vaccine will be administered at the Bangs High School, Early High School and Brownwood High School buildings from 12 noon until 5:00 p. m. Sunday, Dec. 16.

More Added To Community Chest

In publishing the account of the Precinct No. 2 Community Chest last week, through error we left out the Leedy Community.

The Leedy Community contributed $83.00 to the drive, which brought the total for the rural communities to $920.23. This makes an overall total of $3,129.88 and at least one institution still has not turned in their report.

Quota for the drive was set at $3,000. Precinct No. 2 has always gone over the top in the years the drive has been being conducted in the manner it was this year.

Hurricane Picture To Be On TV

The U. S. Navy has cooperated with Walt Disney Productions in producing a one hour documentary television program entitled "Hurricane Hanna." The program, covering the life cycle of a violent hurricane, prominently features the Navy's Hurricane Hunters of Airborne Early Warning Squadron FOUR. The National Broadcasting Company will televise this program Sunday evening, December 16, 1962, on Walt Disney's "Wonderful World of Color." Please consult local listing for time and channel in your area.

Legion To Begin Improvement On Local Building

Members of the local American Legion Post met Monday night at the Armory Building and voted to begin the planned improvements on their building immediately. The building committee is composed of W. Earl Irick, Sr., Calvin Campbell and Alvin (Sye) Burden.

The plans call for the glass windows to be removed from the front of the building and tile and stucco to be put in their place. Also in the immediate plans is to fix a 15-foot in the front of the building and to build an office on the east side of the entrance. The floor will be cement.

W. Earl Irick, Sr., said the Legion would like very much to receive donations from the public for the improvement of the building. Anyone interested may contact him, any member of the building committee or any other member of the Legion.

The Legion building is located across the street in front of the post office.

Jim Gill Suffers Heart Attack

Jim Gill, prominent polled Hereford breeder of Whon and Coleman, suffered a heart attack in Jackson, Mississippi Wednesday night of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Gill were attending a stock show there. When Mr. Gill was stricken he was attending a meeting.

At present he is in the Jackson, Miss. hospital. He is reported to be improving very nicely and if he continues to improve he will likely be brought home in about 10 days.

His mother-in-law, Mrs. M. T. Kight and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gill of Brownwood, were also in Jackson attending the stock show. All these returned to their homes Sunday. Mrs. Jim Gill remained with her husband.

Dr. Edgar E. Hartwig Named 1962 Man of The Year Recently

Birmingham, Ala. — A man who virtually brought to the South a new cash crop has been named Man of the Year in Service to Southern Agriculture by The Progressive Farmer. The crop — soybeans. The man — Dr. Edgar E. Hartwig, now coordinator of the Southern soybean improvement program at the Delta Branch Experiment Station, Stoneville, Miss.

Announcement of the selection is made in the magazine's January issue.

The list of soybean varieties developed especially for the South by Dr. Hartwig reads like a roster of Confederate generals — Lee, Jackson, Hill, and Hood. Roanoke and Dorman are others that emerged from his work. Hartwig varieties in 1961 were planted on more Southern soybean acreage than any others.

And soybean acreage has rocketed in the South, from 1,962,000 acres in 1953 to 6,613,000 acres in 1961. Per-acre production has climbed at a rapid clip, too. It's gone from 14 bushels in 1953 to 22.3 bushels in 1961 — up nearly 60%.

Dr. Hartwig's breeding work came just at a time when the South needed a profitable row crop to replace cotton and corn acreage.

He didn't stop with developing adapted varieties. His research on "cultural practices for soybeans is of almost equal importance."

Dr. Hartwig is a native of Minnesota. He received his Ph.D. degree from University of Illinois.

Eastern Star To Meet Monday Night

The regular meeting of the Santa Anna Chapter No. 247, Order of Eastern Star, will be held in the Masonic Hall at 7:00 p. m. Monday, December 17. All members are urged to be present.

Following the meeting, the annual Christmas tree and party will be held in the Fellowship hall.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Alice L. Walker and Mrs. Fannie Gober.

Early Edition For Christmas Greeting

Christmas Day coming on Tuesday makes it rather hard for a weekly newspaper to publish an edition during the Christmas week. Thus we wish to announce our plans and urge the cooperation of advertisers and correspondents in helping us achieve our goal.

With December beginning on a Saturday, it leaves only three Fridays before Christmas Day and it is felt that all three issues of The News is needed for merchants to advertise their seasonal merchandise. For this reason, the first three issues in December have been planned to be what we call "regular editions." They will be printed and mailed at their regularly scheduled times.

The fourth edition in December will be our annual Christmas Greeting Edition. We plan to get this edition printed and in the post office on Saturday, December 22. It will be distributed through the mails on Sunday and Monday December 23 and 24.

All copy for the Christmas Edition must be in our hands no later than 12 o'clock noon, Thursday, December 20th. Even at this late deadline, we are going to have a time getting The News mailed on Saturday, and we will certainly appreciate the cooperation of all concerned in getting us your copy as early as possible.

This Christmas Greeting Edition will be dated December 23 in order to meet postal requirements. We will not print another edition for the latter part of the week. The next issue of The News after the Christmas Greeting Edition will be printed the first week in January, 1963.

Large Crowd Here For Christmas Opening Fri.

A crowd estimated at more than 1,000 persons were in Santa Anna for the annual Christmas Opening Friday afternoon of last week. During the early evening hours another large crowd was on hand for the final part of the annual Lions Club Pancake Sale.

A very nice Christmas parade was held at 2:30 p. m. Heading the parade was one of the fire trucks, followed by the Christmas Opening Queen, Little Miss Linda Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Dean of Rockwood, and her two Princesses, Little Miss LeAnn Bryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bryan, also of Rockwood and Little Miss Karla Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bowen of Santa Anna. This was a new feature of the annual parade and added a great deal to the annual event. They were riding

Dial-A-Prayer Program Is Well Received

The Dial-A-Prayer program, sponsored by the Santa Anna Council of Church Women, apparently was a big success from the first day. The Council was real well pleased with the more than 60 calls during the first day, Monday, of this week.

Mrs. Robert L. Markland, president, said the immediate success of the program was very gratifying. She urged everyone who feels the need for a spiritual assist, a quiet personal prayer, to telephone FR-3100 anytime of the day or night.

A number of the local ministers are cooperating in the program.

Milas Nicholson Improves Nicely

A number of people have inquired as to the condition of Milas Nicholson, 77, who was struck down by a car several weeks ago, between the Hoshel and Harvey Grocery stores.

A report from the hospital Tuesday said he was progressing very well. The casts have been removed from his arm and leg. The doctor said both breaks had knitted back together real well. His other injuries are also greatly improved.

Dr. Kegley said it would be about four more weeks before he would know the exact condition of the pelvis, but it appears to be healing real well. It is expected that Milas will be able to walk again, but it will be sometime before this can be accomplished.

Louis Zacharys To Observe Golden Wedding Dec. 22nd

in a convertible furnished by Lamb Buick Co., Brownwood.

Other features in the parade were the two Santa Anna bands, two bands from Coleman and the Howard Payne Coleman band. Three floats, several National Guard vehicles and bicycle and hoseback riders were also featured.

In the float division, the Delta Omicron Sorority's float took the first prize of $50.00, with the theme being Santa By Blimp. Second place and $35.00 went to the Santa Anna PTA for their float, Santa's Helpers; third place and $25.00 went to the Senior Class for their float, Christmas at Home and In Other Lands.

In the window decorating division, The Delta Omicron Sorority also won first place and $5.00. Second place and $3.00 went to the YWA of the First Baptist Church. Other windows received $2.00 each with the Junior Class taking third place; the Mountain City Garden Club, fourth place; and the Presbyterian Sunday School taking fifth place. Carol Kingsbery and Jana Eubank were presented prizes of $2.00 each for riding horses in the parade and Stacy Dockery was presented $2.00 for riding her bicycle in the parade.

Last, but far from least, was Old Santa Claus himself, riding in a station wagon furnished by R. T. Caperton Chevrolet-Cadillac of Coleman.

City Library Needs More Funds And Readers

The Santa Anna City Library is in need of operating funds. There is a large number of good books in the library, but they are just not being used by the citizens of this area. As memberships fall, so does the revenue. For this reason the Library now is just about completely out of operating funds.

As is the case with anything, it costs a little money to keep the library in operation. All utility bills must be paid and the Librarian must be paid.

The City Library would be happy to accept donations of any amount for the continued operation. An excellent idea for a Christmas gift to a person of any age would be a membership in the Library, which is only $1.00 per year. There is a host of new books there, and others are added as they become available. Any person who enjoys reading would find many books there on just about any subject you could select.

CORRECTION
In the article about the Library last week, we stated a number of new books had been presented the library by Mrs. H. L. Markland. The books were present by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert L. Markland. We are happy to make the correction.

Courthouse Photo Book Is Published

Brownwood — "Courthouses of Texas", a 260-page book showing photographs of the courthouses in the 254 counties of the state has just been published here.

Photographs of all the courthouses were made over a five-year period by Clark Coursey, former Brownwood newspaper publisher, who has been editor of the monthly magazine, "County Progress," for the past 20 years. The magazine is the official publication of the County Judges and Commissioners Association of Texas.

Coursey did not keep a record of the miles traveled to snap pictures of the 254 courthouses, but said it totaled many thousands. Of the book itself, thought to be the first complete collection of courthouse pictures in the history of the state, Coursey said: "It won't be rated as a work of art, but it could be classified as a feat of perseverance."

Soil: Many Things To Many People

College Station — Soil is earth to some and dirt to others; a nuisance to mothers and a necessity to farmers. All people have different impressions when they hear the word soil, says L. P. Pittard, extension soil and water conservation specialist at Texas A&M College.

To the small child, soil is mud pies and fun; but to his mother it is the material which is tracked on the carpet. Pittard observes. To the geologist, soil is the barrier between him and the material he is trying to study, and to the construction engineer it is sometimes a good and sometimes a bad place to build a home. To the homeowner, soil is an unmanageable mixture of clay, cement and stones on which grass will not grow and weeds will not stop, he says.

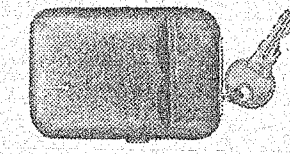

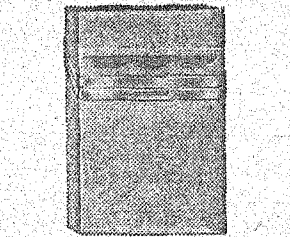

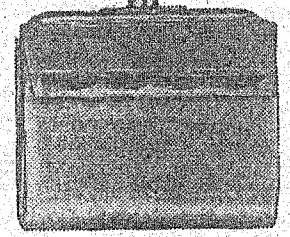

To the farmer, soil is a precious mixture of mineral and organic matter, air and water on which life depends. He considers soil the medium through which he earns his living and produces food and fiber for the world, and also believes that its wise use is basic to the economy of the nation, explains the specialist.

According to agronomists, work is done every year to learn more about soils and their management to contribute to a stable and permanent economy. Studies are being made of ways to use soil to the best advantage of agriculture and for other purposes.

Austin — After a four-year test, Texas' May-June primary election set-up may be on its way out.

A cursory check of legislators at a recent gathering here found strong support, particularly among the big-city members who had Republican opponents, for a return to the August-September primary system.

Growth of the Republican party in Texas means that Democrats now face hard campaigns, in many districts, in the fall months, in addition to the strenuous spring campaigns. Many legislators are talking seriously about moving the primaries to August and September. This, so voters won't have to be whipped up to voting moods twice in a year.

There is some strong resistance to returning to the old way, however.

Sen. Abraham Kazen Jr. of Laredo, a member of the special election law revision committee, said a change like this would require a complicated revision of the code that would be almost impossible to accomplish during a regular session.

Kazen represents an area in South Texas where thousands of migrant farm workers, who leave home for the summer and fall, have had their first chance to vote in the primaries under the May-June system.

Some legislators would block a change because so many school teachers are at home to vote in May, but are in colleges or on trips in the summer. The late Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio, who pushed for the change to spring primaries, once said that August run-offs worked a real hardship on candidates like himself, since many of their best financial backers were out of state during the summer.

POLL TAX CONTROVERSY
The Texas Election Study Committee heard many divergent opinions on the requirements for a voter registration law during its public hearings in the senate chamber.

Main point of discussion was whether or not a literacy test should be required if the poll tax system is abolished.

League of Women Voters, represented by Mrs. Maurice H. Brown of Waco, did not approve of a literacy test. Mrs. Brown said her group recommended a uniform registration plan for all voters, and offered the committee a draft of a bill which calls for permanent registration.

Several witnesses, including Isaac Satterfield of Marshall, a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee, advocated a literacy test.

Senator Kazen spoke out against it. He said since no literacy test now is required, he saw no reason why it should be necessary. "The only reason for a literacy test is to keep someone from voting," Kazen retorted.

Roy R. Evans, secretary-treasurer of the state AFL-CIO, said his organization opposed any discrimination against a person's national origin, financial status or educational background. The AFL-CIO also advocated a permanent registration plan, under which a voter would have to re-register only if he failed to vote in a two-year period.

PARK OFFER WITHDRAWN

Just four months after the State Parks Board jubilantly announced that Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wheatly of San Antonio had given the state a 4,788-acre in Blanco County, the Wheatlys withdrew their offer.

Reason, according to Mrs. Wheatly, was that the couple has learned that existing state parks need at least $5,000,000 to serve the public, and "we have no assurance that our ranch could be properly developed."

LIVESTOCK EQUAL PEOPLE

Texas has as many head of livestock as it does people.

According to an estimate by the Texas Animal Health Commission the livestock population is 10,000,000.

State Health Department estimated that the people population reached 10,000,000 last summer.

AN AUDIT OF THE STATE BOARD OF VETERINARY MEDICAL EXAMINERS showed that there's more than one veterinarian for every 10,000 head of livestock.

There are 8,700 medical doctors licensed to practice in the state, or one doctor for every 1,150 persons.

CRIME CLIMB SLIGHT

Major crime in Texas was way below the five percent nationwide increase for the first nine months of 1962, according to an FBI report. A survey of crime in 12 representative cities showed an increase of only 0.29 percent over the same period last year.

Report is a tabulation of murders and non-negligent homicides, forcible rapes, robberies, aggravated assaults, burglaries, larceny over $50 and auto thefts.

TAX PROPOSALS

The Texas Commission on State and Local Tax Policy recommended that the state abandon the ad valorem tax as a source of revenue in 1968.

The state property tax, which once was a primary source of income, now comprises only four percent of the state's total tax take.

Commission stated that under the current system of assessment, the tax is "so patently inequitable that there can be no reasonable argument for retaining it as a part of the state's revenue system without substantial change."

TRANSITION GOVERNOR

A suite of rooms in Austin's Driskill Hotel has become the seat of "transition government" for Governor-elect John Connally.

He works four days a week in a suite which, appropriately, is titled the Caucus Room.

In this office, just six blocks from the Governor's office which he will take over on January 15, is a staff of fifteen persons.

Connally's administrative assistant, Bill Fowler, says their present task is to send out 18,000 thank-you letters, study applications and recommendations for the 278 appointments the new governor will make to state boards and commissions in 1963.

In what amounts to a cram course in state operation, Connally is conferring with officials of state agencies and members of the legislature.

Most of the mail flowing toward his desk already is addressed to "Governor" Connally.

CHRISTMAS AND TRAGEDY

Christmas is the happiest time of the year for most of us, according to the Texas Safety Association.

However, it always is marked by tragedies that can be prevented, TSA warns.

Carelessness around flammable trimmings such as Christmas wrappings and tree decorations will spoil the holiday for some families, says a TSA note of caution.

Simple safety precautions can make yours a safe and joyous Christmas, the safety association adds.

BATTLE SURE

The issue of drawing new boundaries for Texas legislative and congressional districts appears headed for star billing when the lawmakers convene in January.

In an Associated Press poll of Texas lawmakers, 71 percent who replied said they thought redistricting would be in the top 10 issues of the session.

Thirty-seven percent said it would be one of the top five controversies.

JANUARY DRAFT QUOTA

Texas draft boards have a quota of 163 men for January.

Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service director, said the call represents a decrease from the 235 quota for December.

Eastern Star Observes Family Night Monday

The Santa Anna Eastern Star Chapter observed their annual Family Night Tuesday, December 11, with a Christmas banquet in the Fellowship Hall of the Masonic Lodge.

Members, their families and guests were served from a table laid with a red cotton cloth. The flower arrangement was pink radiance roses, centered with an electric figurine of Mary. The menu consisted of baked chicken, dressing, gravy, pickles, vegetables, assorted pie and coffee.

The Fellowship Hall was decorated with arrangements of Christmas greenery, glass balls, poinsettia, red candles, church scenes and a silver decorated Christmas tree.

Mrs. Billie Guthrie, Worthy Matron, gave the welcome and asked each to introduce their guests. Program Chairman Mrs. Rosa Bass, presented the program, which consisted of a prayer and Christmas Greetings, given by her. A Letter to Santa Claus was read by Dick Bass. "Jingle Bells" and "Silent Night" were sung by the group. As a surprise, the group sang "Happy Birthday" to Mrs. Bass, Deputy Grand Matron of District 3, Section 5. Mrs. Guthrie presented her with three pieces of her chosen pottery, a gift from the organization.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Mrs. Nora Goen, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Herndon, Mr. and Mrs. Roy West and Buddy Campbell, Mrs. Blanche Grant-ham, Mr. and Mrs. Montie Guthrie, Les and Lane, Mrs. Louise Walker, Ruth, Jackie and Boots, Mrs. Bertha Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bass, Faye, Clay and Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mobley, Jackie and Margaret Ann, Mrs. Carmen Donham and Martie, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wright, Mrs. Lois Avants and Larry, Mrs. Lora Rollins, Mrs. Hallie Williams, Mrs. May A. Joy Sunday School Class Meeting

The Joy Sunday School Class of the North Side Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Roy West Monday, Dec. 3, for their regular monthly class party.

During the business meeting it was voted to have a birthday party each month during the coming year honoring those with birthdays during the month, rather than to continue the secret pal program.

Following the business meeting games were enjoyed and secret pals were revealed.

Refreshments were served to the 14 members present.

ROCKWOOD WMS HAS FAMILY-NIGHT PARTY

The Christmas theme was carried out in decorating the party rooms when the Woman's Missionary Society entertained with a family-night party Monday at the Rockwood Community Center.

Gifts were exchanged and Bible quizzes and games directed by Mrs. R. J. Deal were enjoyed.

Pie, coffee and tea were served to about thirty-five, and two visitors, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ashmore of Eldorado.

Woolgrowers To Hear Cong. Cooley at Las Vegas Meeting

Salt Lake City — Woolgrowers of the nation, encouraged by economic results of their past year's actions, reached out for one of the top Congressional agricultural leaders to head their list of speakers for the 98th annual convention in Las Vegas, Nev. January 20-23.

President Penrose B. Metcalfe of the National Wool Growers Assn., announced that Congressman Harold D. Cooley, chairman of the powerful House Agricultural Committee, will be featured speaker when some 1000 members convene at the Sahara Hotel next month.

Metcalfe, a sheep rancher of San Angelo, Texas, noted that Congressman Cooley has been chairman of the government's policy committee 13 years and has had a large voice in all agricultural legislative matters through terms of three presidents.

But, Metcalfe pointed out, while Cong. Cooley represents top level government thinking in this country, woolgrowers will also be hearing world-wide opinion from W. J. Vines, managing director of International Wool Secretariat from London, England. Vines will speak on "Selling Wool To The World."

The four-day program is so jam-packed with information vital to woolgrowers, Metcalfe said he hesitated to list only a few.

TRIP TO SAN ANTONIO

Seven students (Dianne Copeland, Linda Evans, Linda Horner, Bobbie Neill, Sheila Swindell, Donna Walker and Leland Williams) went with Mr. Camp, our band director, to San Antonio Saturday, to get music for solo and ensemble competition.

We finished getting the music at 11:45 a. m., then went to eat lunch at Earl Abel's Restaurant.
 After lunch we went to see the school where Mr. Camp used to teach. After seeing the school we started downtown to see the Buckhorn Saloon. We were just beginning to get into the main part of town when we had an auto accident. We had quite a time going down the main street of San Antonio backwards while being pulled by the wrecker. After we got to the auto shop, Mr. Camp told us we could go on downtown and that we should meet him at the Alamo at 5:00 p. m. We spent most of our time at Joske's Department Store.

At 5:00 p. m. we met Mr. Camp and he told us we would have to go home on the bus because the car needed a new radiator core.
 The bus left at 6:00 p. m. We arrived at Brady about 9:30 and changed busses. This bus brought us to Santa Anna. When we arrived here, our folks were waiting and we reported a very eventful day spent at San Antonio.

CAR WASH

The Beta Club held a car wash

 00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. We sincerely thank Mr. Owen and everyone who brought their car to be washed.

 each division: First place winner received $3.00; second place, $2.
 00; and third place, $1.00. The winners in the Freshman class were: Pam Garrett, first; Jimmy Walker, second; and Linda Brannon, third. Winners in the Junior class were Cheryl Fitzpatrick, first; Sandra Davis, sec-

FFA NEWS

The FFA had its regular meeting Thursday. We discussed the wiener roast and Mr. Pettit told the boys to get their entries for Coleman, San Antonio and Fort Worth stock shows in by the end of the week.

CHRISTMAS ACTIVITIES

The Senior Class won third prize in the Christmas Parade last Friday. The theme of the float was "Christmas at Home and in Other Lands."

The Junior Class decorated a window downtown. This window won third prize. Sandra Davis acted as Mary, Mother of the Baby Jesus, who was in a manner. The Juniors also had a bake sale in the same building. We would like to thank each person who patronized our sale and made it a complete success.

The Santa Anna High School band and the Grade School junior band marched in the parade.
 We are very proud of our bands.

LETTERS TO SANTA

Dear Santa Claus:

If it wouldn't be to much trouble, I would like to have you to bring my friend and me a nice present for Christmas. We would like some Coleman boys all wrapped up in blue ribbon.
 My friend's name is Patricia White. I don't think that she will be particular who is in the package. I would like Billy Henderson, please.

Oh, Santa, we live in Santa Anna, Texas. I thought that you knew, but I wanted to make sure.

Thank you,
 Linda Campbell

Dear Santa Claus:

Since Christmas is near, I thought that I would write you this letter. I want a rubber dolly, a cowgirl suit and a red hair ribbon. This is not for me, but for my girl friend, Pat Cowen. I would appreciate this very much.

Thank you, Santy.
 Tinker Dockery

Dear Santa Claus:

For Christmas I would like for you to bring me just anything I am not particular. However, I would certainly like (if it is not too hard to get on such short notice) for you to get me a nice, shiny Cadillac. Any color would do, but I do like green; with a red interior. You see, I am kinda color blind, and these colors look so pretty together.

Thank you,
 Bob Boyet

CAMPUS CHATTER

We have heard a lot about the "active" SAHS Student Council. How about it kids?

We have been told that we have a limbo champ in our school. Congratulations, Donald Makuta.

If anyone needs a cedar tree trimmed, Gary Sudderth is an expert.

We noticed Polly and Billy
 Don Haynes were at the show Wednesday night. Did you have fun kids?

The Homemaking III girls have been re-upholstering some chairs. If you don't believe they've been working hard, just notice all the blue thumbnails!

We noticed Coach Smith won a can of spray net at the Pancake Supper. Your curls are lovely, Coach!

Stanley James, that was a lovely lady you carried across the street the other day. Where did she get that lovely dress?

A new twosome around SAHS is Larry Wardlow and Sandra Davis.

Donnie Henderson is still keeping the road hot to Coleman.

It is only a matter of days now before Sue Pittard will change the Miss in her name to Mrs.
 When is that date, Sue?

Rumors tell us that Glenda Vineyard has wedding bells in her eyes, too. How about that Glenda?

Where was Peggy Hawkins
 during the Goldthwaite basketball tournament Saturday night? We are sorry you got sick, Peggy.

Carol Campbell's theme song
 these days is "Love Letters."
 She can hardly wait for the months to pass.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Do you know that names have some historic interest? Ancient names often take on quite different meanings as they travel down through the ages.

To trace one's name back is a fascinating amusement, and it is interesting to know the significance of one's own name.

See if any of these are names of your friends, and see if the meaning suits them:

LINDA is a Latin word meaning "beautiful."

Oh! Have mercy, RICHARD is a powerful ruler.

THOMAS is Hebrew meaning a "twin."

PHYLLIS is a Greek word meaning "green bough."

The translation of DON is
 "brown or dark."

CHARLES literally means
 "man"; but, as borne by many kings and emperors, it took on a significance of greatness!

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council met last Thursday night, December 6, for the monthly meeting. Plans were made for the Christmas Tree at school and the Christmas All-School Party. The handbooks were also discussed.

 Tommy Stewardson, president, was in charge.

BAND CONCERT

The Santa Anna High School
 Band will have a concert Thursday, December 20, in the school auditorium. Put this date on your calendar and come to hear the band play.

BETA CLUB WILL MEET

The Beta Club will meet for their monthly meeting Monday night, December 17, in the Community Room. The group will have a business meeting and adjourn to go Christmas Caroling. Refreshments will be served.

Today's MEDITATION

from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

© THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Read Luke 2:8-29.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people, and hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David: as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets. (Luke 1:68-70.)

Zacharias, the father of John the Baptist, thus spoke of Jesus a few months before the Redeemer's birth. The hour of the merciful visitation was soon to come. "The dayspring from on high" would soon rise over the world.

It is an event neither unexpected nor unforeseen. "In thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed," the Lord had said to Abraham. Christ's coming will be the accomplishment of that promise, "his holy covenant; the oath which he swore to our father Abraham."

In our planning to celebrate Christmas once more, we shall miss the point of it all if we do not seek the true meaning of the holy testimony. We need the spirit of Jesus in our souls so that "the great dawn" may rise up clearer for us and lead our steps onward in the way of peace.

PRAYER:

O Lord, we thank Thee for sending Thy Son to us. We pray that "the dayspring from on high" may rise upon more and more persons to illuminate and redeem them from perversity and wickedness. Grant us peace; through Christ. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Christ's coming becomes most meaningful to those who admit Him into their hearts.

—Enrico Caputo (Italy)

Grand Canyon Rim Featured On New Santa Fe Calendar

"Grand Canyon - South Rim," a colorful scene of an Indian family around a cookfire at the edge of the Grand Canyon of Arizona, is the title of Santa Fe Railway's 1963 calendar.

Reproduced from an original oil painting by the late E. I. Couse of Taos, New Mexico, the 1963 calendar is the 24th issued by the railroad which has carried a painting by Couse. Indian scenes have been featured since 1914, with the exception of 1915, when a picture of the San Diego Exposition was used, and 1919-1920, during which years the railroad industry was nationalized.

The railroad annually distributes more than 450,000 of the calendars. Illustrations are traditionally chosen from a collection of more than 600 Southwestern paintings which are displayed throughout the road's ticket and executive offices.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

Fires A Hazard Of Nuclear Attack

College Station — Should America be attacked by nuclear weapons our nation's rural citizens would be greatly concerned with the problems of fire, according to a new leaflet by the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Forest Service.

The leaflet issued in cooperation with the Department of Defense-Office of Civil Defense, envisions each rural family as a self-contained fire protection unit.

"RURAL FIRE DEFENSE — You Can Survive," discusses these problems and suggests methods of meeting them. It explains that preparation is the basis for the National Civil Defense program and that preparedness in fire defense is a vital part of this preparation.

The leaflet is designed to be used as a training aid in teaching rural families to protect themselves and their property in a fire emergency. It describes the damage which a nuclear blast can cause on farms, woodlands and in rural communities, and lists measures to reduce this damage.

In a foreword to the bulletin Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman says, "Protection and survival of those living in rural areas, along with crops, livestock and other agricultural resources is vital. In addition, some rural families may be faced with heavy responsibilities for sheltering and feeding survivors, bringing fires under control and helping to rehabilitate nearby areas."

A nationwide civilian rural fire defense organization has been established under the direction of State and Federal forestry agencies to provide leadership in rural fire emergencies, the leaflet explains.

Copies of "RURAL FIRE DEFENSE — You Can Survive," PA-517, may be obtained from the Forest Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

Hot-Air, Balloon pilots' licenses will be tougher to get from now on. The Federal Aviation Agency has ruled that candidates will have to demonstrate safe and proper piloting techniques. The FAA was alarmed by hundreds of persons who obtained the licenses as a lark, never intending to fly in a balloon.
