STATE Capital NEWS

Austin, Tex. — Campaigns will be shaping up soon on 14 more amendments to the state constitution. All 14 of the proposed changes in the state's basic laws will be voted on at the general election November 5. Some are far-reaching, others routine.

Here are the amendments in the order in which they will appear on the November 5 ballot:

1. Revising provisions for management and administration of the state employee's retirement system and permitting investment in securities other than government bonds.

2. Raising the state's welfare spending ceiling from $60 million to $75 million.

3. Permitting investment of the Permanent University Fund by UT regents in certain types of securities, within the "prudent man rule."

4. Allowing Dallas County to issue road bonds on vote of property taxpayers.

5. Authorizing a raise in state legislators' salary from $6,800 to $8,400 a year and extending the per diem expense allowance of legislators ($12 a day) to 140 days of regular lawmaking session. (Present limit is 120 days).

6. Allowing the legislature to exempt from property taxes equipment installed by industries to control air or water pollution.

7. Phasing out the state property tax after Dec. 31, 1976, beginning next year, except that portion for higher education institutions.

8. Eliminating the requirement that the governor, secretary of state and comptroller approve contracts for printing and paper.

10. Allowing the legislature to provide for refund of state tax on cigars and tobacco sold at retail in Texas.

11. Authorizing the legislature to permit consolidation of offices and government functions in El Paso and Tarrant Counties.

12. Giving the legislature power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes and permit private concerns to operate plants thus financed.

14. Spelling out that legislators will not be ineligible for other offices because of the fact that their terms extended a few days into January.

GOP OFF FOR MIAMI

Most Texas Republican delegates to the GOP national convention will be shuffling off to Miami Beach this weekend. Opening session is Monday, August 5.

First caucus of the Texans (who have 56 votes in the presidential — vice-presidential nominating procedure) is scheduled for 3 p. m. Sunday, Aug. 4.

DeCruitt of Waco and Mrs. Malcolm Milburn of Austin serve on the credentials committee; Jim Collins of Dallas and Mrs. Richard M. Sowell of McAllen, permanent organization; Paul Eggers of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Basil E. Atkinson, Jr., of Lufkin, rules and order of business.

DEMOCRATS PREPARING TOO

Democrats are getting ready for their own big powwow in Chicago starting on August 28.

Gov. John Connally, Texas delegation chairman and favorite son candidate for the presidency, announced these appointments to convention posts:

Secretary of State Roy Bar-raera of San Antonio, delegation secretary; Cecil Burney of Corpus Christi and Mrs. Roland Boyd of McKinney, resolutions and platform committee; Will D. Davis of Austin and Miss Claudia Brummett of Amarillo, credentials committee; Tom Gordon of Abilene and Miss Julianan Cowden of Alvarado, rules and order of business; Mrs. Horace Botsford of Corpus Christi and J. M. Anderson of Austin, committee on permanent convention organization.

Also, Rhea Howard, Wichita Falls, committee to notify the presidential candidate of nomination; Mrs. Hilda B. Weizert of Seguin, committee to notify vice-presidential nominee; J. C. Loomney, Edinburg, honorary convention vice-president; J. C. Martin of Laredo, honorary assistant vice-president; Ralph McCullough of Houston, honorary secretary; Hunter McLean of Fort Worth, honorary assistant secretary; and John Mobley of Austin, delegation sergeant-at-arms.

CONNALLY TRIMS BUDGET

Governor Connally trimmed the 1969 state budget enacted by the special legislative session $1.3 million and sternly lectured lawmakers for setting up $1.4 million in Agriculture Department appropriations as a lump sum item which he could not veto selectively.

The Governor also vetoed seven controversial riders including those which sought to cut off funds for policing air pollution control by cotton gins and prevent use of state planes and helicopters to catch traffic law violators. Connally took veto axe to these spending items:

$600,000 for a temporary building to house the comptroller's department; $275,000 for two new elevators in the capitol; $187,500 for the Port Lavaca causeway state park; $90,000 for Somervell County state park land; $91,000 for legal clerks in 13 courts of civil appeals; $50,000 for insurance claim investigation; $200,000 for Blinn College to operate Old Washington State Park museum; $17,500 for a deputy administrator for the Liquor Control Board; $16,500 for assistant director of the state board of control, and $13,000 for assistant director of auditing for LCB.

COURT SPEAKS

The State Supreme Court refused to hear John Robert McClelland's suit to force Harris County GOP Chairman Mrs. W. M. Palm and State GOP Chairman Peter O'Donnell to certify him as the Republican candidate for the House of Representatives in the November election.

McClelland got 6,659 votes to his closest opponent's 2,992 in the GOP primary race. But the county chairman refused to certify McClelland, claiming he would not have lived in the district for a full year prior to the November 5 election.

A Dallas golfer who injured his back when he was thrown from a golf cart at Dallas' Riverlake Country Club has won a new trial in his damage suit for $134,000 against the club. High Court approved the move for George A. McRay after a Dallas court ruled in favor of the club. McRay claims the club was negligent in allowing high grass to obscure a stump off the fairway on the 18th hole. Cart McRay was riding hit this stump and McRay was thrown out.

The Court refused to order Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler to erase his forfeiture on a 5,524-acre West Texas sulphur lease claimed by Cobra Oil & Gas Corporation of Wichita Falls. When the Court heard the case on April 17, the state claimed that Cobra not only waited months too long to pay the first rental, but waited 309 days after filing the lease with Culberson, Pecos and Reeves Counties to file with the Land Office and 190 days is the limit.

ACTION SPARKED

Faced with the January 1 deadline for a regulation prohibiting intrastate shipments of cattle from counties having no certification for brucellosis control, several counties are hurrying into action to secure certification.

Animal Health Department reports three counties, Hemphill, Orange and Starr—qualified for certification during June. Cameron and Hidalgo Counties qualified for recertification.

Sixty-eight counties are in the process of testing initial certification.

SCREW WORM DANGER

State and federal animal health experts are becoming worried at the increase in screw worm infestation cases being filed this year. To date 1,125 cases have been reported in 1968.

After the sterile fly program was inaugurated in 1962, the screw worm count fell below 300 cases by 1964.

The rapid increase in cases this year is blamed on extremely wet weather in South and West Texas which has made a climate especially suited for the worms and their parent screw worm flies.

Ranchers are warned to perform surgical operations (dehorning and castration) only if maximum safety precautions are taken to prevent fly infestation.

NEW AIR ROUTES

The Texas Aeronautics Commission has approved two new airlines for flights into Dallas.

Miller Aircraft won approval for flights between Waco and Dallas and Fleetway Airlines was approved for flights between Tyler and Dallas. Fleetway also won approval for flights between Texarkana and Longview.

AG RULINGS

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin says that the Supreme Court's ruling that a disputed 305 acres in the Athey Oil Field (near Fort Stockton) is state land will mean recovery of a million dollars for the Texas school fund.

In recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

* Val Verde county commissioners can transfer Val Verde Memorial Hospital to county hospital authority.

* County hospitals can aid in mental health and mental retardation services.

SHORT SNOOTS

Governor Connally called a special election in Dallas Third District for August 24 to fill the unexpired term of the late Congressman Joe Pool.

The Citizens State Bank of Refugio seeks a charter from the State Banking Depart-

House Speaker Ben Barnes named a special commission of legislators and laymen to look into the economic problems of employers and employees in Texas, including the merits and demerits of minimum wage legislation.

"Award Winning", that's what Holiday Magazine thought about Wisconsin's "Dells Country".

This beautiful scenic area has been nature's number one attraction, left untouched by the great glaciers, and now protected by "Dells" area residents. The natural beauty offers guests many moments of pleasure and amazement as they glide by on guided steel launches.

On summer nights the sound of Indian drums is heard in the "Dells" as braves and squaws from tribes across the country present their songs and dances in a natural rock amphitheater.

A visit to Wisconsin's award winning "Dells Country" is both educational and fun, for adults as well as children.
