4-H Singing Group Completes Plans For Trip To Kentucky

All arrangements have been made for the coming trip to Kentucky for the Santa Anna 4-H group, the Singing Americans. Plane reservations from Dallas to Louisville, have been made, with the non-stop jet flight to leave Dallas' Love Field at 1:20 p. m. on Saturday, Oct. 12, and arrive in Louisville at 4:54 p. m. The Singing group and their sponsors will be staying at the Brown Hotel with the Saturday night lodging paid for by the Clayton-Lambert Company, widely known manufacturer of silos and storage facilities. On Sunday evening, October 13, the rehearsals for the 4-H Talent Revue will be held, and the performance scheduled for Monday night in the Louisville Convention Center.

The Singing Americans are preparing a 15 minute program to be included in the presentation by 10 4-H groups from the 12 southern states. The local ensemble is the largest ever selected for the review, with the reason being financial—so much expense is involved in transporting a large number of performers. The Santa Anna youngsters have had donations from many local and area individuals and businesses, and have almost enough money to pay all their transportation costs and other expenses incurred in preparing for the trip. The sponsors making the trip will pay their own expenses. Not only is flying most practical for the group of school students, the cost was less than other means of transportation, or more practical than making the long trip by caravan.

The Clayton-Lambert Company is planning a sight-seeing tour for the Coleman County group on Tuesday, October 15, and then the return flight will leave at about 4:00 p. m. 4-H members to make the trip are Dickie Horner, Patrick Hosch, Jimmy Eubank, Ann Martin, Sue Kingsbery, Geneva Pittard, Barbara Jones and Jimmy Benton. Also Vickie Skelton of Mozelle, and Terry Kent of Coleman. Adults planning to go on the four-day trip are Mrs. James Eubank, 4-H Leader and sponsor of the group, Mrs. Felton Martin, Mrs. Pat Hosch, Mrs. Tom Kingsbery, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Benton, and Mrs. Pete Skelton of Mozelle.

Play Menard Friday

Rising Star Defeats Santa Anna Mounties

The Santa Anna Mountainers were defeated Friday night by the Rising Star Wildcats by a score of 14-0.

Dick Clark, the Rising Star Quarterback, came up with the only score in the first half on a ten-yard run in the second quarter. The Wildcats attempted to make two-extra points, but failed. Just seconds before the first half ended was the only time that the Mountainers threatened when they completed a pass to the Rising Star 5 yard line and the whistle ended the threat.

In the fourth quarter, Clark passed 30 yards to Ronnie Green for the second Rising Star T. D. Clark then came up with two more points on a conversion run.

The Mounties had only 8 first downs to Rising Star's 13. The visiting team completed three of 17 passes for 50 yards and the Mountainers completed two of eight for 36.

The Santa Anna Mountainers will play Menard on Friday night at 8:00 p. m. at Menard.

Dr. and Mrs. Max Woodward of Sherman, were in Santa Anna, Saturday to attend the Homecoming program, and to visit with the Tom Kingsbery family and with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bruce. They had attended the meeting of the State Pediatric Society in Dallas, of which Dr. Woodward is retiring as a board member.

Junior Mountie Football Team Has Good Record

First Bale Of Cotton Ginned Here

The Santa Anna Co-op Gin received the first bale of cotton for the season on Saturday, when R. C. (Bob) Smith of the Plainview Community brought in a load of 1700 pounds of seed cotton, hand picked on the Smith farm. The processed bale weighed just over 400 pounds, and as is traditional is now displayed on the downtown Bank corner. The first bale of cotton is always ginned free of charge for the producer, and the cotton seed purchased for $100.00 a ton, which is twice the market price.

An offering will be taken for their work there, and medical supplies are also being gathered by the local Church congregation to be used by the Strouds when they return to the mission field. Samples of aspirin, vitamins, alcohol, cotton, swabs, and other supplies can be used by the couple in their work.

Mrs. C. D. Bruce's Second Book "Banister Was There" Off Press

Mrs. C. D. Bruce, well known local historian and civic worker, has her second book off the press this month. The book, titled "Banister Was There," is a biography of her late father, John R. Banister, who was a Texas Ranger, served as a treasury agent, inspector for the Southwest Cattleman's Association and finally as sheriff of Coleman County.

Aside from recording the active life of John R. Banister, the book covers considerable early-day history of Coleman County and the Southwest. The new book was published by the Branch-Smith, Inc. of Fort Worth, and follows the local author's "Trickham, Texas" which was published in late 1966. The carefully documented book took Mrs. Bruce several years to complete, and was actually written before "Trickham, Texas," but required much more research to complete. Mrs. Bruce modestly leaves out any reference to herself in her new book, but will be remembered by early-day residents as the "driver" for her late father while he was Coleman County sheriff.

School Board Will Meet Tonight At 8

The Santa Anna Independent School District Board of Trustees will hold their monthly meeting in the High School office on Thursday, Oct. 3, at 8:00 p. m. The meeting has been rescheduled from the regular first Tuesday date because of the football games.

Among other routine business to be considered, applications for an elementary school custodian will be studied. The vacancy occurred upon the resignation of G. R. Anderson.

School Board meetings are open to the public, and interested citizens and school patrons are always welcome to attend.

The Santa Anna Lions Club is planning a big day next week with a Community Pancake Sale to be held during the day Thursday, October 10. The Pancake sales are very popular with local and area residents, and serving will be from 11:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m. for the noon hour, and from 5:00 to 8:00 p. m.

The meal will be served in the Lions Club Building, with proceeds from the fund raising event to be used for the Lions Club projects. All community people are invited to attend, and advanced tickets may be purchased from any Lions Club member or at the door.

Among other worthwhile projects sponsored by the local Lions Club, the newly remodeled Lions Club Building is available for use as a Club room or community center, and some of the funds raised by the club is used for further improvements of the building.

Among Homecoming visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Les Guthrie of Stephenville. Les is a senior at Tarleton State College, and Mrs. Guthrie, a spring graduate at TSC, is teaching English at Gordon High School near Stephenville. They visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Montie Guthrie and Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Hicks.

Montie Guthrie's Attend Letter Carriers' Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Montie Guthrie, Jr. and Lane attended the executive board meeting of the Texas Rural Letter Carriers' Association and Auxiliary Saturday, September 28 at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel in Austin.

Extensive plans were made for the state convention to be held there July 13, 14, 15 and 16.

Mrs. Guthrie is currently serving the Ladies Auxiliary as second vice-president.

Austin, Texas — "Unity" was the unofficial theme of both Democratic and Republican state conventions, and each party expects to carry that concept on to a victory on election day, November 5. Democrats at Austin passed the torch to Lt. Gov. Pres-would not work together. State Democrats also adopted a 16-point platform, emphasizing need for law and order and improvements to education at all levels. They elected both liberals and conservatives to the new State Democratic Executive Committee (with only 13 hold-over members) headed by Dr. Elmer C. Baum of Austin as chairman, Mrs. Ralph O'Connor of Houston as vice-chairman and H. H. Coffield of Rockdale as secretary. Gov. John Connally broke the ice on the national ticket front by endorsing Hubert H. Humphrey and urging Democrats to band together in his behalf. And the convention was read a telegram from President Lyndon B. Johnson saying that Humphrey is his man.

In Fort Worth, Republicans full of optimism over Richard Nixon's chances to sweep the state and nation and are hopeful of statehouse gains as well, heard go-go speeches.

GOP leader Jack Cox of Austin told fellow Republicans, "If you are more liberal than I am, or if one of us is more conservative than the other, it does not mean one of us should be read out of the Republican Party." Shouts of affirmation went up through the hall, and every shade of Republicanism — ultra conservative on through progressive — decided to devote every effort to a Nixon-Agnew campaign.

Gov. Spiro Agnew was the hit of the convention, there, telling the 2,500 what they wanted to hear, and telling it well. It was a warm first meeting between the vice-presidential nominee and his fellow party members of this state.

The Republicans adopted a platform of their own and Peter O'Donnell Jr. of Dallas remains at the helm of the GOP executive committee. George Wallace supporters turned out for the Dallas convention of the American Party, and in short order endorsed Wallace and former Georgia governor, Marvin Griffin for places on the November 5 general election ballot as candidates for president and vice-president. No motions were accepted to nominate new state party officers, although there is some discontent in the ranks.

A relative handful of delegates walked out in protest to what they termed John Birch Society control of the party's state committee. But they were sold in their backing of George Wallace for President. Wallace himself was at the convention, exhorting his followers to work hard in his behalf.

OUR TOWNS ON THE GROW. WE MIGHT BE BIG 'NOUGH TO HAVE OUR OWN VILLAGE IDDT

NEW COLLEGES ARE APPROVED

Creation of new state senior colleges in San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Houston (2) and the Midland-Odessa area has the approval of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. The board also recommended an "upper division" — junior and senior years — higher education center at Laredo.

Master plan being compiled by the board apparently will contain a proposal to limit enrollments at state institution starting in 1972.

The board recommended creation of a new dental school although it declined to make recommendation as to site.

OIL ALLOWABLE HELD FIRM

The Railroad Commission fixed statewide oil allowable at 41.3 per cent of production potential.

The figure is unchanged from September. Percentage factor permits maximum production of 3,246,026 barrels a day. Nine of 14 major crude oil buyers sought to keep the allowable intact. Four wanted a decrease and only one sought an increase.

TAVERN - VENDING MACHINE PROBE OPENS

First witnesses before a House committee's probe of connections between vending machine operators and taverns said their testimony endangers their safety.

Rep. James Clark, Jr. of Dallas offered evidence of alleged financial control of taverns by vending machine firms.

Committee Chairman R. H. Cory of Victoria said information has been gathered on the subject in Dallas, Fort Worth, Austin, San Antonio, Houston, Midland-Odessa and Amarillo. He emphasized there is as yet no evidence of unlawful activities by the merchandise vendors. Hearings apparently will continue through most of the year.

APPOINTMENTS

Wilson E. Speir now is the full-fledged director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Col. Speir has been acting director since May 14 following the death of Col. Homer Garrison, Jr. whom he had served as assistant director for six years.

Lt. Col. Leo E. Gossett was designated DPS assistant director and Joseph E. Milner, chief of traffic law enforcement. Texas Ranger Sergeant James M. Ray of Midland was promoted to captain and stationed at Lubbock. Ranger Edwin G. Albers, Jr. of Canyon was promoted to sergeant and transferred to Midland.

Governor Connally named Joe Benjamin Roberts chairman of the Texas Industrial Accident Board.

Frank J. Womack is new assistant director of regional programs for the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

Connally re-appointed State Sen. William T. Moore of Bryan as legislative member of the board of control for Southern Regional Education.

CITIES COLLECT UNDER SALES TAX

Local option 1% sales taxes collected by 155 Texas cities from Comptroller Robert S. Calvert totaled $20.7 million.

Money represents local collections from April 1 to June 30. In most cases collections ran substantially ahead of estimates.

WATER RIGHTS ADJUDICATION

Texas' first administrative adjudication of water rights was begun by the Texas Water Rights Commission under the 1967 law giving that body the job of straightening out tangled water rights in the state.

First action was on the middle section of the Rio Grande, from Falcon Dam to Amistad Dam. The Commission's staff already has completed an investigation of that area. Next step will be the filing of a list of water users.

Then a public hearing will be held in each of the counties involved: Zapata, Jim Hogg, Webb, Maverick, Dimmit, Kinney, Edwards and Val Verde. All claimants to water in the area will have a chance to press their claims if they feel they should be listed in the Commission's list of water users.

Water authorities said this procedure will save millions of dollars and years of time over the ponderous court process followed in the 12-year-old lower Rio Grande rights case.

HIGHWAY CUTBACK

Congress' spending reductions have resulted in a sharp cutback in highway building in Texas for the rest of 1968. October contract lettings, as a result, will be cut from the planned $32,210,000 to $19,500,000.

State Highway Engineer J.

C. Dingwall said, however, that construction will proceed as planned on farm-to-market roads and other work which does not involve federal aid. A special bid-opening has been set for December 31, after the trimming has been done.

SECRET MEETING

Closer cooperation between state government and the state's leading university was the topic of an intense, high-level, secret meeting in Kerrville called by Governor Connally.

The meeting was between about 50 University of Texas at Austin administrators, deans and department chairmen and the same number of executive directors or board members from major state agencies, along with Connally, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, Speaker Ben Barnes and Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham.

WATER MEETING

House Interim Water Committee, chaired by Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake, will hold a hearing on October 5 in Hereford.

Among the topics discussed will be (1) whether the economic benefits of the water to be imported into West Texas from East Texas and the Mississippi River will be worth the cost to West Texas; (2) whether they will be willing to pay the cost of the water; and (3) whether the present law giving private ownership to the state's ground water resources should be changed to establish state control of ground water.

DOVES PLENTIFUL IN WEST TEXAS

San Angelo — West Texas dove hunters from San Angelo to Presidio are reporting good kills, according to Will Ray Long, regional information officer of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Long says there is still a good supply of food on the ground for the birds, and they are likely to stay around unless rainfall damages this food supply.

unclaimed, too long, passes over to the government. As one court explained: "When property has ceased to have an owner, it should be held for the benefit of the community."

This wealth accumulates in many forms: forgotten bank accounts, dividends on mislaid stocks, utility deposits that are never picked up, insurance proceeds that are never collected, legacies for missing heirs.

In recent years the amount of such unclaimed wealth has risen into billion dollar figures. And an estimated one billion more is piling up every year.

As a result, all states have enacted escheat laws which, in varying degree, hasten a takeover by the government. Sometimes property is seized outright. Sometimes it is merely taken into protective custody, subject to being reclaimed by the owner if he turns up.

In any event, once the state has taken possession of an asset, getting it back is not easy. A claimant must bring himself strictly within the statutory requirements. Take this case:

After a man died, his family discovered that for many

Unclaimed Pot of Gold
Assets worth billions of dollars, unclaimed by their rightful owners, are being gobbled up instead by assorted government agencies. The process, known as "escheat," is gathering speed as officials become more keenly aware of this treasure trove within their reach.

How does it work? The key-stone is the ancient legal doctrine that property, if left years he had failed to collect dividends on a certain stock. By the time of this discovery, the accumulated dividends had already been taken over by the state.

The family duly filed a claim for the money, but in vain. Under the local statute, a refund could be made only to the original owner of the stock—not to his heirs.

The best way to protect your assets from escheat is to be an "active" owner. That means keeping close tab on investments, cashing checks promptly, giving notice of changes of address, leaving insurance policies where they will be found in case of your death, having an up-to-date will.

Of course you personally might be willing, as a public-spirited citizen, to have your money go to the government. But if so, you might as well bring that about by an act of generosity, not just by neglect.

Excellent Quail Crop Reported In South Texas

Rockport — The South Texas quail crop this year averages 37 per cent greater than that of 1967, but does not reach bonanza proportions of the 1966 crop, says Charles Winkler, regional wildlife supervisor for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

In Bexar, Karnes, Wilson and Aransas Counties there have been slight decreases from the 1967 counts. Even with these decreases, he said, there are sizeable numbers of birds. Game surveys have shown that Hidalgo County has had an increase of more than 400 per cent while several other counties have risen from 100 to 300 per cent.

Mrs. Gladys Van Landingham, Department license deputy at Edinburg, Hidalgo County, said many whitewing hunters looking to the future had purchased the $25 non-resident hunting license instead of the $5, five-day migratory bird license because of the heavy populations of quail.

"Many of the whitewing hunters from Louisiana said they were returning to the valley for the quail season," she said.

Winkler also said, even with the great increase in bird populations, this year's hunting could be extremely difficult without an early frost to defoliate dense, low growing vegetation and other ground cover.
