SANTA ANNA, COLEMAN COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY APRIL 2, 1937

NUMBER 14

"He Profits Most Who Serves Best"

SMOKE FROM THE MOUNTAIN

We are going to pull an April Fool's joke on you and reduce this column this week. It seems that the practical jokers either were driven out of town or their jokes were too good to be printed.

It appears that a criticism of the taste of coffee can really lead up to something, as shown at a local meeting Tuesday.

There are several happy people in Santa Anna since Wednesday at 7 a. m. Nurses who were in training at Dallas have returned. Is Boggy wearing a smile these days.

Reg Owen is still bothered by his boots. He found that boots of the cowboy variety were not intended for comfortable social functions.

Rumors have it that Buddy Weaver is acting as a dating bureau for a certain young man who has a new automobile. Looks like a new car would eliminate the necessity of dating by proxy. But even a new car doesn't give a fellow nerve.

A certain young business man has acquired the nickname of "Kitten" because of his "gentle" qualities. At least a young lady said he wouldn't even harm one of the feline creatures.

Seniors to Give Play on April 9

The Senior Class of the local high school will present its last annual play, "Listen to Leon," on Friday night, April 9, in the high school auditorium. The play, written by Janice Gard, is a three-act comedy. Funds from the play will aid in sodding the football field.

The class has planned an even greater entertainment than the comedy presented several weeks ago entitled "Don't Darken My Door," and many of the same students will be in the cast of the coming play.

"Listen to Leon" has for its setting a summer resort hotel in Western New York. The plot becomes complicated when Leon Bryan, played by Raymond Holland, tells one giant lie to get out of a previous one. Frank McGonagall, who made a hit in the first senior drama, plays the part of the clever Englishman. Colonel Bryan is played by Duane Moore, who marries the 300 pound "Babe" played by Rossie Niell.

Carline Ashmore, Marilyn Baxter and Doris Rollins will play the parts of Anne Cushman, Carolyn Jamison and Nellie. Their chief desire is to interest the men.

Entertainment between acts will be given by Doris Spencer, Ruby Lee Price and H. L. Lackey, in song and dance numbers; Robert Joe Cheaney and Billie Marie Miller, who will give tap numbers; and the Santa Anna Band, directed by Tom Wallis. A chorus of girls will also present musical features.

This law carries a fine of up to $200.00 and cost. 13-15 W. D. Baker, County Attorney, Coleman County, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scarborough, Mrs. Love Simpson, Mrs. Alvin Griffin and little daughter, went to Houston last Friday for a week's visit with Gus Williamson in Houston and relatives in Sugarland.

Statement Made by County Group on Conservation

The Coleman County Agricultural Conservation Committee, composed of Howard Kingsbery, chairman, Ward W. Evans, and T. J. Allen, members, have, because of some agitation seeming to imply that farmers have been misled concerning the bills before the State Legislature, providing for State Conservation Law for Texas, offered their effort toward spreading information to the farmers. The following is quoted:

"As members of the County Soil Conservation Committee, due to the fact that statements have been made that people are being misled, in regard to the Conservation Bills before the Legislature at Austin, we feel that it is our duty as representatives of the farmers of Coleman County to make available any and all information concerning the bills.

We feel that efforts that have been made in explanation of the bills have been made from information taken from the substance of the bill. As you are already aware, the bills in question and over which some rather pointed agitation has arisen, were introduced by Senator E. M. Davis of Brownwood, and Representative Ross K. Prescott of Santa Anna.

At the present time, these bills are in the hands of a sub-committee. These sub-committees are working on a new bill which will combine the good features of both bills.

Both of these bills are aimed toward the program for Soil Conservation for the State of Texas. Each farmer should be interested in the bills, in order that he might help encourage the adoption of a bill most suitable for all farmers in the State.

We will keep ourselves informed as much as possible and will be glad to talk with you about the bill. Copies of both bills will be kept on file in the County Agent's office for your convenience in acquainting yourself with the correct interpretation of the bill."

Dr. Colgan Leaves for Ireland on Word of Mother's Illness

Dr. Pat Colgan left early Monday morning for New York City enroute to Ireland upon the receiving of a message that his mother was dying at the family home in Ireland.

He has been connected with the Sealy Hospital staff as resident physician since January of this year, when he came from Chicago where he had worked and studied in his profession. He has been in the United States for nine years, being a native of Ireland.

Dr. Colgan will probably stay in Ireland for some time and no announcement has been made as to the resumption of his work with the hospital here.

Mrs. J. G. Richards, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan, returned to her home at Engelside Sunday. She was accompanied as far as San Antonio by her sister, Mrs. Dena Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan Jr. and Elvard McClothing.

Softball League Plans Adopted at Meeting Tuesday

Changes Made in Last Year's Arrangements; Plan Two Leagues; Meeting Scheduled for Next Tuesday Night

At a meeting of men and former team managers in the interest of Softball for the summer, held Tuesday night at the City Hall, it was decided to finance necessary expense of rearranging the lighted field for Softball purposes by signing up all who want to play at $1 per player. This offer is positively open to anyone, old or young, who will sign up and pay the $1 fee. For this fee each man will be guaranteed the right to play as much as any other player, regardless of how good a player the other fellow might be. It is hoped that from 100 to 150 players will sign up before Tuesday, April 6, at which time all who have so signed or who come prepared to sign, will be invited to a meeting to elect permanent officers for the City Softball League.

A two-fold plan of playing has been tentatively adopted as follows. All men who want to play and sign up at $1 each will be drawn up into equally matched teams, not representing any organization or concern, but having some distinguishing name as "Bears," "Wildcats," or any other name. These groups of 12 to 15 men will elect a manager and will play each other in these teams in a league called perhaps, "American League," on certain nights each week. Players must live within the city of Santa Anna to play on these teams.

For the organizations, concerns or rural residents who wish to play, provision has been made as follows. Anyone wanting to sponsor a team, or any group that wants to organize a team, will pay the required amount of $12 to $15 depending on the number of players, and will sign up players who will belong to them just as a professional ball club owns its men, and these may be selected from wherever and whoever the group or club wants to get them. These men will play in a separate league, say as a "National League," and will have certain rights to play just as the other league teams do, but playing only teams of their own league, until perhaps at the middle or end of the season, at which time the champions of each league might compete (Continued on page five)

Young people's meeting, 6:30 p. m. Miss Rheba Boardman, president.

Evening service, 7:30. Sermon subject, "A Realm of Values."

W. M. S. Monday 3:00 p. m. Mrs. Tom M. Hays, president.

It is the earnest hope that with the coming of more favorable weather, that many of our church members, not only of those who live in or near town, but those who are more remote from our church, will begin coming to our services regularly, who have not been coming, or only occasional visitors.

The month of April is the time set apart for Missionary education, and the observance of the "Bishop's Crusade," which is an earnest appeal to our missionary zeal. I think all Methodist people know that a church that has let the Missionary fires go out on her altars, is a dead church.

The Bishop's Crusade, is a church wide movement to attempt to recapture the Missionary spirit, that once burned in the hearts of our people, that has cooled today. We urge our people to take the literature that is available at the church and read every piece of it, prayerfully. It will enlighten, and inspire. We can not know what our church is doing, nor can we very much care, when we do not know the deep needs.

We are beginning to study some of the channels through which we may express ourselves in this modern world. It is not enough to struggle and to suffer unless we have some vision of the future we want to bring about. The church today attempts to hold to Jesus' sense of values, and to interpret his gospel in terms of modern social needs as well as to bring individuals into his way of life. Let us all pray, work and plan together.

"Reprisals" against high Texas taxes on products exported to other states are threatened in Iowa and Illinois, reports the All-South Development Council, in the form of proposed levies in those states against Texas natural gas and cotton seed oil shortening. It is pointed out this tendency deflates the argument that Texas producers can "pass along" mounting tax costs to out-of-state consumers with impunity to the state.

Twenty National Youth Administration workers in Waco are employed marking names, block numbers, safety zones, etc. on the curbs and streets, A. W. Brislin, assistant district supervisor, has reported to Lyndon B. Johnson, state director.

PRACTICAL HOME ECONOMICS & COOKERY
Texas State College for Women (224)

DENTON, April 1.—"The Staff of Life" is a good name for such a solid, important item in the diet as bread. However, its solidity furnishes no reason why it should not be dressed up occasionally.

The risk of failure has been taken out of the preparation of fancy rolls and bread of all kinds by the use of compressed yeast. With this ingredient the straight dough method can be used, and the process is shortened considerably.

True hard wheat flour gets the best results in these bread recipes. It is absorbent and holds more of the liquid it takes up, thus making the bread fine and close-textured and keeping them fresh longer.

FILLED RAISED DOUGHNUTS
1 c. scalded milk, 1-2 c. sugar, 1-2 t. salt, 4 3-4 c. flour, 2-3 c. butter or substitute, 1-4 c. whole eggs, 1-2 t. lemon extract, and 1 cake compressed yeast. When milk is luke warm add sugar, fat, salt, and yeast cake, well beaten eggs, and enough flour to make a dough that can be kneaded. Knead well and set in warm place to rise. When double in bulk, roll about 1-4 inch in thickness and cut with cookie cutter. Place 1 t. filling in center of each circle and moisten edge of dough with water. Place another circle on top and let rise fifteen minutes. Fry in deep fat at 360-370 F. to a golden brown, drain and roll in granulated sugar.

FILLING: 1 c. chopped raisins, 1-4 c. sugar, 2 t. candied lemon peel, 1 c. chopped nuts, and 2 t. candied orange peels.

4-H Members To Turn Light On Electrification for Rural Communities

Light will be turned on rural electrification by 4-H club members in nearly every state this year, according to acceptance of the second national contest for clubsters.

Club members will repeat the work they did so well in last year's initial contest which brought new laurels to the 4-H movement. They will gather data on costs of bringing current to communities through government financed cooperatives and private utilities, arrange local educational demonstrations on the wiring, appliances, and allied subjects, map out a wiring plan for their own farm, and stage exhibits and demonstrations at fairs.

Nothing has gripped the fancy of rural youth or promises such a rich field for their endeavor as rural electrification.

Club members must submit their reports prior to November 1 to county agents who will award a gold medal of honor to the winner. The best county report within the state, to be chosen by the state club leader, will receive a $50.00 merchandise certificate, and be eligible to compete for sectional honors. The 10 best state winners will be awarded all-expense trips to the 16th National Club Congress to be held in Chicago the first week of December. To the three highest rating trip winners the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company in addition will award cash college scholarships of $400, $300 and $200.

Local leaders may obtain full particulars of the contest from their county extension agents.

Soil Conservation Program

Soil conserving practices are those crops or practices used on land taken out of the production of cotton or general soil depleting crops and on the acres of land in the soil conserving base. As much as 35 percent of the land may be diverted from the cotton land or base and planted to soil conserving crops. This would give the maximum Class I payment for diversion of cotton. The maximum diversion for General soil-depleting crops or feed crops is 15 percent of the base. Soil conserving crops or practices earn the Class I payment for the farm.

There are a number of approved soil conserving practices, many of which are similar to the practices used in 1936. The following is a complete list of the soil conserving crops and practices approved for the wheat and grain sorghum area in which Coleman county is included.

over 4 feet apart, not harvested for seed or hay.

(e) Any sorghum or millet seeded solid or broadcast or sweet sorghum in rows not over 4 feet apart, grown in 1937 and all the crop left on land or plowed under provided a reasonably good growth is attained.

(f) Natural restoration of native pasture on cropland contour listed or contour furrowed and not grazed in 1936 or maintained by withholding grazing therefrom in 1937 and allowing the natural coverage to remain as a protection against erosion.

(g) Reestablishment of native grasses by seeding or sodding.

(h) Three-fourths of the acreage of cropland on which controlled summer fallowing is practiced and provided such land is contour listed or furrowed.

(i) Two-thirds of the acreage on which controlled summer fallowing is practiced and which is listed or furrowed not on the contour.

(j) Idle land terraced in 1937 in accordance with good terracing practices.

(k) Forest trees, planted on cropland since January 1, 1934.

In addition to the soil conserving crops and practices listed there are some practices used in combination with or following soil-depleting crops. An example of such crops might be peas interplanted in maize. Such acreage will be considered as total acreage in the respective soil-depleting crop and in addition the respective part of acreage that is seeded in soil conserving crop. It is quickly seen that if this practice was used as a means of qualifying the farmer would be overplanting his feed base and subsequently would incur a penalty. However, these practices might be used if idle land, to take up the reduced acres, is left in some part of the field. Also these practices might be used to take up a part of the Soil Building Allowance.

In summarizing the soil conserving crops or practices that might be used on land diverted from cotton or feed crops or land in soil conserving base in order to earn the Class I payment, we find that winter or summer legumes planted on cropland, peanuts pastured, native grasses planted, sudan grass seeded solid or broadcast or in rows not over 4 feet apart, not harvested for seed or hay, sorghums or millet seeded solid or broadcast and all crop left on or plowed under, natural restoration of native pasture, reestablishment of native grasses, three-fourths or two-thirds

Authentic Music For Cavalcade of the Americas

DALLAS, March 19.—One of the greatest tasks in the production of "Cavalcade of the Americas," huge spectacle of the Greater Texas and Pan American Exposition, opening here June 12, for a run of 142 days, was the arrangement of authentic music for the big show. Music forms an harmonious background, accentuates the drama of the new world in its struggle for liberation, and expresses the romance of the Latin American countries. From the moment the performance opens, with the sacrifice of a beautiful maiden to the sun god, to the exciting closing act, in which the Inter-American Peace Conference hears the stirring message of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the music is both authentic and fitting.

"Full credit for this splendid job goes to our musical director, Lloyd Kerr," said Jan Isbell Fortune, author of the play which will be presented by some 300 actors on the world's largest stage.

"It was more of a question of what music to use in 'Cavalcade of the Americas' than in the 1936 show," said Mr. Kerr. "The new Cavalcade covers a period of five centuries, and opens in the land of the Aztec, who knew little more than nothing about music. To be true, their only music was a dirge, or a rhythmic beat with little theme or harmony."

Religious music carries out the general theme of several scenes. When Columbus sets foot on soil of the new world in one of the early scenes, he proclaims the land Spanish territory, and the entire group sings "Te Deum," an ancient hymn.

Walter Damrosch, music council for the National Broadcasting Company, aided in the adaptation of period music for the show, as did Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, authority on period music, and more generally known as the "Tune Detector." The Pan American Union furnished material on period music of the Latin American peoples, and the New England Conservatory of Music cooperated in making selections associated with the early history of the United States.

"Cavalcade of the Americas" presents one of the most varied assortments of music ever assembled for a production of its kind," said Mr. Kerr. "Each tune typifies the period and locale of the scene."

Mr. Kerr is a graduate, teacher, and soloist of the New England Conservatory of Music.

Texas May Receive $1,500,000.00 in 1938

Texas is eligible to receive $1,500,000.00 in 1938 as her share of the twenty-five million dollars appropriated to the Federal Bureau of Public Roads for secondary or feeder roads, and a like amount will be available for the same purpose in 1939.

Data Gathered by Highway Planning Survey Essential To Project Designation

The bill specifies that the projects must be constructed in at least fifty per cent of the counties and that the designation of the secondary road system will be based upon the importance of various roads as revealed by the Highway Planning Survey now in progress. Pending the completion of the survey, the Highway Commission will select projects which can reasonably be included in the secondary system.

Vehicle Owners Should Help

The Highway Planning Survey is now collecting important information from car owners of Coleman County. Each car owner as he pays his 1937 registration fee at the office of the County Tax Collector will be handed a post card questionnaire upon which to note a few essential facts. These cards are self-addressed and require no postage. Vehicle owners should fill them in and mail them at once. The information collected in this manner will be used by the Highway Department in designating the secondary system which is to be established soon. Information from car owners should be available to the Highway Department as soon as possible, and the cooperation of all car owners is vitally necessary.

of land summer fallowed depending on method used, idle land terraced, or forest trees planted on cropland, are all classified as soil-conserving practices. A farmer may use one practice such as planting sudan on all the land he reclaims or he may use any combination of the approved practices that he desires to choose.

Improvement for Cowboy Reunion at Stamford Told

STAMFORD — Improvements on the Cowboy Reunion grounds to cost approximately $10,000 were authorized at a meeting of the board of directors of the Texas Cowboy Reunion, Inc., here recently. The improvements will be completed in advance of the eighth annual session of the Reunion which will be held on July 1, 2, and 3. These dates were selected in view of the fact that July 4 falls on Sunday this year, however July 2, 3, and 4 will be used in the following years.

Largest item on the list of improvements is a two-story pavilion and exhibit building estimated to cost $5,000. The first floor of this building will be used for commercial exhibits and ticket offices while the second story will be used as a dance floor for the annual dances in connection with the entertainment of the cowgirl sponsors.

For the greater convenience of cowboy contestants participating in the rodeo, a group of horse barns and pens will be built where visitors may keep their horses. A new earthen water tank will be constructed in the area for greater convenience in watering stock.

Additional seating capacity will be provided at the rodeo arena with construction of new bleacher seats with a capacity of approximately 1,000. This addition will give a total of approximately 3,000 bleacher seats and 8,000 grandstand seats. A bandstand is also included in the improvements at the arena.

Two sanitary toilets are to be erected on the grounds at a cost of approximately $2,000. They will likely be of the rock veneer type of construction.

W. G. (Bill) Swenson, president and Manager will have charge of the construction program. The improvements are being made in keeping with the Reunion's policy of using all net earnings for improvements on the plant.

The directors adopted a new policy with reference to the big cowboy square dances held each year during the Reunion. This part of the entertainment, which is held in the cowboy bunkhouse on the grounds, was turned over to the oldtime cowboys' organization and all net earnings will go to the treasury of the old-timers. Funds derived from the dances last year were ordered transferred to the oldtime cowboys' association.

Entomologist Tells Farmers and Farm Wives How To Combat Insects

COLLEGE STATION — The insects which are waiting to attack the farmer's crops and his wife's fruits, vegetables, flowers and shrubs are of two general types, sucking and eating, and two different types of control measures are necessary to control them, according to R. R. Reppert, Extension entomologist of Texas A. and M. College.

The sucking type of insects suck the sap from plants, and include such common insects as the aphids, or plant lice. Where insects suck the sap, stomach poisons are seldom effective, and a contact poison which attacks the insect from without is effective. Nicotine sulphate is the most widely adopted contact poison, and can be used either as a dust or a spray. To get good control contact poisons should be used on hot, still days, Reppert said.

The chewing insects, such as the cabbage worms, web worms, potato beetles, tomato worms, and similar types can be controlled with stomach poisons, most of which are on an arsenical base. For spraying, lead arsenate is preferred, while calcium is generally preferred as a dust. Non-poisonous substances, such as derris or pyrethrum may be used on vegetables for the table.

Some insects break the general rules, Reppert said, and pointed out that the adult of the cotton boll weevil is controlled with stomach poisons while the striped cucumber beetle, a chewing insect, can be best controlled with contact applications.

The best way to determine the type of insect which is infesting a plant is to observe the type of injury, according to Reppert. If part of the plant is eaten away, it may be concluded that a biting insect is responsible; while if the plant appears unthrifty and the leaves are turning yellow and are withering, a sucking insect is responsible. County agricultural and home demonstration agents should be consulted as to the class and formula of poison to use.

James V. Allred's New London School Memorial Committee by making it possible for every school child in Texas to participate in memorial donations.

The Governor has designated April 7 as "New London School Memorial Day" and called upon teachers throughout Texas public schools to conduct classroom memorial exercises and allow each child to contribute a penny toward the erection of a suitable memorial. The funds collected will be forwarded directly to the Governor at Austin for use by the Memorial Committee.

Hundreds of school children have written him and asked for permission to cooperate in the movement, Governor Allred said in his proclamation.
