Mountaineer Band Gets I Rating At UIL Contest Held in Brady

The Santa Anna Mountaineer marching band, directed by Aubrey Edwards, received the highest possible rating in the University Interscholastic League marching contest at Brady Saturday, getting a I rating which is superior. The local musicians were the only Class B band to receive the highest rating, and among only a few in the five class divisions to be awarded I.

The Santa Anna band, led by drum major Deborah Aldridge, performed on the field for six minutes, marching and playing during the precision routine. The marching band is composed of about 45 members from the 50 member group.

Members of the marching band by sections are the following:

Clarinets: Nancy Baugh, Judy Brusenhan, Sharon Loyd, Debbie Harris, Donna James, Sonya Smith, Laurie Shambeck, Michelle Cozart, Denise Blair, Sharon Keeney, and Regina Cupps.

Cornets and trumpets: Lonnie Lowry, Jimmy Benton, Janice Martin, Lane Guthrie, Jay Lynn Mosley, Rachel Guerrero, and Jacqueline Loyd.

Alto Saxophones: Bill Gilbreath, Lucinda Smith, Sharon McCreary, Rickey Jones, and Sandra Harris.

Flutes: Belinda Aldridge, Elizabeth Morris, Susan Newman, Bobbie Strickland and Shella Loyd.

Trombone: Terry Loyd, Jody Day, and David Robnett.

Baritone: Suwanee Smith. Tenor Saxophones: Nancy Perkins and Rebecca Rendon. Bass: Phil Parnell, Robbie Drake, and Mark Shambeck. Percussion: Sam Allen, Addiane Edwards, Kelly Cammack, Carol Kingsbery and Tony Allen.

Alternates: Mark Turney, Marvin Hale, and Rita Morris.

Bill and Doris Griffin continue to expand their food manufacturing business in Santa Anna, and have added an unusual item to their growing list of products. Cactus jelly, made from plain old prickly pear, is now available and quite a delicacy. Bill guarantees that are no stickers in the jelly!

We are glad to get a note from former Santa Anna Dilly Dockery of Ozona, along with a renewal to the NEWS. We appreciate her support—she sent a three-year subscription to our hometown publication.

The big Christmas opening is planned for our town on Friday, Dec. 4—just over a week away. The Lions Club will have their annual pancake sale and there are activities planned for the afternoon.

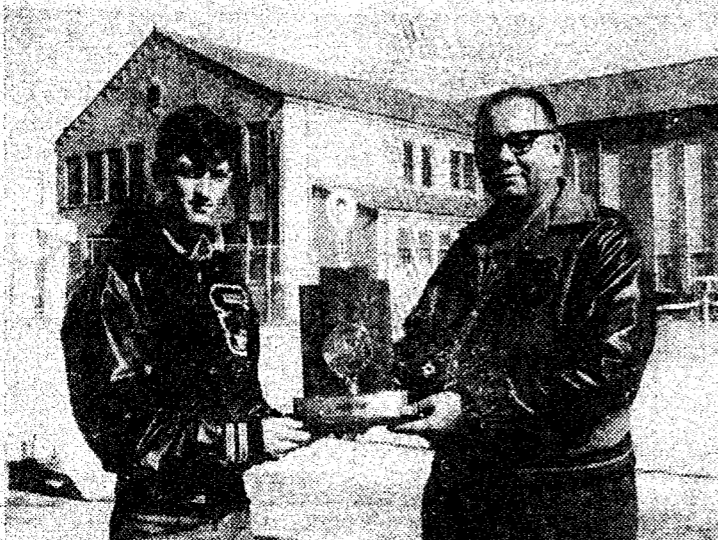

Mark your calendar with the date and make plans to be in Santa Anna on that day.

The City of Santa Anna received a "clean bill of health" from the State Health Department after a recent visit by a representative from that agency. After inspection of the city water and sanitation facilities, the inspector approved and commended the water works, filtration plant, sanitation at the sewer farm, and the city dump ground.

The only criticism from the State agency was on the dump ground where individuals are dumping brush and trash in the road and scattered around the grounds. City and community residents are welcome to use the dump grounds but are asked to put refuse in the large piles where the city trucks unload.

The entire community is proud of the 1970 Mountaineer Marching Band for winning the division I rating in the UIL marching contest last week. We were on hand to see performance and it was really outstanding. Most people have no idea of the many hours that the band has spent in preparing for the contest this year. The band can certainly claim their name, "Pride of '70."

Korky Wise, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wise of Rockwood, left Lubbock this week for a three-week tour with the Texas Tech University livestock judging team. The trip will include participation in the judging events at the International Livestock Exposition at Chicago, Ill. Korky, a senior at Tech, will return to school for the final semester examinations just before Christmas.

BAND AWARD . . . Proudly displaying the division I award trophy won by the Santa Anna marching band in the UIL contest at Brady last Saturday are band president Lonnie Lowry and Aubrey Edwards, director. The local group was the only Class B band to receive the rating as superior.

Jimmy, who is immediate past president of the Santa Anna Senior 4-H Club, was winner of the citizenship award for the county. He was presented an award pin for the achievement.

The Santa Anna 4-Her was chosen for the award from his record book entry, which includes listing of all club, community, and school achievements. Jimmy is a junior student at SAHS, where he is serving as president of his class.

Mounties District Tri-Champions For 1970 Football Season in 18-B

The Mountaineers defeated the Blanket Tigers to become tri-champs of District 18-B Friday night. The Mounties are champs with Rising Star and Richland Springs. Richland Springs won the coin toss and will represent the district in the playoffs.

The Mounties finished the season with one of their best games ever, making 520 yards total offense, their season best. QB David Horner moved his team to score 6 TDs. Rocky Dean got the team going with a first down on the second play of the game. Ricky Beal picked up two more before a Dean to Holland pass was intercepted by Ronnie Baker for the Tigers.

The Tigers could not make a first down against a stone-wall Mountaineer defense and punted on fourth down. Ricky Beal broke for 15 yards and a first. Roddy Dean picked up 9 hard-earned yards thru the middle and another first. A fumble in the backfield was recovered by Blanket.

Tiger luck didn't last, however, as the Mounties held. The Tigers punted on fourth down. Rocky Dean returned for 25 yards. On third and 10 Rocky Dean picked up 13 yards and a first. Despite penalties, the Mounties — Rocky Dean carrying, picked up two more first downs before Roddy Dean went in standing up from the 7 yard line for the TD. Walton's PAT was wide to the left.

Benny Anderson returned Walton's kick off 30 yards to the Blanket 49. Anderson picked up 4 more first downs. With 1½ minutes left in the first half of the game, Grant Godfrey went in from the 1 yard line for the Blanket TD. Anderson's PAT was no good. The score at half time was tied 6-6.

A fired-up Mountaineer came on the field the second half. Walton kicked off. The Tigers, under heavy attack led by Mark Wise, made two yards on the first series and were forced to punt. Tommy Lewis rushed the kicker who barely got the ball off. The Mounties got the ball on the 50 yard line. Beal picked up long yardage and two first downs. Rocky Dean broke loose for 21 yards and a TD. Dean ran across for two points but a SA penalty nullified the play. The second attempt at two points was no good. Walton kicked off and the Tigers fumbled the attempted return and were driven back to their own 10 yard line. Keeney, Beal, and Dean led in holding the Tigers. The Tigers punted; but the Mounties were assessed a roughing the punter penalty, and the Tigers had a first down. The Mounties got tough. Beal, Wise and Horner were instrumental in holding the Tigers to a minus 3 yards on the next series. The Mounties See MOUNTIES — page 8

Cotton Harvest Nearly Complete

The 1970 cotton harvest is expected to be completed in this area within the next week, according to workers at the Santa Anna Coop Gin. The harvesting was stopped early this week with the onset of the cold weather, but with only a few more days of warm weather local farmers are expected to have their cotton harvested.

There have been 980 bales of cotton ginned in Santa Anna through Monday, and about 150 more are expected. Cotton is bringing around 19 cents a pound with the market steady. The grade of cotton ginned locally is better than in the last two years when frequent rains during the harvest time damaged the cotton.

Yard Decoration Contest Planned By Garden Club

The Mountain City Garden Club will be in charge of a yard decoration contest in Santa Anna during the Christmas holiday season. Prizes will be given for the winning yards which will be judged about the third week in December.

Mrs. Arthur Casey is president of the Garden Club and will take names and addresses of entries for the contest. Entries may be submitted up until the judging date which will be announced soon.

In Our Opinion

By W. T. HAYS

THANKSGIVING DAY 1970, which we celebrate Thursday is just 350 years after the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock.

The little band of settlers agreed while still on board the Mayflower, to form a local government and to abide by its laws. They had experienced the oppression that an unjust government to force on a people and they were determined that it would not happen. They formed the nucleus of the democracy that followed in 1776.

What would a Pilgrim think today if he could come back and see some of the destruction that is being done by some in the name of freedom? They would probably look on in disbelief if they could see buildings being burned and property destroyed by some who claim they are not given their rights.

We would not claim that everyone in this nation is without guilt when it comes to exploiting individual rights. There has been far too much of that, and it still exists. But by far most of the citizens of this country do not condone any such action, and the vast majority would have no part of it.

Yet, neither do we condone sitting idly by and watching trouble makers stir up our people with half truths and oratory and goad them into destroying the very country which protects their right to free speech.

We are glad that we were fortunate enough to be born in this country, where our destiny is in our own hands, and we can make of ourselves what we will if we want to put out the effort. That is not true only in one section of the country or another, but in any section—be it the wide open spaces or a New York ghetto. There have been too many examples of men and women who have pulled themselves up by their bootstraps and made a success in the opportunities they found in this country.

The trouble with many who would cry that they are not able to make it in this country is that they are not willing to work for what they want. They want it given to them on a silver platter. And the trouble with a few others; who have had it given them on a silver platter, is that they haven't had to work and don't understand that the rest of us must work for what we get.

Our problem seems to stem from the two extremes, those who are lazy and those who have had everything given to them. We don't have much trouble with the vast majority in between. They go about their day-by-day work and pay the taxes to operate this country without too much grumbling, while they try to accumulate a little of the luxuries of life along with the necessities. They feed the nation and much of the world, they furnish manufactured items for them, and in fact supply the United States and most of the world with the things they need and want.

It is true that some people of other nations look at us and claim that we exploit others to get what we have. But may we remind them that this country started from a small group of people who were not afraid to work, and who had initiative and ingenuity, and built the vast productive force that we have today. Any people in any nation could have done the same if they had the ability and ambition. How can they sit back and criticize us now?

Many of the ring leaders of groups who would destroy us now, are the product of the socialist ideology. They favor a system which has been proven unsuccessful time and again, because human beings only will work when they can reap the benefits of their labor. They are not likely to produce much when the fruits of their effort goes into a pot to be divided among the many. It is the old story of "I do more than John".

Let us get back to basics. If we want something bad enough, we will be willing to work for it. If we are not willing to work, we can do without it.

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

Austin — Heads of the Texas Education Agency have set priority goals for public schools during the next two years. They estimate additional state and local costs at more than $362 million.

Highest priority must be assigned to implementing those educational acts of the 1969 Legislature, says Dr. J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education.

He listed these acts as the 1969 salary compensation (long range teacher pay raise) plan, a kindergarten program for five-year-olds, comprehensive special education programs, expansion of technical-vocational programs and refinement of the teacher retirement act. Programs are projected over a three-to-seven-year period.

As desirable as new or accelerated programs may be, says Edgar, the State Board of Education feels more experience is needed with the 1969 acts and more opportunity should be allowed to invest available resources in presently-authorized goals.

"Next priority," says the Commissioner, "goes to carrying out recommendations of a committee studying changes in school finance formulas, with a view to equalizing funds assigned as the local share of foundation costs."

More than $2 billion will be spent for public elementary and secondary education this year. Estimate for next year is $2.6 billion.

About 2,728,000 pupils now are enrolled, and 2,760,000 will be in classes next year.

Cost of existing programs for next year alone will increase $156 million, while new programs will require an estimated $25 million more.

COURTS SPEAK — Texas Supreme Court will hear arguments on January 13 as to whether a narcotics case can be under joint jurisdiction of criminal and probate courts through the mental health code. In the case at point, a mother tried to commit her daughter who had been convicted of a narcotics violation to a hospital for addiction treatment.

In other recent cases the High Court:

- Stated arguments for January 20 in a $35,000 damage lawsuit brought by presents of a young Houston boy struck by a car on Galveston Beach four and a half years ago.

- Directed the Houston Tour and Charter Service Inc. to stop out of the city bus routes operating without a Railroad Commission certificate.

- Directed retrial of a Wheeler County case involving whether a Texas Tech student received "general injury" in an oil rig job accident.

- Ruled that Maverick County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 (or other political subdivisions) are without power to levy a special assessment against veterans land tract forfeited building projects in the state.

- Found that an Arizona carpet firm which did business with a Texas manufacturer on building projects in the state can be sued in state courts for debt.

LAWMAKER AID, CURBS URGED — Subcommittees of a blue-ribbon committee studying legislators' duties, responsibilities, compensation and ethics are beginning to formulate recommendations.

One proposed an expanded publicity staff for lawmakers and a health or first aid station for the capitol. Another urged an end to the practice of legislators' lending their names to clients or defendants in legal cases just to delay trial.

On December 9, all sub-panel findings will go to the full committee of 150 named by House Speaker Gus Mutscher.

APPOINTMENTS — Governor Preston Smith named District Judge Clarence A. Guittard of Dallas as associate justice of the Fifth Court of Civil Appeals, effective January 1. He succeeds Judge Claude Williams who moves up to chief justice of the Fifth Court.

Smith designated Dallas attorney Fred S. Harless to succeed Guittard as 14th district judge.

Memphis attorney Robert E. Montgomery was picked by the Governor as judge of the 100th district effective January 1. He replaces Judge Charles L. Reynolds, who was elevated to the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals.

Rep. Charles Patterson of Taylor and Round Rock was selected by the U. S. Department of State to participate in a North Atlantic Treaty Organization briefing conference in Brussels, Belgium on 23-24.

Smith appointed Dallas F. Jordan of Dallas, who is a Rear Admiral in the U. S. Naval Reserve, to the Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz Memorial Commission.

M. A. Genaro of Dallas was elected president of National Beer Wholesalers Association. OIL ALLOWABLE CUT — State Railroad Commission ordered a cut in December statewide oil allowable to 83.5 per cent of potential, from the high 87.3 per cent factor.

Action followed four consecutive monthly increases. December limit would allow a maximum production of 3,815,992 barrels of crude daily. That is a reduction from this month's 3,954,193-barrel maximum.

Three of the 14 big crude buyers requested additional allowable for December. Ten wanted the same figure and one less. U. S. Bureau of Mines forecast a 3,525,000-barrel daily demand for December. Written nominations by major purchasers totaled 3,425,531 barrels.

CRUDE PRICE HIKE ENDORSED — Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes told the federal Office of Emergency Preparedness that an announcement by two major oil companies of intention to raise crude oil price 25 cents a barrel is "completely justified."

Lieutenant Governor said reserves of petroleum are lower than during war-time, and a price increase is mandatory if they are to be increased.

MRS. GARY RIDER . . .
Married in Nazareth church ceremony November 14

MISS POHLMEER, MR. RIDER WED IN NOVEMBER 14 CHURCH RITES

The marriage of Miss Theresa Pohlmeier and Gary Rider was solemnized Nov. 14, at the Holy Family Church in Nazareth, Texas. Father Stanley officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Pohlmeier of Nazareth, and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Rider of Santa Anna, are the parents of the couple.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a formal length gown of white shimmering crepe. Her gown featured an empire waist accented with lace appliques and long puffed sleeves. The chapel length veil was trimmed in lace applique and held by a lace coil. She carried a nosegay bouquet of mums.

The bride wore the traditional blue garter made by her aunt, Miss Petronilla Bufenfeld of Des Moines Iowa.

Miss Janice Rider, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Miss Rita Pohlmeier, sister of the bride. Styled with princess fronts, the attendants' formal length gowns were of avocado green crepe and featured slightly ruffled necklines and cap sleeves. They carried long stemmed white mums.

Ralph Pohlmeier, brother of the bride, served as best man. Eugene Davenport of Santa Anna, served as groomsmen. Ushers were Walt Pohlmeier, brother of the bride, and Bill Hubbard of Coleman.

Frank Pohlmeier, brother of the bride, and Richard Bufenfeld served for the nuptial mass. Mrs. Leonard Conrad provided the traditional music for the ceremony. Robert Pohlmeier, brother and sister of the bride, distributed prayer books to the guests.

The bride, a 1968 graduate of Nazareth High School, attended Texas Tech University. Mr. Rider, a 1966 graduate of Santa Anna High School, graduated from Texas Tech University in 1970. He is presently in the United States Air Force and will be stationed in California where the couple will make their home.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth over white satin. The centerpiece was an arrangement of white mums.

Gifts were displayed by Mrs. Clyde Davenport. Others assisting with the party were Mrs. Cecil Ellis, Mrs. Jerry Beard, and Miss Janice Rider.

Killeen Woman Guest Speaker For SA Ladies

Mrs. S. P. Swartz of Killeen will be guest speaker at the Monday meeting of the Santa Anna Church Women. The ladies of the First Christian Church will be the host group for the 2:30 p. m. meeting.

Mrs. Swartz, wife of a retired Army Lt. Colonel and the mother of four children, attended the Asian Nutrition Seminar in Bangalore, India last year. As a concerned parent, citizen and a church worker, she sought to do something constructive about world problems, "I decided that if I want my children to live in a better world than we have now I'd better get out and see what some of the world's problems are and what I can do about them," Carmen Swartz said.

A resident of the Philippines for 13 years while her father was a civil service worker as a chemist, Mrs. Swartz's mother is a doctor, a surgeon, recently retired. Mrs. Swartz was educated in Manila and is presently teaching piano.

The program Monday is open to the public and everyone is urged to attend. The guest speaker is among the outstanding programs presented for the group at the quarterly meetings.

While the modern grocery store brings us a world of convenience, there is something nice about opening a jar of preserves you have "put up" yourself. In fact it is especially welcome in these days of prepared, heat-and-serve foods.

For instance, have you ever prepared peach or pear chutney? Here's one way to go about it, for an unusual condiment that will delight the entire family. You'll need the following:

- 1 gallon chopped peaches or pears
 - 1 cup chopped onions
 - 1 clove garlic
 - 1 pod hot red pepper
 - 1 cup raisins
 - 5 cups vinegar
 - 1/2 cup white mustard seed
 - 2 tablespoons ground ginger
 - 2 to 3 cups brown sugar
 - 2 teaspoons salt
- Wash, drain, peel, chop and measure fruit and onions. Chop garlic, pepper and raisins. (Remove pepper seed for mild chutney.) Mix all ingredients, and cook slowly-until as thick as desired. Pour, boiling hot, into hot canning jars and seal at once. And there you are.

For a copy of a handy little brochure, just clip this article and the name of your newspaper and send them to me marked "Home Canning Recipes." It gives you ingredients and directions for preparing apples, watermelon rind, chili sauce, spaghetti sauce, apple chutney, tomatoes, cucumbers and pickles.

Truly, "An ounce of Morton is worth a pound of preservation."

CASTOR OIL, IT'S A PLANT

Here's an unusual plant—the castor oil plant. Yes, that is where castor oil comes from—the seeds of this plant.

It grows in India, Italy, Africa, and the United States. And, believe it or not, this plant is sometimes grown for beauty in yards and gardens.

Besides being the bad tasting medicine of our childhood, it is used greatly in industry to make plastics, dyes, art paints, cosmetics, soaps, linoleum and fungicides.

The greatest use we know for a flower is to send a special message to someone—to say: "I love you," or "We are thinking about you . . ." Our flowers say it best.

Youth Today

by Bill Weeks

From the Baptist Standard magazine of July 22, 1970, I quote from a letter to the editor: "I am of the opinion that if some of our young people today really wanted to change this nation for the better, they would visit barber shops, abstain from narcotics and refrain from excessive criticism of parents who have worked hard to give them everything. Surely, our young people are not all the group of anarchists the press makes them out to be."

I would like to make note of the word some in the first sentence which I feel is important. I would also like to object to the last sentence. This is a general condemnation of all the press which I do not believe to be justified. If you have been following this series of articles, you will have noted several quotes from various press sources which have been favorable to our young people.

This is one of the things this series is trying to emphasize and that is "general condemnation of parents, youth, the press, etc., is seldom, if ever, justified."

In another article from the same source captioned "Selling Ourselves Short," Mr. T. A. Patterson, in writing about our image abroad, states: "Speakers often concentrate on the negative aspects of our national life. They magnify faults and failures, exaggerate conflicts and paint a dismal picture of poverty and want. Somehow they fail to mention the many wonderful things that are happening. They never deplete the virtues which have made our country great."

I heartily agree with most of the articles but I must object to the "They never," especially when "They" are not identified specifically. If all speakers who are being heard overseas includes all our missionary force—(certainly not)—all of our ambassadors—(certainly not)—and our military personnel—(again, certainly not)—we are hurting.

Once again, I believe a general statement is very misleading. I do feel that the negative aspect gets more attention from the press and I believe this is because of the tendency for much of the press to deal in, which I call, sensationalism. I By this I mean that which is considered good for selling the paper, magazine, or article seems to be more often the negative than the positive side of what is being covered; be it our country, youth, religion, or most anything else. The negative is more sensational (sometimes called better press) than the positive.

Whatever the case, proper understanding of anything can hardly be obtained when only one side is presented or when one side receives a much greater emphasis.

No offense intended toward the Baptists—these things could be found in any denomination or group.

The following is an open letter to Linda Kasabian who was involved in the Sharon Tate murder:

Dear Linda:
All I know about you is what I read in the papers of your testimony at the Sharon Tate murder trial. But I felt I just had to write. You've been in the public eye so much lately that I suppose it's only natural that you've been on my mind.

Whatever else the long testimony about your teen years, about life with Charlie Manson and his "family," and about the grisly murder at the actress' mansion a year ago reveals, it shows that you are an impressionable young woman who has been seeking desperately to find the meaning of life and who you are. And to find God. Truly, you've searched almost everywhere. You've tried drugs, sex, marriage, motherhood, "hip" philosophy, even brutality. And if your testimony can be believed (I for one am inclined to accept it), somewhere along the line you realized that none of these routes was leading you to the peace and fulfillment you craved.

Like you, I believe in visions. If you now believe you are an emissary from God sent to tell the world that Manson isn't the Christ you once thought he was—but rather, "the devil" and a "false prophet," then that latter vision is nearer the truth than the former one. Charlie talked about love, but he made you afraid. Perfect love, says the Bible, casts out fear. Charlie used to say, "Never ask why." The Scriptures tell us "You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

Now you are free, physically, because you were the state's star witness in a sensational trial that has gripped the nation for weeks. But you will be free—really free—from the bondage of sin, when you know the truth. I want to tell you about that Truth, Linda—you and the many young people today who are trying to turn on to reality in a myriad myopic ways. You were close when you were "into the Jesus thing." But the way to God isn't through pills or pot, however pleasant the euphoric illusion. And it isn't through a wild-eye mystic who preaches love but practices hate, even if he does wear the long hair and beard often associated with the One with whom you confused him.

The Truth is Jesus Christ. Oh, you won't find him in some head shop. And, like so many of your generation, you may have trouble finding him in a stained-glass sanctuary. You can learn about him in the Bible. He is alive and well, living in the hearts of thousands who acknowledge him as Lord. He loves you with an eternal, undying love. He's already at work in your heart. The tug you've been feeling is the Holy Spirit, telling you God wants you to be a member of his family. Christ wants your love in return. The moment you confess your sins to Christ, God will forgive you. Christ died for your sins, Linda—and mine. He can forgive the most heinous ones as easily as those "respectable" sins of "good church people."

Charlie Manson was afraid of people with a different skin color, and he is charged with killing seven persons to start a race riot. Jesus Christ loved all men so much that He gave his life that everyone who believes in him may live forever.

There's a choice of heroes, Linda. You decide. And when you're free to do so, please help other young people to find the real Jesus Christ. He's closer than they think! (Signed: In His Love, Russell Candler.)

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

Small Business Break

Due to a hang up on semantics on the part of the Federal Trade Commission, for a long time the smaller retailer has not been receiving a fair share of cooperative allowances granted by manufacturers for advertising and sales promotion.

Now, due to a decision by the United States Supreme Court, if any cooperative advertising is allowed, it has to be offered to all.

Co-operative advertising is the most effective means yet devised of enabling a national advertiser to complete the cycle of consumer information. Through the national advertising, an awareness of a brand or product is created. Through cooperating with local retail outlets, the consumer is directed to the place or places where the merchandise can be seen and bought.

Under the Robinson-Patman Act, all competing retailers are entitled to a proportionate amount of the co-operative advertising funds available from a manufacturer.

The big hang up for years was the FTC interpretation of what constitutes a customer. The FTC held that a direct buying retailer and a wholesaler were customers under the law, disregarding the fact that actually the retailers who buy from the wholesalers are the competing retailers with the retail outlets that buy direct from the manufacturer.

It took the United States Supreme Court to define the English language with the result that today many retailers are finding that they can effectively use the advantages of co-operative advertising in their own business operations.

Also, when the FTC wrote new guidelines on cooperative advertising on instructions from the court they re-affirmed an original principle of the Robinson-Patman Act which had long been ignored.

Under the law it is not legal for a manufacturer or supplier to say that an advertising allowance will be made only on the purchase of a certain stated quantity, nor is it legal to specify different allowances for different volume purchases. The allowance must be the same whether the order is for a dozen or for a carload.

In order to make the business community more aware of co-operative advertising, the National Federation of Independent Business has published a pamphlet on the subject as a public service project.

With advertising the lifeblood of most business operations today, it is recommended that any retailer request a copy of this free pamphlet.

ASC NEWS

by Joe K. Taylor

Farmers are reminded that from all indications the 1970 actual cotton yield on the farm will be significant in figuring the 1971 cotton payment for the farm.

In order to receive proper credit on the farm producing the cotton, it is necessary that the cotton be properly identified as to the farm on which it was produced.

We are suggesting that all gin tickets for 1970 be filed as soon as harvest is completed.

During the last half of November some 40,000 Texas ranchers and farmers will receive a livestock survey questionnaire from Cary Palmer, State Statistician for the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. This is a joint endeavor of the Texas Department of Agriculture and the Statistical Reporting Service, U.S.D.A., to provide a program of county estimates for Texas.

In Texas there are 254 counties and each farmer in each county is an important part of the State's agriculture. Their reports are needed to provide accurate estimates for Texas cattle, hogs and chickens. The year-end survey on sheep and goats will be made in late December.

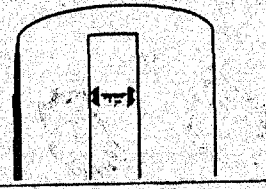

We urge each farmer to fill out his questionnaire carefully and return it promptly in the self-addressed envelope to the Agricultural Statistician. This will do much to provide the accurate data needed for Texas.

County statistics for 1969 and January 1, 1970 are now available on Livestock, Poultry, Dairy, Field Crops, Small Grains, Cotton, Vegetables, Fruit and Pecans. Prices received and prices paid by farmers and cash receipts from the sale of Texas farm commodities and can be obtained by writing the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, Box 70, Austin Texas 78767, or by Writing to John C. White, Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, Box 12847, Capitol Station, Austin 78711.

PAUSE FOR A Thanksgiving PRAYER

MY PRAYER

I Asked God for Strength, That I Might Achieve
I was made Weak, that I might learn humbly to Obey
I Asked for Health, That I Might Do Greater Things
I was given Infirmary, that I might do Better Things
I Asked for Riches, That I Might Be Happy
I was given Poverty, that I might be Wise
I Asked for Power, That I Might Have the Praise of Men
I was given weakness, that I might feel the need of God
I Asked for All Things, That I Might Enjoy Life
I was given Life, that I might Enjoy All Things
I got nothing I asked for, but everything I had hoped for Almost despite myself, My Unspoken Prayers were Answered.
I Am, Among All Men, Richly Blessed.

S. A. Postmaster Gives Holiday Mailing Dates

Postmaster John C. Gregg today urged residents of Santa Anna and the surrounding area "to try to remember" that recommended mailing dates for civilian domestic Christmas mails start the first of December.

Christmas packages and greeting cards going to individuals in military service overseas should be mailed as soon as possible in order to be delivered by Christmas Day.

The national Christmas mail theme this year is based on the familiar musical tune "Try to Remember," the Postmaster said, and will be featured in public service radio and television announcements. Mr. Gregg said the idea is "to have our customers remember recommended mailing dates. This will insure fast and efficient delivery of parcels and cards and prevent disappointments for friends and family members. Of course, it will also be a big help to your post office."

Suggested latest dates by which Christmas mail should be deposited are as follows, but the postmaster urged customers to mail earlier wherever possible:

PARCELS
Distant states, Dec. 1
Local and nearby areas, Dec. 11

GREETING CARDS
Distant states, Dec. 10
Local and nearby areas, Dec. 15

Surface parcels to Alaska, Hawaii, Canada and Mexico should be mailed no later than Dec. 4. Air mail parcels to the same areas should be mailed no later than Dec. 14.

Surface mail greeting cards to these areas should be mailed by Dec. 9 and air mail greeting cards should be mailed no later than Dec. 15. "This year," Mr. Gregg said, "it is more important than ever before to use ZIP Code. Most all mail is handled by ZIP Code and if it is not included in the address it can delay the delivery by one or several days, depending on the work load of the post office where the mail is handled."

Everyone is urged to be sure all mail is properly addressed in clear, easy to read lettering.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING SET FOR DECEMBER 2

The December meeting of the Santa Anna Independent School District board of trustees has been scheduled for 6:00 p. m., Wednesday, Dec. 2. The meeting will be held at the high school business office.

Mounties . . .

got the ball on downs on the Blanket 40. Rocky Dean ran for 40 yards and the TD on the first play of the series. Walton's PAT was good, and the Mounties led 19-6 with four minutes left in the third quarter.

The Tigers ran two plays and fumbled. Mountaineer DeLeon recovered for the Mounties on the Blanket 34 yard line. Rocky Dean picked up first down yardage for the Mounties. Beal pked up another before he went in from the four yard line for another Mountaineer TD. Walton's PAT was good but nullified by a penalty. The second attempt failed.

The Tigers picked up two first downs but could make no more. The ball went over on downs on the Mountaineer 20 yard line. Roddy Dean ran 10 yards for the first. Beal picked up another. Roddy Dean broke tackles and ran 45 yards for a TD. Walton's PAT was good.

Blanket could not make first-down yardage, and the ball went over on downs on the Blanket 44. Ricky Beal broke loose on the second play of the series and raced 39 yards for a TD. Walton's PAT was good. Walton kicked off and stopped the returner in his tracks. The ball rested on the Blanket 34 yard line. Mountaineer defense held the Tigers to 3 yards on the series, and they punted. W. T. Young covered the punt for the Mounties on their own 4 yard line. Beal and Roddy Dean picked up first-down yardage. On the last play, Roddy went 45 yards before being brought down as the clock ran out. The game ended with the Mountaineers on top by a score of 39-6.

Mountaineer offense was most outstanding this week with yardage evenly distributed among the running backs. Rocky Dean had 162 yards rushing; Ricky Beal, 176; and Roddy Dean 147. Each of these three running backs scored two touchdowns.

Mountaineer defense held the Blanket tigers to 105 yards offense. In the two-figure column in number of tackles were Ricky Beal with 19; Horner, 15; Roddy Dean 12, and Walton, 11.

Mishap Occurs Enroute To Gin
Danny Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Williams of the Shields community, was uninjured Wednesday in a pickup-trailer accident. The pickup, pulling a two-bale cotton trailer, was turned upside down about one mile north of Shields when high winds caught the trailer and flipped them both over. The pickup was extensively damaged and the cotton trailer almost a total loss. The cotton, enroute to the Coleman gin, was scattered in the ditch.
