"He Profits Most Who Serves Best"

Baxter-Thompson

Miss Dorothy Baxter and Mr. H. B. Thompson were married Wednesday night of last week at the First Christian Church in Ballinger, the pastor, Rev. Lee Whipple officiating.

The bride is the charming and accomplished daughter of former Mayor and Mrs. W. E. Baxter, and she was born and reared in Santa Anna. She is a graduate of the Santa Anna High School of the class of 1928 and a graduate of Simmons University with the class of 1932.

While a student in Simmons she was prominent in extra-curricular activities, a member of the Cowgirls and for three years was a member of the University Players, taking leading roles in a number of major plays. She also was a member of the History Club, secretary of the Heart of Texas Club, and during her junior year was selected to represent her class in a beauty contest sponsored by the Simmons Brand. Photographs of all contestants were sent to Gary Cooper, who adjudged her one of the five most beautiful young women in the university.

In her senior year she was nominated for University Queen.

Christian Revival Meeting Closed

The three-weeks Revival Meeting at the First Christian church here, in which Miss Annabel Lee did the preaching, closed Monday evening with baptismal services at Richardson's Crossing for the twenty-four converts. The Church Membership was increased by thirty, the other six having come by statement and restoration.

Miss Lee did some splendid preaching, and many have agreed that results far surpassed expectations. Several have expressed the desire for Miss Lee to return for another engagement.

J. B. Veveaur, who led the singing, and Miss Lee returned to their homes in Menard Tuesday. Miss Lee is pastor of the First Christian Church in Menard.

DR. SEALY EXPECTED HOME THIS WEEK

A card from Dr. T. Richard Sealy, mailed in Chicago Monday states that he has enjoyed attending the Clinical Congress and American College of Surgeons, and is now attending the Clinic of the Hospitals. He states also that he expects to be home by Sunday.

Why is a grain of sand in the eye like a schoolmaster's cane? Because it hurts the pupil.

She represented her home town on the occasion of the visit of Colonel Lindbergh to Abilene in 1927, going as the "spirit of Santa Anna."

Mr. Thompson is employed in the electrical department of the West Texas Utilities Company. He is a son of Mrs. W. M. Thompson of Vian, Oklahoma, and lived at Ballinger and Winters several years before moving to Santa Anna. He has been with the West Texas Utilities Company eight years, and is a very likable young man.

The happy young couple spent their short honeymoon in San Antonio, and returned here the first of the week. They will make their home in Santa Anna.

Garner, Farley, in Texas for Visit

Dallas, Oct. 16.—Texas will be host to the largest party of federal officials ever to make a grand tour of the Lone Star State, when Vice President John N. Garner and Postmaster General James A. Farley, with numerous other distinguished personages, visit the banner Democratic state of the nation, beginning on October 18th.

The tour has been arranged

JOHN NANCE GARNER

as a good will tour of Democratic party officials to the state that gave Jack Garner to the nation, and will afford an opportunity for genial Jim Farley, the national chairman and the top political man of the Roosevelt administration, to pay his respects to the vice president's native state.

Coming here by air in an armada of transport planes, the party will first visit Fort Worth, then to Arlington Downs to open the racing season, and then will come into Dallas on the afternoon of October 19, to prepare for what is planned as the greatest political rally ever staged in Texas, where great political rallies are the rule.

In Dallas the officials will be the guests at a tremendous banquet in the Adolphus Hotel, at which Maury Hughes, the state chairman, will be toastmaster. There will be no speech making at this banquet, in order to permit the party to adjourn promptly.

to the high new stadium at the State Fair of Texas for the gigantic night rally.

Young Joseph Weldon Bailey, Jr., Congressman-at-large, will have full charge of this meeting in Dallas, at which Mr. Farley will make his only formal address for the entire tour. The vice president, Senator Tom Connally, and Congressman Hutton W. Summers will also be heard on this occasion.

From Dallas the party goes to San Antonio, then to Uvalde for a party at the ranch of the vice president and a chuck wagon dinner on the nearby ranch of Ralph W. Morrison, and then to Houston.

Accompanying Mr. Farley will be J. C. O'Mahoney, first assistant postmaster general, W. W. Howes, second assistant; Clinton Ellenberger, third assistant; Silman Evans, fourth assistant, and Harlee Branch, executive assistant. Another official on the list is L. W. Robert, assistant secretary of the treasury, better known to his many friends as Chip Robert. J. F. T. O'Connor, comptroller of the currency, and Col. Carroll Cone, of the Department of Aeronautics, will accompany the party.

Faces and Places of the Yesteryears

By Rev. D. M. West, Editor of the Bronco Enterprise

The editor and Mrs. editor had a most delightful time the last week-end.

The place was Rockwood, in Coleman county.

The occasion was the "homecoming" celebration of the Rockwood Baptist church.

All former members and pastors of the church who yet survive, were extended pressing invitations to attend. And they were there! They came from everywhere. They were present from Luling all the way to West Texas. Eighty-six visitors were enrolled in the guest book. These were eighty-three former members and three former pastors.

The writer was one of the three former pastors.

The occasion and the visit carried us back to the yesteryear of life. Our entry into public life had its beginning partially at Rockwood—it was the second church the leadership of which we ever assumed.

The time of our relations with the congregation and community were away back, and back into life's beginning with us. We were a young man then—barely out of our teens. To be exact it was thirty-six years ago. And we had never retraced our steps back to the old church and community. But through the years we have cherished memories of the place and its people that have been sacred—for, they are those, not only those of the immediate church, but the people of all the community, who took a kindly interest in us as the "boy preacher." Hence when the invitation came, like a boy waiting to go to the circus, we could hardly wait for the time when we should go.

The visit was one back to see "the faces and the places of the yesteryears." For, we not only went to Rockwood but returned by Santa Anna, where we also were pastor of the Baptist church beginning in 1900 and concerning which place and our friends there we have cherished memories as hallowed as those of Rockwood and its people. However we have visited Santa Anna since leaving there and have kept more in touch with them.

But, Rockwood, we had not seen since leaving there—and we looked into faces and greeted and mingled with those we had not seen for well nigh forty years. The boys and girls of the days of memory are now old enough to be, and some are, grandparents. A scattering few of the "old guard" yet remain. Most of them, however, of the older ones of the other days have grown old and not so very active in life. As we walked among them again and renewed friendships of the long ago, we felt almost as if we were in some strange dreamland and conversing again with those of a long, happy, golden past.

Reaching the town, we inquired for Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rutherford. Being advised that they yet abide and were still at the same place, we drove out to their home, about a mile from town. It has never been the writer's privilege to enjoy a more intimate and enduring and happy friendship than that with Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford. The children have all grown up, gone out and married and have established their homes. So, we found Father and Mother Ruth-

Baptists Hold All Day Meeting Sunday

Sunday was an unusual, but enjoyable day in the history of the First Baptist Church here. Plans were laid about a month ago for an All Day Fellowship Meeting, and were carried out in full.

The entire Sunday School assembled in the Main Auditorium at ten o'clock for a Song and Devotional Service. The pastor, Rev. Wingo, spoke at about ten-thirty, and the rest of the morning was devoted to testimony, and a free-will offering for Foreign Missions.

Dinner was spread at noon on the lawn north of the Church Building. The tables were weighted down with foods of every description which were enjoyed to the utmost.

The afternoon session has been pronounced the most enjoyable and inspiring meeting in several months. The afternoon was devoted to special songs and testimony. Among the singers were J. R. Lock, Francine Merritt, Rosalie Niell, Ora Alice Newman, Vada Horner, Vera Horner, Bartlett Lamb, H. L. Lackey, Wendell Rowe, Carmilla Flores, Edna Lackey, Lester Newman, Edgar Parrish, R. E. Ward, J. Tom Newman, G. P. England, G. B. Smith, and W. E. Ragsdale. Louis Newman directed the choir and congregational singing throughout the day.

Pianists were Misses Mattie Ella McCreary, Pauline England, and Ora Alice Newman, and Mr. Talmadge Turner.

The B. T. S. met as usual, in the evening and was followed by the short evening service in which the Lord's Supper was observed.

Singing at Trickham Saturday and Sunday

Our good friend G. W. Bobo of Trickham authorizes us to announce a singing convention at Trickham next Sunday beginning with a concert Saturday night.

The Stamps Quartet will sing Saturday night, and will also render several numbers Sunday.

The public is invited to attend, and let us suggest that it would be well to carry lunch to help feed the crowd at noon Sunday.

HALLOWEEN BOX SUPPER

The Santa Anna News has been requested to announce a Halloween Box Supper at Leedy Saturday night, October 27th. The public is cordially invited to attend.

erford in the evening-time of life happy notwithstanding the oncoming years have taken most of their vitality, and Mother Rutherford suffers from impaired eyesight. It was like going back to the home of our own parents, almost, to visit these two life-long and faithful friends again. And we found many of the homes that were there in the other days to which we were bidden welcome and which would have been delightful to us to visit again.

The gathering at the church was all the name of the occasion, "home coming," implies. Not only the members of the immediate congregation but the people of the entire town and community united to make the visit of the returning former members and ministers, one delightful to the last degree. Old-fashioned picnic lunch, with abundance of barbecue, was served each day at the church.

One of the happiest features, aside from the fellowship of the occasion, was the singing by Joe Trussell, song evangelist of Brownwood.

Two of the very busy and happy people of the crowds were Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Kirkpatrick. Rev. Kirkpatrick is the present pastor. He and Mrs. Kirkpatrick are doing a great work, not

LOCAL GINNING REPORT

There were 14,589 bales of cotton ginned in Coleman county this year prior to October 1st, as compared with 4,376 bales ginned to October 1st, 1932, according to Ernest Weaver, statistician for Coleman county.

Coleman and Casey Sent to Prison

Casey Draws Longer Punishment Because He Fought Case; Judge Commends Coleman

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 17.(AP)—The government scored heavily again today in its prosecution of persons involved in the many-sided Charles F. Urschel kidnaping case when Cass Coleman and Will Casey, Coleman County farmers, were sentenced to the penitentiary for conspiracy to harbor George "Machine Gun" Kelly.

Coleman, on whose farm department of justice agents dug up $73,250 of the $200,000 ransom paid for the Oklahoma City oil millionaire's release, was sentenced to a year and a day in Leavenworth while Casey was sentenced to two years. Coleman, at the brief trial, pleaded guilty and Casey pleaded not guilty.

"I believe when a man does a wrong, the best thing to do is to confess that wrong and try to right it," Federal Judge William H. Atwell said as he sentenced Casey. "I don't think it is necessary for me to explain why I am making a difference in your sentence and that of Mr. Coleman."

The maximum penalty would have been two years' imprisonment and a $10,000 fine.

MAN ESCAPES POSSE HERE WEDNESDAY

Quite a little excitement prevailed here Wednesday afternoon when a young man using the name of L. D. Walker tried to pass a check at the Piggly Wiggly, supposed to be signed by J. A. Miller.

The check for $1650, was drawn on the bank at Coleman and was supposed to be signed by Mr. Miller. While the check and signature was being investigated, the man proposed to step out in town and find some one to identify him. Chic Rhem, deputy sheriff of Rockwood, accompanied the young man, and while walking down the sidewalk he reached for the check, but failed to get possession of it. At that time he broke and ran, with Mr. Rhem pursuing closely after him. Turning north at the Kelley corner he made for the mountain, and every time Mr. Rhem would call to him to come back he would speed up a little faster and continue in the opposite direction.

Several joined in the chase, none of them armed with shooting irons, so it was a match for speed, main strength and awkwardness. Sheriff Mills and a party of deputies from Coleman joined in the chase, and Sheriff Hallmark and a deputy from Brownwood were called in with their bloodhounds, but the forger outwitted the bunch and made good his escape. He has been in Santa Anna several times, but his identity is still unknown.

Anyone seeing a medium size young man of about 25 summers, dark features, and looking rather lank and hungry, notify Mr. Rhem, for he would like to see him again.

WTUC MANAGER AT WINTERS IN ABILENE FOR MAJOR OPERATION

ABILENE, Tex. Oct. 17.—Julian McDaniel, West Texas Utilities manager at Winters, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the West Texas sanitarium here yesterday afternoon.

Becoming ill early Tuesday, he was brought to Abilene on an ambulance bed fitted into his automobile and driven by his wife, who was accompanied by their two small children. J. H. Mosley, assistant to Mr. McDaniel, followed in another car. The party was met at Tuscola by the sick man's brother, George W. McDaniel, Jr., and an Abilene physician.

Favorable report was given last night on Mr. McDaniel's condition. He is a son of Mrs. George W. McDaniel, 774 Butter-nut street.

(Editor's note.) Mr. McDaniel is a former manager of the West Texas Utilities Co. here, and the family has many friends who will regret to learn of the illness. We wish him a safe recovery.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice, Santa Anna, Tex.

With the expiration of the ninety day limit August 31, a number of new laws in Texas are now in effect.

Boxing fans may indulge in watching their favorite sport now. At one time it was unlawful for boxing to be conducted in the state but it is now permitted.

Betting on horse racing may be done without any conscientious scruples. The state doesn't object, and the only thing that will hold the wager off now is the lack of money.

The tax law on crude oil has been changed from two per cent on the price to two cents per barrel. According to the old law crude oil had to bring as much as $1.00 per barrel to obtain two cents tax, and under the present tax it matters not how low the price of oil may be the state collects two cents per barrel tax.

Texas' famous "gin marriage" law is no longer effective. Persons desiring to be married do not have to give the three days notice as formerly. It has been estimated that border towns in New Mexico have made as much as $10,000 annually from couples from Texas being married there. Other statutes now in effect are: giving land owners in West Texas an extension of time to pay rentals and bonuses, increasing the scope of the State Tax Commission, increasing tuition fees at state colleges and universities and making it a felony to violate valid orders of the Texas railroad commission governing oil production. These laws are being contested in courts in some instances and some may be found to be unconstitutional. —Mitchell County Times.

"No, I will not sign a NRA Consumers card. I am going to buy where I can buy the cheapest." Campaigners for the NRA program hear that expression every day now as they go from house to house asking the buying public to sign Consumers Cards pledging their support to the business houses that are members of the NRA. That is just what is the matter with the world today. The buying public has been working hard in an effort to "chisel" prices down on the things they buy. They have been successful. They become scared during the fall of 1929 when the crash came. Dollars were scarce and they had to be stretched out. But while we were doing this "chiseling" on the price of the things we had to buy, we were also "chiseling" down the price the farmer received for what he had to sell. If merchants sold us goods cheap they had to buy them cheap. Therefore we went into a tallspin on everything. The attitude of the people is the success or failure of every undertaking. We were only willing to pay six-bits for a sack of flour. We got the six-bit flour, also two-bit wheat along with it. Great was the hue and cry about cheap wheat. But we cannot have our pie and eat it too. We demanded cheap cotton and wool goods, our wishes were granted also along with the downward prices on these items we drew 5c cotton and 6c wool. That was a pain in the neck. We demanded cheap butter and eggs, we brought the pressure to bear and got cheap butter, eggs and of course naturally they had to be bought cheap from the producer so the producer was paid 5c for his eggs and 8c for his cream. That also failed to work as we thought it would. We were looking for a Santa Claus in this division. Then we turned to the farm and automobile manufacturers and demanded cheap farm machinery and cheap automobiles. They told us to go and jump in the river. Dismissed practically all of their help and almost closed those factories down. Men were out of employment. Manufacturers in other lines became scared and closed down their plants, throwing more men out of work. Purchasing power of the country dwindled down, down, down. Men walking the streets looking for work. They could not buy the necessities of life. They had to be taken care of through charity organizations. All caused by us human beings that are permitted to live in these United States "chiseling" prices down on the things we had to buy. Oh, yes, we were "going to spend our money where we could buy the cheapest." Nice mess we got into, isn't it? —Lockney Beacon.

E. W. GILL PURCHASES POLLED HEREFORD CALVES

Two polled Hereford bull calves bought by E. W. Gill last week are probably the highest bred cattle ever brought to this section. After visiting a number of the leading Polled Hereford breeders, Mr. Gill selected these calves from the herd of Burlison and Johns at Whitney, Texas.

Albert Kyle, manager of Burlison and Johns' Steiner Valley Ranch and one of the leading Polled Hereford breeders of the nation, helped select the Gill calves. One of those selected is sired by Bonnie Russell 2nd, a past champion of the National Polled Hereford Show at Des Moines, Iowa, and the other by Polled Domino Mischief, an Illinois bull with a good show record.

Mr. Gill intends to develop these two young bulls for use in his own herd. He is building up and improving his cattle so that the Gill herd is rapidly becoming one of the leaders of the breed. At present Mr. Gill is the fourth largest Polled Hereford breeder in the United States as well as one of the best known dealers in purebred cattle.

only for their immediate church but the entire community.

Another happy surprise to the writer was to meet Rev. E. W. Swearingin, formerly pastor of the Methodist church at Norton and Marie. Rev. Swearingin is pastor of the Methodist church at Rockwood. He is esteemed not only by members of his congregation but by the entire community and he is doing a most excellent work. Rev. Swearingin addressed the gathering Saturday evening and his was a happy and helpful message.

One of the most greatly and most happily surprised of all, perhaps, was the Mrs. editor. Prof. E. L. Allison is superintendent of the Rockwood school. Mrs. editor taught with Prof. Allison when he was superintendent at Menard. That was in 19—well, Mrs. editor forbids our saying how long ago that was, for it would make her to be beyond 35 now. Anyhow, both she and Prof. Allison were gladly surprised to meet each other again. It also developed that Prof. Allison and the writer had known each other since 1904. It was a genuine pleasure to meet him again.

The three former pastors present were Rev. C. V. Carroll, Brownwood, Rev. Edgar Owens, Bangs, and the writer. Everybody seemed to regard Revs. Carroll and Owens as "old men" while the writer, of course, they regarded "just as a kid." Ahem! In the early afternoon on Sunday "good byes" began to be said, as the visitors began to depart for their homes—the visitors going away with choked emotions heaving in their bosoms because of the memories of "the old home church and home community" and the fresh, gentle memories that would linger with them because of the "home coming." And the home folks likewise were both gladdened and saddened because of the coming of the "old time" home folks and now their going away again. Memories! Memories! How they shall live and bless and gladden all who were present to the end of life's earthly way! The Coleman County Baptist Young People's Convention met Sunday afternoon with the Santa Anna Baptist church. Miss King, one of the fine young women of the Rockwood church, is president of the county convention. On invitation from her, the writer was privileged to return to Santa Anna and deliver the address of the afternoon before the young people. Hence, it was another hour of "faces and places of the yesteryears." It was a magnificent group of young people, and the privilege of looking into their faces and addressing them was, and is, indeed, an inspiration. The young people's meeting over, after saying "howdy" and good bye to the old-time friends and the new-made friends the editor and Mrs. editor turned their faces back to "the golden West" and to home, arriving about nine o'clock at night, tired and sleepy, but lay down to dreams of the glad some day and of old-time and new-made friends—"faces and places of the yesteryears"—pleasant and sweet as "songs in the night."

Even the price of "nothing" has gone up—we call your attention to the London Conference. —Exchange.

the building and thereby announced the saddest fact that a SAHS student cared nothing for his building. He forgot that his parents and other parents worked hard to make possible the erection of his school building.

A multifarious group of initials — some permanently inscribed and others in chalk — disfigured the beautiful entrance of a high school. Another SAHS student was thoughtless. He forgot too that his building had cost money — forgot too that his parents and other parents had worked hard for this entrance to be placed here.

Can it be true that a SAHS student would thoughtlessly or deliberately destroy his building? That a SAHS student could show that evident lack of good citizenship, that lack of pride, that lack of true school spirit? It is sadly true. The building has been thoughtlessly defaced — we refuse to say deliberately, but with the increased cooperation of all students the SAHS building shall remain as beautiful tomorrow as today.

HOME ECONOMICS III GIVES HALLOWE'EN TEA

Entertainment has been the subject of discussion for the past two weeks among the Home Economics III girls and to put into practice what they have learned from books it was decided that they should entertain with a Halloween tea.

The breakfast nook of the Home Economics department was decorated with characteristic Halloween decorations of black cats and pumpkins. An attractive center piece for the table was made of an orange cut to represent a jack-o-lantern which was lighted with a candle. Four Halloween men made of decorated apples standing on yellow pencils set in spoons were used as decorations for the table.

Plate favors consisted of black ovals upon which were written fortunes and the following:

PROGRAM
Song: Home Economics Girls, Evelyn Kirkpatrick, leader.
Reading: Louise Wilsford.

MENU
Tuna fish sandwiches.
Brownies
Iced lemonade
Fudge

The tea was enjoyed by the following: Louise Wilsford, host; Annie Louise Watkins, hostess; Mr. Binion, guest; and Christine Zachary, Faye Routh, Irene Rountree, Floye Spencer, Madie Weathers, Mary Neal Priest, Dolphia Lindley, Kathryn Wylie, Zaida Ruth Moseley, Charlotte Moseley, Alberta Banks, Thelma Lowe, Mary Bradford, Velma Cruger, Christine Buse, Sylvia Ann Everett, Lena Jane Barlett, Ruth Davis, Elizabeth Fletcher, Mary Gladys Pope, May Campbell, Evelyn Kirkpatrick, and Elizabeth Rollins.

Examinations Are Completed

Examinations were completed Friday at noon. They were begun Thursday at 11:15. Tests at this time were begun early to enable the football team and the pep squad to go to the game at Winters Friday afternoon.

Honor rolls, which are determined from these grades and others, will appear in the "Mountaineer" next week.

HALF HOLIDAY GIVEN FRIDAY AFTERNOON

In order to allow students a chance to go to the game between Santa Anna and Winters at Winters, a half holiday was granted last Friday afternoon. As Mr. Forehand officiated in chapel, it is very unusual for the whole school to lose half a day for a football game, but as this game came during examination time, the exam schedule was rushed up so that all tests were completed by Friday at noon. By taking some tests out of schedule, the team was dismissed at 9:40 a. m.

PEP SQUAD NEWS

About thirty members of the pep squad went to Winters Friday to boost the Mountaineers in their football game there. Several more would have gone if there had been enough ways. However, from the noise that was made, most people would never have known that nearly half the pep squad was missing. Friday night Sam Forehand entertained with the usual football party. Although the host didn't arrive until the party was nearly over, the guests had a "swell time."

Baseball Team Organized

Under the efficient coaching of Miss Hays, vocational home economics instructor, the developing of a star baseball team has begun. The first meeting of the team was called in the home economics room after school Tuesday.

Doris Rollins, captain of the Grammar School team last year, was enthusiastically elected captain, with Helen Martha Zachary assistant captain.

So far the following girls are the only ones to come out for girls' indoor baseball: Doris Rollins, Helen Martha Zachary, Jane Catherine Burden, Lenora Golston, Ruby Lee Price, Martha Belle Harvey and Vesta Evans. These girls made a fine showing last year, and with more experience should do a great deal better this year.

Sophomores meet in two home rooms under the new schedule. Mrs. Bartlett has charge of the girls in room 201. The boys meet in the lecture room with Mr. Green to supervise them. When a class meeting is called, the class assemblies in the auditorium.

JUNIOR NEWS

Since the beginning of the school year, juniors have added $25.45 to the class fund. Over half of this amount ($12.55) was made last Saturday when a rummage sale was held in the old printing office. Another sale is planned for tomorrow.

FRESHMAN NEWS

The freshmen are liking Mr. Green, our new science and English teacher, who entered our school Monday morning of last week, very much. Mr. Green is from Abilene.

We also have another new pupil, Raymond Holland, who is from Buffalo. A few students have withdrawn from our class.

BULLETIN BOARD IS PLACED IN STUDY HALL

A new bulletin board has been placed in the study hall. It is of wood and is about two feet square.

On this board is placed miscellaneous information concerning the various courses.

JOKES

As Carlene Ashmore and Jack Price entered a dining room, Carlene spoke to a nice looking man. After they were seated Jack asked, "Do you know that man?"

Carlene: Yes.
Jack: Well, I think I'll get him to join us.
Carlene: Er-ah-ugh- this is so sudden!
Jack: Why?
Carlene: Why, he is our minister.

Mrs. Kelley (proud mother): Yes, Mrs. Mitchell, Julian is taking Latin and Algebra this year. Say "good morning" to the lady in Algebra, Julian.

Jack Howard, being told to write an essay on the mule, turned in the following effort to his teacher, Mr. Green.
"The mule is a hardier bird than the guse or turkie. It has two legs to walk with, two more to kick with, and wears its wings on the side of its head. It is stubbornly backward about going forward."

Miss Land: What a dirty boy you are, William, I can see what you had for breakfast.
William Mitchell: What did I have?
Miss Land: Egg.
William: No, you are wrong. That is what I had yesterday morning.

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES COMPANY

The Electrical Dollar Buys More Now

This chart is based on figures from the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics and national electric rate figures. The rate curve of the West Texas Utilities Company follows a more sharply descending slope to a point 52% below the normal level, which is 16% lower than the national average rate reduction shown above.

Your Average Electric Rate Is 85% Below Other Living Costs!

Complete electric service is the most reasonable item of expense in your family budget. It is the only item that has consistently been improved in quality and lowered in cost. Today it is 85% below other items of family expense . . . and still going down!

During the past ten years your average electric rate has been reduced more than 53%—while in spite of two years of rapidly lowering prices other items entering into the family budget still remain 52.5% ABOVE THE NORMAL LEVEL!

Just think of it! The 1932 dollar spent for general living expenses bought only 26% more than the 1922 dollar (according to the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics), while it bought from the West Texas Utilities Company 115% more residential electric service than the 1922 dollar!

This is a remarkable record! In spite of constantly increasing costs of government, the West Texas Utilities Company has effected economies which have given you the benefit of rate reductions amounting to more than 53%! And now, with commodity prices again following a sharply ascending curve, today's electric rates are even farther below general commodity prices than shown in the above chart.

Your dollar spent for electric service buys you more in real value—and more in comparison with that same dollar spent for other service or commodities—than any money you spend.
