Coordinator for the coming influenza inoculations from the Abilene Health Department is a former Santa Anna resident, Mary Strand (Dillinger) Maxwell. Mrs. Maxwell was in Santa Anna Monday for the training session and enjoyed visiting with former friends.

While at the school building, Mrs. Maxwell climbed atop a chair to read the inscription on a plaque, listing her as an honor student in 1936. She wished for a duplicate of the plaque to show

With the starting of school, residents along heavily-traveled Bowie Avenue are apprehensive about the safety of small school children who walk to school each day.

We agree that the street is narrow, and there is no sidewalk for pedestrians, so drivers are urged to use extreme caution as children are going to and from school. The loose gravel from the recent re-surfacing makes the road even more dangerous.

Summer Fruits, Vegetables: Adequate Supplies Predicted

AUSTIN—July fruit and vegetable crop statistics for Texas indicate that summer potato production will be slightly down from last year but summer onion harvest will increase.

The summer onion crop, which is harvested in the Trans-Pecos area and on the High Plains, is expected to reach 1.980 million hundredweight (cwt.), up from last summer's 1.404 million cwt. crop, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said.

Summer potato production is estimated at 2.046 million cwt., down from last year's production of 2.150 million cwt. Acres intended for harvest are set at 9,300 with a yield of 220 cwt. per acre, White said.

According to the crop report, the state's peach crop estimate remains unchanged from last month, at 23 million bushels. Watermelon acres for harvest also remain unchanged at 55,000.

Harvested acreage for several crops shows an increase over last year's figures: green peppers are up to 1,900 acres from only 1,500 acres in 1975; cantaloupes, up 200 acres to 5,500; and spring and summer tomatoes, up 300 acres to 5,000.

On the other hand, estimates for two crops show small drops in acreage. Carrots are down to 700 acres, 100 acres less than last year, and cucumbers decreased by 50 acres to 800 acres.

GOOD NEWS

By WRIGHT PRICE, Pastor

More often than you think the cry comes to the minister, "My child is running around with the wrong crowd. I am afraid he (or she) will get into trouble."

The fact is, Being with the wrong crowd is trouble. The Bible declares: "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise, but a companion of fools shall be destroyed." Prov. 13:20.

The secret of raising obedient and godly children is to be an obedient Godly parent.

Gods word says "Apply thine hearts to instruction (Prov. 23:12) and train up a child in the way he should go; and even when he is old he will not depart from it." Prov. 22:6.

Children learn best by example. Set that example by attending the Bible believing, Christ proclaiming, church of your choice.

Come Worship Him With Us.

Bless This Mess

By Billie Wheatley

Yes Virginia, there really is a Santa Claus. Last Thursday's mail brought positive proof in the form of a neatly wrapped package. It was addressed to me in care of the news office, and it contained two packages of jar lids, a fat juicy lemon, and a letter from Santa. The dairymen will be glad to know that the box he used was a one pound container for butter. The letter is as follows:

"Dear Billie Girl: (I like that girl part)

"Thank you for your letter asking for a pea sheller. Actually this is not too much to ask for, considering your behavior, and anybody that shells as many blackeyes as you do, is entitled to something special, if not a sheller.

"However, I will let you know right now you are not going to get a sheller, for I have discovered that peas shelled in the sheller are not as good as the ones shelled by hand. And you might just ask me to eat with you on my next trip thru there.

"Now, I am forwarding to you two (2) packages of jar flats, which you unquestionably need.

"Also, I am enclosing a remedy for the 'brown-skin' or 'Green-skin' that you get on your fingers from shelling. What you do is take the lemon, cut out of the bloom end (not the stem end) a hole about the size of a quarter, and you stick said stained finger into the lemon. How long you leave it there depends on how many blackeyes you have shelled; I would recommend removing it before going to church or something like that.

"Now you be a good girl, and maybe your next Christmas you will find your sock filled with a lot of goodies.

Yours,
Santa Claus

Never let it be said that I crossed Santa Claus. If he says they're better shelled by hand then that's the way it's going to be done at my house. So who needs fingernails anyhow?

Santa, the hot sun ate up the 1st of the peas, but I've got a friend with heavily laden pear trees, so I will certainly be able to use the jar lids.

The lemon worked like a charm. I got carried away and gave a treatment to all ten, so now I look like a brown berry with white sidewalls. You are a good egg, and I thank you.

There is a little matter that we girls would like to bring to your attention while I have you on the line. You wouldn't believe some of the gifts we've been getting for Christmas. There are odd-ball things like enough paint for the house and a how-to booklet, rear tractor tires, a truck load of hay, and one year Barbara even got a pear burner. We know how hard it is to get good help these days, but this is ridiculous. Also, I want to know how come every box of candy I get is always Danny's favorite kind?

Sincerely,
Billie

P. S. Sir, do you know how many calories there are in a teaspoon of butter? It shook when he laughed like a bowl full of jelly."

MRS. BOBBY LEE
Nee Sharon McCreary

Sharon McCreary, Bobby Lee Married in Church Ceremony

Santa Anna United Methodist Church was the setting for the Saturday, August 14 wedding of Sharon McCreary and Bobby Lee. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jake McCreary of Santa Anna and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Lee of Cisco.

Rev. E. A. Sherwood, pastor of Cisco First Christian Church, and Rev. E. Richard Chaffin pastor of the Santa Anna UMC, officiated at the double ring ceremony. A wicker basket of sunflowers centered the communion table. Four multipronged candelabrum holding blue tapers and boxwood greenery formed a background for the ceremony. Votive lights and greenery decorated the altar railing, and family pews were marked with denim and rope bows.

Karen Gordon was organist for the ceremony and accompanied Dawn Echols of San Angelo, cousin of the bride, soloist, as she sang "Wedding Song."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original gown of Victorian design fashioned of unbleached domestic. Heavy ecru lace trimmed the round yoke, high neckline and wide fitted cuffs. A wide ruffle at the hemline was edged with matching lace. Her headpiece of candlelight illusion was fingertip length and edged with lace.

The bride wore a cameo pendant belonging to her grandmother, and her bouquet was an orchid surrounded by st. anthonis and baby's breath atop her grandmother's Bible.

Leslie McCreary, sister of the bride, and Caryn Lee, sister of the groom, were maid of honor and bridesmaid. They wore peasant blouses of blue patchwork print with full lace sleeves and skirts of quilted denim of A-line styling. They carried wicker baskets of sunflowers.

Tommy Lee, brother of the groom, was best man. Darrel Shortes of Cisco was groomsman. Rex Mayes of Stephenville, Frank Clabourn of Abilene and Gregg Mobley of Austin, cousin of the bride, ushered and lighted candles.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church annex. The bride's table was covered with a floor-length cloth of ecru domestic with a Quaker lace overlay. An arrangement of zinnias centered the table. The four-tier wedding cake was decorated in white and topped with a miniature bride and groom in a tiny gazebo. Blue and white mints and blue napkins completed the motif.

Mrs. Carter Housel of College Station served cake and Mrs. Rex Mayes of Stephenville ladled punch from the crystal bowl.

The groom's table was laid with a blue denim cloth edged with hemp rope. An arrangement of zinnias surrounding wrought iron cowboy figures centered the table. Mrs. Bill Martin and Cindy

The bride, a 1975 graduate of Santa Anna High School, attended Tarleton State University and will attend Cisco Junior College this fall.

Local Ladies Among Group To Palo Duro

By Mrs. John Hunter

Tuesday, August 10, at 8 a.m. a group of the Coleman Bank Ladies Club left via Continental Bus for Palo Duro to see "Texas", sponsored by the Coleman Bank. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Gaines of Coleman, (Retamay from the bank), and Mrs. Bebe Blackstock of the First Travel Service of Brownwood, and the very efficient driver, Andy Anderson of Dallas.

The group stopped for a lunch break in Lubbock, and the Lexington Motor Inn in Canyon was our "Home away from Home". We departed for Palo Duro at 5:30 p.m. and the bus tour of the canyon was "breath-taking"; before being served a barbecue supper prior to the pageant.

The Pageant was wonderful, probably the only one of that type in the world. We were told there were 1858 registered from 24 states and 11 foreign countries; the person coming the greatest distance was a man from India.

Stringer, Edna Hilton, Myra Taylor, Karen S. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lenefeld, Mattie D. Rogers, Doris Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George Cobb, Mrs. Theatus LeMay, Mrs. Adde Adams, all of Coleman.

A memory candle was lighted at the close of the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candelight gown of silk organza styled with Empire bodice highlighted by a sheer yoke of Venise lace. Accenting the bodice and wide cuffs of the full bishop sleeves were tiny pears, hand-beaded on the gown by the bride's grandmother. The full A-line skirt was trimmed in a flounce effect terminating in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was edged in Belgium lace and attached to a Juliet cap encrusted with seed pearls. Mrs. McCaughan Feted on B-Day

The family of Mrs. J. L. McCaughan met here last weekend for a reunion to celebrate her 91st birthday. A highlight of the occasion was an airplane ride with Lonnie Ricks of Del Rio, the husband of a great-granddaughter.

Those present for the get-together represented five generations. They included Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McCaughan of Fort Worth, and Mrs. Sharon Ragsdale of Fort Worth, Mrs. Betty Ann Henderson, Elizabeth and Lonnie Ricks, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Henderson, all of Del Rio, and Diana Henderson of San Antonio, and Mrs. Fern Hoke and the honoree of Santa Anna.

The David Karthouser family of Fort Worth will be here this weekend at the T. J. McCaughan home for a belated celebration.

Mrs. McCaughan was born at Star in Mills County. She and her late husband came to Santa Anna in 1917, settling at the place she still lives.

Berries, grapes and cherries may be refrigerated unwashed and unstemmed. Just before using, wash them quickly with cold water.
