Mountain Echoes

By

Barbara Kingsbery

The Thursday rainstorm also had high winds and some hail, but very little damage was reported in our area.

Hailstones the size of marbles were in drifts along the streets for several hours after the storm.

The only damage in the area was at a place belonging to John Hensley southwest of Santa Anna where a hay barn was blown from its foundation by a twister or high winds.

bk

The Santa Anna one-act play was interrupted during the presentation Thursday night, and the thunder and lightning were appropriate for the drama about ghosts and spirits.

Someone added the comment that the sound effects were especially good for the play.

In The Home

And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates. Deut. 6:9.

From the earliest times the faithful in Israel had given much attention to the matter of education. The Lord had directed that the children, even from babyhood, should be taught of His goodness and His greatness, especially as revealed in His law and shown in the history of Israel. Through song and prayer, and lessons from the Scriptures, adapted to the opening mind, fathers and mothers were to instruct their children that the law of God is an expression of His character, and that as they received the principles of the law into the heart, the image of God was traced on mind and soul.

If it was essential for Moses to embody the commandments in sacred song, so that as they marched in the wilderness, the children could learn to sing the law verse by verse, how essential it is at this time to teach our children God's Word!

True happiness in this life and in the future life depends upon obedience to a "Thus saith the Lord"... Let Christ's life be the pattern. Satan will devise every possible means to break down this high standard of piety as one altogether too strict. It is your work to impress upon your children in their early years the thought that they are formed in the image of God. Christ came to this world to give them a living example of what they all must be, and parents who claim to believe the truth for this time are to teach their children to love God and to obey His law. This is the greatest and most important work that fathers and mothers can do.

The great reformatory movement must begin in the home. Obedience to God's law is the great incentive to industry, economy, truthfulness, and just dealing between man and man.

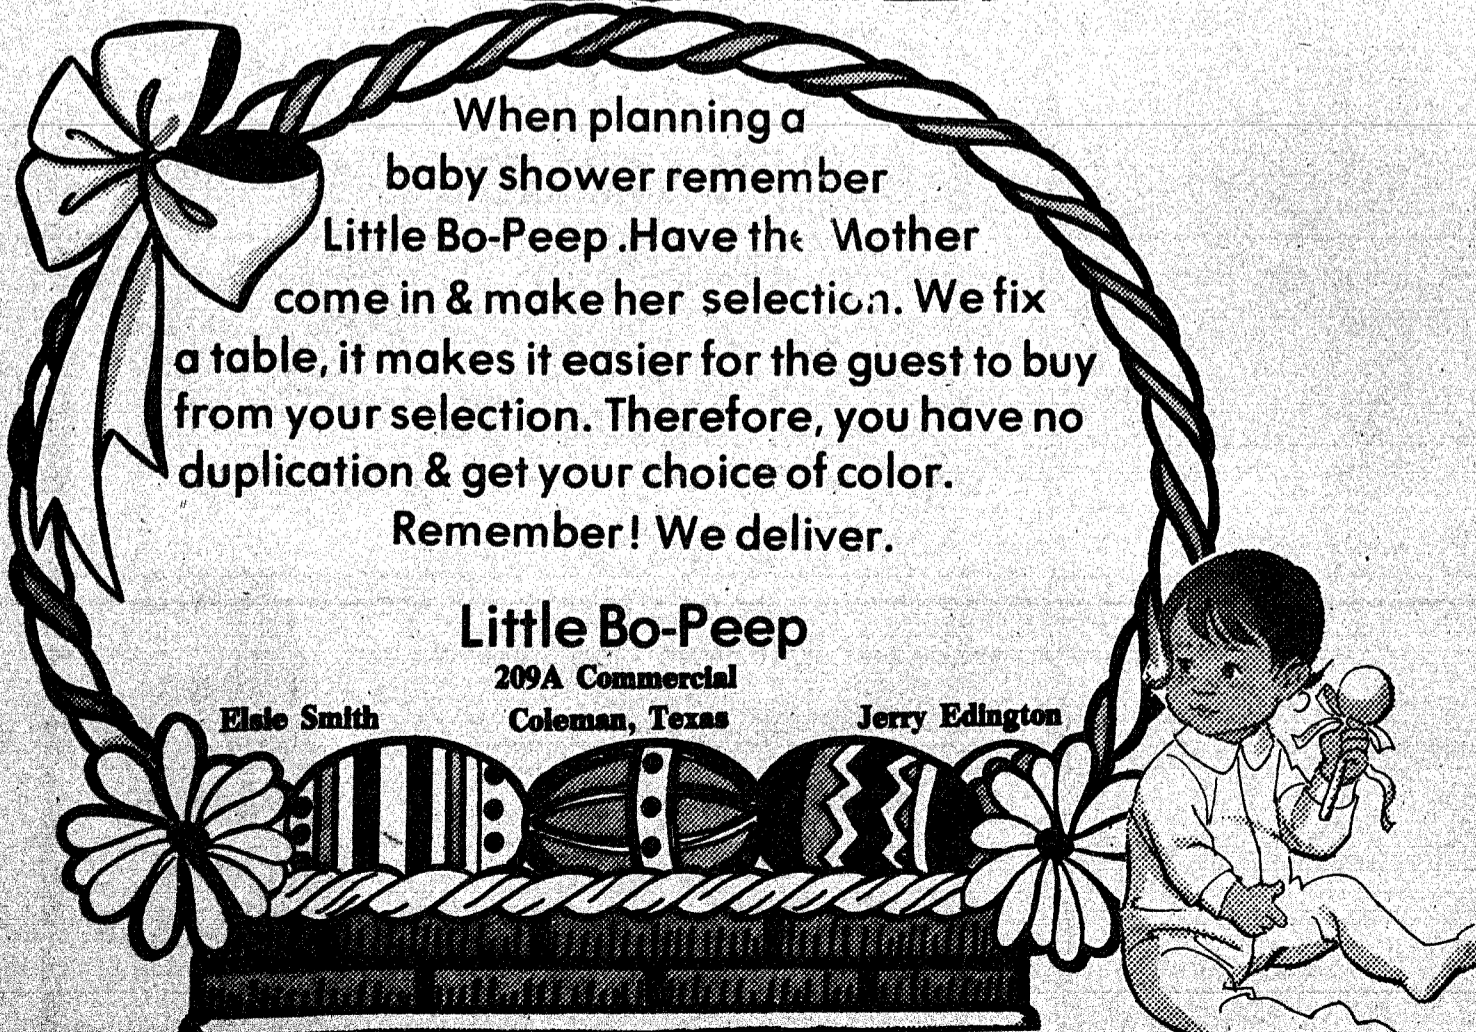

A noble, all-round manhood does not come by chance. It is the result of the molding process of character building in the early years of youth, and a practice of the law of God in the home.

Trickham News

By Mrs. Oscar Boenicke

The Fifth Sunday Singing here at Trickham Sunday evening was very good, with so many good singers from so many places here. It sounded like a convention singing. Joe Stacy had charge of it and he does a good job. We always enjoy the Walter Newmans and the Robert Arnolds, and Jo Grant helped out with singing and playing the piano, and several other ladies helped out too. So many good singers I could not name them all. Also had a good crowd out to hear the singing. I am sure that makes the singers want to sing better.

Next Sunday will be Easter Sunday and Rev. Franklin Swanner will preach at 11 a.m.

Sunday, April 13, will be the annual Cemetery Meeting and Homecoming. There will be special music, the memorial sermon at 11 a.m. at the church with Rev. Howell Martin as speaker, and a short business meeting will follow. A basket lunch will be served at noon at the Community Center, and there will be visiting and singing in the afternoon at the church. Make plans to come and meet with friends and neighbors.

Visitors with the Howell Martins Sunday included Lyncall Moore who had dinner with them, and LaVerne McClatchy and daughter Jeanie Dreinhofer visited Sunday evening.

Mrs. Vera Shield of Santa Anna and her daughter, Anelle Clark of Wisconsin, and her daughter, Judy Adolphson and Sarah of Seattle, Wash. had dinner with the Oscar Boenickes Wednesday and visited with us. Judy and Sarah left Monday for their home by plane, and Anelle will be with her mother through April for a visit.

Bernice McIver visited us Saturday morning.

Dr. Norman Fry's mother, Mrs. Fry, and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Evert Shipp of Midland, are here at the Fry home. The Shipp's will be here until Wednesday, and Norman and Sara Fry and Susan and Jeff of Midland will be here Thursday. Also her brother, Robert and Jeanie Garner and son of Dallas will be here over the Easter weekend.

Lou Vaughn and Oma Lee Dockery went to Bangs Sunday to Mary Ola and Elmer Woods' to a birthday dinner. Also H. B. and Ernestine Dockery and granddaughter of Brownwood were there.

Lea and Loyd Mock and Jennie and James of Post spent the weekend with her mother, Mary Lea Mitchell; Betty and Damon J. Miller of Austin came Saturday and will spend this week with her mother. They have a spring break from school.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Dayle Nolen who passed away with a heart attack Tuesday March 25, in Norway. He and his wife were over there for a three-year term, where he was supervisor of off-shore drilling operations for Phillips 66 Petroleum.

Dayle was raised at Trickham and attended school at Santa Anna where he graduated in 1943. On September 1, 1944 he married Juakana Vercher of the Shields Community. His burial will be April 4 at Bay City.

To The Voters

A child will inherit your world. All your work will be judged by him. Tomorrow he will earn your seat in Congress, own your company, and run your town. The future is his. Perhaps he deserves a little more of your attention now.

This is part of a definition of a child that was recently printed in a local church bulletin. Although I did not write it, it more than adequately expresses the reasons for my interest in young people.

In the weeks since I filed my application to run for the Santa Anna ISD Board of Trustees, I have been asked one question more than any other: "Why are you running?"

I have now and have always had only one reason for running. I want to do what I can to insure that every child going to our public schools has the best education possible. Personalities, prior loyalties, other problems inherent with schools -- nothing must interfere with that sole reason for a school's existence.

I urge all citizens of our school district -- as well as our city -- to exercise their civic responsibility Saturday, April 5. At this level every person's vote is important.

I appreciate your consideration. Thank you.
