We enjoy visitors at the office, and three former residents came by this week.

Freda Heallen Elliott and Jewell Heallen Kirscher of Austin, and Edna Fowler Harvey of Houston were seeking information on their late grandfather, C. A. Bivins. The ladies were reared in the Plainview community and have many friends here.

bk

There are many activities on the schedule during the final days of the school term. School will end Thursday, May 28.

Our annual graduation issue of the News will be on May 28, and advertising and information is needed next week for that special edition.

AARP Meeting Next Monday In Santa Anna

The Santa Anna-Bangs chapter, American Association of Retired Persons, will meet Monday, May 18, at the Santa Anna Methodist Church annex. Mrs. Norval Wylie, president, will lead the business meeting following the covered dish luncheon and program. All members are invited to attend the meeting.

SAHS Senior Trip Slated Next Week

The Santa Anna High School senior class will take their trip next week, spending a long weekend at New Braunfels and sightseeing in that area.

The 23 students and their sponsors will leave Thursday, and return Sunday. Faculty members to accompany the group will be Scott Beaver, Raymond Nicholas and Dean Bass.

Sports Banquet, Program Slated Next Monday Night

The annual all-sports banquet for Santa Anna junior high and high school athletes will be held Monday night, May 18, at the school cafeteria. The event is sponsored by the Booster Club to honor all school athletes and their coaches.

A ham dinner with all the trimmings will be prepared and served by members of the club, with tickets available at the door for $2.50 per person.

Highlight of the evening will be presentation of athletic awards by coaches.

Parents of all school athletes are urged to attend the banquet. Jim Spillman, Booster Club president, is general chairman of the event.

Local Students Take Part In State UIL Contests

Lori Smith and Julie Jones, Santa Anna's entry in the State Girls Tennis Tournament in Austin last weekend, were eliminated from the tourney Friday when defeated by the Thrall doubles team, the defending state champions. The Thrall girls went on to win the 1981 Class A doubles championship Saturday.

Lori and Julie defeated the team from Blue Ridge in the opening round of play Friday morning. The two Santa Anna coeds were winners of the district and regional doubles title to qualify for the state meet.

In the literary contests Saturday, Robbie Clifton tied for fourth place in the state spelling contest.

Mike Wetsel was the only other Santa Anna entry in the state meet, competing in the science contest.

Santa Anna boys will be in Austin this week for the State tourney, with Rusty Buzzard and Tommy DeLeon playing the doubles team from Nazareth and Pauley Vasquez and Junior Salazar playing the team from Happy in the opening round Friday morning.

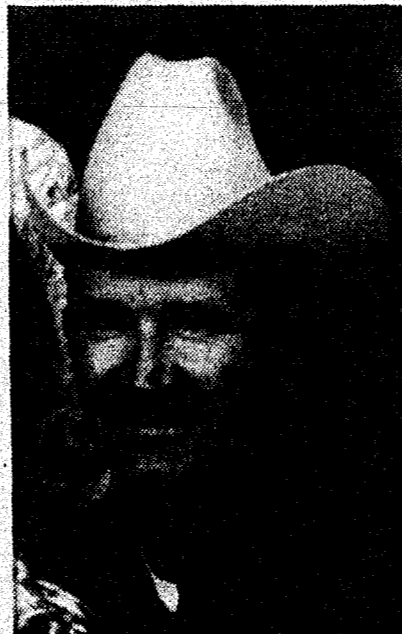

New Manager Named For Coleman County REA

James Barr, the former administrative assistant for Coleman County Electric Cooperative, Inc., of Coleman, has recently been named Manager of the organization. He was selected by the Board of Directors at a called meeting Thursday, April 30, to succeed the late Charles Newton, who served as manager for the past 32 years until his death last month.

Barr, a native of Cross Plains, joined the Electric Cooperative in 1960 in the line department and was promoted to member service director in 1966. He was named administrative assistant in 1980.

He and his wife, Jody, are parents of two children, Leslie, a student at Texas A&M University, and Jody, a Coleman High School student. Mr. Barr is active in the community, a member of Coleman Rodeo Association, Coleman County Breeder-Feeder Association, United Presbyterian Church and the Cross Plains Masonic Lodge. He and his wife have served many years as leaders in the county 4-H program.

Also promoted by the Board of

JAMES BARR

Directors at the recent meeting was Jerry Hubbard who will serve as administrative assistant. He is former office manager of the Cooperative.

The Coleman County Electric Cooperative provides electricity to rural residents in a 75-square-mile area of Coleman and six surrounding counties.

Spring Band Concert Next Tuesday Night

The Santa Anna school bands will present their annual spring concert Tuesday night, May 19, at the school auditorium at 7:30. Herbert Seale is director of the bands.

The fifth grade and sixth grade bands will be combined for the first portion of the concert. About 30 students will be in the group playing several selections.

The senior band, composed of students in grades seven through twelve, will play a varied selection of numbers. Seniors in the band are assisting with the program, choosing their favorites for the concert.

A highlight of the evening will be the announcement of the winner of the John Philip Sousa award, the outstanding band student selected by the director. Beth Rhoades was recipient of the trophy last year and will present the 1981 award.

There is no admission charge for the concert, and everyone in the community is invited to attend.

'Miss Coleman Co.' Pageant Slated Saturday, May 23

Coleman County girls who are juniors or seniors in high school are invited to enter the "Miss Coleman County" beauty pageant to be held in Coleman Saturday, May 23. The event will be at the Coleman High School auditorium.

Missy Wilson, the reigning Miss Coleman County, will be mistress of ceremonies and crown the 1981 winner.

S-Anna Student Receives Award

Robert Key, a senior student at Southwest Texas State University, was recently recognized at the annual University Awards Program. He was given the academic excellence award from the Department of Physics.

The award was given students who had achieved a grade point average of 3.75 or above.

The awards were given to 215 students in the Science Department, including fields of biology, chemistry, physics, mathematics and computer science.

Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Key of Santa Anna.

Participants will be interviewed by a panel of judges preceding the pageant. During the pageant the girls will model sports wear and evening gowns.

Entry blanks are available at the Coleman Chamber of Commerce office or will be available from the high schools in the county.

SUNDAY SPEAKER

Dr. Clyde Majors of Howard Payne University will be speaker at the May 17 and 24 services at United Presbyterian Church. Members and friends are invited to attend the 11 a.m. services.

ESA Plans Activities For Coming Months

The Delta Omicron chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha met Monday, May 11, at the home of Vikki Wristen.

During the business session, the recipient of the ESA scholarship was selected, with the winner to be announced at graduation.

The group voted to donate $50 to the summer swim program, and to have a booth at the "Back to School" carnival in August. Lois Ann Harper, Nikki Donham and Patti Musick were named to the committee.

It was announced Margie McCrary was winner of the $50 in gasoline, a fund raising project of the group.

At the close of the meeting the hostess served refreshments to the ones mentioned and also Sylvia Brewster, Ramona Myers, Bernidine Watson, Pam Morgan, Kathy Alexander, Gayle Stewardson, Sharon Greenlee, Cherry McCarrell, Susie Voss, Kay Thompson, Geneva Garrett, Gail Horner, Sarah Beal, Coyita Bowker and Sharon Goodwin.

Mrs. Harper Club President

Lois Ann Harper was elected president of the Band Booster Club at the Monday, April 27, meeting of the group. She succeeds Polly Warnock who served during the current school year.

Other new officers are Jim Spillman, vice president; Sandy Clifton, secretary; and Geneva Garrett, treasurer.

Parents of all band students are urged to attend a called meeting Thursday, May 15, (tonight) at the Band Hall. Fund raising projects for the new year will be discussed.

Martha Group Has Meeting

The Martha group of the United Methodist Church met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Mae Blue with Mrs. Opal Little assisting hostess. Mrs. Gladys Hunter opened the meeting, Mrs. Xuma Myers read the minutes of previous meeting, which were approved. Treasurer, Mrs. Bill Griffin, is ill in Abilene Hospital. Cards were sent to ill members.

Mrs. Blue and Mrs. Lucile Smith gave the program on Language, A Reflection of Right Relationships. Members gave scripture readings. The Rev. Mike Alexander gave the closing prayer.

The hostesses served frosted punch, cake and orange balls to the above mentioned and Ruby Harper, Willard Cheaney, Ora

Hunter, E. Lee Harper and Ethel Williams, and one visitor, Mrs. Bettie Henderson.

By Mrs. Tom Rutherford

Hello, folks. Here I am again after a few weeks absence. Two of the weeks were spent in Hendrick Hospital in Abilene, which was everything except a vacation. But no one could help that, even me.

Early on Tuesday morning, April 21, I was assisting Tom with cows, and fell in the cow lot, breaking my left hip. The pain and suffering has been very severe, but at present am recovering real good.

A big special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Graham Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Janie Morris who came to our rescue so quickly at the time, and Walker Ambulance was with us so soon, and such wonderful service until I was in my room in Hendrick Hospital. Dear ones, this has been a wonderful reminder to me that we cannot get by in life without friends and neighbors. Some time in everyone's life something may probably happen (I hope it doesn't) to bring us to our knees and realize we have to have help from others. People were so nice while I was away, and for this we say thanks.

Also each one who has made the pain and suffering easier to bear, with visits, telephone calls, and so many beautiful cards and thoughtfulness in so many ways. And thanks to each one who remembered me in prayer. I wish I knew more just what to say. That would really make you feel my thanks to each one, and I love you dearly, and I do really hope you will never go through the pain of breaking a hip or bone.

Mrs. Lily Fox of Santa Anna reports she had a nice Mother's Day telephone visit with her sister, Mrs. Genella (Floyd) Miller in Utah on Sunday. Mrs. Miller was feeling reasonably well, but was muchly touched over receiving a Mother's Day greeting from her sister in Texas. Mrs. Miller is the mother of one son who recently lost his life to cancer.

Mrs. Bean Radle of Santa Anna visited Friday with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Nicky Poldrack, who during the past week moved from Coleman to Brownwood.

Our daughter, Mrs. Bob (Patsy) Smith of Abilene came home with us Tuesday afternoon and was with us until Saturday. She will return this week for future stay with us.

Loyd Rutherford and Todd of Bangs were with us Saturday assisting with the work. Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Rutherford of Coleman were with us Sunday, and brought everything and made ice cream. We talked by phone with our son, Thomas in New Hampshire and daughter, Mrs. Rick (Lynda) Wheeler in La Grange. Our son-in-law, Rick, was back to his doctor in Pasadena Monday of last week and received a good report, but will be in a cast until the middle of July from foot surgery.

We are awfully sorry to report Franke Wells was rushed to Santa Anna Hospital about 4 a.m. Sunday morning very ill. But so glad on Monday his wife reports he is feeling better and resting.

Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cooper of Rockwood for coming by one morning and bringing us a nice meal of fish. Thanks so much. Others visiting this week have been Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morris and Jennifer, Etoile Cozart of Brownwood, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Grote and girls.

Mr. and Mrs. John Berry and James Thomas of Abilene were Mother's Day guests with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Vinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Fitzpatrick and his sister, Mrs. Katie Holomon of Grand Prairie, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Neal Fitzpatrick and Josylin in Odessa. Mr. and Mrs. Jacky Bullion and Michelle of O'Donnell met them there and all enjoyed Josylin's second birthday. Mrs. Holomon returned home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Fitzpatrick and Brandon of Crandell were here on the Fitzpatrick farm during the weekend. The Don Fitzpatricks will soon be moving to Santa Anna.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Fitzpatrick were transacting business in Abilene Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Lee Abernathy visited Mrs. Tom Rutherford Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Perkins of Arlington visited during the past week with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morris.

Mrs. Jacky Morris and children, Jennifer and Jeffery of Santa Anna, were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morris.

Mrs. Lily Fox received word this Tuesday that her sister, Mrs. Floyd (Genella) Miller, 82, of Vernal, Utah died at 3 a.m. She was admitted to the Vernal

Whiteface Bands Have Good Record

The bands at Whiteface, directed by Ben Hill, have had a successful year, with the fifth grade band winning division I ratings in concert playing and sight reading at contests recently. The seventh and eighth grade group received division I in concert and II in sight reading in the contests.

At the solo and ensemble contests earlier in the spring, 79 first division medals were won by the Whiteface band students.

Mr. Hill is in his first year at the school, having been band director at Santa Anna for three years.

The Renewed Heart Loves as Christ Loved

A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. John 13:34.

Jesus says, "Love one another as I have loved you." Love is not simply an impulse, a transitory emotion, dependent upon circumstances; it is a living principle, a permanent power. The soul is fed by the streams of pure love that flow from the heart of Christ, as a well-spring that never fails. O, how is the heart quickened, how are its motives ennobled, its affections deepened, by this communion!

Under the education and discipline of the Holy Spirit, the children of God love one another, truly, sincerely, unaffectedly, -- "without partiality, and without hypocrisy." And this because the heart is in love with Jesus. Our affection for one another springs from our common relation to God. We are one family, we love one another as He loved us. When compared with this true, sanctified, disciplined affection, the shallow courtesy of the world, the meaningless expression of effusive friendship, are as chaff to the wheat.

To love as Christ loved means to manifest unselfishness at all times and in all places, by kind words and pleasant looks... Genuine love is a precious attribute of heavenly origin, which increases its fragrance in proportion as it is dispensed to others....

Christ's love is deep and earnest, flowing like an irrepressible stream to all who will accept it. There is no selfishness in His love. If this heaven-born love is an abiding principle in the heart, it will make itself known, not only to those we hold most dear in sacred relationship, but to all with whom we come in contact. It will lead us to bestow little acts of attention, to make concessions, to perform deeds of kindness, to speak tender, true, encouraging words. It will lead us to sympathize with those whose hearts hunger for sympathy.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM C. MANKIN

Miss Dudley, Mr. Mankin Wed in Comanche April 25

Glenna Gale (Gigi) Dudley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dudley of Comanche, became the bride of William Clayton Mankin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mankin of Comanche, Saturday, April 25, in a ceremony at Comanche First United Methodist Church. The Rev. John Lukert officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Glenn Haynes of Comanche, formerly of Trickham, and Mrs. Sutton Dudley of Comanche. The groom is the grandson of Ollie Mankin of Comanche and E. R. Kinser of Ozona.

The double ring ceremony was performed before the communion table which held an open Bible and brass candle. Other altar decorations included a large brass candelabra holding votive candles and two brass spiral candelabra with votive candles, all entwined with ivy and miniature blue and white flowers. Baskets holding palm trees flanked the altar.

Vicky Froh of San Marcos provided wedding music.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white Victorian lace gown designed with a fitted lace bodice and self-covered buttons closing the deep lace cuffs of the full sleeves.

The bride wore a garland of white silk flowers in her hair and a diamond drop necklace, a gift of her parents, and diamond ear rings belonging to her mother. She also wore an onyx and diamond ring that belonged to her grandmother, Mrs. Haynes. Her bridal bouquet was of daisies, white roses, blue miniature carnations and stephanotis, surrounding a cymbidium orchid.

Jo Lane Dudley was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a pale blue gown and carried a bouquet of carnations, white daisies, roses and fern.

Mike Mankin of Abilene, brother of the groom, was best man.

After the wedding, a reception was held in the parlor of the church. The bride's table was laid with a floor-length cutwork cloth and centered with the bouquets of the bride and her attendant.

Frosted fruit punch was served with the three-tiered wedding cake from an antique crystal punch bowl.

The groom's parents hosted a buffet dinner at their home for the wedding party and members of the family on the day of the wedding.

After a wedding trip to Lake LBJ at Kingsland, the couple will reside at Crestview Apartments in Comanche.

Santa Annans' Grandson To State Track Meet

Scotty Walker, the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hartman of Santa Anna and Mrs. Violet Walker of Coleman, formerly of Santa Anna, will represent Bangs High School at the State UIL Track Meet in Austin this weekend. He is entered in the 1600 meter (mile) run, having placed second in the regional track meet last month.

A junior at Bangs High School, Scotty also participates in football and basketball. The 1600 meter run is his only event, having entered last year and placing third in the regional meet, just missing a berth in the state meet.

Scotty is the only Bangs student to qualify for the state meet and the only one from the central Texas area in the Class AA contests.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker of Bangs.
