

Prosperity Is Seen For Next Six Years

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21. (AP)—Good times for the next six years are foreseen by Agriculture Department economists.

Even if a moderate recession should come, they regard living standards as sure to remain far above the 1935-39 level.

The economists have set forth their views in an unofficial report prepared for field workers and state agricultural extension workers in advising farmers on future crop operations.

This document—based on the assumption of a relatively stable peace—says that full employment during some and perhaps all years between now and 1955 is a distinct possibility, notwithstanding the likelihood of additional postwar adjustments.

"If the adjustment is relatively mild, centering in prices with little interruption to production, the chances for an extended period of full employment are good," said the report.

Under such conditions, it added, employment would be maintained close to 1948 levels and might even increase slightly in line with population increases.

The economists figure that under conditions of high employment, spending power would be as high as in 1948. But with a prospect of lower prices, this amount of money actually might buy 10 per cent more goods and services than this year and 50 per cent more than in the prewar period.

In the case of a recession—with 10 per cent fewer jobs and incomes down 25 per cent—total purchasing power would be down only about 5 per cent, they say.

This is because prices might drop as much as 20 per cent.

However, the per capita buying power still would be about one-third higher than in 1935-39, when unemployment was of comparable size.

"It is not expected," the economists state, "that the general level of prices would return to prewar levels."

Their reasoning on this point is that wage rates have doubled since 1939 and are relatively inflexible in business downturns.

Officials Say New Greek Aid To Be Needed

Military Drive Will Depend On More Funds

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21. Officials said today the Greek military aid program almost certainly will have to be extended another year.

That would mean asking Congress for new funds to finance a second Greek army offensive next spring against the country's Communist-led guerrillas.

State Department and military authorities are engaged in a re-survey of the whole Greek situation.

Recent Washington and Athens reports have said variously that the American-supported effort to secure Greece against Communist expansion: (a) So far has been a "conspicuous success" and (b) has not proven entirely satisfactory.

One fact which persons of both viewpoints here appear to agree upon is that the task first outlined by President Truman to Congress early last year is not completed and more money, barring some unexpected break, will have to be asked of Congress at the next session.

Estimates are not yet ready, but some informants said a "wild guess" is that the Greeks may need about the same amount of help next year as they are getting this year.

For the 12 months which began July 1 they are receiving between $150 and $175 million out of the $225 million fund which Congress appropriated for military aid to both Greece and Turkey.

The conflict in reports on the Greek situation began early this month when President Truman reported to Congress on the results of the aid program up to last June 30.

While he said much hard fighting remained, Mr. Truman's letter dated Oct. 4 said the program had proved a "conspicuous success" in the meeting of the military and economic crisis of the strategic Eastern Mediterranean country.

About the same time press dispatches from Athens said there were more guerrillas operating in Greece than were believed to have been there when the Greek army started its big offensive in the Grammos Mountain area last April.

Big Five In Favor Of Try For Peace

FRENCH MINERS BUILD BARRICADE — Miners in the Roche La Moliere area of France rip up an iron railing to build a barricade as the French government massed 6,000 troops in the St. Etienne sector to combat what it labeled a campaign of "sabotage." The crippling mine strike, now in its third week, has cost France more than 2,000,000 tons of fuel. (AP Wirephoto via radio from Paris.)

Neutrals Polish A New Formula On Berlin Crisis

Dulles Pledges Renewed Work For Agreement

PARIS, Oct. 21. (AP)—The Five Big powers declared themselves today in favor of settling their differences peacefully.

While the security council's six neutrals polished their new formula for settling the Berlin crisis, the "Big Five" announced support of a Mexican resolution appealing to them to settle their differences.

John Foster Dulles of the United States, in his first speech at this UN session, pledged "renewed efforts" to reach agreement with the other big powers.

Dulles agreed with the Mexican proposal that the great powers had a special responsibility to the world as a result of their strength and importance.

The political committee would up debate on the Mexican proposal in a rare atmosphere of friendship and conciliation. Everybody agreed on the Mexican resolution and it was sent to a drafting subcommittee for preparation of a final text.

Informed sources agreed meanwhile that the neutral formula for solving the Berlin crisis had at least a slim chance of success.

An official American spokesman told a news conference the new compromise was "acceptable" and "satisfactory."

He added a warning, however, against too much optimism until the Russian attitude became known.

The plan was submitted to the big four powers last night and will be presented to the Security Council as a draft resolution tomorrow.

Neutrals sources said the resolution provided for:

1. An appeal to the four powers to make no move which might lead to war.
2. A call to Russia to lift the Berlin blockade.
3. The four powers to put into action the Moscow pact making the Soviet-sponsored mark Berlin's sole currency under four-power control.
4. Raising the blockade within 48 hours after approval of the resolution. The Foreign Ministers Council to meet immediately afterward to discuss all German problems.

The proposal, climaxing two weeks of behind-the-scenes maneuvering won qualified acceptance as a basis for discussion from both sides.

Russian Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei V. Vishinsky was reported by one neutral source to have given his conditional approval to the plan. There was no confirmation of this from the Soviet delegation or any other source, but Vishinsky agreed to send the draft to Moscow for study.

Schools Spark Chest Drive Up To $14,000

Prompt response to appeals in Big Spring schools brought encouragement to Community Chest officials today as total contributions reached $14,000.

Jo Hestand, president of the Big Spring classroom teachers association is supervising the contact work in the schools. All pledge cards for teachers are being processed through the school division, and envelopes for personal contributions are being distributed to all pupils. A number of the envelopes containing contributions already had reached Chest headquarters this morning.

A special meeting has been set for 5 p. m. Friday in the Settles to intensify plans for pushing the drive to early completion. All members of the Chest organization and board members of all participating agencies are being urged to attend the session. They will review progress made in the drive and attempt to develop even closer coordination in efforts to quicken the tempo.

Reports from various divisions now active in canvass work were still being received this morning. However, R. L. Tollet, Community Chest chairman, urged all workers to speed the process even more if possible, since prompt reports are essential if up to date tabulations are to be maintained at the headquarters in the Empire Southern Gas Co. office.

Today's headquarters report had not been completed at noon, but it was apparent that contributions on hand attained the $14,000 mark.

TEL AVIV, Israel, Oct. 21. (AP)—Beersheba, mother city of the Arab race, was occupied today by Israeli forces after a bitter battle, a Jewish army spokesman announced. The battle raged even as a Jewish cabinet notified the United Nations its troops would quit the fighting in the Negev Desert area of Southern Palestine 12 hours after it was assured by the United Nations that the Egyptians also would cease fire.

The fighting will continue meanwhile, a spokesman said. He indicated Gaza, capital of the Palestine government proclaimed by the Arabs, was among the goals of the Israeli southern offensive.

Egyptian planes bombed the Tel Aviv area today, only a few hours after Israel's decision on the cease fire.

Beersheba, in South Palestine, was the southernmost extremity of the Holy Land of Bible days.

The city is on the borderland of the southern desert area. The name means "Seven Wells." It was reputed to be the scene of the digging of the wells by Abraham and Isaac, as recorded in Genesis. Abraham is called the father of the Semitic races.

Beersheba was one of the first cities occupied by the Egyptians in their invasion of the Holy Land, and had been reported by the Cairo press at the time as "captured."

Israel's seizure of the city opens the road to two Jewish settlements which were isolated since early in the year. They are Biet Ishel and Nevatim.

The Israeli air force raked Gaza and Egyptian towns held by the Egyptians. Their planes also struck at Beersheba ahead of Jewish ground forces, bombing and strafing Egyptian forces. Arabs fled to the hills under the attacks.

One of the towns evacuated by the Arabs and now controlled by the Jews is Beit Natif, 10 miles west of Bethlehem on the Egyptian supply route to forces manning the southern front at Jerusalem.

Israelis do not yet occupy Beit Natif but they have taken the heights around it and thus undermined Egyptian positions facing southern Jerusalem, an army source said.

Plane Crash In Scotland Fatal To 37

PRESTWICH, Scotland, Oct. 21. (AP)—A flaming Royal Dutch Airlines Constellation crashed in a cow pasture near here today, killing 37 of the 40 persons aboard. Nine of the dead were Americans.

The three survivors all were Dutch. One American died of her injuries several hours after the crash.

The huge four-engine plane, en route from Amsterdam, burst into flames after it struck a high-tension wire while groping for fog-shrouded Prestwick Airport. It crashed near Tarbolton, a few miles outside of Prestwick.

The pilot radioed the control tower at the field:

"I have hit something. I am going on fire. Attempting to climb."

Nothing more was heard from the plane.

Identification of the victims, some burned beyond recognition, had not been completed by mid-morning. Only six persons got out of the flaming wreck alive and three of them died a few hours later of burns and other injuries.

The three survivors were reported seriously injured.

Two of the 40 persons aboard apparently jumped out seconds before the plane plunged into the pasture.

One body was found a mile from the wreckage.

The wreckage of the plane was smoldering hours after the crash. An eyewitness said one dead woman clutched the body of a child. Both were burned almost beyond recognition.

PROSECUTORS SEE SECRECY AS BEST

PEIPING, Oct. 21. (AP)—Next time government black market prosecutors will move in secret.

They made no bones about their intention to arrest a P-51 fighter pilot for blackmarketeering at Peiping's south field. They headed out to the field to arrest the pilot.

But a friend telephoned the pilot who jumped into his fighter plane and headed for Communist headquarters in Hopei Province.

Loss to the government—one pilot and one expensive plane.

French Coal Mines Flooded, Set Afire

PARIS, Oct. 21. (AP)—A force of 1,000 striking coal miners beat back police and were reported to have wounded 30 of them in a 15-minute battle today for the Ricard Mine near La Grand-combe, in south central France.

PARIS, Oct. 21. (AP)—Ten French coal mines have been flooded and one set afire by the neglect of strikers, the interior ministry charged today. There were reports of new clashes between police and pickets as the police used tear gas in clearing the way to pitheads. Violence was said to have erupted again at the Combefort Mine near St. Steinne and at La Grandcombe in South Central France. More troops rushed to trouble spots in that section.

The strike began Oct. 4. Violence flared this week when Communist union leaders ordered maintenance crews to abandon mine pumps and ventilators.

The flooded mines are in Central and South Central France. In the north, where two-thirds of the country's coal is found, the mines are dry. But there the neglect of mine security services has created the danger of coal-damp explosions.

The striking General Confederation of Labor claims to represent 90 per cent of France's 335,000 miners. It is demanding that the government withdraw a decree to fire 10 per cent of the mines' surface workers as an economy measure.

It also wants the minimum wage lifted to 15,000 francs ($50) a month. Thus far the strike has cost France over 2½ million tons of coal.

Sixty to 80 truckloads of soldiers have been dispatched to the St. Etienne sector, where 50 persons were injured yesterday in a clash between strikers, troops and police.

Strikers dug in behind barricades fronting the St. Etienne mines, ready to battle any government attempt to seize the pits.

AUSTIN, Aug. 21. (AP)—The Johnsons had a day of it in county court here.

When the jury panel was drawn from the jury wheel, 13 Johnsons were on the list. After several were excused or did not show up, there were still seven, including two with the same initials, E. W.

When a six-man jury was finally chosen, the Johnsons were still in the saddle. It included D. W. Johnson, David Johnson and Chester Johnson.

Train Mishap Injures 65

GARDEN CITY, Kas., Oct. 21. (AP)—At least 65 persons were injured this morning when the Santa Fe's eastbound California Limited was derailed three miles east of Mansfield Junction.

No deaths were reported.

Ten of the 12-car train left the rails.

The baggage car was split open like a ripe melon and mail sacks were thrown over a nearby field. Ambulances sped injured from the wreck to St. Catherine's Hospital here. About 15 were reported seriously injured.

Engineer W. R. Henry, Pueblo, who was not injured, said he felt a bump and the emergency went on the diesel power off.

The big diesel ripped up several hundred yards of rails but did not leave the road bed. It is believed the rear trucks of the first diesel unit left the rail and tearing up the track as the diesel slithered forward.

Brakeman Earl Gentry of La Junta reported finding a broken rail which is believed to have caused the wreck.

Conductor Ed Marshall said about 130 passengers were aboard.

Warren Forced Back To Miami

FORT WORTH, Oct. 21. (AP)—Mechanical troubles developing 100 miles out of Miami, Fla., forced Gov. Earl Warren and his party of 25 to turn back after their regular 7:15 departure schedule this morning.

The trouble was attributed to an oil line leak, airline officials said.

The party departed at 9:47 in another American Airlines flagship, due to arrive here at 3:30 this afternoon. Gov. Warren will still make his speech and radio time is being arranged.

Present plans call for the Republican vice-presidential candidate's plane to land at the Municipal Airport here for a 30-minute stop.

Henry Zweifel, state GOP chairman, said "Gov. Warren will discuss the strong stand of the Republican Party on the tidelands issue."

Fire Danger Still Remains In Oil Well

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 21. (AP)—A danger of fire still remains in Shreveport where workmen are trying to cap a blown natural gas well.

Workers expect momentarily to get a new valve in place atop the well, but natural gas from the well already has filled an area of about four square blocks. Firemen remain on the alert.

The well, which at one time produced 500 barrels of oil a day, had played out and operators were pulling casing when the structure erupted Monday with a mixture of oil, gas and salt water spray.

Cooks Calls Parley Of Oil Committee

R. L. Cook, chairman of the chamber of commerce oil committee, has called a special meeting for that group to be held at 4 p. m. Friday in the Settles.

In addition to regular committee members, other persons interested in the petroleum industry have been extended invitations to attend the session. Plans will be made for a county-wide celebration to honor officials of the Seaboard Oil Co., developers of the Vealmoor pool, and other members of the oil fraternity in this area.

FOOD COSTS DOWN SECOND WEEK

Consumer Gets Price Break

By The Associated Press

The consumer is getting a break on food prices for the second consecutive week.

Food indexes which declined a week ago showed no inclination to rise this week. And from various sectors of the food industry come indications that the peak may have been seen at least for the time being.

It may seem to cost more than ever to feed your family. But the American Institute of Food Distribution says average retail prices of cost of living foods are getting down to within 3 to 4 per cent of a year ago. This compares with a spread of 12 per cent on July 15.

Meat is the most noticeable item on which prices have declined. The American Meat Institute in Chicago said meat prices have dropped 7 per cent in the past several weeks.

Butter has moved down, too. From an average of around 85 cents a pound retail in New York

Odd Items Sought For Fair Display By Sorority Unit

Miscellaneous items, provided there are enough of them, may be exhibited during the Howard County Fair Oct. 28-30.

Leatrice Ross, chairman of the institutional division, said Friday that the Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority would sponsor a miscellaneous booth, particularly for youngsters who would like things which they have done themselves. She had in mind handicraft, sketches and paintings, scissor work, etc. Those interested should contact her at phone 1500.

As work at the fair grounds was pressed, Lloyd Wooten, general fair superintendent, said that volunteer workers were being asked to report at the easternmost building at the fair today at 7:30 p. m. They will attack the job of cleaning up this building and putting it into shape for the livestock, poultry and other exhibits slated to be held in it.

Margaret Christie and Durward Lewter, county home demonstration and farm agents, were busy contacting rural constituents for displays of home-making and general agriculture items.

Clay Says Koch Crimes Did Not Warrant Term

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21. (AP)—Gen. Lucius Clay said today he cut the life sentence of Ise Koch to four years imprisonment because the trial record did not warrant a life sentence. He said the cut was not an act of clemency or generosity.

"My judgment may be wrong but it is in accordance with my conscience," Clay said.

Clay, American commander in Germany, discussed the case at a news conference.

He said his examination of the trial record and reports from his lawyers showed that the charges against the widow of a former Nazi concentration camp commander were based on "hearsay and not on actual evidence."

REVOLT UNDER CONTROL Koreans Closing In On Insurgents

SEOUL, Oct. 21. (AP)—Korean army units closed in on insurgents in the southern mountains tonight, and a high source predicted a quick end to the revolt.

Within 48 hours, the government source predicted, 1,300 rebels in the mountains will be captured. And in four days or less the cities of Yosu, southern springboard of the insurrection, and Suncheon, will be retaken by the government, he said.

The cabinet of President Syngman Rhee, in a four-hour session, lifted martial law in all of the republic except Northern and Southern Cholla provinces.

A U. S. offer of additional material was rejected by the cabinet, the government source said, on the grounds the situation is under control.

Loyal troops sealed off the rebels on the southern end of the peninsula by quick action. Army units moved on the insurgents from four directions and blocked escape by sea from the harbor of Yosu.

Spreading from Yosu yesterday, the insurgents swept through Suncheon, 20 miles northward, and moved on Namwon, 30 miles beyond. Between the two points a loyal force intercepted some of the rebels and put them to flight after a fight.

Near Namwon the insurgent force split. Its strength was estimated at 4,000 after the original rioters were joined by freed Communist prisoners and some civilians—some of the rebels, carrying Red flags, reportedly took to the hills near Namwon and another segment headed toward Kwangju, capital of South Cholla Province.

Prime Minister Lee Bum Suk said 400 soldiers and policemen had been killed and that several women were raped by the insurgents.

Commercial Chick Hatching Drops

AUSTIN, Oct. 21. (AP)—Commercial hatching of chicks in Texas reached a figure of 1,500,000 last month, 17 per cent below September production the previous year, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported today.

During this season of the year, the bulk of the hatch is for broiler production, and demand for chicks was very strong, the reporting agency said.

The average price per 100 for straight run chicks on Oct. 1 was $15.55 for heavy breeds; $14.50 for light breeds; and $15 for cross-bred chicks.

Texas farm flocks laid 172 million eggs in September compared with 174 million in September a year earlier, but the rate of lay at 9.4 eggs per hen was more than last year's 9.1.

One of them, former Gov. Dan Moody, said he had not heard from the investigator, nor had he been notified when he would arrive here.

Stevenson was at his ranch in Kimble County.

Yesterday he asked for a senate investigation of the primary in which he trailed Johnson by 87 votes in the official tally. The announcement that an unnamed investigator has been sent to Austin came from Nelson B. Deranian, chief counsel of the senate rules committee's subcommittee on elections.

Typing Slated For A Master Blood File Here

Typing for the master blood file will begin Wednesday evening, it was announced today.

Under sponsorship of the Knights of Pythias, the program is directed at securing a master file of blood types for use at all local hospitals in event of emergencies.

The K-P lodge is bearing expenses and there is no charge for blood typing. Carl Gross, at Malone & Hogan, has set aside Wednesday of each week from 5:30 to 7 p. m.

It was stressed that the blood type file not only for protection in securing donors quickly, but also for the individual's protection.

Every person typed will be asked if they will give or sell blood in emergencies. If they do not desire to do so, there might be occasion for them to be on the receiving end.

"So," Gross pointed out, "the thing could work in reverse. It might be helpful for every individual to have his blood type on file."

Name, address, phone number, age, sex and blood type will be noted on the cards, along with yes or no answers to whether blood is available for donation or otherwise. One copy will be filed alphabetically and the other by blood types. Then each of the local hospitals will be given copies of the cards so that their files may be current and complete.

Declares Reds Block Election

BERLIN, Oct. 21. (AP) - Col Frank L. Howley, U. S. commandant of Berlin, accused his Russian counterpart today of blocking city-wide elections to save the Communists from "overwhelming defeat and condemnation."

Prospects for an all-Berlin city election, scheduled Dec. 5, faded with an announcement by the Soviet commandant of conditions which must be met before he will agree to citywide voting.

The Soviet commandant, Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, laid down the conditions in a letter to Berlin's acting mayor, who had asked approval of election procedures similar to that already extended by the Western Powers.

Howley commented: "In the light of what he and the German Communists already have said, this is just his way of saying, 'No.'"

"As for all the strings he attaches and the rest of his double talk, it's the same type of obvious soapbox oratory he has been giving us for years and it does not deserve comment."

Material With Smart Tailoring Is W&K Service

When it comes to building, there is a vast difference between sand and dirt and between gravel and rocky soil.

There's a big difference too between the run-of-mill materials and those turned out by the West Texas Sand & Gravel company here. Every yard coming out of West Texas pits here and below the Moss Creek lead is washed and precisely graded.

This gravel is sand free, and sand is dirt free. And when an aggregate for concrete is desired, the mix contains a proportion of conglomerate. It all adds up to better performance and longer-lasting work when individuals and builders specify West Texas sand and gravel material.

Under the management of Otis Grafs, Sr., the company is equipped to handle the biggest sort of job, and many of the major construction

Fashionable fall suits for men are catching the eyes of customers at the W&K Cleaners, 1213 West Third street, where cleaning and fine tailoring are performed as practical arts.

The firm has samples of dozens of new fall patterns available for selection. Included are all conventional types of fabrics, and customers may choose the styles they prefer.

W&K represents one of the nation's outstanding tailoring firms whose products are noted for fine workmanship. Deliveries on new men's suits usually are made in less than two weeks after orders are submitted.

W&K also maintains expert cleaning and pressing service, which includes modern processes. The shop equipment is the best type available, and garments left at W&K are entrusted only to thoroughly experienced personnel.

"We are never satisfied with our work unless our customers are perfectly pleased with our service," said O. B. Kirby, owner and manager of the establishment.

Alterations for all types of clothing comprise another important service at the W&K plant. As in other departments of the firm, such work is performed by experienced employees.

These are but a few of the hundreds of lockers in the Big Spring Locker company vaults, where constant low-degree temperatures preserve fruits, vegetables and meats as fresh as the day they were wrapped and stored. Wise patrons are now hurrying to the office to protect their box space by paying annual rentals, and still others are putting in applications for boxes as they become available. (Jack M. Greeks Capture Another Vitsi Post

ATHENS, Oct. 21. (AP)—The Greek army today claimed capture of Mount Vitsi in the Vitsi Triangle, extending recent gains north of the main Vitsi summit.

The communique said Greek forces took Vitsi after a stubborn battle with Communist-led guerrillas. Rebel forces counterattacked at Koulas, capture of which was announced yesterday, but were driven off, a war bulletin said.

KASENKINA STORY

Teacher Apprehensively Learns She Is Prisoner

(Copyright, 1948, King Features Syndicate, Inc. Reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

(In today's article Mrs. Kasenkina tells of her meeting with Soviet Ambassador Panyushkin, of his disinterest in the fate of her son, of the seizure of her passport, and her apprehension upon learning that she is to be held at the Soviet Consulate. She reveals how Consul General Lomakin and Vice Consul Chepurnykh drilled her in a false story for a sitting newspaperman who she believed at their insistence that she write a tribute to "the great Stalin.")

By OKSANA S. KASENKINA
Edited by Isaac Don Levine
That the international spotlight would be turned on me, that I would be represented to the world as the protagonist of a bizarre plot, and that I would find myself a prisoner in the Soviet consulate, all within the span of a single afternoon, were inconceivable to me after I left the farm of the Tolstoy Foundation.

Upon my arrival at the consulate, I was taken up to the study of Consul General Lomakin on the third floor. Lomakin introduced him: "This is our Ambassador. I looked directly at Panyushkin and saw deep satisfaction written on his face at the sight of the quarry."

He greeted me coldly. Yet hope stirred within me as he said: "What a pity you didn't try to see me before. Didn't you know that the Soviet government had an ambassador in Washington? Why didn't you come to me in the first place?"

At last, I thought, here was a humane Soviet official who would listen to my grievances and would understand my plight, even my worries over my missing son. I was prepared to hear him re-proach me for concealing the fact that my husband had been purged and for my failure to sail back home on the scheduled boat.

I began to tell Ambassador Panyushkin of the persecution to which I had been subjected during my two years in the United States at the hands of the school because of my constant anxiety to learn the fate of my son.

"And where is your son?" the ambassador asked. When I told him that I had last heard of my boy on January 12, 1942, as reported "missing in action," he said laughingly: "Perhaps your son really is still alive."

The ambassador made no offer to have the Army records checked or to help me in any way in my search for information about my son. Instead, he cut the interview short.

"We can't bother with such things now," he interrupted. "We have to expose the Tolstoy Foundation and find out where the Samarinis are."

Lomakin and Vice Consul Chepurnykh then took me in hand. Lomakin pointed to an adjoining room, the door of which was open, and said: "This will be your room." I had noticed a cot in it, which seemed out of place in an office with three telephones, and decided that preparations had been made in advance to put me up there. I realized that I would not be free to select a residence of my own choice, and was filled with apprehension that the room on the third floor would become my cell.

My passport was taken up and examined. I never saw it again. Lomakin informed me that I would soon meet the representatives of the American press for an interview.

"You will tell them how you were kidnapped," he added. I reflected that since I was apparently myself in the hands of kidnapers, how could I possibly stand up against them now? When asked about my relations with Countess Tolstoy, I emphatically declared that she had had nothing to do with the planning which brought me to the farm of her foundation. I made up my mind that the name of the woman who had suffered so much from Soviet tyranny and was sacrificing herself for the Russian dp's must not be involved in the affair.

"Who did help you?" Chepurnykh asked. "We know all your friends and the people you met," he added. Then he brought up the name of "Gostello" or "Leo Costello," which I had once jotted down on a scrap of paper which had probably been picked up by my landlord

Projniakov, the consulate secretary. As the reader already knows, it belonged to a casual acquaintance who frequented the same Central Park neighborhood that I did, and was probably not even his real name.

"Tell them that the marks on your arm were made by Costello," Lomakin instructed me to say to the reporters.

"We'll make a national heroine out of you in the Soviet Union," Chepurnykh said. He tried to buoy me up as he wormed out of me the name of "Dr. Korzhinsky," my other chance acquaintance who had introduced himself to me on Riverside Drive as a compatriot from the Ukraine under the name of Kojansky.

In the course of the interrogation, when I was already in a state of exhaustion, I described how I met Vladimir Zenzinov, who took me to the Tolstoy Foundation farm, and told of my unhappiness there. Chepurnykh then suggested that I rewrite my original letter to the consulate. I balked at his dictation after I had started the new version with the same beginning, "What happened had to be."

I was unyielding when I realized that what Lomakin and Chepurnykh wanted was a completely new version of my letter, in which I would declare in writing that I had been kidnapped by White Guards, who had drugged me first, and taken me against my will to the Tolstoy Foundation farm. Chepurnykh also dinned into my ears that the new letter must be short, to be exhibited to the press, and must include some tribute by me to "the great Stalin, the leader of my beloved fatherland."

I would not budge, and dropped the pen. Hurriedly Chepurnykh then outlined to me the highlights of the story that I was to give to the press downstairs. It was a nightmarish concoction of a plot which only NKVD minds would invent. The design sketched by Chepurnykh teamed together two total strangers who had never met: "Leo Costello" and Dr. "Korzhinsky," and entangled them with Vladimir Zenzinov and Countess Tolstoy, who had never heard of their existence.

The marks on my arm suddenly assumed enormous importance. I was told that photographers would be present, and that these spots would be material evidence of great consequence. I protested that they hardly showed and that they were meaningless anyhow, as I did not know their origin. All my protestations were brushed aside peremptorily.

I realized that I was in a trap. Lomakin, Chepurnykh and their aides were rehearsing the story with me, and kept briefing me on how to behave and what to say in answer to questions. I was to take the lead from them and do as little talking as possible, so as to give my interpreters the opportunity to explain what had happened.

As I was led downstairs to face a battery of reporters, in a condition of suppressed hysteria, Chepurnykh warned me ominously: "Watch your step!"

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on the abutment (non-cedid) powder on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store. (Adv.)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21. (AP)—Songstress Gertrude Niesen reported to police last night the loss of more than $11,000 in jewelry.

Miss Niesen said she had left the jewelry in a taxicab which she had ridden from the Pennsylvania Railroad's 30th St. station to her hotel.

Taxicab garages were advised to be on the lookout for the missing articles when drivers completed their tours of duty, police said.

Miss Niesen said one of the missing articles was a blue-steel sapphire ring, with the main gem surrounded by diamonds, worth $7,500. Other missing items were listed as a bracelet worth $3,500, diamond earrings and costume jewelry.

Eggs Splatter On Glen Taylor In Florida Talk

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 21. (AP)—Sen. Glen Taylor of Idaho, the Progressive Party's vice presidential candidate, was heckled and egged last night during a speech in downtown Hemming Park.

Taylor delayed the start of his speech when demonstrators shouted for him to "go home," and he cut it short when a loudspeaker company took its equipment away.

Numerous interruptions marked the Democratic senator's address, which lasted almost an hour and a half.

One egg thrown in Taylor's direction struck a song leader and splattered into Taylor's hair. Another egg just missed the senator and broke against a picture of Taylor and Henry Wallace, the party's presidential aspirant, at the rear of the speakers platform. One rock was hurled.

A representative of the loudspeaker company said its equipment was taken away because the contract had expired and was not renewed.

Taylor said in his speech that "our only hope of getting along with Russia is electing a man they have confidence in—Henry Wallace." President Truman, he said, "doesn't know what's going on."

He declared that three prominent Americans would plunge the United States into war unless they are repudiated—John Foster Dulles, banker and foreign affairs expert, Defense Secretary James V. Forrestal, and William Draper undersecretary of the Army.

Taylor charged that President Truman is "a stooge of this group of evil men" and said Gov. Thomas E. Dewey "will be a collaborator with these three if he is elected."

SAN FERNANDO, Calif., Oct. 21. (AP)—Beryl Davis, young London singer, and Peter Potter, Hollywood disc jockey, plan to marry.

Potter, 38, and Miss Davis, 24, daughter of London Orchestra Leader Harry Davis, applied for a license here yesterday. No date for the wedding was set.

Sabu Marries Marilyn Cooper

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21. (AP)—Now it's Mr. and Mrs. Sabu.

It was disclosed last night that the "Elephant Boy" of the movies and Actress Marilyn Cooper were married Tuesday night.

The news leaked out after Sabu, 24, telephoned his brother, Shaik Dastagir. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harley W. Smith at St. Nicholas Episcopal Church, Encino, which Sabu has attended for several years.

The 21-year-old bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gillespie of Los Angeles, formerly sang on the New York stage.

PERHAPS IT WAS CHILDHOOD DREAM

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21. (AP)—Some local character had fun playing fire chief last night and got away with it.

First, he swiped Second Assistant Fire Chief Elmer Cain's bright red auto. Then he tore around town announcing phony orders to central headquarters over the chief's radio.

At one point, he announced he had donned the chief's hat. Then he had the gall to cut loose with a loud blast on the siren.

Distraught cops finally found the car—empty.

Street Gatherings Banned In Cuba After Disorders

HAVANA, Cuba, Oct. 21. (AP)—Police banned street gatherings in Havana today after one person was killed and 12 were injured yesterday in disorders over increased bus fares.

Fidel Febles, 37, a bus employe, was shot to death in a fare dispute with a fellow worker. His assailant was arrested.

Student demonstrators roamed the streets stoning buses. A girl was hit in the face and gravely injured.

Some demonstrators battled police who fired into the air to scatter the crowds. Many were arrested. Two men were injured by stray shots.

The disorders broke out after the government had authorized a fare increase to 10 cents in half the bus lines and ordered the five-cent charge retained in the other half. The increases were granted to help the company meet a 30 per cent wage increase.

Important District Games Dot Hi Football Program

REAGAN MEETS PORT ARTHUR

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Mighty Port Arthur meets undefeated, untied John Reagan of Houston in the standout game of a crowded Texas schoolboy football schedule this week.

It's another test between the best of Class AA and the City Conference and it overshadows the most important array of conference games on a week-end this campaign.

Port Arthur, rated No. 1 from the start of the season, already has turned back the Brackenridge (San Antonio) powerhouse, and now moves against a top club of the Houston district in the City Conference where there are three unbeaten teams.

Two more undefeated clubs also get together, both in District 14 of Class AA where they will be battling for the top rung. They are Alice, unbeaten and untied, and San Benito, undefeated but tied by Weslaco of Class A.

There are 54 games on the week-end card with conference tilts in 17 of the 18 districts in the city conference and Class AA.

Most important conference contests are the Alice-San Benito battle; Odessa and San Angelo in District 3; Breckenridge in District 7 and Gladewater-Texas in District 8 of Class AA and Brackenridge-Alamo Heights in District 4 of the City Conference.

At least two teams will fall from the state's unbeaten list. The Reagan-Port Arthur tilt will remove one undefeated, untied outfit — or both; the Alice-San Benito will take out either one undefeated, untied team or an undefeated, once-tied eleven, and Stephenville, a member of the select circle, faces trouble aplenty from Breckenridge.

The week's schedule by districts (conference games except where indicated otherwise):

- CITY CONFERENCE:

Chinese Forces Admit The Fall Of Changchun

PEIPING, Oct. 21. (AP)—Pro-government reports said today that Changchun, Manchurian capital, was in the hands of Communist troops but that Gen. Tu Li Ming's national forces expected to reoccupy Chinchin momentarily.

Changchun, long useless to the government because of a Red siege, fell in fighting Monday through Wednesday, the dispatches said.

Capture of Changchun, the Peiping Times said, followed the surrender last Sunday of the 60th Army outside of the city. The army had been ordered to fight its way southward to Mukden, where the new Manchurian commander, Gen. Tu, makes his headquarters. The Communist radio earlier had broadcast the 60th Army's rebellion.

The official central news agency said the vanguard of Gen. Tu's forces, under heavy air protection, had entered Chinchin's limits on Tuesday.

Other reports said large numbers of government troops and supplies were being unloaded at Hulatao, government port near Chinchin.

Fighting reportedly still was in process around Taiyuan, Shansi Province capital.

Walker Aiming For New Record

DALLAS, Oct. 21. (AP)—About the only thing Doak Walker hasn't done with a football is blow it up. Some of these days they may call on him for that and what'll you bet he can't do it?

Right now he's busily engaged in setting a new scoring record in the Southwest Conference. The Southern Methodist All-American has made 53 points in four games and has six to go. The record is 125 set by Joel Hunt at Texas A&M, in 1927. At Doak's present pace he will have over 130 when the season ends.

If ever there was a more versatile football player, they don't remember him in the Southwest. Walker is a runner (he's gained 91 yards on 42 carries); passer (he's completed eight out of 14 for 79 yards and two touchdowns); punter (he's taken four back for 108 yards); pass receiver (he's caught seven for 229 yards and three touchdowns); kick-off returner (he's taken two back for 68 yards); defensive player (he has saved a flock of touchdowns with jarring tackles and has intercepted three passes and run them back 75 yards); blocker (he's the best at this on the Southern Methodist squad); punter (he leads the Southwest Conference with an average of 37.2 yards on nine boots).

Can you think of anything else? Doak isn't working as much this season as last or he would have more impressive figures. He hasn't had to. The Mustangs have been far ahead more times than last season, so the little man could rest up.

Last year he averaged 55 minutes per game; this year he's averaging only 48. The only time he's gone over 45 minutes was against Missouri. He played 58 in that one because SMU needed him all the time trying to keep from being defeated.

There's really nothing much new can be said about Walker, the nation's magazine pin-up boy. Lester Jordan, publicity man at SMU, was asked for an angle.

"It's worse than trying to find an angle to a straight line," quoth Jordan. "I can't think of any end if you do please let me know."

Georgia Tech Engineers Assume Lead Among Defensive Elevens

NEW YORK, Oct. 21. (AP)—By holding Auburn to a net gain of 65 yards last Saturday, unbeaten Georgia Tech became the defensive standout among the nation's collegiate gridiron powers, the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau announced today.

The Yellowjackets, who yielded 69 yards through the air but threw Auburn for a loss of four yards on the ground, moved up from third place in the bureau's defensive rankings as North Carolina State dropped from first to fourth while losing to North Carolina.

With four victories in as many starts, Georgia Tech leads the country in defense against rushing as well as in total defense, against both ground and air attack.

Vanderbilt, Tulane, Washington and Lee and Auburn have hurled a total of 213 plays against the Rambling Wreck, which has yielded a total of 169 yards on 135 running plays and 321 yards on 78 aerials. That's an average yield of 42.3 yards per game on the ground and an overall average of 122.5.

Still, defenses continued to crumble all across the country's collegiate gridirons with unprecedented regularity. Such teams as North Carolina, Ohio State and Minnesota, for instance, were unable to vault into the top ten despite yields of 100, 112 and 140 yards to their respective foes.

Penn State, which finished the season with the best defensive record in the nation last year, tumbled completely out of the bureau's total defense listings when West Virginia amassed 285 yards in losing to the Nittany Lions, 157 of them by air.

South Carolina moved from fifth to second in total defense and North Carolina came from far back to take over the third spot.

With Georgia Tech moving from fourth to first in rushing defense, Cornell stepped up a notch to second, replacing Penn State which slumped to sixth. Cornell's record, showing an average yield of 52.5 yards per game to four opponents on the ground, will be severely tested Saturday against Army, whose offensive record on the ground is tops.

Northwestern lost its place as the best defender against forward passes while being bumped from the undefeated ranks by Michigan. Brown took over the lead. Brown has yielded an average of 32.3 aerial yards to four foes. The yardage allowed per game serves as the basis of ranking in this department.

The last major uncrossed goal line disappeared Saturday when Duke defeated Maryland.

Furman, with Paul Stombaugh kicking at a record pace, leads all the teams in the punting department. Stombaugh is average 54.4 yards on 36 punts.

AIN'T TALKING Mum's The Word For New Pilot Of Gothamites

GLENDALE, Calif., Oct. 21. (AP)—Casey Stengel made it clear today that he isn't crawling out on any limb in regard to his new job as manager of the New York Yankees baseball club.

Home after all the hubbub attendant to his re-entry into the realm of major league ball, Casey lit a long, fresh cigar, propped his feet on one of Mrs. Stengel's nicest pieces of furniture and began to talk.

"I realize I'm taking on a big, tough job but I feel very fortunate and I appreciate the confidence placed in me.

"Some people are saying," he mused, rather seriously for Casey, "that I got the job simply because of my close friendship with Del Webb and George Weiss.

"Personally, I don't think they're going around handing out jobs like that just because they know a fellow by his first name.

"I was in the organization in 1945, managing Kansas City, but I had to go out and work my way back to the majors, just like a player."

Casey climaxed his efforts you know, by piloting Oakland to the Pacific Coast League pennant this year.

Will he receive $35,000 per year with the Yankees, as reported? Stengel grinned.

"I am getting enough. Just let it go at that. Mrs. Stengel has been in every store along the West Coast from Mexico to Canada and now she's got the whole eastern half of the country to work on. So let's just kind of skip the exact amount and say I guess we'll be able to limp along all right."

As for operational plans, Stengel said only "I'm not going out on any limbs now."

Bear Gridders Of '10 Plan For Reunion

WACO, Oct. 21. (AP)—The football team that got mad at the referee, walked off the field and lost the championship will hold a reunion here Saturday on the occasion of the Baylor-Texas A&M game.

It was 38 years ago that Baylor University had one of its greatest teams, headed by T. P. Robinson, a gridiron immortal in Golden Bear annals. In those days Baylor was in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, forerunner of the present Southwest Conference.

The team won six games and tied two, rolling up 217 points to the opposition's 17. But one of those lies was the undoing of the Bears. Baylor and Texas were deeded 6-6 when the Bears strode from the field in protest against a referee's decision. It resulted in a forfeit and Baylor didn't win the title.

Saturday 13 of the 18 boys who made up that team will be here to be entertained with a breakfast, luncheon and ride in the homecoming parade. Then they'll sit behind the Baylor bench during the game.

All 18 members of the Baylor 1910 squad are still living but two couldn't be located and several sent word they wouldn't be able to attend the reunion.

Coaches of the team were Ralph Glaze of Dartmouth and Enoch Mills of Colorado University. Both are dead.

Those who will attend the reunion are: Robinson, who lives at Eldorado; O. M. Harrell, Hillsboro; H. G. Ishill, McGregor; John M. Fouts, Dallas; E. T. (Bull) Adams, Glen Rose; C. M. Henry, Dallas; C. P. Mosley, Jacksonville; L. C. (Pat) Newman, Dallas; R. L. Hefley, Crist; Col. Neil S. Edmunds, Oklahoma City; W. A. (Jack) Little, Dallas; Horace Murphy, Ballinger, and V. D. Slaughter, Sherman.

Trout To Team With Newcomer

Sailor Dick Trout, the San Diego, teams with newcomer Balk Estes of Elk City, Okla., for an Australian tag match at the Big Spring Athletic club Monday night.

Estes has the reputation for being one of the better light-heavyweights campaigning in these United States.

The pair will go against Rod Fenton and Benny Trudell, the surly Canadians.

Recruiters Seek Vets Of Air Force

The local US Army recruiting station has received authority to enlist men with prior service in the Air Force, skilled in certain MOS, for initial assignment to the US Air Force in Europe.

To be eligible, a man must enlist for a period of three, four, five or six years and hold one of the following MOS: 747, 684A, 750C, 760, 754, 2756, 2750, 060, 408, 345, 653, 955, 965, 114 and 555.

No married man will be accepted, unless they are eligible to enlist on one of the first three grades.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Odessa is talking 'bowl game'. With its new half million dollar athletic plant as a talking point, the town has begun to boom a Jan. 1 football game without mentioning what kind of attraction would be proffered. Obviously, two college elevens would be booked.

The Odessa promoters know, without being told, that the attraction would have to be good to fill the 17,000 seats in the new park. Football fans there support their high school team, good or bad, as well or better than any other city in Texas. Unfortunately, that does not mean they would go for any kind of gridiron fare.

Nevada university would be an excellent lure for the fans for such a game. And the Odessa backers would probably stand a pretty good chance of getting the team to come to West Texas. Sugar Bowl promoters revealed recently that the Wolfpack will be considered for the New Orleans classic but that is about as far as the thing will go. Nevada, despite its great team and equally great record, isn't the "name" school the Sugar Bowl needs to sell it to the public.

The same probably goes for the Cotton and Orange bowls. The Nevada school officials would probably talk 'turkey' with the Odessans, if they were contacted immediately.

LOCAL COUPLE PLANS TO SEE SUL ROSS PLAY

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hayden are planning on going down to Alpine this weekend to see her son, Hal Battle, and the rest of the Sul Ross Lobos play the University of Corpus Christi Tarpons. Sul Ross is unbeaten and untied and will probably be, after this weekend. Corpus isn't due to give the Lobos much of a battle.

SMU MUSTANGS HAD BEST BE PREPARED FOR ANYTHING

The high-flying Southern Methodist Mustangs had best be prepared for anything in their inter-sectional game with Santa Clara Broncos this weekend in Dallas.

The Californians have always been noted for their aggressiveness, both off the field and on. This year apparently is no exception. A few years ago, a Santa Clara team headed by the great Nello Felschi came to Fort Worth and a rough, bruising football game resulted. Hard words were exchanged between the two clubs.

Back in 1946, in an Arizona-Santa Clara game, fists flew on the field of play to such an extent that a riot squad had to be called out. Last weekend, the Broncos walloped Loyola university down in Hollywood but seconds before the game ended a gang fight broke out in front of the Loyola bench. Most of the members of both teams participated in the melee.

FORMER ODESSA SCRIBE NOW WITH HOUSTON PAPER

Roy Scudgday, who wrote sports for the Odessa paper a couple of years ago and who quit to go into the restaurant business, is now a sports scribe for the Houston Chronicle.

Roy succeeded at Odessa by Gene Creggston, who in turn gave way to Tom Smith, the present sports editor over that way. Gene is now associated with the Abilene Reporter-News.

STAR LINEMAN WANTS TO PLAY IN BACKFIELD

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 21. (AP)—The "Lineman Of The Week" wants to be a fullback.

Laurie Neimi, 240-pound tackle for Washington State College, was thrilled today to be named the country's top lineman for the week in an Associated Press football poll.

But it would be a greater thrill for him to make a touchdown.

"That's been my ambition," he said. "In college and all through high school I wanted to play in the backfield."

Neimi never thought he was dissatisfied with his job if you had watched him Saturday rearing up out of the line like a freight elevator to bat down University of Washington backs.

You wouldn't expect discontent in a lad described by Coach Phil Sarboe as "the inspiration and sparkplug of our team."

But Neimi wants to make a touchdown.

He tried out for the backfield once at Clarkston, Wash., High School. "But I was too big and clumsy," Neimi said.

Ken Keltner of the Cleveland Indians hit more home runs this season than ever before in his career.

Tojo "Most Peaceful" Two Men Burned

TOKYO, Oct. 21. (AP)—Japan's wartime Premier Hideki Tojo has become "most peaceful" through Buddhist teachings, his wife said today after visiting him in prison for the first time in eight months.

Syracuse University footballers will play under the lights twice this fall.

Amendment On Redistricting Should Get Fullest Support

An issue which probably has been more thoroughly agitated than any other in Texas as for at least a dozen years is involved in the second of eight constitutional amendments on the November 2 general election ballot.

That issue is legislative re-districting. The ballot provides for voting "For" or "Against" the following:

"The Amendment to Section 28, Article III of the Constitution of Texas providing for a Board of Apportionment of the State into senatorial and representative districts in the event the Legislature fails to make such apportionment."

This is commonly known as the Moffett Amendment, and is designed to force legislative apportionment every ten years, as has always been intended in the constitution.

It provides that the legislature shall have the opportunity to redistrict itself according to present provisions following each decennial census. If, however, the legislature fails to act, the amendment provides for an automatic board composed of the Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House, Attorney General, Land Commissioner and State Comptroller, which will be charged with the task within 150 days after adjournment of the regular session of the legislature which should have redistricted itself, then the Supreme Court of Texas is empowered with jurisdiction to issue a writ of mandamus to force action on the part of the board.

West Texas has been clamoring for re-districting since 1930, at least, and the state's districts have not been changed since 1920. The shift in the state's population in almost 30 years most certainly has unbalanced our legislative representation. It is probable that the West Texas area would gain not more than two or three additional seats in the legislature, but representation even within West Texas would be balanced with population centers, which is fundamental in a true representative government.

There is no basis for the fear that the state's big cities would gain over-balance of representation, because under an amendment voted in 1936 these cities were limited to eight. Since our three largest cities already have seven representatives, their over-all gain could not be out of proportion.

This amendment will make it impossible hereafter for the legislature to ignore the present constitutional mandate, because it allows recourse to the courts. Here is an opportunity to be sure that something is done, just as fair representation demands that it should be done.

This is one amendment which should be strongly supported by all West Texans, and The Herald strongly urges your vote in its behalf.

(This is the second in a series of editorials dealing with the Nov. 2 constitutional amendments. Others will appear in subsequent editions of The Herald.—Ed.)

Prospect Of Early Relief In Picking Situation Not Bright

A brace of showers with thousands of acres of cotton open in the fields has created considerable concern about the 1948 harvest, particularly since the supply of laborers in this immediate vicinity is in short supply.

Some had hoped that the lowering of bars on braceros at El Paso would at least have an indirect effect, but of course this move died aborning. Mexico protested the action and the braceros were beginning to disperse over such wide areas that it would have been difficult if not impossible to control their movements and eventually their return to Mexico.

Meanwhile, the lower fringe of the South Plains has been caught in a somewhat abnormal situation. The Texas Employment Commission, which keeps a daily check on an area and state basis, reports that a crucial situation in this territory has resulted in a great degree to early completion of the harvest in South and East Texas and the late opening of cotton here. Compounding the situation, the crop in the north opened ahead of schedule this year and with little or nothing to attract them when they first streamed above the Cap Rock, the migratory laborers took out for the High Plains. Once ensconced, they are difficult to move.

Prospects for early relief are not exactly good. As the harvest in Scurry and Mitchell counties eases over the hill, some pickers may be diverted in this direction. Occasional crews drifting in from the north may be hoped for a good break in the weather to spare the crop until the northward surge of the migratory crop recedes and the backwash brings us general relief. It now appears not only that the harvest will be short—but late.

Boss Can't Discharge Two Or More Complainants

WASHINGTON, — A COUPLE OF men, or a dozen or a hundred, can tell the boss they don't like the way he runs his business.

And he can't fire them for it. But—it's all right only so long as two or more do that. If one man by himself tries it, the boss can—if he wants to—trounce him on the spot. Why?

The reason was made pretty clear this week in a case that went up to the Supreme Court.

Since what happened in that case applies to most bosses and workers, this is an explanation:

Ten salesmen in the Chicago branch office of the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Co. got sore.

THE CASHIER WAS LEAVING. THE fourth cashier in a couple of years to leave.

And the cashier was important to them, felt, in helping with their accounts. So each time a new cashier was hired it slowed them down.

They agreed to tell the boss in a letter how they felt, with two of them writing it and all 10 signing it.

The boss found out about the up-coming letter and fired the two men who were going to write it.

The salesmen were not members of a union. They were just 10 employees who wanted to tell the boss what they thought. But in a case like that, since they were not union members, what could the two fired men do?

They went to the National Labor Relations Board — the government agency which carries out the Wagner and Taft-Hartley national labor laws and interprets them when some question of meaning arises.

THE NLRB DECIDED THE BOSS HAD no right to fire the men, that under the law he had engaged in an unfair labor practice. Why?

Because the law says "employees shall have the right to . . . engage in concerted activities for the purpose of . . . mutual aid or protection."

And the law says any boss who interferes with that right of employees under the law commits an unfair labor practice.

So the NLRB ordered the boss to give the men their jobs back and pay them for any earnings lost while they were out of a job.

The insurance company refused. And the NLRB went to the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals to make the company obey. The court upheld the NLRB. Then the case went to the highest and last appeal: To the U. S. Supreme Court.

On Monday the Supreme Court said it would not review the case. Which means: The verdict of the NLRB and circuit court stands. The men have to be rehired.

BUT NOTE SOMETHING: THE KEY phrase in the law covering such a case is "concerted activities," which means action by two or more employees.

Jigsaw Puzzle Of Peace Keeps Changing Pattern

WASHINGTON, — FIVE YEARS AGO next month Hans-Norbert Finkel came to the United States as a German war prisoner.

"We had been captured in Tunisia with Field Marshal Rommel's Afrika Korps. Finkel, now 28, is back in America again. This time he is a guest under different circumstances. He is one of 15 German editors and publishers attending a seminar of the American Press Institute at Columbia University.

These visitors from Europe's uneasy fulcrum attended a couple of news conferences here. They were impressed by the informality and freedom with which reporters questioned government officials, and said such conferences would have been impossible in Germany under Hitler.

They also said some nice things about America. But guests usually say nice things. Since Finkel, now political editor of Dena, American-licensed German news agency, had looked at the United States from both sides of the table, I asked him what he found most disappointing in this country.

"THIS SPIRIT OF SUPERFICIALITY," he said, "and I don't mean just politically."

"Here, if you get an idea, you try to do something with it fast—give it a practical application. You say, 'let's try it.'"

"In Germany we try first to find the theory underlying the idea. The German is bound to ask, 'what lies behind it?' And this is true of all Europeans."

Record Of Congress Resembles That Of Garbled Politics In U. S.

(Copyright by Bell Syndicate, 1948. WASHINGTON —) The record of Congress during recent years is not unlike the present garbled politics of the country. Party lines have been cut. Republicans sometimes voted with Democrats; some Democrats lined up with Republicans.

This will probably continue. It will probably also be true that Dewey will get as much support from certain Democrats as he will from some Republicans. On international issues—now probably the most important before Congress—it is certain that most Democratic senators will give him more backing than such isolationists as Brooks of Illinois, Dwozshak of Idaho, or Robertson of Wyoming.

In fact, the irrepressible, lovable Rep. John Taber has already served notice that the GOP isolationists are planning to give Brother Dewey a rough time on two issues—economy and international co-operation.

Electing the right kind of Senate, therefore, is second only to the election of President. With this in mind, here is the merry-go-round roll-call of U. S. senators up for election next month:

Joseph Ball, Republican, Minnesota—A mixed-up personality who gets tangled in his own emotions. A former editorial writer, Ball came to the Senate determined to do right, but when he swung to Roosevelt in 1944 he was so ostracized by his own Republicans that, to win back their favor, he swung to the reactionary extreme. Joe has now been on so many different sides of so many different fences that he has lost his usefulness.

Styles Bridges, Republican, New Hampshire—A tough, forthright scrapper who has usually voted against his isolationist GOP colleagues. He watches pennies, raises Cain over too much spending and frequently votes against the GOP reactionaries. Bridges is an asset to the Senate.

"Curley" Brooks, Republican, Illinois—Brooks has been opposed to almost all of Dewey's New York record. A likable personality with a charming wife, Brooks is wholly controlled by the Chicago Tribune and is almost proud of it. If re-elected he will be in Dewey's hair on many issues.

John Cooper, Republican, Kentucky—has made an excellent record during his brief term in the Senate, has supported Democrats on foreign policy, and will be an asset if re-elected.

Henry Dwozshak, Republican, Idaho—Along with Curley Brooks, he is the most dyed-in-the-wool isolationist in the Senate. Dwozshak permitted his mailing list to be used by a Hitler propagandist, was glad to have the support of Gerald L. K. Smith, and is one of the few Western senators who didn't fight hard for reclamation. His mediocre Senate record includes trying to get an honorable discharge for an American soldier convicted of rape, "murder and running a boy down with a motorcycle. Dwozshak will be no asset to Dewey.

Homer Ferguson, Republican, Michigan—Came to the Senate with a record for graft, clean-up and as long as the Democrats controlled the Senate, Ferguson had a healthy knack of keeping them on their toes. Once he got into power, however, Ferguson lost that knack. He made a fool of himself in the Howard Hughes investigation, was bluffed out of Chapman Revercomb, Republican, West Virginia—Handsome, smooth-talking, likeable Chappie tangled with Dewey over the displaced persons bill and was even criticized by his own church (Presbyterian) for religious discrimination in connection with this bill. Chappie has consistently voted with the big business interests of his state.

George Wilson, Republican, Iowa—A likable, sweet character, Wilson gets along with all his colleagues, but has been unable to conquer one serious weakness. A man in high public life must necessarily remain reasonably temperate. Unfortunately, Wilson has missed many senate sessions and important committee meetings because of his intemperance.

Leverett Saltonstall, Republican, Massachusetts—A Boston blueblood who dates his ancestry back to the pilgrim fathers. Saltonstall votes right more frequently, than he votes wrong. He casts rather a thin shadow on the Senate, however, and sometimes seems almost frightened of that shadow.

Kenneth Wherry, Republican, Nebraska—A likable, rollicking legislative roustabout, Wherry has been wrong on a painful number of issues but deserves credit for his untiring leadership of the Republican side. He has harassed and whipped his GOP colleagues into a smooth-working Senate machine, and it took a man of Wherry's energy and brass to do it.

Other senatorial candidates will be covered in future columns.

Stars Have Pitched Into '48 Campaign

HOLLYWOOD — Hollywood which takes politics pretty seriously, has pitched into the 1948 campaign, although not with the fervor of former presidential races.

Most active of the campaigners are the republicans, contrary to previous years when FDR supporters hogged the spotlight. Headed by President George Murphy and Vice-President Robert Montgomery, the Hollywood republican committee has mobilized a large number of stars to speak for the Dewey cause.

Film personalities have been sent usually at their own expense) to serve as window-dressers at GOP rallies throughout the country. Among the volunteers:

Hampered by scanty campaign coffers, the democrats have not been as active. Hollywood's part in the race has been handled by the labor league of Hollywood voters, headed by many local AFL chiefs.

The league, chairmanned by actors' President Ronald Reagan, is described as non-partisan, pro-labor, and anti-communist. Plunking for revision of the Taft-Hartley act, it supports the Truman-

Barkley ticket.

Humphrey Bogart, Melvyn Douglas, Helen Gahagan Douglas and Reagan have been placed by the league on air shows sponsored by the Ladies Garment Workers union. The league also plans to spot its stars at a big meeting of studio workers and on other radio programs, and will work on getting out the union vote in Hollywood.

Time is being bought by the air lift which, given the circumstances, has had to be bought. The circumstances could and, in the view of some of us, should not have been what they are: It was unwise to force the German issue this year. But it was forced. After that, time had to be bought. For no one was ready to deal with the German issue which had been forced.

The main reason for a postponement of a showdown and of negotiations for a settlement are our own election, the uncertain political condition of France, the primitive state of the Western Union and its defenses, and the lack of an agreed conception here and among our partners as to what is to be the principle and the shape of a German peace treaty.

Though it would have been wiser to temporize with the German question until next spring, until the new Administration was organized, until the Marshall plan was taking effect, until the plans for Western Union were adopted and in effect, rasher counsel prevailed and it was not done. The air lift has however been improvised. It has done what could have

Sometimes There's Lesson In What We Don't Undertake

Judge Cecil Collings tells this one about his more youthful days.

At the time, his family was living on a farm which had its water well located a considerable distance from the house. Upon reaching the age of duty, the judge left heir to the onerous task of hauling water in a big oaken bucket for various household uses.

It seemed to the future jurist that his mother could never get enough water to wash, cook and clean their home.

There were times, he admits, when his father would spell him at the distasteful job.

Late one lazy afternoon, little Cecil was enjoying particularly his reverie when his father's voice boomed forth from the house:

"Son, your mother needs some water in the kitchen. Would you please fetch it for her right away?"

Every bit of Cecil rebelled, but with much effort he raised himself and trudged toward the shed where the bucket was stored. Each step brought a thought of distaste for the duty just ahead.

When he reached the shed door, Judge Collings relates, he stopped and prayed to the Lord that the bucket beyond that barrier might be filled with water so that he might be relieved of his back-breaking work.

The door was opened and a faithless hand was jerked suddenly by the weight of the bucket as it was lifted from its hook — full of water.

From that day forward, the Judge declares that he has never been able to find out who was shaming him, his Heavenly Father or his earthly one.

German Editor Calls Berlin Battle The Fight For Europe

By RELMAN MORIN For DeWitt MacKenzie

"IF YOU GIVE UP BERLIN, YOU give up Europe," the German said. "It is as simple as that."

He is a Berliner, a member of that group of newspapermen who have been in the United States studying American newspapers and their methods. Quite probably, his opinions are weighted on the side of American policy in Germany, since he lives under the protection of American arms, and practices his profession by virtue of an American license.

However, he is no yes-man. He is quietly critical of some phases of American policy, but not as it relates to Berlin.

His reasoning, I think, is worth reporting, as a counterpoise to the arguments of many Americans who believe we have blundered terribly by clinging to our perilous toehold in Berlin.

The answer of the German editor: "In the first place, if you get out of Berlin—suppose you withdraw to the West—then you merely transfer the point of friction.

"YOU WOULD STILL HAVE A COMMON zonal border with the Russians. The incidents and the causes of tension would quickly begin to appear there. They would find excuses and reasons for interference in Bizonia, just as they have in Berlin—most probably over the administration of the Ruhr."

But, he said, a result of vastly greater consequence would accrue if the Americans pulled back.

He estimated that less than one percent of the German people, even those who live in the Russian zones, are Communists or even Communistically inclined, at this point.

"Statistics, of course, would show a much nigger proportion. But you must remember that, for a German living in the Russian area, it is much wiser to pay lip service to the Russians and their ideas than it is to openly speak one's mind.

"There is a matter of ration-cards, living quarters, and employment. It might even be the difference between life and death."

Nevertheless most of those people are, as he put it, "standing firm in the dark."

THROUGHOUT THE REST OF GERMANY, there are millions of other Germans who not only pin their hopes on the western Democracies but have put their lives on the line by taking jobs—such as his—under the western military governments.

"It is not difficult to picture the fate of these people if all Germany comes under Russian control."

To a lesser degree, he said, the same is true of all western Europe. Again, he argued, it includes those "satellite" nations that are now in Russian hands.

Their resistance, he believes, will vary in direct ratio to the amount of resistance the United States, as a nation, presents. As you hold your lines, they get bolder. If you retreat, they will retreat, morally and psychologically, with you."

In short, to one Berliner, the battle for Berlin is the battle for Europe. The actions of those Europeans who actively oppose Soviet encroachment, and of the enormously greater number who are simply watching and waiting, will be determined by what we do there, said the editor.

Amazing Air Lift Buys Time To Haggle On Berlin

(Copyrighted by New York Herald Tribune Syndicate, 1948)

By the air lift to Berlin the United States Air Force has done something which was certainly not foreseen by the Russians nor it is fair to say by the statesmen of the West. The principal effect of this remarkable and unusual improvisation has been to postpone the necessity for a solution of the Berlin crisis, without the air lift the chance would by this time have been between appeasement and war—the surrender of Berlin or an armistice challenge to the ground blockade.

The air lift has enabled us to remain in Berlin and to feed the Germans in the Western sectors without succumbing, except by diplomacy, to the Soviet blockade. As a result, the Russians have been confronted with the choice of accepting the air lift or firing the first shots in a world war. Thus far they too have preferred diplomacy—as they understand diplomacy.

The air lift has, therefore, succeeded in offsetting, sufficiently for the time being, the inherent strategic advantage which the Russians have because Berlin is deep inside their zone of military occupation. But the air lift is, nevertheless, only a means of postponing a showdown or a settlement. It is not, and it cannot be made, more than that. The air lift exerts no compulsion on the Russians to remove the ground blockade; it merely enables us to refuse to be coerced by the grouse blockade.

The air lift is not an instrument of decision but an instrument which provides time during which decisions can be made.

Time is being bought by the air lift which, given the circumstances, has had to be bought. The circumstances could and, in the view of some of us, should not have been what they are: It was unwise to force the German issue this year. But it was forced. After that, time had to be bought. For no one was ready to deal with the German issue which had been forced.

The main reason for a postponement of a showdown and of negotiations for a settlement are our own election, the uncertain political condition of France, the primitive state of the Western Union and its defenses, and the lack of an agreed conception here and among our partners as to what is to be the principle and the shape of a German peace treaty.

Though it would have been wiser to temporize with the German question until next spring, until the new Administration was organized, until the Marshall plan was taking effect, until the plans for Western Union were adopted and in effect, rasher counsel prevailed and it was not done. The air lift has however been improvised. It has done what could have been done more cheaply and less dangerously by diplomacy—that is to say, it has enabled the statesmen to temporize with the German question.

It is evident that in one way or another the need to temporize will be there for some months to come. Even if a compromise is arranged in Paris which deals with the blockade, the currency, and a meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers, such a compromise now can be only an arrangement to postpone the serious business.

For "the outgoing Truman administration cannot negotiate a German peace treaty, not even with the utmost in collaboration under the bipartisan understanding. General negotiations for a German peace treaty cannot be undertaken until the Dewey administration is firmly installed. For the negotiation of a peace treaty will require new decisions of high policy which are not now covered by the bipartisan understanding. There is some reason to think that this determining fact is understood abroad, not only in London and in Paris but also in Moscow and in Warsaw.

New Attempt Will Be Made To Aid Stranded Ranchers

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 21 (UP)—Another attempt will be made today to drop provisions from a plane to eight San Antonians who have been stranded since Sunday by high waters on a ranch southeast of Encinal.

The initial attempt yesterday by Frank Feille and Abe San Miguel of San Antonio failed due to low clouds and rain.

Surrounded by mud and high water in the Arroyo Del Pato on the Santiago Benavides Ranch 29 miles south of Encinal, are Deyetano Lonzano, his son, Humberto, 10; Jacob Blee, Charles Wilburn, Manuel Torres, Benny Villareal and Justo Sandoval of San Antonio and Arturo Sillar of Pearsall.

The men were part of a group of 11 who went to the ranch Saturday to set up a hunting camp. A cloudburst Sunday sent the creek and its tributaries on the rise.

Small Crowd Hears Taft In Dallas Talk

DALLAS, Oct. 21 (UP)—Republican Sen. Robert Taft came to Texas with a plea for Texans to vote for GOP candidates who "represent the ideals and the political philosophy of a great majority of the citizens of Texas."

Taft told a Republican rally here last night that the Democratic Party was split in factions and predicted that Thomas E. Dewey for President and Jack Porter for U. S. senator would get the largest block of votes in Texas.

Taft left last night for his Ohio home. He arrived in Dallas just before noon to speak on national housing problems at a luncheon sponsored by the Dallas Home Builders Assn.

A small crowd which Dallas Police Sgt. George John estimated at 400 to 500 persons gathered at the bandshell on the State Fair Grounds here to hear Taft as well as state Republican candidates speak.

Jack Porter, U. S. senatorial nominee, drew applause and a few yells when he declared: "I know I'll be your next U. S. Senator."

Porter will go to East Texas today for visits to Gladewater, Lonsview and Kilgore and a broadcast from the Tyler courthouse square tonight.

Alvin Lane, candidate for governor, said last night at the rally that he was doing "much more than making just a token campaign."

Top state Republicans were introduced from the speakers platform—National Committeeman R. B. Creager and Committeewoman Mrs. Lena Gay More, both of Brownsville, and Henry Swifel,

'Subversive' Organizations Stripped Of Tax Free Status

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (UP)—The Internal Revenue Bureau disclosed today that eight organizations listed by Atty. Gen. Clark as "subversive" have been stripped of tax-free status.

They were among 40—including an atomic study group—taken off the bureau's roll of organizations entitled to special tax privileges as non-profit religious, charitable or educational concerns not engaged in propaganda or lobbying. No reasons were given for any of the removals except that the 40 do not meet the necessary qualifications. For instance, operating for profit is sufficient to disqualify an organization.

Not only are the 40 organizations barred from tax exemption on their own income, but persons contributing money to them are barred from deducting the gifts in computing their income taxes.

The eight that went off the bureau's list after going on the attorney general's are: Abraham Lincoln School, Chicago; the Samuel Adams school for Social Studies, Boston; American Committee for European Workers' Relief, New York; George Washington Carver School, New York; Hollywood (Calif.) Writers Mobilization; the Ohio School of Social Sciences, Cleveland; The Philadelphia School of Social Science and Art, Philadelphia, and School of Jewish Studies, New York.

Among others stricken by the bureau were the Front Line Fighters Fund of the International Workers Order, New York; New York City Council of the American Youth Congress, and the Peoples Institute of Applied Religion (Inc.), Evansville, Ind.

Clark's list of "totalitarian, Fascist, Communist, or subversive" organizations includes the International Workers Order, the American Youth Congress, and Peoples Institute of Applied Religion, without reference to individual chapters or localities.

Another organization deleted was the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, Oak Ridge, Tenn., site of the atomic energy plant.

Two Men Are Held While Wreck Probed

PECOS, Oct. 21 (SC)—Two San Angelo men were held here for investigation over night after their car had figured in a traffic accident in which one man received injuries from which he died.

The dead man was Alta Ladden Moon, 56, a Kansas City, Mo., veteran of World War I. The San Angelo men held for investigation are Calvin H. Ray, 36, driver of one of the cars, and Leo Day.

The San Angeliens were traveling west with three companions, all hitchhikers, and when they started around another car, Hilton was unable to pull back on the right side of the road, attempting to go into the bar ditch on the left side, according to a report of state highway patrolmen here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Posner of California were traveling east and their car struck the Hilton car. Moon had hitched a ride with the accident having occurred at 3:30 o'clock on the highway 80 miles west of here on Highway 80.

Hilton had several stitches taken in a gash on his face. Day suffered head injuries and Mrs. Posner suffered slight injuries. Harry Mackese of Brooklyn also was injured, but his buddy, Henry Laroe, of Lowell, Mass., was not hurt.

Both automobiles were badly damaged. Hilton had been working as a cook in various cafes at San Angelo. Day formerly worked for the Santa Fe there.

Overwhelming Win Seen By Barkley

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (UP)—Back from 20-day airborne campaign trip through 18 states, Sen. Alben W. Barkley today predicted "an overwhelming victory for the Democratic Party."

The Democratic vice presidential candidate planned to leave Washington at noon for four speeches this afternoon and tonight in New York City, including a major labor address at a CIO rally.

"Not only will we regain control of the Senate," Barkley told reporters upon his arrival, "but we are going to win the House of Representatives and re-elect President Truman. And I am going to be the new vice president."

The Kentuckian said his trip by special plane to the West Coast and the South "has convinced me that the people are aroused as never before and believe that only the Democratic Party will give them good government."

"A lot of Republicans who thought the election was in the bag for them are going to get the surprise of their lives when the votes are counted on Nov. 2," he said. "And the pollsters who have been predicting a Republican victory are going to feel like the Literary Digest felt in 1936 when it predicted that Alf Landon would defeat Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Barkley still has more than a week of active campaigning before he closes on election eve, at his home in Paducah. He goes to Baltimore tomorrow night and speaks three times in Kentucky Saturday.

Next week he is billed for speeches in Indiana and Illinois.

Air Force Adds Africa Training

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (UP)—The United States' global air force, already operating in Europe and the Far East, is adding another continent to its training ground—Africa.

B-29 superfortresses taking off from American-used bases in England and Germany now are winging down to Accra, a British colony on the Gold Coast of Africa.

Air Force headquarters said today there is no United States military installation at Accra now. The superforts use facilities there for refueling on their training excursions down to the Gulf of Guinea, then turn around and head back. Under the present training program, the B-29s do not continue south or east to other war-built fields in Africa.

Clark's list of "totalitarian, Fascist, Communist, or subversive" organizations includes the International Workers Order, the American Youth Congress, and Peoples Institute of Applied Religion, without reference to individual chapters or localities.

Another organization deleted was the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, Oak Ridge, Tenn., site of the atomic energy plant.

Amendment Upheld On College Building

AUSTIN, Oct. 20. (AP)—Validity of the college building constitutional amendment was upheld today by the Third Court of Civil Appeals, the judgment of the 126th District Court, which had ruled that the 60 million building plan was legally adopted.

The constitutional amendment had been challenged on grounds that notice of the election at which it was adopted was not published in six counties, that there were irregularities of notice in others, and that more than one subject was dealt with in the submission.

Opponents had said the ballot did not clearly describe the scope and character of the amendment.

The civil appeals court ruled in effect that there was no merit in the opposition claims, and that the election at which the amendment was adopted by a narrow margin was valid.

It was considered certain the case would be appealed further to the State Supreme Court.

The college building program has been frozen ever since the suit was brought more than a year ago.

Associate Justice Robert G. Hughes, former San Angelo attorney, author of the opinion, ruled that the amendment was submitted to the voters in conformity with the directions of a state law that enough be printed to identify the amendment and show its "character and purpose."

Jury May Decide Fate Of Bolton In Reuther Case

DETROIT, Oct. 20. (AP)—A jury probably will decide whether 38-year-old Carl Bolton was the stealthy, night-time assassin who tried to kill Walter P. Reuther, president of the CIO United Auto Workers.

Defense Counsel Joseph W. Lott said today that he would ask a jury if Bolton goes to trial for the April 20 shooting of Reuther.

But he said he first would try to have the charge of assault with intent to murder dismissed. He called the state's case "weak."

Recorder's Judge Christopher E. Stein yesterday held Bolton for trial under bond of $75,000 after his day-long examination. The next term of court, for which the trial was set, begins late in November.

Conviction on the charge would make Bolton, an ex-convict, liable to life imprisonment.

Two Detroit hoodlums, John Miller, 45, and John Pantella, 43, testified that Bolton offered $15,000 to have the red-haired union leader assassinated.

They said also that Bolton told them Kenneth Bannon, another top UAW-CIO official, was slated to be killed.

No motive was brought out in their testimony.

Dewey Is Silent On Virginia Race

ALBANY, N.Y., Oct. 20. (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey travels to New York today for a speech there to-night—still keeping his own counsel about helping out in an important senatorial race.

The Republican presidential nominee left Albany by train at 11:35 (EST) for an address at the Herald-Tribune Forum. There was no advance announcement of his subject.

The senatorial race is in West Virginia. There the Republican incumbent, Sen. Chapman Revercomb, is in what the GOP leadership regards as a close contest with his Democratic opponent, former Sen. Matthew Neely.

Dewey, throughout his campaign, has been concentrating on states where the Senate races are nip and tuck in an effort to maintain GOP control of the Senate. The Republicans now have only a six-vote margin—51 seats to the Democrats' 45.

But with less than two weeks remaining before the Nov. 2 election, Dewey still has plans no indication whether he plans to lend Revercomb a hand.

Some of Dewey's aides say the fact Revercomb refused to co-operate with the GOP presidential candidate during the August special session of Congress has had no bearing on Dewey's consideration of whether to go into West Virginia. They say it's a matter of schedule making and nothing else.

During the special session Dewey asked Revercomb, chairman of a key Senate subcommittee, to go along on revision of a law providing for admission of European refugees to this country. The law has been criticized as discriminatory against Jews and Catholics.

Revercomb refused saying it was "wasted."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

I'm Glad We're "Different!"

There's a lot of difference of opinion in our county on the best kind of pasture. Some say alfalfa mixed with bromes grass—others say mixed with oats or barley. But all agree that a mixture's better than a single crop.

I sometimes think people are the same way—and the strength of America is the mixture of so many different strains—some from one country, some from another—right down to little differences: like folks who have a taste for beer and those who prefer sides.

From where I sit, so long as we never become intolerant of one another's different tastes—so long as we live together with our differences, and even supplement them the way bromes grass does alfalfa, then we're a mighty good crop!

So neighbor—enjoy your diet while I enjoy my beer! Vote for your candidate—I'll stand by mine! But never let our differences divide us!

Joe Marsh
