Sunday Fire Destroys News Office

Lightning Blamed for Blaze; Office Relocating on Second Street

A Sunday morning fire severely damaged the Santa Anna News building in downtown Santa Anna and also damaged the adjacent building that formerly housed Howard's Barber Shop. The mid-morning blaze was thought to have been caused by lightning as a severe electrical storm accompanied an early-morning thunder shower in town.

As members of Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Department fought the blaze at the rear of the building, other members of the Department donned air packs and masks and entered the front office to retrieve valuable equipment and records.

A passing motorist spotted smoke coming from the air conditioner in the News office at approximately 10:15 a.m. Within minutes the VFD was at the scene, and the blaze was under control by about 11 a.m. The fire charred the ceiling of the News office building, with extensive smoke and water damage to the entire building and to the type cabinets, tables and assorted print shop equipment stored in the rear portion. The other building received damage at the roof as well as smoke and water damage. It is owned by the Cheaney Estate and has been vacant since J. E. Howard closed his barber shop about a year ago.

In the front portion of the News office, smoke and water severely damaged the room, and windows were broken by the heat.

Volunteers and passersby aided the VFD by directing traffic around the downtown area where firetrucks and hoses were in use. About 15 firemen with two trucks answered the call, as well as the emergency vehicle with equipment and supplies. Members of the VFD moved all the equipment and supplies out of the office as the fire was being brought under control, and before noon a temporary site for the office was located a few doors west in the Guthrie building and furniture and equipment set in place.

After approximately 50 years in the same location, the Santa Anna News will be in a new location, at least temporarily. The current site, the former location of a beauty shop, has been leased for a barber shop to be opened in a few weeks.

After 96 years of continuous operation, the Santa Anna News is still in business and in operation despite the temporary inconvenience.

City Council

To Meet July 8

Santa Anna City Council will meet next Thursday, July 8, at City Hall at 6:30 p.m. Routine business is on the agenda, and others wishing to meet with the Council must notify the City Secretary in advance to be heard.

Meetings of City Council are open to the public and anyone interested is welcome to attend.

David Huggins as he puts the air pack and mask. The fire was extinguished in approximately 30 minutes, but the rear of both buildings were severely damaged in the blaze. More photos by David Moxley on Page 7.

New Location Secured For Santa Anna News Office

The Santa Anna News office is re-locating this week to 214 North Second Street, directly across from the Coleman County Telephone Cooperative business office. The site is in the Santa Anna Housing Authority building that formerly housed the office of Wendell Sparkman, Engineer.

The location will be a convenient one for our patrons with ample parking space.

Although Mr. Sparkman's office equipment is still in the building, the front office will be vacated for our use and adequate for the present time. The new site will be used for at least several months. The old location, used by the Santa Anna News for the past 50 years, will take months to rebuild, and it has not been decided what to do with the building or if it will be renovated as the News office. Insurance adjusters were at the site Tuesday, but no estimate of damage had been made.

Furniture and equipment necessary to keep the newspaper in operation were moved to the Guthrie building Sunday, with that site to be opened in a few weeks as a barber shop for John Rambo.

Patrons of the Santa Anna News are asked to note the change in location, with the telephone number and mailing address remaining the same.

Scholarships Awarded Coed For Freshman Year at HSU

Robbie Clifton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Clifton, will be a summer graduate of high school, completing her requirements for graduation in summer classes in July.

Robbie, who was valedictorian of her eighth grade class and has been an honor student while in high school, has enrolled at Hardin-Simmons University for the fall term.

As a result of her high score on her college entrance examination, Robbie has been awarded a $6,000 scholarship to HSU, and was recently named recipient of a $1,000 scholarship awarded through the University Interscholastic League and based upon her participation in UIL events while in high school in which she qualified two years for state literary contests.

The Santa Anna coed has also signed a letter of intent to play basketball on the Hardin-Simmons University women's basketball team. Robbie played with the Santa Anna girls her three years in high school, and was selected for the All-District team the last two years.

Robbie was in Abilene Monday and Tuesday of this week taking part in freshman orientation at HSU and enrolling for the fall semester.

July FunFest Set Saturday In Coleman

The annual FunFest at Coleman City Park will highlight the Fourth of July weekend in Coleman County. The annual event, sponsored by Coleman Chamber of Commerce, will be held Saturday, July 3, and include a number of activities, contests and entertainment. Concession stands will be operated by Coleman County clubs and organizations.

Activities will get underway at 8:30 a.m. and continue through the day. The fireworks display is slated at dusk on Sunday, July 4.

Everyone in the area is invited to take part in the event during the day.

City Lake Over Spillway After Weekend Rains in Area

For the first time in many years, water is running over the spillway at Santa Anna City Lake northeast of town. The lake is the fullest it has been in the 11 years City Water Superintendent Tommy Blanton has been living at the residence at the lake. Mayor Edd Hartman said that he does not recall the lake being filled since 1957.

The smaller lake nearer the pump station has caught a great amount of water but is several feet from going over the spillway, Blanton said.

Approximately seven inches of rain have fallen in the lake area during the past three weeks, according to Hartman.

Mayor Hartman said that water for the City of Santa Anna will be taken from the lake, with a six to ten-month supply on hand. Although the City is under contract with Brown County Water Improvement District to buy a minimum of 500,000 gallons of water annually from Lake Brownwood, the local water will be used as long as there is an adequate supply, a considerable saving to the City.

With the good rains in the community, water consumption is much less than usual for this time of year, as residents are not having to water their lawns and gardens.

Grain Harvest Brought to Close By Recent Storms

The grain harvest in our area is virtually completed, whether by combining or as a result of the weather.

Recent rains with accompanying wind and hail destroyed hundreds of acres of grain, and much of the crop not damaged cannot be harvested because of the wet fields and the weeds and grass that have grown in the grain during the extended wet weather.

Ray Schulze, manager of the Central Texas Grain Co., said Monday they expect no more grain at the local facility, and they would be closing in a few days, then reopening for the milo harvest.

Thirteen railroad cars of wheat were shipped from Santa Anna since the elevator opened, each car holding approximately 200,000 pounds. No oats were handled at the Santa Anna business.

A good milo or hybrid sorghum crop is expected here, with harvest to start in July. Central Texas Grain will be open for that harvest, according to Mr. Schulze.

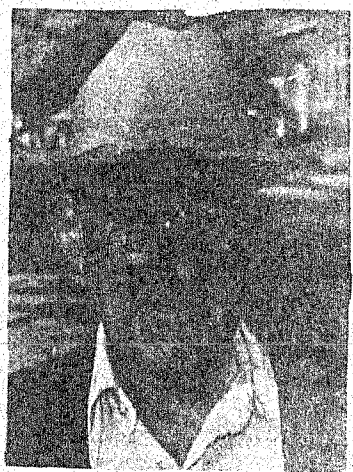

Son of Santa Anna Pioneers Buried Here on Tuesday

Graveside funeral rites were held at Santa Anna Cemetery Tuesday, June 29, for Leroy V. (Roy) Stockard Jr., 91, who died at 7:11 p.m. Sunday, June 27, in Brownwood Regional Hospital. The Rev. Bobby Weathers, District Superintendent of United Methodist Churches in Brownwood, officiated at the service. Henderson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Stockard was born in Santa Anna November 15, 1890, the son of Cora D. (Willet) and Leroy Stockard Sr.. His parents were among the earliest settlers in Santa Anna, coming here in 1886 as railroad agent when the railroad was built through Santa Anna.

Mr. Stockard attended the Santa Anna schools and was a veteran of World War I. He married Opal Tomlinson in Santa Anna in 1926.

A lifetime resident of Santa Anna, Stockard was active in civic affairs and the Democratic party. He was a past president of the School Board and served many years on several state conservation and water boards. An insurance and real estate agent, he retired in 1977. He continued with ranching and oil interests in the area.

Survivors are four daughters, Mrs. Bob (Sue) Jeffery of Albuquerque, N. M.; Mrs. Richard (Virginia) Powell of Abilene, Mrs. B. H. (Jeannine) Sawyer of Brownwood and Mrs. M. L. (Beverly) McFadden of San Angelo; one son, Leroy V. Stockard III of Abilene; 15 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by one brother and five sisters.

Palbearers were grandsons, Leroy Mike Sawyer, Billy Sawyer, Joe Allen McCluskey, Roy Stockard IV, Greg Stockard, Mark McFadden and Lynn McFadden.

SA Homecoming Set October 8-9

Officers and directors of the Santa Anna Ex-Student Association met recently to begin plans for the 1982 Homecoming.

Dates for the Ex-Student Homecoming have been set for October 8 and 9. The Friday night football game will be with Rochelle.

Special recognition will be given members of classes ending in '2'. Classes are encouraged to plan reunions and special events during the Homecoming, and those planning reunions asked to notify members of the Association or the Santa Anna News office to help with publicity and securing names and addresses of former students.

Officers and directors discussed seeking a local organization to co-sponsor the Homecoming dance Saturday night, October 9. This would be an excellent opportunity for fund raising, and clubs or organizations interested should contact board members.

Additional plans for the annual event and selection of the Ex-Student of the Year and Coming Home Queen will be made at the next meetings of the group.

Officers of the organization include Pete Simmons, Terry McIver, Leanna Hartman, Dickie Horner, Patrick Hosch and Betty Henderson.

Former students and teachers of Santa Anna are urged to mark the date on their calendars and make plans to attend the activities.

City Library Closed Monday

The Santa Anna Public Library will be closed Monday, July 5, in observance of the Independence Day holiday.

The Post Office and bank will also be closed on Monday.

Mountain Echoes

By Barbara Kingsbery

Unless you have been on the scene at a major fire, you cannot fully appreciate our local volunteer fire department. Enough praise cannot be given to those fine men and women who serve our community so well.

Within minutes of the alarm, firemen were on hand with their good equipment.

Since the fire started during the Sunday School hour, most of the firemen were within a few blocks of the site, and I was soon called to scene.

Firemen with masks and air packs asked what needed to be salvaged first, as they feared the fire would burn out of control or the ceiling might fall. Roddy Dean and Freddie Dodson entered the smoke-filled office and brought out the computer typesetter, ledgers, circulation records and micro-film of back issues. They returned to bring out the cash register and files of pictures and other items.

While the firemen were fighting the fire, Edith Dodson maintained the truck and pumping equipment and other firemen's wives were on hand to help move furniture, bring cold drinks and help in any manner possible.

When the fire was extinguished, the firemen and their wives helped move the furniture and equipment into the temporary building before starting the time-consuming task of cleaning their equipment and draining their hoses and putting them back in place on the trucks.

Volunteers also helped by directing traffic and assisting as they could.

Thank you, thank you, to everyone for their help and concern. Santa Anna folks are the very best -- which I have known for years.

Three New Businesses Open

Mobil Station Opening Soon

The Mobile service station in Santa Anna is to be re-opened within a few days, with Sandra and Montie Guthrie III the new operators. The station will be operated as Lagnappe Mobile Station, the unusual name chosen from the Louisiana French expression for something "a little extra."

The station will be operated by Eddie Dawson under the Guthrie's management. Montie III will continue in the construction business in addition to having the station.

The local Mobile station was owned for many years by H. A. (Sy) Burden. It was operated for a while by Glenn Hancock, then operated most recently by Mike Upchurch. The downtown station has been closed in recent months. Some remodeling and a lot of cleaning and painting have been done at the location. The building is owned by Rudolph Oil Co. in Coleman, the area Mobile dealer.

The Guthries will welcome former customers

Diet Center Open Monday

Rowena Anderson has been named counselor for the Diet Center in Coleman County, with the new business to open here Monday, July 5, and in Coleman in late July.

With over 1500 locations in the U. S., Diet Center provides counseling and 100 percent natural diet to aid weight loss.

Mrs. Anderson, former owner of Rowena's Beauty Shop, will operate the center from her home at 701 South Lee until the Coleman location opens in a few weeks.

T&W Diner On W. Wallis

Another new business opened in Santa Anna this week. The T&W Diner is now open at Moore's Quick Stop Station on west Wallis Avenue.

Owned by Teresa and Waymon Moore, the new diner is presently open from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. featuring Mr. Moore's home-cooked barbecue.

The business offers a complete breakfast, lunches, side orders, sandwiches and home made pies.

The Moores moved to Santa Anna about a year ago to operate the self service station, and last month moved the diner building to the site.

The name of the new diner was submitted by Lance Carroll of Coleman, with two free dinners given as the prize for naming the business.

Buffalo Homecoming Held Here June 26 - 27

The Third Annual Buffalo School and Community Homecoming was held last weekend at the Santa Anna Civic Center. Approximately 250 people registered on Saturday, with additional people attending the Sunday events.

Saturday activities included registration and visitation, with entertainment by musical groups during the afternoon. A barbecue supper and dance were held that evening.

Sunday events started with a memorial program honoring former Buffalo students and residents who lost their lives in service to their country. Elgean Gilliam of Abilene led the invocation, and a medley of patriotic songs was sung by Orabeth McIver and Barbara Kingsbery. Sandra Guthrie was pianist.

Marion Smith of Brownwood, president of the group, presided at the meeting, with a roll call of teachers, trustees and classes read by Pete Curry of Lake Brownwood.

Plaques of appreciation were presented by Mr. Smith to officers and committee chairmen of the association.

During the business meeting, Lonnie Holland of Brownwood was elected president for the coming year. He has served as vice president this year. Sybil Gilliam Nichols of Casper, Wyoming was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Newly elected as vice president was Carl Pennington of Bangs.

The annual reunion ended with a dinner at noon and visitation during the afternoon. Leaders of the group termed the event a success, and they encourage everyone to make plans to attend the get-together next June.

Historians believe fire was discovered some 400,000 years ago.

Aging Program Offered Expansion June Rainfall A Record For Santa Anna, County

The City of Santa Anna has been given the opportunity to expand the Aging Program in Santa Anna, from the West Central Texas Council of Governments. At the current time there are two programs operating, the Meals on Wheels, a volunteer group supported by local donations that serves the noon meal five days a week to local shut-ins, and the transportation service for 10 - 12 persons three days a week to the Coleman Senior Citizens' Center for the noon meal three days a week.

The proposal given the City from the WCTCOG is to expand the Senior Citizens Program to include meals served at Mountain City Center on three days a week for persons 60 years of age or older. The meals would be prepared in Coleman and brought to the local site to be served each Monday, Wednesday and Friday instead of transporting people to the Coleman location. As many as 15 to 20 persons would be needed to form the new program.

Although there is no charge for the meals, those who can do so are invited to make a donation each day.

Gaye Harvey, Mr. Sewell Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Harvey have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Gaye, to Raymond Sewell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Dean Sewell of Snyder.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Santa Anna High School, is presently employed at Hendrick

City officials need to know by next Thursday, July 8, the number of persons who would take part in the program and eat at the local center often or occasionally. Call City Hall at 348-3403 as soon as possible so that action may be taken at the next City Council meeting.

June Rainfall A Record For Santa Anna, County

June Rainfall set a record in Coleman County -- the wettest June total since 1898.

At the official gauge in Santa Anna, 9.55 inches were recorded, and more than that measured in parts of the community.

The 1982 total is 25.45 inches, just about the annual average for our area.

R. W. Balke, the official rain reporter, listed the following monthly totals for the first six months of 1982:

- January - 1.15
- February - 1.00
- March - 1.85
- April - 1.70
- May - 10.20
- June - 9.55

Lakes, tanks and creeks are filled to capacity in most of the area, and pastures and yards are in fine condition. Farmers have not been so pleased with the heavy rainfall, as many crops have been damaged or destroyed by the rain and accompanying hail and high winds. The loss in crops in Coleman County has been estimated in the millions of dollars.

Area people are continuing with their clean-up of their property, repairing fences, homes and barns that were damaged in the June 19 storm.

D. Stricklands Have Baby Boy

Mr. and Mrs. David Strickland are parents of a baby boy, David Brandon, born Friday, June 4, in Brady Memorial Hospital. The baby weighed five pounds, six ounces at birth and was 18 inches long.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Strickland of Santa Anna and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Watts of Brownwood are grandparents of the new baby. Maternal great-grandparents of the new arrival are Alfred and Edith Martin of Brady, Austin and Velma Watts of Krum and Elsie Brieten of Saint Jo. Paternal great-grandparents are Mrs. Ruth Breeden of Moran and Mrs. Thelma Strickland of Abilene.

Goodwin Resigns; Head Coach Named

Jack D. Snipes, 41, has been hired as head football coach at Santa Anna High School for the coming year. He replaces Roger Goodwin who has resigned to take another position after serving as head mentor for three years.

Snipes, a graduate of Early High School and Howard Payne University, will move here in August with his wife and two children. He has been in business in Houston the past ten years after having been in coaching and education since 1964. He also holds certification in teaching fields of history, drivers education and mathematics and has done graduate work at Southwest Texas State University.

Snipes started his coaching career at Yoakum, and has also served as basketball and track coach at Mason and Spring, and was head football coach at Montgomery High School where his team were regional champions and his basketball and track teams took the district championships. His last coaching position was at Roosevelt High School in San Antonio where he was an assistant football and basketball coach.

Most of Santa Anna's coaching staff resigned this year, with Goodwin, Barry Miles and Dean Bass taking other positions. Still to be filled is the assistant coaching position held by Miles. Charles Brewster, Elementary School principal, will continue as varsity boys basketball coach.

Also needed to complete the school faculty is a band director to replace Denise Waltrip who resigned earlier in the year.

Whon News

By Mrs. Tom Rutherford

We are very glad to report our community did not receive any storms again during the past week. Thursday morning around 3 or 4 a.m. we received .8 inch rain. Sunday morning, starting at 5 we received three inches, and for sure it really rained. Seems to me I never did see so much water with three inches of rain. The creeks in our territory are still full or near full tonight (Monday). We do feel the need of sunshine to bale hay and see if any grain is left after the rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Lovelady of Santa Anna were hosts to their little granddaughters, Stephanie and Melanie Lovelady of Brownwood, last week while the girls' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Randal Lovelady, were on vacation. Thursday the family went to the zoo in Abilene and the girls really did enjoy watching the animals, birds and other things found in the park, and the grandparents enjoyed it also.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morris visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Graham Fitzpatrick and with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rutherford. We all really enjoyed their surprise visit.

We are glad to report Mrs. Tom Vinson improving, and states she is not in pain. Mrs. Vinson has been rather inactive since several months back when a dog knocked her down and cracked a bone in her knee. So glad she is doing so much better. The Vinsons' great-granddaughter, K. K. Valdez, has been with them some since school was out. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Berry of Abilene, came for her Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Berry's parents.

Mrs. Jacky Morris of Santa Anna drove to the airport in Dallas Wednesday and brought her mother, Doris Thurber of Florida, here where she will be visiting with her daughter and children for a while. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morris visited with them Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac McIney of Brownwood were guests of Mrs. Juanita Minica in Santa Anna the past Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bowker of Santa Anna were bedtime guests of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Fitzpatrick Sunday night.

Gay Lynn Taylor, sister of Mrs. Glen Grote, from Washington State, came last Tuesday to visit with her sister and family for the summer. Mrs. Grote went to Dallas Tuesday to the airport and brought her here.

Mrs. Barbara Morgan and girls and Tracy's new baby, Flesha Don, of Brownwood were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morris Monday night.

Mrs. Alice Jane Mayfield of Abilene and Mrs. Myrtle Robertson of California were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Lovelady in Santa Anna Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Fitzpatrick and children of Santa Anna were here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Fitzpatrick, Saturday.

Miss Jacky Lynn Avants of Midland came early Monday morning and visited with her grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Avants in Santa Anna. Jacky Lynn, Mrs. Fannie Alsop and Mrs. Avants went to Coleman and visited with Mrs. James (Ray) Avants. We are glad Ray is home from the hospital, but sorry she has not felt too well this year. James Avants had quite a bit of damage done to his garden from the recent storms in Coleman.

Mrs. Lesia Bequette of Brownwood visited with her grandmother, Mrs. Juanita Minica in Santa Anna Saturday.

John David Morris of Eldorado visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morris, awhile Sunday. Jeffery Morris went home with John David for the week.

Mrs. Darwin Lovelady visited with Mrs. Lucille Strickland in Coleman on Sunday afternoon.

Elwayne Perkins of Grand Prairie visited awhile Saturday with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morris. Mr. Perkins was on his farm in the Owens community located north of Brownwood, and reported he had six inches of rain. He really did have the water. He has a big dam on his place and water was going out through the spillway for

McCrary Family

Reunion Set

The family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCrary will meet for a reunion Saturday and Sunday, July 3 and 4, at the Mountain City Center.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend the event in the downtown location. The first time since her purchased the farm a few years ago.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard Smith of Olton were the guests of his sister, Mrs. Letha Martin, Saturday night in Santa Anna. They were enroute home following a visit in the Valley with their children. Rev. Smith is pastor of the Nazarene Church in Olton and a former resident of our community and attended school here.

We do trust everything goes well with you until this time next week when we will be with you again. Thanks for the news -- that keeps us coming back weekly.

Accidents Major Cause Of Child Deaths

COLLEGE STATION— Accidents -- they're a major cause of death among school-age children.

Car-pedestrian accidents, drownings, fire-related mishaps and firearm accidents are four major death-causing misfortunes among young children, says Diane Welch, a family life education specialist.

Even though the death rate from injurious accidents has declined in recent years, among children ages 5 - 14, accidents are responsible for more than half the deaths of boys and two-fifths of girls' deaths.

Consequently, children as well as adults should be aware of safety precautions and learn to follow them as a matter of habit, she adds.

Welch is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

CAR-PEDESTRIAN DEATHS
Motor-vehicle accidents rank highest in terms of cause of death for boys and girls, the specialist reports.

Pedestrian fatalities account for one in every two deaths in car accidents involving children ages five to nine and one out of four at ages 10 - 14. Most pedestrian fatalities occur when children are playing in or crossing the street, Welch notes.

DROWNINGS
The threat of drowning has always haunted parents when children are swimming, the specialist says.

Drowning ranked second among boys and third among girls in accidents causing death, Welch reports.

FIRES
Fire and fire-related accidents ranked second among causing deaths in girls and third in boys, the survey showed.

Careless smoking and children playing with matches and lighters are the major causes of one out of every five fires, she says.

To prevent fires from occurring, Welch says children should:

- know that matches and lighters are not toys,
- learn what should be done in case a fire occurs and
- never be left alone in a house if they are very young.

In addition, adults need to make sure fire-hazardous articles are out of sight and reach of children, the specialist says.

FIREARMS
Accidents involving firearms are another major cause of death in school-age children. Firearm accidents appear more frequently among boys than girls, she reports. In addition, a large percentage of firearm deaths occur in the home instead of outside.

Consequently, to prevent accidents with guns from occurring in the home, Welch suggests that:

- if firearms must be kept in the house, keep them unloaded at all times,
- ammunition should be locked in a different place from guns, and
- children should not be allowed to handle a gun until they receive proper training.

In order to prevent possible accidents from occurring, parents should take the precautions listed seriously and teach their children to become aware of making safety a habit, she urges.

Health and Mental Retardation Center was guest speaking. The program theme "Gifts to Share Persons with Handicaps."

Mrs. Walter Scarbrough and Mrs. Ken Bowker, hostesses served sandwiches, cookies, nuts and lemonade to the above and Mrs. N.C. Watson, Miss Pauline Eubank, Rev. and Mrs. Mike Alexander and David, Mrs. Dick Baugh, Mrs. Nadora Gilmore, Mrs. J.T. Avants and Mrs. V.I. Dean.

The next meeting will be July 28.

Trickham News

By Mrs. O. R. Boenlecke

On Sunday, no one went to Sunday School Sunday morning. There was too much high water around from the big rains. 3 1/2 to four inches were reported. I got four inches in two days. Rev. Gary Spriggin, a Baptist minister will preach here next Sunday at 11 a.m.

The Cousins Reunion was held at Trickham Community Center with 18 present, the Laughlin, Miller and Clark family reunion. Some did not get to come because of bad weather and rain. They reported a good time together.

Robert and Connie Proler, Tracy and Christi of Austin visited a few days with Lou Vaughn last week. Also Russie James and Mary Lea Mitchell visited Lou Sunday night.

My niece, Mary Medley and great-niece, Erica Hendy came Sunday and ate dinner with me. Erica had visited her aunt two weeks at Dallas before they came here. She will stay a month with me. She lives at Houston.

Sunday evening, Erica and I went and visited Mrs. Artie Fry and Allie Thomas awhile. Also Walter and Carrie Stacy visited them.

Sunday afternoon, Darla and Ricky Beal and children of Santa Anna visited the Rankin McIvers. Also Genia and Grady McIver visited Sunday evening. Friday evening Rankin and Natalie McIver went to San Angelo and visited Sherry and Jim Blake and they all went out for supper.

Florence Stearns had all her family to visit her this last week. R.C. and Ann Stearns and boys visited one day. They helped her clean up after the storm so many limbs broke out of trees. The other three children and families visited Sunday. Frances and Charlie Ray Fleming and two boys from Alice, Texas are visiting here. Alice Wells and family from Coleman Gregory Wells and wife and Ervin Ray Wells and wife and three girls and Barbara and Charles Kirkpatrick and two girls and Verna Bolton spent Saturday night and Sunday with them. Also Carrie and Walter Stacy visited Sunday afternoon.

Visitors with Ilene Haynes were Billy Haynes and Tim. They visited a few days and Justin Haynes visited Friday. Oma Lee Dockery, Donnie and Sherry York and Sug Stearns and Sabrina visited one day.

Thursday night the Charles Brewsters, Brad and Sherri went to the Clive Brewsters to celebrate his mother's birthday with an ice cream party at Zephyr. Friday they celebrated Brad Brewster's birthday. They went to Abilene and ate out. Sunday was the Charles Brewster's 23rd Wedding Anniversary. They ate out after church at Brownwood.

Russie James and Lou

Vaughn, Roberta McShan and Almola James went to San Angelo Friday shopping.

Howard and Edna Fay Cravins of Stonewall spent Sunday night with the Bond Featherstones. They went to Brownwood for the Winchell Reunion Sunday.

Visitors with the J.E. Yorks were Edger and Lillie Cole of Brownwood. Other visitors during the week were Billy, Don Haynes, Winnie Haynes, Oma Lee Dockery, Genia McIver, Rodney Guthrie and Donnie and Sherry York.

The Quilting Club meets again this Tuesday afternoon at the Community Center.

We sure need some pretty weather. All the grain is no combined yet.

ANNIVERSARY PLANNED - Mr. and Mrs. S.L. Beard of Chico, Texas will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary. They were married in Coleman, Texas on July 19, 1932. She is the former Rosie Lee Cullins of Coleman. He was raised in Santa Anna and retired from Lone Star Industries of Bridgeport. They have four children, sixteen grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. Their children are honoring them with a reception at the Bridgeport Lion's Hall on Saturday, July 17, 1982, from 2:00 - 5:00 in the afternoon. The cordially invite their many friends to attend.

Name Changes Need Reporting For Social Security

Women who change their name - whether because of marriage, divorce or other reasons - should be certain to report the change to Social Security, Priscilla Tercero Social Security branch manager in Brownwood, said recently.

"Employers report earnings under the name by which their employees are known," Tercero said. "If the workers' names are not listed correctly, their earnings will not be properly recorded, and they may not receive all the Social Security credit due them."

A marriage, itself, does not have to be reported. "Many women today continue to use their maiden names after they marry," Tercero said. "If this is the case, the Social Security office need not be informed of the marriage. However, women should make certain to use the same name consistently throughout their employment."

"Even women who are not employed should report any name change so that their Social Security records will contain the correct name when they apply for benefits."

A name change should be reported on the 'Application for a Social Security Number Card,' which may be obtained from any Social Security office. Proof of identity under both the old and new names will be required.

Almost all social security matters can be handled by phone. To report a change, call toll free 800-392-1603.

A representative from the Brownwood office is in Santa Anna once a month, at the Mountain City Center the second Thursday of each month from 1-2 p.m.

Strickland Baby To Be Honored With Shower

David Brandon Strickland, the baby son of the David Stricklands, will be honored with a layette shower Thursday, July 8, at First Baptist Church annex. The party will be from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m., and all friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Screwworm Case Reported In Far South Texas

AUSTIN - A screwworm case was confirmed in the Delmita community about 35 miles northwest of Mission. This is the first case for June in Texas.

It was in a calf's foot and reported on June 25.

"It is essential for livestock producers within a 100 mile radius of this case to submit suspected screwworm samples to the fly lab at Mission. This is the fifth confirmed screwworm to be found in Texas this year. The last one was on May 21," said Dr. John W. Holcombe, executive director of the Texas Animal Health Commission.

Ranchers throughout the state are urged to be on the lookout for possible screwworm infestations. They should be submitted to the Mission fly lab for verification. County agents have special mailing kits in which to submit specimens to the Mission laboratory.

Traffic Deaths Predicted For Holiday Weekend

AUSTIN - The Department of Public Safety has estimated that as many as 47 persons could die in traffic accidents during this 4th of July weekend unless drivers are exceptionally careful.

Colonel Jim Adams, DPS director, said the risk of traffic accidents will increase during the 78-hour holiday period as more drivers take to the streets and highways for the holiday.

"As in many weekend traffic accidents, alcohol, excessive speed, and failure to use seat belts are the major contributing factors in the traffic deaths," he said.

DPS statistics show that 63 persons were killed during the last 4th of July holiday and 25 of those fatalities resulted from accidents in which driving while intoxicated was a factor.

"We know that drinking may have been involved in more of the traffic deaths, but since state law does not require blood alcohol samples from traffic victims, we are uncertain how many more of the deaths may have involved drivers impaired by alcohol," Adams noted. "Additionally, 59 persons were seriously injured during the last holiday in traffic accidents."

The DPS director said additional troopers would be assigned to areas where heavy volumes of traffic are expected.

"Our troopers are working during this holiday period to assist travelers and to watch closely for drivers who may have had too much to drink or who insist upon exceeding the speed limits," he said.

The DPS says many municipal police and county sheriffs' officers will also work local traffic safety programs during the holiday period.

The DPS Operation Motorcade counting period begins at 6 p.m. Friday, July 2, and continues through midnight Monday, July 5. The Department will tabulate city and highway traffic fatalities and release totals three times daily. The first report will be made at 10 a.m. Saturday, July 3.

Popular Microwave Cooking Hints

COLLEGE STATION - Examine the many aspects of today's new microwave-convection oven combinations on the market before making a buying decision, says Beverly Rhoades, a consumer information specialist.

Microwave-convection ovens are getting a lot of attention right now, as, ideally, they combine the speed and efficiency of microwave cooking with the browning and crisping qualities of the convection oven, she says.

Rhoades is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

HOW OVEN WORKS
Microwave-convection ovens allow you to cook with microwaves OR convection (circulating hot air) OR a combination of both methods, Rhoades says.

These ovens have both power levels and temperature settings.

Some will heat up to 450 degrees F., while others will heat no higher than 300 degrees F.

Convection cooking allows food to be cooked at lower temperatures than you would normally need for conventional cooking.

CHECK FOR ROOMINESS
Combination ovens look very much like microwave ovens, except they're larger and they must be vented for release of hot air. This requires substantial counter space, Rhoades points out.

Check the inside cavity in each case to see that it's large enough to cook your largest items, such as large roasts, turkeys and other bulky items.

COMPARE COSTS
Most combination ovens cost more than microwaves and may cost as much as BOTH a microwave and a convection oven, so be sure to compare costs among different models and then weigh the choices carefully, the specialist advises.

Consider your needs versus the cost, too.

HOW 'COMBOS' COOK
Today's new combination ovens cook by alternating back and forth between microwave cooking and convection cooking during the cooking process, or they cook first with one mode and then with the other.

Each oven's operating instructions and recipe booklet will explain how the appliance works and which cooking method or combination is recommended.

FEATURES TO COMPARE

Some brands of combination ovens have temperature probes which allow you to check the internal temperature of foods, and they may even cut the oven off when the desired temperature is reached.

COMPARE END PRODUCT OF EACH
When possible, attend a cooking demonstration of the brands you're considering. As with microwave ovens, some brands cook better than others, Rhoades says.

Check to see that foods cook uniformly. A turntable that rotates food helps distribute microwaves more evenly.

Also, check to see if foods on all shelves cook evenly - as well as bulky foods. Food near the hot-air source may brown faster than other foods.

Ovens Cook Fast
Cooking with microwave or convection is usually faster than conventional cooking unless food quantities are large, Rhoades notes.

When the oven is a combination model, cooking is slower than straight microwave, but it's still usually faster than conventional cooking.

When the oven is a combination model, cooking is slower than straight microwave, but it's still usually faster than conventional cooking.

Speed depends on the quantity and density (bulk) of the foods.

KNOW COOKWARE NEEDS

Ask about cookware as you consider oven choices, Rhoades suggests.

Cookware designed for microwaves can be used in combination ovens, but some ovens will not allow metal containers.

Be aware that cookware does get hot when convection heat is part of the cooking process - unlike microwave cooking - so be sure to have a hot pad handy to remove food from the oven.

OVEN NEEDS CLEANING

Your combination oven will need cleaning. Clean it as soon as it cools so food residue doesn't build up on the interior surface.

CHECK ENERGY COSTS

Energy savings are possible with combination ovens, but some styles lack energy efficiency, so they may even use more energy than conventional ovens.

Read labels for clues to operating costs.

SCANDINAVIAN HAM SALAD

1 Dole Fresh Pineapple
2 cups cooked ham, cut into chunks
6 cherry tomatoes, halved
1 cup sliced celery
1/4 cup sliced green onions
1/2 cup dairy sour cream
1/2 teaspoon dill weed
1/2 teaspoon hot mustard
1/4 teaspoon lemon juice
1/8 teaspoon garlic salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper

Cut pineapple in half lengthwise through crown. Remove fruit, leaving shells intact. Core and dice fruit. In a large bowl, combine pineapple, ham chunks, cherry tomatoes, celery and green onions. In a small bowl, combine all remaining ingredients for dressing, blending well. Spoon dressing over pineapple combination, tossing gently to mix. Pile salad into pineapple shells to serve. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

NEWS OF TRAVEL

An ancient Roman aqueduct forms a picturesque background for these vacationers busy constructing a modern-day sand castle.

Can you name this country? Its many and varied tourist attractions have caused some to call it "The Miracle of the Mediterranean," and one of the best travel values available today.

Beach buffs harken to the lure of its sun, sea and sand. Wintertime skiers skim historic sites and enjoy the facilities of new resorts in old settings.

Culture lovers enjoy its wealth of fine talent, symphony orchestras and major music festivals. For the gourmet, fine restaurants offer premier French cuisine, the best in Mideast dishes and a melange of Swiss, Italian and Oriental fare, just to name a few.

Museums document history. Shopping offers some of the best in jewelry, fashions, footwear, leather, furs and diamonds. The tourist can luxuriate in the finest of modern accommodations while savoring scenery that includes ancient Roman ruins.

Do you know this country? It's Israel, a land that draws more than a million travelers from all over the world each year. A prime reason is the skillful blending of the old and the new. This is the land of the Bible. It's also a bustling nation dedicated to touring, shopping, dining, sunning, sailing and enjoying.

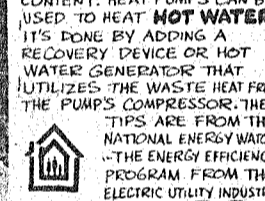

It is here that Christian pilgrims flock to the Via Dolorosa and touch Stations of the Cross on their way to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. Jews flock to the Western Wall while Hassidim dance rapturously on Friday nights. Periodic calls to worship during the day herald Moslems' quick and silent footsteps to the magnificent Dome of the Rock.

In truth, it can be a land for everyone.

WATCH YOUR ENERGY

HEAT PUMPS ARE REMARKABLE ENERGY-SAVING DEVICES. HERE ARE SOME FACTS YOU MAY NOT KNOW. YOUR HOUSE CAN BE CLEANER IF YOU USE A HEAT PUMP. THE CIRCULATING AIR IS FILTERED TO REMOVE FOREIGN MATTER. THE HEAT PUMP ALSO ACTS AS AN AIR CONDITIONER IN SUMMER... THEREFORE IT CONTROLS THE HUMIDITY, REDUCING THE HOUSE'S MOISTURE

CONTENT. HEAT PUMPS CAN BE USED TO HEAT HOT WATER. IT'S DONE BY ADDING A RECOVERY DEVICE OR HOT WATER GENERATOR THAT UTILIZES THE WASTE HEAT FROM THE PUMP'S COMPRESSOR. THESE TIPS ARE FROM THE NATIONAL ENERGY WATCH - THE ENERGY EFFICIENCY PROGRAM FROM THE ELECTRIC UTILITY INDUSTRY.

Sunday Fire Adds to Santa Anna News History

THANK YOU

To everyone who helped in any way after the fire at our office Sunday.

The Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Department deserves great praise for their service. Thanks to these men and women and other volunteers who assisted at the scene. Also assisting were friends who came to assist with our relocation, the Coleman County Telephone Cooperative workers who got our telephone in operation Sunday afternoon; John Rambo for the use of his building; Hope Drilling Co. and others who offered storage space for our equipment; and to the many people who offered their encouragement and support. Milton Autry at Coleman Chronicle for assistance offered.

The Santa Anna News will be located at 214 N. Second Street, continuing to serve the community and area.

Thanks again, Santa Anna.

You are great!

Years Ago in the News

The following stories are from the January 10, 1941 edition of the Santa Anna News:

Drilling in of two wells shifted attention last week to the Santa Anna gas field from the Novice oil field in northwestern Coleman County where one producer was completed.

Lone Star Gas Co. No. 1 R. C. Gay was drilled in for a gauged 1,088,000 cubic feet of gas daily, naturally, at 2,258 feet. The gas volume increased to an estimated five million cubic feet daily when the well was treated with 2,000 gallons of acid. Location in subdivision 4 of Mary Ann Fisk Survey 630.

Director General, A. D. Pettit of Santa Anna has called a meeting of the executive committee of the Coleman County Interscholastic League for Thursday, January 16, at the office of the county superintendent. Dates and other plans for the county interscholastic League meet will be made.

Directors of the events are O. C. Cook, W. R. Chambers, Mrs. Mary Michaels, Lynn Mitchell, W. T. Bowers, Jimmy Cloyd, Terrell Graves, Mrs. Jessie Martin, Mrs. J. Frank Turner, A. B. Carroll, Mrs. Joe LeMay, A. L. Stewart, Maurine Stevens, Edith Tombs, Mrs. Joe Burroughs and Miss Francine Merritt.

Clarence Brinson, new owner of Brinson's Bakery

In Santa Anna, has recently installed an automatic wrapping machine which enables him to give his customers better service and better merchandise.

Mr. Brinson handles cakes, pies, cookies, bread, rolls and a complete line of bakery products. He is also prepared to fill special orders for weddings, parties or receptions.

Saturday morning, January 4, the Anti-tank company, with the full strength of three officers and 90 enlisted men, stationed in Santa Anna since November 23, 1940, left for Camp Bowie. With the arrival of Santa Anna's company the total camp enrollment was brought to 5,858 men.

At Camp Bowie the soldiers in the Anti-tank company are housed in pyramidal tents, 16 feet square, with five men to a tent.

Each tent is heated with a wood stove. The camp and living quarters have been constructed for the comfort and convenience of the men. Mess halls are equipped with gas ranges, electric refrigeration and other modern equipment.

Members of the Anti-tank company were permitted to take their cars to camp, if they desired. Cars will be parked in a motor pool when not in use. Men who can obtain housing facilities may take their families to Brownwood.

WPA workmen are working 12 hours a day on Curtis Field at Brady in an effort to have the national defense airport ready for the opening of Maj. W. F. Long's aviation school by Feb. 15. Two shifts of 90 each have been working on the field since Tuesday of last week, with each shift working six hours.

Coleman countians have experienced one of the wettest years in the history of the county.

A total of 33.41 inches of rain fell. That figure compares with 27.3 inches in 1938 and 24.86 in 1939.

Weekend specials at Red & White Grocery Stores: Flour - 24 lbs. for 65 cents Sugar (in cloth bag) - 10 lbs. for 49 cents Corn Flakes - 10 cents per box Lettuce - two large heads - 9 cents Coffee - 2 lb. can - 49 cents

Influenza cases were decreasing in number Thursday of this week, according to medical authorities. Santa Anna and the surrounding territory has suffered the effects of the influenza epidemic for the past three weeks. The large percentage of cases was in favor of mild attacks with few serious cases being reported.

The epidemic is under control throughout Coleman County. All public schools have re-opened with the exception of Novice.

Sul Ross team members Tuff Hedeman, Chuck Lambert, Cody Lambert, Gip Allen, Chuck Kinney, Wes Smith and Coach John Mahoney by SRSU

Gip Allen on SRU Rodeo Team That Wins National Finals

The Sul Ross University Rodeo Team won the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Championship last week in Bozeman, Montana, scoring a total of 942 points to lead the 75 teams in the event.

Gip Allen, son of James and Ann Allen of Santa Anna, is a member of the SRU Rodeo Team and was in Bozeman for the finals, competing in the steer wrestling event.

Sul Ross and another team from the Southwest Region, Texas Western College at Snyder, took the top prizes at the NIRA finals. There are 15 regions in the NIRA organization, with the top contestants from each region qualifying for the finals competition.

In addition to the championship title, Cody Lambert of El Paso, a member of the SRU team, was winner of the All-Around Cowboy title.

Other members of the Sul Ross Rodeo Team are Tuff Hedeman, Chuck Lambert, Chuck Kinney and Wes Smith. John Mahoney is coach.

Allen, a graduate of Santa Anna High School, attended Ranger Junior College two years and was a member of that school's rodeo team. He transferred to Sul Ross two years ago where his brother, Guy, was also a student and on the Rodeo Team. Guy and Gip are also members of the Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association, competing in team roping, steer roping and calf roping. Gip has just this year started in the steer wrestling contests. Guy is a former World Champion Steer Roper.

Attending the NIRA finals in Bozeman were Mr. and Mrs. Allen and Becky.

Presbyterians' Pastor Arrives Here

Rev. and Mrs. Jim Gooch and son are moving this week to Santa Anna where he is assuming the pastorate of United Presbyterian Church. This will be the first pastorate for the new minister who has just completed his master of theology degree at the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Austin.

The new minister will preach his first sermon here Sunday, July 4. His ordination and installation service is planned Sunday, July 11, at 7 p.m.

Members of the church and friends are invited to attend the 11 a.m. service Sunday to greet the new minister and his family to the community.

Dr. Clyde Majors of Howard Payne University, interim pastor of the church, was honored following the Sunday, June 27, service with a dinner and gifts of appreciation from the congregation for Dr. Majors' 13-month interim pastorate here.

Results of Turkey Hunt listed By State Agency

AUSTIN++ Examination of more than 100 wild turkey wings donated by hunters to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department last fall has revealed that a high percentage of the turkeys harvested were juveniles.

Don Wilson, upland game bird program leader, said the percentages ranged from 50 percent juveniles in South Texas to 68 percent in the Edwards Plateau and 73 percent in the Possum Kingdom ecological districts.

"This date tells us several things," Wilson commented. "First it substantiates what we found in last summer's hen-poult counts, namely that we had the best turkey hatch in more than 15 years in spring 1981.

"It also tells us that turkeys potentially can reestablish good populations after several poor years of reproduction with one good hatch," said Wilson.

Wilson said hunters were highly cooperative in donating turkey wings after biologists distributed special envelopes at hunting camps in 13 counties. He said juvenile birds are differentiated from adults by examining the last two primary flight feathers.

"Hunters can be justifiably optimistic about the turkey situation for the fall and spring seasons of 1982-83," Wilson added. "Habitat conditions have been close to optimum this spring for another outstanding hatch, so we may see more birds than ever in the coming year," Wilson said.

HOME FROM TRIP

Mrs. Claudine Brown is back at home after spending a week's vacation in California. She was accompanied by a niece, Mrs. Charlene Archer of Abilene.

The two ladies flew from Dallas to Ontario, California on American Airlines, and were met for the drive to Riverside, California for a visit with Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. Ellena Davidson, and a niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Stonebreaker and Andy. They enjoyed sightseeing near Los Angeles and spent a day at Disneyland and Laguna Beach while there.

FIRST AID FACTS

1-2-3's of Home Medical Care

A few moments of planning can prepare any member of the household to tend to minor daily emergencies that require first aid treatment.

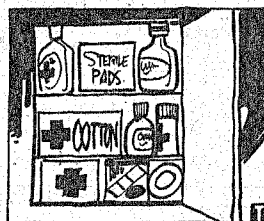

First, check your medicine cabinet. Is it adequately stocked with Band-Aids in assorted sizes, gauze pads, rolled gauze, and adhesive tape?

Show all family members where these dressings are stored, making sure that every item is visible, so no one has to hunt for things when there is no time to spare. You may also want to clip this article and tape it to the inside of your medicine cabinet for reference.

Always cleanse all minor wounds with mild soap and water. Remember to wash your own hands first to prevent germs from entering the cut or abrasion. Then, treat with a first aid cream or topical antibiotic for further protection.

To prevent contamination and to absorb fluids leaking from the wound, cover with a gauze dressing. First, fold the gauze in place and secure with a first aid tape. If the wound is small, use a Band-Aid. Covering a wound also protects against reinjury.

First aid experts caution that deep wounds or serious burns require immediate medical attention. Take the victim to the doctor's office as quickly as possible. If you cannot reach your doctor or you have no family physician, take the patient to the closest emergency room for treatment.

Any time the skin is broken due to an injury, tetanus may result. So check with your physician to see if a booster is needed. Children's inoculations are usually up to date, but adults somehow feel that they are not vulnerable and this leaves them open to dangerous illness. Parents should keep records of all inoculations, yes, including their own and provide for booster shots whenever necessary.

After the accident, keep the wound clean, change dressings frequently and check for signs of infection: hot, painful reddening around the injured area, swelling, chills or fever. Any or all of these symptoms require immediate medical care.

The principle of canned food was developed by Parisian confectioner Nicolas Appert in 1795, in response to an offer made by the French government of a 12,000 franc prize for an improved method of food conservation.

Ranger Park Inn News

Bro. John A. Holmes of Coleman was at the Inn Wednesday visiting with residents.

We enjoyed the singing of the Gospel Singers from Coleman Tuesday afternoon. Thanks to Doris Aderholt, Wanda Wallace, Kate Cagle, Neal Smith, H. O. and Annie Merle Trent, Jim Boyles, Allene Needham, Nell Scott and Virgie Wood. You all bring a ray of sunshine into our lives.

The singing of the church group was enjoyed by a large group of residents Tuesday evening. In the group were Bro. and Mrs. P. A. Lindley, Mrs. Nolan, Mrs. Keeney and Neal Smith. We look forward to each visit.

Bro. Ray Bruce was at the Inn for the devotion and singing Sunday afternoon. We appreciate him coming in Jackie Hopper's place. Thank you Ray, Jr., for coming with your father. We enjoyed the afternoon service very much.

The movie, "Johnny Lingo," was enjoyed by the residents Friday afternoon.

The birthday party was attended by a large number of residents Thursday afternoon. Thank you, Eunice Longbrake, for honoring Lillie Knotts, Mattie Hicks, Allie Woodard and Herman Howard with such a beautiful party. The honorees, along with the residents, enjoyed refreshments of cake, pecans, ice cream and punch.

It was such a delight to listen to the music of the String Band Friday night, along with Aunt Samantha's readings. Thank you, Alfred and Dessie Gulley, Jack and Ruth Banta, Lester Arnold, Vernon Allen and Fannie Gilbert for a lovely evening of entertainment. We were happy to have Etheleen Stewart, Imo Herring, O. C. Barker and Herman Estes visit us, too.

Visitors with Ethel Matthews during the week were Mrs. Loraine (Pritchard) Hahn of Middletown, Pa., Miss Kelly Hahn, and Opal Little of Santa Anna, her nieces, and her daughter, Jeanette Brock. Another visitor was a grandson, David Tucker of Merkel.

Mrs. Brock also visited Maud McCarrell while at the Inn.

Jean Alexander of Atlanta, Ga. has visited often with her mother, Allie Woodard, while visiting here.

Willard and Velma Hinkle of Waco visited her mother, Mary Cruger. Also visiting was a friend, Geneva Wood of Fontana, Calif.

Visitors with Mary Miller were Marie Britton and Allene Gassiot of Valera and Irene Ryan of Coleman.

Visitors with Mabel Burge were her children, Elgean and Dorothy Harris and Tommy, and Lou Harvey.

Pauline Armstrong and Rose Moxley visited with a friend, Sarah Barnetke.

Mary Brooker's visitors have included her daughters, Lizzy Williams and Ila Todd of Coleman.

Dale and Cindy Howard and daughter of Lubbock have visited his father, Herman Howard.

Johnny Deal of Brownwood, Rolan Deal of Rockwood and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilmore and daughter of California have visited with Leo Deal, an uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hibbs and boys of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Estes, Chris, Aaron and Kystra of Lubbock and Herman and Edna Estes of Bovina have visited their mother and grandmother, Ollie Estes.

Marie Britton of Valera and the Herman Estes have visited with Susie Snider.

Ima Boenicke has had a number of visitors during the past week. They have included Rev. and Mrs. Ruben Packer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lucker of Brownwood; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Vogel and their daughter, Mrs. Glenn Bell and Christopher, Mrs. August Kowierschke, Mrs. Carl Harris, Mrs. Doc Holleman and A. W. and Rosanelle Hickey, all of Bangs.

How To Burglar-Proof Your Home

With break-ins occurring at an all-time high of one every eight seconds, here are a few pointers on how to burglar-proof your living quarters.

1. Leave the Sound of Music Playing. Before entering a house, many burglars will knock on the door first. When no one answers, they listen at the door. If they hear a radio or TV playing, they take it for granted there's someone home who does not want to answer the door.

2. Don't Mix Your House and Car Keys. Keep your house keys separate from your car keys. It's a common racket for burglars to take jobs as car park attendants so that they can get access to house keys. While you're inside enjoying your dinner, they're getting your keys copied.

3. Beware of Phone Callers. If a woman answers, the burglar asks for her husband. When she says he's not home or she hasn't got one, he knows he can handle a woman easier than a man. It's safer for a woman to tell an unknown caller that her husband is busy and will call back in a few minutes.

4. Keep the Home Lights Burning. Don't leave all the lights on all the time. If he sees the lights burning at 3 a.m., the burglar can come back the next day, see the lights still burning and know the house really is empty. You can leave a hall or bathroom light on all night. Or better still, have a neighbor come in at night to deal with the lights. A timer will do the same thing automatically. It's worth the investment.

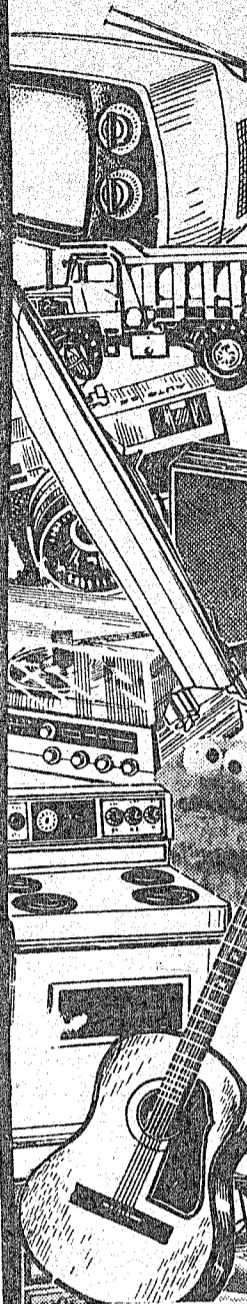

5. Never Hide a Key. Burglars know and automatically look in all the places people think of to hide a key. Under the doormat, above the door, in flower pots or window boxes. The mail box is the usual place. If you want to have a key available outside the house, leave it with a neighbor and offer to do the same favor for them, too.

6. Good Neighbors. Get into the habit of keeping an eye on your neighbors' houses, and ask them to do the same for you, too. A lot of burglars pretend to be repairmen or deliverymen. Let your neighbor know if you're expecting anyone. If your neighbor sees anything suspicious, he or she should call the firm on the delivery or repair truck and check it out.

7. Mark Your Valuables. It's relatively simple to place a permanent identifying mark on TV sets, cameras, stereos and other valuables that burglars usually steal. Your social security number is best for this purpose. Place it where it won't be seen by the burglar who could remove it. Once you've marked your valuables, put a note in your window notifying burglars that everything in your home is coded. The thought of the problem ahead could discourage the burglar altogether.

8. Is Your House Securely Locked? If you think a key-in-the-knob slam lock will secure your home, you're living in the past. A child with a plastic card can open your door in less than two minutes. In fact, a hefty five-year-old can actually push your front door open with this system of locking. What you need is a lock with a bolt that extends at least one inch. The lock should require a key on both the inside and outside to be really effective. And don't forget to secure your windows too.

BACKGROUND ON BUSINESS

Companies Look for Eager Managers Who'll Develop

Many companies base their success on a new kind of business thinking -- decentralized and flexible. Management and administrative procedures at one such firm, Siemens Corporation, the major U.S. company of Siemens AG of West Germany, are suited to encourage a spirit of independence that inspires incentive, flexibility, and quick decision making. Here, the Corporation's president, Werner F. Zieler, in an address delivered at the Wharton Entrepreneurial Center, talks about the need for more people with entrepreneurial qualities in today's large companies.

Fostering a truly international entrepreneurial spirit in a multinational corporation is not an easy task. The need for coordination, job definitions and descriptions of powers, firm sets of rules and regulations, as well as endless controls lead to slow responsiveness and risk avoidance. They can suppress or even eliminate the entrepreneur. It is one of the most important duties of management to create conditions in its organization which attract entrepreneurs and which develop their skills. Diplomacy, sensitivity to the needs of other parts of the organization, ability to communicate loyalty and confidence to act on instructions of a pipeline in a network of higher order, must not end in submission and lack of initiative. Resourcefulness of the visionary with the qualities to innovate, and with the courage to change, have a place in well-run organizations of any size.

Entrepreneurs are resourceful, innovative people with the courage to change established procedures. They're the kind of people that are needed to make any major company a real success.

Within Siemens, it has been a policy of a long tradition to expose managers to a wide variety of situations, both functionally and geographically. It is our strength to offer a great number of possibilities to the specific talents and ambitions of an individual. If skills even in large organizations had not been able to produce managers who arrange themselves with dis-

BEING A GOOD NEIGHBOR CAN PAY OFF

A lot of Americans are discovering that a "good neighbor" policy can pay off. It's one way many people are lowering the burglary rate in their areas.

Methods may vary but the basic approach is the same. People from a neighborhood team up to act as extra "eyes and ears" for the police. They've discovered that often crime really does go down as the result of such efforts.

One of the country's major insurance companies believes so strongly in the approach that it's developed a Neighborhood Watch kit of brochures plus a film that's available on a free loan basis.

The Neighborhood Watch idea is already working in more than 20,000 American communities. Many groups drive in pairs, making sweeps of the neighborhood. They watch for suspicious cars and people.

R. Horners Honored With Housewarming

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Horner were honored with a surprise housewarming at their new home Friday, June 11. Friends, neighbors and relatives visited with the family and toured the new home from 7-10 p.m.

Hosting the party were the couples children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Simmons and sons of Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. Dickie Horner and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. David Horner of Giddings.

A cake baked and decorated by Melinda Horner was served with punch, cookies, nuts and mints. The dining table was laid with a white lace cloth and centered with a dried arrangement. Gifts for the Horners were displayed in the game room.

The Horners moved into the new four-bedroom home this spring. The home, located on the Horner place in the Plainview Community, was built by Don Pritchard & Co.

About 85 attended the party.

- SHRIMP STIR FRY
- 1/2 cup creamy Italian salad dressing
 - 3 tablespoons soy sauce
 - 12 ounces peeled, deveined raw shrimp, cut in half lengthwise
 - 1 large onion, sliced
 - 1 large green pepper, cut in 1-inch pieces
 - 1 can (4 oz.) sliced mushrooms, drained (or 1/4 pound fresh mushrooms, sliced)

SA Man Awarded Damages After Accident in Abilene

A 104th District Court jury in Abilene Thursday, June 17, ruled a Santa Anna journeyman carpenter is entitled to workman's compensation for an accident while working on the First Baptist Church Family Life Center in Abilene.

State Dist. Judge Billy John Edwards said the total disability resulting from an April 9, 1980, will amount to about $45,000 when all the offsets and discounts are added and subtracted.

Equitable General Insurance Company, carrier for Jacobson's former employer, Rose Construction Co. of Abilene, was found liable to Jacobson for the maximum $119-a-month workmen's comp benefit for the maximum 401 weeks, by unanimous verdict of the four-man, eight-women jury.

The jury verdict also gives Jacobson coverage for all past and future medical bills attributable to the on-the-job injury. The panel found him due $8,794.35 for past medical bills.

Jacobson said he twisted his back while avoiding a 33-foot fall at the project.

Roy Longacre, attorney for the insurance company, contended the April 9 accident did not totally incapacitate Jacobson, as a series of jobs he held subsequent to that date showed.
