HOME TOWN TALK

By BETTY

As this mass meeting for consideration of the city hall-and-fire station project approaches it might be well to point out to the people just what the board of city development is, what the city charter sets out as its functions and the very fact that it is included in the city charter.

Questions about the b. c. d. are often asked.

First, the board of city development is a group of fifteen representative citizens selected by the board of city commissioners under authority given it by the city's home rule charter.

Second: The funds for carrying on the functions of the board of city development are appropriated by the city commission from the general funds, the amount not to exceed 10 cents per $100 of taxable values. The funds of this board can be used in any way it sees fit for improvements or undertakings for the promotion of the general welfare of the citizenship. It is required to make an annual report to the city commission accounting of all the money appropriated to it.

Third: The board of city development serves in an advisory capacity to the city commission on all matters of public interest and promote those regulatory and legislative measures that benefit the majority of the people. It is a fact finding group of citizens who have only one interest—that being the interest of the majority of the people.

The board of city development provision of the charter was not put into practice until a few months ago. For the current fiscal year no appropriation has been made for it but the present board has asked the commission to give it at least a part of the funds available under the charter for its work the coming year.

Tonight we study the feasibility of building a new city hall, with an auditorium and fire station. The new fire station—if it materializes—will be much more modern than the present one we are sure. But, we doubt whether more care will be taken in the grounds about it than is being shown by the firemen now. They have made the spaces between curb and sidewalk as well as other spaces beautiful with flowers and are to be commended for it.

Every citizen should be present at the court house tonight. Those wishing to do so should ask questions concerning the projects. It will, we are sure, be a good, business-like neighborly discussion of a community problem.

W. M. Gage Is New Gulf Agent Here

W. M. Gage, formerly of Sweetwater, where he was special representative of the Gulf Refining Co., has assumed the local agency for the company's products in Big Spring and surrounding territory. The agency was formerly operated by Mr. Wentz.

Mr. Gage has been with the Gulf company for eighteen years and previous to his position with headquarters in Sweetwater was with the company in Austin. Mrs. Gage and their four children will remain in Sweetwater until school is out when they will come to Big Spring. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hahn, the Gage's daughter and son-in-law, have moved to Big Spring from Austin and Mr. Hahn will be associated in the business.

DR. HARCUS RETURNS

Dr. J. R. Harcus of Bivins and Barnes Hospital, has returned after a visit with his mother at Fort Worth.

Start A Zoo!

Airport Staff Already Has Possum, Fox and Coon; Funny-faced Owl Promised

The foundation of a modern zoo has been made at the Big Spring Airport, by American Airways officials.

At the present the zoo consists of a young opossum, a fox and a coon. A "monkey face" owl has been promised.

In addition to the animals, a gold fish pond containing all varieties has been made.

It is located in the cactus garden recently planted by the employees.

THE four men shown above were honored in the annual awards of Pulitzer prizes for outstanding accomplishments in literature and journalism for the past year. Charles S. Ryckman, editorial writer of the "Philadelphia Ledger," was awarded the prize for the best editorial. His article was entitled, "The Gentleman From Nebraska." Clark Howell, Sr., is publisher of the "Atlanta Constitution," which received the honor of having accomplished the most outstanding civic service for his expose of graft in that city. Edmund Duffy, cartoonist of the Baltimore Sun, received $1,000 for the cartoon shown at the top, judged the best of the year. H. R. Knickerbocker, foreign correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, was honored for his series of articles on the five-year Soviet plan.

Mail Service Is Continued

Order Stopping Passenger Service With Fokker In Force

Giant Fokker F-10 planes were landing on schedule time over American Airways' Dallas to Los Angeles route today, without passengers.

The westbound plane arrived shortly on time with Pilot Newton and Co-Pilot Arden at the controls. The ship carried only mail. The action followed announcement Monday by the department of commerce, aeronautics division, that passenger service on all Fokker F-10 crafts would be discontinued until further notice.

Local airport officials had no statement to make regarding the

Bush Finishes Boys' Feeder Club Program

14 Members To Appear Friday Morning At Government Farm

J. V. Bush, county agent, today announced his part of the field day program, to be held at the government experiment farm Friday. Mr. Bush will have charge of the morning session.

Bush announced that the Feeder Club club, composed of 4-H club members, and others would participate in the morning program.

Hubert Hayworth of Comanche will talk at 9:30 a. m. on the purpose of the Feeder-Club club and show. Each of the members will make reports of feeding operations during the year.

At 10:30 a. m. twenty calves belonging to eight boys and one girl, who have participated in the feeding operation, will be sold at auction.

A. L. Smith, extension beef cattle specialist of A. & M. college, will judge the calves immediately after Payne's talk.

Five minute talks will be made by L. B. Cauble, prominent Howard County Hereford cattle breeder, and John Simpson, assistant Texas and Pacific railway agricultural agent.

At 10:30 a. m. twenty calves belonging to eight boys and one girl, who have participated in the feeding operation, will be sold at auction.

Bush announced that the meat cutting demonstration, to be given by Roy W. Snyder, extension meat specialist of A. & M. college, would be held at the close of the program.

A barbecue luncheon will be served at noon.

Fred Keating, manager of the government farm, will announce the afternoon program.

Forsan Man Again Object Of Charges

J. H. Harrison, Forsan, was back in jail today charged with a statutory offense against his thirteen year old stepdaughter, Verlene Deasman. A new charge was filed against Harrison.

He was arrested several weeks ago and similar charges filed against him. In an examining trial held before Justice of the Peace Cecil C. Collings, the step-daughter was ordered released from jail by Judge Smith. He also dismissed charges against him. The girl was placed under bond for appearance before the May term grand jury.

She appeared before the body Monday afternoon. Harrison's arrest and the new charge following completion of her testimony before the grand jury.

Opponents Of Co-Op Grain Marketing Are Denounced By McKenzie

OMAHA, Neb., May 5 (UPI)—Attorney General James V. Alfred today advised Fred Mihic, speaker of the house of representatives, his opinion that the regular session of the legislature is not limited to 120 days.

He was arrested several weeks ago and similar charges filed against him. In an examining trial held before Justice of the Peace Cecil C. Collings, the step-daughter was ordered released from jail by Judge Smith. He also dismissed charges against him. The girl was placed under bond for appearance before the May term grand jury.

Rodeo Performer Pleads Not Guilty Of Murder

HOUSTON, May 5 (UPI)—Luther Bevick, rodeo performer, today pleaded not guilty as his trial started on charges of slaying William Byrd at Post Arthur, October 13, 1929.

The state contends the shooting was over the love of Miss Belle Crowe, also, fatally shot when Byrd was killed.

A motion for a continuance was overruled.

Kiwanis Clubs Open Fifteenth Annual Meeting

MIAMI, May 4.—Kiwanians from all parts of the U. S. and Canada here today for the 15th annual convention of Kiwanis International, are making plans for group study this week of community problems in child welfare, health and education, urban-rural relations, juvenile delinquency, crime and adult education. The theme for the entire convention is "Kiwanis—Vitalizing Force in Community, National and International Life." Dr. J. T. Higert, president of the University of Florida, is to deliver the keynote address.

The service organization, which was founded in Lakewood in 1915, now has 1,876 club units in the communities of the United States and Canada, according to Fred C. W. Parker, of Chicago, international secretary, who made his annual report to delegates.

Kiwanis develops an organization of progressive business and professional men united in genuine fellowship for service in their community, declared Mr. Parker. "The Kiwanis of tomorrow can be built on the Kiwanis of today, because the organization has produced an abiding value to society. Indeed, the future is secure." The total and scope of the achievement in civic service and community betterment is amazing. However great the past of Kiwanis has been, it is not exceeding the future.

Julian Brings In East Texas Gusher

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 2 (UPI)—C. C. Julian, Oklahoma City oil promoter, brought in his first gusher in the East Texas field to day, his office here announced.

The well, the C. C. Julian Oil & Royalties Company, No. 3 on the England tract, came in for an estimated 15,000 barrels daily. It is located about one mile northeast of Kilgore in Rusk county in proven territory.

The company announcement said that Julian now is one of the largest independent tract holders in the East Texas field and is drilling on many of his leases. The well that came in today was his first producer. Julian is sole trustee of the C. C. Julian Royalties Company.

Kiwanis Clubs Open Fifteenth Annual Meeting

gives promise of a greater field of community endeavor for Kiwanis. Raymond M. Crossman, of Omaha, president of Kiwanis International, in his annual message to delegates today said: "The strength of Kiwanis is in the high type of membership in our clubs. Many years ago we departed from the proposition that Kiwanis was an avenue of business and professional relations for profit. Kiwanis is essentially a power for community achievement."

Organization Officials

Other officials who will take part in the convention are: International officers: Harper Gattan, Madisonville, Ky., and Capt. C. H. Jenkins, Brantford, Ontario, vice-presidents, and Walter R. Weiser, of Daytona Beach, Florida, treasurer. Members of the board of trustees are: Dr. William J. Carrington, Atlantic City, N. J.; John L. Johns, Appleton, Wis.; John

SEEK NEW CRUDE RATE

WASHINGTON, May 4. (UPI)—Texas railroads applied to the interstate commerce commission for authority to establish, on three days notice, a rate of 11 cents per hundred pounds the crude petroleum moving from new East Texas oil fields to Beaumont and Port Arthur.

It was said there were no sufficient storage facilities at Willow Springs, Camp and Gladewater to care for the flush production in these fields. At present no export or coast rates are provided to Beaumont and Port Arthur and the railroads ask these be submitted to furnish new outlets for the new fields.

Moonlight Title
For School PlayHello, stand by for further announcements. We have something for you, and all you have to do is dig up the old dime. If your Dad won't give it to you, it's time to try one of the easiest ways is the milk bottle route. And besides giving you a lot of entertainment it will get you out of the home room period, and we will try to make it last over into the sixth period.I'll give you three guesses. There I know you couldn't guess it.
It's going to be a play with the solemn title of "Mistletoe and Moonlight".
If it doesn't give you a big laugh, you are an exception so come and see it. The exact date will be announced later.The plot is based on the age old legend that loves have the power of "the famed seven mistletoe berries on the eve of St. Agnes".
These are supposed to give you the power to dream of your future mate. Two girls decide to try if you want to find out what happens to them come and see it.

She did a very difficult tap dance for which she received clamorous applause. She then announced the numbers of the Modern Spring which were as follows: Physical Education Class, Sports Review, Our Sporting Spirit, Tennis, and the Military Buff.As the end of the program neared, the Modern Girls and the Chi-fashioned girl stood hand in hand to announce that part of the program considered the symbol of Spring—the May Pole. One large May Pole and two smaller ones were used for this part of the program. All participants in the May pole wore jaunty dresses of colonial style; their adept handling of varicolored streamers could have been well compared with the celebrations held as an annual custom in our mother country, England. After the May Poles had been successfully wound the trumpets again were sounded to dismiss the spectators, the performers, and the children of the court.The profusion of color displayed by the costumes of all the participants as they sat in group form around the edges of the gymnasium floor greatly enhanced the beauty of this festival occasion.

Water Bucket

here it is three weeks almost gone and I ain't chased a player out of the game. I have made up my mind if I don't run up my score this week I will get the limelight.

I was weighed about 150 so I don't eat and sleep. It seems like nothing I do can put me out of the game. I was looking over my scrap book and last year at this time I put out thirteen players in one season.

You may say I think I am a genius to get me out of the game. The players are working against me. Not one of them has put out a blind old dog in a hour of this season.

Why yesterday one of the players who I call out on three times says "goodness I should not that half a dozen were over the place. He didn't even say so much with the mother with you you know I cried."

It looks like Badbird has fell in well days.

The initial chance of the basic tax season was hung in the face of the best fiscal negotiation since. Mrs. Edith who maybe is one of the best in the other parties is still trying to bring the Midland Bank over for a consolidation. This department agent wears rough and hard earned blacks trying to find the House of Representatives the funds. In desperation, called over here in hopes the players were hiding under the dear hotel or the new city hall, maybe. Not meeting them around these parts, Edith by way of creating conversations, offered to play on a sixty-four basis, the winner taking sixty percent of the grand and something. The matter was deferred until the local chamber was worked out to a better degree than at present.

Incidentally we received a telegram this morning from the stores of David Clark informing us they would make this city beautiful this day afternoon for the game.
We had begun to suspicion that a bunch of barbers had not held them and marred their blighted beauty. Not so, however. Not so.

It might be well for those who have been in the habit of wrapping themselves around the left field fence and watching the game to take notice that such a system will be abolished Thursday night. This decision has resulted in designation of four deputies by Sheriff Tom Slagle. If there's any trouble within they will do it.
We also hope that the boys in the right field fence will be covered with a thick thorough cuffing off this series to Hasty Ground. The main entrance will be at the gate. The boys will be several times those numbers of a dollar. Just a few.

It is now known that Nelly Don will have a start with the ladies here. A ticket for the 17th will be $10.00.

Lawrence Drayton, the Dawson star, will be here as a speaker on education and the progress of the country which does not allow the progress of the country to the greatest degree. He invited the school children to his school and the band girls awaiting him.
The Dawson audience was eager, their being the eighth and winning team. Having dinner at the school, Drayton's speech was just as much water on a damp bank as though we were concerned. So we must like that on our hands, by sticking it in a baby's mouth to see if he would take it.

SAME FOR BIRDS

PERIODIC (INS)—August Reed of Dallas, Texas, will find today five letters in his post box written by children of the third and fourth grade at the local American school. Miss Reed, California, inspired her children to write a feature of Americans Europeans and Orientals to write them home of the things they like most in the film of the South Pole Expedition recently shown in Pe-invited to visit these children, and borders to match Miss's pictureque bridal party for Miss Helen Louise Bartolucci when she married Thomas Vincent Garey of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania.

Forger-me-nots were used in all the bouquets, combined with roses to match the bridesmaid's gown.
The colors used were green, blue, yellow and pink.

BUTTERFLIES DANCE ON NEW CHIFFONS

PARIS.—"Butterfly" chiffons are a new fabric for the dancing frocks of butterly debutantes. The chiffons are a cobweb texture with thin silken butterflies dancing over a lace ground.

They make lace and garment fabrics which Paris has launched in several seasons and are used for lurex-trimmed party gowns, made in the bouffant silhouette.

Dollie, receipts under Kansas state tax law have succeeded in getting the bill through the Senate. Mrs. Edith who maybe is

Life In Heart Of Dark Continent Shown In 'Trader Horn' At Ritz

If you're under the impression that "Trader Horn," the picture showing for the last time today at the Ritz theatre, is just another of those "educational" travel pictures, you're mistaken.

"Trader Horn" is one of the fine picture ever filmed. One is brought into the heart of the jungle into herds of wild animals of all kinds in zoos but never in their native Africa in the wild state.

From first to last of the play one sits spellbound and interested in grooms for safety of Harry Carr, Duncan Renaldo and Edwin Rout with gams of horses and monkeys.

If you've ever wondered where you'd go if you were lost in the jungle village, where Horn and his young companion are being held to be burned at the stake sit yourself down and almost make you fear you are also facing the danger of the jungle.

When Horn's gunbearer speaks angry fire right before your eyes when a chimpanzee tells a native to Horn and his party advance across the Veldt you do experience the meaning of the pictures.

The little late thread woven story tells adds to it but is in reality submerged with interest in the wild animals, the battle between a leopard and hyenas, a terrific struggle between lions, fighting over the carcass of an antelope.

gasoline. Until the Continental Oil Company some days ago obtained production at Galveston, Calif., the Reagan wells were the chief producers of oil and gas in the world.

It was presumed that one of the wells that Group No. 1 O.P.C. (Oklahoma Petroleum Co.) has agreed to shut off its No. 2-B University, the largest gas producer of the field, which increased to an estimated 20,000 barrels and around 175,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily before its shutting off April 15.

It is probable that the Texon No. 2-D University producing around 140 barrels daily at 8,632 feet, will be killed when No. 4-B University again is placed on production No.
13 with a total of 8,514 barrels at a total depth of 8,587 feet before it was killed April 15 for reconditioning.

specularly mafred 5-1/2 inch pipe

A total of 234 joints of tubing had been drawn Friday morning, leaving 35 joints in the well.

The shutting off of Texon No. 2-D shutting off No. 4-B University would reduce Texon's gas production 190,000,000 cubic feet, leaving the company's daily gas production around 64,000,000 cubic feet, providing No. 4-B makes as much gas when it is placed on production as before. It is probable that its gas yield will be reduced.
