Local talent furnished several numbers of entertainment, among them being the Spanish Class in the Santa Anna High School.

The next Group meeting will be held in Brady three months hence.

MARCH OF TIME PARTY ENJOYED BY BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE

A peppy March of Time party was enjoyed last Friday evening by the J. O. Y. Sunday School Class of young people.

Novelty games portraying the March of Time theme were carried out, and a Major Bowles Amateur program was given. After the games a business meeting was held and the class was divided into four groups. The captains are Jack Traylor, Mrs. Howard Pittard, Mrs. Delmar Hamm and Mrs. Muriel Engel. Everyone was assigned a twin, for whom the person is to be responsible for the twin's getting to Sunday School.

Refreshments of frosted cocoa, cookies and candies were served to the following: Messers, and Mesdames Jesse Goen, Jack Traylor, Howard Pittard, Cliff Switzer, Raymond Eays, J. B. Jones, Mesdames Delmar Hamm and Muriel Engel, Misses Leta Ragsdale, Mattie Ella McCreary, Oita Niell, Messers, Augustus Lightfoot and Aubrey Parker, and Rev. and Mrs. R. Elmer Dunham.

BANGS YOUTH KILLED IN CROSSING TRAGEDY

BROWNWOOD, March 31.—Dick Young, 23, of Bangs died in a hospital here this morning of injuries suffered Monday night when a truck in which he was riding was struck by an eastbound Frisco freight train in the outskirts of Brownwood. Elmer Cornett, another Bangs youth in the truck, is receiving treatment for critical injuries.

LIBERTY H. D. CLUB

The Liberty Home Demonstration Club met March 28th at the home of Mrs. Don Ewing.

The meeting opened with the singing of "Beautiful Texas." As the secretary was absent there was no business meeting. The meeting was then turned over to Miss Young who gave an illustrated lecture on "How to Remove Old Paint and How to Refinish Furniture." The lecture was very interesting and beneficial.

Mrs. Ewing served delicious angel food cake and punch to eight members and five visitors.

The next meeting will be on April 9th at the home of Mrs. J. B. Jones.

CEMETERY WORKING AT TRICKHAM

Many Respond to Clean-up Appeal

It is gratifying to see the number of families falling in line and cleaning up their premises. There are some, however, who seem to be indifferent.

We admit it takes some courage to get out and do real work, but after you have done it you will feel better. If its nothing more than the satisfaction of having a better view around the place upon which to rest the eyes.

It requires more agitation and bulldog effort to get anything done than it did a few years back. People seem to have drifted into such a spirit of indifference it is hard to shake them loose and create within them a desire to do something, even if it is for their own good. We may never see this old burg cleaned up to our taste but we will have the satisfaction of knowing we at least encouraged a good thing and it met with some response. We would hesitate to force people to clean up their premises if we had authority, but under certain conditions and circumstances, we think we would be found trying it. However, we don't believe there is a family in Santa Anna who would wait until they were driven to it if the proper impression was brought to bear upon them of the importance of cleaning up their premises and making them more sanitary and attractive.

We don't know whether a person or family is judged by the appearance of their surroundings or not. If they are some people in this town are getting in pretty bad shape.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

The relatives of Mrs. B. T. Watson surprised her with a birthday party Saturday night, March 28, on her thirty-fourth birthday. Mrs. Watson received many lovely gifts, and on the birthday cake was written the words, "Happy Birthday to Mother." The dining room was decorated with many lovely spring flowers. After the birthday dinner was served, games of forty-two were played throughout the evening.

Those present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Medley and son Paul, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wilson and daughter Joan, Hilmer Koch, and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Cole, all of Salt Branch, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wade Wallace of Mt. Zion, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Farborough, and Misses Emily Fay and Louise Medley of Bangs, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Medley and son, Billie Gene of Brooksmith, Miss Ila Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stiles and B. T. Watson of Santa Anna, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Estess and sons, Doyle and Clayton, of Brownwood.

Five or six years ago we engaged in a heated controversy about Santa Anna, the bone of contention being the origin and correct spelling of the name. Somebody contended that it was Santanna, and we do not now remember how the argument was finally ended, or whether it merely was laid aside unsettled to await future developments. If so, we are ready to do our duty on demand, and will defend either side of the question.

Santa Anna is a noteworthy town in many respects. It is the only town in Texas with a background of mountains unrelated directly to other mountains. It has a great historical value, for there were many stirring incidents around those mountains in the early days. The thing that really distinguishes the town, however, is its citizenry. It has a mayor who likes squashes like Popeye likes spinach, and then there are Dr. T. R. Sealy, J. J. Gregg, former Mayor W. E. Baxter, the Kelley family and many other people who are as distinctly Santa Annan as the mountains themselves.

Mrs. Annie Serreff of Sudan, Lamb County, Texas, came in Tuesday for a visit in the home of her brother, C. F. Yancy and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wade Wallace of Mt. Zion spent Saturday night and Sunday in the home of the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Watson.

Mrs. W. T. Wheatly of San Antonio came Monday to attend to business and to visit with friends and relatives in Santa Anna and Shild for about a week.

MORTUARY
Funeral services were held Saturday at 3:30 p. m. for J. W. Ray, who died Friday night of an attack of acute indigestion.

Mr. Ray, according to data furnished this office, was born in Toupelo, Mississippi, on September 7, 1878. He moved to Bell county, Texas in 1894, and lived there until he moved here in 1926. He was converted when a young man, but never united with any church.

Deceased was married December 13, 1903 to Miss Lillie Payne. He is survived by the widow and three children, two sons, Carl and Winford Ray of Santa Anna and one daughter, Mrs. Dock Robinet of Bangs.

His mother, Mrs. T. D. Ray, a brother, M. M. Ray and a sister, Mrs. Brack of Marlin, two grand children and a host of friends also survive.

Services were held at the residence, conducted by Rev. M. L. Womack with Hosch Funeral Directors in charge.

Pal bearers were E. J. Merritt, Chick Watson, John William Burden, T. P. Sumner, Arthur Sheffield and Jim Harrell.

WALLACE-FLETCHER
Miss Gladys Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Wallace of the Leedy Community, and Clay Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Fletcher, also of the Leedy Community, were united in marriage last Thursday, according to data furnished this office. They are a splendid young couple and the News and other friends extend them their hearty congratulations.

Scarborough Is Re-elected Superintendent of Schools

At the last regular meeting of the Board of Education of Santa Anna Independent District several members of the public school faculty were re-elected, the other members to be elected later.

Supt. J. C. Scarborough, who is rounding out his thirteenth year in the system was re-elected. Mr. J. R. Lock, in the system for nine years, was re-elected as high school principal. Mr. D. D. Byrne, who has directed the Elementary school for the past six years was re-elected as Principal of the Ward School.

Mrs. Byrne was re-elected in the Primary department. Mr. W. G. Godwin, spending his second year in the high school, was re-elected as director of the Vocational Agricultural department.

Miss Ann Randolph, recently selected as director of the Vocational Home Making department of the high school, was re-elected for the ensuing year.

Mr. Clyde Dean, who is completing his second year in the high school as coach and mathematics instructor, was re-elected.

Easter Egg Hunt

The main topic at the Lions Club luncheon Tuesday was the Easter Egg hunt fostered by the Lions Club for Easter Sunday.

The general committee appointed several weeks ago, made a very elaborate report, naming several committees, and making recommendations. If all the recommendations are carried out the affair will be one of the most elaborate Easter affairs ever held in the Mountain City.

A full report together with the outlined program will appear in this paper next week, provided we can procure the data in time to compile it and get it ready for print before going to press.

May we urge those connected with the program the importance of collecting the data and furnishing same to us as early as possible, as time is an important factor in this office.

AROUND THE SUPPER TABLE
By Jim White, Editor

Brownwood Bulletin, March 30. Half a century isn't so very long. Fifty years ago the newspapers carried this little story: "J. G. Hitchcock has just completed laying off the town of Santa Anna. Over 200 acres have been cut up into business and residence lots. Santa Anna is one of the most beautifully located towns in West Texas, being exactly at the gap of Santa Anna mountains. The location is free from malaria and water is plentiful." It might well have added that the scenery is gorgeous.

Five or six years ago we engaged in a heated controversy about Santa Anna, the bone of contention being the origin and correct spelling of the name. Somebody contended that it was Santanna, and we do not now remember how the argument was finally ended, or whether it merely was laid aside unsettled to await future developments. If so, we are ready to do our duty on demand, and will defend either side of the question.

Mrs. W. T. Wheatly of San Antonio came Monday to attend to business and to visit with friends and relatives in Santa Anna and Shild for about a week.

MISS LAURA BRANNAN
The remains of Miss Laura Brannan, sister to our good friend "Uncle Bud," C. H. Brannan, will be buried here Friday afternoon following funeral services at the Methodist Church at 3 o'clock.

Miss Brannan died in a state institution at Terrell Wednesday evening, where she has been confined since 1928. We will try to have a further report of her in our next week's paper.

TEXAS PECANS WILL FORM MINIATURE WATER FALLS
DALLAS, Texas, March 31.—Pecans, of which Texas is the world's greatest producer, will be used to represent water in a large model of Niagra Falls at the Texas Centennial Exposition this summer. Millions of the nuts will travel over a precipice, tumbling into a maelstrom of more pecans.

A large map of Texas will be made of pecans as a feature of the Agricultural Exhibit at the Exposition. Open country and highways will be represented by unshelled nuts while cities and other points of interest will be shown by shelled pecans. Small electric lights over the map will draw attention to interesting spots.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Daniel, Miss Pauline Eubank, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mills and family were visiting in Ballinger Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Robin and son Tom visited Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Laws and little daughter of Cross Plains Sunday.

Cemetery Needs Spring Cleaning

We are somewhat reluctant to mention the fact, but our attention has been called to it several times with as many requests that we urge the importance of a clean-up campaign in our local cemetery.

In the absence of an active cemetery committee, this editor would like to urge that an association be organized and a section employed to look after the needs of our cemetery and keep it in a more respectable condition.

We don't know what to say to get the move started. If anyone will tell us, or even suggest to us an idea, we will try it, and if it doesn't work, it will be just another suggestion gone to the graveyard.

Will someone take it upon themselves to get our cemetery cleaned up and put in a more decent condition? We assure you of the cooperation of several, but no move will get the cooperation of the people one hundred per cent. Talk it over, suggest something, and this newspaper will take the best steps, in our opinion, to get results. Let's hear from you.

BAPTIST LADIES ARE ENTERTAINED WITH SILVER TEA

A large number of the ladies of the Baptist Church were entertained Tuesday afternoon with a Silver Tea by the Oliver Y. W. A. in the home of their counselor, Mrs. J. R. Lock.

Upon arriving, the ladies were requested to register in the Y. W. A. Scrap Book, presided over by Miss Aurilia Tweedle. They were then shown to the reception room by Miss Lavada May, and greeted by the receiving line, Mrs. Lock, Mrs. J. E. Bartlett, president of the W. M. S., sponsor of the Y. W. A. organization, Mrs. R. E. Dunham, president of the Young Women's W. M. S., and Mrs. Charles Hale.

The hall and living room were decorated with beautiful flowers, such as blue bonnets, flag, bridal wreath, pink begonias, and rose geraniums.

The dining room was also decorated with flowers. The buffet held bouquets of bridal wreath and lilacs. The table was covered with a lace cloth, centered with a vase of blue bonnets on a silver reflector. Silver and china tea services were used. On each side of the blue bonnets were tall green candles in crystal candleabra, which carried out the Y. W. A. colors of green and white. Mrs. Howard Pittard and Miss Frances Gregg poured the tea the first hour, and Mrs. Marvin McGlothling and Miss Ruby Davis poured during the second hour.

Entertainment was furnished throughout the afternoon. Mrs. R. R. Lovelady sang and gave a reading, "Hard Luck Story." She was very attractively dressed in a Centennial costume and her big Centennial hat was very outstanding. Mrs. Howard Pittard played a number of piano selections and sang "When I Grow Too Old to Dream," "Betty and Joyce Lock sang "Come Play With Me" and "On the Good Ship Lollypop." Mary Joyce Hill gave a reading, "My Sister Tilly," and last but not least came the Spanish Trio, Misses Mary Lee Combs, Doris Spencer and Ruby Lee Price, accompanied by their instructor, Miss Lula Jo Harvey. They rendered a number of songs that were enjoyed very much.

The Silver Box contained $8.57, which, added to the treasury, made a total of $10.37. This is to be used to help finance a Mother-Daughter Banquet in May.

Butter and nut sandwiches, made out of green bread, ritz, toasted pecans, hot tea, and mints were served to about 45 guests. Sprigs of bridal wreath were used for plate favors.

The registry contained the following names: Mesdames Charles Hale, J. Ed Bartlett, R. Elmer Dunham, Reba McCreary, J. E. Watkins, Myrtle Moon Lovelady, J. J. Gregg, Burgess Weaver, Jack Pruitt, Arthur Turner, Ross Kelley, T. H. Upton, Ford Barnes, Jim Robin, J. P. Woodruff, W. E. Wallace, Seth Risinger, Elucian Niell, E. E. Pittard, R. D. Kelley, J. L. Boggus, F. E. Combs, Jell Farris, F. B. Hill, Jr., Jesse Goen, J. F. Goen, Walter Hill, R. W. Douglass, Neal R. On 2nd Thought
HOLSTEIN, Neb., March 28. (AP)—Fred Aufenkamp, who has just received Adams county's first old age assistance check, took a look at his gram bins. Then he sat down and wrote a letter in which he returned the check to County Clerk T. W. Jones.

"The corn turned out better than I had expected," he explained.

The remains of Miss Laura Brannan, sister to our good friend "Uncle Bud," C. H. Brannan, will be buried here Friday afternoon following funeral services at the Methodist Church at 3 o'clock.

LET'S MAKE SANTA ANNA GROW!

The following merchants and business interests of Santa Anna want you to join us in making Santa Anna one of the most outstanding business and trading centers in Central Texas. MONEY SPENT IN YOUR HOME TOWN helps to develop greater industries, pay wages, pay taxes, support churches and schools, and create business volume upon which communities prosper. These Santa Anna merchants offer standard goods and courteous services at reasonable prices. Besides, they offer to share the profits with their customers on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month, our designated Trades Days for 1936. Every dollar spent away from Santa Anna for Dry Goods, Bread, Meats, Groceries, Drugs, Gasoline, Tires, Tubes, Furniture, Hardware, Notions, and suchlike decreases the opportunities of Santa Anna merchants and other industries to grow and better serve you; causes the depreciation of stocks and industries in your home town and community; also lowers your property values and lessens your opportunities. The following Santa Anna merchants and other business people entreat you to join us in promoting a bigger and better community.

Mesdames Medley and Wilson were visitors at this office, and stated they lived nearer Santa Anna in former days, and enjoyed coming here occasionally to trade. GOOD NEWS

Breaks Pig Bank!

Thomas McCombie, carpenter, put five cents in the pig bank every day. That is what he figured he saved by doing without a telephone. He had put in $4.35 before he found out that a man had tried to call him first, then paid $19.00 elsewhere for some work. The $4.35 saved had cost plenty of profit. McCombie broke his pig bank and ordered a telephone today.
