Superintendent Explains Extracurricular Rules

The following rules were adopted by the State Board of Education in March, 1985. All school districts in the State of Texas must operate within these rules.

School districts shall not schedule, nor permit students to participate in any school related or sanctioned activities on or off campus that would require, permit, or allow a student to be absent from any class in any course more than ten times during the 175-day school year. Noninstructional school activities must be held outside of 55-minute scheduled academic class periods in grades 9-12, 45-minute scheduled academic class periods in grades 7-8, and six hours of academic class periods in grades 4-6, or be included in one of the six allowable shortened schedules.

A student in grades 7-12 may participate in extracurricular activities on or off campus at the beginning of the school year only if the student has earned the cumulative number of credits in state-approved courses indicated in this subsection:

(1) beginning at the seventh grade year—have been promoted from the sixth grade to the seventh;

(2) beginning at the eighth grade year—have been promoted from the seventh grade to the eighth;

(3) beginning at the ninth grade year—have been promoted from the eighth grade to the ninth;

(4) beginning of the 10th grade year—at least five credits toward graduation;

(5) beginning of the 11th grade year—at least nine credits toward graduation for the 1985-86 school year and 10 credits each year thereafter; and

(6) beginning of the 12th grade year—at least 13 credits toward graduation for the 1985-86 school year, at least 14 credits for the 1986-87 school year, and 15 credits each year thereafter.

In order to be eligible to participate in an extracurricular activity event for a six weeks period following the initial six weeks period of a school year, a student must not have a recorded grade average lower than 70 on a scale of 0 to 100 in any course for that preceding six weeks period.

A student whose recorded six weeks grade average in any course is lower than 70 at the end of a six weeks period shall be suspended from participation in any extracurricular activity event during succeeding six weeks periods until the end of a six weeks period during which such student achieves a course average for that six weeks of at least 70 in each course.

A student who has been suspended from extracurricular activity events shall also be suspended from out-of-school practice in such extracurricular activities until such suspension from participation has been lifted.

At the end of any six weeks period in which a student has attained a course grade average for that six weeks of 70 or more in each course taken, any suspension from participating in extracurricular activities and/or suspension of out-of-school practice of extracurricular activities shall be removed.

Limitations on practice and performance shall be as follows:

(1) School districts shall adopt policies limiting extracurricular activities from the beginning of the school week through the end of the school week (excluding holidays) by scheduling no more than one contest or performance per activity per student and by limiting practice outside the school day to a maximum of eight hours per school week per activity except as specified in paragraph (2) of this subsection. For schools with limited facilities, exceptions may be made to the one contest or performance per activity by the commissioner of education. The rule concerning scheduling one contest or performance per activity per student per school week shall be effective September 1, 1985.

(2) Tournaments and post-season competition, as well as contest postponed by weather or public disaster, may also be scheduled during the school week.

At the end of the first three weeks of a grading period, the school district shall send notice of progress to the parent or guardian of a student whose grade average in any class is lower than 70 or whose grade average deemed borderline by the district. The district shall make such information available to sponsors of extracurricular activities in which the student participates. The notice should stipulate that the student will have the remainder of the six weeks period to bring the grade up to 70 or above and that the student will be suspended from extracurricular activities if the grade is not brought up to 70 or above by the end of the six weeks period. The district may require any student who falls within this subsection to attend tutorial sessions.

July 4th Comments

by Polly Warnock

On this 4th day of July, we celebrate our independence and freedom, realizing that freedom is never free. What prices have been paid for the freedom we now enjoy! As we watch Old Glory wave we need to be mindful of the countless millions who have paid the supreme sacrifice to keep it waving.

With the hostage situation of late and the emotions of patriotism flooding us, we are even more aware of our freedom and how precious it is.

It is always a thrill and a sense of security to see the flags flying at the Post Office, the City Hall, the Schools, the Longbrake home on Wallis Ave., and the Thomas Hays home also on Wallis Ave. Of course there are many others, but these are always evident as they are in main traveled areas of the city.

Wouldn't it be commendable if more of us became flag wavers and celebrated our freedom each and every day?

1st Baptist Time Change

Buffalo School Reunion Held

Former students of the Buffalo School, residents of the community and former residents met Saturday and Sunday, June 22 and 23, for the sixth annual reunion and homecoming.

The group met at the Santa Anna Civic Center, with Wade Rosser, president, in charge of the get-together.

Visitation and musical entertainment were on the agenda Saturday, with Adolph (Doc) Kelley chairman of the program committee. A barbecue supper was served Saturday evening, followed by a dance.

Sunday events got underway with registration and a program at 10 a.m. Special music was provided by a men's quartet, Donnie Neff, Marty Donham, Dickie Horner and Ray Barnett, and a ladies trio, Orabeth McIver, Gail Horner, and Barbara Kingsbery, accompanied by Gail Loyd.

Wade Rosser was speaker for the memorial service, listing names of those deceased during the past year.

Pete Curry, historian, called the roll of former teachers, students and trustees.

Katie Whiteside Morgan of Gonzales was honored as Homecoming Queen. A graduate with the Class of 1918, she later received her degree from Howard Payne College and was a public school teacher for many years.

City Council

There will not be a City Council meeting this Thursday night, due to the holiday. The meeting will be held next Thursday, July 11, at 6:30 p.m.

Survey to be taken

The survey of Santa Anna and Coleman County businesses being taken by the Santa Anna News is now underway, according to Tandy Howard of the News Staff. Information will include when the business was established, founders or original owners, current owners and a brief history of each business.

When the survey is complete, the News will publish the information in a progress edition. "The response has been great. Over twenty businesses contacted the News office the first two days," Tandy said. To have a business included in the survey and appear in the special progress edition, please call 348-3545 or come by the office across from the telephone company.

Leo George of Bangs, also a 1918 graduate of Buffalo High School, was honored as "Ex-Student of the Year." The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Leo George, he was an outstanding athlete, competing and winning many awards in track, and in 1914 was high point man at the State Track Meet, placing first in the 50-yard and the 100-yard dash and second in the 220 event.

After graduation from Buffalo High School, George was awarded a scholarship to a college in Emporia, Kansas where former Howard Payne coach Gwinn Henry was track coach. He excelled in many events, and at one time tied the world record in the 120 yard high hurdles.

After graduating from Kansas College, he went into coaching for a number of years. Upon his retirement he returned to the family ranch in western Brown County where he now lives alone. He has attended every school reunion since the group organized six years ago.

During a business meeting of the former students, Roland Curry of Brownwood was elected president for the coming year. Wallace Clary will serve as vice-president. Sybil Gilliam Nichols of Casper, Wyoming was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the group. Others to head committees for the coming year are Roland Curry and Willie

VBS Well Attended

The joint Methodist and Presbyterian vacation Bible School was well attended with over 50 youngsters and sponsors involved.

According to Ruth Ann Wise, one of the directors of the VBS, goals were accomplished and everyone had a good time.

Commencement for the Bible School was held on Sunday evening at the Methodist Church when the children displayed their crafts and other activities and presented a program.

Homemade ice cream was served to the large crowd in attendance at the program.

Cathy Ellis and Ruth Ann Wise were chairpersons of the school. Others helping were Susan Ramsdell, Frances Pyburn, Betty Key, Debra Boyet, Kathy Pearce, Alice Spillman, Sharon Cheaney, Lois Harper, Darla Beal, Cathy Loyd, Sandra Guthrie, Pat Smith, Sharon Guthrie and Sherrie Rice.

Youth helping were Rex Harper, Stephanie Starr, Tammie Starr, Lana Pyburn, Shelly Pyburn, Staci Gunter and Becky Lewis.

Bouchillon, arrangements; Lolete Gober Curry, registration; Adolph Kelley, entertainment; and Pete Curry, historian.

Lucile Wylie, a former teacher, was recognized for her work with registration for the past six years, along with those who have assisted Iola Casey Bouchillon, Lolete Curry, Odell Lee Henderson and Doris Pennington. Leland Thompson was in charge of arrangements for past reunions. Odie Griffith of Coleman was chairman of the food committee.

The Buffalo School was formed in the early 1900's from several community schools in northeast Coleman and west of Brown counties. The high school was consolidated with Santa Anna and Bangs in the mid-1940's, and the elementary school was closed about ten years later.

The school was widely known for its gymnasium at Daniel Baker College. It was a community center for the area for many years. With the closing of the school, the one little store closed, and within a few years, the two churches were disbanded.

Few people live in the Buffalo community at the present time and there is little activity other than farming and ranching.

However, former students are loyal to their school and many return each year to enjoy the friends from past years.

WTU Seeking Permission to Refund

West Texas Utilities filed a petition Tuesday with the Public Utilities Commission of Texas asking permission to refund $13.7 million in fuel cost savings to its customers.

Glen D. Churchill, WTU president and executive officer, said the refund is possible because of efforts by the Company to reduce production costs by obtaining boiler fuel and buying available economy power from other companies. As result, WTU has actually been able to spend less for power plant fuel than was anticipated when the fuel factors were established by the PUC.

The savings have accumulated since August 1984 when the fuel recovery account was last reconciled by the Commission. The total available for refunding includes $12.6 million in actual savings, plus an estimated $1.1 million in interest.

"We want to pass these savings on to our customers as quickly as possible in order to bring some relief during the hot weather and high utility bills," Churchill said. "While we are not yet due for a reconciliation, we are voluntarily asking for permission to make refunds now."

Since 1983, electric customers in

School Personnel

Attend Workshop

Gerald Brister, Superintendent and Judy Hartman, Business Manager of Santa Anna Independent School District were among more than 400 school administrators from around the state who attended the "Budget Planning for 1985-86" workshops in Austin during June to learn new skills in budget preparation and financial planning.

The workshop, cosponsored by the Texas Association of School Administrators (TASA) and the Texas Association of School Boards (TASB) attracted representatives from more than 250 school districts in Texas and focused on implementing the changes in financial management brought about by House Bill 72, the reform legislation passed by the Texas Legislature during the summer of 1984.

Mr. Brister, Mrs. Hartman and others attending the workshop participated in the two-day meeting by attending sessions designed to acquaint school superintendents and business managers with the newly mandated changes. Sessions focused on legislative updates from the recently ended 69th session of the Texas Legislature, funding the new teacher career ladder, salary schedules, the outlook on state funding for schools, and how to forecast revenues and new expenses during the next biennium.

Featured speakers were former TEA Commissioner Raymon Bynum, a noted expert in school finance, a member of TEA's audit division staff Ed Randall, numerous school superintendents and administrators with experience in school financial planning, and TASA and TASB staff.

Participants also attended sessions where they had an opportunity to informally share experiences, concerns, and problems solving strategies.

Aux Meets

The Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Auxiliary met Monday, July 1 for their regular monthly meeting with Gail Horner, president, presiding. Other members present were Syble Huggins, Nikki Donham, Edith Dodson, Donna Bradley, and Janette Strickland, with a visitor, Rita Day.

An Ice Cream Social was enjoyed by several fireman and their families.

The next regular meeting will be on Monday, August 5.

Texas have been charged for fuel according to fixed fuel factors set by the PUC. This method of fuel cost recovery was ordered by the PUC to replace the automatic monthly adjustment which matched fuel billings to fuel expense immediately and under which utilities had operated for many years.

Under present rules, a reconciliation of the fuel costs may be required a year after the factors are fixed, but adjustments are possible sooner if actual fuel costs are substantially above or below the amount being charged.

"Over the past several months, the Company has made considerable savings by purchasing surplus power from other companies cheaper than WTU could generate it, and by taking advantage of a softer natural gas market," Churchill said. Natural gas is the principal fuel for all WTU's eight major generating stations. In recent years, fuel costs have amounted to more than half WTU's total operating revenues.

Much of the economy power being bought from other companies now comes through a new high voltage, direct current interconnection completed last December near Vernon. This Facility allows WTU to import electricity from outside the state of Texas.

WTU proposes to make the refunds to existing customers through a one-time credit to their bills, commencing immediately after Commission approval. Reunding through bill credits would be more timely, efficient and cost effective than attempting to send customers checks, Churchill said.

The credit would be calculated on an individual customer basis using each customer's usage. The average residential customer is expected to receive $32.

The petition filed Tuesday is for an exception to the PUC rules requiring a formal reconciliation procedure. A full fuel cost reconciliation for WTU is not due for several months.

Experience has shown that reconciliation proceedings are quite lengthy, delaying refunds reaching the customers. For this reason, the Company is asking the Commission to make an exception to its rules so that refunds can be made immediately during the hot summer season.

Summertime Killers

According to Kathy Pearce ticks are currently the greatest danger to your pets health. Seemingly overnight your dog can become severely infested with large numbers of developing ticks. By the time these small, grey pests are noticeable, they have drained your dog of a large quantity of blood. He may lose his appetite and become very weak and listless. Often the only way to correct this severe case of anemia is with a costly blood transfusion. Also his resistance to other diseases is very low, and correction of anemia may not be sufficient to return him to good health.

It is up to you to protect your pet from this danger! Please don't betray his trust! Inspect him every day and use a good dip as often as necessary. Sprays, collars, and powder may help but often are not sufficient enough to keep the parasites off.

Nitia Daniel Circle meets

The Nitia Daniel Circle met in the Methodist Annex on June 24th. "Amazing Grace" was the opening hymn. Margaret Crews read an Inspirational Thought from "Markings" by Dag Hammarokjold. Following this the group used the Lord's Prayer to conclude the devotional.

For years women have taken the lead in sponsoring mission work. We can give ourselves when others need help. Mrs. Wylie and Mrs. Gilmore gave timely examples of self-giving.

We have received several calls as to why the Ranger Park Inn News was not in last week's paper. Well, I called the Inn about 10 o'clock last Tuesday morning with the question as to whether or not they would bring in their news and was told that we would get it the next week but not this week.

The News office has been asked if they would like another plant column to appear in the paper every week. So, I am now putting the question to you, the people, "Would you like a plant column in your paper?" If you would please let the News know by calling us at 348-3545 or writing to us at Box 399, Santa Anna, Texas 76878.

There was an article in the Sunday edition of the Brownwood Bulletin about people in jail turning to God. The article stated that there are some who find God for the first time while behind bars; that those who have never opened a Bible, discover that God and prayer are all that is left in their lives.

It was also noted that doors of the jail building are never closed to ministers.

That brings to mind that there are a lot of people who need help, and that those people never or rarely attend church, or really know where to turn to for help, and that help comes from God.

I would like to take this opportunity, with "tongue in cheek" and in capsule form, to give you an idea of some of the more unusual aspects of the 69th Legislative Session as they affect you.

For example, as I have mentioned in an earlier column, you can, after September 1st, drive to your favorite retail outlet for Sunday shopping but you will have to wear your seatbelt to and from, unless your vehicle rated capacity in excess of 1500 pounds.

While you can still drive with an open container of an alcoholic beverage, if you are caught driving with that open container and found to be driving while intoxicated, the penalty brought against you can be enhanced.

If you are a student in a public college or university in Texas, you will be paying $12 per semester hour for courses instead of the $4 you paid last semester.

And the rain came down, and down and down.

Fluffy had her babies in the drain, remember? Early Thursday morning she began to bring them out, one by one—soppin' wet—all eight.

A caring resident at the complex prepared a box with towels in the laundry room where they all dried out. Later in the day they were fed their first dry food.

Now, Laverne knows cats and she also knows, "Where there is a will, there is a way."

She suggested to Miss Bessie that they be kept in her apartment since they were not welcome in the laundry room. Miss Bessie consented, but did say in a nice way, that she had had nine cats at one time at her home in Talpa, but they stayed outside, never inside. However, she graciously allowed the CAT family to be moved, and although the quarters are rather small, she said they would "Make do."

In checking with her later that night she said that everyone was asleep but her. The next morning she gave up, got up at 4:00 a.m. and fixed breakfast, about two hours early.

Camp Sweeney

GAINESVILLE—Look, up in the sky—it's a bird—no it's a plane! It's the Camp Sweeney "gun-drop"!

Camp Sweeney is a summer camp for diabetic children located in North Central Texas, 10 miles east of Gainesville. The camp always tries to keep the campers busy, not only with normal camp activities but with activities designed to help them learn about their lifelong campaign, Diabetes.

On June 4, as the children anxiously awaited—the plane flew over—then came back for "the drop" and dropped hundreds of packs of chewels sugarless gum on the crowd.

The campers were thrilled with their special treat—some had as many as 11 packs of the gum, donated to the camp by Chewels.

The Gum-Drop will take place three more times this summer: Monday, July 8 during Session II; and Tuesday, July 16 and Monday, July 29 during Session III.

Camp Sweeney is in its 36th year of operations and is funded by the Southwest Diabetic Foundation, a United Way agency.

If you have a picture of a child, grandchild or other infant showing that infant's exposed backside, you better burn it (Sure, you're going to burn a picture of your grandchild) because it is now a felony to possess it and your lascivious intent is presumed. (This particular piece of legislation should probably win some exalted award for being the most ridiculous piece of legislation to pass the 69th Session. It is a perfect example of the fact that good intentions do not insure a good result.)

Probation fees are up from $15 per month to $40 per month and the criminal must now pay restitution to the victim, court costs and fine, and must repay any crime stoppers' reward that was advanced for his apprehension. I am not sure we reduced crime as much as we guaranteed a better economic class of criminals. The fact is, after the 69th Legislative Session, the poor can no longer afford to be in crime.

A raging controversy arising out of the Session, having international ramifications, is whether or not the State of Texas should be called the "wildflower state" or the "bluebonnet state". Peer pressure is a terrible thing and New Mexico being the "Land of Enchantment" and Missouri being the "show me state" and all other states being some sort of state, it is imperative that Texas have such a designation and neither hail nor sleet nor gloom of night, nor any thought of expense, will prevent the Legislature from providing you a deserving motto.

with a pet shop in Brownwood to take all of the kittens, where they will be sold to people that really want one. Glen promised he would see to the transportation.

Yes, Laverne has quite a way. Fluffy is a proud mama. She has a beautiful family of all colors, and she herself is sporting a new flea collar with a huge tag that states she has been vaccinated.

It is very odd, as Fluffy has always managed before to take care of her family matters, but people just had to get in on the act this last time.

They Came In Peace

by Leona Bruce

(Editor's note: This is the fourth book of Central Texas history by Leona Bruce. In preparation for the 1986 Sesquicentennial, Mrs. Bruce has waived her copyright and permits this series of Coleman County stories to be published. All her books are out of print except two.)

Chapter 3 Some Left Their Names

One pioneer who left his name on the Coleman County map was George Watts, one of three brothers who joined the United States army in the east and were stationed at the frontier post, Camp Colorado. George married a girl who lived nearby, Mary Barefoot, a daughter of a settler on the Jim Ned. The young couple lived in one of the post buildings or in a cabin close by.

When the Civil War began, and the soldiers were given their choice of going north to fight with the Union army or joining the Confederates in Texas, George Watts decided to stay in Texas; with their baby boy, John, who was born in 1860, they moved into a good building at the post, along with some other families who needed the protection of the stone houses in the Indian raids.

These people made their living from small fields and the wild game with now and then a wage from the state for service in defending the frontier. The war years were long and hard, and the time of peace afterward not much easier. They farmed in the valleys, herded their horses, and found a basic food supply in the unbranded calves which were everywhere on the open range. There were always deer, antelope, fish and wild fowl to eat, and great herds of buffalo as well.

One day, a young son of George Watts was herding the settlers horses within sight of the post, in the grass to the south, when five or six mounted Indians came racing by, between the post and the herd. The boy, about thirteen years old, was armed only with a pistol, but he rode toward them and fired, hitting one of them in the body; he turned and rode back toward the post and was chased by an Indian on a fast horse. He was shot in the back but kept riding, reached the buildings before he fell. Fortunately, the wound was not

New feature added

This week a new feature has been added to the News. Potpourri is a mixture or collection of delightful things by definition, and a weekly feature column by area resident Ann Gresham is aptly titled "Potpourri".

The column features helpful hints for the home as well as cooking and beauty tips.

The inaugural column features a pot roast that is easy to prepare and appealing to the pocketbook.

fatal, but it served notice what the white men could expect.

The fallen Indian was lifted up behind another, and they rode out of sight, driving all the settlers' horses ahead of them.

As luck would have it, this band of Indians were met a few miles from the post by a scout of Rangers, who attacked them and drove them into a thicket; a close watch was kept around the grove, while the horse herd was driven back to Camp Colorado. Of course the Indians slipped out in the night, but in searching the grove the next day, the Rangers found the grave of the raider shot by the Watts boy, about two feet deep and containing besides the body a shield of buffalo hide, a good bow and several arrows.

George Watts took his family a few miles south to homestead on a small creek, where the sandy land raised fine corn and garden crops. There was no school for the children, but Mary Barefoot taught her children to read and write. They all sang often to the music of her treasured organ; still in good condition, this organ is now owned by a family who live in Burnet. The creek where they pioneered was named for Watts, and in later years a one-teacher school was built not far away, the Watts Creek school.

The oldest son, John, joined the Rangers while very young, probably not more than fifteen, and in his first Indian fight he was wounded in the hip by an arrow. He went back to Watts Creek to get well, which took a long time, and he never served with the Rangers again. After he was married, he bought his father's land and lived on it until his death about 1937.

One pioneer who did not leave his name was John David, who brought his young wife and his cattle to lower Home Creek about 1861. Their cabin was near the creek, west of where Farm Road 2633 now goes to Whon; a baby boy, C. O., was born on December 19, 1862, and died in February at two months of age. In 1864 a baby girl was born, whom they called Jenny, which must have been a pet name, as her land records used the name Virginia. A few other settlers came to the area, among them the Bartons and the Dofflemeyer brothers, Jake and Jim.

On December 12, 1865, John Daniel died and was buried beside his little boy. What was a rich young widow with a baby daughter and hundreds of cattle to do, what with cattle-thieves, Indian raids, accidents and the other dangers of the time and place? The next year she was married to James H. Dofflemeyer, one of the handsome and much-liked brothers who were running their cattle up on Camp Creek.

Dofflemeyer was Hide and Cattle Inspector for the county in 1871, a place of importance now that the cattle drives from the south had begun, and also that the branding and marking of open-range calves was so profitable. About 1872 the unmarried brother, Jake, was killed by raiding Indians and was buried near the Chisum store.

Before many years, James and Mary Dofflemeyer moved to San Saba County, ranching there but also founding a bank and amassing a considerable fortune. The little girl, Jenny Daniel, was married about 1882 to Will Banister. She had granite monuments erected to mark the graves of her father and little brother on Home Creek, replacing the sandstones.

There is no creek, no hill, not even a creek-crossing, named for Daniel or Dofflemeyer, or, for that matter, Upton or Barton or Jordan. There are only the grave markers in the brushy pasture with their sad record; C. O. Daniel, born December 19, 1862, died February 13, 1863, and John Daniel, born February 17, 1833 and died December 12, 1865.

Teacher Biographies

In this day and time, our educational systems are very much in the forefront of the news.

The Santa Anna Independent School District is fortunate to have a faculty staff of dedicated teachers whose primary interest is to see that the students of our community receive a quality education.

The News has asked the teachers for information about themselves so that we might present them to the readers in a series of articles over the summer.

Some have not yet responded to our questionnaires but hopefully will before the series is completed, so if your favorite does not appear, please forgive us.

This is part two of a series.

GAIL LOYD

Gail Loyd is a fourth grade teacher in the Santa Anna elementary school. Gail was raised in Coleman County from birth through high school. She graduated from Coleman High School in 1971, then attended Southwest Texas State University from fall 1971 to 1975 when she graduated with a B. S. in Education and a minor in music, with all level music education certification. In 1977 she attained her Early Childhood Cover.

Gail is married to Lynn Loyd, who owns LGL & Sons Well Service (formerly DSD Well Service). The Loyds have two sons, William Nelson, who will be a 2nd grader, and Erwin Lynn, who is 14 months old.

Gail's has an interest in sports. Gail's summer will be spent attending workshops for Advanced Academic Training, attending her son's T-Ball games, attending her husband's softball games and trying to start a yard.

DIANNA SNIPE

Dianna Snipes is an elementary school teacher in the Santa Anna Schools. She was raised in Houston and graduated from Sam Houston High School and from Howard Payne University. She now lives in Brownwood.

Dianna is married to Tommy Snipes, who is disabled. Dianna has a step-son, Warren Snipes, who lives in Hurst, Texas and a daughter, Dawna, who will be a second grader at Santa Anna in the fall.

Tommy likes to fiddle with radios and Dawna likes to skate, swim, and play. Dawna is a member of the Bluebirds and Whirlybirds. Dianna likes to sew and help with some of Dawna's functions. Tommy and Dianna both like to watch Dawna and new friends skate. The Snipes attend Southside Baptist Church in Brownwood.

Dianna plans to attend several workshops in June and August. Dawna will take swimming lessons in June. In July the Snipes will go to her parents home in Conroe for a visit. While they are down there they hope to go to the beach and maybe to Astroworld.

JANET NEFF

Janet Neff is a 3rd grade teacher at Santa Anna Elementary School. Mrs. Neff attended school at Kermit, Andrew and Midland. She received her degree from Tarleton State University and UTPB.

Janet is married to Donnie Neff, who is a farmer and rancher. The Neffs have two children, Kyra, 9 and Darbi, 6.

Janet's interests are swimming and travel. Janet says that her family also enjoys doing these things.

This summer Janet says she plans to enjoy some "real" stay at home, family time and doing all the things that time doesn't allow through the school year.

BETTY LEWIS

Betty Lewis is a 4th grade teacher at Santa Anna elementary school. She grew up at Lorenzo, near Lubbock and attended Lorenzo High School, Lubbock Christian College and North Texas State University.

Betty husband is deceased. He used to be owner of an Auto Parts Remanufacturing and Sales business. Betty has three children, Becky, 14, Shera, 13 and Karen, 10.

How Big is a Million?

A billion seconds ago is 1951, and a billion minutes ago Jesus Christ was on Earth, and a billion hours ago nothing walked on two legs on the face of this planet. A billion dollars was 10.3 hours ago in Washington, D.C. and now that the U.S. budget is nearly a trillion dollars, how do we measure that?

The City of Santa Anna has purchased a DDT fogging machine from a company in San Antonio. The machine is known as the Todd of New York fogging machine and is now in operation in our city.

Calvin Campbell, Cosignee for Gulf Oil Corporation reported this week that his warehouse was broken into on Sunday night and that $24.72 was missing. A later check revealed that only $12.24 was missing and that if the one who broke in will come to see him he will apologize for making the first report.

On Tuesday, June 7, Rev. and Mrs. E.H. Wylie held open house in observance of the 50th anniversary of their marriage, with all the members of their family present to make the occasion a happy one.

The City Commission announces this week that all alleys in the city will be opened within a reasonable length of time, so that passage may go through. The primary purpose of opening the alley ways is so that the fogging machine may get to all parts of the town.

The City Commission asks that all who have obstructions in alleys, begin now to get personal property such as fences, buildings and other things out of the alleys.

Potpourri by Ann Gresham

How many times have you found yourself thinking, especially in this hurry-up world we live in, "There must be a short-cut, a simpler, easier, faster, (and always) cheaper way of accomplishing these every-day tasks." Well, look no further, for this very column you have happened upon is designed to do just that...simplify life for you, thereby giving you a chance to more fully enjoy the precious hours which fill each day that the good Lord allows us.

"Potpourri" suggests a mixture or collection of delightful things. This bit of journalism is designed to be just that. And with all of that said, consider, please, the following that can be found in our bag of 'potpourri' today...

Did you know--If you'll stick a couple of magnets on the bottom of your vacuum cleaner, they'll catch pins and tacks before they get into the bag or maybe even create more expensive problems. Better yet, glue a magnet to the end of a long stick, if you hate to bend over, and use it to pick up stray needles and pins when you sew.

Here's a foolproof recipe for absolutely the most delicious and, without a doubt, easiest pot roast you'll ever put in your oven or your mouth:

- One 2 to 3 lb. pot roast
- One pkg. of onion soup mix

Put the meat (an arm roast works great) on a sheet of aluminum foil big enough to wrap it in. Sprinkle the onion soup mix on top of it, fold the foil, airtight, around it, put it in a baking pan, and bake at 300 degrees for three hours. If you like, an hour or so before it's done, open it up and surround it with potatoes and carrots. Simply scrumptious!

Green thumb gems: July is the time to let your lawn rest, because this is its hardest working time. It uses up lots of energy growing, fighting the hot weather, and trying to ward off diseases. So it's a good time to lay off any heavy maintenance. Anyway, with these lazy summer days, it's enough just keeping up with the regular chores of mowing and digging up those pesky weeds. Just be sure to pay careful attention to watering.

Beauty buds--Did you know that the nine places a woman should wear perfume are:

- At the bend of each elbow 2
- On the pulse of each wrist 2
- Behind each ear 2
- On each eyebrow 2
- At the base of your throat 1

Fragrant spices: Sometimes God allows us to see, in retrospect, why He answered our prayers as He did. Other hard-to-understand answers will have to wait until we reach heaven.

In the past, old Eskimos would take on a new name, in the hope that it would give them a new lease on life.

DRIVELINE

TRAFFIC SIGN COLORS

All highway signs now use specific colors to help direct drivers using our highway and streets. The color RED is used only as a background color for STOP signs, DO-NOT-ENTER messages, WRONG WAY signs, parking prohibition signs and as a legend color for construction and maintenance signs only and is not used for any other purpose. BLUE is used as a background color for information signs relating to motorist services (including police services and rest areas).

HIGHWAY KILLERS

Drinking drivers kill more people than murders. Drinking drivers also injure more people and more seriously than assaults with deadly weapons. Drinking drivers commit more property damage than all the burglars and thieves put together. Please, don't let your friend drink and drive!

ROADWAY MARKINGS

Do you know the difference between a broken white line and a broken yellow line used on highways? A normal broken white line is used to delineate or outline the edge of a travel path where travel is allowed in the same direction on both sides of the line. A normal broken yellow line is used to delineate the left edge of a travel path where travel on the other side of the line is in the opposite direction. This broken yellow line is often used as a center line of a two-lane, two-way roadway, where overtaking and passing is permitted.

Loyd Burris Dry Goods advertised boys sport shirts for 50 cents each. Palm work hats for 98 cents.

Bland Grocery was selling Gladiola Flour, 25 pound sack, $1.78. They also were selling linoleum rugs and tires and tubes.

In a Phillips Drug advertisement for Liquid Garlic (tonic) they stated you could call them at phone no. 1.

The Queen Theater was showing "Canadian Pacific" with Randolph Scott, and "Desert Vigilante" with Charles Starrett and Smiley Burnett.

Troop 230 Returns from Camp

Boy Scout Troop 230 completed a week at camp. Scoutmaster, Tex Wright, had 30 boys in camp from several different troops with eight boys from our local troop. Only one boy did not make the full week due to an asthma attack.

All returned Saturday about noon with many memories, numerous awards and chiggers to take home with them.

The boys earned many awards in the crafts, nature and aquatics areas.

Shawn Harper received his BSA Lifeguard. Jackie Duquette assisted in winning 2 awards in the swim carnival held Friday at camp.

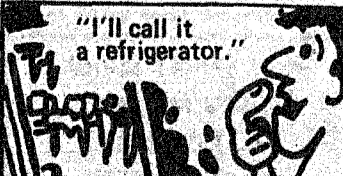

The Boy Scouts will have a Court of Honor at 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 8 at the Scout Hut in the Armory in which all awards and merit badges earned will be awarded to the boys.

Attending the Friday night ceremony at camp were James and Anna Puckett, Oscar and Martha Ubnoski, Dora and Tammy Snodgrass, Billy Don and Margie McCrary, Willa Terry, Ricky Jones, James and Cindy Pelton, Pat Wright, Alys Pelton, Missy Moore, and Danna and Stephanie Turner.

Curtis Puckett received the highest honor of the week by being "tapped out" as a candidate for the Order of the Arrow, an organization recognizing exemplary scouts. To become a member of this organization Curtis will go through a 24 hour ordeal the weekend of July 12 and 13.

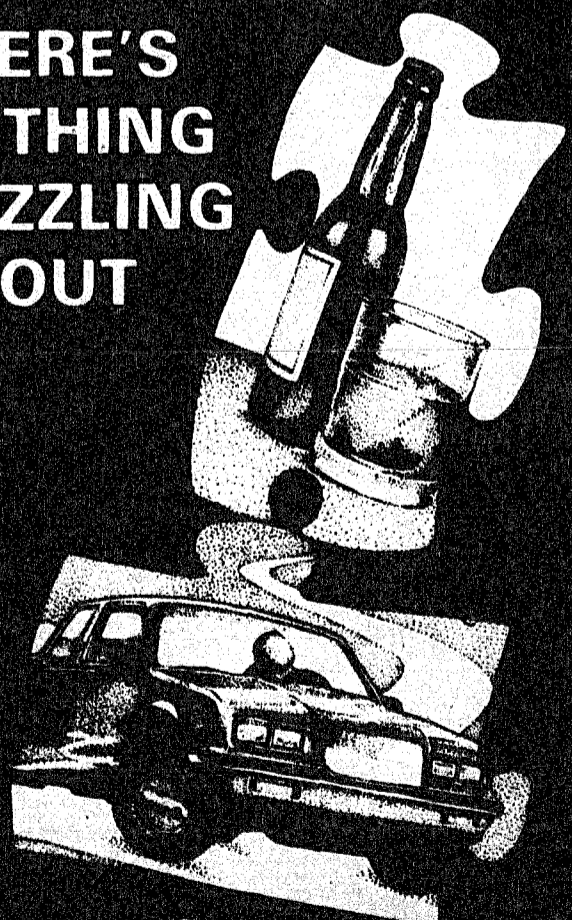

Some people once believed that if a girl plants marigolds in soil that contains the footprints of a man she loves, his love will grow and bloom with the marigold.

"I'll call it a refrigerator."
The refrigerator was invented in 1803 by Thomas Moore of Baltimore, Maryland. It consisted of two boxes, one inside the other, separated by insulating material.

THERE'S NOTHING PUZZLING ABOUT IT.

WHON NEWS

By Mrs. Tom Rutherford

In the beginning of our community news this week, I am apologizing to Mr. Mark Hambright of Coleman who came and assisted with hauling hay in mentioning the ones who helped us, I failed to think of Mark at the time. I am so sorry I failed to mention him. He has always been so nice to come and assist with the work. I do want to say "Thanks", and Mark please overlook the mistake.

My daughter, Mrs. Bob (Patsy) Smith of Abilene came and spent Tuesday and Wednesday night with me. A son, Hilary, of Coleman was on vacation last week and was here during the week.

We are glad to report Mr. Tom Vinson was dismissed from the Coleman Hospital on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bryan of Rockwood visited with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Vinson Sunday afternoon and assisted in gathering garden vegetables.

The Lone Star. Lone Star, sometimes called "Star of Bethlehem," is one of the more ambitious projects in quilt making, and yet the result is so effective that many have completed coverlets of this design. In making any quilt one should think of the top as a whole; in making a Lone Star it is imperative. Using the unit diamond to finish the size here given, that is by allowing a seam extra all around, the large star will measure large enough for a very large spread, about 50 inches. Or by cutting the diamonds the pattern size and not allowing extra seams the large star is really a better size, about 68 inches across.

Borders may be added in the proportion shown widest at the bottom to make the quilt longer than wide.

You must lay out your color scheme first on a checked diamond as here shown which represents one-eighth of the complete star. Any radiating of color may be planned, either extending out with all different hues or repeating to double back as the color scheme suggested.

The diamonds are pieced together in rows, the rows then joined with careful corner matching to form the huge diamond, eight of which make the star. Background triangles have to be cut the exact number of inch that your star points finish--a 25 inches in the quilt shown.
