Livestock Ass'n. Elects Officers And Directors

Nine members of the Santa Anna Livestock Association met in the Lions Room at the Service Cafe Tuesday night, October 13, for the purpose of re-organizing the organization and the election of new directors. Tom Kingsbery, James Eubank of Santa Anna and Jake McCreary of Rockwood, were elected for a three year term. Other directors are: one year, W. B. Griffin, Ozro Eubank, and W. T. Stewardson; two years, Pat Hosch, A. B. Carroll and William R. Brown.

Out-going directors are Lester Newman, Ben W. Yarborough and Tom Stewardson.

At a meeting of the directors at 1:00 p. m. Tuesday W. T. Stewardson was elected as President of the Livestock Association. Pat Hosch was elected as Vice President and W. F. Barnes was elected as Secretary-Treasurer.

Two guests were present, B. M. Mobley and H. C. Johnston, agriculture students at A. & M. College, who are here receiving teaching practice under the direction of A. D. Pettit, local vocational agriculture teacher.

Now is the time for members to renew their membership in the livestock association. During past years the membership has been near the 100 mark every year, except last year when only 79 members paid their dues. Dues are $5.00 per year and this money is used to finance the annual Santa Anna Livestock show each year and also to finance the annual FFA barbecue, put on by the local chapter. It is through this organization that funds are raised for the livestock show and thus keeps individual citizens of the area from having to donate money during the time of the livestock show, which has been growing in size for the past sixteen years.

Everyone who is interested in the future of the livestock industry in this section of Texas is urged to become a member of the Santa Anna Livestock Association.

Local Pastor Attends Washington Meeting

Rev. Jack Payne of the Santa Anna Methodist Church was among the 500 Methodist leaders in attendance at a three day Briefing Conference and Citizenship Convocation at Washington D. C. last week. Mrs. Daisy Laws of Snyder is here for an indefinite stay with her brother, Jim Robin.

Miss Bess Shield of Paris, Texas, came last week and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Vera Shield.

PICTURED ABOVE IS A PART of the nearly 400 ex-students that were here for the annual Homecoming Saturday, October 10. It would be impossible to attempt to name all of them, but a great number of them can be recognized. These pictures are on sale at the Community Chamber of Commerce office, in 8 x 10 size, for $1.00 each. Last week we stated the names of all the former students who registered at the homecoming and we still have several copies left if anyone else wants to send them to their friends or former classmates. Plans are being made to make the Homecoming next year as big as bigger than the one this year and every former student that lives in this area can be a big help by keeping in contact with their former classmates.

"Bigger pies, not smaller slices"

We ran across a new word the other day... "demographer." That's a research man who studies statistics on births, deaths, populations.

Well, it seems the United States will have 20 million more people aboard by 1960, or thereabouts. Logical enough. We gained 20 million people in the forties.

Bigger pies are the order of the day. In the electrical industry, for instance, men with sharp pencils have figured that demand for electric power will have doubled during the decade ending in 1960. More power equipment is therefore needed. More electrical machinery for industry.

And better pies. Americans insist on better products, year by year. Somebody has to pioneer things. Looking ahead for five, ten, fifteen years—creating new and better products and improving old ones—that is the business of General Electric. For seventy-five years progress has been our most important product.

The babies who come into the world today won't want smaller slices of the world's goods and opportunities. Or even the same slice. They'll want more. Wait and see. Nothing less is worth planning for by the people who must organize for the future. It's no job for pessimists.

No Liquor Defense

Lesson for October 25, 1933

ON THE SOUTH side of a large sign in front of a Methodist church on a main highway are the words: LIQUOR HAS NO DEFENSE. The church did not invent that expression; it is a quotation from Abraham Lincoln. On the opposite side of the sign, drivers coming the other way see this:

Drink
cash

Even the companies that make money out of drunkenness (the more liquor, the more profits) know that the north side of the sign is true, and will say so in large paid advertisements. Liquor certainly has no defense as a drink for drivers. But some of the other defenses put up for alcoholic liquor as a beverage that "belongs," that is part of the social scene, do not sound so good when they are taken down and looked at with a cold and sober eye.

Alcohol Is A Drug

The one thing that defenders of alcoholic beverages invariably keep quiet about, is the simple fact that alcohol is a drug, a harmful drug, a habit-forming drug. No amount of advertising can talk that fact out of existence.

Dr. Foreman

That it is a fact, can be witnessed to by anybody—he does not have to be a preacher!—who has had to deal with the wretched people at the bottom of the slide that was lubricated with liquor. Alcoholics are sick people; that is a recognized fact; but alcoholism differs from all the other diseases in the book in this one vital thing: No one can say to himself, I refuse to have tuberculosis, I will never have cancer. He may come down with those diseases in spite of his best intentions. But any one may say to himself: I will never be an alcoholic. And he can make that resolution stick, simply by staying away from alcohol. On the other hand, no man or woman who mixes alcohol in his system can ever be quite sure he will not be an alcoholic. No alcoholic ever meant to be one.

Drugs Have No Brakes

Now the trade in alcoholic liquor is legal; trade in other drugs such as heroin, cocaine and similar drugs, is strictly illegal except for medicinal purposes through regular pharmacists, and on doctors' prescriptions. Still there are a great many people who in spite of the difficulties do manage to buy and use these forbidden drugs, and of course there are always the conscienceless people who sell the stuff to the addicts.

But let us suppose we listened to the defenses of ordinary liquor, if applied to other drug habits. How ridiculous they would sound! We are told that the habit of drinking liquor is a long-established American way of life. Well, the taking of cocaine is long-established too. People will buy liquor—legally or illegally; they will buy heroin too in spite of all the laws. People will steal cars, and forge checks—it's been done a long time. But that doesn't make it right.

Or again, consider the pleasure people get out of liquor. Why, of course. They get an even keener pleasure out of shots of other drugs than alcohol. Every time you put a drug addict into a sanitarium you deprive him of his greatest pleasure in life. But that does not make his habit any better. But, it will be said, self-control is the answer; a drug used in moderation is not so harmful as when used to excess. True; but the trouble is, no drug has brakes, and drugs of the kind that alcohol and heroin are, actually weaken self-control instead of making it stronger.

Stuff And Nonsense

The reader can amuse (or horrify) himself by thinking of other antique arguments used to bolster the cause of those who use, or who profit by other men's use of, alcoholic liquors. How do they sound when used in defense of other drug habits? "The illegal drug business gives employment to thousands." "To interfere with this traffic is to interfere with free enterprise, the right of every man to make his living as he sees fit." "To interfere with this traffic is to interfere with men's personal liberty. Even if a man ruins himself with cocaine, it's his own business."

FREEDOM OF PRESS IMPORTANT TO ALL

National Newspaper Week, recently concluded, served to focus public attention upon the value of a free and uncensored press. Perhaps it would be well to stop for a moment and consider the fact that freedom of the press is no accident in this country.

Instead, it stems from a specific guarantee in the U. S. Constitution. The right of freedom of the press is secured by the first amendment to the Federal Constitution, which says: "Congress shall make no law — abridging the freedom of — the press." The Constitutions of the several states likewise contain similar guarantees.

Why did the farmers of New England, the planters of the South and the small storekeepers of Philadelphia, New York, and Boston insist some 160 years ago that the original Constitution be amended so that the people would be specifically guaranteed freedom of the press?

It was because the founders of our country had an abiding faith that enlightened citizens could be entrusted with the job of governing themselves. If they could have an unfettered opportunity to read the history and to learn the lessons of the past, to understand the never-ending clash of ideas, to read about what forces are alive in the world, to check on their government as to its activities, its successes, its failures and its abuses, and to write and speak tests of their products by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Yet, many a home gardener and farmer ignores the facts. They fail to take the advice of those state men whose salaries are paid by taxes just for the purpose of knowing such things. Instead, the consumer harks to the siren song of the medicine men who make claims like this: "My fertilizer contains valuable radioactive materials which have magical properties —"

If that were true, all fertilizers would have these "valuable radioactive materials" — and they would cost about $1,000 a ton. This is just a modern version of the "Old Indian Remedy" routine.

Or the medicine man declares, "This wonderful new insecticide will rid your crop of all harmful pests with just one application."

That depends upon what insects the huckster is talking about. No present insecticide that I know of is effective against the pink bollworm once the larvae is inside the boll. Maybe his product will stun the pink bollworm in the moth stage but the buyer is lead to believe, the "marvelous new chemical" will assure an absolute kill at all phases of the insects' life cycles.

"My invigorated nursery plans will grow even in rocky land — and they are amazingly cheap. Just send $1.98 —"

I suppose you could grow an oak tree on top of a cement sidewalk if you kept enough good soil packed around the roots. Yet, thousands of people are misled by this sort of advertising.

The medicine man knows that some day the law or the people will catch up with him. But he also knows that by that time he will have plenty of capital for the next medicine show.

So when you hear the spiel of the medicine man, either on plants, fertilizers or insecticides, call the doctor! Consult with inspectors from the Texas Department of Agriculture, Capitol Station, Austin.

unimpeded — then they could not be made slaves.

The framers of the Constitution believed that freedom of the press would aid in enlightening the people. The competition of ideas would point out the choices of the people. With this freedom, they could decide their own problems better, with more resulting happiness to themselves, their families and their communities. The men who wrote the Constitution knew intimately of those countries across the seas whose governments controlled thought, censored information and made political, economic and religious decisions for their subjects. They believed in the principle of competition and the value of permitting every citizen to develop himself to the limits of his abilities, and they insisted that this right of freedom of the press be recognized by the fundamental law of the land.

Of course, all rights entail correlative obligations and duties. Freedom of the press is not unlimited. It does not permit license, libel, violation of the law nor interferences with the orderly running of the government.

With but a few insignificant exceptions, the press of the free world has admirably justified the faith of the philosophy of the framers of the Constitution. From the Argentine northward through the Western Hemisphere, and in the free countries of the Old World, the "fourth estate" has fearlessly accepted its responsibility and has aided in preserving freedom and in checking tyranny and dictatorship.

(This column, based on Federal law, is written to inform — not advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney (the facts may change the application of the law.)

MEDICINE MEN INVADE AGRICULTURE

Man is a contrary animal. He is positive that he knows more about what ails him than his doctor, but he will part with a hard-earned dollar any time he hears the spiel of the medicine man.

This quirk of human nature has made many a fortune. A few of the current "Medicine Man" bonanzas are insecticides, liquid fertilizers, and mail-order plant bargains.

Texas has many reputable manufacturers and dealers of these products. Because they are reputable, they make only claims which their own research has confirmed.

These manufacturers and dealers are careful to register their products under the state law and to comply with the letter of the law. They welcome

Mountaineers Hosts To Ranger Friday, Lose To DeLeon In Final Period, 39-20

The DeLeon Bearcats scored 20 points in the final period Friday night to defeat the Santa Anna Mountaineers for three straight years. At the end of the third period the Mountaineers were leading the Bearcats 20-19, but early in the fourth period the Bearcats drove 54 yards for the TD that put them in front and Santa Anna was trying desperately to make another TD by passing and had two of them intercepted which gave the Bearcats two extra TDs.

Santa Anna scored first with Wess Wise, quarterback, passing to Charles McClellan, right end, for six yards in the first period, Danny Johnson, left tackle, kicked the extra point. This drive started when Donald Trull took a DeLeon punt on his 26 yard line and returned it to the 41. Dean Bass and Jay Steward took turns on running plays to push the ball down to the 6 yard line. DeLeon took the kickoff on the 20-yard line and drove all the way down field with Eddie Adams going over for the TD from the 7 yard line. The extra point was missed and the Mountaineers led 7-6 at the end of the first period. Both teams scored again in the second period with Nance scoring for DeLeon on a 32 yard run and then Nance kicked the extra point. Late in the period the Mountaineers took a short punt on the DeLeon 40 and Bass broke into the open and raced down to the 2-yard line before being brought down. On the next play Bass fumbled after going over the goal line and Hilary Rutherford covered the ball, making the TD for the Mountaineers. The extra point was missed and the half time score was 13-13.

Both teams scored in the third period with Ken Heathington going over for DeLeon from the 10-yard line and missing the extra point. Late in the quarter Wise passed to McClellan again for 6 yards and the TD, and Johnson kicked the extra point to put the Mountaineers out in front 20-19 at the end of the third period. Trying hard to score again, the Mountaineers had two passes intercepted in the last few minutes of the game that gave DeLeon the other two TDs.

HOSTS TO RANGER

This week the Mountaineers will play hosts to the Ranger Bulldogs, a team that won their district in Class AA last year and who has most of the same men on the returning line-up this year. Coach Behrens said he was not going to take many chances this week on getting his boys injured and was going to play a very conservative game. Several of the boys were out the first three days of the week, showing livestock at the Dallas Fair, and this has been hard on training. However, it could not have come at a better time. It is apparent that the Mountaineers have a good chance of winning all their next games with Wylie, Eastland, Bangs and Rising Star and the coach wants all the boys to be in top condition for these games.

The game will begin at Mountaineer Stadium at 7:30 p. m.

DISTRICT BRIEFS

Ranger, top contender for the District 7-A crown, lambasted the Rising Star Wildcats 47-7, at Rising Star last Friday night. Ranger leads the district in scoring with 197 points during the season and 156 points in conference play. Rising Star has given up more points than any of the other district team, giving up 148 in the entire season and 116 in conference play. Dublin is running a close second to Ranger with 3 wins and no losses in district competition. Last week Dublin bounced the Cross Plains Buffaloes 32-13 at Cross Plains. The Buffaloes have a 2-2-0 standing for this week. In third place is DeLeon, who handed Santa Anna their third conference defeat last week by a 39-20 score, while Bangs dropped Wylie by a 12-0 count.

Cross Plains rests this week and Ranger comes to Santa Anna for their fifth conference game. Rising Star travels to Wylie and Eastland visits the Bangs Dragons. Dublin journeys to DeLeon for the game that will most likely determine the second and third places in District 7-A, as there is not much doubt but what Ranger will take the top position. At the present time it looks as if DeLeon will not be in this district next year, but will advance to Class AA, because of their school enrollment.
