SANTA ANNA'S FIRST COMMUNITY FAIR BIG SUCCESS

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Perry Hold Open House In Celebration Of Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Perry celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary Monday with open house, when more than one hundred guests called. All of their five children, and five of their six grandchildren were present for the gala occasion.

Their children, all of whom are graduates of the Santa Anna high school, are Mrs. E. S. Jones of Shields, class of 1906; Mrs. C. H. Taylor of Victoria, 1908; Mrs. K. I. Davis of Los Angeles, California, 1914; Mrs. W. J. Steward of El Dorado, 1916; and Mrs. Harry Caton of Santa Anna, 1920. Grand-children who assisted with the entertaining and serving were Miss Mary Tom Jones of Shields, Misses Billie Bob, Neva Jo, and Winnie Jean Steward of El Dorado, and Elton Jones of Shields. Miss Dorine Davis of Los Angeles was unable to be here. There has never been a death in the family.

Mr. Perry was born March 12, 1853, the son of John Wesley and Nancy Perry of Murfreesboro, Tennessee; came to Texas in 1878, settling at old Ft. Clark. Mrs. Perry, the daughter of Jesse and Marv Ann Bond, was the former Miss Mary Elizabeth Bond, born February 28, 1860, in San Antonio. She was reared in San Antonio and on the old Bond Ranch near Bracketville. The marriage certificate was issued at Bracketville, in Kinney County, and the ceremony was performed in Del Rio. They lived in Del Rio for four years, then moved here and built the house in which they are still living. Mr. Perry built the first rock building in Santa Anna, where Walker's Pharmacy is today. He also built all the other old rock buildings here. It was only about five years ago, after he has suffered a paralytic stroke, that he ceased a great deal of his carpenter work.

As guests entered, they were asked to register in the gold and white book presided over by Miss LaRue Curry. Flowers carrying out the gold and white color scheme, and gold tapers were used for decorations. The four-tiered gold and white wedding cake supported a miniature bride and groom. Orangeade in gold colored pottery and heart-shaped white and gold cake were served by the daughters and grand-daughters. Favours were announcements printed in gold.

Entertainment throughout the day included music and songs by the grand-daughters, and Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Caton. Songs included "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," "Love's Old Sweet Song," and "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet." An original song, composed by Mrs. Stewart, and a poem, were especially enjoyed by the guests.

SINCE 1885
"Laugh a lot and sigh a little bit,
Work some, play some,
Just for the benefit.
We've been together in all kinds of weather,
Since 1885.

Sometimes hail and sometimes a water-spout,
Sometimes rheumatism, sometimes it's the gout,
But we're locked in and don't want out,
Since 1885.

Troubles come and troubles go again,
Toothache, headache, heart-aches now and then;
Sometimes funny, sometimes sunny,
Since 1885.

Clothes to mend and lots of work to do,
Cows to milk, and things to make anew;
Babies crying, parents sighing,
Since 1885.

Hours of toil and hours of fun, you bet,
Hours of grief, and hours you can't forget;
We've been together all kinds of weather,
Since 1885.

Grocery bills, and nurse bills now and then,
Light bills, water bills,
Gas bills on top of them —
Laws, too, and notes a few,
Since 1885.

Old friends, new friends,
Some are tried and true.
Good folks funny, bad folks just a few,
Those we've met and won't forget,
Since 1885."

During the day toasts were also proposed by Mother Garrett, Mrs. Charles Oakes, and Mr. Dennis Kelley. Telephone calls, special delivery letters, and telegrams arrived throughout the day.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Collier, who recently celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary, and the following who have passed the Golden Anniversaries: Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Crum, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Netherton of Coleman, and Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Harper.

On display all day were the marriage certificate, the wedding picture, pictures of the children as babies, some of the baby clothes, Mrs. Perry's bea- others in gold and coral brooch and ear rings, and Mr. Perry's rever-

11,464,000 Bales of Cotton Estimated

Washington, Oct. 8.—(AP)—A cotton crop of 11,464,000 bales was forecast today by the crop reporting board of the Department of Agriculture.

The crop was reported 64 per cent of normal, with an indicated yield of lint cotton of 191.5 pounds per acre for harvest. Ginnings from the crop to Oct. 1, were 4,230,367 running bales.

Last month the crop reporting board forecast a crop of 11,489,000 bales which compared with 1934 production of 9,636,000 bales. Average American production 1925-30 was 15,268,000 bales annually.

A preliminary estimate placed acreage for harvest at 28,652,000 which compared with 27,515,000 acres in 1934. Average harvests for 1925-30 were 42,606,000 annually. Texas indicated 3,275,000 bales compared to 2,406,000 in 1934 and average production 1928-32 of 4,539,000. Indicated yield 142 pounds compared to 112 in 1934 and average 1924-33 of 144. Acreage indicated 2,628,000; crop condition 56 per cent.

The Department forecast the cotton crop, based upon condition as of Oct. 1, as 25,000 bales less than the Sept. 1 forecast.

WINGOS LEAVE NEXT WEEK FOR GONZALES

Rev. and Mrs. Hal C. Wingo and children plan to leave Wednesday of next week for Gonzales, where they will make their home. Rev. Wingo has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Baptist Church in that city, and will deliver his farewell address here Sunday evening.

Rev. Wingo has been pastor of the First Baptist Church here for almost seven years, the many friends of the family regret to see them leave.

A pulpit committee was appointed Sunday evening following acceptance of the resignation here by the church. Those on the committee are W. E. Ragsdale, Louis Newman, J. R. Lock, Mrs. J. E. Watkins, and Mrs. J. E. Watkins. They will keep the pulpit supplied and make recommendations to the church until an acceptable pastor is called.

Associational B. T. U. to Calvary

The Coleman Associational Baptist Training Union will meet Sunday afternoon at the Calvary Baptist Church in the Starkweather community. Final plans will be made for the Associational B. T. U. Revival to begin Sunday, October 20, and run through one week.

All churches who plan to cooperate in the Revival will send messengers to the meeting. Rev. Julius P. King, District Missionary, who will direct the Revival, expects to be present.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this method of expressing my gratitude to the people of Santa Anna for providing the community fair and its opportunities, and to the Santa Anna National Bank in particular for the extra premium paid me for first place on my span of mare mules.

W. B. Myers.

Mrs. W. H. Ragsdale, Mrs. G. A. Ragsdale and little daughter, Mary Gene, and Mrs. E. J. Merritt accompanied Vernon Ragsdale to Abilene Sunday. Vernon, a student in Hardin-Simmons spent the weekend at home.

sible red and gold silk handkerchief. Gifts included flowers, and various household accessories.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Netherton of Coleman, Judge S. J. Pieratt of Coleman, Mrs. James White, Mrs. Roy Perry, and Mr. W. T. Fisher of Brownwood, Mrs. Foster Pearson of Lorenzo, Mrs. Sue Creamer of Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson of Coleman, Mrs. George Cobb, Mrs. Ward Evans, Mrs. G. R. McClure, Mrs. Hardy Stewardson, and Mr. and Mrs. Rawleigh Glenn of Shields, Mrs. A. S. Hall of Rockwood, and Mrs. Carrie Dillingham of Albany.

R. Elmer Dunham of Junction, member of the State Baptist Training Union Executive Board, who will lead the local church in the Associational B. T. U. Revival during the week of October 20-27. He will occupy the pulpit at the First Baptist Church Sunday, October 20.

ELMER DUNHAM TO LEAD HERE IN ASSOCIATIONAL B. T. U. REVIVAL

Rev. R. Elmer Dunham, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Junction, has been secured to lead the local church in the Coleman Associational Baptist Training Union Revival, scheduled for October 20-27. Twenty-two of the twenty-eight churches in the Association are planning to offer training courses that week. Students from Howard Payne College, Brownwood, and Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, will conduct the Revival, which will be under the leadership of Rev. Julius P. King, Missionary of District Sixteen.

Rev. Dunham is at present a member of the State B. T. U. Executive Board, and is a former president of the District Six B. T. U. Convention, of which Dallas is a part, where he served for two years. He is a graduate of San Marcos State Teachers' College, where he was College Secretary for the Baptist Students' Union, and Educational Director of the First Baptist Church of San Marcos. He has assisted Dr. T. C. Gardner, State B. T. U. Director, and G. S. Hopkins, of the State Sunday School Department, in several Associational and District wide Revivals, and Dr. Gardner, in correspondence with Rev. Hal C. Wingo, says:

"I am glad to know that Rev. Elmer Dunham of Junction is to be with you. He is indeed one of the very best B. T. U. Workers and I know he will lead your church in a marvelous way."

According to present plans, the initial meeting of the Revival will be held at the First Coleman Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, October 20, at which time students will be assigned to the churches with which they will work. About thirty-five students will be required, and pastors and other outside workers will also teach classes.

Classes will be taught each evening for five nights in each church, and zone meetings will be held at least three afternoons during the week.

The closing session will be held in the church here on Sunday afternoon, October 27, when final reports will be turned in, the efficiency and attendance banners awarded, and seals and diplomas awarded.

Dr. Gardner will be present to speak and make the awards.

Y. W. A. TO COLEMAN

Members of the Young Women's Auxiliary to the Baptist Women's Missionary Union met with the recently organized group from Coleman Monday evening, and presented a program in which they told of the aims, ideals, history, and future plans of the organization here.

Following the program the entire group enjoyed a get-acquainted social period in charge of the Coleman group. At the close of the hour, pineapple punch and cookies were served to the assembly of thirty people.

Mrs. S. W. Childers, Mrs. Sherman Gehrett, Mrs. Minnie B. Pinney, Mrs. Rex Golston, and Lenora Golston visited in the P. P. Bond home in Abilene Sunday.

Mr. T. T. Perry and Mrs. Leslie Harbison visited in Temple last weekend.

Mountaineers Nose Out Bangs, 45-18

Withstanding both a rip-snorting offensive by Bangs and an epidemic of their own errors, the Mountaineers of Santa Anna offered their bid for the district football championship at Bangs Friday afternoon by defeating the Dragons 45-18.

Play soared off to a roaring start and the game wasn't ten minutes old before each team had a touchdown. The battle continued to move swiftly up and down the field in the second quarter but there was no scoring and the half ended 6-6.

In the second half Matthew passed to Perry who sprinted 70 yards to a touchdown. On the first play after the kick-off Davis ran around right end for 25 yards. Price hit the line for a touchdown and kicked the extra point. Price kicked to Mathew on his 15 yard line where he was tackled by Ashmore. Bangs failed to gain through the line so started the overhead route again by Mathew's passing to Perry 50 yards and a touchdown. Bangs failed to convert. After the kick-off the Mountaineers tried line plays for no gain. Price kicked to Mathew who fumbled the ball on the 40 yard line where it was recovered by Polk. Price passed to Davis 40 yards and a touchdown. Davis passed to Price for the extra point. The shifty little quarterback, Davis, sprinted around right end 55 yards for the next touchdown. Price failed to make the extra point at center of line. Price kicked to Mathew on the ten yard line who was stopped on the 15 yard line by Oakes. After failing to gain on line plays, Bangs kicked to Price who returned the ball 15 yards. Bangs intercepted a pass from Price to Davis. Mathew's intended pass to Perry was intercepted by Price who raced 40 yards to a touchdown. Price kicked the extra point. Price and Davis carried the pig skin for the next touchdown but failed to convert. Bangs fumbled the ball punted by Price and McGonagill recovered for the Mountaineers. Ashmore sprinted around left end 30 yards to a touchdown. Price missed extra point. Price kicked to Bangs on 18 yard line and the game ended with the ball on Bangs 20 yard line.

Price and Davis were the most outstanding players on the Santa Anna team. All the boys showed much improvement over the previous game.

MOUNTAINEERS PLAY BULLDOGS FRIDAY NIGHT

The Santa Anna Mountaineers will meet the Brady Bulldogs at 8 o'clock Friday night at the Brady High School Athletic field.

Brady, undefeated this year, is one of the strongest teams in the district.

Mrs. Alle P. Tabor and daughter, Miss Sue Elizabeth Tabor, moved here last week from Gainesville, to make their home. Mrs. Tabor, a sister of Mrs. M. E. Harvey and Joe Brooks, reports that she moved away from Gainesville because her last son, with whom she had been living, was ready to establish another home. He, John H. Tabor, and Miss Mildred Chapman of Gainesville, were married Saturday evening. Mr. Tabor is an employee of the Gainesville Daily Register.

Wednesday afternoon the office force was surprised beyond expression when Mrs. Arthur Tyler of Marfa, Texas, formerly Miss Gordon Owens, who was an employee on the Santa Anna News for eight years, dropped in and invited the editor and family out to the automobile to see her husband and little daughter, which we did with pleasure. The Tyler family were en route to Rising Star to visit a few days before returning to their home in the Hill country. They have spent several weeks in Kerrville, where Mr. Tyler was under treatment.

Exhibits Entered Exceeded All Expectations

The Big Community Fair, the talk of the town and community for the past several weeks has passed into history, and with one accord, it is the general consensus of opinion that the Fair was the best of its kind ever held in this part of Texas.

The entries by far exceeded all expectations and many were heard to say that the fair and exhibition would have done honor to a city of 25,000 people.

Judging on Flowers, Art and Agriculture was completed Wednesday. The committee on flowers was Mrs. J. R. Gipson, Mrs. W. H. Thate, and Mrs. T. Richard Sealy. Judges were Mrs. Jodie Mathews and Mrs. R. F. Crum. The following awards were made:

Dahlias, Mrs. B. T. Vinson, first and third; Mrs. Sherman Gehrett, second.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

This is Fire Prevention Week throughout the United States, and the Santa Anna Fire Company has been doing inspection work in the city, offering whatever suggestions they have to eliminate hazards and prevent unnecessary fires.

Santa Anna has a splendid record for fire losses this year, and if we can maintain our record a few months longer, we will get a great reduction in our insurance premiums another year.

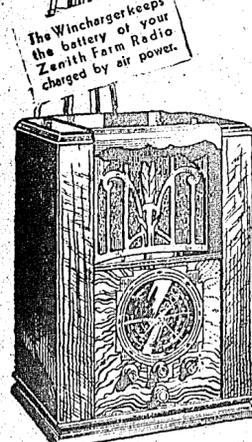

The members of the Volunteer Fire Company request the cooperation of the public in their efforts to prevent fire losses.

Most of the poor seem to keep healthy at no expense.

Santa Anna's first annual free fall community fair ended Thursday afternoon, with a record crowd registered at the Rodeo. Crowds and exhibits passed all expectations, and people are already looking forward to another and larger and better fair for next year.

Mrs. Lloyd Burrow Honored

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Lowe was the scene of joyous hilarity on Wednesday afternoon of last week, when Mrs. Lloyd Burrow was honored with a miscellaneous shower. Mrs. Burrow was, before her recent marriage, Miss Virginia Pieratt.

Rooms were beautifully decorated with golden rod and other cut flowers.

Greetings to the bride were sung by little Bonnie Jean and Rodney Balke, Allee Anna Gutrie, and Betty Ann McCaughan.

Various contests resulted in a great deal of hilarious laughter.

Mrs. Jack Woodward announced the arrival of an express package for Mrs. Burrow, and Mrs. Sam Collier volunteered to go for the package. She was accompanied on the trip by eager children.

The surprise package, when it was delivered, was found to contain many beautiful and useful gifts for the bride, who responded with sweet words of appreciation.

"Mother" Garrett was toastmistress for the occasion, and very cleverly entertained by relating her own experience as a bride of fifty-five years ago, when bridal showers were unknown, but love was sweet and life as rosy as it is today. No bride could desire lovelier wishes than those expressed for Mrs. Burrow.

Refreshments of delicious punch and cake were served to the following:

Mesdames J. T. Oakes, Jasper McClellan, Glen Williamson, Ross Kelley, A. R. Brown, Raymond Balke, W. O. Garrett, Dewey Pieratt, M. L. Guthrie, Frank Irick, Sue Creamer, Jack Woodward, J. R. Gipson, W. R. Kelley, Roger Hunter, M. L. Womack, C. W. Tierney, James Scott, G. L. Williams.

Mesdames Charles Oakes, S. H. Collier, J. T. McCaughan, Curran Pieratt, Dora Bell, J. M. Burrow, and Mace Blanton.

Misses Mary Lela Woodward, Nell Bell, Fern McCaughan, Blanche Boyd, Gay Turner, Gwendolyn Oakes, Odelle Brown, Jean Irick, Eulalia Grady, Eudora Garrett, and the hostess, Mrs. Lowe.

CHRISTIAN AID SOCIETY

The Christian Aid Society met Monday afternoon with Mrs. A. L. Haley at the parsonage. Some time was spent in sewing for the bazaar, and a business session was held, after which the group went to the home of Mrs. Will Bell for a social hour. The house was beautifully decorated with roses and daisies for the occasion.

Gifts were presented to Mrs.

S. W. Childers and Miss Josie Baxter for faithful service to the society during their term of office.

Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cake, ice cream and punch were served.

Mrs. B. A. Creamer of Beaumont, a former member of the Aid, was a welcome visitor to the meeting.

Members of the local F. F. A. met at the School house Tuesday night and set up their objectives for the ensuing year. The eighteen objectives are as follows:

The president, secretary, parliamentarian, and the reporter attend at least three District Officer Training Schools.

Co-operate with other Government agencies in helping put over the A. A. A., and the Soil Conservation Programs.

Sponsor and carry out an F. F. A. Improvement Contest.

Have fifty per cent of last year's Green Hands raised to the Future Farmers Degree.

Send representatives to regional fairs or visit outstanding farms and ranches.

Hold Father and Son Banquet. Seventy-five per cent of members beautify their farm homestead.

Seventy-five per cent of members make needed repairs on farm and home buildings.

Co-operate in putting over exhibits at the Texas Centennial in either Agriculture, Livestock, Poultry, or F. F. A. work.

Buy and sell project supplies and products co-operatively.

Send two delegates to the State Convention.

Send at least two teams to the Area F. F. A. Judging Contest and one team to the State Contest.

Every vocational Agriculture student pay local, district, state, and national dues.

Local officers meet Interscholastic League Standards.

Enter at least one district literary contest.

Every officer win a Certificate of Merit in Parliamentary Procedure.

Hold project show or set up three educational booths.

Enter project exhibit (F. F. A. History in Texas) in local Fair.

Reporter write and publish 4 F. F. A. news stories each month.

SYNOPSIS

CHAPTER II.—With five other members of the party, Hal begins his journey. Four of his companions excite his interest; a young, attractive girl, Barry Trafford; middle-aged Glen Kerrigan; Sister Anastasia, a nun; and a nondescript individual whom the instinctively dislikes, Martin Crank. Barry's ratiocane, and her golf-withdrawal, annoy him. In Kerrigan he finds a fellow man-of-the-world, to whom he takes at once. Stopping for the night, the first day of their journey, their driver, atttempt to abandon the party and abscond with their fares and baggage. Hal tells him.

CHAPTER II—Continued

Hal gave a single laugh of pleasure. "Can I help?" he said. "Where are you?" she said. "Next door. What's happened?" "I walked into this b—this so-and-so shower with my darned wrist-watch on." "Ah, cry-making," said Hal. "Sorry."

"You don't sound it, but thanks just the same. Gosh, isn't it good—the water?" "Beautiful," he said sincerely. "Beautiful. As beautiful as—as—" "As cool water running over you after a hot day in an old car with seven people and a dog."

"Where's the dog?" "Here—having his shower too. He loves showers." Hal chuckled. "I'd like to see—I'd like— Well, yes."

"Good," said Barry; "I'm glad." "Glad of what?" "Glad you can't. I haven't—I'm not."

"What! Not at all?" "Well, practically not," she said. "Just jodhpurs and an old bed-jacket."

"I suppose you'll be going in for comedy in Hollywood," Hal said. "Who told you I was going to Hollywood?" she said, at once guarded.

"You did." "I didn't." "You didn't say it with your mouth, but everything else about you did," said Hal.

"You'll remember this and not be pompous with me tomorrow?" "Yes. No. I mean I won't be whatever you said. I'm sorry I was."

"Don't be," said Hal. "All right, I won't." Then, in a moment, her soft voice said, "I'm going now. Good night. Thanks for a lovely shower."

"Hey, my towel," said Hal. "You want it back?" she said, mildly incredulous.

"Oh, goodness, yes." "But—" she paused and Hal waited a moment.

"It's my towel, isn't it?" he said without sympathy. "The end of the towel flopped into sight. 'It's wet,' she said. 'Good night.'"

"Good night, Barry," he said. He stopped his shower and took the towel. It was damp, faintly fragrant as he brought it near. He hesitated: Why was it wrong to use it? The sparkling of his gray eyes went faintly sober; and, folding the towel, he stuffed it into the pocket of his slacks.

Suddenly Barry's voice came casually over the top of the partition again. "What's your first name?" "Oh, hello," he said as if she'd caught him at something. "Hal."

Henry. Hal. Why? No, I didn't mean that." "Didn't mean what?" "The why."

"Night," she said. "Pleasant dreams." "Same to you, uh—Garbo." He heard her door close and latch. Slicking the loose water from his skin with his hands, the impulse to chuckle kept nudging comfortably at his stomach. And we shall meet again, I trust.

LET'S HAVE A SCHOOL SONG!

A school song is important to any school. Many times you have seen students stand at attention, and sometimes even salute, while their school song was being sung. Their faces were aglow with school loyalty. But, alas, you could not stand proudly while your school song was being played; for you had none.

It does the boys on the football field good to hear their school song played. It creates a spirit of school loyalty among the student body. It makes one want to put forward his best efforts for his school. It makes the alumni proud to sing the song of their "alma mater." It does everybody good—so why not have a school song?

TICKINGS FROM THE CLOCK

One of the blighting events of any high school is the appearance of unfounded rumors among the pupils. Each year the story is repeated, about one month after the beginning of school certain "tales" begin to circulate around concerning some few individuals. Generally started without foundation by some wagging tongue, they spread like wildfire becoming more destructive as they grow.

A very few students by this means soon form opinion against some student or teacher. The value of these "tale-spreaders" to the school is like the value of a few rotten apples to the entire bushel. The one remedy is to eliminate the rotten apples!

Long ago some wise philosopher said, "Speech is silver, silence is golden." These "rotten apples" might well ponder the truth of this statement and use it dawns upon them, make it the practice of their lives. Another rule that could be wisely used is that when the tongue must "tattle," go directly to the individual concerned and tell him first. When this has been done, let the accused be the one to further spread the news. Needless to say that will be the end of the tale.

In connection with this discussion we may add that some one may be seeking the identity of "The Sour Owl." Those interested may look on the book case in the southwest corner of the office. If perchance any of the above mentioned "rotten apples" inquire, they will profit measurably by reading the little verse found there.

Spotlight: Who will be the hero in the first junior play?—Why do certain girls run after the boys?—New student who makes the top in grades, Annie Nickens.—Coming football star, J. W. Davis.—Will the boys tennis race be between Jim Jones and Woodrow Newman?—Dire need, another boy out for debate.—Just a guess, will a certain sophomore girl be F. F. A. sweetheart?—Next thing to desolation, study hall at noon.—Whom does Mace Blanton like?—Why does Max Price notice a certain senior?—The Sour Owl.

CHAPEL HELD TUESDAY

Last Tuesday, October 1st, the student body assembled in the auditorium. Scout Executive Ed Shumway of Abilene, a leader in Boy Scouts, gave a very interesting talk to the group on scout work. After a short talk on scout work he then played and sang, "When We All Get Together." After Mr. Shumway sang it once, the student body sang it. He also sang "Old Faithful," Will Rogers' favorite song. Everyone seemed to enjoy it very much. The last song was, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," sung by all.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Members of the Baptist Women's Missionary Union met at the tabernacle at the cemetery Sunday afternoon for a Memorial service honoring deceased members of the Union. Rev. Hal C. Wingo, pastor, and Mrs. J. Ed Bartlett were in charge of the service. Scripture, prayer, and songs composed the program.

A wreath of flowers was presented Mrs. W. B. Brown, one of the oldest and best members of the Union. Then the roll call of deceased members was read. Members who placed flowers on the graves included Mrs. Jim Newman, Mrs. H. L. Lackey, Mrs. W. B. Brown, and Mrs. J. E. Watkins.

Graves visited were Mrs. J. P. Mathews, Mrs. V. L. Grady, Mrs. E. C. Traylor, Mrs. Duke, Mrs. L. W. Hunter, Mrs. C. K. Hunter, Mrs. S. A. Harrell, Miss Hilda Harrell, Mrs. Jim Dodgen, Mrs. J. E. McClure, Mrs. B. F. Rothermel, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. E. M. Critz, Mrs. A. G. Weaver, Mrs. W. M. (Dr.) Holland, Mrs. Nora Spencer, Mrs. W. D. Magby, and Mrs. Walters.

The greatest bar to human progress is a closed or prejudiced mind.

LOCALS

Those who visited in the Amos Taylor home Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Murrell Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Taylor, and Miss Annie Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Woodard and children of Lamesa visited from Friday until Sunday in the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Woodard, and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lackey. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simmons, who will visit there for several days.

Mrs. T. T. McCreary and daughter, Miss Mattie Ella spent the weekend in the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. W. E. Routh of Overton, and attended the football game between Texas A & M and Southwestern University. Mrs. Routh will be remembered as Miss Irene McCreary.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Richardson and little son of Luling came Friday for a week's visit in the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Williams.

Mrs. Jerry Vardeman and little daughter, Geraldine of Bangs are spending this week in the home of Mrs. Vardeman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Williams.

Newman Upton of Randolph Field came Saturday to visit for a week in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Upton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tierney returned home from San Antonio Saturday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Tierney's father, C. E. Welch, who is visiting here.

Coleman County Mutton goats lacked only ten cents of topping the market in San Antonio this week. C. D. Bruce and Grady Banister marketed 150 head.

Friday of last week Mrs. F. B. Weaver and son Clem of Rising Star, paid us a short visit to renew former friendships. Mrs. Weaver was also here for medical care.

Save After Sunset

When the sun goes down, so do the rates on station-to-station telephone calls. Folks who have waited until 8:30 p. m. to call can now talk at a more convenient hour. At 7 p. m. low night rates on these calls are about 40% LOWER than corresponding charges in the daytime. Remember this low rate is only for station-to-station calls.

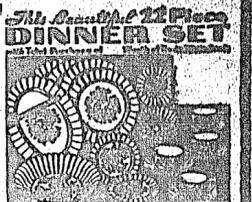

Santa Anna Telephone Company

The editor and family have enjoyed having several friends of former days call during the past week. Mrs. F. M. Gafford of Cross Plains, accompanied by her son Homer and his wife of Wewoka, Okla. paid us a call while here with Mr. Gafford, who was a patient in the Sealy Hospital for surgery.

Baptist Church

the pastor will preach at Liberty. Make plans to attend this service. The following names appear on the Honor Roll for September: Mary Frances Talley, Elsie Lee Polk, Mary Louise Curry, Robert Day, George Day, Billie Burk Pope, and Bettie Sue Turner. Homer Vanderpool, Pastor. Sunday, October 13, will be the last Sunday of my work in Santa Anna, having accepted the call to Gonzales. I desire very much that the work be left in good condition for the incoming pastor, regardless of who he may be. The church joins the pastor in this desire and we have set the morning hour as the time to clean up all our old debts. Let me urge those who share in this desire to be present Sunday morning and help us do this thing. Sunday night the pastor will preach on "My Wish For You" as his closing message. These years spent in Santa Anna have been meaningful ones to me, and I never expect to find better, more loyal, and upright people anywhere than some of the members of Santa Anna Baptist Church. God's blessings upon all is my prayer. Come and worship with us Sunday, both night and morning, and we shall strive to do you good. Hal C. Wingo, Pastor.

Come and see us. You will find Presbyterians friendly. Did you know that any Christian can be a member of the Presbyterian Church? Everybody who is not attending church elsewhere is invited to our services next Sunday. You'll be glad that you came. M. L. Womack, Minister.

THETA NU

Members of the Theta Nu Bridge Club were named guests of honor last Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. G. A. Ragsdale entertained at her home with three tables of Contract. At the refreshment hour individual pecan pies topped with whipped cream and coffee were served to Mesdames Aubrey Childers, Byron Joiner, George Johnson, L. H. Fry, C. O. Moody, Ray Golston, O. A. Etheredge, Doris McDermott, Judge Woodruff, Neal Oakes, and Misses Velma Sealy and Odelle Brown. Dr. Charles Stone, Professor of Medicine in the State University Medical College at Galveston, was here Wednesday for consultation with Dr. T. Richard Sealy concerning Mr. Frank Golson of Burkett, who has been receiving Hospital care for several days.
