RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Tony Pirrello and children left Tuesday afternoon for their home in Farmers Branch after visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gregg. They had been here three weeks.

Santa Anna High School senior student Carol Kingsbery was named Miss Texas Teenager in a contest at San Antonio last Saturday night. Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kingsbery and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bruce and the late Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kingsbery.

Senator John Tower crowned the new title holder at the climax of the two-day contest and pageant, which was held at the St. Anthony Hotel. There were 92 girls from throughout the state in the contest and each entry was judged on poise, personality, appearance, scholastic achievement and civic contribution.

Entries were narrowed to 60 during preliminaries, then 15 finalists were named during the Saturday night pageant. A Clyde girl, Jan Dowden, was chosen as third runner-up for the state title. First runner-up was Robin Engstrom, 17, of Garwood.

As the state winner Miss Kingsbery will represent Texas in the Miss National Teenager contest in Atlanta, Ga., on August 30, 31, and September 1 and 2. She will have an expense-paid trip to the contest and be in competition with girls from the other 49 states and the District of Columbia.

Other awards given to the new Miss Texas Teenager included a large trophy, jeweled tiara, and a $750 scholarship to a modeling school which Carol may use at any time during the next several years.

Friday competition included personal interviews before a panel of four judges. The judges asked questions from the girls' resumes which had been submitted with their original entries early last spring.

"Silent judges" were at the pageant site to score the girls as they attended the pageant activities and met and visited with other entries and visitors. There was no swim suit or talent competition in the contest.

Each of the 15 finalists were asked for an impromptu speech on "What's Right About America," the 1972 pageant theme.

For the national contest next month, Carol plans to represent Texas as a cowgirl, wearing her western clothes when possible.

She is reigning Coleman Rodeo Queen, having made an official appearance with the Coleman Riding Club at the Greenwood Rodeo the night before the San Antonio event.

Carol's large trophy will be on display at the Santa Anna National Bank for several days.

Mountain Echoes

By Barbara Kingsbery

There is very little activity in our town this week as we're between summer events and the beginning of school. Most of us are trying to avoid the heat and are looking wistfully at any passing clouds, hoping for a good rain!

Santa Anna students are to be ready for classes on Monday, August 21. So far as we know this is the earliest starting date for the local school. Remember when classes usually began after Labor Day? Faculty members have less than two weeks before their duty begins.

Don't forget the fish kill at the new Santa Anna Lake on Saturday, August 12. In a recent issue of the NEWS we listed it as Saturday, August 11, which was an error.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials will be in charge of the fish kill, and everyone is welcome to go to the lake and pick up fish. The city will charge $1.00 a car for those who go out to the lake that day, with proceeds to pay for the poison.

For some of us, that will be the only way we'll ever catch a fish!

In telling about the fish kill in the recent issue, we had to re-write the story after stating the poison would not harm the fish. It will kill them, but not damage the meat for human consumption.

FORMER RESIDENTS VISIT

Dr. and Mrs. Durwood Murrell of Lincoln, Neb., were here Thursday visiting friends and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown. The Murrells are former Santa Anna residents.

In Our Opinion

By W. T. HAYS

THE ANNOUNCEMENT by Gov. George C. Wallace that he will not be a third party candidate for president has left a lot of voters without a candidate. Many people who would not admit publicly that they were going to vote for him would have done so in the general election.

Far more people than most of us realize are wondering what to do on election day, because they don't want to vote for either major party candidate, and now they just either choose one or "go fishing" on November 7.

The big controversy over Senator Thomas Eagleton is really of little consequence. It is the belief of many that with or without Eagleton, Senator George McGovern doesn't have a chance to win the election.

His campaign promises have done much to keep up the hopes of the North Vietnamese and has probably prolonged the war, but it is the belief and hope of many that there will be a settlement of that war before election day. If that happens, then it will not be a campaign issue and President Nixon will win by a landslide in our prediction.

If we are to believe the polls, and sometimes they are wrong, then Nixon has the election pretty well in the bag now anyway. The polls have been wrong, as former President Truman can vouch for, but generally they are pretty close. Some of us can remember when a Chicago newspaper, basing its story on the polls came out with headlines that Governor Dewey had won the 1948 election, when, in fact, he lost.

We will be the first to admit that President Nixon has not done everything according to our thinking, but he would be preferable to the far-out platform of McGovern. It is inconceivable that the American people would elect a president who is as far left as the Senator. The fact that he was the nominee of the Democrats who attended the convention proves nothing. The rank and file voter was not represented at the convention, and probably a vast majority of them have never attended a political convention of any kind. The left wing of the party really got to work and got their delegates elected and consequently they controlled the convention.

But the American voter is a pretty stubborn character. He will generally vote for who he thinks is best — or the lesser of the evils.

CROP OUTLOOK REPORTED BY COUNTY AGENT

Prospects for one of the better milo crops in the past few years are bright in Coleman County. Barring a hailstorm, many farmers who planted early season milo virtually have a heavy yield made, according to CAA Roger Blackmon. Later planted milo and cotton are still at the mercy of the weather, insects and diseases. Most milo is planted early and this speaks for a large yield in the county this year. Blackmon said many fields he has seen the last two weeks should yield better than 2000 pounds to the acre.

Henry and Gene Dodson have a variety test this year and all of the varieties look extremely good. Results of this and five more variety demonstrations will be published later this summer. Some farms have damage from a bug they're calling a chinch bug.

According to Blackmon, this is actually a stink bug or immature harlequin bug. They do little damage after the grain reached the hard stage but from soft-dough back, infestation of 2-5 per head should be controlled. Sevin or Parathion are recommended chemicals. These bugs look and smell like stink bugs, they are black with red bordering.

Cotton prospects look good. Favorable prices and good growing conditions are causing some optimism among cotton producers. The hot weather in early June, although uncomfortable for nearly everyone, was good for the cotton.

All in all, the chances are good for a profitable farm year; if something doesn't rip, break or tear.

POINTS TO PONDER

W. F. Cawyer

There have been three dispensations of ages since time began. The first was the Patriarchal age, which was only a family religion there grew a National religion known as the Mosical age. The first or patriarchal age lasted for twenty five hundred years during which time the father was the priest for the family. While the Mosical age was in force, for 1491 years, the priests were taken from the tribe of Levi. The last age or dispensation began with Christ on Pentecost and will last until the end of time. Under this age, known as Christianity, and international religion, Jesus Christ is our High Priest. You read (Eph. 3:5-6) about the other ages. Under the Christian age, the gentiles are to be fellow heirs with the Jews; and of the same body; and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel. In Jer. 31:31-34, God promised a new covenant. The old covenant was written on two tables of stone, but the new covenant was and is written upon fleshy tables of the heart. God said I will put my law in their minds and write it in their hearts (Jer. 31:33). The first covenant was to the Jews and to them alone (Deut. 5:2-3), but the new covenant under which we live today embraces all mankind. And under this new covenant, there is forgiveness of sins (Jer. 31:34). There was no forgiveness under either of the former ages. The only blood they had was the blood of animals which could not take away sins (Heb. 10:4). But under Christianity we have the blood of Christ (Matt. 26:28). What a blessing to know and understand that we today have Jesus Christ as our High Priest and that sins can be forgiven and God will remember them against us no more forever (Jer. 3:34).

In Heb. 7:12, Paul makes the statement, "For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law." This new law not only includes all people but it has Christ as its High Priest and has his blood instead of the blood of bulls and goats, and last but not least, we have forgiveness of sins.

Paul says, "Whosoever of you are justified by the law, ye are fallen from grace." (Gal. 5:4). Under the new law which we live under (Rom. 8:2), we are commanded to teach all nations (Matt. 28:19).

Texas Beauty Shown In Film From HW Dept.

AUSTIN—A brand new, colorful movie on the beauties of Texas has just been released by the Texas Highway Department, and is available for club, school and television showings.

Premiered recently at the 5th annual meeting of the Beautify Texas Council, the half-hour film explores the 40-year history of roadside beauty in Texas. It points out that Texas was the nation's first highway department to demonstrate environmental concern along with engineering specifications. Texas was first, too, in the now national concept of roadside parks.

In 16mm sound and color, the new film is a lavish look at beauty along the diverse roadsides of Texas. The film is appropriately titled "Beautify Texas." Prints may be borrowed from the Texas Highway Department, Travel & Information Division, P. O. Box 5064, Austin 78763.

INFANT LIFE SNUFEED OUT

Sudden infant death is a real disease. Not a mystery killer.

The pattern is almost always the same. The baby is put to bed happy and healthy. During the night, there is no sign of disturbance of any kind. In the morning, the baby is dead.

The cause is not suffocation. "No healthy baby will smother by being put in the wrong position," says Dr. Ira Rosenthal of Chicago. "The baby can assert itself and find an airway." Autopsies show no pathology in the lungs or elsewhere, no evidence of vomiting or choking.

The cessation of breathing in sudden infant death, some experts believe, is brought about by spasms of the vocal cords which shut off the intake of air during sleep. A viral infection in the respiratory tract could cause breathing difficulties and trigger the fatal spasm. Death may result from an inability to breathe through the mouth when nasal passages close. No one knows for sure.

Whatever the cause, this fatal phenomenon is a real disease that causes as many as 20,000 infant deaths a year in the United States alone. Studies show that the sudden infant death rate is higher in winter than in summer, that it occurs three times more among nonwhites than among whites. Infants fatally affected usually have lower birth weights or were born prematurely. But they all seem healthy before their sudden demise.

New research shows that certain two- to three-month old infants—including infant monkeys as well—undergo distinct changes during sleep when they have colds. Attempts are now underway to pass legislation for more research into the problem and to provide counseling for guilt-stricken parents.

Find out more about all kinds of respiratory complications from your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association. It's a matter of life and breath.

HAMILTON—The Hamilton Community Youth Choir under the direction of Ross Woodall will present "Light-shine" in four area performances. The new Christian folk musical will be staged in the Central United Methodist Church in Brownwood at 7:00 p.m. on August 6, and in the First United Methodist Church in Gatesville at 7:00 p.m. on August 13. Performances will be held in the First United Methodist Church in Hamilton at 8:00 p.m. on August 17 and August 20.

The musical "Light-shine" was written by Beryl Red and Grace Hawthorne. The publisher, Word Music Company, has designated the Hamilton group as a premiere choir, which means that its performances will be the first in this area of the state.

"Lightshine" is based on and paraphrases the Beatitudes in a contemporary manner. The music will please all listeners' ears regardless of age with styles ranging from soft rock and funky harmonica to folk gospel.

The inter-denominational choir is 60 voices strong and features a strong accompaniment section including electric guitar and bass, drums, Spanish guitar, piano, organ, and miscellaneous percussion. Director Woodall, a music student at Baylor University, is also music director at the First United Methodist Church in Hamilton.

STATE Capital NEWS

By BILL BOYKIN

Austin — Gov. Preston Smith is threatening a special legislative session on insurance reform.

In a statewide, televised speech, he announced he will ask the Legislature to abolish the paid, three-member State Insurance Board, which he charges is company dominated.

Angered by Senate rejection July 7 of his longtime friend, Larry Teaver, to the Board, Smith blamed the defeat on the "powerful insurance lobby."

His recommendations to "completely reorganize and reform the regulation of the insurance industry" will be delivered to a special session this year or to the next regular session in January.

Reaction to his speech, the Governor said, will determine whether he goes through with the special session call. He feels reorganization of the Board can be achieved only in a limited special session, but he isn't sure whether the public yet supports reform strongly enough to insure action.

Dallas Sen. Oscar Mauzy, a leader in the move to reject Teaver, challenged Smith to follow through and call the session immediately. He said he opposed Teaver, not because he was a consumer advocate on the Board, but for "lack of character and ability."

Smith in his tv speech announced 19 votes of items totalling $6.35 million from the 1973 appropriations bill.

Among the vetted items: funds to acquire facilities for an A&I University center at Corpus Christi; a legislative scheme to thwart construction of a new highway building near the capitol by forcing creation of a state "garden park" on the site; $1 million for a Fort Worth state school and $1.22 million for new branch junior college in Coleman, Lubbock, Haskell and Palestine.

$200 MILLION TAX NEED SEEN — The House Revenue and Taxation Committee received advice the Legislature may be looking at a $200 million money shortage for the next biennium when it reports next year.

James McGrew, Texas Research League director, told the Committee spending from general revenue and other key state funds will jump $700 million over the present level next biennium. But he figured an additional $375 to $400 million in revenue is anticipated from present "growth" taxes, and a $100 million federal welfare windfall is foreseeable.

The Committee also was reminded repeatedly of the likely effect of a federal court decision (now on appeal) holding the present method of financing public schools by ad valorem taxation unconstitutional. And a University of Texas official suggested property, income and sales taxes are all necessary to get "maximum equity" in the tax system.

Governor Smith strongly disagreed with McGrew's forecast and said there is a strong possibility no new taxes at all will be needed next year.

COURTS SPEAK — The Supreme Court reconsidered and agreed to hear arguments next October in a controversy in which the wife of a Wichita Falls doctor was granted a divorce settlement which included a $40,000 community property right in his medical practice.

In other cases, the High Court included:

- A city cut off water service for failure of residents to pay garbage collection fee.
- Lower court rulings should be left standing which assessed a Houston doctor $134,150 in damages for failure to exercise proper diligence in treating a child for a broken leg. The boy lost his leg.
- Child support payments should be lowered for a once-wealthy father who lost his money on the stock market.

The Court of Criminal Appeals said criminal trials should be interrupted when it becomes apparent a defendant is mentally incompetent. The same Court said prosecutors have a right to question defendants about alleged threats to witnesses.

ALIENS SMUGGLED IN — About 412,000 illegal immigrants were deported from the U.S. last year, according to a Texas Good Neighbor Commission report.

SHORT SNORTS
Joe P. Teller is resigning as deputy director of Texas Water Quality Board to go to work for Gulf Waste Disposal Authority in the Houston-Galveston area.

Houston may be a prime area for industrial expansion from Europe and Japan, according to Texas Industrial Commission.

Zack Fisher of Memphis, Texas, is new executive director of the Texas Republican Party, succeeding Jim Kane who resigned.

VISITING PARENTS
Mrs. Jack Kingsbery of Crystal City is spending a few days in Santa Anna with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bruce and other relatives. This will be her final visit here before school starts and she begins her duties as a teacher at Carizzo Springs Elementary School. Mrs. Kingsbery taught special education in the La Pryor school

ASC NEWS...

By Joe K. Taylor

Major provisions of the 1973 wheat program were announced today by Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz. They include the set aside required for participation, an option to voluntarily set aside additional acreage and the payment rate for the additional set aside.

To participate in the wheat program, a producer must set aside an acreage equal to eighty-six percent of the farm's domestic wheat allotment, the maximum provided by law. Producers will again be allowed to substitute feed grains or soybeans for wheat to preserve allotment history. The Secretary further announced that barley will again be included in the 1973 feed grain program.

In addition to the set aside required for participation, a producer may earn payment for setting aside additional acreage up to one hundred fifty percent of his 1973 domestic wheat allotment, twice the amount of additional acreage allowed in the 1972 program, at a payment of eighty-eight cents per bushel. This option is aimed at encouraging retirement or additional land to prevent excessive wheat production.

"The announcement of voluntary set aside is being made much earlier than last year so the winter wheat producer can plan his wheat operation before investing any money in his 1973 crop," Secretary Butz said in outlining the 1973 program.

"Provisions of the 1973 wheat program are aimed at achieving a reduction of stocks so that producers can obtain fair rates of return on their capital and labor in the marketplace," Secretary Butz said. "Goals also include allowing each farmer greater freedom of choice to plant the commodities that best fit his individual operation and managerial talents."

PUBLIC NOTICE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER 6 ON THE BALLOT (SJR 1)
General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Article VIII, Section 1-b, of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows: "Section 1-b. (a) Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads as now defined by law shall be exempt from all taxation for all State purposes. (b) From and after January 1, 1973, the governing body of any county, city, town, school district, or other political subdivision of the State may exempt by its own action not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed value of residence homesteads of persons sixty-five (65) years of age or older from all ad valorem taxes thereafter levied by the political subdivision. As an alternative, upon receipt of a petition signed by twenty percent (20%) of the voters who voted in the last preceding election held by the political subdivision, the governing body of the subdivision shall call an election to determine by majority vote whether an amount not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) as provided in the petition, of the assessed value of residence homesteads of persons sixty-five (65) years of age or over shall be exempt from ad valorem taxes thereafter levied by the political subdivision. Where any ad valorem tax has theretofore been pledged for the payment of any debt, the taxing officers of the political subdivision shall have authority to continue to levy and collect the tax against the homestead property at the same rate as the tax so pledged until the debt is discharged, if the cessation of the levy would impair the obligation of the contract by which the debt was created." Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment providing that the various political subdivisions of the State may exempt not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the value of residence homesteads of all persons sixty-five (65) years of age or older from ad valorem taxes under certain conditions."

 RUN ME A RIVER
 Janice Holt Giles
 Bhamon Cartwright is a Kentuckian and riverman. He wants no part of the civil war that has split the country into the North and the South. All he asks is to be left in peace to run his ramshackle boat, the "Rambler," on the Green River, carrying merchandise and livestock from one town to another. But the generals have decided that the time for neutrality in Kentucky is past.
 When Bo learns that Confederate troops have occupied Bowling Green, he starts downstream, with the "Rambler" running like a scalded cat, only to find the Confederates are at Rochester ahead of his and are starting to close the lock.

How the "Rambler" gets through that lock and others, and past the Federal gunboats, nosing their way upstream, is a fast-moving, breathtaking account of a wild run on a battered little boat manned by a collection of rugged individualists. The most individual of them all is "Sir Henry" the old Shakespearean actor, picked up, literally, in midstream; the most charming, his sixteen-year-old granddaughter, Phoeby. By the time they reach safe harbor, Bo Cartwright, who already understood rivers and boats, has greatly increased his knowledge of men, women, and war.

Everything about Patrick Henry's life was dramatic — both in public and private. His first wife died before he became famous. His second marriage was a storybook romance. His rival was no less a man than John Paul Jones, but Patrick won his lady's hand: the lady was the beautiful Dortha Dandridge, and despite the marriage's storms it was a happy one.
 His public career was even more contradictory: though the most expensive (and celebrated) lawyer in Virginia, he also became one of the most debt-ridden. Responsible for the welfare of nearly a score of children and grandchildren, he repeatedly felt obligated to decline public office — including Chief Justice of the Supreme Court under Washington. But this was not the only office he declined: Secretary of State, Governor of Virginia, Minister to France — all refused.
 In "GIVE ME LIBERTY" every baffling side of "the great Virginia rebel" is clarified, and Patrick Henry emerges with his true stature revealed.
 Noel B. Gerson, author of over twenty historical novels, was born in Chicago and was in Military Intelligence in World War II. At present, he

VEE Vaccination Is Urged Again For All Horses

COLLEGE STATION — It's just good insurance to vaccinate all horses, mules and ponies against the dreaded sleeping sickness, Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis (VEE), even though the animals were vaccinated last year when the disease reached epidemic proportions in Texas. "Revaccination is the surest and safest way to protect horses and other equine against VEE, even though the vaccine should provide immunity for more than a year," emphasizes Dr. James Armstrong, veterinarian with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Revaccination is not compulsory but is an extra precaution."

Armstrong notes that the Texas Veterinary Medical Association and Texas Animal Health Commission are also encouraging all equine owners to revaccinate as an added safety measure. Other reasons for the revaccination effort are that (1) Texas is a high risk area and the only state where VEE has occurred, and (2) confirmed cases of VEE have already occurred in Mexico this year and the disease appears to be moving northward. In addition to VEE, the veterinarian stresses the need to vaccinate animals against the Eastern and Western strains of equine encephalomyelitis. Once animals are vaccinated for these two strains, a booster shot should be given every year. Armstrong advises that all vaccinations should be given by a veterinarian. He also encourages horse owners to move their animals as little as possible to reduce the risk of spreading VEE. The disease will remain a threat until late this fall when cooler weather suppresses mosquito populations.

Freak Mishap Causes Injury To Baker Boy

Jerry Baker, grandson of Mrs. S. S. Baker of Santa Anna, has been transferred to a Houston hospital where he is being treated and having therapy for a broken neck. The 19-year-old boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Baker of Coperas Cove, received his injury five months ago when he fell while jumping over a garden hose being held by two friends. He fell on his head and the injury has caused paralysis from his neck down except for slight use of his hands and arms. He was in Scott and White Hospital in Temple for four months. He is expected to be in Houston for two more months.

Saints Win Two During Weekend

The Santa Anna Saints baseball team won two games during the past weekend. On Saturday night the Saints won over the Comanche outsiders team by a 15-10 score. Raymond DeLeon was winning pitcher. In the Sunday afternoon game the Saints defeated Lohn 4-2 with Lyndon Wells as pitcher. A tournament is planned Sunday, August 13, with five teams entered in the one-day event. The tourney will be held at Richards Field at Brady beginning at 10:00 a.m. The winner of the series will receive a trophy.

25 Years Ago In The News

The following stories are from the July 1947 issues of the NEWS: Installation of the new officers was the main part of the program at the regular meeting of the Lions Club this week. Lion George M. Johnson, former Deputy District Governor, was in charge of the installation. The following officers were installed: W. R. Mulroy, president; Emzy Brown, first vice president; Roy A. Richardson, second vice president; Bruce Snodgrass, third vice president; Ted McCaughan, treasurer; W. V. Priddy, secretary; L. A. Welch, tall twister; Bill McDavid, Lion tamer; Charlie Dendy and Garland Powell, directors. Rex Golston is past president and a member of the board of directors.

The City Council this week is in the process of completing what looks like a good water well. The well has been drilled into two sands and with the bailing facilities at the well, bailing out 50 gallons a minute, they have not been able to bail all the water out of the well. The well is located on the Burke place east of town. If the well will produce 100 gallons per minute and two more such wells can be located, it will greatly relieve the water situation in Santa Anna.

Boy Scout News

Recent Results Now Available On Grain Test

Results from the 1971-72 Small Grain Test on the Hershel Dunn farm in Coleman are now complete and in printed form. Copies of the demonstration are available for any interested farmer from the County Agents Office. The Cimarron cat was the high yielder this year producing 56.9 bushels/acre. It was followed by Alamo-X with 55 Bu., Coronado 53.5 Bu., Taggart 53.1 Bu., Nora 49.2 Bu., Cortez 48.8. Yukon wheat was the high yielder with 25.8 Bu./acre. It was followed by Centurk 25.5 Bu., Caprock 20 Bu., Pronto 20 Bu., and Sturdy 18.3. The new Texas A&M Barley, Tambar produced 27.1 Bu. per acre. Four fertilizer tests were tried, but the only one showing profit was a winter application of 50 lb. of anhydrous ammonia. This plot produced 38.0 Bu. per acre compared to the unfertilized check plot which produced only 20 bushels per acre. This amounted to an $11.09 per acre increase in income at a cost of only $2.25 per acre.

County Agent, Roger Blackmon expressed his appreciation to Hershel Dunn, the demonstrator for his work on this test. Custom Ag. Service, Southwestern Sprayer and Chemical Co., and Wilson Grain and Elevator furnished a lot of help through donations of seed and fertilizer.

County Agent's News . . .

Our 4-H Club members had a lot of fun riding as Indians in the Coleman Rodeo parade. This is just one of many things we like to do strictly for fun. Some of the parents had as much fun as the 4-H'ers, applying war paint to 4-H'ers and horses. Max Horne's Tack Shop and Ryan's Grocery donated prize halters to the best dressed Indian boy and girl.

This year's winners were Dena Rutherford and Kevin Allen. The prizes were nice, many thanks to Hazel and E. C. and to Max Horne. Our Judges, who asked not to be named, really worked hard on the selection. Our thanks to them for their efforts.

We've got seven 4-H'ers going to the State 4-H Horse Show in San Antonio this week. Qualifying for State are: Charlie and Jamie Hempfhill, Kit Horne, Jay Davis, Steve Wilson, Randy Purdick and Rusty Ryan. Today's hogwash: Passing the national debt to the next generation is sure a way to discourage ancestor worship.
