Will Issue Ration Book 4 Today

Registration for War Ration Book Four will take place at the school building Friday, October 22, according to the Office of Price Administration.

Ration Book Four will not be mailed but will be given at the time of registration. One adult member of the family may register for all members of the family living together at one address.

For each person to be registered, the person doing the registering must bring along War Ration Book Three. All the facts needed to fill out the application will be the full names, ages, and sex of members of the family, OPA says. Consumers will not have to declare stocks on hand—either commercial or home canned.

War Ration Book Four will be used beginning November 1 for processed foods, canned goods, and sugar. Green stamps A, B, and C (for processed foods and canned goods) will become valid November 1, and will remain valid through December 20, 1943.

Blue stamps X, Y, and Z (for processed foods and canned goods) from Book Two are still valid and will remain so through November 20. Green stamps in Book Four will be used in exactly the same way as the blue stamps in Book Two—the letters indicate the validity period, the numbers indicate the point values. On November 1, sugar stamp number 29 also becomes valid and is good through Jan. 15, 1944.

Other stamps in War Ration Book Four will not be used until a later date. The stamps in Book Four labeled "coffee" were printed before coffee rationing was discontinued.

Pvt. Jack Rutherford, returned from South America this week for a few days visit with home folks in the Rockwood community. Jack has been in the Coast A., U. S. Army three years and this is his first visit home.

E. R. Purdy received word this week that a nephew, Lt. Robert Purdy, member of a Liberator bomber crew, is missing in action.

SHIELD GIN BURNED

Last Thursday night the local fire department answered a call from Shield, where the Shield gin, the Double Gates Cotton Gin, was on fire.

A hurried run was made but the fire was beyond control, and the gin together with several bales of cotton, some seed and meal were consumed in the fire.

The gin plant, belonging to Chester McDonald and the W. E. Wallace estate was partially insured, but the other losses were said to be total without insurance.

Delinquents to Be Placed In Class I-A

On November 1, 1943, the Local Board will place all registrants in Class I-A (subject to immediate induction), who are on that date delinquent, and subsequent to that date all delinquents 18 to 44 years of age will be classified or reclassified into Class I-A.

Any registrant who fails to comply with any order issued by the Local Board is a delinquent and will be classified accordingly. The following registrants are delinquent at this time: George Porter Barnes, last known address was Glen Cove Route, Coleman, Texas; Miguel Valdez and Benito Manchaca Valdez, last known address Coleman, Texas.

The major reason for delinquency with Coleman County Local Board has been due to the registrant not keeping the board informed of their correct mailing address.

If any of the readers of this paper know the present mailing address of any of the above mentioned registrants, send it to Coleman County Local Board No. 1, Coleman, Texas.

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE

The barn on the Sam See place in the South part of town was destroyed by fire last Saturday night.

The barn and contents were a total loss, according to reports, but the estimated damage has not been reported to us.

Local Girl's Husband Lost On Flight

Staff Sgt. William Noel Cook, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Cook, 2911 Grover, Fort Worth is missing in flight in the United States, his parents were informed in a telegram from the War Department Tuesday night.

Sgt. Cook, aerial engineer on a bomber, was stationed at Rapid City, S. D. His wife, the former Miss Dorothy Elouise Calloway of Santa Anna, to whom he was married last April 11, has been with him in Rapid City for some time. His parents have not yet received any details to supplement the brief telegram.

LIONS CLUB

County Judge Leman Brown was a guest of the Lions Club Tuesday, but claimed he was just calling to see what was going on and had no speech to make.

W. Ford Barnes, Chairman of the Coleman County Unit of the Rationing Board, was also present and talked briefly about work and duties of himself and staff.

U.W.C. Drive Off to Poor Start

The drive for funds for the United War Chest has not made much showing as yet. The chairman and committee seems to be lacking for information and enthusiasm, and when approached for reports, what we get is meager.

The Santa Anna News has given about all the publicity we know how to give until those in charge get busy and show some action.

There is no question about the dire needs of the funds, and we believe a nice sum could be raised, but personal effort will have to be used and contact made before much response is going to be made.

Red Cross Work Opens Tues. Oct. 26

Announcement was made this week that the Red Cross workers will reopen their surgical dressing operating room Tuesday, October 26.

This is a very important work and our own good women in these parts have rendered a real service.

SGT. RALPH SANDERSON COMPLETES COURSE

A notice to the Gazette from the War Department states:

Sgt. Ralph D. Sanderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Sanderson, Class 4341, 9 October 1943 has successfully completed the Flexible Aerial Gunnery Course at the Army Air Forces Flexible Gunnery School, Larabe Army Field, Laredo, Texas. Upon graduation, in addition to other ratings, he received his Aerial Gunners Wings. He is now eligible to assume a position as a member of an Army Air Forces Combat crew and is fully qualified to aid materially in the Gunnery Training Program.

Mrs. W. M. Bell and Mrs. E. M. Hickman returned via bus Tuesday evening after visiting two weeks in Dallas, Houston, Port Arthur, Port Neches, Lake Charles, La. and Austin.

Breeder-Feeder Directors Meet

The directors of Coleman Co. Breeder-Feeders Association and their wives met for their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Powell. The group made a tour inspection to the cattle barn on the Powell ranch where they saw some fine Shorthorn cattle. The business meeting of the directors was under the leadership of Jim Gill, president. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary, Carroll Kingsbery, who also gave a brief report on the recent meeting of the directors of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association. The program for the evening was under the direction of Raymond McElrath, chairman of the program committee. He presented E. W. Scott, Vocational Agriculture teacher, who gave an interesting and instructive talk on cattle grub. This was followed by a report from Jim Gill on the National Polled Hereford show held at Jackson, Miss. Raymond McElrath gave a report on the last Farm Bureau meeting held at Abilene. J. W. Vance, chairman of the committee, reported that plans are being made for increasing membership of the organization. The present Government wool buying program was discussed but no definite action was taken at this time. It was decided by the directors to have 4 meetings a year for the entire membership at which time special programs of interest to the ranchmen would be provided by the committee.

The women present discussed the Womans Auxillary Association and elected Mrs. J. W. Vance as temporary chairman. Plans are being made for an organization for a Womans Auxillary November 2 at the American Legion Hall. A covered dish supper will be served. Miss Jewell Hipp, County Home Demonstration Agent, distributed some very helpful and timely literature on kraut making, storage structures and wartime recipes. Mrs. Powell and Stovall exhibited their canned products. Mr. and Mrs. Powell were assisted by their daughter, Mrs. Harold Stovall in serving a delicious dinner to the group which included chicken and dressing, cranberry sauce, fruit salad, cake and coffee. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Kingsbery, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Vance, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dibrell, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thate, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McElrath, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hinds, Mr. and Mrs. Montie Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jameson, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Scott, Miss Jewell Hipp, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Powell and Mrs. Harold Stovall, hostesses.

J. E. Watkins was called to Lott Monday to attend the funeral of a brother, W. T. Watkins, who passed away Monday morning.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon and interment was made in the cemetery at Lott.

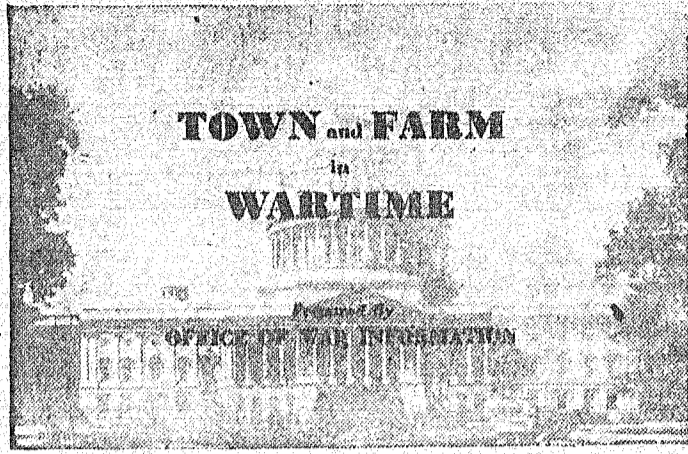

Miss Jewell Hipp, CHDA, discussed "Food for Freedom" with the boys and girls of Cleveland school October 19, and also at the Mukewater school, explaining the importance of food in the war effort.

Help Farmers Collect Ration Points

To assist farmers in sending OPA the ration points they collect from the sale of rationed foods, local rationing boards are mailing farmers the necessary reporting form, addressed envelopes, and complete instructions. Farmers who either sell or transfer rationed foods, such as fresh or smoked meat, all types of sausage, lard, butter and cheese, are required to collect ration points from purchasers. The full cooperation of farmers is essential for the success of the food rationing programs, OPA said.

Warns Against Harmful Anti-Freeze

Operators of all kinds of motor vehicles have been warned by ODT against the use of harmful salt or oil preparations as radiator anti-freeze. Salt anti-freeze solutions may cause corrosion or shorting of electrical circuits.

Dairy Payment Rates

Rates of payment which will be made to farmers delivering whole milk and butterfat to offset increases in dairy feed costs since September 1942, have been announced by WFA. The rates range from 30 to 50 cents a hundredweight on whole milk deliveries and 4 to 6 cents a pound on butter-fat. They are applicable for October, November and December, 1943.

Draft Delinquents to be Inducted

Beginning November 1, all men 18 to 38 years of age who are subject to selective service but who are delinquent will be put into class 1-A immediately and ordered to report for induction, the Selective Service Bureau of the Manpower Commission has stated.

Use Book Four November 1

Housewives will start using green stamps "A", "B" and "C" from new War Ration Book Four Monday, November 1. These stamps will be valid through Dec. 20 and will be used for buying processed foods in the same way as the blue stamps in Book Two. The last blue stamps in Book 2 ("X," "Y") remain good through November 20. Book Four is being distributed the latter part of Oct. the exact time and place being announced locally. One individual may apply for Book Four for all members of his family residing at the same address. The applicant must have a War Ration Book Three with him for each person for whom he wishes to obtain a Book Four.

Restrict Deliveries

Restrictions on all wholesale and retail deliveries ordered by the Office of Defense Transportation have gone into effect thru out the nation. The restrictions include—(1) No retail delivery of packages weighing five pounds or less or measuring 60 inches or less in length and girth combined; (2) Limitations upon the frequency of retail and wholesale deliveries of certain commodities (3) No Sunday retail deliveries except of ice, milk or cream. Common carriers may not be used to make retail or wholesale deliveries to circumvent the order.

Civilian Rice Supply Normal

Rice will be available this year to consumers in average quantities of the past several years, but may not be adequate to meet the large demand resulting from increased buying power, the War Food Administration said recently. Under controlled distribution, however, states whose populations normally eat the most rice will get the most proportionately.

Ration Tokens in February

Ration tokens are expected to be ready for use by February. They will be red and blue and each will have a value of one point. They will be used by consumers as change for processed foods and meat-fats ration stamps. The blue tokens will be used with blue ration stamps for buying processed foods; the red tokens with the red stamps for buying foods rationed under the meat-fats program. The ration coins made of layers of vulcanized fiber, will be slightly larger than a nickel and smaller than a quarter.

Alfalfa Hay Products Regulation

Prices of all alfalfa hay products are now set by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 456. Under the revised regulation these products will cost some what more in Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Mississippi, Utah and portions of Idaho and Oregon.

Higher Ceilings on Corn Products

Ceiling prices on wet corn milling by-products sold as animal and poultry feeds—but chiefly as protein supplements for dairy cattle—were set recently by OPA at levels around $7 a ton above those set by the price "freeze" as of March, 1942.

Announce Vegetable Price Ceilings

Ceiling prices that will prevail for 13 fresh vegetables at country shipping points have been announced by OPA and WFA. The vegetables are lima beans, snap beans, carrots, cabbage, cauliflower, celery, cucumbers, eggplant, lettuce, green peas, peppers, spinach, and tomatoes. Maximum prices for beets, asparagus, watermelons, cantaloupes and the 1944 crop of onions are to be announced soon. Prices were announced to assist vegetable growers in completing their production plans.

May Up Frozen Fish Prices

Winter prices on many species of frozen fish have been set at the processor level by OPA. This action may mean an increase of about 10 to 15 percent in retail frozen fish prices, but it is expected to result in greater supplies of this product.

Herring Catch Increases 130 Percent

Preliminary figures show an increase of 130 percent in this year's catch of Alaska herring over the catch of 1942—one of the most impressive increases registered this year by any major American fishery—the Coordinator of Fisheries said recently. Most of the Alaska herring catch is reduced into fish meal and oil. The meal goes into poultry and other animal feeds, of which it is an important part.

Army Cuts Butter Allowance

The peacetime daily butter allowance of two ounces per soldier has been reduced to approximately 1.12 ounces per man, the War Department has reported. This includes butter used as a spread and in cooking.

Points Needed To Buy Tongue

Ration points are required to buy all varieties of tongue, and no types of this meat may be sold point-free, the OPA said recently. Some consumers apparently believe tongue can be purchased without points, because beef "long-cut" tongue was removed from the current table of consumer point values for rationed meats. "Long-cut" beef tongue, OPA explained, is an untrimmed type which is not sold at retail.

95 Percent of Soldiers Insured

The National Service Life Insurance Program in the army has grown to a $5 billion dollar enterprise, providing, insurance protection to more than 95 percent of all members of the army, according to the War Department. The program was established three years ago.

Set Record Delivering "Forts"

Crews of the Ferrying Division Air Transport Command, Army Air Forces, have set a new record by delivering eight ferrying fortresses to England and returning to their home station in the U. S. all within 4½ days, according to the War Department. The crews took off from four different stations in this country, some of them well inland, which added to the over-all flying distance.

Other Americas Send Rubber

Tropical forests of the other Americas have yielded a rising inflow of natural rubber this year to mix with the synthetic product from new chemical factories opening in the U. S. In the first four months of 1943, rubber-producing regions of the other Americas shipped 50 percent more rubber than in the comparable period of 1942, according to Everett C. Holt, Chief of the Commercial Research Section of the Rubber Development Corporation.

Leaves For Harvest Work

Commanding officers of Army Service Forces Establishments have been authorized to grant vacation leave to civilian employees to assist in the fall harvest, according to the War Department. The action was taken at the request of the Director of Labor of the War Food Administration.

"Memphis Belle" Gets Repairs

The "Memphis Belle," battle-scarred veteran of nine months aerial warfare over France and Germany, now is "convalescing" at an airfield in Spokane, Wash., according to the War Department. During 25 combat missions she was battered by flak and slashed by machine gun bullets. She has had nine new engines, a new right wing to replace one shot away in action, and a new tail assembly for one torn to shreds by cannon fire. This flying fortress was returned to the U. S. last June to show American people how American planes could stand up in modern warfare. Following her tour the flying fortress was assigned to a heavy bombardment group in Nebraska to help train fledgling airmen who hope soon to go overseas themselves. After a major overhaul job, the "Memphis Belle" again will be used in training airmen.

A Turnip Kraut making demonstration was given in the home of Mrs. Roberta Farris of Leaday Home Demonstration Club in the Voss community Friday, October 15.

The Home Demonstration Agents' schedule for next week will include a meeting October 22 at Silver Valley 4-H club and Silver Valley Home Demonstration Club in the school lunch room; October 26 with Whon 4-H Girls at 1:00 p.m. and Whon Home Demonstration club at the school lunch room at 2:30 p.m.; October 27 with Burkett 4-H girls at 10:30 a.m. and Burkett Home Demonstration club at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. C. D. Baker; October 28 with Rae Echo, will meet in the home of Mrs. Callie Gray at 2:30 p.m.; October 29 with Santa Anna Home Demonstration club at the City Hall at 2:30 p.m. All the meetings for the Home Demonstration Clubs will be a demonstration on "Kraut Making."

House Votes More Pay For Service Men's Dependents

Washington, Oct. 18—A unanimous House vote today put both branches of Congress on record as favoring payments of $50 a month to wives of enlisted service men, $30 a month for their first dependent child and $20 extra for each additional child.

Present law provides $50 for the wife, $12 for the first child and $10 for additional children, with $22 of the total—the same as required by the new legislation—coming from the service man's monthly pay.

Senate action on House amendments is all that now stands between the bill and its dispatch to the White House for signing.

The Extension work is going at full speed in Coleman County with the County Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Jewell Hipp devoting meetings with the Home Demonstration Clubs on "Sauerkraut or Turnip Kraut" Saurekraut Miss Hipp explained is one means of off setting the fruit shortage in the diet for the coming winter months. Since kraut is very rich in Vitamin C and rivals Popeyes spinach in iron content as kraut measure for measure is slightly higher in iron than spinach.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINTS
The Control of Wartime Colds

By Dr. James A. Tobey

MANY people are fearful that reduced heat in buildings this winter will cause a crop of colds, influenza, pneumonia, and other infections.

Dr. J. A. Tobey

We were more likely to acquire colds and other respiratory diseases when we lived in dry, overheated houses at temperatures of from 70 to 80 degrees. These high temperatures dried out sensitive mucous membranes of the nose and throat, making us more susceptible to chills from cold and damp air outside.

There will, of course, be colds this winter, plenty of them. It is possible that we may be afflicted with more influenza than usual, as public health authorities believe that we may be due for an increase in this disease.

Common colds, influenza, and pneumonia are contagious diseases.

cases, spread direct from the sick to the well. It is probable, however, that many of us receive and harbor the germs or viruses of these diseases, but do not succumb to them until our vital resistance gets too low.

Low resistance may be due to chronic causes, such as poor nutrition or illness; or due to an acute cause, such as chill, excessive fatigue, great mental upsets, or some physical hazard. When the body is thus weakened, germs of disease encounter little if any resistance.

To control colds and other respiratory infections, you should therefore keep away from those suffering from them. Conversely, if you are affected yourself, you should protect others by keeping away from them. Also, cover all coughs and sneezes.

These diseases should, in fact, be voluntarily quarantined. If you have a cold, influenza, or similar malady, go to bed for several days. These diseases are usually most contagious and most dangerous in their early stages, and are then most effectively treated and controlled.

It is difficult to induce people with colds to go to bed, but that is by far the best method for quick recovery and the prevention of complications.

others, and personally we have tried to preserve self control and not let the war wreck our nerves or get us down, but something is just about to get our goat, nerve or something.

Bemoaning, bewailing or belly-aching don't get people any place worth being in, in our opinion. We realize we are wrestling with problems in business we've never had to undergo before, and we have not found any solution to them yet. However, we've not give up and don't intend to so long as we can find something to eat and some duds to wear.

We have to listen to a lot of hooey most every business contact we try to make, but we have to keep on keeping on regardless of how we like it. We just haven't found out how to do and make people like it since this doggone war started, and the longer it goes on the worse it gets.

If somebody will tell us what to do, we'll consider it, but no use to tell us to go jump in the lake, for we've tried that and it did no good. Guess we had better close this episode before someone accuses us of bellyaching, whatever that is.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINTS

Keeping Well When Doctors Are Scarce

By Dr. James A. Tobey

ABOUT 50,000 American doctors are, or soon will be, serving with our armed forces. Representing nearly half of our practicing physicians, they are of course required to care for our millions of soldiers and sailors.

Dr. J. A. Tobey

With so many doctors, and also nurses,
gone to war,
civilians must do everything possible to safeguard their own health. Now as never before, prevention of disease is more important than cure.

Most diseases can be prevented by keeping away from persons afflicted with contagious or infectious maladies. Many diseases can also be avoided by being immunized or vaccinated against them. Be sure that members of your family are immunized against smallpox, diphtheria, typhoid, tetanus (lockjaw), and whooping cough.

Another effective way to prevent disease is to keep up your vital resistance. This can be done by eating the right food, by getting plenty of rest, by taking moderate exercise, and by avoiding excessive fatigue, chilling and overheating of the body, and other hazards to health such as accidents, poisons, and dissipation.

Everyone who can do so should take Red Cross and other official courses in first aid, home nursing, nutrition, canteen work, life saving, and as nurse's aides. Such instruction is personally beneficial, but the graduate of these courses should remember that they do not make him or her a doctor or nurse.

The daily diet should consist mainly of such nourishing protective foods as pasteurized milk,
other dairy products, eggs, fruits, green leafy vegetables, yellow vegetables, meats, enriched white bread, oatmeal and other whole grain cereals.

Since civilian doctors are working hard these days, and hospitals and clinics often are undermanned, you can help the situation by making an appointment with your physician early in the morning, and by going to his office. Call him to your home only in a real emergency, and not for trivial reasons.

It is best, furthermore, to go to the doctor at the first sign of sickness. An early examination and his advice may prevent a long, serious, and costly illness. Go to the hospital if the doctor recommends it, as he can generally treat patients more effectively there.

Treatment of Common Colds

Austin, Texas, Oct. 21—"This year, as possibly never before, it is necessary that precautions be taken to avoid the widespread incidence of common colds, ordinarily expected at this time of the year," cautions Dr. Geo. W.
Cox, State Health Officer.

"Sickness, and the loss of manpower from colds alone can amount to a serious handicap to our necessary war effort production peak, but in addition, colds lower resistance to such an extent, individuals easily fall victim to other diseases," Dr. Cox said.

The State Health Officer urged persons suffering from a cold to use every precaution to prevent passing the disease on to others.
The patient should avoid being with others, preferably remaining in his own room in bed. He should cover his mouth and nose with a paper handkerchief when coughing or sneezing and the paper should be destroyed. All drinking glasses and dishes should be sterilized after he has used them.

"The quickest and safest way to recover from a cold is to rest quietly in bed in a well ventilated room and drink plenty of water and fruit juices," Dr. Cox stated.
"It is a dangerous procedure to try to 'wear a cold out.' In going about his usual routine a patient not only harms himself, but needlessly exposes all others with whom he comes in contact."

Machines of War Feed on Oil

For days the General Staff had been making plans for the invasion . . . All branches of land, sea and air had been put in readiness; the timing of all movements carefully coordinated . . . Then came the Big Moment in the grey of early dawn . . . Paratroops dropped behind the lines, Navy big guns and dive bombers blasted shore defenses, wave after wave of infantry scrambled ashore to establish beach heads—and right on their heels came tanks and jeeps and trucks with food, ammunition and OIL.

NO MATTER how fast a mechanized army can move, it cannot out-distance its supply lines; for to fight, a soldier must have food, his guns must have ammunition, his machines must have OIL.

By devious routes and in many shapes and forms oil finds its way into the smooth operation of every department of our armed forces, even to toluene for T. N. T.

News Note.—"Country girls make the best nurses," say medical authorities, "because they know how to get up in the mornings."

Each Nurse Corps Cadet Helps Send Graduate To Front

Twenty-five hundred more graduate nurses are needed every month for the fighting forces. Six nurses are needed for every 1,000 soldiers, to assist behind battle lines, bring soldiers home from the fronts, and serve in hospitals.

To meet this wartime need, the United States Cadet Nurse Corps offers young women a chance to get nurses' training, with living expenses paid, with distinctive wartime uniforms provided free and with an allowance ranging from $15 to $30 a month for the training period of 24 to 36 months.

A girl can enter the U. S. Cadet Nurse Corps at a younger age than she can enter other branches of the armed services. As soon as she enrolls, the nursing assistance she gives helps send a graduate nurse to the front. And when the cadet herself graduates she, too, may join the armed services.

Army and navy nurses are commissioned officers and receive pay, allowances, and insurance according to army and navy pay schedules.

After her war-time service, the trained nurse will find need of her services, helping to handle problems of disease, malnutrition and war shock. Her profession offers many types of career in the post war world—administrative, educational, industrial, public health, institutional, and community organization—with pay that on the average is better than that of women in other professions.

Possibly because nursing develops qualities which are admired by men, a higher percentage of nurses marries than in any other women's profession. Many nurses take time out to marry and raise a family, then return to nursing, while others practice their profession on a part time basis to add to family income.

Young women between 17 and 35 who are high school graduates and who would like to become cadet nurses should go to their local hospital for information or write to the U. S. Cadet Nurse Corps, Box 88, New York, N.Y.

Cupid Takes One More Key From Oklahoma 'Bunch'

Oklahoma City, Oct. 15—The wedding of Leota Keys Friday detached another member from Oklahoma's famed "bunch of Keys," the Keys quadruplets.

The third sister to marry and only blonde of the 28-year-old foursome, Leota became the bride of Master Sgt. Bob Hall, Dothan, Ala., whom she met while serving as an Army hostess at Camp Hood, Texas.

With Mary, the unmarried sister, as maid of honor, and Roberta (Mrs. Roland Torn, Los Angeles) and Mona (Mrs. Robert W. Fowler, Oklahoma City), as bridesmaids, the large wedding brought about a reunion of one of the only recorded quadruplets to reach maturity.

Born to Mrs. Flake M. Keys, June 4, 1915, at Hollis, Okla., the quartet has attracted much attention. Reared very simply, they made outstanding records at Baylor University and later as teachers.

War Loan Surpasses Quota Four Billion

Washington, Oct. 18—The $15,000,000,000 Third War Loan went over the top by $3,943,000,000.

The Treasury in announcing a final tabulation tonight of last month's record financing campaign reported that of the $18,943,000,000 total $5,377,000,000 was subscribed by individual investors.

Texas exceeded its quota by 24 percent in the third war loan drive, Nathan Adams of Dallas, chairman of the Texas drive announced today.

While the Texas quota was $420,000,000, he said, a total of $519,942,695 was actually bought in war bonds during the drive period.

Of this figure sales to individuals amounted to $262,117,602, Adams said.

50 Senators Find Connally's Postwar Policy Acceptable

Washington, Oct. 18—Fifty senators—one more than a ma-majority—find the Connally resolution on post war foreign policy substantially acceptable to them and would support it on a show-down vote, an Associated Press poll disclosed today.

With a large bloc of Senators declining to commit themselves because they want to write more specific language into the proposal, a canvas showed that only 6 of the 56 members willing to express their views are unalterably opposed to the Connally measure in its present form.

Miss Louise Bryant, Home Management Supervisor of Extension Service of A.&M. College Was in Coleman October 21 for a conference with Miss Jewell Hipp, CHDA, and in a county-wide meeting with the Home Demonstration Club women at the assembly room of the Agricultural Building.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for October 24

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

HONORING OUR PARENTS

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:12; Luke 2:48-51; Mark 7:9-13; John 19:25-27. GOLDEN TEXT—Children, obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right.—Ephesians 6:1.

Right relations between children and parents have much to do with the peace and prosperity of a community and a nation. Experience has demonstrated that to be true, but even more basic is the fact that it is in accord with the promise of God.

One of the sad breakdowns in modern life is that of proper honor and obedience to parents by children. In all too many homes God's order has been reversed and instead of honoring and obeying their parents, children (both young and old) have taken the place of "boss," and mother and father must obey if they want peace and rest.

The need for our lesson of today is both great and acute. The future happiness of hundreds of thousands of children and the present welfare of thousands of neglected and boss- ridden parents will depend on the intelligence and faithfulness with which this lesson is taught in our churches, and the honesty of heart with which we all receive its truth.

I. The Command and Promise (Exod. 20:12).

We are told by Paul that this is the "first commandment with promise" (Eph. 6:1-3). The Lord was not making a bargain with man, or seeking to draw out obedience by a bribe, but there is obviously a great reward in the observing of this commandment.

Then, too, as the children of God (if we are such) through Jesus Christ, the first and most important consideration to come before us is, What is the mind and will of the Maker of us all regarding this matter of the relation between parents and children? His words are plain—we are to "honor" our fathers and our mothers.

The word "honor" carries with it a great many things, but perhaps the three outstanding elements are respect, obedience, and affection.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the Saviour and then the Example of believers, presents a beautiful pattern of true obedience to this commandment.

II. Willing Obedience (Luke 2:48-51; John 19:25-27).

The fact that Jesus was God manifest in the flesh only enhanced His conduct. He who is divine presents an example of obedience and consideration both as boy and man which we do well to emulate.

1. As a Boy (Luke 2:48-51). The boy Jesus, increasing "in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man" (v. 52), had come to His twelfth year and with His parents had gone up to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover.

There moved in His heart the conviction that He must now be about His Father's business—an altogether proper and commendable purpose, but one which resulted for the moment in separation from His parents. This was far more serious than a physical separation, for we read that they did not understand Him (v. 50).

Tragic indeed are the consequences of our failure to understand our children. Notice, however, that Jesus did not withdraw Himself from their watchful care, nor refuse to obey them even though they failed to understand Him. Equally tragic are the results of hasty and bitter separations brought about by the disobedience of children.

2. As a Man (John 19:25-27). The value of our lesson will be greatly reduced if we see only the responsibility of children while they are young. We are the children of our parents as long as we and they live.

One marvels at the carelessness and hardness of heart that will permit men and women who have time and money for everything else, to neglect their aged parents and even

OPA Ruling On Poultry Given

The following communication was received at the office of the County Agent early part of the week. It should be of special interest to poultry raisers.

"To meet the continued needs of the Army for turkey for shipment overseas for holiday dinners, the Office of Price Administration today consented to a continuation of pricing action designed to speed the flow of turkey into the Army's hands.

On September 4, 1943, OPA announced that during September the Quartermaster Corps would pay for dressed turkey up to a maximum of 8½ cents a pound above the maximum base price for the same kind of turkey alive regardless of whether delivery is made from processing plant or from a wholesale establishment.

Today OPA announced that, in the presence of a continuing emergency need for the turkeys, the Army will pay up to 8 cents a lb. as contrasted with the 8½ cents in September—above the maximum base price for the same kind of turkey alive.

This becomes effective at 12:01 a. m. October 1, 1943, immediately after the termination of the period in which an 8½ cent margin existed.

The pricing action should remove any doubt on the part of growers that processors can pay ceiling prices for the live poultry. At the same time, OPA emphasized that there is no intention of raising the grower's ceiling price for the live poultry.

Since all turkey on the market will go to the Army under Food Distribution Order No. 71, the action announced today will have no effect on the cost of living. Food Distribution Order No. 71 will expire when the Army has filled its need for turkeys to be shipped overseas. Today's pricing action will lapse at the same time."

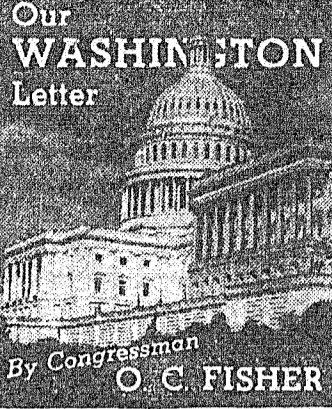

shunt them off into a public institution for care.

III. Hypocritical Disobedience (Mark 7:6-13).

Such an important commandment naturally held a high place in the thinking of the community. To violate it involved a measure of shame which men sought to avoid. So the Jews of Christ's day devised a scheme which made it possible for a man to appear to be very religious even as he deprived his parents of the honor and help to which they were entitled by the law of God.

The man who was so avaricious that he did not wish to support his aged and needy parents could entirely evade that God-given responsibility by declaring that his property was "Corban," that is, dedicated by a vow to God. Thereafter no matter how great was the need of his parents they could receive nothing.

Thus do men make "the word of God of none effect" (v. 13) through their traditions. The method differs but the spirit persists even in our day.

A new Forgotten Man

Southwest Texas is the breeding ground for a sizable portion of the nation's meat production. In addition to the imperative need for protein feeds for cattle sheep and goats during the winter, there are scores of dairies there which must have this type of feed every day in the year to stay in business.

While feed has climbed sky-high and the ceilings have been evaded by the black market, the price of milk has increased very little. This has forced—and every day is forcing—more and more dairies out of business.

For a concrete example, I have the bookkeeping records on four dairies at Coleman. One dairy showed a clean-cut loss. Three showed a very small profit—with out counting in the dairymen's time and wear and tear on their cars and pick-ups. And all four were forced to reduce their herds. Their dollars-and-cents records show they can't stay in business at present prices. The same picture can be revealed at many other places over the district—in fact, all over the nation.

Penny Increase Solves Chicago Problem

Recently I attended a meeting of 21 senators who questioned Fred M. Vinson on the acute dairy problem. Vinson is supposed to be the "czar" over price controls. All but two of those senators favored price increases for milk, rather than subsidies, to rescue the dairyman.

In Chicago last spring a serious milk supply problem arose. OPA there allowed a one-cent per quart price increase. Since then, no complaint has come from the Chicago milkshed. Yet now, with Texas milk production reduced to 25 percent, OPA refuses an increase.

Less Cottonseed, Less Peanuts—And Texas Hasn't The Soybeans!

Texas normally requires a little more than a million tons of protein feeds each year. This year, only about 415,000 tons of cottonseed meal and cake will be produced in Texas from slightly more than 8,000,000 acres of cotton. This compares with 751,611 tons in 1937-38 from the 12,539,000 cotton acres of that year.

Of further immediate interest the Texas peanut crop this year is estimated at only 50 percent of last year's yield. And, lest we get the idea that soybeans grow lush where the cottonstalk is missing, we are reminded that Texas raises virtually no soybeans.

With our livestock and dairying industries literally at stake, we are demanding of the Commodity Credit Corporation that more soybeans be sent to Texas mills from the Middle West. Many promises are made, but what we actually will get remains to be seen. Only one thing is certain: If we don't get more protein feeds, Texas' immense war time agricultural program will be crippled seriously.

Rebirth Of 'Economy'

There is more talk of economy in government going on in your capital now than I have heard this year. The call for 10 billions of dollars in new tax revenue has set the stage for a drive against waste.

Many here are convinced that at least five billions can be subtracted from the nation's spending bill during the next year without harming the war program one bit. By doing that—cutting down the outgo at the same time you increase the income—the amount of extra tax money to be drawn from the people can be cut in half.

A Payroll Reduction—At Last

In my judgement, no two men in Congress have saved the nation as much money and made the country as expenditures-conscious, as Senators Byrd and Truman. Their work has been worth hundreds of millions of dollars to Uncle Sam.

With the federal payroll running above three million persons, the Byrd committee, after long studies, concluded a reduction of 300,000 persons was both possible and advisable. Largely as a result of this demand, the government reported 30,000 dropped from the civil service rosters in July—the first time in years that there has been a reduction instead of an increase. That's just a start, but it is a start in the right direction.

Bowen 4-H Club Wins Grass Pasture Contest

Six 4-H Clubs including Bowen Rockwood, Santa Anna, Whon, Silver Valley and Shields entered exhibits in the pasture improvement contest, which was sponsored by the Coleman Lions Club at their annual carnival last Saturday. Much favorable comment was heard relative to the exhibits of the club members. The judges were Claude Miller, Lester Newman and J. W. Hunter. The following clubs were winners in the contest:

Bowen, 1st; Silver Valley, 2nd; Shields, 3rd; Santa Anna, 4th; Rockwood, 5th and Whon, 6th.

Each club exhibited eight different kinds of grasses including five beneficial and three injurious species. The grasses exhibited, including their feed value were Buffalo 75 percent, Side Oat Grama 75 percent; Curley Mesquite 60 percent, Little Blue Stem 60percent, Spear Grass 60percent Needle grass 20 percent, Red Grama 20percent; Hairy Trioda or Fluff grass 20 percent.

The winning clubs exhibited good specimens of grass and had a complete description of each one. The Silver Valley exhibit, which won 2nd place had an attractive exhibit with the wording "Pasture improvement is a Victory achievement" with pictures illustrating good and poor cattle. The third prize, which went to the Shields club was attractive with appropriate legends to illustrate their exhibit.

Grasses on Exhibit

The first three winners have put their exhibits on display at the Coleman Production Credit Association just north of Bowen Drug Store.

"Most violations at wholesale, as well as at retail, will prove to be unintentional ones due to carelessness. Nevertheless no one should continue to pay more than ceiling price because of someone's carelessness."

Retail shoppers, who find a grocer unwilling to correct his selling price (which must be shown on the merchandise itself or on the shelf or table) so that it comes within the ceiling shown in the wall-poster, were invited by Mr. Barnes to report such intentional retail violations to the local War Price and Rationing Board.

Extra copies of the new community price posters may be obtained from the War Price and Rationing Board by shoppers who want them for home study.

Mr. Barnes said, "Any grocer may charge less than these maximum ceiling prices on some items, but no grocer may charge more."

The present community price posters apply to all food stores in the Fort Worth District, including this County.

How many boys from SANTA ANNA won't come back?

NOBODY knows the exact number. Nobody. But—
The number who do come back—on their own two feet instead of in a flag-draped box—will be in exact proportion to the job we do here at home.

For every minute that we can help shorten the war will mean more lives saved. (213 Americans were killed in the final day of the last war, and 1,114 were wounded before the 11:00 o'clock Armistice took effect.)

Now one way all of us can help shorten the war is to tighten our belts and buy more War Bonds. Yes, still more. And . . .

If you think you're buying all the War Bonds you are able to, imagine—for a minute—that it's after the war . . .

. . . you're standing at the station . . . a bunch of home-town boys, still in uniform, climb off the train . . . one of them kisses his wife and grabs his kid in his arms . . .

. . . and then he turns to a young woman beside them, a girl who looks like his wife's sister, and you overhear him say . . .

"Catherine, I don't know how to tell you how sorry I am . . . it's such a shame about Joe . . . it makes me sick all over when I think how he'd be here today if the war had only ended a week sooner."

Think it over. Can't you buy a few more War Bonds to help end the war that week or month sooner? Sure, it may mean giving up something, but what's that compared to what they're giving up? And remember, always—The money you "can't spare" may spare a soldier's life!

Coleman County Pioneer Dies In Brownfield

Pleman Cruger and two daughters, Miss Velma and Mrs. Geo. Purchner went to Brownfield Saturday night to attend the funeral of Enoch Hunter, father of Mrs. Cruger, the funeral being held Monday morning.

Enoch Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hunter, both deceased was born at Eureka in this county 70 years ago, moving with his family to Brownfield about thirty years ago.

The W. W. Hunter family was one of the pioneer families of Coleman County. Preempting a homestead from the State about the time Coleman County was organized. The Eureka Baptist church is located on the W. W. Hunter preemption or survey of land, which is now owned by R. C. Gay.

Enoch Hunter was reared on the old Hunter farm, was also married in this county about fifty years ago to Miss Cynthia Etna Adams and their children were also born in this county. Mrs. Cruger is the only one of the family still living here.

Another Pioneer Buried Saturday

Funeral services were held at the Cumberland Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon for William L. Day, 83, who died Friday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Allcorn near Talpa.

Uncle Bill, as he was familiarly and affectionately known, lived in the Liberty community about five miles east of Santa Anna, where he established a home many years ago. He had gone to Talpa early last week for a few days visit in the home of his daughter. He suffered a heart attack Tuesday and died three days later.

From a standpoint of citizenship Mr. Day was one of the oldest citizens of the Santa Anna community, having come here from the state of Georgia in 1832. He had lived here sixty one years.

William Louis Day was born in the State of Georgia April 12, 1860. He came to Coleman county in 1882 and was married to Miss Annie Beakley in 1888. Mrs. Day preceded him in death by eleven years.

He is survived by the following children: J. Roy Day, Electra; Mrs. W. L. Allcorn, Talpa; Miss Ida Mae Day and Eaf Day in the home; and Mrs. E. M. Tisdale, Whon. Eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild also survive.

Uncle Bill, due to his jovial, friendly and good natured disposition, numbered his friends by the limit of his acquaintances which was very extensive. It was said of him and we believe on good authority, that he had as many friends as anyone living in these parts, and it was surely so. The funeral was conducted by the Pastor, Rev. J. W. Burgett. Pallbearers were W. F. Holt, Leslie Allcorn, W. C. Holt, R. S. Traylor, J. W. Taylor and H. O. Norris.

Flower ladies were: Mrs. Norris Mrs. Curry, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Walter Holt, Mrs. Welton Holt, Mrs. Traylor, Miss Frankie Holt and Mrs. Jack Ogle.

Interment was made in the Santa Anna cemetery with Hosch directing.
