His graduation from this technical school now fits him for airplane maintenance and he will be sent to some airbase where he will assist in keeping America's Flying Fortresses in the air for Allied victory.

In addition to completion of the schedule of academic and practical studies as an aviation mechanic, he has been thoroughly drilled in military tactics and defense and a course of physical training that has conditioned him to meet all requirements of an American soldier.

Signal Corps photograph, received by radio, depicts exciting scenes on the beaches when American troops landed from invasion barges on the southern shore of Sicily. Within a few hours the soldiers of Lieut. Gen. George Patton's American 7th Army and their British and Canadian allies firmly established themselves with adequate equipment and pushed aggressively toward the interior of the island.

WTCC Buys Bonds

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is actively promoting the war effort not alone thru its inter-community War and Preservation contest in which more than 100 area towns are entries, but with hard cash. During the Third War Loan campaign the organization bought a $10,000 bond to bring to $20,000 its holding of the nation's securities.

Announcement of the all-cash purchase was made at Midland by M. C. Ulmer, president of the regional chamber, in his address to the annual convention of West Texas county judges and commissioners. The $10,000 check was delivered to Ulmer by WTCC Manager D. A. Bandeden, following a Lubbock meeting of the organization's officers committee at which the purchase was authorized.

The WTCC's initial $10,000 bond purchase was made in May 1941, at its Mineral Wells convention, seven months prior to Pearl Harbor.

U. D. C. Meets

The U. D. C. met with Miss Luella Chambers Tuesday afternoon and voted to sponsor a jewelry junk drive to collect old costume jewelry to be sent to the boys overseas to use as barter with the Island natives.

Look through your jewelry, and donate whatever you are tired of and it will perhaps be the means of some tired soldier being able to rest while a native gladly digs a fox hole for him.

Earrings, novelty pins, bracelets, necklaces, rings, vanity cases, shaded glass, odd buttons or anything you have will be gratefully received.

The collection center for the junk is Purdy's Store and Miss Luella Chambers will see that everything is taken care of properly.

THUMBNAIL HISTORY OF U. S. ARMY DIVISIONS

TWENTY-NINTH DIVISION

The Twenty-ninth Division was organized in July, 1917, at Camp McClellan, Alabama. It was composed originally of National Guard units from the District of Columbia and the States of New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia. Later, however, the Delaware troops were withdrawn and organized into pioneer infantry units. The Division was sent overseas in June and July, 1918, and after a few weeks' training moved into a quiet front line sector. It was assigned to the American First Army in September and participated in the Meuse-Argonne offensive, continuing actively until the signing of the Armistice. The Twenty-ninth captured 2,187 prisoners and its casualties totalled 6,159. During its entire service it was commanded by Major General Charles G. Morton. Its insignia is a circle bisected by two half circles, reversed and joined; one half of circle blue, the other half gray.

THIRTIETH DIVISION

The Thirtieth Division, composed of National Guard troops from Tennessee and North and South Carolina, was organized on October, 1917, at Camp Sevier, South Carolina. It moved overseas in May and June, 1918, and in July was assigned to an active sector in Belgium and participated in the Ypres-Lys offensive. In August its artillery units were transferred to the Toul sector and took part in the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne offensives. The Division, less artillery, participated in the Somme offensive with the 4th British Army, its outstanding operations being the capture of Bellicourt and the breaking of the Hindenburg Line. It captured 3,848 prisoners and suffered 8,954 casualties. Its insignia is the monogram "OH" containing Roman numeral XXX in blue on a maroon field.

THIRTY-FIRST DIVISION

The Thirty-first Division was organized in October, 1917, at Camp Wheeler, Georgia, from National Guard troops of Georgia, Alabama and Florida, and National Army men drafted from Illinois and Michigan. It sailed overseas in September and October, 1918, and upon arrival in France was designated as a replacement division. The personnel of most of the units was withdrawn and sent to other organizations, leaving the Thirty-first skeletonized. It returned to the United States in December, 1918. Its insignia is a red circle enclosing the letters "D.D." in red.

THIRTY-SECOND DIVISION

The Thirty-second Division was organized in July, 1917, at Camp MacArthur, Texas, of National Guard troops from Wisconsin and Michigan, and went overseas early in the following year. In May, 1918, it was stationed in the central sector in Alsace, and late in July participated in the Aisne-Marne offensive, occupying the Fisme sector August 7. The Division was active in the Oise-Aisne operations and in the Meuse-Argonne offensive. It was commanded by Major General William G. Haan. Its insignia is an upright arrow piercing a crossbar in red.

THIRTY-THIRD DIVISION

The Thirty-third Division was formed of National Guard troops from Illinois at Camp Logan, Texas, in July, 1917. It arrived in France in May, 1918, and, less artillery, trained with the British near Abbeville and experienced its first combat service in the Amiens sector early in July. It participated in Somme offensive and in the terrific fighting at Verdun. It fought through the Meuse-Argonne offensive and was on the Troyon sector at the signing of the Armistice. Its artillery units participated in the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne offensives. The Division captured 3,987 prisoners and its casualties totalled 7,255. Major General George Bell, Jr., commanded the division throughout the World War. Its insignia is a yellow cross on a black circle.

Capital City A&M Club
Austin, Texas

To A&M Clubs Everywhere:
Dear Aggies:

Mrs. John R. Bannister, Past President of the Capital City A. and M. Mothers' Club, and the mother of two Aggies, one of whom is now fighting with Mark Clark's 5th Army in Italy, and the other having just completed his preliminary flight training at Aviation Cadet Center at San Antonio, has suggested a plan whereby all former students of A.&M. College and their friends, can aid the war program and give a real thrill to all Aggies who are now fighting on the many global war fronts. Her program is as follows:

1. Everyone knows that all Aggies are doing their part to aid the war effort by purchasing their share of war bonds.

2. Mrs. Bannister suggests that all Aggies and their friends request that the money that they pay for these bonds be set aside to buy air planes to be used in the global warfare.

3. Mr. Frank Scofield, Collector of Internal Revenue, has approved this plan stating that it is incumbent upon the purchaser of the bonds to state on his application that these bonds are to be allocated to the Aggie Ship Fund and to report the name of the purchaser and the amount to a central agency who in turn will report the total amount to his office.

4. Each $125,000 in bonds will buy a fighter plane, and each $278,000 in bonds will buy a flying fortress.

5. It is requested that every A. and M. Club designate someone to keep a record of all purchases in their city and report same to T. B. Warden, City Hall, Austin, Texas, or to E. E. McQuillen, College Station, who has generously offered to transmit same to Austin.

6. When the total amount of bonds purchased are reported to

Mr. Scofield, he in turn will report the amount to the Secretary of the Treasury, Henry Morgenthau, who will designate a ship to be labeled, "Texas Aggie Spirit" and will furnish a picture of the ship to the donor organization to be disposed of by them in any manner they see fit. When this request goes to the Secretary of the Treasury, a request will also be forwarded through him to the War Department requesting that an all Aggie crew be placed on the ship.

Mrs. L. P. Shipley, President of the Capital City A. and M. Mothers' Club joined the writer in calling a joint meeting of the Mothers' Club and the A. and M. Club in Austin, at which this program was approved, and the writer was designated as the person to make the final report to Frank Scofield, Collector of Internal Revenue.

The joint meeting also requested that each A. and M. Club president present this program to their club and that they also contact their local newspaper for publicity in an effort to sell as many bonds as possible. The joint meeting also decided that this program should be carried on through the month of October so that every Aggie would have an opportunity to allocate bonds purchased by them and their friends to this worthwhile cause.

We earnestly request your cooperation.

Yours very truly,
T. B. WARDEN

A Story To Tear Your Heart—And It's About A Dog

(Published by request)

(The following article appeared in the Sheep and Goat Raiser and is republished in The "D-V" upon request.)

This morning when Tom Mansfield, a neighbor of ours, got up he heard a dog barking out about his pens. He took his shotgun and went to see about it. A small dog was in his pens killing goats and as it ran off he killed it. The night before there had been 67 of the prettiest kids that you have ever seen in that pen. This morning there were 16 that were not harmed and a few that might possibly live. Most of the 51 though had been bitten once through the base of the neck and the neck was broken. All this, mind you, was done by a dog that weighed exactly 22 pounds. Assuming that the mohair of a bunch of goats will pay thr expenses, those kids represented a year's profit.

You are probably wondering how this concerns you. Here is the answer: Let's you and I and everyone else in Texas interested in the production of livestock try to get a State law passed that will help prevent things like this in the future and make dogs bear part of the damage, when they do happen. Most Eastern States have laws levying a tax of one or two dollars per year on all male and spayed female dogs and five or six dollars on all unspayed females. The proceeds from this tax are used to pay stock owners for damages done by dogs. What could be any more fair? If a dog isn't worth a dollar or two a year, his owner should, at a time like this, be keeping a hog instead.

There are several reasons for this being pressed right now. One is that Texas is now fortunate enough to have a ranchman as governor who, I am sure, will be willing to help us. Another is, that our armed forces need every pound of meat and wool and mohair that we can produce. Think what 51 head of 40-pound kids would mean to a village in starving Europe! A third reason is that as our population increases so will the number of dogs, and unless they are controlled, livestock production will become increasingly difficult.

They make me want to fight, and as we don't know whose dog it was all I know for us to do is fight for a law that will help us. So let's all work on this, it will just take a few cents to write our governor and representatives and I believe it will be worth our trouble and do lots of good.

Right at the Flip of a Switch!

West Texas Utilities Company

MOST people take electric service for granted... We expect that when our fingers flip the switch, the lights will flash—instantly! AND THEY DO!

The same is true of power for the lathes, punches, riveters and other machines that make our war weapons, power to light our factories for night shifts, power to take workers from their homes to their jobs, and back. It's always there, right at the flip of a switch.

HOW DID IT GET THERE? That's another story—much more complicated, but very interesting. It's the story of a people who saw a job to do, and rolled up their sleeves and did it. Call it initiative—call it free enterprise—it's the spirit that has made America great!

The people in our company have that spirit. Years ago they saw the need for electricity that was more plentiful and dependable than ever before. Transmission lines extending into many territories in West Texas, bringing economical electric service to both large and small towns—that was the answer to that need they believed, AND IT WAS! They built the lines and the power plants.

Today, we have an interconnected system of steam power plants, each independent of the other, yet so linked together that power is automatically switched from one region to another in event of mishap.

It's the most dependable system the world has ever known.

It's yours—all at your fingertips—right at the flip of a switch!

New FSA Committee Announced

Creation of a new Farm Security Administration committee of three Coleman county farmers, which will have power to approve or disapprove each FSA loan made in this county, was announced today by William E. Selman, Coleman county FSA Supervisor. The move is in line with the desire of FSA to place more and more control over its program in the hands of the local communities.

John Will Vance of Santa Anna; George Pauley of Valera; and Ozro Eubanks of Santa Anna are members of the new committee. Ray Jameson of Coleman is the alternate appointed to serve in the absence of any one of the members. All are farmers and long-time residents of Coleman county and have been active in FSA affairs.

Previously a committee of 3 or more men functioned separately for each of the phases of the FSA's activities. Now, one three-man committee will keep a check on all functions including the lending and servicing of loans to food production borrowers, rural rehabilitation borrowers, farm ownership borrowers, farm debt adjustment, water facilities loans, tenure improvement and all other related activities, Mr. Selman explained.

Each FSA loan application in this county must be approved by the committee before it can be made. Likewise, the committee must approve each foreclosure, and will keep familiar with the progress made by each borrower for the duration of his loan.

The revival of the Coleman county FSA committee identical with the change in committees in each county in the United States results from effort to cut expenses and to streamline the committee functions. With three men now doing the work which formerly occupied as many as 10 or 12, those who are released from their committee duties may devote their time toward more efficient operation of their own farms.

We feel like suggesting that a day be set aside for praise and thanks giving. It was a very joyous occasion to us Tuesday morning when we got the returns from the 3rd War Loan drive we have devoted so much time energy and space to during the month of September, and was appraised of the fact that not only Santa Anna but Coleman and Coleman county had succeeded in raising our large quota in the purchase of War Bonds.

We worked by day and dreamed by night, and prayed daily that in some way our quota would be raised. It was, and it makes us love every body. We have told people in all parts of Texas and in various other states during the past twenty years that we lived among the finest people in the world. And now we feel we can continue to spread such news.

Had Coleman County and especially Santa Anna failed to raise the quotas allotted them, we would have felt humiliated and downhearted, but as it is we have something to rejoice over and our thanks go out to all who participated in the drive or in any way contributed to its success.

We acknowledge the receipt of many compliments passed on the Santa Anna News for the continued and unselfish campaign we tried to have a part in, and wish to pass it on to the business men and women of Santa Anna who gave us such a wonderful support. It was you who made it possible for the Santa Anna News to conduct such a continuous campaign and help to put the drive over successfully. Again we thank you and trust that in some way we will be able to carry on in an acceptable manner among you. The Editor.

EXAMINE DATE ON YOUR DRIVERS LICENSE

Austin, October—State Police Director Homer Garrison today asked Texas drivers to take a look at the dates on their operator's licenses. The first group of the new type licenses, which are good for two years from the date of issue, begin expiring this month.

Renewal forms are available at drivers license offices in all court houses, and in some localities at other places.

"Texas people are bothered with so much red tape now that we are especially anxious to carry out the renewal program with a minimum of inconvenience to them," Garrison said. "It will help the people and the Department of Public Safety a great deal if applicants for renewal will be careful to observe the following points:

"Be sure the application is properly filled out. It has been necessary in the past to reject many applications because of insufficient or incorrect information.

THE SEABEES

By Billie Mack Raspberry

The Navy needed fighters, and the Navy needed men, So they organized the Seabees who could work and fight again.

They took welders, riggers, boiler-men, butcher, baker, too. They put them in the Navy and showed them what to do.

With rifle and machine gun the Seabees learned to shoot. We used a big machine and a thousand things to boot, And we even learned to get seconds at the mess.

We learned the Navy lingo-called it "head," and "deck" and "swab."

We learned to knock it off just like any other job. They taught us all these many things in thirteen weeks or less.

And what they didn't teach us, of the rest we had to guess. When we finished all our training, then we left for "Island X" with all our own equipment, it sure loaded down our decks.

The Japs held the Island, when at last we moved in sight. We knew that they were ready so we prepared to fight.

We landed under heavy fire, there was pinto shot and shell. But we rushed up to the beach-head and we gave them plenty hell.

We soon had swipped the Nippers out and then we went to work. Every Seabee did his duty, not a one was seen to shirk.

We built a mighty landing field a barrack and a dock. About a hundred miles of road we made from solid rock.

At last we got things squared, away—'twas pretty to be seen then went back to the beach-head where we saw our first Marine.

They followed behind us, though they said they got there first. We had everything completely fixed, they could even quench their thirst.

From the halls of "Montezuma" to the shores of "Tripoli." It used to be the leathernecks, but now it's the Seabees.

And when we reach the Pearly gates, and stand at Heaven scene, There'll be a Seabee waiting to greet the first Marine.

Now all you girls take a tip for in giving it to you, Just get yourself a Seabee, theres nothing he can't do.

Headquarters, Camp Bowie, Tex. Public Relations Branch

Camp Bowie, Tex., Oct. 5—The difference between the Southern drawl and the Brooklyn brogue in the United States is paralleled to some extent by differences in the German language according to locale, in the opinion of members of one of the most unusual organizations within the Army Service Forces.

It is the 41st Prisoner of War Processing Company, one of whose three platoons is at Camp Bowie to fingerprint, photograph and make records for the Prisoner of War Platoon, 1853rd Service Command Unit. Except photographers, each of the men must be able to speak at least one foreign language.

T-Sgt. Richard S. Ehrmann, who holds a degree in philosophy from Frankfurt University in Frankfurt, Germany, speaks German fluently. Discrepancies in speech help him identify the sections of Germany in which prisoners resided. One of his co-workers, T-5 Daniel O. Newberry studied German at Emory University in Georgia, where he was born and reared.

Pfc. Alphonse Croce was born in Parma, Italy, and attended college in Genoa; Cpl. Fred Rice worked with the Criminal Identification Bureau of the Department of Justice. Cpl. Leon Jackson who is the platoon's acting supply sergeant and one-man record section was employed at an airbase in Georgia before taking over his present job.

Pfc. Harry Goldsmith boasts of being an intimate friend of Morton Gould, famed contemporary American composer. Sgt. Ernie Staudt was a subway guard in New York City.

The platoons spend one week or more at prisoner of war camps doing their work quickly and moving on to the next camps.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Genz are visiting relatives in Mineola this week.

State Dept. of Public Welfare

Austin, Sept. 21—Johnny Winters, new executive director of the State Department of Public Welfare—the department that administers the Old Age Assistance, Aid to Blind, and Aid to Dependant Children programs—dispatched a newly written rule book today to the field workers in the county offices throughout Texas. The new manual contains instructions for a reorganized assistance program and has 65 pages, which is just 212 pages less than the one it replaces. It becomes effective on October 20 after expected Social Security Board agreement.

"We're stripping down to racing weight," Winters explained. "We're cutting out a lot of things that would be desirable if we had enough money and enough employees. We're accepting the limitations that exist and we're getting down to essentials."

Supervisors have been summoned to regional meetings throughout the State to study the new rules. State office officials are being sent to these meetings as instructors.

Expressing the hope that the new plan will not "create a public sensation, but will be accepted by the state as the only way out," Winters said that "those on the rolls who are actually in need should have no worries about the changes. They are the ones the changes are designed to protect and help. The department will do its best to make the available money go to the persons who need it most. The public must realize also that the effect of these changes will not be instantaneous. It will take 12 months to finish the job of re-adjustment since each of some nearly 200,000 cases in three programs must be individually reviewed."

"Within a statutory framework the legislature requires the welfare department to promulgate rules of eligibility for defining and determining need," the welfare director explained. "Our definition of need has been re-examined in an effort to provide money for the essentials first. With limited money available, every dollar must go where it is most needed. We are forced to rule out allowances for purchases of semi-essentials and can no longer afford to overlook resources that could be used to meet needs. In this way we hope to shift a great deal of money now allocated for expenditure on semi-essentials to the purchase of absolutely essential needs. This will result in more money to persons who are most needy and less money to those who are not so needy. In assistance programs, set up by law for the sole purpose of relieving need, this course is logical and I believe that it deserves and will receive the full support of the people of the state."

Winters said that just as soon as his field staff was prepared to give information on the changes full information concerning the most important readjustments will be released to the public.

Gen. Page Lauds Texas Draft Boards

Austin, Oct. 2. (AP)—Gen. J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, today commended Texas local boards which he said had done a fine job on the manpower inventory incident to the calling up of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers.

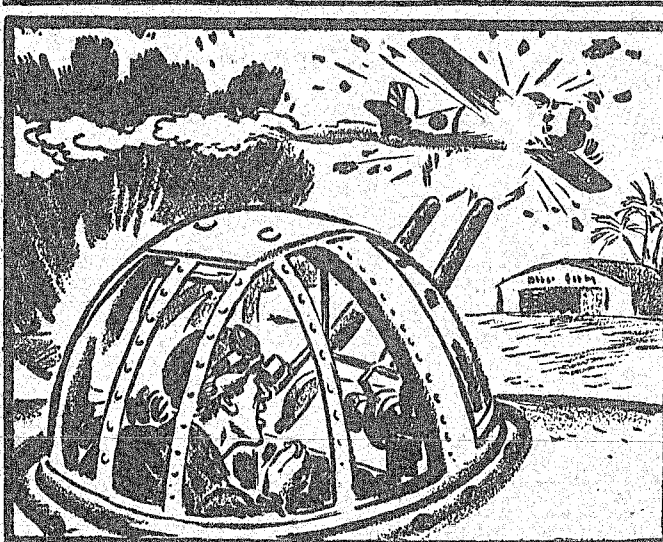

Page pointed out that the needs of the military had not changed in regard to service by the father class, and that these men would be inducted in Texas in the manner as in other states to fill Selective Service quotas.

Boards completed local inventories this week, and reclassification of all registrants has begun in most areas, Page said.

Rayon Threatens Cotton

I have protested against the request of the Office of the Rubber Director and the War Department for authority from the WPB to use vital materials to expand facilities for making high tenacity rayon for use as cords in tires.

If this is done, it will destroy about 10 percent of the home market for cotton, and will be a severe blow to our cotton industry.

Cotton cord always has been used for this purpose. It has been tested and tried and proved. The Truman War Investigating Committee has investigated the subject and has strongly urged that the expansion of the rayon program as proposed be deferred.

Of course, the Duponts and other rayon interests want to change from cotton to rayon. But why, taking advantage of the war emergency conditions, change now and experiment on a substitute for a proven fabric the continued use of which means so much to our cotton industry? The cotton farmer is going all out for the war program. He is entitled to this protection.

The Feed Situation

The Commodity Credit Corporation has contracted with a number of southwestern mills to crush soybeans when the harvest begins soon. Under contract terms, about 50 percent of the meal secured in crushing remains in the state.

I have impressed upon the CCC and upon the War Food Administrator the acuteness of our shortage and need, and they have given us some assurance that increased efforts will be made to shift more soybeans to our section. Cottonseed meal is distributed through regular trade channels.

"A drought situation," Marvin Jones' office reports to me, "is developing not only in West Texas, but also in Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi and Oklahoma. This may materially affect the supply of cottonseed meal."

It's Not Over Yet

It's true that one man's guess is about as good as another's as to when the war will end. In Washington, "capital of the world," there is no general agreement, even though the most respected authorities live and work here.

Last week these real authorities told a conference of the nation's business, labor and industrial leaders, gathered here to map the future home-front production program, that "The war is far from won!"

Said War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes: "We are not as near winning today as the Germans were in the summer of 1940 or the Japs were immediately after Pearl Harbor."

Said Undersecretary of War Patterson: "We have the initiative—provided we have the will and determination for victory, victory is within our grasp."

Said WPB Vice-Chairman Charles E. Wilson: "A great job has been done. But a greater job is still ahead."

Said James P. Mitchell, director of the Army's industrial personnel division: "A far smaller proportion of our population of working age is either at work or in the armed forces than in any other major nation."

Rumor Hitler Died Ticked Germans, Badoglio Reports

Italian High Command Headquarters in Italy, Oct. 2 (Delayed)—Premier Marshal Pietro Badoglio declared Saturday that the new Italian Government emphatically would be established on a democratic basis with all former Fascist leaders definitely excluded.

In his first interview with Allied newspapermen, the 72-year-old had of the temporary Italian Government and commander in chief of Italian forces, revealed details of Benito Mussolini's fall from power. He said that when Fascism collapsed unfounded rumors that Adolf Hitler had been assassinated swept all the German soldiers in Rome into ecstasies of joy.

Declaring that the happy Nazi troopers embraced people in the streets, Badoglio said:

"They tore down photographs of the Fuehrer in their barracks and scattered the bits in open places." Describing Fascism's final moments, Badoglio said "Fascism at the end, broke apart like a rotten apple."

He said also that Mussolini, apparently fearing the fury of the people, wrote a note thanking Badoglio for placing him in protective custody.

"Home Front Pledge" Drive On

A nation-wide, cooperative campaign by homemakers and merchants to hold down the cost of living and combat black markets is being conducted by volunteer civic committees in more than 100 communities through local drives to secure signers for a "Home Front" pledge. the war fronts around the globe European, Mediterranean, Asiatic, and Southwest Pacific—came back last week with a five-point admonition that:

1. If it is to be ready for any eventuality, this country must draw up its post-war plans quickly—now.

2. The Allies should arrange to use more of the oil reserves they control elsewhere, and begin conserving our own burdened production.

3. America must start now to insure acquisition of strategic bases and aviation routes thru out the world, for after the war.

4. While our military forces are impressive through out the world our diplomatic system must be strengthened and explained.

5. America's war news is flavored with too much optimism, particularly are we guilty, officially and unofficially, of underestimating the Japanese.

STATE HEALTH TALK

Austin, Texas In discussing the possible danger of inflation to the American way of life, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has declared that he believes one phase of this menace which should not be overlooked is the danger of inflation in the incidence of disease.

"Just because we have a war going on is no reason why we should allow the disease and death rates in the country to become higher than in recent peace times," Dr. Cox said. "Indeed, it is an urgent reason why we should sharply reduce these rates among our young people and use every effort to keep the health levels among our civilian and military population at their highest possible peak."

The State Health Officer emphasized once again, as he has often done in the past, the necessity for using the more easily accessible, common-sense safeguards of health. Immunization against several of the more killing diseases is available to all, at little or no cost. Such protection should not be neglected and the person who allows himself or his family to suffer from a preventable illness is, whether he realizes it or not, actually handicapping the nation's war effort. Another health precaution which can and should be practiced in every home and community is careful sanitation; clean clothes, a clean body, and clean home environments do much to prevent the appearance of illness in the home and the same sanitation practiced throughout the community will help to insure the good health of that community.

"Good, wholesome, nourishing foods, home and community sanitation, and the protection afforded by immunization can do a lot to prevent the needless inflation of the disease and death rates in this country," Dr. Cox asserted.

Agricultural Preparing For 1944

Easing of the rationing restrictions on farm machinery, increased production of new farm machinery, and a campaign among farmers to "Keep Your War Equipment Fit and Fighting" are indication of plans now being laid by the War Food Administration to meet increased production goals for 1944. Suggestions for expanded wartime production have been sent for consideration to State Agricultural War boards and other farm representatives. State boards have been asked to set 1944 goals. The national program calls for a record-breaking 380 million acres in crops. Problems relating to labor, machinery, supplies, conservation practices and prices will be considered at 48 state meetings of state groups with representatives of WFA during October.

Potato Prices

Specific ceilings for white potatoes of the late 1943 crop have been set by months for October, 1943, through June, 1944. These prices continue the general price level set for the spring crop of potatoes at the country shipper and intermediate seller levels with allowances for graduated monthly increases to take care of storage charges. Because of the large crop this year, it is expected that potatoes generally will sell substantially below the retail ceilings.

4 Percent Interest On Land Bank Loans

Action taken recently by 12 Federal Land Banks will substitute a 4 percent interest rate for higher rates on 98 percent of the loans made by the land banks prior to June 24, 1935. "The Land Banks" 4 percent rate is the lowest at which farmers generally ever have been able to obtain long-term mortgage credit, A. G. Black, Governor of the Farm Administration said.

Easier To Get Pressure Canners

Pressure canners may be bought for individual home use under liberalized regulations now followed by the local Agricultural War Boards. A person who needs a pressure canner may apply directly to the local County Farm Rationing Committee for a Certificate of Eligibility or ask that previously filed applications be reviewed under the new rulings.

Funds For Maternity, Infant Care

More than 200,000 additional wives and babies of servicemen will be able to receive maternity and infant care during the remainder of this fiscal year as a result of the additional funds voted by Congress. The program is limited to wives and infants of enlisted men in the four lowest pay grades. Between July 1 and October 1, wives and infants of servicemen in the top three grades below commissioned officers were also covered.

ODT Warns About School Buses

School buses may not be used to transport students to athletic games, state or county fairs, or similar events, the Office of Defense Transportation has stated.

To Prepare Engines For Winter

Anti-freeze used last winter and saved for re-use this winter should be tested. In time anti-freeze loses its strength and its non-corrosive properties. Nearly all manufacturers of permanent types of anti-freeze have made up acid and rust inhibitors for restoring resistance of used anti-freeze. In adding new material, it is wise, the Office of Defense Transportation says, to use the same brand used in the first place. A free pamphlet entitled "Cooling System; Cleaning, Flushing, Rust prevention, Anti-Freeze," that tells about the care of water-cooling systems in engines used in automobiles and farm equipment, will be sent to those who request it. Address: Office of Information, ODT, New Post Office Building, Washington D. C.

New Tire Rulings

Eligibility for new passenger tires (grade 1) has been restricted to "C" book drivers with a mileage of 601 miles or more per month. All "B" drivers and some "C" book holders will now be eligible only for used and recapped tires. The number of new passenger tires available for rationing in the October quota will be reduced by one-fifth, the OPA recently announced. Quota for farm tractor and implement tires for October is 59,800 as compared with 73,600 in September.

About 4-H Club Livestock Sales

Livestock produced and sold under the auspices of 4-H Clubs is governed by the meat rationing regulation the same as other livestock, according to OPA. This means that the only persons who may obtain custom slaughtered meat point free are livestock producers. However, OPA permits such recognized boys and girls farm organizations as 4-H Clubs to sell their livestock at a fair, exhibition, or an animal show at premium prices, as money from such sales usually helps provide educational funds for Club members.

Germany Far From "Collapse"

The German Army has nearly three times as many combat divisions in the field today as there were when the attack on Poland began four years ago, Major General George V. Strong, Assistant Chief of Staff G-2 (Military Intelligence) declared recently. Discounting any likelihood of an early collapse of either Germany or Japan, Gen. Strong disclosed that the Germans had replaced the 20 divisions lost at Stalingrad last winter, and that the German Luftwaffe was larger now than in 1939. He said also that the weapons the Germans are making are in some cases better than any which the United Nations have.

Ammunition Prices Set

Ammunition for civilian use will be sold at or under prices prevailing in March, 1942, according to OPA ceilings which become effective October 7. Retail ceilings on boxes of 25 shotgun shells are $1.38 for 12 gauge and $1.32 for 16 and 20 gauge.

Retail ceilings on boxes of 50 rim fire cartridges are 34 cents for .22 long rifle and 21 cents for .22 short, regular. Retail ceiling prices on boxes of 20 center fire cartridges range from $1.41 to $2.10 according to brand and type. Ammunition stores are required to post ceiling prices but may sell at lower prices.

Poultry Price Changes

Reductions of 3½ cents a lb. at retail in maximum prices of quick frozen eviscerated poultry and 1 cent a pound on drawn poultry, and an increase of 1 cent a pound on dressed poultry have recently been announced by OPA. These price changes become effective October 12, 1943.

Mail Christmas Packages Now

The deadline for mailing Christmas packages to soldiers overseas is October 15. The War Department urges all who have not mailed their packages to do so immediately.

Corn Price Program

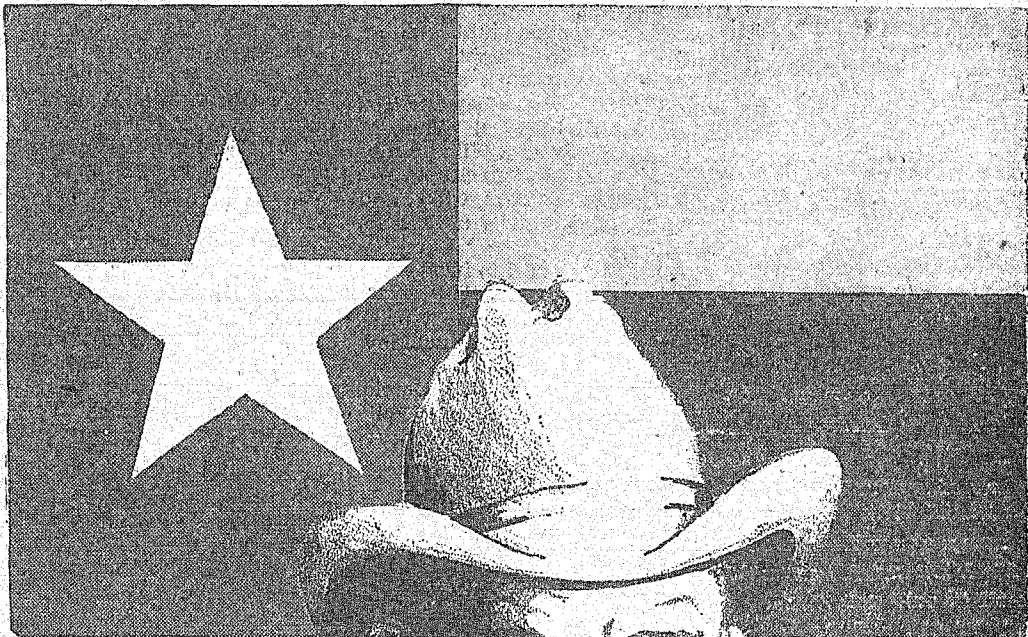

Farmers in Illinois, Iowa, Eastern Nebraska, Eastern South Dakota, and southern Minnesota who sell and deliver corn to country elevators from Sept. 28 through October 31, 1943, will be paid any increase that may be made in the ceiling price between the date of sale and Nov. 30, according to the War Food Administration.

One Question Quiz

Q. Why are point values set so high on canned pineapple, vacuum-packed whole kernel corn, tomato catsup, and other items?

A. OPA says that the point value of each item is figured on the basis of its supply and the amount that can be moved into consumption from month to month without draining the supply to too low a level. Any item which moves faster than its scheduled movement is increased in point value. If it moves below schedule the point value is lowered.

Sure, I'll take a Texan's Share

Your County War Fund is called a "Victory weapon."

The United War Chest of Texas through war fund organizations in every county of the state is charged with the responsibility of raising $4,885,781.00 for the 17 approved war appeals of the National War Fund. The national goal is $125,000,000.

Each of the 17 participating agencies was carefully budgeted to stretch every dollar contributed before it received the approval of the President's War Relief Control Board.

Texans now are being asked to take a Texan's share in their County War Funds to aid three fronts with one gift—the Military Front, the United Nations Front, and the Home Front. Remember, President Roosevelt has said that a share in the National War Fund is a share in winning the war. Use this "Victory weapon." Give to your County War Fund.

Warning Given Against Cattle Grubs

Now is the time to begin making plans for the control of cattle grubs. Statistics show that in Texas alone eight hundred forty thousand head of grubby cattle are marketed in Texas each year. This results in a loss of two lbs. in each animal, enough meat to feed forty thousand soldiers. Every effort is being made to secure sufficient Rotenone Sulfur to meet the requirements of the farmers and ranchers of Texas.
