"He Profits Most Who Serves Best"

Points of Interest During the Texas Ex-Ranger Convention Here

In our issue of last week we could only give a brief summary of the Texas Ex-Rangers meeting due largely to the fact that this editor devoted most all his time to the looking after and entertainment of our visitors until time to go to press, then we had to treat the matter briefly, without mentioning many of the things that served to make the meeting a success.

Resolutions
The following resolutions were read and unanimously approved. Mr. President:

We, your resolutions committee beg to report as follows:

Whereas, the people of Santa Anna have made this, the annual meeting of the Ex-Texas Rangers Association, one long to be remembered, and so far as we can observe, have left nothing undone that would contribute to our comfort, our welcome and our pleasure. And, whereas, our President and J. J. Gregg have been untiring in their efforts in behalf of the occasion of this meeting, therefore, be it resolved that we, as an organization, extend a vote of thanks and express our everlasting gratitude for the fine hospitality and many kindnesses extended to us in every way. That a special vote of thanks be extended to the Lions Club, the Comanche Drum Corps, the young ladies who so graciously entertained us, the local unit of the Texas National Guard, and every citizen of Santa Anna who had a part in the success of this convention.

Be it further resolved that a rising vote of thanks, on the floor of this convention be extended as a tribute of appreciation for the luncheons served by the good women of the community, to the speakers, to J. J. Gregg and his helpers who entertained us Wednesday afternoon and evening and throughout our stay in Santa Anna, and furthermore, we extend our movement so capably launched, and which is materializing, to establish on this historical site, a memorial, museum and club house for the future pleasure and comfort of Ex-Rangers to stand as a monument to their memory.

Resolved further that we extend a vote of thanks to Prof. J. E. King, director of the Coleman High School Band and his aids who furnished a program of music in the party Wednesday evening.

Be it further resolved that the following names be recorded in our records as having done honors and rendered much added pleasure to the members and visitors during this convention. Mrs. J. L. Boggus, Mrs. Emmett Day, Mrs. L. O. Garrett, Mrs. Sam H. Collier, Mrs. J. R. Gipson, Mrs. Seth Risinger, Mrs. J. R. Banister, Mrs. Chas. Bruce, and Misses Kathryn Rose Pinnney, Carlene Ashmore, Irene McCreevy, Mary Southern Gray, Gene Adams, Helen Oakes, Mary Dellinger, Mary Hoopes, Mary Bradford, Elizabeth Morris, Gale Collier, Loraine Parsons, Lenora Golston, Anna Nickens, Frances Gregg, Mrs. Neal Oakes and Mrs. E. D. McDonald.

Resolved further that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this meeting and a copy furnished the Santa Anna News for publication.

Respectfully submitted,
Edgar T. Neal,
W. F. Robinson,
W. T. Melton,
Committee.

Carried and unanimously adopted.

Letters and Telegrams
Following are some of the many letters and telegrams received and read during the meeting. Lack of space forbids using all of them.

George B. Black, Commander,
Texas Ex-Rangers Association,
Dear Comrade:

Today is the time I should be on my way to the meeting of the Ex-Rangers convention, but I am sorry to say that conditions here are so bad that I cannot go. There is no one from this town here.

I am not willing to leave my family in a very bad situation. My health was very poor last fall, winter, and up to late in spring. Also my eyesight and hearing is so bad, so much so I can scarcely see or hear what is going on when in a crowd. But my heart and soul is in the meeting of the old comrades, hoping they are having a happy, glorious, good time.

The great drawback to some of the old fellows who live a great distance from the meeting places is that the weather is too hot for them to get out, and those who have sons and grandsons engaged in farming are not in position to go with them. I feel like if the Rangers Association could be set to meet between the 15th of August and the first of September it would be better.

I am your comrade,
C. W. ALLEN

P. S. I am sending one dollar to pay my dues and all I ask of you is that you send me full proceedings of the meeting. I didn't get any last meeting.

Cities, Okla.
July 27, 1935

Capt. George B. Black,
Dear Comrade:

I am sorry to say that I cannot be with you at Santa Anna. My health is fine, my eyesight and hearing is fine, but I am too clumsy. There is too many steps to climb between here and Santa Anna.

In speaking of Santa Anna, my father saw him when he was a prisoner of war at Liberty, Texas, and heard him and General Almonte talk.

Well, captain, the old front guard is passing in a hurry. I presume myself and brother are the last of Company A of the Rangers of 1874. There were 80 of us, and in thinking of those 80 stalwart Rough Riders I can only say, Behold, the flight of time, what wreck and ruin she has wrought. But we did our bit. We made it possible for western Texas to settle ten years before it could have settled with safety. Company A was a very active body of men, and our work commenced the second day after we were sworn in, and it was started by the murder of Mr. Webb, a deputy sheriff of Brown county. It was a small war for about three weeks but we took the Hardin gang to a cleaning. We certainly did a finished job. We then went to the front and were very busy all of the time for 11 months.

Well, comrade, you will please give my kindest regards to those old Rangers, especially to Mr. McCoy, Gear, and Grady, and especially to our kind old chaplain, Brother Arnold, also to Mrs. Ruby Smith and husband.

So wishing you a happy re-union, I am yours,
J. H. TAYLOR

P. S. If Mr. Coffee is there remember me to him.

Marfa, Texas
July 29th, 1935

Dear Mr. Black:

I am truly sorry that I am not strong enough to make the trip to Santa Anna for the re-union of Old Rangers.

I have not been at all well this summer and could not undertake so long a trip now. A short trip of 23 miles, from Marfa to my ranch, just wears me out. So I am compelled to stay close to home, at least during this hot weather.

I hope and pray that the old boys have a grand meeting and good time. Though I cannot be with you my heart and spirit will.

God bless you all.
Your old comrade,
JAMES B. GILLET

Mr. J. J. Gregg,
Santa Anna, Texas,

Dear Mr. Gregg:

I regret very much that I cannot attend the party you are giving the Ex-Texas Rangers tomorrow. I appreciate so much your invitation and had hoped that I could attend but find I can't. I send you my love.

I truly appreciate the old pioneers of this county that all honor we can show them is deserving. I was born in Brown county near Byrd in 1875. I will be 60 years, and as a child I remember the sense of security we felt when Texas

Corsicana Sun Centennial Special

Thanks to Marvin Bowers for a copy of the Corsicana Daily Sun, a special Centennial Edition. It is well filled with history of Corsicana, and gives a complete history of the movements of the Texas Centennial progress, since its inception early in 1923.

Lowry Martin, one of the publishers of the Daily Sun, was among the first instigators of the Texas Centennial movement, and the publicity during the first several years was directed from his office. Among those who will wear the laurels after the Centennial celebration is over, Lowry Martin should be placed first on the list.

For twelve years we have been listening to Lowry Martin pour out his heart and soul to many state and district gatherings, trying to enlist and encourage people to become Centennial minded. He coined the phrase, "Texans, let's talk Centennial" several years ago, and it is now being quoted in most every publication in Texas.

This special edition of the Daily Sun is the first, insofar as we know, that has been published and dedicated to the 1936 celebration, the One Hundredth Anniversary of the Lone Star State. Lowry Martin is doing his utmost to get the people of Texas to become Centennial minded, and he is a great dynamo when it comes to generating thought.

The Texas Centennial has been assured, and Dallas has been designated the Central Exposition City. Great preparations are being made to make the Centennial Celebration a success, and it will be done.

DAVIS-WALLACE

Mr. Marshall Wallace and Miss Wanda Davis were united in marriage at the Presbyterian Manse Saturday evening, July 27th, Rev. M. L. Womack officiating.

The happy young couple live in the Leedy community. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Wallace and was reared on the Wallace farm.

The bride, a very charming young lady, lives somewhere in this vicinity, but we have no record of the family at hand at present.

Here's wishing for you many years of happiness and plenty, and when your days journey draws to a close may your crossing of the silent stream be peaceful and your landing be in a place of bliss.

Group Attends House Party

Mrs. P. P. Bond of Abilene entertained last weekend with a house party for her daughter, Augusta. House guests were Misses Lenora Golston, Gene Adams, Elizabeth Morris, Annette Shield, Marilyn Baxter, and Louise Oakes of Santa Anna. Mrs. Rex Golston and Mrs. I. O. Shield took the girls to Abilene Saturday, and went for them Monday.

Saturday night there were other guests for a Scavenger hunt. Sunday morning the group attended Sunday School and Church services, and the afternoon was spent at the Airport. There was a swimming party for the evening.

Monday morning's entertainment included a bridge party, and the group attended the movies in the afternoon before returning home.

Miss Adams remained for a more extended visit, and will be accompanied home by Miss Bond the latter part of this week.

A FINE PEACH

Our good friend Ed Tisdell, popular gin man of Whon, presented the editor with a mighty fine peach last Saturday. Mr. Tisdell stated that the peach came off a three year old seedling tree that grew in the edge of the yard. It was a perfect Elberta, and as delicious as could be. The young tree produced about 200 peaches this year.

Mrs. Preston Bailey and children of Eldorado, and Miss Ed-rinne Tyson of Breckenridge are visiting in the home of their father, Dr. Jason Tyson.

V. L. Grady and Mrs. Nannie Smith spent the weekend with relatives in Brownwood.

Lions Club Issues Warning to Parents

The matter of small children running at large and playing on the main streets and public thoroughfares was brought up for discussion at the Lions Club Tuesday, and the Club voted unanimously to request this paper to publish a warning to the parents of such children, requesting them to join in restricting them from engaging in such hazards.

Most children are innocent of danger, and unthoughtfully venture out in dangerous places, and several near accidents have recently been reported, in a few instances accidents were hard to avoid.

We know children are prone to play together, and we are all proud of the fine boys and girls coming on to take up where we leave off, but it is very important that they be taught the importance of safety before some of them are killed or maimed for life.

This is just a friendly suggestion, endorsed by the Lions Club, and we trust it will be received in the spirit intended, and will meet with your approval.

The City Commission authorizes its endorsement of the above, and requested that they be recognized in this appeal.

FLOYD BLAIR OPENS STORE AT GOLDTHWAITE

The Piggly Wiggly store to occupy the Joe A. Palmer building, on Fisher street across from the Saylor hotel, will open for business Saturday, according to the announcement appearing on other pages in this paper. Floyd Blair of Santa Anna and Gilford Scott of Lubbock are the owners of the business and will be in active charge of the management and have buying connections with the Piggly Wiggly corporation, which gives them all advantages enjoyed by other Piggly Wiggly stores. These gentlemen are experienced business men and have certainly displayed fine business judgment in selecting Goldthwaite for a location, as this is one of the best and most substantial towns in Texas, or any other state. The people of this county and this trade territory are all white people and the citizenship of the town and county is of the highest order. Milsc county has a wide-spread reputation for the progressiveness and prosperity of its citizenship. The town also has a record of fewer business failures than any town of its size to be found—Goldthwaite Eagle.

Blair has been employed by W. H. Thate for several years and Santa Anna is glad to see him go forward. Mr. Thate went over to Goldthwaite for the opening last Saturday morning.

GIRL SCOUTS REORGANIZED

Wednesday afternoon Miss Eunice Wheeler met with a group of girls at the High School Building and reorganized the Girl Scout troop here. Miss Wheeler will be captain, and the following officers were elected: Time-keeper, Ruth Laverne Irick; Secretary, Elizabeth Morris; Treasurer, Gale Collier; and Reporter, Helen Oakes.

The group will meet next Wednesday afternoon in the Taylor Wheeler rent house west of the Wheeler residence. Present plans include using the building for a recreation center.

The meeting will begin at 4 o'clock, and girls who are interested in Scouting are invited to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Ed Chambers of Brownwood has been here this week assisting Mrs. M. E. Chambers and Miss Louella Chambers to move to their house near the West Texas Utilities Co. They have been living in the old Chambers farmhouse two miles southeast of town for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Chap Eeds and little daughter Elizabeth returned home Saturday from Slinton. They were accompanied on the trip by Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Martin of Abilene. The Martins, accompanied by Miss Louise Evans, returned to Abilene Sunday.

Mr. W. T. Verner visited the first of the week in the home of his daughter, James L. White of Brownwood.

$15,000,000 Building Program Under Way in Dallas Now

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 5.—Preparations for the Texas Centennial Exposition which opens here June 6 next year went into high gear with the coming of August. The turning point from planning on paper to actual construction was reached this week and Centennial Park is alive with workmen clearing sites for the $15,000,000 worth of Exposition buildings which must go up during the next ten months.

The majority of the construction will be by contract and for the next three months bids will be advertised and contracts let at the rate of a new building every two weeks. By the first of the year a dozen or more great buildings should be rising simultaneously.

Work has already started on the Administration Building which will house several hundred employees of the Exposition staff. This structure is adjacent to the main gates of the Exposition. It will be faced by fountains and lily pools, and its entrance hall will be decorated with huge murals typifying Texas history.

Plans have been approved for the State of Texas Building which will cost the state $1,200,000 to complete and excavation for the foundations of this structure, as long as two city blocks, will start in September. The designs for the Food Products Building and the Poultry Building, part of an Agricultural group which will cost $750,000 have been also approved and construction work on this important unit of the Exposition is to start without delay.

A Civic Center will be erected on 26 acres of property annexed to the south side of Centennial Park and will be an important feature of the Exposition. It is here that the $500,000 Art Gallery will be built by the city as the center of a building plan which includes an aquarium, a natural history museum, a horticultural building, a sports building, an amphitheatre for band concerts and a large artificial lagoon. The city is already receiving bids for some of the underground work incidental to its $3,500,000 Exposition building program.

George L. Dahl, architect, who heads the technical staff is now working on plans for the Petroleum and Gas Building which will house an oil show which will be a major Centennial industrial feature. Walter D. Cline, Managing Director of the Exposition, says that so far the exposition's program has been kept up to date and that everything will be in readiness for the opening as scheduled.

PICNICKERS TO COLEMAN

Tuesday evening relatives of Mrs. Sam Jones and children, who are visiting here from Dallas this week, met in the Coleman park for a picnic supper and watermelon feast. The group included Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hambricht and children of Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Niell. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones and children, Margaret and Aline, Mrs. J. S. Jones and daughter, Miss Frances, and Misses Florence, Ruth, Rosalee, Ima and Lillie Niell and Mrs. Jones and children, Robert, Jimmie and Aline.

FIRE TUESDAY NIGHT

Early Tuesday evening the old frame house occupied by Sarah Kinlaw and her sixteen year old grandson, colored, caught fire and the roof was falling in when the fire alarm was sounded. The house and contents were a total loss. The occupants were not at home.

Mrs. G. A. Hudson returned to her home in Wolfe City last week after visiting for a month with her daughters, Mrs. Hal C. Wingo and Mrs. H. Stephens. She was accompanied home by her grand-daughter, Miss Edith Verne Stephens. Mrs. Wingo took them to Fort Worth on the return trip.

Mrs. Homer Vanderpool and little son Donnie visited relatives in Fort Worth last week. Rev. Vanderpool joined the night and they accompanied him home Tuesday afternoon.

National Guard To Palacios Camp

Saturday morning at two o'clock, twelve officers and fifty-one men left on a special train for Palacios to the annual two weeks encampment and field training at Camp Hulen.

Capt. Sam H. Collier, and Lieut. Dewey L. Pieratt were in charge of the company, with First Sergeant L. Gene Hensley, and Sergeants Alton B. Davis, Mace Blanton, Virgil D. Fulton and Leon A. Wilson assisting. Corporals James D. Brown, Wilburn DuBols, James M. Price, Emmett W. Stiles, Eddie P. Voss and the following privates make up the company. Robert L. Baskett, Willis W. Burney, Walter V. Curry, Robert A. Dempsey, Thomas Desha, Clovis F. Fletcher, Marcus R. Johnson, Vernon L. Johnson, Lenton Oakes, Bryan A. Parker, J. D. Pieratt, Jack L. Price.

Wendell B. Sparkman, W. B. Wilson, Jimmie L. Baird, Joe R. Bell, Leamon Blanton, Charles M. Bowden, B. G. Brown, Holland A. Cheaney, Noel G. Campbell, Weldon W. Clark, Leon DuBols, Alvey Fuller, Martin C. Genz, John D. Harper, Donnie D. Griffith, John Hensley, Arthur W. Hill, Frank M. Hodges, James L. Ingram, J. B. Jackson, Raymond L. Jackson, George O. McGonagill, Robert A. Modawell, Oran R. Mullis, James T. Oakes, John T. Oakes, Roy Phillips, Walter D. Scarborough, Love Simpson, Harvey D. Smith, Idos Smith, Jessie L. Sparkman, Tommie Starnes.

Moving by 11 special trains and several motor convoys, 7,000 officers and men assembled in Palacios last weekend for the two weeks encampment, and things will be lively in that Gulf town until their departure.

Capt. Collier, in a recent statement to the editor, said that his company was composed of 65 men and officers, and he believed his company would measure up to standard second to none, and he expects to bring back proof of that statement when his company returns. Here's hoping, and may we, in some way, be of service to this fine company of young men in the future.

TAYLOR AND McCURE AT PROHIBITION RALLY

The friends of prohibition are urged to attend a prohibition rally at the Baptist Church, Monday, August 12, 3 p. m., to hear Dr. Thos. H. Taylor, President of Howard Payne College, and Dr. J. E. McCure, Presiding Elder of this District.

Let us give these men a good hearing. They want to help us make some definite plans for carrying the election August 24.

Santa Anna to Hold Community Fair

At a recent meeting of the Trades Day Association the members voted to make some changes in the routine of the Trades Day, and hold a Community Fair here early in October.

Several committees are to be appointed to work with people in the rural districts in an effort to assemble exhibits most appropriate for a Community Fair. This writer has had some experience in working with community fairs, and think them well worth the time and effort. The plan is to hold a three days fair and exhibition.

There is an educational phase or value to a community fair. To just what extent the committees will work has not yet been decided, but this writer would like to encourage a general exhibition of livestock, farm products, poultry, turkeys, culinary arts, science exhibits, school exhibits, and in fact, to assemble as many items as can be collected and offer prizes for the best in any class.

May we suggest that farmers begin now to save some of their products. Ten ears of corn is a fair exhibit, ten heads of maize, ten heads of other grain sorghums, one bundle of oats, one bundle of any kind of bundle feed, including small grain, one peck of oats, wheat, barley of other such grain threshed, a good cow, calf, horse, mare, mule, colt, bull or yearling, one pen of chickens, turkeys, one team, where pairs are offered. The H. D. Clubs can supply a number of collections, but let us admonish you now, that much work will be required to put over a community fair and make a creditable showing. Some may just as well prepare for an endurance test and get ready to buckle down to a real task.

The Santa Anna News will cooperate in every way possible for the success of the fair, and would like to see it made an annual affair. More will be said from week to week, and we are open to suggestions.

Another new family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berry and two children, moved to Santa Anna this week to make their future home, taking the place of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Holcomb, who were transferred to Midland.

Mr. Berry is in charge of the Burton-Lingo Company here, the same position he held with the company at Midland prior to moving here. Mr. Berry, however, is not a stranger in Coleman county, having lived in the county a greater part of his life, and was reared in the northern part of the county.

Miss Maurine Walker returned Monday from Graner where she spent the weekend with relatives.

Ex-Rangers

Rangers were in our vicinity.

Trust you all will have a most pleasant three days reunion. I enjoyed so much your special edition in honor of the Texas Rangers last week.

With kindest regards to you and family, I am

Respectfully,
ELIZA GILLILAND,
Editor, The Baird Star.

Bronte, Texas
July 29, 1935.

Mr. J. J. Gregg,
Editor, Santa Anna News,
Santa Anna, Texas.

Dear Bro. Gregg:
This is to acknowledge receipt of your invitation to the big party of the Santa Anna News. Its editor and family and office force.

Replying, I have waited till the last minute, trying to plan so I could be present. But I still do not know what I can do about attending. As you have noted, of course, from the papers, I am about to "break into politics." I am today taking "the final and fatal leap—I am in." Hence, you know that necessarily I am going to be busy as the proverbial "old hen with one chicken." But if I possibly can snatch a few hours to run down I am going to do so.

I want to attend just to grasp the hand of a brother editor who shows the interest in the community welfare of his home town that you are showing in this big, unselfish endeavor. Such as you are "the salt of the earth." If I can attend I will do anything you say to make the event "the biggest affair" possible—I will clean the "hell box," wash the presses, sweep the office floor, run the linotype, or "lick" any displeased subscriber (provided, of course, he is a little "fellow" and he certainly would be "little," if he finds any objection to the kind of paper you issue) to help in making the occasion immortal. You know, of course, I once resided there and owned and operated "The News"—hence, there is "a soft spot in my heart" for the old paper and the dear old town and its people that has survived the dimming effect of the years, and I still "love them in the same old way."

If I am not there, you may know my heart is with you and say to any and all of my friends that I congratulate them on the kind of newspaper and editor and family and force they have in "the old home town." Should I get there, you will know it specially when I get to the table.

With every good wish for you and yours and the dear people of Santa Anna and Coleman county, I am,

Fraternally,
D. M. WEST.

First among our comments was wish to acknowledge the splendid cooperation of the local National Guard Company who so generously supplied the large tents, erected them on the campus, and kept guard over them during the entire period, and supplied the coffee and other refreshments at prices so reasonable we never had a complaint, and for looking after the needs and welfare of the visitors in such a commendable way.

We wish to acknowledge the generous cooperation of the School Board for the use of the premises and the building during the meeting, and especially the fine spirit and cooperation during the entire time by Prof. J. C. Scarborough, who not only devoted his time, but considerable effort to help make the visiting Ex-Rangers and others feel a splendid air of welcome. Thanks to Mr. Scarborough also for a cash donation to help pay the expenses incidental to holding such a convention.

We certainly appreciate the fine cooperation and help rendered by Dr. E. D. McDonald, who is also the Mayor, who never overlooked an opportunity to help entertain our visitors and make them feel welcome. Dr. McDonald does the right things at the proper time to make the surroundings pleasant. Thanks also to Dr. McDonald for a liberal cash donation to apply on expenses.

We also thank Mr. S. M. Robinson for a cash donation to apply on the miscellaneous expenses.

First to Register

Among the first to report for registration was Capt. John R. Hughes of El Paso, who served as Captain of the Texas Rangers for 25 years. Capt. Hughes drove here in his little 1924 Model T Ford Coupe, and camped along the way. He is near 90, jolly, happy, good natured and says he gets something out of life every day that is worth living for. His presence added considerable to the convention. S. P. Eikins of Tishomingo, Oklahoma, who celebrated his 91st birthday July 18th, was in the Ranger service several years, and was the oldest Ex-Ranger present. He paid a visit to old Camp Colorado Post while here, it being his first visit to the Old Post in 65 years.

Charles Shaw of Texline was a very active visitor, and added much to the convention.

Capt. Luke Dowe of Del Rio was a live visitor, and his congenial style and manner was noticeable throughout the convention. Capt. Dowe served as a Custom House officer on the border for several years, is a real fellow, and greatly enjoyed his visit in Santa Anna.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar T. Neal of Lubbock were active among the visitors and were serviceable factors while here. Mr. Neal served as sheriff of San Saba county for 16 years, and has served in the Ranger service under five governors. Mrs. Neal is an active worker and news writer.

W. H. Rishworth of Center Point was an active man in the convention, and brought with him some treasured relics, some of them were purchased in London, England, and were said to be over one hundred years old.

J. Allen Newton of Galveston is also an active man and added much to the success of the convention.

J. C. Goar of Johnson City is an active Ex-Ranger, and was a valuable asset to the convention.

Others were active men, and added considerable to the success of the convention, but we do not have the time and space to make a special mention of each, but we hope each of you return to the next reunion and encampment one year from now.

Santa Anna will be better organized and have more active committees next year, and we will look forward to the time of your return with much pleasure and anticipation.

Major Black, you are certainly to be commended for your valued services. It is remarkable how you work and serve your comrades of other days. This writer was glad to render you every service possible while you and your comrades were here, and we are still at your service in any capacity we can fill. May you continue to live and serve, and your tribe increase.

Mrs. Lee Knight of Lometa was among the active ones who exerted her best efforts for the success of the convention. Mrs. Knight rendered a splendid vocal rendition "Dying Ranger" Thursday morning, which, according to our understanding, was her own composition. We have the poetry of the song, and expect to publish it at some future date.

Mrs. Ruby Green Smith and her good husband, Roy Smith, of Odessa, were on the job and rendered a valuable service to the success of the convention.

Mrs. Smith is secretary of the Association.

Dr. G. W. Beakley of Levelland, a former citizen of this vicinity, was here, and was a valuable asset to the convention.

A Tribute

The following tribute was read before the convention Thursday morning, composed by a daughter of an Ex-Ranger, her name being withheld by request.

"The Ex-Ranger—gallant and intrepid old warrior—long ago his heart was settled and his face was set to drive out the invader and to stamp out the law evader. Yet on his face is written, as well as determination, kindness and fun and that spirit of neighborliness which made the country they protected good to live in.

How valiantly would you mount a horse and ride all day and all night tonight and all day and all night tomorrow night? How bravely would you watch ahead for Indians and, sighting them, urge your tired body and exhausted horse into battle with a greater number of better mounted men? How would you face a hundred mile return on horseback with a wounded comrade to be carried as comfortably as possible, with no food but a few pecans, no shelter from the rain or the sun or the snow?

"My right leg is not much good," said an old Ranger. "We trailed an Indian band in a blizzard in my Ranger days, and as we were riding west, the right leg of every man in the scout was frozen a little."

"The Ex-Ranger! Hats off to him! Honor him and his steady bravery! And pray that his kind will never vanish, that the noble character, which made Texas will remain to carry on the Texas which the Ranger band wrought."

Mentioned in the resolutions will be found a number of ladies and young girls whose services were valuable and greatly appreciated. We wish to commend them for their thoughtfulness and fine service.

Among others who took part in the well being and comfort of the visitors who are not mentioned in the resolutions are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vanderford, who opened the doors of their good home to visitors and entertained two of the most elderly visitors during the entire time.

No matter how many times the names of Mrs. J. R. Banister, Mrs. R. C. Gay, Mrs. Annie Weaver, and Mrs. Chas. Bruce appear on the honor roll, they should all be mentioned again.

Ranks Are Thinning
The following members have passed to their reward since the last meeting, and a brief memorial service was held in their honor during the last session of the convention.

D. N. Arnett, Colorado, Texas; J. R. Barnett, Groesvenor, Texas; T. E. Carter, Gorman, Texas; F. W. Horler, Miami, Texas; M. G. Judd, Bandera, Texas; John Kenney, San Antonio, Texas; W. W. Lewis, Menard, Texas; A. L. McCoy, San Saba, Texas; June Peak, Dallas, Texas; J. T. Pope, Anson, Texas; D. W. Roberts, Austin, Texas; G. W. Steel, Breckenridge, Texas; and F. C. Striegler, Fredericksburg, Texas.

We wish to make personal mention of the West Texas Utlities Company, the Banner Ice Company and the Santa Anna Ice and Cold Storage Company for their cooperation. Each of them rendered valuable services.

Auxiliary Organized
An Auxiliary organization composed of the sons and daughters and other descendants of Ex-Rangers has been agitated for several years, and was perfected here during the session.

The purpose of the Auxiliary is to further the aims of the Ex-Rangers Association and to commemorate the glorious achievements and the unselfish services of the Ex-Ranger to this state. A representation of the Auxiliary at the Texas Centennial in connection with the Ex-Rangers is planned. An urgent invitation to all children and grandchildren of Ex-Rangers is extended.

Mrs. R. C. Gay was elected president, and Mrs. Charley

Bruce secretary. Both parties live in Santa Anna, and Santa Anna was made the permanent meeting place for the Auxiliary.

Several copies of this paper are being mailed to Ex-Rangers and families of deceased members, and any one desiring membership in the Auxiliary may send their application to Mrs. Charley Bruce, Santa Anna, Texas, with fifty cents for one year's dues and you will receive announcements of the future meetings and other information incidental to the carrying on of the organization.

Last week a number of local items and personal mentions entrusted to the editor were overlooked. It was not a matter of indifference, it was just a matter of being over taxed. This editor fully intended to prepare a lot of stuff for the columns of this paper Monday, but those good old Ex-Rangers, our invited guests, began arriving Monday morning, and after the first ones arrived we devoted our entire time and energies to their entertainment until the convention closed and each of them were enroute home, and then it was too late for us to do our stuff. We just wrote a brief sketch of the convention and passed the matter of getting out the paper on to the children, went home and retired. Charge all mishaps to us, for it was our fault, if any.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ford, Jr. returned to their home in Houston Sunday night after visiting for a week in the J. E. Ford home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lov Singleton of Bedias are planning to visit next week in the home of Mrs. Singleton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Newman.

THE RED & WHITE STORES

Editors Jas. C. White and Clark Coursey of the Brownwood Daily Bulletin were among the visitors at the editor's party in the Park Wednesday evening of last week and both wrote rather elaborate articles about the Ex-Rangers convention, and also mentioned the editor in their epistles. Editor White, who writes the feature column on the Bulletin, mingled his language in such a beautiful form we intend to reproduce it in this issue of the paper, just to show our readers what other folks have to read.

Mrs. Coursey accompanied the Brownwood editors here.

The editor greatly enjoyed having editor Harry Schwenker of the Brady Standard, and son Harry, Jr., over to attend our party Wednesday evening. Mr. Schwenker is among the upper classmen in the field of weekly newspapers in Texas, however, his is a semi-weekly, and rated among the best.

Jim Bob Gregg of the News force and Gene Richardson of Rockwood are out Pecos way, enjoying a vacation. The boys intend to visit the famous Carlsbad Caverns while gone, and no telling what else, if their pocket change holds out. Miss Frances Gregg accompanied them to Roscoe, where she is visiting a few days with her friend, Miss Juanita Pitman, a former school mate.

Thanks to our good friend M. A. Pritchard for a fine Tom Watson watermelon, presented Wednesday morning. The editor and family greatly enjoyed the treat.

Misses Bess Strickland, Ruby Nell Hodge, and Freda Mae Blankey of Fort Worth are visiting with Miss Jean Wingo.

Mrs. S. J. Ployman of Abilene spent, last weekend with Mrs. E. J. Merritt. They visited in Brownwood Sunday morning.

What is the yardstick for a cigarette...

Take mildness for one thing—how does it measure up for mildness? Chesterfields are milder—not flat or insipid, of course, but with a pleasing flavor.

Then take taste for another thing—does it have plenty of taste? Chesterfields taste better—not strong but just right.

In other words, They Satisfy—that's my yardstick for a cigarette.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Chas. Hale and Mrs. George England entertained with a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Irene McCreary, bride-elect of Will Edwin Routh of Abilene. Mr. Routh is employed by the Banner Co. for the summer, but will teach in the Overton High School in the fall. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out during the afternoon. As guests entered they were asked to register with a wish for the bride. The program included a vocal solo by Mrs. Lee Hunter accompanied by Miss Pauline England; Reading by Miss Ernestine Thames; Vocal solo by Miss Francine Merritt, with Miss England at the piano; reading by little Nancy Jane Wingo; and Toast to the Bride by Mrs. Dennis Kelley. Little Jodie Hal England appeared at the door at the close of the program, and announced that he had some ice for Miss McCreary, and proceeded to drive into the room a miniature Banner truck. Nancy Jane Wingo assisted by pushing. When the truck was unloaded by the little folks, the "ice" was found to be many gifts for the honoree. White cake and brick ice cream with heart center were served to the following guests: Mrs. T. T. McCreary and Miss Mattie Ella McCreary, and Messdames E. J. Merritt, A. D. Donham, Will Bell, W. J.
