Cheerful Giver

CHARLES J. LOVELL, RECORD DONOR.

No "grouchy blood donor" is Charles J. Lovell, whose mystery thriller, The Crime of the Grouchy Blood Donor, is being published shortly. One of America's leading donors, the young Pasadena, Calif. writer and humorist gave fifty pints to the Red Cross during the war.

A member of numerous mountaineering groups in the U. S., Canada and Mexico, he credits a strenuous outdoor life with the ability to make these generous donations without physical harm. One of his post-war projects is a 2500 mile hike over the crest of the Sierra Nevada and Cascade Ranges, from Teacote Lookout, on the Mexican border, to Hope, B. C.

Carnival Goes Over Successfully

The weatherman finally smiled upon us Saturday, and the carnival spirit was revived. A lovely afternoon and evening, with a jolly good crowd, the carnival went over very successfully, thanks to the continued pushing of the working committees.

Lion L. A. Welch, the general chairman, probably was the factor who did more to put it over than any other. He kept on keeping on until the job was done in the right way. However, Lions, Mulroy, Griffin, Oakes and others never ceased their efforts, stayed in there and pitched, boosted and worked until it was all well done.

The entire membership of the Club wish to extend their thanks to the public for your friendly cooperation and support of the carnival. The proceeds are now in the bank and will enable the Lions Club to meet a number of appeals for aid and charitable calls. Thanks a million.

A very busy place this week has been on the grocery side of the Pettijohn Store, where they are selling out a large stock of staple groceries at cost. Mr. Pettijohn plans to enlarge his hardware business and discontinue the groceries, therefore, many bargains are found on the shelves of the former W. R. Kelley & Co. store. R. B. Barnett Buried Friday

Funeral services were held at Salem Church, near Buffalo, last Friday afternoon for R. B. Barnett, who died Thursday night in Coleman.

Mr. Barnett was generally conceded to be the most successful turkey raiser, for a small scale grower, in these parts of the country. He seemed to have a knack of some kind that others could not cope with. He was 73 years old, and retired.

Pvt. H. A. Burden, wife and two little daughters went to Dallas Saturday to attend a homecoming at Buckner Orphans Home, where Mrs. Burden was reared, returning Monday. Pvt. Burden returned Thursday to Fort Lewis, Washington for further assignment in the U. S. Army.

Miss Marjorie Oakes will leave this weekend with Todd Oakes for Tulare, Calif.

Mountaineers To Meet Wyley Squad In Abilene Tonight

Tonight, Friday, Oct. 19, at the McMurry Stadium in Abilene at 7:30 the Mountaineers will tangle with the eleven from Wyley High School. Wyley is located about 3 miles from Abilene and they have not had a football team there for the same time we have not had one here. This has the prospects of being one of the better games for the boys here this season.

The boys put up a good fight at Coleman last Friday, but were up against a well trained and football educated team. The score said they lost the game 27-0, but the boys were not beat in this game. It takes spirit and the will to win any game. So lets talk it up to the boys. If we, as the ones who are backing them, will encourage them every time we see one of them they will win.

The game tonight is a well matched game and the spirit is good. So boys you can win, if you will put all you have in this game. Lets come back here this time with the top score in our favor.

The starting line-up for the Mountaineers is:

Blake, LE; Cobb, V, LT; Stafford, LG; Bostick, C; McClatchey, RG; McSwain, RT; Gilmore, RE; Kingsbery, LHB; England, RHB; Lovelady, QB; and Newman, FB.

Editor and Wife Attend Trail Blazers Meeting

This editor, accompanied by Mrs. Gregg, drove over to Rising Star Monday, our former home, where we greatly enjoyed the day meeting former friends and renewing acquaintances.

The occasion was the annual celebration and barbecue luncheon of the Old Trail Blazers of the Heart of Texas. More time would have been required to permit that bunch of pioneers opportunity to move the clock of time back for a half century and lived again some of the days those fine old trail blazers lived in the past. When old friends get-together and start unraveling the things that happened in the long ago, forgetting the minor unpleasant happenings and only living over the finer and better things of life, they are the happiest and jolliest people on earth.

Several who have lived the three score and ten, some the four score and ten, a large number having obtained the full four score of years, still alert and good natured, were present.

This editor spent the first ten years of our family life in Rising Star, where we started house-keeping and ventured out into a new advent in life, that of rearing a family. Although, we have been here twenty five years our thoughts often reflect back to many pleasant memories of those days spent in Rising Star. It was a pleasure beyond expression to return to our former home and refresh our friendships of former days.

Leon Todd, Ph.M.1-c and Mrs. Todd are here visiting his father and family, Mr. R. L. Todd. He served in the Pacific for 14 months aboard the USS-ATA 180. He arrived here Friday with his discharge after 4 years service, and has 5 battle stars on his Asiatic Pacific Ribbon. He is the husband of the former Miss Jimmie Roberts of Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whetstone visited in Goldthwaite Monday and Wednesday they attended the funeral of one of their cousins in Lohn.

Babson Discusses Fall Outlook

New York, N. Y., Oct. 19—I am sure that the newspapers have much more grief than the situation warrants. Naturally, the thinking people are upset by the strike stories, but these strikes may be more psychological coming as a reaction from the war rather than merely economic. The plants that I have visited show good progress toward re-conversion. The voters have more confidence in their Congress and President than they have had for a long time. The situation looks good.

Thirteen Forecasts
 General Business—Good as long as the peoples' money holds out, which should be for two or three years. Certainly, there is nothing now to worry about.

Labor Demands—Raises of from 10 percent to 15 percent in basic wages with possibly a 35-hour week in certain industries which now have no over-time pay. Certainly, retailers should favor this.

Employment—If women return to their homes and those over 65 go to work and all under 18 go back to school, there need be no unemployment.

Agriculture—1945 and 1946 should be good years for farmers; but after this both demand for agricultural products and the prices therefor will decline.

New Building—If prices are held in line there should be a great boom in new building, especially in the suburban areas.

Retail Sales—These will continue high with a record-breaking Christmas. The only detriment will be the lack of sufficient parking space.

Legislation—Conditions in Washington are getting better every day. President Truman thus far has the confidence of all groups, including the persecuted utilities.

Commodity Prices—With the vast supply of idle capital, commodities, with a few exceptions, will surely rise in price. This especially applies to manufactured

FAMOUS U. S. ARMY DIVISIONS

86th INFANTRY DIVISION

THE BLACK HAWK, first division to return intact from Europe and train for Pacific duty, was preparing for service in the Orient when Japan surrendered. In the European theater it was distinguished as the first division to cross the Danube, when on April 26, 1945, its units spearheading the Third Army, moved over the river under fire. It took several enemy strong points and on May 5 reached Perwang, Austria, where it saw the close of hostilities.

The division was first activated August 25, 1917, at Camp Grant, Illinois, its original personnel being drafted from Illinois and Wisconsin. A year later it was transferred overseas to East Bordeaux for training. On October 3, 1918, it was ordered skeletonized and returned to the United States. In the present war it was activated in December, 1942, and assigned to Camp Howse, Texas, under the X Corps, Third Army. The 86th participated in Louisiana maneuvers and later was given intensive amphibious training in expectation of a Pacific assignment.

In February, 1945, the division embarked for the European theater. Its component units were the 341st, 342nd and 343d Infantry regiments and the 404th, 331st, 332nd and 911th Field Artillery battalions. It served with the Fifteenth Army in the battle of the Rhine, the First Army in the battle of the Ruhr pocket and the Seventh and Third Armies in Bavaria. It saw 42 days of combat duty. After holding defensive positions at Cologne it traveled to Lutzel for its first offensive action and captured a long series of enemy towns in rapid time. Moving 230 miles to Offenheim April 18-21, the division again entered offensive action, taking Schestatt, Eitensheim and Ingolstadt. Its commanding general in overseas service was Major General Harris M. Melasky.

Nicknamed the Black Hawk Division, its shoulder patch is a black hawk on a red background. The letters "B H" appear in the insignia.

Real Estate—Small farms and suburban land will sell higher in 1946; but big farms and most city property are now selling at top prices.

Bonds and Non-Taxables—These are selling too high. With the coming cut in Federal taxes, the demand for such bonds will surely fall off.

Stock Markets—Railroad stocks will decline further, but many industrials will sell much higher, especially the merchandising and chemical stocks.

Foreign Trade—This should be good for awhile; but before long competition from China, Russia and other European countries will be very severe. Either our labor leaders must change their attitudes or we are licked.

Bomb may really crystalize the United Nations into a workable World Organization which may bring peace for 50 years. This fact, aided by the profits which the U. S. will get from the Atomic Energy monopoly, may enable the Federal Debt to be paid off.

What About After 1950?
 Now let us look ahead to about 1950, or after.

1. Competition from cheap foreign labor will be pressing us from the right.

2. Organized domestic labor will be striking us from the left.

3. A situation will arrive when people have spent their excess money, and will again be thrifty.

4. All the above may mean 10,000,000 unemployed around 1950. Will this cause Social uprisings? Watch Russia and England!

As to what social effects this might have upon us depends upon whether Russia will then have made a success of Communism and how England and other countries will have got on with Socialism. No one now can foretell what these results will be. If we then have 10,000,000 unemployed and these other countries have none, the United States is headed for a social revolution. But nothing now indicates that this unequal condition will then exist. Both Communism and Socialism are now in test tubes. No one knows whether either will succeed. Besides, the new Atomic Energy may develop a great new industry and save the situation.

"RUN ALONG, WOLF - YOU'RE WASTING YOUR TIME!"

Oh, I admit it, there was a time when you could send cold shivers down my back... a few times when I literally didn't eat! But you can't scare me now, wolfy! And here's why... Ever since I got my war job, I've been buying War Bonds—and holding them. Furthermore, as soon as my husband went overseas, I started putting his allotment into War Bonds, too! He doesn't know it yet, but he's not going to be afraid of you, either! Oh sure, the gals make fun of me at times.

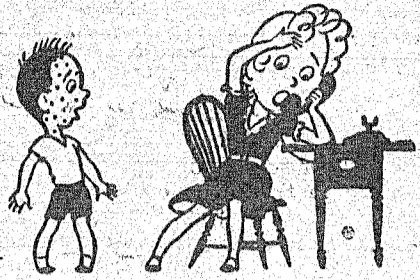

Call me a tightwad when I won't loosen up for expensive clothes, or trinkets, or parties. But I don't care. I like that "I've-got-money-back-of-me" feeling! So run along, wolfy, and sniff at somebody else's door, 'cause we've got one of the very best nest eggs a family can have—War Bonds. Yes indeed, buying and holding series "E" Victory Bonds is the easiest and safest way there is to turn every $3 into $4 in 10 years!

RED CROSS HOME NURSING

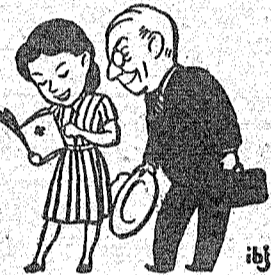

WHAT'S YOUR IQ ON SYMPTOMS?

SILLY SUSAN — When Johnny is tired and irritable, complains of a headache and sore throat, she tells him to run out and play with the other youngsters. "Fresh air will make you feel better." A few hours later Johnny is running a high temperature and his face is covered with angry red spots. Susan frantically telephones the doctor exclaiming helplessly that Johnny is dying of some strange disease.

CAPABLE CATHY—She takes Billy's temperature and pulse, reporting his symptoms accurately to the doctor by telephone. She puts him to bed immediately in a room by himself, and feeds him only liquids until the doctor arrives. When the doctor says Billy may be coming down with measles, she knows her prompt action has made Billy's recovery quicker and protected other children in the community.

HELP YOUR DOCTOR — HOME NURSING SHOWS YOU HOW—You'll learn how to give simple treatments, how to feed a patient on a soft, liquid, or normal diet, and how to keep a patient comfortable in bed. All courses are taught by a professional nurse.

If there is no home nursing course offered at present in your community, ask your Red Cross chapter how you may help organize one.

TEXAS AND ANNEXATION
By Dr. E. C. Barker

Though the precise date at which the Republic of Texas was merged with the United States is of no practical importance, it is a topic of intermittent popular discussion and antiquarian interest. Puzzlement arises from the fact that the process of annexation is confused with the dramatic ceremony that accompanied the transition of the government from republic to state.

Briefly, the Congress of the United States passed the annexation resolution on March 1, 1845. President Tyler approved it and instructed Andrew Jackson Donelson, American minister in Texas, to present it to the Texan authorities and urge its prompt acceptance.

President Anson Jones called a special session of the Texas Congress to meet in June and a convention of duly elected delegates to assemble at Austin on going between, the overall age limits of 17 to 32 years, in addition to ex-Marines discharged less than 90 days.

The Lone Star Leatherneck stated the office was re-opened last week as a result of a gigantic recruiting drive ordered by Marine Corps headquarters. Covering 26 counties, this office will enlist men without military experience between 17 and 26 years of age. Veterans of the armed services up to 32 years old, who have been separated from their particular branch of service less than a year, are also able to join the Leatherneck ranks, providing they are found qualified.

It was particularly emphasized by Sergeant Reeder that to ex-Marines, out of uniform less than 90 days, special inducements are offered toward their re-enlistment. They can be taken back into the Corps at their former rank anytime within the 90-day period and be given balance of that time as re-enlistment furlough. Following termination of the 90 days, they can be transferred to duty at their choice of any Marine station in the United States.

Complete and detailed information regarding enlistments with Uncle Sam's famed Marines will be furnished upon the asking by Sgt. Reeder who pointed out that a new plan of the Corps is to accept men for either three or four years of service.

The numerous advantages offered men who volunteer for service in the Marine Corps, including a chance to learn a trade, complete an education and receive the benefits of travel, are first hand knowledge to Sergeant Reeder who has served both during peace and war time.

Reeder, who spent many months aboard ship as part of the Marine detachment before being sent into island warfare, was wounded while with assault troops in the Pacific. He can be contacted daily in the Abilene Post Office by letter or in person between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Interested persons are urged to contact Sergeant Reeder at their earliest opportunity to investigate whether or not they can fit into the Marine Corps post-war enlistment program.

the 4th of July. Both Congress and convention formally accepted the terms offered by the United States, and the convention proceeded to frame the first state constitution.

The constitution was ratified by popular vote in October, and was accepted by the Congress of the United States on December 29, 1845. By this act Texas became the 28th state of the Union.

Following the admission of Texas, it was necessary for the people to elect state officers. This being done, the legislature assembled on February 16, and on February 19, 1845, President Jones, in an impressive ceremony, delivered the government to Governor J. Pickney Henderson and declared, "The Republic of Texas is no more." Calling attention to the happy merging of the two republics, "not by violence and disorder, but by the deliberate and free choice of its citizens," he closed his speech with an eloquent peroration.

"The lone star of Texas," he said, "which ten years since arose amid clouds over fields of carnage, and obscurely shone for a while, has culminated, and following an inscrutable destiny, has passed on and become fixed forever in that glorious constellation which all free men and lovers of freedom in the world must reverence and adore—the American Union."

"Blending its rays with its sister states, long may it continue to shine and may a gracious Heaven smile upon the consummation of the wishes of the two republics now joined in one. May the Union be perpetual and may it be the means of conferring benefit and blessings upon the people of all the states, is my ardent prayer."

As he ended, the Lone Star flag was lowered and the flag of the United States took its place.

Rabies More Prevalent In Winter Than Summer

Austin, Texas—Contrary to popular belief, rabies is more prevalent in winter than in the so-called "dog-days" of summer.

In a statement released this week by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, it was disclosed that in the mid-winter month of February last year the State Laboratory examined 312 animal brains for the presence of rabies over thirty-seven per cent of which tested positive, whereas in August only 155 brains were examined, thirty per cent of which were positive.

"If all stray dogs were destroyed, and all pets vaccinated for rabies, it would go far toward stamping out this justly feared fatal disease," Dr. Cox said.

The doctor stressed that dogs suspected of having rabies should not be killed immediately but should instead be confined ten days for observation to see if the disease develops. If a dog sickens and dies during the observation period, the head should be packed in ice and sent to the State Health Department for examination. Freezing the brain, or killing the dog prematurely, or in such a manner as to injure the brain may make correct laboratory findings uncertain if not impossible.

Dr. Cox declared that after a dog is confined ten days and then killed, there is still ample time for a victim of his bite to be treated for rabies prevention, but he cautioned that if the disease is found to be present in the dog, the victim should then begin treatment without further delay.

Men In Service

Ed Spencer, Jr., Seaman first class, 19, USNR, has been enjoying some pleasant duty on the destroyer Gridley for the past several months. Following a long and successful tour of combat duty in the Pacific, the Gridley was ordered to Mediterranean waters.

Seaman first class Spencer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spencer, Sr. of this city.

In the Mediterranean Seaman first class Spencer saw famous World War II battle locations such as Naples, Marseille, and Palermo. He went ashore on France's famed Riviera, swimming and sight-seeing at such vacation resorts as Nice, Cannes, and Villefranche-Sur-Mer. Plenty of shore leave was also available in Algiers, Gibraltar, Oran, and Casablanca. Seaman Spencer says that he has many souvenirs from these exotic ports and he also says, "I really learned to appreciate the good old U.S.A."

Jack Reed of the Trickham community arrived home Monday from the European Theater and is home for a few days before going to Ft. Sam Houston to receive his discharge. He landed in New York Oct. 9 and went to San Antonio and due to crowded circumstances was sent home and has to report back the 19th for his discharge. He was overseas about 32 months and served in Casablanca, Sicily, Italy, Southern France, and Germany and he wears the ETO ribbon with 5 battle stars, the Bronze Star and the Good Conduct Medal.

Pfc. J. L. VanDyke, Jr., husband of Mrs. Zelda VanDyke, Coleman, and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. VanDyke, Santa Anna, was presented today with the Silver Star Medal by Lt. Col. Clyde Kernek, commanding officer of Brooke Convalescent Hospital, Brooke Hospital Center, Ft. Sam Houston, Texas, where VanDyke has been a patient.

He was awarded the medal for gallantry in action on March 11, 1945 in the vicinity of Rimling, France. When an enemy raiding party had infiltrated into the platoon area, Private VanDyke, on guard at the time opened fire with his Browning automatic rifle when the enemy had reached a point within thirty yards of his position.

He was immediately rushed and wounded by a hand grenade. Despite his wounds he continued to fire on the advancing group, thus relieving the pressure on the rest of his platoon and enabling them to open fire, with the result that the raiding party was completely routed. His courage and devotion to duty prevented his platoon from being overrun and merits the highest praise.

A member of Co. G, 71st Infantry Regiment, 44th Division, he spent eight months overseas and wears the Combat Infantry-

RED CROSS HOME NURSING

ARE YOU AS SMART AS YOUR BABY?

WHEN YOUR BABY CRIES do you fly into a panic, wring your hands and wonder, "Oh dear, what can the matter be?" Try giving him a bottle of water if he cries between feeding times. He might only be thirsty. Or loosen his clothing so that he can move freely. Your baby's cries are not always a sign of serious trouble. He just wants to tell you that he needs attention.

WHEN JACK REFUSES HIS CARROTS do you angrily force him to eat them or threaten, "I'll take you to the doctor unless you do?" A wise mother would substitute another food of equal value or gradually teach him to like carrots by feeding them to him in small amounts. Young children have taste likes and dislikes just as adults do. And never instill fear of the doctor in a child's mind with threats.

RED CROSS HOME NURSING teaches you how to care for yourself before the baby is born and how to care for him during the pre-school years. You also learn what precautions will prevent illness in your family and how to be of assistance to your doctor when illness does occur.

If there is no home nursing course offered at present in your community, ask your Red Cross chapter how you may help organize one.

man Badge, Purple Heart, the Good Conduct Medal, and the European Theater of Operations ribbon with one campaign star. He received his discharge Wednesday, October 17th.

Pvt. Morris H. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wallace, left last week for overseas duty going to the Pacific.

Mrs. Ila Greenlee received a telephone call from her husband Monday and learned that he had arrived in the United States from the European Theater and that he expects to be home soon.

Robert Jo Cheaney will leave Sunday for Ann Arbor, Michigan where he will study architecture and interior design at the University of Michigan. Robert Jo received his discharge from the Army last week.

Esquire Tells Life Story Of Davy Crockett

From November issue of Esquire
The man who achieved immortality as Texas' hero of the Alamo, Davy Crockett, is much more than a legend when you look into the story of his life and his principles. And Kurt Steel reveals the real Davy Crockett in his article in the November Esquire—for Davy Crockett is an American epic and his life, though filled with failures, when measured by lasting human standards, was actually a lusty success.

Davy Crockett, pioneer, Indian fighter, bear hunter, teller of tall tales, martyr of the Alamo, had politics thrust on him while he was still in his twenties. He was appointed one of the magistrates of a small pioneer Tennessee settlement. From there he was elected to the Tennessee legislature and re-elected for a second term. It was during this term that Crockett was compelled by his rawhide sense of honesty to vote against the man who had been his greatest hero. Andrew Jackson, whose name was already in nomination for the presidency, was also put up by party hacks for a seat in the Senate against a Senator Williams, popular candidate for reelection. Since national senators were elected by the members of the state legislature, Jackson's name, as the machine intended, easily defeated Williams. But Crockett, convinced that Williams was an able senator, voted against Old Hickory on this local issue. Jackson men threatened reprisal, but Crockett's independence pleased the voters in his district and in 1827 they elected him to Congress.

As a congressman elected on Jackson's ticket from Jackson's own state, Davy started his Washington career trying honestly to support the President's policies. But his own rugged independence was too much for him and little by little Davy's differences with his one-time hero grew painfully acute. In 1835 Davy said good-bye to Congress with a sentence that typifies his real character. Leaving the capitol for the last time, Crockett squared his shoulders and said proudly, "I wear no man's collar." He never did.

Crockett's discouragement in Congress left him with an inevitable decision. He picked up his rifle and headed west. In Texas he found the country he sought and planned to settle a 4,000 acre homestead on the Red River and build his fortunes anew. There was seething excitement in San Antonio when Crockett arrived in January, 1836—settlers had proclaimed the separate Republic of Texas and Santa Anna was assembling his army for open war.

Barely two months later, at the age of 49, he was killed defending the Alamo when Santa Anna's 6,000 soldiers closed murderously in on a garrison of 183 riflemen. But Davy's eagerness to serve the new Republic was not futile, for the defense of the Alamo roused Texas to a new pitch of rebellion. By the end of April Santa Anna's army was destroyed, the dictator a prisoner and the independence of Texas assured.

For twenty years Crockett "Almanacs" were published annually from one end of the country to the other. Davy became the first of the dime novel heroes, and by the time of the Civil War his saga had reached epic proportions. But, concludes Steel in Esquire, none of these colorful anecdotes typifies the real character of Davy Crockett as did that simple account of his farewell to Washington.

Servicemen's Bodies To Be Brought Back

A program to bring bodies of servicemen buried overseas back to the United States will begin next spring, the Disabled American Veterans has been informed by the Memorial Division of the Quartermaster Corps.

The War Department said remains will be brought back to this country in the finest caskets available and will be delivered hermetically sealed.

As the caskets arrive in the United States, the War Department announced, they will be shipped to key distribution points. From here they will be forwarded to such places as designated by next of kin.

Each body will be accompanied by an attendant, and will be covered by an American flag.

According to present plans, the nearest of kin will be given an opportunity to decide whether or not they desire to have the remains of their loved ones returned. If 70 per cent of the families decide to have the bodies from a certain area returned, all of the bodies in that area will be returned.

Clays for the manufacture of bricks are found in approximately 60 Texas counties.

Oct. 21 Designated Navy Sunday

New Orleans, La.—October 21, which has been designated as Navy Sunday, will be a special day of tribute to the men in all the services who lost their lives at sea in the defense of the United States.

The Navy League is asking the American people everywhere to send one flower to one of the designated ports nearest their own community in time to arrive before midnight on October 20. The League suggests that wherever possible the flower sent be either home grown or wild, and in no case should the expenditure exceed a modest sum.

In the Eighth Naval District, comprising seven southern states and the northwest portion of Florida, the ports named are Pensacola, Florida; Mobile, Alabama; and Corpus Christi, Texas. In mailing not more than one flower to any one of these three ports they should be addressed care of the following:

Senior Chaplain, U. S. Navy Port Director, Mobile, Alabama.

All flowers received by these chaplains will be placed on Naval vessels, and following appropriate all-faith ceremonies at the respective docksides, a ship will proceed to sea from each port and when the vessel reaches a point beyond the sight of land the flowers will be scattered on the waters.

AN URGENT MESSAGE TO EVERY PEACE-LOVING AMERICAN

How to Help Keep Trouble From Brewing This Winter

"What's this talk of trouble brewing?" you ask. "Isn't the war just over?"

Yes... but another kind of war goes on for millions of people in Europe and the Far East. The war against hunger. Disease. Desperation. It's the people's fight for a chance to raise their heads. A chance to live again like human beings.

"How does that lead to trouble?"

When millions are desperately hungry and sick — then there's danger of uprisings, anarchy. For people who live with starvation at their side, who have little to look forward to in the way of new hope, soon become desperate people.

"What has this to do with me?"

It has everything to do with you. For there can be no true and lasting peace in America while there is unrest in Europe or the Far East. It is a threat to your peace — and the peace of the world — if we do not help our friends and Allies in Europe, the Philippines, and China, to rise again.

"Aren't the governments of our country and our Allies helping to relieve this situation?"

Much is being done by our own and Allied governments. But much that governments cannot do is needed. As President Truman said on this score... "The private agencies of the National War Fund have a special task to do that is indispensable and unique."

"How can I help?"

You can help our friends and Allies — and help build a sounder peace for everybody — by giving through your local community campaign to the National War Fund. For part of every dollar you give sends food for their weak. Medicines for their sick. Clothes and shelter for their ragged and homeless. But the biggest thing your money helps buy is freedom from despair. New hope to go on. Faith to believe again in mankind.

"How about our own people?"

Yes, there's still a job to be done for our own, as well as for our Allies. For our own service men and merchant marine abroad — through the U.S.O. and United Seamen's Service. For our own people right here at home — through the local health and welfare agencies of our Community War Fund.

Give generously to your local community campaign, won't you? In Victory, your dollars are still needed!

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MAKING THE HOME CHRISTIAN

LESSON TEXT—Luke 10:33-42; 1 Corinthians 13:4-13. GOLDEN TEXT—Love suffereth long, and is kind.—1 Corinthians 13:4.

Things do not just happen. It takes praying and planning and real effort to accomplish a worth-while purpose. We are thinking these weeks of the home as a Christian center of influence. We trust that many are asking in their hearts, "What can I do to make my home really Christian?"

The answer is clear. A home will be Christian when those in it are Christian and put their Christianity into daily practice. First, you must be sure of your own salvation and that of the members of your household. Then you can proceed to put the principles of godliness to work.

Our lesson presents the believing home as one that is well-balanced. There is both:

I. Work and Worship (Luke 10:38-42).

No home can be a place of comfort and pleasant fellowship without much work. A disorderly, dirty or run-down house is a disgrace and a discouragement to all that is finest in the relations of those who live in it.

Home need not be a mansion. It does not have to be richly furnished, but it does need to be clean and orderly. Meals must be made. Cleaning must be done. So far Martha was right, but she went too far. She let the labor of the household hinder her from what she so deeply needed—fellowship, not only with her family but with the Lord.

Now, notice that Mary had not shrunk her duty to share the work. Observe the word "also" in verse 39. She had worked, but she also sat at Jesus' feet. She knew when it was time to call a halt to labor and make the most of good comradeship. Blessed wisdom! Would that many burdened housewives would learn of Mary!

Jesus made it clear that life in the home is to strike a proper balance between work and worship. If you do not know where to make the division in your home, err on the side of worship. Give that more time than it should have rather than less.

Alas, is it not true that in most homes, even in Christian homes, worship is almost, if not entirely, forgotten? Something should be done about that. Will you do it in your home?

II. Love and Longsuffering (1 Cor. 13:4-7).

We are apt to think of love as the warm feeling of interest and emotion which suffuses one's nature in moments of special pleasantness or of intimate fellowship. But life is not made up of a succession of pleasant incidents, of sunny afternoons and moonlit evenings.

Life is real; it is earnest, and often it is drab and irritating. What about such times? Can love meet them? Yes, for love knows how to be longsuffering.

But someone may ask, Does love really work, or is this just a fine-sounding but obsolete theory? It works!

Think of the things in life which irritate and depress us. Then put opposite them the qualities of Christian love as given in verses 4 to 7, and you will agree that what this world needs most of all is love. Remember that talking about love, or reading about it, or studying it in the Sunday school will not make it effective. We must put it into practice. Why not start now? You will be surprised at the results.

III. Promise and Perfection (vv. 8-13).

Christianity has a hope, and that is not just a vague wishing that something might come to pass; it is a sure hope. In Christ all the rich promise of prophecy, of faith, of hope will come to pass.

The Christian home is the place to teach boys and girls to believe with assurance that He who has begun a good work in us "will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ" (Phil. 1:6).

We who see only dimly shall one day see our Lord face to face, and love shall abide through all eternity. Many gifts are only temporary in their usefulness; in fact, almost everything that man makes or does (apart from his service for God) is transient.

Even as vital a matter as prophecy shall one day find its end in fulfillment. Hope shall eventually find its longed expectation satisfied. Faith will be justified in seeing what it has believed. Childish things will be put away by the full-grown man; knowledge will increase and darkness disappear.

But love—love is eternal. It never fails, and will never fail. God is love, and God is eternal. From all eternity and unto all eternity love continues. Therefore, we agree with Paul who, in the verse preceding this chapter (1 Cor. 12:31) says that while you may covet the best gift, here is the more excellent way.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

The main business in the House of Representatives last week was the passage of a tax bill. It was the first time in sixteen years that a general tax reduction measure has been voted.

The bill still leaves rates substantially above pre-war levels. About the only opposition came from the CIO which wanted greater relief for individuals. As it passed the House, the bill would allow a $500 exemption for the taxpayer and each dependent, and there would be a general reduction amounting to at least ten percent. A repeal of the $5 auto user tax is called for.

Since V-J day a total of 44 billion dollars have been ordered slashed from Government operating expenses for the current fiscal year. This figure is deducted from appropriations totaling 105 billion dollars for the current year which began last July 1. Other reductions will follow.

Over in Civil Service it was announced that a new point system is being devised under which an estimated 900,000 Federal workers will be dismissed by next June 30.

The Senate is wrangling over a rather hot political potato. A vacancy on the important Maritime Commission, which handles a lot of Uncle Sam's money, occurred, and President Truman sent to the Senate the name of ex-Congressman Raymond S. McKeough of Chicago. He quit the House in 1942 to run on the Kelly-Nash ticket for the Senate and got beat.

After his defeat, McKeough was appointed an OPA regional director in the Middle West, and a few months later was attracted by the lush money pot of the CIO's Political Action Committee. He has been on the PAC payroll as a tri-state director ever since.

Opposition to Mr. McKeough's confirmation in the Senate stems from the AFL which fears favoritism to the CIO growing out of the fact that McKeough has been on the CIO payroll for nearly two years. The Senate Committee turned thumbs down on the new appointee, who is reported to have the backing of Bob Hannegan. A showdown is expected on the Senate floor soon and the vote may be close.

Among recent visitors in our office from the district have been:

who recently returned from two years' of service on an aircraft escort ship in the Pacific; C. O. Murdoch of the Navy, who is a former County Attorney of Menard; Sgt. Louis M. Crump, present County Attorney of Coleman; Herman Topperwine, an attorney of Menard, back from Naval service in the Pacific; Mrs. Morris S. Kelly and her mother, Mrs. Lawrence Hamrick of San Saba.

Lt. Commander Sam H. Jones of San Angelo, who won distinction in the English Channel; Captain C. H. Janeway, former Scoutmaster of San Angelo, just back from the Philippines; Dal Dalrymple of Llano, with the U. S. News; Mrs. John Davenport, of San Angelo, whose husband is in Okinawa; Lt. and Mrs. J. T. Huffman and nephew, Gerald Huffman, of Brady; Ross Bohannon of Brownwood, who has done anti-sabotage work with the FBI; Weaver Baker of Junction, Chairman of the State Board of Control, and General Harry Knox of Brownwood, member of the Control Board; Marine Sgt. Jim Humphries of Lampasas, now stationed at Quantico. He just came in from 32 months of the hottest fighting in the Pacific.

Hefner-Goree

The single ring ceremony was observed when Miss Jeanne Marie Hefner of Santa Anna and First Lt. Great Plans Being Made For Hereford Show

Special entertainment features and the year's biggest livestock show will combine to make the Greater Pan-American Hereford Exposition, to be held in Dallas November 9-18, an event that the people of Texas will long remember, it was declared Wednesday by Fred F. Florence, Dallas banker and chairman of the Exposition's Board of Directors.

Dallas, top-ranking livestock center, is prepared to demonstrate its own famous brand of all-out hospitality during the 10 day show.

Approximately 600 animals have been entered in the breeding and Junior Cattleman's Baby Beef classes of the gigantic Hereford show according to Jack Frost, Exposition president, and Lloyd Wheelock of Corsicana, president of the Texas Hereford Association and superintendent of cattle for the Dallas show.

Entries in the breeding cattle classes have been received from throughout the country. Premiums aggregating $20,000 are being offered, the largest premium list at any show this year. The American Hereford Association and the Texas Hereford Association are co-sponsors of the Exposition.

Kickoff to the big show will be given Friday afternoon, Nov. 9, when the most extensive livestock parade ever seen in the Southwest will pass through the streets of Dallas. Horsemen and horsewomen from all over the region, plus clubs, groups and organizations of fine livestock fanciers, are invited to participate in the parade, wearing western frontier regalia. All participants in the parade will be guests at a chuck-wagon barbecue dinner to be held at the State Fair Grounds immediately upon completion of the march.

The Big Bend section is providing Texas first national park. This single area includes mountains, plains and desert.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Last Sunday was a good day with our church. There was a fine spirit in all the services and two additions to the church. We closed the day with another beautiful baptizing at the evening service. We urge every member to take advantage of these lovely days and attend the services next Sunday. Invite your friends.

We are beginning a series of studies in the doctrines of the New Testament in our prayer services. Come every Wednesday night.

The pastor is speaking over the Brownwood radio from 11:30 to 12: a.m. the next two Saturdays. He is assisted by musicians and singers from the First Baptist Church, Coleman. You will receive a blessing by listening to the program.

EXTEND INSURANCE

The Disabled American Veterans reports that servicemen or veterans holding national service term life insurance issued on or before Dec. 31, 1945, now have eight years instead of five in which to convert it to long term government insurance.

Under Public Law 118 passed by Congress the insurance so extended includes all existing rights and benefits for the extended period such as premiums waiver provisions and the right to convert to permanent plan.

Two Texas girls, Miss Marguerite Stuart of Houston and Miss Antonette Bracher of Fredericksburg, were members of the first class commissioned in the WAVES.

Swing of Southwest Farm Markets

Most southwest farm products maintained a fully steady to strong trend during the second week of October, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

While rains held down cattle receipts at Texas markets, new 1945 records were set early in the week at Oklahoma City, Wichita and Denver. Aggressive buying maintained prices at strong levels throughout most of the Southwest. All classes were up 25 to 50 cents a hundred pounds throughout Texas. The week's top on beef steers and yearlings was $15 for good grades in Fort Worth and $12.75 for medium grades in San Antonio. Oklahoma City reported spots 10 to 25 cents higher, but bulls were 25 to 50 cents lower and low grade cows closed weak with canners and cutters bringing $6 to $8. Wichita was steady to 25 cents lower on all classes with top steers quoted at $15.25 for good grades. Denver reported a new high of $17 on choice heifers during the week.

An upward adjustment in price ceilings for hogs resulted in the first market change in several months. Top butchers advanced to $14.65 per hundred pounds in Fort Worth and San Antonio, $14.50 in Oklahoma City, $14.50 in Wichita, and $14.30 in Denver. Sows moved up to $13.90 in Fort Worth and San Antonio, $13.80 in Oklahoma City, $13.75 in Wichita, and $14.05 in Denver.

Southwest sheep and lamb prices advanced 25 to 50 cents during the week. Denver continued to be the principal receiving center of the entire country as snow in the mountain areas stimulated movement. Choice lambs at that market sold as high as $13.85 early in the week. A large proportion of the receipts at Texas markets consisted of old sheep with fat ewes a high as $6.25 in Fort Worth and common woolled ewes $4 to $4.50 at San Antonio.
