Mountain Echoes

By Barbara Kingsbery

The Santa Anna Ex-Students Association had an executive board meeting last week and set the date for the 1972 Ex-Students Homecoming for Friday and Saturday, November 10 and 11. The date is later than in recent years, but was chosen to avoid conflict with other activities. Santa Anna has only four home football games this season, which also narrowed the choice of dates for the ex-student event.

We urge local and out-of-town ex'es to mark their calendars and make plans to attend.

Debbie Behrens of Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Behrens, was named runner-up in the recent Miss Texas Rural Electrification contest in San Antonio. The Behrens family are former residents of Santa Anna, living here while he was football coach in the local school system.

Louise Moore found an interesting item this week and has brought it to the NEWS office for others to see. It is the original 1890 charter of the Santa Anna Knights of Pythias organization, a fraternal group which was very active in the community at one time. The fragile old certificate was in an old picture frame found at the old W.O.W. Lodge building, located above the former Moore Mercantile Store.

Mrs. Moore will give the charter to anyone who wants it for a museum or a family collection.

As winner in the district, Leann will be joined by two

Courtesy and friendliness in our community are commonplace to those of us who reside here. These attributes were also shown recently in an out-of-town motorist, with the following letter published Sunday, August 13, in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram:

This is my salute to Texas hospitality and Texas law enforcement.

While on a business trip to South Texas during the last week of July, when I approached Santa Anna, my clutch and pressure plate had burned completely out.

It was slightly before midnight, and I knew that Santa Anna was no large metropolitan area. Nevertheless, I got out of my car, raised the hood and turned my blinkers on.

Shortly, a young man approached me; he was wearing a sidearm. He identified himself and asked if he could be of assistance. We established the car's trouble, and the officer asked me if I would like to call a mechanic. I then called the local mechanic. Although it was midnight, the mechanic came, look our car to the shop and delivered me to the town's motel.

By noon the following day the car was fixed and I was on my way. The mechanic had done an admirable job in every way.

I formerly lived in another state, but never did I receive this kind of help in that state when I so desperately needed it.

Santa Anna, Texas, law enforcement officers, and people of Texas, I salute your hospitality!

James N. Roberts, Lubbock
(Editor's Note: The law officer mentioned is Roger Beard, City Policeman, and the helpful mechanic is Ailyn Early.)

Rainfall Didn't Dampen Fun At Fish Kill Last Saturday

Despite a steady slow rain, the Saturday fish kill at the Sealy Lake north of Santa Anna took on a carnival atmosphere, according to those who attended.

An estimated 1,500 people were in and out of the lake property during the weekend, with a number of people camping at the lake for one or two nights. A temporary concession stand was erected at the lakeside.

Texas Parks and Wildlife biologists put poison into the lake early Saturday morning and the fish began coming to the surface within a few hours.

Nearly everyone at the lake retrieved some fish, with some taking up to 50 pounds of fish. Bass, channel catfish and crappie were among those preferred by most "fishermen," but a few people were happy to make their haul of other district winners, Gail Boone of Taylor County and Loretta Schooley of Schleicher County. They were second and third place winners in the district contest. The three girls will model their prize-winning outfits during the State Fair.

Ray Ann Skelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Skelton of Mozelle, was winner in the junior division but will not participate in the state contest.

Besides winning top honors in the division, Leann also won a cash award for her all-cotton entry. The award was given by the Rolling Plains Cooperative Compress. J. W. Borders, Jr. of Sweetwater, area manager of the Cooperative, presented the award.

Miss Bryan's entry was a brown leather-look hotpants suit worn over a beige waffle-weave cotton body suit. Beige suede knee boots completed her costume.

Sewing and fashion awards are not new to the SAHS senior student. She was winner of the district "Make It Yourself With Wool" contest in San Angelo last year with a wool Western suit.

District entries were entertained following the contest with a luncheon at the Abilene Women's Club. Miss Bryan and the other county entries were accompanied to Abilene by Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Bessie Parker, County Home Demonstration Agent.

SAN ANTONIO VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Winkler of San Antonio spent Sunday and Monday in Santa Anna with her brother, C. D. Bruce, and Mrs. Bruce. They had been vacationing at Christoval and visiting relatives in Nolan County.

Barrington Kin Drowns In Mishap At Snyder Sunday

C. M. Barrington received word Sunday night of the death of his aunt, Mrs. Cora Barrington Tate, 69, of Muleshoe, who drowned near Snyder Sunday when the car in which she was riding was swept off the highway.

According to newspaper reports, Mrs. Tate and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lois Barrington, driver of the vehicle, were passing a bus and pickup on the flooded highway when the waves from the bus caused the car to be washed off the road. Mrs. Tate was trapped in the car. Mrs. Barrington was swept from the vehicle and taken to a Snyder hospital.

From four to six inches of rain fell in Snyder, causing Deep Creek to flood. Police Chief Bobby Goodwin reported that about ten buildings in the city also were flooded.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Barrington had visited during the day Sunday with Mrs. Tate at a family reunion and all were enroute home at the time of the accident.

C. Stephenson Is Appointed Fire Marshall

C. W. Stephenson, former city employe, was appointed City Fire Marshall by the Santa Anna City Council at their regular meeting on Thursday night, August 10. The City of Santa Anna has made the annual purchase-lease payment on the Armory building, now used as a civic center. Money collected from clubs and individuals will be used for maintenance and for purchase of new equipment and furnishings.

Bills and accounts for the past month were approved for payment during the business session.

The next meeting of the City Council will be on September 7.

having had renovation or redecorating during the summer months.

Kenneth Bowker, a former teacher and principal at Talpa-Centennial is new counselor for the local school. Mrs. Edna Wells is school nurse, Loyd Taylor and Dewey Dixon are custodians for the school this year. Mrs. Udell Copeland is Food Service Supervisor and workers in the school cafeteria are Mrs. Theima Upchurch, Mrs. Opal Langford and Mrs. Gladys Wardlow.

1972-73 CALENDAR GIVEN FOR SANTA ANNA SCHOOLS

The 1972-73 school calendar was approved last week by the Board of Trustees. The school year will include the required 180 school days, five faculty workdays and five in-service training days. The calendar, subject to change if necessary, is as follows:

- August 14-18—Faculty workdays and in-service training
- August 21—Classes begin
- September 4—Labor Day holiday
- October 23—Holiday for District TSTA meeting
- November 23-24—Thanksgiving holidays
- December 21-January 1—Christmas and New Year's holiday
- January 12, 15-16—Teacher workdays and in-service training
- April 23-27—Easter holidays
- May 25—Final day of classes
- May 28—Teacher workday

The 1971-72 school schedule had only one change during the year as one day of class was missed due to bad weather. The Easter holiday was shortened by one day to make the required number of days.

School administrators planned the longer spring holiday for the new year, as do most of the schools and colleges in the area.

S-Anna Saints Win Championship In Semi-Pro Tournament Sunday

The Santa Anna Saints Semi-pro baseball team won first place in the Lohn Tournament held in Brady last Sunday. The Saints defeated the Wingate team in the first game of the tourney by a score of 5-3. Bobby Morgan was pitcher for the Santa Anna winners.

In the second game of the tournament, Fredricksburg won over the Lohn team 3-0.

The stage was set for the championship game between Santa Anna and Fredricksburg. At the end of four innings Fredricksburg was ahead by a 3-0 score with their pitcher retiring 12 men in a row. In the fifth inning the Saints scored two runs and trailed by only one. No runs were scored in the sixth inning, so the Saints had to score in the top of the last inning to keep alive their hopes of winning the championship.

The local boys came through with three big runs to go ahead and win the tourney by a 5-3 score. The championship ended the season for the Saints with a 11-4 season record and the ninth and tenth victories in succession. Bobby Morgan was again pitcher for the winners.

Santa Anna people should be proud of this fine ball team, and those on the team have appreciated the support and encouragement of people in the community. The championship trophy from the Brady tournament will be on display at the Santa Anna National Bank for the next few days.

Varied Rainfall Reported Here

Rainfall was received in the entire Coleman County area during the past week, with the amounts varying from one community to another, as usual.

The unofficial report for Santa Anna for the week was 2.5 inches. Lesser amounts fell in the south part of the community with the exception of a few places near Rockwood where over two inches was reported.

Q-Back Meeting Slated Tonight

The quarterback Club will meet Thursday (tonight) at the high school for the election of officers for the coming year. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock and parents of all school athletes are urged to be present.

In Our Opinion

By W. T. HAYS

THE NATIONAL DEBT keeps growing at an alarming rate, and according to Nation's Business magazine, at the end of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1972, was $26 billion for the year. However that was $13 billion less than was expected. It was figured that if every man, woman and child in the United States coughed up $125 each we could take care of the deficit for last year.

One thing for sure, one day the thing will have to be paid off. We cannot keep on spending and spending without a day of reckoning.

On top of that, taxes are continuing their spiral to the point that now 39 cents of every dollar of the national income go to taxes.

In 1960 state and local governments collected $53.3 billion in taxes. By 1970 these had risen to $128.2 billion. In 1960, the federal government collected $100.7 billion in taxes, but by 1970 these had risen to $205.6 billion.

One example of why is that in 1951, one American in every eight worked for federal, state or local government. Today, more than one American in every six is employed on either federal, state or local government forces.

Another reason is the rising costs of welfare. The United States spent $17.7 billion on welfare last year, an increase of $3.3 billion over the previous year. In 14 states and federal jurisdictions the number of people on welfare soared by 20 per cent or more. Only in nine states did the rolls decrease.

As costs rise and profits either remain the same or decline, and many people are living on fixed incomes, the tax burden becomes heavier and heavier. If the trend continues pretty soon we all will be working for the government for six months and for ourselves the next six months. Some statisticians already say we spend five months working for enough to pay our part of the tax bill before we see anything for ourselves.

The trend toward socialism is one of the basic causes of our heavy burden. Big government thinks it can do for its people better than they can do for themselves. This country was founded on free enterprise and depended on competition to keep the cost of merchandise at a minimum level. But federal interference into every business has spiraled the cost of doing business to a point that everything costs far more than it should.

The give-away programs of this country, be it welfare, aid to some segment of business life or foreign aid, is a monstrous cost each year. The necessity of such expenditures is a question that many are asking about. No doubt there will always be worthy people who need help, and sometimes there are nations who need and appreciate aid from us, but it seems to many of us that the giveaway has gone too far. A small portion of our spending for aid could take care of deficit spending, and probably every department of government could stand some cuts in order to balance the budget.

But as long as there are politicians, and pressure groups, and lobbyists, it is doubtful if the common man will ever be heard, so his only resource is the ballot. But what are you gonna do when there is nobody to vote for?

Austin — Rep. Price Daniel Jr. of Liberty apparently will take over the House of Representatives speakership without opposition next January.

Withdrawal of Rep. Calhoun of Abilene from the speaker's race last week, after concluding that Daniel was too far out in front to catch, left the 31-year-old attorney from Liberty free of a major challenger.

Rep. James E. Nugent of Kerrville, who had planned to enter the contest earlier, endorsed Daniel.

Before Calhoun's withdrawal, Daniel claimed more than 100 commitments from House members or nominees.

"So many of the old and new members had committed to my opponent before I got into the race, that my continuance in the campaign would place a burden on my supporters that I do not feel justified in causing," said Calhoun.

Daniel, son of former Governor Price Daniel, came a long way back to emerge as the shoe-in candidate for speaker.

When Rep. Rayford Price of Palestine won the post in special session last spring after resignation of former Speaker Gus Mutscher, he was considered a cinch to keep the job during the 63rd Legislature.

But Price was defeated for re-election to his House seat in the June 3 Democratic runoff primary by Rep. Fred Head of Troup.

Daniel, meanwhile, had been busy rounding up commitments from incumbent lawmakers and new nominees. He tries to dodge being labeled a liberal and prefers the term "progressive." He has emphasized need for legislative reform and is pledged to hold the speakership only one term.

SAFETY COURSE OFFERED — Texans who complete a new defensive driving course after September 1 can become eligible for a 10 per cent reduction in their annual auto insurance policies.

Texas Safety Association has accepted responsibility for coordinating the National Safety Council course.

The course will cost about $10 or less per person, and the resulting credit is good for three years.

Individual savings over the three-year period are estimated at about $45 — or $43 million statewide. Duplications are not allowed for the new course in addition to the driver training course.

In families with two or more cars, the principal drivers of each car will have to take the course to qualify for credit on all vehicles. After the three-year period, the course must be repeated by drivers to continue qualification for the 10 per cent credit.

PARTIES CERTIFIED — Two new political parties, La Raza Unida and the Social Workers Party, have been certified for general election ballot in Texas.

Secretary of State Bob Bullock said it was his duty to certify the parties since they filed more than the required number of 22,365 signatures necessary for ballot position.

The American Party and the New Party, which did not file enough signatures, seek to get on the ballot anyway by federal court action.

La Raza Unida is waging an aggressive campaign for governor, with Ramsey Muniz of San Antonio as its candidate. Both parties also have candidates for U.S. senator, lieutenant governor and most other major statewide offices.

SPECIAL SESSION COOLING — Governor Preston Smith may be cooling a little on the idea of a September special session on insurance reform, but he insists the idea is still alive.

"I'm pretty flexible," said Smith. "If anybody can bring me in some facts that would show me there would be no purpose served in calling a session, I would not even pretend to be in a mood to waste $33,000 a day (estimated session cost) of the taxpayers' money."

On the other hand, Smith said, if he could be shown that legislation to reduce insurance rates could be passed, he would not hesitate to summon lawmakers back to work.

Main business of the session, he indicated, would be a proposal for competitive insurance rates, which he said are in effect in 49 states. He seemed to be backing off his proposal to abolish the present insurance regulatory board.

"I don't know that we will attempt to abolish the board," he said. "If we come to the conclusion it would be helpful, we will. If we don't we won't. We'll know something (about whether to call a special session) in a couple of weeks."

TO BUILD OR NOT TO BUILD — The Highway Department, frustrated repeatedly in its plans to erect a new $20 million state headquarters near the capitol, has asked the attorney general to clarify whether it can legally proceed with construction.

After the department was ready to advertise for bids, the Legislature called for a re-evaluation of the site, which was made. Finding: the site was the best available. After that, the Legislature appropriated $1.5 million to the Parks and Wildlife Department to buy building site (a barren city block which served as a parking lot) and make a scenic park out of it. Governor Smith then vetoed the appropriation. That left the Highway Department confused as to what to do next. It can't desert the site without being paid for it.

DDT BANNED — DDT registrations in Texas will be cancelled August 31 with few exceptions, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White announced.

White had banned DDT registration for household use earlier under Pesticide Advisory Committee recommendations. The Committee said the action would have little impact on Texas agriculture.

Exceptions will permit registration for household use on stored sweet potatoes, disease control programs by public health officials, in prescription drugs and by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the military in health quarantine programs.

APPOINTMENTS — Aubrey Edwards of Big Lake was named district attorney of the 83rd judicial district, to replace William H. Earney of Marfa who resigned.

H. E. Knox of New Braunfels was named by Smith to the board of directors of the Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority.

SHORT SNORTS

The Governor has requested the federal pay board to approve a pay raise for state employees September 1.

Texas Conservation Foundation voted to buy three acres of the Big Thicket (a portion of the Marysee Prairie in Liberty County).

New state bank applications have been filed for Harlingen (two), Addicks (Harris county), and South Houston.

Federal health care grants sought by groups in Crystal City ($391,206) and Laredo ($18,968) met gubernatorial veto due to alleged lack of coordination.

A state regulation requiring catfish to be at least 11 inches long has been scrapped except in the northeast regulatory district.

Texas Rehabilitation Commission reported 2,998 Texans with mental health problems and 2,668 who are mentally retarded received rehabilitation services during the last year.

House and Senate members spent more than $1.9 million in expense funds allocated to them during the last fiscal year, according to a new state auditor's report.

Twenty-nine applications to sell more than $8.6 million in securities were filed during the last week.

THE CITY LIBRARY

The Santa Anna Public Library is open each Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. The new books from the Brownwood and Abilene Public Libraries are still available for local readers, and there is no charge for use of the library books.

Although books may be checked out only on Wednesdays, returned books may be left in the City Hall office any weekday.

The newest arrivals at the library are the 48 large print books which include biographies, mysteries and other fiction. These are especially good for elderly people or others with visual problems.

Two of the newer books at the library are reviewed briefly as follows:

THE RED ROAN PONY
by

Joseph Wharton Lippincott
A little Arabian pony slipped her halter and disappeared into the night, while the circus train stopped for water and exercise at a lonely siding on the Wyoming plains. A year later, in the herd of wild mustangs that grazed sometimes near the Morton ranch on Bear Creek, she was followed by a red roan colt, so beautiful, so fleet, so altogether desirable, that Jimmie Morton set his heart on catching and training him for his own.

That is the start of this thrilling story of a pony and the boy who loved him—and of the pretty girl, Bess, who is won back to health and happiness through her friendship with the boy and his pony that was the fastest animal on the plains.

The scene changes from the wild sage-brush land of Wyoming—home of the herd of mustangs, of elk and wolves and antelope—to horse-shows and hunts and races in the East. For Reddy, the roan pony, with his Arabian heritage, becomes a wonder to lovers of fine horses both west and east.

There is high adventure, joy and sorrow, gallantry and heroism as the story unfolds to its climax and closes, to the deep satisfaction of the reader, with Reddy's return to his home range, to fight the great bay stallion for leadership.

Joseph Wharton Lippincott, author of THE WOLF KING, WILDERNESS CHAMPION, and THE WAHOO BOBCAT, and justly famed as a writer of many animal stories, is at his best in this book.

PILGRIM STRANGERS
by

Charles Mercer
If PILGRIM STRANGERS is essentially a serious book, it is also an exciting and often humorous one as it tells of three American children and their pilot father who find purpose and meaning in their life with a group of American missionaries in the tense days shortly before the granting of independence of the Congo. Within a space of months a brutal struggle for power had left the fertile land bloodied, bankrupt and hungry. There is a love story of the children's father and a charming missionary teacher, told with the touching awareness of the child-narrator.

The book vividly portrays life in Africa and reveals why turmoil, comedy and tragedy are rampant there today. Its characters grow. They travel and have strange adventures as they seek elusive goals and find abiding values from their experiences.

WRITER GIVES VIEWS ABOUT SABBATH DAY

Dear Editor:

Every so often concern arises over the matter of stores remaining open on Sundays. People wax eloquent about protecting the Lord's Day and keeping the Sabbath.

Recently I've noticed certain stores are again open on Sunday, and no doubt voices will be heard denouncing the practice. When this happens much is said about the people who are selling, but little is said about the people who are buying! Which makes me wonder if the quarrel is really over protecting the Sabbath or protecting the businesses who do not wish to remain open seven days a week, which, of course, is their constitutional right.

So far as Sabbath observance is concerned, however, I notice that God is far more particular than most people realize. Back in the days when the Israelites were wandering in the wilderness and relying on God for manna supplied each day to feed them, there was no gathering of manna on the Sabbath. God didn't send any manna on that day.

People were supposed to gather twice as much manna and do all their baking and seething or whatever on the preparation day. Anyone who disobeyed died. It was that simple and important—to God.

All this comes to mind right now because the Santa Anna Seventh-day Adventist church has been studying Sabbath observance the last few weeks.

Anyone who wishes to dig a little deeper into a little bit of the history of the Sabbath and what it means is welcome to come. Church is located at Fifth and B Streets in Santa Anna.

Sincerely yours,
C. P. Wenzel

Lettuce Smoke Also Harmful

Where there's cigarette smoke, there's carbon monoxide.

Lettuce-leaf cigarettes may be free of nicotine, which constricts the blood vessels. But lighting any kind of cigarette creates carbon monoxide. For the nonsmoker as well as the smoker. When this gas is inhaled, it cuts down the oxygen carried to all parts of the body. The gas forces the oxygen out of the blood.

There is a difference between nicotine and lettuce-leaf cigarettes, however. Smoking the latter does not cause an increase in the blood pressure or heart rate. Smoking nicotine cigarettes does. Nicotine, because it causes the blood vessels to become smaller, makes the heart pump harder to circulate more oxygen-carrying blood. Both types of cigarettes, though, have something in common. They both deplete the supply of oxygen in the blood.

This oxygen depletion can be measured when smokers—and even nonsmokers exposed to cigarette smoke—engage in physical exercise. Smokers and exposed nonsmokers do not have enough oxygen supply to sustain their normal performances on bicycle exercise machines, for example. Tests with heart patients using the machines have also shown that heart pain comes significantly sooner if the patients have just finished a cigarette. Any kind of cigarette, including lettuce-leaf ones. The heart is not receiving enough oxygen to function properly.

Recent medical studies have indicated that prolonged exposure to carbon monoxide can have serious effects on the heart, the brain, the central nervous system, and the lungs. Experiments on incubated lung tissue, for instance, showed that exposure to carbon monoxide caused a complete and immediate stop in the absorption of oxygen.

To find out ways to quit smoking cigarettes of all kinds, contact your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association. It's a matter of carbon monoxide.

To Harry Wilson, who could never save a penny.

Harry's been talking about that house he's going to buy for six years now. Harry's still talking.

When it comes to saving for something special we all have good intentions, but many of us never seem to get started, let alone have the discipline to keep saving regularly.

That's what makes the Payroll Savings Plan such a terrific way to build a nest egg. All you do is sign up once. Then the amount you specify is automatically set aside from your check each payday and invested in U.S. Savings Bonds.

Now that Bonds pay 5% interest when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year; thereafter 5.20% to maturity), your savings will grow faster than ever.

So, if you see a little bit of Harry in yourself, maybe it's time you joined the Payroll Savings Plan.

It's time to do more than just talk about your future.

Bonds are safe. If lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace them. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Tax may be deferred until redemption. And always remember, Bonds are a proud way to save.

POINTS TO PONDER

W. F. Cawyer

In last week's article we closed with a statement from Matt. 28:19 which reads "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit." From this we learn the responsibility of the CHURCH; teach and baptize those who have been taught; and as the verse says, teach all nations. Not a segment of the people but all people.

May I ask a question, why in Matt. 10:5-7 our Lord told his apostles, whom he had chosen, "Go not into the way of the gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not. But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." My question is, why in the first quotation above did he tell them to go "Go ye therefore and teach all nations," yet in the last quotation he told "Go not into the way of the gentiles"? Will you please ask yourself the question, what is the difference. Why Go in one place and go not in another place? To understand this will help you appreciate the lesson of last week's paper, on the three dispensations.

The quotation is Matt. 10:5-7 was under another age or dispensation. It was under the Mosical age or dispensation, which age was addressed to the Jews and to them alone. But under the new age or dispensation, which is known as the Christian age, which includes all nations or everybody. Here is a passage that you who are interested should ponder, Matt. 15:24-26. Why here did our Lord say to this poor woman whose daughter was grievously vexed with a devil, verse 24, "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Friend, the first quotation was said after Christ had died for the sins of the whole world or all nations, while the statement Matt. 10:5-7 was said while the Mosical age, which age did not include the gentiles but only Jews. But since Christ had died and tasted death for every man (Heb. 2:9), the GOSPEL by which we, all men, are to be saved can now be preached to every creature or all nations.

You will understand now the lesson on the three dispensations. The first a family religion, the second a national religion while the last or Christian age is an "INTERNATIONAL RELIGION." You will be confused all of your life until you can see God's truth as taught in every age. As mentioned in a former article, under the Mosical age they had only the blood of animals, which could not take away sins (Heb. 10:4), but we today live under the New or Christian age and now have the blood of Jesus which cleanseth us from all sin (1 Jno. 1:7).

Sorghum-Sudan May Be Toxic To Many Horses

COLLEGE STATION — Dr. James Armstrong, veterinarian with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, warns horse owners to keep their animals off of sorghum-sudan pastures due to a disease called "sorghum cystitis." Freshly cut sorghum-sudan hay will also bring on the condition.

Armstrong points out that all horses may be affected but that the condition appears to be more serious in younger animals. A number of cases have been reported recently by Dr. William Romane who heads up the large animal clinic at Texas A&M University's College of Veterinary Medicine.

"The first signs usually are incoordination of the rear legs," Armstrong explains. "In about half the horses observed this was followed by involuntary discharge of urine. Thus, mares may show hair loss on the inner part of the hind legs due to urine scalding. Geldings may have a loss of hair on the belly. In either case, the urine drip may be continuous and may become intense if the horse moves suddenly. The condition may also cause mares to abort."

Sorghum cystitis occurs most frequently during times of medium to high rainfall, usually from June to November, points out the veterinarian. It occurs mainly when horses feed on fast fresh growth of sorghum-sudan hybrids, sorghum grazer and Johnsongrass. Uncured or improperly cured hay from these grasses also causes the illness. However, horses eating well-cured hay from these three forages have not been affected. Also, no cases have been reported after the first frost.

"There is no cure for the condition once the horse has it," emphasizes Armstrong. "Several treatments have been used with little success. However, when affected animals are removed from the pasture and fed a balanced ration, they usually improved somewhat."

The urine discharge and incoordination have been observed in some horses for as long as three years, he notes.

Warm Weather And First Aid

The camper struggled up the steep West Texas hill with a heavy load of gear.

Suddenly he saw curious black spots in the bright sunshine, felt himself grow dizzy and the ground rushed up to meet him.

When his family reached him he had fainted and turned an ashen gray. His skin was unusually clammy for the arid country.

What happened? More important, what does the distraught family do to revive dad?

Parks and Wildlife officials warn that heat exhaustion and heat strokes are two of the most common of summer-time afflictions. They can be serious if not recognized and treated in time. Our camper ruined his outfit with heat exhaustion.

The symptoms are weakness, dizziness and fainting. The victim is clammy to touch, pale and weak.

Get him to a cool place and administer a solution of one teaspoon salt in a quart of water.

The fatal relative of heat exhaustion is heat stroke.

Body temperature of a heat-stroke victim is often 110 degrees and this can kill.

Lower the temperature with cool baths, cool towels or cold water rubdowns. Administer the salt solution only if he is conscious.

Get the heat stroke victim to a physician at once.

Heat exhaustion and heat stroke can be prevented by the use of salt tablets and lots of water. Better yet, take it easy in the Texas sun.

Trickham News

By Mrs. Oscar Boenicke

The revival meeting closed here Sunday night. Rev. Collier of Bangs did some good preaching each night. Two boys, Paul Martin and Chris Hufford, were baptized Sunday evening at 7:15 at the creek crossing at Trickham. A nice group was out for it. It was the largest crowd out on Sunday night of any night. A nice group from Bangs attended several nights of the meeting.

Thursday night after church five ladies from Bangs came home with us and visited a while. They were Fay Whitely, Pearl Weems, Gertrude Ratcliff, Nannie Brenson and Inis Leonard.

About 60 people attended the Stacy reunion at the Rodeo grounds at Coleman Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stacy and Del Ray Stacy and wife Patsy and family all went from here. Also Margie Sullivan and Carolyn and Robert came from San Antonio and O. T. and Sue Stacy of Abilene were there. They all reported a good reunion. Del Ray was here over the weekend but had to take an early plane Sunday morning back to California.

Patsy Stacy and children, Charm, Tommie and David, and Charm's girl friend, Cindy Miller of California, will be leaving for California Wednesday. They will do some sightseeing on the way back. They will be driving through in the car. The children will be starting to school soon out there.

Jeff and Mike Henderson of Fort Stockton spent from Monday until Friday with their uncle and aunt, the Hillburn Hendersons. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. King of Coleman and Naomi and Brent Nichols and Wesley of Irving and Mrs. Daisy McClatchy all visited the Hillburn Hendersons.

Mrs. Rosa Henderson and children had a reunion over the weekend at Lake Brownwood. Thirty-eight members of her family and two visitors attended.

Other visitors were Sherman and Dortha Stearns and Clint and G. K. Stearns and Billy and Janice Haynes and Justin all visited the Fred Hayneses last week.

Last Wednesday all the Boenicke brothers and sisters and in-laws met at Pauline Boenicke's in Brownwood to celebrate Louis and Ethel Boenicke's 60th wedding anniversary. Sixteen were there for dinner, 14 members of the family and two visitors present.

Sunday afternoon the Fred Hayneses and the Oscar Boenickes visited Aunt Pearl Ford in Twilight Nursing Home in Bangs. She seems to be doing very well and able to lay in her chair some. Her birthday will be Aug. 23. She will be 95 years old. She won't be able to do much celebrating this year, but if any of her friends would like to send her cards some of us will read them to her.

We also visited Fay Whitely and the Fred Hayneses visited Glenn Haynes in Brownwood Community Hospital. He had major surgery about a week ago but seems to be doing ok.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Powell and granddaughter from Tulsa, Okla., visited with her sister and husband, the Bond Featherstons, from Thursday until Sunday. They all went to Menard for the Lindley reunion Sunday. It was held at the Earl and Mary Lindley place near Menard. All the sisters were there but one, Dophie, and her husband are in Canada at this time. Also part of the grandchildren were there. Earl is the only Lindley boy in the family.

Donald Driskill, my nephew from Houston, and two boy friends, Richard Sherrad and Dale Currie, came by on their way to Austin Monday afternoon. Donald was on his way to Austin to see about getting a place to stay while going to Texas University this winter. He had been on a trip to all the western states and to Spokane, Washington. They had supper here before they left.

Mrs. Glover died very suddenly Sunday afternoon in her home in Seymour. Mrs. Glover is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hudson who long years back lived in the Rockwood community. Mrs. Glover's grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Tom Holmes, were long ago settlers in the Whon community.

Where has the past three months gone? Seems no one really knows why they have passed so fast. On Monday morning, Aug. 21, the Santa Anna school doors will open for the school children.

The bus from our community will make the usual run. May take a few days to get regulated but we will try not to leave any one. Please don't become impatient waiting. As far as I know the bus will make the same route at the same time. School days are here again.

SPECIAL ENTERTAINMENT AT COLEMAN COUNTY TELEPHONE CO-OP ANNUAL MEETING

A compact spinet organ that fits into any living room but that really brings back the thrilling sounds of the mighty theatre organs is to be played for your enjoyment on Saturday evening August 26th at the high school football field at Santa Anna by Mr. E. H. Watson, artist/piano technician/tuner and representative of fine Baldwin Pianos and Organs for King Music Company of Brownwood.

According to Mr. Watson, Baldwin borrowed from the theatre organ tradition to provide for maximum tonal versatility in a modern home organ and thanks to modern electronics, the big-organ sound can now be built into a home sized instrument.

Now with just one talented finger, thanks to WonderChord, you can play full chords, pedal notes, and rhythm effects. And with Fantomfingers to help, you can play so many notes it's like having extra hands. With Fantomfingers just play one chord and listen to a spectacular arpeggio and you can make it sound like a piano, guitar, harp, banjo, or harpsichord.

For information pertaining to the Baldwin Pianos or Organs or for piano repairs or tuning contact Mr. Watson at 597-2617 in Brady or at 646-8521 in Brownwood.

Farmers' Image Revealed Good In FB Survey

Farmers and ranchers have a good image in the view of city people if public opinion research conducted in the Dallas metropolitan area holds true in other urban centers around the state and country.

The Texas Farm Bureau commissioned the farmer-rancher image study by Management Advisory Associates, a Dallas firm headed by Dr. James Makens who is on the faculty of the University of Dallas.

Results of the survey were made known here August 10 at a meeting of county Farm Bureau presidents. The study indicates that a "reservoir of good will" toward farmers and ranchers exists in urban centers, Dr. Makens said.

A stratified random sampling procedure was used to select respondents from the city of Dallas. This insured the inclusion of various income brackets and minorities. The survey was conducted by both mail and respondents were selected through the use of a simple random sample. Stratification was not attempted in the suburbs.

The overall image of farm-Dallas metropolitan residents was favorable, the study concluded. This was true for city and suburban residents, as well as for members of minorities.

The farmer-rancher was believed to be politically conservative. Respondents tended to believe he was against welfare but did not know how he stood in the Vietnam War.

He was viewed as being efficient by a majority of the respondents. Comparative efficiency ratings revealed that the farmer-rancher is considered to be more efficient than auto workers, brick layers, fellow workers of the respondents, office workers, construction workers and general factory workers. Only accountants and engineers were rated higher than farmers and ranchers in efficiency.

The majority opinion was that farmers and ranchers are not living off the American taxpayer. Respondents also expressed mixed feelings tending overall toward neutrality on the issue of whether or not farmers and ranchers receive large subsidies. In addition, it was somewhat felt that the farmer-rancher believes subsidies to be necessary but ineffective in serving their purpose.

The farmer-rancher is definitely not viewed as a major cause of inflation or as responsible for high prices in the U. S. today. He is viewed, however, as believing that he is not getting his fair share of the purchase dollar.

The farmer-rancher is viewed as being opposed to welfare, but not as a person who is unfair to or against migrant workers and sharecroppers. However, nearly half the sample believed him to be somewhat prejudiced against minority groups. The minority community holds a better opinion of the farmer-rancher's relationship with sharecroppers than do residents living in the city or suburbs.

In terms of ecological issues, he was viewed as being interested in conservation. The majority of the respondents did not believe that the farmer-rancher uses insecticides and pesticides without concern for wildlife.

He was not viewed as being self-centered and interested in farm-ranch problems with no regard for the problems of the cities. However, respondents did feel that farmers and ranchers believe city dwellers are unaware of and uninterested in farm-ranch problems.

It is in the field of education that the image of the farmer-rancher somewhat slips. Respondents were divided in opinions as to whether or not the farmer-rancher is well educated.

The personal life of the farmer-rancher was also viewed in a favorable light. He was thought of as being opposed to divorce and as having better church attendance than others.

Farmers and ranchers were generally not viewed as having high annual incomes or as being in better or worse shape financially than the respondents.

With respect to organization and size, the farmer-rancher was not considered to be an employee of a big corporation or highly dependent upon them. Nevertheless, there was fairly general agreement that the farmer-rancher is highly mechanized in his farm-ranch operations.

There were mixed feelings concerning the power of the farmer-rancher in state and national politics in general, but moderate agreement that he is powerful in the state of Texas.

Dr. Makens, who has conducted market research studies for a number of nationally-known corporations, said that he believed similar studies in other metropolitan areas of Texas would reveal similar attitudes to those found in Dallas.

The Farm Bureau commissioned the study to find out if an aggressive advertising campaign was needed to improve the farmer-rancher's image. Dr. Makens advised that such a campaign now would be "unwarranted," but said the current image might change in the future.

"The city youth might hold different opinions than today's adults as they reach voting age," he said.

Firemen Answer Call Saturday

The Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Department made a call last Saturday to the J. E. Williams home just west of town. The breaker box caught fire but was fortunately extinguished before the two trucks and 12 to 15 firemen arrived at the scene.

The local fire department urges people to call for assistance as soon as possible. They would rather arrive after a fire has been extinguished by the home owner than to arrive after the resident's efforts to control the blaze have failed.

The Holey's are from the flooded area of Pennsylvania and he gave a short report to the Seventh-day Adventist church on the conditions there. Many homes were swept away entirely. One couple whom they knew were seen walking by the place where their home had formerly stood—but not a thing but ground to show for it.
