

Fire Prevention Week is coming up in October. There were almost 300,000 fires in the United States in 1958, an average of 800 a day. Some 11,500 lives were lost as a result of fires, with over a billion dollars of property being lost. At least 75 percent of the fires were preventable. They were mostly due to carelessness.

What can YOU do to prevent fires? Basically, two things: make your home, office or other place where you work fire safe, and make your family fire-safety conscious. You can start by becoming a fire hazard hunter in your home, by locating and eliminating the danger spots there. Matches and smoking are the front runners in causes of fires each year, followed closely by misuse of electricity. Bad housekeeping is next in line as a major cause of home fires.

History has a way of repeating itself. But gossip has history beat to a frazzle.

James T. Dockery announces this week he has become a dealer for a factory made tandem trailer. He said he would have four of the models on display this week. Stock trailers are the specialty, but his company can furnish all sorts of truck beds and various other items in this field. You are invited to contact him if in need of any of these items.

Spend more time with people you like least and you'll find them very likeable.

We note Russia hit the moon with a rocket late Sunday afternoon, just two days before the arrival of Soviet Premier Khrushchev in the United States. Just what effect hitting the moon will have on his visit here and in time to come must wait. Personally, I never did think much of the idea of the Soviet leader coming to the United States. From what we read in a variety of daily newspapers, it would seem most of the leaders of this nation welcome the man here in order to let him personally see how the average citizen in this country lives. However, there is lots of opposition to his coming here. Of course they are taking all kinds of precautions, but if by chance, the man were to die or get killed here, there is no telling what the results would be. Your editor favors a much tougher policy where the Russians are concerned. All the deliberate lies the Soviet leaders tell should be enough to make our policy against them much stricter than it is.

Home to a small boy, is merely a filling station.

Then our leaders invite him to visit this country, and President Eisenhower is invited to return the visit. What possible good can come from either visit is what we would like to know. The Soviet leaders will make every effort to gain prestige in the eyes of the world here, then will no doubt not let the world or President Eisenhower, have the freedom that Khrushchev will be afforded in this country.

Nothing is so empty as a day without a plan.

Remember the good of days — when charity was a virtue, not an industry?

The psychiatrist was advising the worried mother: "I wouldn't be too upset about your boy making mud pies," said the doctor, "and the fact that he sometimes tries to eat them is also quite normal."

"Well, I'm still not convinced, doctor," replied the woman, "and, as a matter of fact neither is his wife."

The cute little blonde talking to the wealthy Texan... "How much did you say your name was?"

By the time a man can pay a fancy figure for his wife's clothes, she usually doesn't have one.

The best way to make ends meet is to get off your own.

Texas' largest transportation system is now in full swing — the State's fleet of more than 8,000 school buses. For the next nine months these buses will carry a bulk of two million pupils to and from school each day. It's a large task, even a greater one to do safely. However, you can help by obeying the State law about overtaking and passing a school bus. Which says: a. The driver of a vehicle up-

School Traffic Safety Week To Be Observed Here

Governor Price Daniel has proclaimed the week of Sept. 20-26 as Texas School Traffic Safety Week. Supt. Cullen N. Perry said the week would be observed in the local schools, but just what kind of program would be put on has not been definitely decided. However, Perry said each student would receive some instructions concerning traffic safety during the week.

He has also invited Highway Patrolman Chambers to speak to the student body on traffic safety one day next week.

The governor has proclaimed the week because "Texas now faces a critical emergency on its streets and highways as the result of increased traffic deaths this year and because it is imperative that all Texans be brought to full realization of the immediate threat to their well-being."

In the proclamation, the Governor asked school officials and teachers to make plans for special traffic safety programs and studies in every classroom in Texas. A school traffic safety kit was prepared by the sponsoring agencies entitled, "Learn To Live." It outlines plans and programs for every school-age child in Texas, and includes teaching ideas and aids on traffic safety.

The governor said one of the compelling reasons for emphasizing traffic safety in the public schools was the high percentage of youngsters involved in Texas traffic tragedies in 1958. The annual report of the DPS showed 24 percent of all the car drivers who died in Texas traffic in 1958 were between 15 and 24 years of age; 29 percent of all passengers killed in Texas traffic last year were in the same age-group; and while only 18 percent of all the licensed drivers were between the ages of 15 and 24; 29 percent of all drivers involved in highway crashes were in this age-group.

Band Elects Officers For School Year

Appointments by the Band Director were: Drum Major, Dixie Baugh; Band Captain, Tommy Pollock; and Librarians, Sandra Fowler and Frances Biggs.

The Stage Band held their regular practice session after school on Monday. Rehearsals will continue to be held each Monday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock for the remainder of the school term.

The Mountaineer Band's next trip will be to Menard for the Santa Anna-Menard football game Friday night. They plan to leave soon after school is out and will arrive back home around 12:30 that night.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

on a highway outside of the limits of any incorporated city or town meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus, which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children, shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding ten miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children.

Jr. Mountaineers Take Second Game Tuesday Night

The Junior Mountaineers scored 8 points in the first period and 6 points in the second period Tuesday night on the local field to defeat the Juniors from May 14-0. Most sensational play of the evening was midway in the first play when young Bill Horne went wide around left end and picked up about 55 yards before being caught from behind. The boys went on to score on this drive that covered 68 yards. The TD was made by Quarterback, Sudderth from the 2-yard line. Horne scored on a 44-yard run in the second period and was caught again from behind just as he crossed the goal line.

The May boys were a salty little bunch of boys and were capable of scoring at any time. In fact at the start of the game they drove from their 26-yard line to the Mountaineer 17-yard line. At this point the local boys intercepted a pass.

Both teams played a good defensive game, but neither could get their offense to rolling very well. Coach A. D. Donham said his offense was lacking considerably through most of the game.

The Junior Mountaineers made 8 first downs to 2 for May. Next week the Juniors go to Early for another conference game. Early has played only one game, and that was Tuesday night of this week. They won over the Junior Bangs Dragons by a 24-22 score. May lost to Blanket last week by a score of 8-0. Blanket and Rising Star played Tuesday night.

There was a good attendance at the game Tuesday night. These young boys are deserving of your support. Follow them to Early next week. The game will begin at 7:30 p. m.

New Meeting Time And Place For Local 4-H Youths

Miss Dora Ann Jones, assistant county Home Demonstration Agent, announces a new meeting time and place for all 4-H members of the Santa Anna School District. The first meeting of the year will be held in the Community Room of the Santa Anna National Bank, Thursday, Sept. 24, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

All 4-H Club members of this area, their parents and all youths between the ages of 9 and High School ages who might be interested in the 4-H program are invited to attend. Miss Jones said new members are always welcome in the 4-H Club program.

To meet with the group will be Miss Jones and Assistant County Agent, Travis Herring, along with the local adult leaders: Mrs. Richard Horner, Mrs. James Dillingham, William Brown and Jack Dillingham. Purpose of this meeting is to explain the 4-H program to the members and parents. An organizational meeting will be held at a later date.

The 4-H Club has been meeting at the elementary school during the past, and attendance has been being rather good. However, it is hoped the program can be expanded by the new meeting time. It will give the adult leaders more opportunity to work with the youths, as well as the county assistance programs.

Methodist Youth To Meet In Coleman Park Monday Night

The Methodist Youth of the St. Paul's Sub-district are sponsoring a district wide Youth Rally in the Coleman City Park, Monday evening, Sept. 21. The program will begin at 7:30 p. m. Theme for the rally will be "Take Christ to School." All the Methodist youths from this area are invited to participate in the rally.

Speaker for the evening will be the Rev. Ben Feemster, a well-known evangelist from Fort Worth. In charge of the singing will be John Ed Francis, song leader for the Central Texas Conference of Methodist Churches.

Mrs. Nora Goen visited friends in Santa Anna on Tuesday before going to California, Wednesday morning.

City Commission Approves New Electric Rates

A schedule of revised rates for electric service was approved in a regular meeting of the City Commission, Thursday night.

Similar schedules, which have already been approved in Abilene and San Angelo and other area towns, are being filed throughout the 49-county area served by the West Texas Utilities Company.

"The revised schedule of rates is designed," R. E. Ruble, WTU District Manager, said "to provide:

- 1. A new low rate for electric heating during winter months.
2. Liberalization of the water heater rate.
3. Reduction in the base of the present fuel clause and incorporation of the new lower fuel clause in all schedules with the exception of the municipal water pumping, street lights and signal light rates.

The last-named purpose is an effort by WTU to hedge against anticipated future increases in the cost of fuel which the Company may incur in generating electricity and to avoid a possible rate increase," Ruble said.

The fuel adjustment, which works both downward and upward, becomes effective in the rate not now carrying a fuel clause when the Company's average cost of fuel is less than 8 cents or above 14-1/2 cents per million BTU — the normal heat value of 1,000 cubic feet of gas.

Last year, the Company's average cost of fuel was 13.6 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of gas. Before the fuel adjustment would become operative at 14-1/2 cents, the Company would absorb another 6.2% increase in the cost of fuel.

Ruble added, "It's not probable that the fuel adjustment would be applicable to commercial and residential customers before 1962, and that if and when it becomes operative, the effect on the average customer's bill will be negligible." Ruble continued, "A 10% increase in the cost of fuel to the Company would add only 2 cents per month to the average residential customer."

Band Boosters Elect New Officers At Monday Meeting

Mrs. Alice Louise Walker was retained as president of the Santa Anna Band Boosters Club at the regular meeting Monday night at the Band Hall. Other officers elected were: Vice President, Mrs. Dick Baugh; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Richard Horner; and Parliamentarian, Mrs. A. D. Donham Jr. Balance of the amount the Band Boosters have to raise to pay for the new band uniforms is $345.00. Latest contribution for the fund came from Mrs. Ruth Dodson.

Six Sites Cleared On Mukewater Flood Project

Marylin Daniel, local Soil Conservation Service representative, said this week the easements on six sites have been cleared on the Mukewater Flood Control Project. There are eight other easements to be cleared on the other four sites.

Daniel said the detail work was underway on sites 5 and 6. This consists of clearing the center line of the dam and spillways, preparing and making core tests and completing the final details of the dam for construction. This is being done by the construction crews of the flood control office in Brownwood. It will take several weeks for the completion of all the details. As soon as sites 5 and 6 are completed, the crews will move to sites 1 and 4, then on the sites 7 and 9, which are the sites that have been cleared at this time.

Advertisements for bids on the construction are scheduled to begin about February 1, with contracts scheduled to be let about March 1. Construction should begin within a few days after the contracts are let.

Daniel said the other sites could be included in this fiscal year for construction if the easements are cleared before December 1. It is possible that one or two of the other sites will be cleared by that time.

There is another Flood Control Project working now on Mud Creek which is a part of the Jim Ned Creek project. This area is in the Maro, Buffalo and Eureka communities. Every effort is going to be made to get the easements cleared on this area by November 1. The easements are cleared. Daniel said contracts for construction on four dams in the area could be let by July 1, 1960.

Mountaineers Go To Menard Friday Night

The Mountaineers will take another long trip for their third game of the season, Friday night, as they journey to Menard for another non-conference game. Menard is located to the southwest of Santa Anna about 105 miles. The best way to go is through Rockwood to Brady, then take Farm Road 42 out of Brady to Menard. It is a long trip, but the boys and coaches will appreciate your attendance at the game.

Menard has a line average of 182 pounds, with three of the linemen weighing over 200 pounds. The backfield has an average weight of 158 pounds. The Quarterback is a three-year letterman at fullback, but this year has been transferred to the Quarterback slot. His weight is listed as 185 pounds.

Menard won over Llano in their first game by a 16-13 score and last week lost to Mason by a 8-22 score. They are heavy and have a lot of experience but can be beat, as proved last week.

The local boys suffered two injuries Friday night at Albany. Steven Voss suffered a knee injury on his right leg. He will likely be out of the line-up for four or five games. Tony Tucker suffered a little finger injury, but is not expected to be out of the line-up. Byrl Fellers is still having to keep his wrist wrapped good in practice and in the games. However, he played most of the game at Albany Friday night.

The Mountaineers are still far from being experienced, and their weight is still light. There is always from two to seven or eight in the line-up. They are getting good experience that will be valuable to them in the years to come.

Straight Talk

by Tom Anderson

In Washington, the Hershey city (60% chocolate and 40% nuts), nearly one out of five children born last year were born out of wedlock. According to a recent survey, 1,800 white and 8,700 colored children were born out of wedlock in North Carolina in 1957. The Florida Welfare Department has 68,290 dependent children on its rolls, 18,701 of whom are white and 49,500 Negro. Assistance is paid for the care of 13,476 "illegitimate" Florida children of which 12,862 are Negroes. (Many of our colored brethren are inclined to be careless about integrating with the opposite sex without benefit of clergy).

In the Welfare State, good breeding merely means quantity. Mothers with as many as 10 or 12 children born out of wedlock gets as much as $330 a month. Human Events reports that one particularly fertile female in California has prepegated a connubial commune (formerly called a family) of 19 human events for which she reportedly gets $11,000 government money this year. This constantly - expecting litter is expected to "settle" for more father had to be "missing" three years before his "family" could get Aid - to - Needy - Children (ANC) money. During these three years the family got "indigent" relief from the state and county. And then soft-hearted, easy-touch Uncle Sam took over half of the cost. The kiss-and-sell brigade got new life: 10 years later the number of illegitimate and claimed-to-be illegitimate children in California has fantastically increased from less than 50,000 to more than 200,000—more than 400%. The child and its mother receive ANC benefits until the child becomes 18 years of age. One official has estimated that more than 60% of the cases are fraudulent. They take us for better or for worse.

These government - sponsored hot-pillow houses are in a breeding contest with the U. S. Treasury, making hay in the hay. White or black, they're mostly not cases of unfortunate girls who just make a mistake, but of pros who're cohabitating openly for pleasure or cash.

Unlike the case of the mountaineer who put a silencer on his shotgun because he wanted his daughter to have a quiet wedding, these people never had any intention of marriage. Welfare departments throughout the country continue to write thousands of monthly checks so the merry, sinful mothers can keep their babies in their sordid hands. Not only are the sinners not punished, they are actually encouraged: the more they win. Nowadays the scarlet letter has a government check in it. The babies usually don't have even the benefit of a common law husband as a father. As the foreman of the Grand Jury in New York reported, "the children never see, or know, their real fathers; only the new faces of the mother's boy friends... many of these children are bred and led into a life of delinquency and crime." There are many cases where out-of-wedlock children produce out-of-wedlock children. Bastardy to bastardy in three generations at taxpayers' expense.

Many mothers having as many as a dozen illegitimates have refused to name the fathers of any of them, because to do so would lose public assistance. Bastardy proceedings are virtually extinct. The only paternalism charges being made nowadays are against you—the taxpayer. You pay, and pay, and pay.

At the present rate and under present methods, experts figure we'll be keeping up one million American illegitimates by 1965. Overall, it's costing American taxpayers $210 million a year to support more than 300,000 children of illegitimate parents. Total government aid to dependent children costs, and feeds inflation to the tune of, $1.1 billion a year.

Some political do-gooders are trying to take welfare completely away from states. Why should illegitimate babies, they ask, be worth more in one state than another? They want to federally standardize or "fair-trade" baby prices. The Federal Government has warned that states cannot deny aid to children because of the circumstances of their birth. For instance, Uncle Sam, father of all, threatens to withhold all federal aid to dependents in any state which reduces or withholds relief payments to unwed mothers of more than one or two children.

For the government to fail to punish the offenders and make them work to take care of their offspring makes a farce of justice. To force the rest of us to ante up for the shackled up is a violation of our civil rights. To force every taxpayer to adopt every out-of-wedlock baby born, regardless of race, religion or circumstance, is a police state technique. Charity, justice, and retribution should begin at home. Nowhere does the Constitution say the sins of the fathers shall be visited on all us children, unto the third generation.

Less Government and More Private Responsibility
The reason public assistance has become a back-breaking, cheating loafer-producing farce is because the Federal Government took it over. Under the federal law, no one, not even the County Prosecutor, is permitted to look at the rolls of public assistance grants. If local officials and local people were responsible for all public welfare and made all records available for public examination such sordid conditions would end quickly, because people wouldn't tolerate these abuses with 'their' money.

Federally-forced adoption of children, like federally forced integration of schools, is wrong. Few Americans would willingly see any baby go without a home, or any needy and deserving person go hungry. But we have a right to determine each case on its merits, at the local level, and preferably with private, free-will charity. As in virtually everything else, local control is more efficient than federal control; and private than $250,000 from the taxpayers in the next 10 years. By the time she finds out what's causing all those blessed events she'll be ready for old age assistance. Sin does not pay? In the Welfare State it does.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. I plan to move soon and find that some magazines to which I subscribe require three months notice to change my address. How early should I send notice to have address changed on my social security checks?

A. If your change of address card is received by the Social control is more efficient than any government. The best day homes, orphanages and schools are private, not public. Government charity denies the American people of freedom of choice.

The answer to the welfare problem is the same as the answer to the farm problem: Get the Federal Government out!

Security Administration by the 15th of the month, the check issued on the 3rd of the following month will be delivered to the new address. Use the postal card given you at the time you filed your claim, or get one from your social security office. Be sure to show your name, claim number, new address, and sign the card.

Q. My neighbor told me that I cannot apply for old-age benefits because I am still working. I am 72½ years old and I do not want to retire yet. Is this information correct?

A. No. A person age 72 or over can receive benefits regardless of the amount of his earnings. For correct information about any phase of the old-age, survivors, and disability insurance program, you should contact your nearest social security office.

Q. If my son continues in school after he is 18, can he continue receiving monthly survivor payments until he is 21?

A. No. His payments end with the month before the month in which he reaches 18.

Our WASHINGTON Letter By Congressman O. C. FISHER

WITH THE DRAWING of the certain in the session of the State Congress, the anti-union drive is being carried on by the employers of the State. An attempt is being made to pass a bill which will give the employer the right to hire and fire at will, without any regard for the rights of the employees. This is a direct violation of the Federal Labor Law. The bill is being pushed through the Legislature by the employers. It is a direct violation of the Federal Labor Law. The bill is being pushed through the Legislature by the employers. It is a direct violation of the Federal Labor Law.

Foreign aid was trimmed by nearly a billion. But most of that was offset by a three-quarter billion dollar outlay authorizing 37,000 additional units of public housing — a direct federal subsidy, although that figure is handled through back-door spending which does not appear in the budget.

CHIEF CREDIT of the session was the Landrum-Griffin anti-racketeering bill which breezed through on the tide of an aroused public opinion.

On the wake of that historic success against the hoodlums and gangsters in the labor movement came the threats upon the political lives of those of us who supported the bill against racketeering. James Carey and Jimmy Hoffa both got into that act with wild-swinging threats of what they would do at the next election.

This brings up the recurring of just how emendable rank-and-file union members are to union leaders who try to tell them how to vote, and just how regimented in that regard union members allow themselves to become.

The dictatorial attitude of labor politicians is evidenced by a statement made by James McDevitt, National Director of the political arm (COPE) of AFL-CIO, who in a speech made at a regional meeting of union leaders in Hartford, Conn., was quoted as saying:

"We are going to get the labor leaders who differ publicly with the position on candidates and issues already established by the labor movement. We are warning you, and we are warning all in the future, do not differ with the movement with respect to issues or candidates. We will not stand for it."

Illegal Kills Keep W. Texas Wardens Busy

Austin — Law enforcement duties in the West Texas area have picked up considerably since the first of September, according to the director of law enforcement of the Texas Game and Fish Commission. Within a week's time, 42 cases were made against hunters in the West Texas area, who killed curlew, plover, and quail out of season. The shooting of curlew and plover is a Federal offense as well as a State offense.

Although there seems to be a bountiful supply of doves throughout the State, shooting in some areas has been somewhat erratic. Weather changes started the bird movements and wardens of some counties report slow hunting. Water hole shooting has been slowed in many areas because of rains. On the other hand, a bountiful grain crop has provided so much food in other areas that doves are not inclined to leave.

The director warned against hunters killing more than their limit of 10 doves, and against violation of shooting hours.

Plans For State Fair Outlined

The program of entertainment, exhibits, livestock shows and special events for the 1959 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 9-25, in Dallas indicates there'll be more to see, more to do, more that's free and more that's new at the nation's largest annual exposition this year.

The daily entertainment calendar of the Fair as usual is crowded, with the famous McGuire Sisters heading a musical revue in the Music Hall and the ever-popular Ice Capades bringing in an all-new show.

The all-free "Shower of Stars" will present Perez Predo and his orchestra Oct. 12, Mitch Miller and 4,000 high school musicians Oct. 13, Red Foley and his Ozark Jubilee TV performers Oct. 15, TV western star Steve McQueen Oct. 16, blues singer Sam Cooke Oct. 19, humorist Herb Shriner Oct. 20 and the bands of Woody Herman and Chris Barber Oct. 21.

Livestock premiums at the Fair are higher than ever, totaling over $120,000, and the judging program is equally impressive, with many new events. The big new $2,000,000 State Fair Livestock Coliseum will house three series of horse shows with judging Oct. 10-18 and Oct. 22-25. The Pan American Livestock Exposition will run Oct. 10-12 and the Junior Livestock Show will follow during the second week of the Fair.

Many foreign nations will have exhibits in the Texas International Trade Fair and the majority of car manufacturers will unveil their 1960 models at the Fair's Automobile Show. Exhibits will also include such novel features as a closed-circuit TV setup where fairgoers can see themselves in color, and the fabled "City of Nikko" exhibition that is being shown outside Japan for the first time.

In the Women's Department there'll be free fashion shows for the ladies and the hundreds of winning entries in needlework, foods, art hobby skills and other traditional categories.

The Agriculture Show will focus attention on modern plant breeding techniques and for the first time all the farm machinery exhibits will be brought together in one large three-acre display. A "man conquering space" area and exhibits of Army and Navy tactical missiles will be reminders of the modern age. And there will be literally hundreds of other free exhibits.

Four football games to be played in the Cotton Bowl during the Fair include SMU-Missouri Oct. 9, Texas-Okla. Oct. 10, Prairie View-Texas Southern Oct. 19 and SMU-Texas Tech Oct. 24.

3 Facts On Vet Pension Act Of 1959 Explained

Three facts about the Veterans Pension Act of 1959 placing future veterans pension payments on a basis of need were explained today by P. J. Mims, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco.

First, the new law does not go into effect until July 1, 1960. Second, it applies only to non-service-connected pensions and will have no effect on service-connected compensation payments.

And last, veterans currently drawing pensions will not have their benefits changed unless they choose to apply under the new law for increased benefits. Their choice is final. Mr. Mims emphasized that information will be sent to all veterans concerned and their dependents before the law becomes effective.

Since there will be ample time to make application, veterans and veterans' families are urged to not write to VA about their individual cases. Such correspondence will delay tremendously the processing of veterans' claims.

Mrs. J. F. Goen left early Wednesday morning for Los Angeles, Calif., where she will visit her son, Johnny Goen, and family and other relatives. She plans to be gone about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Keeney and family attended the Mitchell family reunion in the Coleman City Park Sunday.

"GROWING PAINS"

Does Mama Love Papa?

This should never happen, particularly not in front of the children. Of course there are bound to be disagreements between parents. But they should never be allowed to develop into the sort of thing we see here.

These children are puzzled and frightened. The shrieks of their father and mother terrify them. Homes that rock with family fights can't produce happy, well-adjusted children.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS
By C. WILSON HARDEE

As this is written, the steel strike is still in force. By publication time, the strike may, or may not, be ended.

But regardless of the status of the strike at press time, this is the first major labor dispute in which United States foreign policy, long dominated by free-headed internationalists, has been an issue, whether spoken or not.

The fact remains that in 1946, 1949, 1952, 1955 and 1956, Big Steel settled fairly quickly meeting all, or most of labor's demands.

Altogether, in these five strikes labor won over 50 cents per hour cumulative wages increases, plus pensions, plus overtime, plus holidays, plus vacations, and many other benefits.

And as always, Big Steel boosted the price of their product so that in the end the American consumer paid for whatever Big Steel gave Big Labor. There does not appear to have been any serious consideration in these past strikes of public interest. With 65% of nation's steel production in hands of only four giants, and with another four lesser lights bringing the total up to 82%, there was little chance for consumer to shop.

But now the picture has changed. While Big Steel was blithely giving away the consumer's dollars at the labor bargaining table, the internationalist do-gooder clique was busy giving away the protection the industry had with tariffs.

So today, American steel industry faces low cost, competition from Japanese, German and Belgian steel mills.

Even that standby customer of steel, Detroit is feeling the pinch as the U. S. now imports almost four times as many automobiles as it exports.

Frank Higgins, former assistant Secretary of the Army, in a recent speech on his observations travelling the world since his retirement last March, termed himself a "modern day industrial Paul Revere" and expressed frank alarm over the inroads that foreign manufacturers are making into the American economy.

He reports that under the U. S. foreign aid program, two and a half ton trucks that cost $7100 to build in Detroit are being built in Japan for $3368.

It is known in field of nails, pipe, concrete reinforcing steel, American steel mills are practically out of business as they cannot compete with foreign goods.

Mr. Higgins recommends that a committee from industry, labor, and government be sent abroad to study peril to American industry in the foreign plans and operations. He further believes this committee should report to Congress.

It would probably be well, for a delegation of labor leaders to dip into their treasuries to make such a trip, and broaden their viewpoint of true economic conditions existing with U. S. protective barriers practically eliminated these past few years.

If this were to be done, it would not be unlikely that pickets would be assigned to patrol the U. S. State Dept. carrying cards, "State Dept. unfair to American workers."

Chat & Stitch Club Meeting
The Chat & Stitch Club met Friday, Sept. 11, in the home of Mrs. Arthur Casey, for their first meeting of the club year. Members enjoyed a delightful luncheon at the noon hour and played Forty-two in the afternoon. Mrs. Jess Howard and Mrs. Edgar Shelton won high score. Mrs. Chas. Moseley and Mrs. E. E. Geer won the low score award.

The next meeting of the club will be held Sept. 25 at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. L. O. Garrett as hostess.

MRS. A. L. ODER VISITS OLD HOME
Mrs. A. L. Oder returned to her home here Saturday afternoon, after visiting with relatives and attending a Labor Day Picnic in her old home in Arkansas. Her son, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oder and family of Abilene brought her home.
Mrs. Oder left Friday, Sept. 4, and went to Dallas where she spent the night with a son, Clifford Oder and family. On Saturday she went to Atlanta, Texas, where she was raised and on Sunday attended the church where she became a member in 1891. On Monday, she went to Ravanna, Arkansas, a small village built on land formerly owned by her people, to attend their annual Labor Day Picnic as their guest of honor. Mrs. Oder said she enjoyed the trip very much and saw many old friends, as well as enjoying the fine dinner served at the picnic.

Albany Hands 51-0 Defeat To Mountaineers

The Albany Lions scored eight times Friday night to defeat the Mountaineers 51-0 in the second game of the season for both teams. The Mountaineers threatened only one time in the fourth period when they worked their way down to the Lion 16-yard line, but lost the ball on a fumble.

The Lions served notice early in the game they were going to be hard to do anything with. They are big boys with lots of experience who play hard every down. They will go a long ways in Class A football.

The Mountaineers kicked to the Lion 14-yard line to begin the game. The Lions returned to the Santa Anna 39-yard line, but were called back to their 36 on an infraction of the rules. Failing to gain a first down, the Lions punted to the Santa Anna 39-yard line. The Mountaineers gained 5 yards, then lost it on an infraction and punted to the Lions 29-yard line. The Lions returned the punt to the Santa Anna 31-yard line, then drove over their first TD in five plays. Try for extra point failed.

The Lions kicked-off to the Mountaineer 39-yard line. The Mountaineers fumbled and lost the ball on their first play. On the next play the Lions went 28 yards for their next TD and the try for extra point failed.

The Lions kicked-off to the Mountaineer 35-yard line and the Santa Anna boys returned to their 40-yard line. A pass from Hartman to Drake was good for 10 yards and their first down. Failing to gain the next 10 yards, the Mountaineers punted to the Lions 17-yard line, the Lions returning to their 39-yard line. On a series of short gains, the Lions drove to the Santa Anna 6-yard line as the quarter ended. On the first play in the second period they made the third TD.

After the kickoff, the Mountaineers made a first down, then attempted a long pass that was intercepted about the 17-yard line. The Lions fumbled on the next play, then the Mountaineers tried two running and two pass plays but could not gain. The Lions took over and with passes and ground plays went for another TD that was called back for an infraction. The Mountaineers held on fourth down and took the ball on their 24-yard line. On the next play a fumble cost the Mountaineers the ball and 12 yards, giving the ball to Albany on the Mountaineer 12. It took two plays for the Lions to score again, and this time the extra point was good. Both teams fumbled again and the Mountaineers were in possession on their 35-yard line as the half ended.

The Mountaineers took the kick-off to begin the third period. On the first play they fumbled and lost 15 yards. Albany scored again in short order. The Mountaineers took the kick-off but could not gain a first down, and attempted to punt, but the pun was blocked and recovered in the end zone by Tommy Stewardson. However, the punt was on fourth down and the ball did not travel 10 yards forward, thus it was Albany's ball and another TD for them.

On the next kick-off Voss was injured while returning the kick-off. He suffered a knee injury that will likely keep him out of the line-up for several weeks. He may be able to rejoin the Mountaineers for the last four games. A ligament was pulled in his right knee.

The Mountaineers failed to gain and punted to the Albany 44-yard line. They returned the ball to the Santa Anna 36-yard line, then scored again on a series of short drives.

The Mountaineers took the kick-off and returned to the 31-yard line. A pass was good for almost 10 yards, a penalty against the Lions gave them the first down, then two plays gained another first down, then three plays gained another first down. Attempting to pass in the fourth period, the Mountaineers failed to gain, but a 15-yard penalty against the Lions gave them still another first down and put them on the Lion 16-yard line. A fumble on the next play lost the ball, and the Lions went on to score again. The game ended with the Lions threatening again on the Mountaineer 6-yard line.

YOUR EYES and VISION

No Such Thing As "Too Young" for Eye Examination

We can actually state that it is not even necessary that a child be old enough to talk, let alone read, for a perfectly acceptable eye examination to be made. There is a joke about the crochety old fellow who made an office visit to his physician. When the good doc sat down and asked him what his trouble was the old fellow clammed up with that That was what he was paying the doc a fee to find out! On recovering from his surprise at his patient's uncooperative attitude the doc reached into a desk drawer, pulled out a business card and handed it to the patient with the remark that in that case he thought Dr. So-and-so would do a better job — Dr. So-and-so's patients didn't have to tell him a thing. On the card the crochety patient read the name and address of a local Veterinarian. Certainly adult methods, many of which require cooperation of the patient, must be somewhat modified to get proper results when examining small children's eyes.

After taking the "case history" we examine the exterior appearance of the head and eyes for evidence of past injury or abnormality. This is fairly simple. Not always so simple is examination of the interior of the eyes. This is done with the ophthalmoscope, a small instrument containing a light and held so that the examiner can look at the inside of the child's eyes. The child must only be cooperative enough not to cry and squeeze the eye lids shut.

If all is healthy and normal in the eye the next step is the ophthalmometer, an instrument with which the cornea (front surface of the eye) is observed for defects, and the amount of astigmatism is determined. So far the child has only looked — chart reading, no question "is it better this way or that way."

Next comes the retinoscope another little instrument with a light to verify the ophthalmometer's astigmatism finding and to also give us the approximate amount of nearsightedness or far-sightedness. For this the child must look more or less steadily on something across the room while we sweep the little light from the instrument back and forth across the child's pupil. This light is reflected from the back of the eye something like light shined into a cat's eye. Use of this instrument requires considerable skill on the examiner's part since he must be able to interpret properly the types of movement of the reflection. In order to hold the child's gaze and attention while we do his, an assistant is flashing color slide pictures of boats, airplanes, Santa Claus, etc., on a screen across the room. We rarely experience trouble during the "picture show."

These basic techniques, combined very often with others too numerous and complex to discuss here, enable the thorough optometrist to arrive at a suitable conclusion as to the requirements of the child's eyes without so much as a "yes," "no," or "maybe" from the child.

Heavy Wind And Rain East Thursday Morning

About 6:00 a. m. on Thursday of last week a high wind that was estimated to be blowing from 50 to 60 miles per hour hit Santa Anna and this immediate area. Heavy rain accompanied the wind.

The storm did not last very long, some 15 to 20 minutes, but about 1 1/2 inches of rain fell in that time. Not much wind damage was reported.

The storm was not general, but centrally located in the Santa Anna area. Most of the area received some rain, and the wind did not blow as strong in other areas.

Mrs. Henry Tweddell Injured In Fall Saturday Evening

Mrs. Henry Tweddell, operator of the Tex-Anna Coffee Shop and Hotel, fell near the coffee shop late Saturday evening and broke both bones in both arms in two places. Mrs. Tweddell is in the Santa Anna Hospital.

The right arm is broken in the elbow and wrist and the left arm is broken twice at the elbow. Both arms are in casts up to the shoulders.

She said she was going to a grocery store to purchase some items for the coffee shop, and fell as she walked out the door. She apparently blacked-out as she does not remember falling. Her husband and others in the coffee shop saw her fall.

The Tweddells have been operating the coffee shop for only a short time. When they took over the operation Mr. Tweddell was in the hospital, suffering an injury to a foot that had got caught in a power lawn mower.
