BY THE EDITOR

This is an election year. Offices will be filled from the President of the United States all the way down to the smallest paid election official. Everyone should be proud of their opportunity to have a voice in who will fill the offices. Everyone should qualify themselves to vote by paying your poll tax. And the time to get the poll tax paid will be running out soon. January 31 is the last day you will have the opportunity to pay your poll tax. Be sure you do it now.

In any kind of election, the first qualification is whether your poll tax is paid or not. Various kinds of elections that come up during the course of a year may have other qualifications as to whether you are entitled to a vote or not, but if you do not have an exemption or a poll tax receipt you have no voice in what the outcome will be.

Besides the election of people to National, State, County and Precinct offices, other elections will be for the City Council, the School Board and possibly others that will come up during the year. Another that is likely to come up this year is the sale of alcoholic beverages. Regardless of whether you are on the "dry" or "wet" side, you want to be able to vote your conviction. The only way you will have a voice in it is to pay your poll tax.

Remember, the deadline is January 31. Don't let this date get by you.

AUTO INSPECTIONS

Archie Welch, who operates the only Auto Inspection Station in Santa Anna, reports the auto inspections in this area are going very slow. He said he would ordinarily inspect about 1,000 cars during the inspection period from September 1 through April 15. To date he has inspected only about 200 vehicles, and there is only three months to inspect the remaining 800.

It appears there is going to be several somebodies waiting in line when the time runs out. Let us urge you to get your vehicle inspected now while there is still plenty of time, and in all probability you will not have to wait very long.

And just in case you might be thinking of not having your vehicle inspected, let us remind you that just last month there was one case brought before the local Justice Court because the person did not have any sticker showing an inspection on his windshield. Numerous other cases have been brought before the courts for the same thing. In a nearby community, less than 50 miles from here, a large number of citizens decided they were not going to have their vehicles inspected last year. The law enforcement officers attempted to be reasonable about it, and gave them plenty of time to get the stickers on their windshields. However, about two days after the deadline, the law enforcement officers began giving tickets for not having the new inspection stickers on the windshields, and before the week was up well over 100 tickets had been issued. And well over 100 were late in getting the stickers on their vehicles.

The sticker only costs one dollar. If there is something wrong with your vehicle, the inspection station is required to fix it before the sticker is put on. For this service the inspectors must charge for. But even then it is much cheaper to get the vehicle in proper mechanical condition and the sticker on the windshield, rather than take the chance you will be brought before a judge for not having the sticker on your vehicle.

Old Picture Of Former Breakfast Club

R. L. (Dick) Todd left an old-time picture with us this week. The picture was made May 6, 1924, and is of the members of what was at the time the Business Men's Breakfast Club. Meetings were held in the old Service Cafe.

We have been able to get all the faces in the picture recognized except five. Some of the ones in the picture have already passed to their reward, others are in business in other parts, and some are still here.

Those who have been identified are: Ed Baxter, S. H. Phillips, Dr. R. R. Lovelady, J. J. Gregg, Charlie Eck, J. D. Simpson, Dick Todd, Ben Parker, Homer Hill, Will Ragsdale, Foster May, Jack Woodward, Dr. T. R. Sealy, G. W. Falkner, O. L. Cheaney, Bill Ford, Will Parker, Bill Williamson, Jess Garrett, Parker Bond, Fred Battles, J. Q. Barnes and Harmon Marshall.

Callaway Enters Race For District Judge

MARK CALLAWAY TO THE VOTERS OF COLEMAN COUNTY AND THE 35TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT:

I am entering the race for the office of District Judge of the 35th Judicial District, comprising Brown, Coleman and McCulloch Counties, subject to the action of the coming Democratic Primary.

I was born on a farm in Comanche County, finished high school there, and went to the University of Texas for my academic and legal education. After finishing law school, I went into the army during World War I, served in the air force until the close of the war, then practiced law in Comanche until moving to Brownwood in the late 1920s. I have been continuously in private practice in this area since moving here except such time as I served as District Attorney during World War II.

In June, 1942, Governor Coke Stevenson appointed me District Attorney for this District. I served the rest of that term, was elected without opposition for two more terms, and then reentered private practice.

I am a member of the State Bar of Texas, the Brown County Bar Association, American Legion, Rotary Club, the Democratic Party and the Methodist Church. I am a member of the Brown County Farm Bureau and operate some farm and livestock business. I am married, have one daughter, three grandchildren, and live at 2501 Southside Drive, Brownwood, where I have lived since 1935.

I have represented different clients, individuals, companies, corporations and associations, in civil and criminal matters in all courts, State and Federal, from the City and Justice Courts to the Supreme Court of the State of Texas and the Supreme Court of the United States.

I believe that my experience will enable me to render to the people of this District valuable service in the position of District Judge. I will greatly appreciate the support of all the people of this District, and expect to contact personally as many as possible before the primary.

Kelley To Open Trading Post For Removal Of Mdse.

Mr. W. R. Kelley announces he will open the building, where the Trading Post operated on Saturday, January 16, for one day only. He requests everyone having merchandise in the building to get it out that day.

According to Mr. Kelley, he can find very few records that were kept of the merchandise that was put in the store. He has no way of contacting all the owners, and thus is requesting everyone who has any merchandise there to come and get it this Saturday.

Kelley said he has had a prospect or two of renting the building, but before it can be rented, it must be cleared and some repairs done. All merchandise left in the building at the end of the day will be disposed of by hauling it off or giving it to someone to haul it off.

There is a number of old-time show pieces there as well as a varied assortment of merchandise. If you have receipts for what you left there, you are urged to bring them with you.

There will be no transportation furnished to remove the merchandise. It will be up to the owner to claim the merchandise.

Almost $2 Million On Deposits In Santa Anna National Bank

The statement of the financial condition of the Santa Anna National Bank at the close of business on December 31, 1959 is published elsewhere in this issue of The News. It shows the bank is steadily growing in resources, which amounted to $2,207,389.27 at the end of the year.

Actual deposits amounted to $1,985,726.54 as compared with $1,917,823.12 at the same time a year ago, an increase of almost $68,000. Undivided profits amount to over $66,000 and the bank paid a $5,000.00 dividend on Dec. 31.

Loans and discounts amounted to $535,625, while a year ago they amounted to $555,536. Total resources at the end of 1959 were $2,128,348.

School Census Underway To Be Completed In Jan.

The census for enrollment in the Santa Anna Schools for the 1960-61 school year is now underway. It is necessary that the census be completed in this month.

Cullen N. Perry, Superintendent of Schools, said he was primarily interested in contacting parents of children who will be in the First Grade next year. All children in the Santa Anna District who were born before September 1, 1954 and after September 1, 1942 should be enumerated with the school census. These dates mean that any child who will be 6 years of age on or before September 1, 1960 and under the age of 18-years on the same date should be counted in the census.

Census blanks have been sent to every parent or guardian who have children in school now. These forms should be filled out according to instructions sent with the blank, and returned to the school as soon as possible.

Parents with children who will be in the First Grade beginning with the 1960-61 school term are the ones the school is particularly interested in. Each child enumerated with the school means about $75.00 each in state aid to the school, and it is very important that each be properly listed.

If you have, or know of any one who has, a child who will begin school for the first time next school term, you are urged to telephone the school office and give them the information. It will not be necessary for you to go to the school. Just let them know of the child, and someone will come to see you.

Your cooperation is urgently requested, and you are asked to keep in mind this census count must be completed by the end of January.

Influenza Takes Toll Of Students

An outbreak of influenza over the weekend and during the first part of the week has taken a heavy toll of students from both schools.

In the elementary school there were 35 out on Monday, 38 out on Tuesday and 36 out on Wednesday. Usually there is about 6 to 8 absent, but this is mid-term week when attendance is expected to be as good as possible.

In the high school there were 27 absent on Monday, 15 on Tuesday and 16 on Wednesday. Usually there is 4 to 5 absent from the high school.

A number are still attending school who would likely otherwise be at home if it were not for the mid-term exams.

Cupps And Martin Re-elected To WCID Directors

Elmer Cupps and Howell Martin were re-elected to the Board of Directors of the Coleman County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1, in an election held in Trichham Tuesday, January 12. Twenty-three votes were cast in the election.

Cupps has served as president of the WCID for the past year. Martin has served as Secretary and Treasurer for two years.

Cupps said the board would meet in the near future for the election of officers.

Stockholders Of Bank Have Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Santa Anna National Bank was held Tuesday afternoon in the bank's executive office. A number of changes were made in the officers.

W. T. Stewardson was re-elected President and made Chairman of the Board; Mrs. B. Weaver was re-elected Vice President; O. L. Cheaney was elected Executive Vice President; Dawson See was elected a Vice President; Glen Copeland was elected Cashier; and Lavern Evans was elected Assistant Cashier.

This is the first change in the officers of the bank in the past several years. O. L. Cheaney has been serving in the capacity as Executive Vice President and Cashier. See, Copeland and Mrs. Evans have been serving as Assistant Cashiers.

A statement of the condition of the bank at the close of business December 31, 1959, is published elsewhere in this issue of The News.

March Of Dimes Drive Gets Underway Here

The annual drive for funds for the New March of Dimes got underway in Santa Anna last week. Coin containers have been placed in most of the local business establishments and the Delta Omicron Sorority is planning a "Snatch Coffee" on Saturday, January 23. Then on Monday, February 1, the Sorority will sponsor the annual Mother's March.

Mr. and Mrs. Chap Eeds started the drive off again this year with their contribution of $50.00. Other contributions have been received from the 20th Century Club, the Chat & Stitch Club and Mrs. A. L. Oeder.

Anyone interested in making contributions to the March of Dimes is requested to leave your contributions at the Santa Anna National Bank, or at The News office. Your contributions are urgently needed for the continued fight against polio and for stepped up programs that include birth defects and arthritis.

Pastor Called For North Side Baptist Church

The Rev. James Rogers, pastor of a Missionary Baptist Church near Nacogdoches, Texas, has accepted the call to the North Side Baptist Church as pastor. Rev. Rogers was called last week and was here over the weekend. He announced his acceptance of the church at the Sunday night services.

Rev. and Mrs. Rogers were born and reared at Port Arthur, Texas. He attended the Missionary Baptist College at Jacksonville. They have two sons and one daughter, all under school age.

Plans are for the family to move here on Friday of this week. They will live in the Lenton Oakes house in the Sealy Addition. He will begin his regular duties with the church on Sunday.

Eastern Star To Have First Meeting Of New Year

The Star Point Officers of the Santa Anna Chapter No. 247, will be honored at the Eastern Star meeting Monday, January 18, beginning at 7:30 p. m. in the Masonic building.

The program, "Our Colored Rays," will be presented under the direction of the Program Committee, Mrs. Rosa Bass, Mrs. Emma House, Mrs. Faye Mobley and Mrs. Charlotte Scott.

Members are urged to be present in order to prepare for the official visit of the Deputy Grand Matron of this district.

Hostesses for the social hour will be Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gray and Mrs. Pauline Garrett.

Mother's March Set For Monday, Feb. 1st

The Delta Omicron Sorority, who has had charge of the Mother's March for the March of Dimes for the past several years, will again sponsor the drive this year. In addition they will also sponsor a "Snatch Coffee" on Saturday, January 23, with the proceeds going to the New March of Dimes.

The Mother's March has been set up for Monday night, February 1. Members of the Sorority will request the help from a number of other ladies in town to help complete the drive in as short a time as possible. All who are asked to help are urged to cooperate.

Plans are for the drive to begin at 7:00 p. m. and every house in town will be canvassed. The town will be divided into zones, with as many workers as possible assigned to each zone. It is hoped the drive can be completed in one hour or less time.

Mrs. Bess Gill, president of the Sorority, said other ladies of the area would be contacted before the drive and assigned to various areas.

The "Snatch Coffee" will be held throughout the day Saturday, January 23, in the Community Room of the Santa Anna National Bank. Members of the Sorority will be working the streets all day. They will take you by the arm, lead you to the Community Room, where fresh coffee and a variety of delicious delicacies will be awaiting you. After being served, you will donate what amount you care to the March of Dimes.

Last year the "Snatch Coffee" proved to be a popular feature. It is hoped the outcome will be beneficial to the drive this year.

Fire Prevention Discussed At Meeting Thursday Afternoon

The three causes of fires, smoking, gasoline and electricity, are dangerous only when misused, explained Mr. John R. Rauch, Instructor in Fire Prevention Training from College Station, Texas.

He talked on Fire Prevention and Control of Home Fires, using a demonstration "There's Dynamite in Your Home" at a meeting in the Payne Building in Santa Anna Thursday, Jan. 7, with a good attendance.

Liberty and Rockwood HD Clubs were hostesses and Mrs. W. H. Pittard of the Liberty Club welcomed the students and others attending and introduced Mr. Rauch.

Heart Attack Takes Life Of E. L. Day

E. L. Day, a lifetime resident of Santa Anna, died in the Santa Anna Hospital Saturday morning, January 9, after suffering a heart attack a few days before. Funeral services were held in the First Baptist Church at 3:00 p. m. Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Hugh Stiles of Ozona, a former pastor of the Dillery Baptist Church, officiated, assisted by Austin Shurt, minister of the Coleman Church of Christ.

Mr. Day was born in Santa Anna April 29, 1904. He had lived in the Santa Anna area all his 55 years, 6 months and 10 days. He pumped an oil lease east of town, and had spent most of his adult years working in oil fields. He was converted and joined the Liberty Baptist Church in the summer of 1940. For most of his life he had been the church song leader. He was married to the former Gladys Woodward June 12, 1935 in Santa Anna.

Survivors include his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Virginia Rice of Sand Springs, Okla., two sons, Louis Roland Day of Midland and Billy E. Day of Coleman; three sisters, Mrs. Lolo Tisdale of Brady, Mrs. Wellene Alcorn of Talpa and Miss Ida May Day of Brownwood; one brother, John Roy Day of Abilene; two granddaughters, Leola Day of Midland and Belma Rice of Sand Springs, Okla., and two grandsons, Jody Day of Coleman and Mickey Lynn Rice of Sand Springs.

Pallbearers were Carl Autrey, Sammie Powers, Fred Hicks, Eugene Gilliam, Vernon Davis and H. W. Norris.

Burial was in the Santa Anna Cemetery under the direction of Hosh Funeral Home.

Put your hope for good and all in the grace that is coming to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. (1 Peter 1:13, Moffatt.)
Clouds are gathering, darkened by the turbulent winds of hatred, jealousy, envy, and fear. Many persons are losing hope in things worldly. When trust in things of the world fails, we then look for hope from above.
If we lift our eyes to the hills, we can behold the hallowed mountains of God's holiness. On top we can see a cross from which light is streaming upon our darkened world. This cross of Christ radiates the splendid glory of God's unending love and grace.

We have just lately observed Christmas, the birthday of our Lord and Saviour. The Christmas story is a very simple one — God's love revealed in Jesus Christ. To know this is sufficient for us. What do we need more than to have Christ as our master and friend? He is the light of the world and the hope of man.

Let us have hope in God and faith in His Son.

PRAYER:
O God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we beseech Thee to be with us this day. Strengthen our hearts, comfort our troubled souls. Guide us as we travel on our journey of life. Lead us in the way of the cross of Christ. Help us in all things, for the sake of Christ and in His name. Amen.

State Capitol NEWS

Austin, Tex. — Most important date for Texas voter this month is Jan. 31.

After that it will be too late to get a poll tax receipt that will enable him to participate in this year's merry-go-round of political events.

Since 1960 is a presidential election year, lines will probably be long on the night of the 31st. Safest course is to do it now.

This year's poll tax receipts, for the first time, have a place for the owner's party affiliation to be stamped. But the voter doesn't have to decide this when he pays the tax.

Decision is made when the holder casts his primary vote. A person who votes in the Democratic primary will have his receipt stamped "Democrat." That means he can't go to a Republican convention that evening.
Also, if he fails to go to the Democratic primary to vote and doesn't have his receipt stamped at all, he can't get into a Democratic precinct convention.

As far as the general election in November is concerned, the new party registration law apparently makes little difference. There would be no way for anyone to know whether the holder of a receipt stamped for one party voted that party's straight ticket in the general election.

BLANKETS STATE.
First goal of the Johnson-for-President organization in Texas has been reached.

Clubs have been organized in all 254 counties in the state, according to Director Larry Blackmon.

Goal was reached just about a month after the state headquarters was set up in Austin. In addition, there are about six other clubs in Texas and several out of state.

Supporters of Sen. Lyndon Johnson are expected to keep the state lively during the coming months.

RELOCATION PAYMENTS UPHOLD

City officials and private utilities are joyful over a State Supreme Court's decision that will save the cities' and companies some $28,000,000.

High court ruled constitutional the law that provides for the state to reimburse cities' and companies for the expense of moving utilities for interstate highway building projects.

Law was passed by the Legislature in 1957. It was challenged by the Attorney General's Department on grounds it violated the constitutional prohibition of "donating" public funds to private firms.

Austin, Dallas and four utility companies were combined in the test case. Their attorneys contended the reimbursement was simply payment for work done for the state.

Austin city officials called the decision "a lifesaver." It will save the city $500,000 on one project. Dallas County will save an estimated $9,000,000.

Ninety percent of the money the state spends on the interstate highway system comes from the federal government.

TRAFFIC TOLL OUT
Texans were more careful than expected in their year-end travel.

Department of Public Safety predicted that 111 would be killed on the roads during the Christmas-New Year period. Tentative total is only 91. There may be more if some of those seriously injured do not recover.
Col. Homer Garrison Jr., DPS director, thanked all the news organizations, official agencies and law enforcement officers who worked to make Texas safety conscious.

AUTO RATES BECOME ISSUE
Pros and cons of the new merit rating system for auto insurance are expected to be at issue in the 1960 campaigns.

Some legislators have been highly critical of the plan to make drivers with accident and violation records pay more insurance. Other lawmakers have defended it.

Gov. Price Daniel says he favors correction of any inequities that may exist in the program.

Industry is divided. A spokesman for the National Association of Independent Insurers has announced that his group will try to get the Insurance Board's plan replaced with a flexible rating law. Legislature has twice turned down flexible rating, which allows companies to set their own rates.

Other industry groups have endorsed the merit plan, some with statements that it may need adjustments, but should be given a fair trial.

THERMOMETERS "LEGALIZED"

All the people who have been unknowingly breaking the law in regard to possession of mercury are off the hook.

Court of Criminal Appeals has declared void an old, forgotten section of a law making it a felony offense to have mercury without a bill of sale or proof of legal ownership.

Law was aimed at preventing the stealing of mercury from pipeline meters.

Uncounted thousands of housewives and doctors have flaunted it by buying thermometers and medicines containing mercury and throwing away the bill of sale.

TRINITY HEARING

Desirability of a new Trinity River Dam near Houston is still a point of controversy before the State Waterboard.

Hearing began in November, recessed for the holidays, then began again with all participants swinging hard.

Houston and the Trinity River Authority are asking a permit to build a dam and a salt water barrier. Project would supply an estimated 1,200,000,000 gallons of water daily, the better part to be used by Houston.

San Jacinto River Authority is opposing the dam. Its spokesmen counted Houston should develop the San Jacinto and leave Trinity water to the Trinity basin.

SHORT SHORTS

State cigarette taxes for December totaled $3,738,896, almost a 50 percent increase from a year ago. Liquor tax collections also were up, said the state treasurer's office, from $900,378 in December, 1958, to $1,154,041 this year. A statewide survey of the problems of Texas distillers is planned by the governor's committee on aging. Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro is chairman of the committee which is to hold a state conference next fall.

VA Has $800,000 For Direct Loans In Jan., Feb., Mar.

The Waco Regional Office of the Veterans Administration has been advised they will have $800,000 to be used in making direct loans to veterans for the purchase or construction of homes or farm homes during January, February and March 1960, P. J. Mims, Manager, announced today.

Direct loans up to $13,500 at 5 1/2 percent interest can be made to eligible veterans living in the following counties and who are unable to obtain a guaranteed loan from private lenders: Anderson, Bastrop, Bell (except cities of Temple and Killeen), Bosque, Brazos, Brown, Burleson, Burnet, Cherokee, Coleman, Comanche, Concho, Coryell, Erath, Falls, Fayette, Freestone, Hamilton, Hill, Lampasas, Lee, Leon, Limestone, McLennan (except city of Waco and incorporated towns of Beverly Hills, Bellmead, Lacy-Lakeview), Madison, Milam, Mills, Navarro, Robertson, Runnels, San Saba, Travis (except city of Austin), and Williamson.

*Veterans living in these areas and who want to get a direct loan should have a property picked out, then request application forms from the VA Regional Office, Waco, Texas. Mr. Mims said applications for direct loans will be processed in the order in which received.

Additional information about eligibility requirements for these loans can be obtained either from the VA Regional Office in Waco or from any contact representative at the VA Hospitals, Martin, Texas and Temple, Texas; or at VA Offices in Brownwood, Corsicana, and Austin.

Under existing laws the Direct Loan program expires July 25, 1960. Also, as a reminder, World War II veterans have until July 25, 1960, to use their benefits.

Further information about veterans' benefits may be obtained from any VA office.

Whon News

By MRS. TOM RUTHERFORD

The community center monthly supper was very poorly attended Saturday night due to illness in several homes. The supper is a monthly affair each 2nd Saturday night. When the ailings clear, we hope for better attendance.

Mrs. Aaron Avant was dismissed from the Santa Anna Hospital Sunday after undergoing surgery previously. We are glad to report she feels fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Buse and Earla visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowden in Brownwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bradley of Fife visited with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cozart Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Lavaughn Snowden and children of Brady were Sunday guests with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Grahm Fitzpatrick and family.

Mrs. Floyd Morris visited with Mrs. Aaron Avant and Mrs. Earl Cozart Monday afternoon.

Our sympathy to the Estes children of Rockwood over the loss of their father, Mr. J. A. Estes.

M/Sgt. Bill Bryan left from Brownwood Friday morning after being here with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Ann Bryan and Frances, for three weeks. M/Sgt. Bryan is stationed in Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Rutherford and Rocky of Brownwood were Sunday dinner guests of his parents, the Tom Rutherford.

Mr. and Mrs. Emel Bowers of Melvin were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Babe Gardiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Avant and children of Brady visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Avants Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Matissic and children of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Turney and children of Santa Anna, were weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Turney.

Mr. and Mrs. Babe Gardiner visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cozart Saturday afternoon.

Jamie Lee Morris spent one night last week with Mike England. Joe Floyd Morris spent the night in the Fitzpatrick home. They couldn't cross Home Creek to get home.

LEANN BRYAN HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Curtis Bryan honored her daughter, Leann, on her fifth birthday with a party at the Rockwood Community Center, Saturday afternoon. Decorations were balloons and Happy Birthday motifs. Party hats were crowns and napkins had Happy Birthday Princess, engraved. Paperdoll books and crayons were enjoyed.

A large decorated birthday cake centered the refreshment table. It was decorated with sugar swans, water lilies and ballerina girls. Cup cakes decorated with swans and dolls and pink punch were served to Frankie, Debbie and Kim Bray, Serena Bryan, Loretta and Maritta Broadway, Judy Brusenhan, Kathy Hambright and the honoree. Also Mrs. Wayne Bray, Mrs. Mack Hambright and Mrs. Bill Bryan and Mrs. Curtis Bryan.

A renegade rider in the Old West was one who was employed to visit distant ranches, gathering up any stock branded with his employer's brand and returning the stock home.

Students Write Themes About Fire Prevention

(Editor's note: Following is the sixth and final in a series of themes by Santa Anna students on Fire Prevention. This theme, by Bobby Langford, was the third place winner in the Sophomore Class.)

ELECTRICAL FIRES

By BOBBY LANGFORD.

Electricity is one of the major causes of fires. One out of every eight fires is caused by electricity. Some of the reasons for electrical fires are as follows: The improper use and care of electrical appliances is one of the causes of fires. For example, an iron that is left on and setting on an ironing board. If the wire to an appliance is worn or frayed don't use it. If an appliance blows fuses or has to be shaken to establish contact, have it repaired before it is used.

The improper installation of electrical appliances is also a cause of fires. For example, the television set generates a large amount of heat and unless it is in a properly ventilated place it could cause a fire also a lightning arrester should be put on your television antenna, as it is a likely place for lightning to strike which could very easily cause a fire.

Improper wiring causes many fires. Houses that were built several years ago probably need rewiring as they were not wired for all of the modern electrical appliances that have been built since then. Even in a new house the wiring should be checked every year for frayed wires, loose connections, and broken sockets. Any of these could cause a fire.

Putting a penny or tinfoil in a fuse box instead of a fuse is extremely dangerous. With no fuse to break the circuit it would be very easy to overload the wiring. The insulation would be burned off the wire and this would cause a fire. Never use a fuse for higher amperage than what is called for in the directions, as this would have almost the same effect as a coin or tinfoil would.

Alaska is known as "Seward's Folly."

Saber-toothed tigers are now extinct.

Paint Rock Lions Club To Show "Painted Rocks"

The Paint Rock Lions Club will sponsor the showing of the "Painted Rocks", the largest collection of Indian paintings in the United States, January 24 and 31. The Paint Rock Lions Club has sponsored the showings of this collection of paintings for the last four years. These were painted by different tribes of Indians over an indeterminate number of years. Some are said to be more than 300 years old.

The entrance to the Rocks is located one-half mile north of Paint Rock on Highway 83, just north of the Concho River bridge.

Admission will be $1.00 per car. Proceeds to go to the March of Dimes.

Gates will open at 1:30 p. m. and close at 5:30 p. m. During this time, guided tours will be made for the historic paintings.

Too Much Mistletoe Can Damage A Tree

Does mistletoe kill trees? For many years people have been asking this question. The latest word from Harlan E. Smith, extension plant pathologist, is that a few mistletoe plants growing on a large healthy tree probably will do little damage.

However, he notes, when these plants become too numerous, they should be removed, especially from valuable ornamental trees. Mistletoe, he explained, is a parasitic flowering plant with small flowers and white berries, and is frequently seen growing on limbs of such trees as hackberry, osage orange, oak, elm and mesquite. It obtains its water from the tree upon which it grows and may weaken or even kill the tree, especially when numerous.

It can be rapidly pruned out with a saw or knife or can be broken off with a hook fastened to the end of a pole. Later, new mistletoe sprouts may arise from the point where the original plant was attached and these should likewise be removed. Smith says at present no chemicals

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

The Federal Trade Commission has awakened to the fact that there is some hanky panky in the baking business, and has charged two bakers with giving discounts to favored customers.

Huber Baking Company, selling over 4,000 accounts in the states near its home base in Wilmington, Delaware, is charged with giving a few favored chain store accounts discounts of 5%. C. W. Harder, Continental Baking, the nation's largest bakery combine, is charged with giving discounts to some chains of up to 7%.

The steps taken by Continental Baking Company in the past few years are most interesting, and would seem to explode the oft-held theory that big monopoly type operations have a higher level of ethics, and are operated by a much smarter management group than independent businessmen.

It was not too long ago that Continental was advertising its wonder bread over the radio with the startling story that "if your child had stopped growing, start feeding him Wonder bread, and in just eight days he will resume normal growth."

Eventually the FTC stepped in on this, but in the meantime the big baking combine made themselves and their brand ridiculous in the minds of hundreds of thousands of mothers, who just couldn't seem to buy this story that a couple of slices of any bread would start Junior growing like a weed.

Continental also launched with huge sums of advertising a so-called diet bread named Profile. The advertising was based on the premise that bread is fattening. But a slice of Profile had less calories than ordinary white bread, including presumably their own Wonder bread.

Of course, they completely neglected to mention that their Profile bread was sliced much thinner than ordinary bread.

Now, actually, Profile and all the other diet breads haven't created enough volume to make any inroads into the market. But it cannot be said the advertising was not successful.

As a matter of fact it was so successful that the sales of everybody's white bread went into a decline, and has not come back up yet, with the resulting loss to wheat farmers, or rather the taxpayers who make up the wheat support price payments.

So here is a perfect example of the astuteness of huge corporation management.

Now, apparently, according to FTC allegations it would very much appear that this great corporate brain decided the only avenue left open to them to hold up prices was to give special cut prices to the bigger retail outlets.

The Continental Baking story is an interesting one. If anything is ever needed to explode the myth of the higher competence of huge corporation methods over independent businessmen, this story should furnish it. And for this result, hundreds of thousands of good sound independent bakers were driven out of business. It would perhaps be comical, if it were not so tragical.

Spotlight Falls on Sabin And Live-Virus Vaccine

Dr. Albert Bruce Sabin, whose name has made front page medical news in the past few months, has traveled a long way since his childhood.

For the first 15 years of his life he lived in depressing poverty in Bialystok, Impaired Russia. The chances that he would ever emerge from this obscurity were dim indeed.

Million-Dollar Research

Today, however, he is known as one of the leaders in the long, often discouraging battle against polio. His specialty is the development of a vaccine made of strains of viruses "killed" to give immunity against polio, though they have lost their power to paralyze.

Dr. Sabin's medical research ability was early recognized by The National Foundation, parent organization of the New March of Dimes. As far back as 1940, he received his first research grant, often subsequently renewed. The total sum now stands at well over a million dollars.

During the last two summers, the sudden reappearance of polio in epidemic form turned the national spotlight on the live-virus vaccine. Salk vaccine, produced by killing the virus with chemicals, was also developed under March of Dimes grants. It brought high protection to millions. But other millions resisted or neglected to get their injections and whole areas remained "vaccination soft spots" vulnerable to epidemic attack.

Vaccine in Candy

Now reports began coming in that the live-virus vaccine was almost 100 per cent protective and gave immunity that could last a lifetime with only one dose, taken orally in syrup or candy. It was cheap, could be distributed easily and was infinitely easier to administer than Salk's injections. More field trials and licensing by the U.S. Public Health Service are needed, however, before live-virus vaccine can be widely used.

Obviously, Dr. Sabin's contributions to the nation's health will give him a ranking position among research scientists. Here are a few outstanding dates pin-pointing his successes:

1921: Young Sabin and family managed to immigrate to the United States. He lived in Paterson, N.J., where he attended high school.

1931: At New York University's medical school he started his first research effort. He found that a skin test, then thought to indicate polio susceptibility, wasn't valid.

1935: Joined the research staff of the Rockefeller Institute, doing basic research on the poliovirus. A year later he and Dr. Peter K. Olitsky found a way of growing the virus in test tubes on nervous tissue, a major break-through.

1939: Transferred to the University of Cincinnati's College of Medicine where he performed many autopsies on persons who had died of polio. Established conclusively that the poliovirus did not reach the brain by way of the olfactory nerves.

1953: Succeeded in breeding poliovirus in mutated form. These new strains multiplied in the human body and created protective antibodies, yet did not have the strength to cause paralysis.

1959: Dr. Sabin's vaccine has been given massive field trials to a total of over 6,000,000 persons outside the United States. Full and final reports have, however, not yet come in.

American health authorities, including the Vaccination Advisory Committee of The National Foundation, have advised caution in use of live-virus vaccine in the United States at this time. More field trials and evaluations, with more comprehensive reporting, were recommended. Meanwhile The National Foundation—and Dr. Sabin himself—have urged all Americans to get Salk injections until the live-virus vaccine has been licensed.

4,000 Letters Mailed To Truck Owners

Four thousand letters are being mailed to North Texas truck owners, according to Mr. V. W. Newman, Administrative Officer of the Brownwood office.

A comparison of state registration records and the Internal Revenue Service records revealed that most of these taxpayers are delinquent in filing and paying the Federal highway use tax. Mr. Newman explained it appears that many truck owners did not seem to understand they were subject to the Federal Highway use tax.

He further explained the letters to the truck owners contain full instructions on how to prepare a return and pay the tax. He invited truck owners, who have questions or who do not understand the letter of instruction, to visit the Internal Revenue Service office for further help.

Our WASHINGTON Letter By Congressman O. C. FISHER

THE PRESIDENT'S State-of-the-Union message contained at least two rosy points that stood out: first, he announced that now appears the budget for the current fiscal year, despite the steel strike, will be balanced with $200 million to spare. Secondly, he gave advance notice that the budget for the next fiscal year, which will be officially released later this month, will be balanced with $4 billion surplus.

In commenting on the general economic outlook, the President said with confidence that 1960 promises to be the most prosperous year in our history.

The prospective $4 billion surplus next year should, the President said, be applied to reduce the national debt. With this I agree. But the surplus is not certain. There is already a rash of brand new spending measures pending and this is election year. But if the line can be held against nonessentials, the outlook is bright and encouraging.

AS IS ALWAYS TRUE on Presidential election years, the Capitol Hill atmosphere is thick with politics. Already the highly vocal radical liberal group in the Senate is threatening Senator Johnson's leadership.

There are political overtones in such rumblings which could, if they become disgustingly vocal, rebound to the benefits of Senator Johnson in advancing his Presidential prospects.

Tree Seedlings Available For Windbreak Plantings

College Station - Established windbreaks are an excellent means of preventing wind erosion of valuable topsoil as well as providing protection for farmsteads, especially in West Texas. The Texas Forest Service this year will again make available tree seedlings for planting windbreaks.

Deadline on orders for the seedlings is March 1, according to Bill Smith, extension forestry specialist. Red cedar, Arizona Cypress, Austrian pine, ponderosa pine, cottonwood, mulberry, sycamore and osage orange (bois d'arc) seedlings are available and will be shipped for planting shortly after March 1.

The seedlings will be packaged bare-rooted in moss and moisture-proof paper rather than being individually wrapped in burlap. Smith pointed out that the seedlings may be used only for windbreaks - not for shade or ornamental purposes.

Application blanks may be procured from county agents and Soil Conservation Service district offices in the West Texas area. In addition, the forms are available upon request from the Director, Texas Forest Service, College Station.

Smith added that most calls for the small trees come from West Texas but that any farmer or rancher in Texas can buy them.

Texas Rural Heroism Award Announced

College Station - The first Texas Rural Heroism Award will be presented this spring by the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council to a person who during the past year has exhibited exceptional bravery at the time of a crisis or disaster in his or her local community. The award will be made annually by the Council.

To be eligible for the award, according to the Council, a person must live in a rural area of the State or in a community of less than 2,500 population. The award may go to a person credited with removing another person from a burning building or to one who has saved another from drowning or has rescued some one involved in a machine or tractor accident. A person who has rendered exceptional service in the case of a tornado, flood or other disasters or accidents should make a most worthy nomination for the award.

The award, an engraved plaque, will be presented as a feature of the annual meeting in March of the Texas Safety Association.

The award winner will be chosen on a nomination basis. The material which must accompany the nomination includes a narrative giving full details of the incident along with full names of all people involved and with news clippings and pictures, if available. The winner will be chosen by a panel of judges based on evidence submitted on the nominee.

All nominations should be submitted to Calvin Pigg, chairman, Awards Committee, Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, 3900 Barnett Street, Fort Worth, Texas, by February 15, 1960. Local county agents or any member of the Council can supply full details on the award and on submitting nominations.

By recognizing heroic rural service in this manner, the award will serve to stress the continuing need for improved safety conditions in rural areas - at work, in the home or at play, says the Council.

Arbor Day To Be Observed Friday, Jan. 15

College Station - (Spl.) Arbor Day, the time for Texans to recognize the importance of trees, will be observed on January 15, according to an official proclamation issued by Governor Price Daniel.

In his proclamation of December 18, Governor Daniel said, "The State of Texas derives many benefits from its trees - as a forest crop, as a raw material for its industries, as protection for its soil, as cover for wildlife, and as attractive landscaping plants for our homes, parks, and public roads."

Our forest wealth is important to the continued progress of our State. Trees are living objects of beauty and utility - a renewable resource which must be protected from the ravages of forest fires and disease.

Therefore, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate Friday, January 15, 1960, as Arbor Day in Texas.

The need for observing Arbor Day in Texas was first recognized in Temple, a community which originally had comparatively few trees. In 1889 the citizens of Temple passed a resolution advocating the designation of February 22 as Arbor Day. Introduced in the legislature by Senator Tyler of Belton, the Arbor Day resolution became a law. The original Arbor Day law expired in 1925. During the succeeding 24 years, the custom of observing Arbor Day on George Washington's birthday was continued by the Governor's proclamation. In 1949 the Texas State Legislature adopted a resolution designating the third Friday in January as Arbor Day.

Suggested programs and other information on Arbor Day are available from the Texas Forest Service, A and M College System, College Station, Texas.

Future Calf Crop Dependent On Present Management

College Station - Your 1960-61 beef calf crop may be affected by the management practices being used now, according to Uel D. Thompson, extension animal husbandman. Very few winter weeds, grasses and legumes had started growth prior to the early freezes this year. The husbandman said his created a situation not experienced every year.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Glascock of Cisco visited Sunday afternoon with his sister, Mrs. John Lowe.

Mrs. Roger George of Brady visited her father, R. L. Todd, on Saturday.

Thomas Jefferson was the first U. S. Secretary of State.

Benjamin Franklin was the first U. S. Postmaster General.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Payne during the holidays, and who have just returned to their homes are: J. W. Payne and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sorrels of Phoenix, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Tommy G. Priddy and family of Bloomfield, N. M.; and Mrs. Jimmy C. Payne of San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eaton of Fort Worth visited Sunday afternoon and night with their aunts, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vanderford and Mrs. Maud Smith.

Other visitors Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Rip Mayo of Coleman and Mrs. Garwin Glascock of Cisco.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Moredock were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moredock and family of Houston, Duane Moredock of Madisonville, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tucker and family of Aztec, N. M.

PTA Has Regular Meeting Wed., Jan. 6

The Santa Anna Parent-Teacher Association met on Wednesday, January 6, in the Ward School cafeteria for a regular monthly meeting.

A color film on lung cancer was shown, followed by a short talk by Rev. Ray Elliott.

Mrs. Ray Swindell, president, led the business meeting. A financial report was given, and the group adopted a project for the year. It was voted to purchase a radio and record player to complete the intercommunication system in the Ward School building. The system was installed last year by the PTA.

The attendance award for the meeting was a tie between Mrs. Taylor's first grade room and Miss Odum's 4th and 5th grade room. Mrs. Taylor's room also received the award for the largest percentage of parents in the PTA.

The next meeting of the group will be on Wednesday, February 3.

20th Century Club Met With Mrs. Goen

Mrs. Nora Goen was hostess to the 20th Century Club in her home Friday, January 8 at 2:00 p. m. Mrs. Clifford Stephenson presided over a short business meeting, when it was decided to donate $5.00 to the March of Dimes. It was also decided to have an all-day meeting and quilting on Friday, January 15.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Goen presided over a panel discussion on our public schools and what are the chief needs. Other topics discussed during the panel session were: The need of a Teacher Pay Raise; The Need to Pay Your Poll Tax; The Chief Traffic Hazard in Our Town; and Do You Feel Every Rogue Begins by being a Disobedient child.

A lot of thought provoking ideas were brought out on each question, and a very interesting discussion was enjoyed.

A nice refreshment plate was served to those present. Sickness prevented several members from attending.

YWA Met With Reta Ing Wed.

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Miss Reta Ing Wednesday, January 6, at 6:00 p. m. for their regular weekly meeting.

Clois Cullins was in charge of the program. The scripture reading was Psalms 46. The program, Hurricane Republic, was about Cuba and the doors that are opening every day there for the missionaries to tell the people about Christ.

Sonja Dunn presided over a short business meeting. Reta Ing was presented a gold seal for saying the YWA Watchword, Ideals and Dedication. She is the first girl to receive the seal.

Refreshments of chocolate cake and ice cream were served to: Mrs. Maurice Malow, Sonja Dunn, Frances Biggs, Clois Cullins, Carole Campbell, Barbara Allen, Ellen Lewis, Roberta Morgan, Ruth Radle and two guests, Neva Cornett and Sandra DeSha. Also to Mrs. Charles Ing and Reta.

20TH CENTURY CLUB, TO MEET FRIDAY WITH MRS. VANDERFORD

The 20th Century Club will meet with Mrs. W. E. Vanderford Friday, January 15, for an all-day meeting and quilting. All members are urged to attend and visitors are welcome.

A covered dish luncheon will be served at the noon hour.

Needlecraft Club Has Regular Meeting

The regular meeting of the Needlecraft Club was held in the home of Mrs. Cecil Curry Thursday, January 7 at 3:30 p. m. Some of the ladies brought handwork and the others enjoyed conversation.

Miss Jettie Kirkpatrick, Vice-President, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. Edd Bartlett. Names were drawn for secret pairs.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. W. E. Wallace, Virgil Newman, John Brown, T. H. Upton, Dovie Chapman, Hattie Guthrie, Keetie Haynes, A. R. Brown, Ione Caton, Ura Dillingham, Miss Kirkpatrick and the hostess, Mrs. Curry.

Sorority Meeting Held Monday Night

Members of the Delta Omicron Sorority met for their regular business meeting Monday evening, January 11, in the Community Room of the Santa Anna National Bank. Eleven members were present.

Rev. Ray Elliott, pastor of the First Methodist Church, was guest speaker for the evening and presented a very interesting discussion on First Aid.

The group voted to hold a "Snatch Coffee" in the bank's Community Room Saturday, January 23, with the proceeds going to the March of Dimes. They also voted to sponsor the annual Mother's March on Polio.

Mrs. Woodruff Hostess To Self Culture Club

Mrs. Nona Woodruff was hostess for the regular meeting of the Self Culture Club on Friday of last week. Mrs. Charles Ing, vice president, was in charge of the business meeting.

Miss Jettie Kirkpatrick introduced the program, on Hawaii. Mrs. Ing read a paper, prepared by Mrs. Richard Horner, on the Geography and Industry of Hawaii. Mrs. Jim Harris talked on A Stopover in Hawaii.

Twelve members of the club were present.

MRS. MATT ESTES DIRECTS BIBLE STUDY

Mrs. Matt Estes directed the Bible Study on Prevailing Prayer, when the Woman's Missionary Society met at the Baptist Church, Monday afternoon.

Present were Mrs. James Steward, Mrs. A. L. King, Mrs. F. E. McCreary, Mrs. Evan Wise, Mrs. Henry Smith and Mrs. Estes.

Band News

Band members have been knocking on doors this week selling chocolate to help raise funds for the band. At this writing only 612 bars had been sold out of the total 1,100 bars that the band had to sell. It was reported earlier that they were to sell 1,200 bars but was an error. The money from this drive was to help on the balance of the new uniforms, and to get music stands for the band room. It is hoped that some more of the candy can be sold in order that the band can realize a profit.

A good number of band students have been absent this week due to colds and Stage Band was canceled last Monday due to that and basketball conflicts.

The next major event concerning the band will be the All-District Stage Band Festival to be held at Howard Payne College on January 23rd. The entire Stage Band will attend and try out for positions in four complete Stage Bands and will present a concert that night.

BAND BOOSTER NEWS:
The Santa Anna Band Boosters presented a check for $100.00 this week to be applied to the new Mountaineer Band Uniforms. This leaves a balance of $150.00 remaining to be paid on them.

Firemen Elect Officers For New Year

Members of the Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Department met in their first regular meeting of the New Year Monday night of last week and elected officers for the coming year. Elected were:

Fire Chief, W. B. Griffin; Assistant Fire Chief, Ed Hartman; President, Leland Thompson; Fire Marshal, L. J. Clark; Chaplain, Rev. Ray Elliott; Reporter, M. L. Guthrie; Secretary, Milton House; and Captains, Freddie Dodson and Pat Patterson.

A special committee to pass on details where a regular meeting is not needed is composed of Ray Elliott, Kenneth Bowker and M. L. Guthrie Jr.

The Firemen are attending a five meeting study course at the present time. They meet each Thursday night for about a 3-hour period to study fire prevention, control and new methods of extinguishing the various kinds of fires.

The course is being taught by John R. Rauch, an instructor of fire prevention, with the Extension Service from A & M College.

Present members of the Fire Department are: Charles Wristen, L. M. Guthrie, M. L. Guthrie Jr., Clifford Stephenson, Cliff Herndon, Milton House, Gary Patterson, L. J. Clark, W. B. Griffin, Kenneth Bowker, Doug Moore, Ray Elliott, A. D. Pettit, Ray Owen, James T. Dockery, Ed Hartman, Ben P. Vinson, Billy J. Harvey, Add T. Walker, Freddie Dodson, Lee Ray Huggins, Leland Thompson, George M. Johnson and John Naron. There is one opening in the department.

Basketball Results

On Thursday night of last week the Mountaineer boys won over Brooksmith in the Early Tournament by a score of 38 to 34, with J. C. Bible, being the local high point boy with 21 points. This put the boys in the consolation finals with Cross Plains on Saturday night.

Cross Plains won over Santa Anna Saturday night by a score of 44 to 29. Bible was again high point boy with 12 points. He was selected on the all tournament team.

In the girls division, the local girls lost to Brooksmith Thursday night in the championship bracket, by a score of 46-47. This eliminated the girls. Roberta Morgan was selected on the all-tournament team.

The games announced last week to be played with Early on Monday night in the local gym were cancelled by Early. There was some conflict in their school activities.

On Monday night the Junior High teams went to May for two games. The girls lost by a score of 13-25 and the boys lost by a score of 35-41.

This week the Junior High teams will enter a tournament at Jim Ned. The girls will play the Winters Junior girls at 7:30 p. m. and the boys will play the Clyde Juniors at 8:30 p. m.

The Jim Ned gym is located at Llano, south of Abilene.

DISTRICT PLAY

The District 9-A schedule begins Friday night with the Mountaineers going to Llano for their first game. All district games include the boys and girls and games will begin at 7:00 p. m. with the girls playing the first, followed by the boys.

The schedule is a double round-robin series, with each team playing each team at home and away from home.

The district schedule is as follows:

New Pension Law And Its Effects On Vets, Dependents

PART I

How will it affect me? Many thousands of veterans and their dependents are asking this about the new pension law recently enacted by Congress. The Santa Anna News asked the Veterans Administration for answers to basic questions about this complex legislation. Here are the answers in the first of five installments.

Q. When will the new system of pension payments go into effect?

A. On July 1, 1960. The first checks under the new system will not be mailed before August 1, 1960.

Q. Who will be affected by the new system?

A. All veterans of World War I, World War II and the Korean conflict and their dependents who qualify and begin to receive non-service pensions after June 30, 1960, will be under the new system. Those already on the pension rolls on June 30, 1960, will not be affected unless they choose to come under the new system. They can make this choice at any time, but once the election is made, the pensioner can never revert to the old system.

Q. How does the new law affect those drawing compensation or service-connected benefits?

A. The new law does not affect benefits paid for service-connected disabilities.

Q. Does the new law affect service pensions?

A. No. Service pensions are paid only to Indian War Civil War and Spanish-American War veterans. These pensions are not affected by the new law.

Q. Does the new law change the eligibility requirements for pensions paid to veterans?

A. Not basically. Ninety days active wartime service and an honorable type discharge are required. The veteran must also be permanently and totally disabled. There are important changes in the income limits under the new system as well as some changes in the methods employed to compute the pensioner's annual income. Under the new law the veteran's estate or "worth" will become an eligibility factor.

Q. Let's go into this a step at a time. What are the criteria for establishing permanent and total disability?

A. The degree of disability may vary according to the age of the veteran. Generally he must have a disability which at his age prevents him from being regularly employed. The disability must be such that doctors do not expect it to improve materially.

Q. Under the old law a veteran without dependents could not draw a pension if his annual income exceeded $1,400. Under the new law he may receive some pension if his income is as high as $1,800.

Q. Under the old law a veteran with dependents could not receive a pension if his annual income was more than $2,700. Under the new system his annual income may be as much as $3,000 and he still will be eligible for some pension.

Q. Next installment

Woman Leaves Quarter-Million To 24 Cats

A second cousin of Mrs. Louise Moore, who is said to be worth somewhere near $750,000, has set up a trust fund of $250,000 to care for her 24 cats after she dies.

Miss Hazel Meek, 70-year-old woman who never married and has no close relatives other than cousins, lives in Washington, Iowa. Miss Meek said in an interview with the Washington Register that "it is about time people wake up to the fact that animals have feelings." She lives in a large 7-room house and keeps 24 cats, ranging in age from 15 years down to a few months old. "Everything I have goes into a trust fund to care for the cats. My home is to be kept as a home for the cats as long as any of them live," Miss Meek said.

The home she lives in is valued at about $20,000 and she also owns a 280-acre farm near Washington. Forty acres of the farm is to be set aside as an animal shelter where animals can run wild.

Miss Meek has cared for cats for 25 or 30 years. She keeps them all in her house where they have the run of the kitchen and basement.

Breedlove On Annual Active Duty Tour

Col. William O. Breedlove, Air Force Reserve, has reported to Cannon AFB, Clovis, N. M., for his annual 15-day tour of active duty as a State Intelligence Officer.

Breedlove is a candidate for District Judge of the 35th Judicial District, which includes Coleman, Brown and McCullough Counties. He will be at his home at Lake Brownwood after the tour of duty, and been an active campaigner.

Mid-Winter Lions Conference

The Mid-Winter Conference of District 2A-1 Lions International will open January 16 at the Santa Anna Country Club. It was announced by J. W. Bill Jones, District Governor.

Approximately 500 Lions and Lionsesses are expected to attend the one-day gathering. Mr. Jones' elaborate program has been planned for the entertainment of visitors.

Registration will take place from 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon in the Country Club followed by a luncheon at the club for visitors. Mr. R. A. Lipworth, International Director of Odessa, Texas, will be the principal speaker.

Saturday afternoon will be devoted to Macaband meeting and forums for Lions and Lionsesses. San Angelo Central High School and San Angelo College plus a style show and tea in the Student Center for the visiting Lionsesses.

A reception will be held at the Country Club from 6:00 to 6:45 p. m. followed by the banquet at which Mr. Ivan H. Jackson, International Director, from Cartersville, Georgia, will be the principal speaker. During the convention, various aspects of Lionism will be discussed and plans made for further expansion of the Lions program in District 2A-1, concluded Mr. Jones.

"Skeet" Jones Has Proved To Be Outstanding Councilman In Houston

The Santa Anna born and reared W. H. "Skeet" Jones has proven himself as one of the most outstanding Councilmen to serve on the City Council of Houston, Texas, during recent years. Jones was unknown in Houston politics when he announced his intention of seeking election to the City Council, just over two years ago. He won over an "old pro" by almost 2-to-1, and was recently re-elected to a second term by an overwhelming majority. Following is an article which appeared in the January 5 issue of "The Houstonian", a newspaper of around 25,000 circulation that serves the downtown area of Houston. The article was written by the newspaper's editor.

Many of my friends have asked me about Councilman W. H. Jones, who came into political prominence two years ago when he soundly defeated one of our old live politicians, Shirley Brakefield.

I have been asked, "Where did he come from?"

What started out to be a conversation over a cup of coffee just about wound up as a complete interview.

One of the first things a trained observer will note about Walter Jones is his deep loyalty to his friends and his home town, Santa Anna.

He insisted that the glasses in front of us just had to have been made at Santa Anna, that the tile under our feet was surely made by the Santa Anna Tile Company, and in good humor assured me that even the air that we all breathe down here has to go back occasionally and be blown through the gap in the Santa Anna mountains to be purified.

Two years ago when Jones first ran for the council seat from our heavily industrialized

East End no one seemed to even know him.

Somehow or other he managed to just barely sell himself to the Houston Post and later to the Houston Press. They were both very faint and cautious of their acceptance of Jones. The Houston Chronicle refrained from making a recommendation at all of him.

When the campaign opened Jones came out fighting and when the smoke dust cleared, Jones had defeated Brakefield almost two to one. That was all two years ago!

He has proved to be one of the most outspoken men in public office — he is never on the fence on an issue.

He is thoroughly convinced that city ownership of the bus company is the only way to build an adequate public transportation system.

Jones has served on several important committees, notably the Airport Committee and the Charity Hospital Committee. Both of these Committees have been very successful. For the first time in history our multi-million dollar International Airport has shown a profit. Jones was chairman of this committee.

Our thirteen million dollar charity hospital which has flourished for years has now been made ready for bids. Jones, along with Mayor Lewis Cutrer and Councilman Louie Welch made up the city committee in charge of hospital planning.

When Jones came back up for re-election after his first term he came with the enthusiastic support of some of Houston's largest business people.

The Houston Chronicle endorsed him. The Houston Post gave him a hearty acceptance and the powerful Houston Press — widely known for its policies of requiring absolute honesty and openness in city government said this about Jones:

"Now here is a man about whom we can get really enthusiastic! Mr. Jones too is a 'freshman' Councilman, but we truly believe that he has proven himself to be one of the best Councilmen to come along in years. For one thing, Mr. Jones is more than honest — he's belligerently honest" and that type of man is rare and very valuable in public life. Mr. Jones is a man who doesn't fool himself and isn't fooled by propaganda from any source — he analyzes a problem and makes up his own mind. Mr. Jones is absolutely convinced that the public's business should be transacted in public — and what more valuable asset could citizens of Houston have in a Councilman than that! Here's a man not cut from the same bolt of cloth as most of us — and we're lucky to have him on City Council."

Even Margaret Davis was very lavish in her praise for Jones.

In this last election Jones was a cinch. He won by a 3 to 1 majority over a well known opponent.

After having some considerable talk with Jones the question in my mind is not so much where did Jones come from — the question is "Where is he headed for?"

I might add that THE HOUSTONIAN also endorsed Jones enthusiastically.

"Skeet" is doing a fine job in Houston. We often read about him in The Houston Chronicle. Editor's note.

Biologists Ask Information On Kill Of Ducks

Austin — Some 4,500 Texas duck hunters will have an opportunity to provide information which will be helpful in setting up seasons and bag limits on waterfowl according to the Director of Wildlife Restoration of the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

A random sample of 4,500 license-buying hunters have been sent a questionnaire designed to help the Commission regulate the annual game harvest at peak efficiency.

This fact gathering questionnaire will provide grass-roots information on the yearly kill from only people who can supply it — the hunters. This information, coupled with game population counts and habitat information, forms the foundation for a sound state-wide wildlife conservation program.

Hunters who receive the questionnaire are asked to fill out the card and return it to the Texas Game and Fish Commission in the Walton State Building, Austin, as soon as possible.

The biologists who have been making a census on the coast with the help of game wardens will then have this additional information as a basis for future regulations, according to the Director.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

BY G. WILSON HARDER

The Federal Trade Commission is without doubt the most wonderful bureau in the whole bureaucratic shebang.

As is well known, the FTC is supposed to enforce the Robinson-Patman act, which is an integral part of the nation's anti-trust laws. Yet almost every day in almost every city throughout the land, some huge C. W. Harder retail operation is getting a secret rebate, or benefitting by some illegal practice.

And where, as all this goes on almost openly so that these illegal transactions are a public scandal, are the brave, and true lads of the FTC?

They are really busy.

Right now the Federal Trade Commission is going heavily into the subject of women's legs. Perhaps on the theory that no man is dead if he notices women's legs, FTC is seeking to establish it is really not dead.

There is a firm in New York that offers correspondence courses to help women fill out skinny legs, or to reduce excessively fat legs.

Now FTC is charging that it isn't so that presumably satisfied customers of this service are not obtaining "shapely and alluring" legs. Language in quotes is FTC's own.

Therefore, it must be presumed that somehow the FTC has set up a standard as to just what constitutes a "shapely and alluring leg."

Yet, with all this preoccupation with leg work, the FTC does not seem to be able to find what constitutes an alluring kickback to a big chain.

There is something utterly fascinating about all this. On reflection, it perhaps makes people want to stand up and salute Old Glory to know in this land there is a big government bureau busily engaged day after day in solemn and presumably sober deliberation of just what constitutes "shapely and alluring" legs.

As nothing is said about men, presumably the formal bureaucratic listing is "legs, shapely and alluring, feminine."

Apparently FTC is as little concerned with the allure of masculine legs as it is with the widespread violations of the Robinson-Patman laws designed to provide free, honest and aboveboard competition in the market place.

It will be interesting to see how many pages of printed matter will eventually be turned out at taxpayer's expense by the Government Printing Office carrying FTC decisions as to just what constitutes shapely and alluring legs.

But presumably, until this most vital issue is settled, and there is no doubt that it will take many a long deliberation before it is officially defined what constitutes alluring legs, the illegal rebate and kickback artists will go blithely on their way unharmed, unimpeded, and unfettered. After all, in the face of such important issues, the preservation of free enterprise in America can wait.

Medical Check-Up of Newborn Done in First Minute of Life

The first 60 seconds for the newborn infant can be the most crucial moment in its life. It is at this fleeting instant of time that doctors or nurses in hospital delivery rooms must determine clinically whether the child is normally healthy or seriously ill.

In the latter case, and ill babies can fall with speed and rapidity and this point, treatment must be begun. Since speed is essential, the need for a simple, quick method of clinical evaluation is obvious.

Dr. Virginia Apgar, chief of the division of congenital malformations of the National Foundation, parent organization of the New March of Dimes, began in 1952 to develop just such a method. What she invented is a mathematical approach now being used in hospitals in the United States and abroad. It is called the "Apgar Score." It can be done in five seconds or less.

Dr. Apgar, former professor of anesthesiology at Columbia University's College of Physicians and Surgeons, recently joined the National Foundation to take a leading role in its attack on birth defects, the nation's biggest unmet childhood medical problem. Together with arthritis and polio, two other major crippling, birth defects is a target for the New March of Dimes in 1960.

Starts at 55 Seconds

The "Apgar Score" is a kind of medical "countdown." It is started when the baby is 55 seconds old and completed when it is 60 seconds or sooner. It involves determining the rate of the heart beat, the respiratory effort, muscle tone, reflexes and skin color. A catheter and a stethoscope are the only instruments needed.

In the evaluation, the heart rate is recorded as "absent," "slow" or "normal" (100 per minute or over). Respiratory effort can be "absent," "slow and irregular" or "good," which usually means the baby is in full cry. Muscle tone is marked "limp," "some flexing of extremities" or "in active normal motion."

For checking reflexes, the catheter tickles the inside of the nose, or the feet are

Dr. Virginia Apgar is shown here doing the "Apgar Score" on a newborn infant. It is a five-second evaluation method to determine whether the baby is a normal, healthy child or seriously ill. brushed quickly. Both methods are valid. The first method produces no response at all; a grimace of the features, or a sudden cough or sneeze. The second produces no response, some increase in breathing, or a healthy yell. Color of the skin ranges from pale blue, through pink with blue extremities, to pink all over.

"10" is Perfect

On the "Apgar Score" an infant can score from zero to 10 in these tests. A score of zero, one or two is given for each sign observed. Thus, 10 indicates a baby in perfect condition, zero a very sick one. If the total score is four or less, resuscitation is begun at once either mechanically or by mouth. It is a tribute to modern medicine and surgery, as well as to the "Apgar Score," that 70 per cent of babies with a score of zero — meaning that there is not even a heart beat — are saved.

Dr. Apgar developed her method at the Sloane Hospital for Women in New York, where a total of 25,000 babies were given the test. About 70 per cent scored between eight and 10; 24 per cent between three and seven; and only six per cent between zero and two.

1 in 16 Hit by Defect

Significant birth defects occur in one out of every 16 infants, or a total of 250,000 each year, Dr. Apgar points out. She states that these congenital malformations generally develop during the first 12 weeks of pregnancy and usually in the first eight weeks. "After eight weeks there is little chance of faulty developments," she says.

Knowing that birth defects are a common cause of worry among prospective mothers, Dr. Apgar strives to banish a number of "old wives tales" associated with the subject.

She insists, for instance, that there is no evidence that "an emotional upset" during pregnancy has any effect on the development of the unborn baby. German measles caught by the mother during pregnancy were once thought to cause abnormal infants without exception. Now it is estimated that this happens only in about 30 per cent of cases.

Memorandum Proclaims Public Schools Week

An official Memorandum by Governor Price Daniel, issued January 5, proclaims the week of February 28-March 4 as Public Schools Week in Texas.

In the Memorandum Governor Daniel said: "For each of the past ten years Public Schools Week in Texas has been set aside as a special time to place increased emphasis on our educational system.

"During this period parents are encouraged to visit the public schools and all citizens are urged through special programs to recognize the tremendous importance of our system of education. Our goal is to make Texas public schools the finest in the Nation and to achieve this our citizens are urged to take an active interest in the school systems and to cooperate with their school boards, superintendents, principals and teachers.

"Never before in our history has there been a greater need for educated leadership. As we rush to train young people in science and technology to keep pace with world events, it is also important to remember that our public schools will furnish our leaders of tomorrow with the basic human moral and spiritual foundations necessary for more advanced training and knowledge.

Therefore, I as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of February 27-March 4, 1960 as Public Schools Week in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McClain of Waco visited over the weekend with his sister Mrs. H. L. Markland.

Linda Riley, a student at the University of Texas, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Riley.
