BY THE EDITOR

The Boy Scout program for Santa Anna is again about ready to get underway. We are certainly proud to see the beginning made, and hope it will continue without interruption again. It has been almost a year now since a regular Scouting program has been carried on.

The program for Cub Scouts has been carried on during this time, and we are happy to know it is progressing nicely.

R. C. Smith and Douglas McArthur, the two coaches of the high school, have accepted the responsibility of the Scouting program. We are glad to see these two men take the responsibility, and wish to assure them we will do what we can to help the program in any way. We hope there are others who will volunteer their services also.

The Scouting program is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the present time. We are also happy to see the newly formed organization take hold of projects of this kind. It is good for the organization, the community and especially for the boys of Scouting age.

Coach Smith asks all boys between the ages of 11 to 18 years who are interested in the Scouting program to meet with him at the Scout Hut in Ranger Park Monday, Nov. 16, at 7:00 p. m. We would like to see every boy in the Santa Anna area in that age group there, along with a large number of parents.

In order for the Scouting program to be carried on, there is going to have to be several other men of the community take an interest in it. A number of committees must be appointed, and in order for the program to progress as it should, these committees must function. One or two men cannot carry on the Scouting program without the assistance of others. We think possibly the main reason we have been without a Scouting program these past several months, is that some of the committees have not functioned as they should.

If you are interested in seeing the program progress, and would consider serving on one of the several committees, you are invited to let Mr. Smith or Mr. McArthur, or Allyn Gill, president of the Jaycees, know about it. Naturally they would prefer to appoint men to the committees who show an interest in them. Your help will be greatly appreciated.

Members of the Lions Clubs throughout Texas this month are pausing to pay recognition to their camp for crippled children which has given 4,284 handicapped youngsters a new dimension of freedom since it was opened in 1953.

The camp, located in Kerrville in the Hill Country of Central Texas, is free to any crippled, blind, deaf or mute child between the ages of seven and 16. The 10 permanent buildings dotting the 504 hillside acres represent an investment of more than $600,000.

At the camp, these youngsters who have been denied a normal childhood through no fault of their own learn to shed their shyness imposed by their handicaps. By mutual association with other handicapped children and by skillful and gentle counseling, these youngsters have found the freedom to grow, mentally and spiritually, into useful citizens of tomorrow.

While the Lions are paying tribute to their own camp, we would like to pay tribute to the Lions and their friends who have supported this great venture of the heart. We know a man never stands so straight as when he stoops to help a crippled child.

Questionnaires On Farm Census Being Mailed

Questionnaires for the 1959 Census of Agriculture are now in the mail and will be in the hands of local farmers within a few days, it was announced today by Field Director James W. Stroud of the Census Bureau's regional office in Dallas.

The farm census questionnaires are being mailed from Chicago, Illinois with the distribution timed so that the report forms will reach farmers about a week ahead of the date when census takers will begin the field canvass. The advance mailing is for the purpose of giving farm operators time to consult their records before filling in the answers required by the questionnaires and getting

J. P. Fines In October Come To $1,325 On 60 Cases

Justice of the Peace W. Earl Irick Sr., reports he handled a total of 60 traffic cases through his court during the month of October. Total fines paid during the month amounted to $1,325.25. Most of the cases were speeding cases.

Judge Irick also said the Radar Boys were working in this area again the past Friday night. They filed 29 cases that night and seven cases the next day, making a total of 36 cases. Thirty-three were for speeding, two were for excessive noise, and one was for over-length. Three of the cases were from Santa Anna.

One boy from Coleman was charged with driving 98 miles per hour. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $45.50 for his first offense.

Drivers are urged to be more considerate. Beginning January 1, the insurance premiums you pay on your auto will be based on the number of traffic violations in the three-year period, you get a 20% reduction in your insurance. If you have had one violation, you pay the same as now, and if you have six violations in the three year period, you will pay about four times what you are paying now.

So, it will be worth your while to take it a little easier on the gas pedal, and watch those red lights.

Landowners Study Flood Control On Home Creek

Landowners of the Home Creek Watershed, which includes the drainage of Camp, Dry, Red Bank, Sweetie, Santa Anna Branch, Mustang, Wildcat, Horse and Loss Creeks, met in two separate meetings last week to discuss flood control.

After an explanation of the Flood Control Program, the groups decided to take the necessary steps to request a survey of the entire Home Creek and all its tributaries. Petitions will be circulated throughout the watershed area, for landowners to sign, indicating their interest in requesting the survey. The request will be made to the Central Colorado Soil Conservation District.

Arrangements are being made to have another meeting for an explanation of the program at Valera. It is expected this meeting will be held sometime in the next week or two. All landowners in the Home Creek Watershed area, which includes all the above-mentioned creeks, are urged to attend the meeting.

The Home Creek Committee, elected at the meetings last week, is composed of Roy England, Jake McCreary, Lee Abernathy, Roland Williams, W. T. Stewardson, Raymond McElrath and Dale Smith. This committee is arranging for the circulation of the petitions, and informing all landowners concerning the program. Additional members for the committee will be elected at the Valera meeting.

Bobby Fuller Moves Beauty Shop

Miss Bobby Fuller has moved her beauty shop from its location, next door to the Ladies Shop, to the former tailor shop building two doors east of the Post Office.

The building has been remodeled and redecorated. Several new additions have been made to the beauty shop fixtures. Bobby announces she has three operators on duty to serve her customers.

You are invited to visit the new location.

them ready for the census takers to pick up. This procedure is designed to insure greater accuracy of reporting and to save time both for the farmer and the census taker when the latter calls at the farm.

The 1959 Census of Agriculture questionnaire is designed to provide information on the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock production and inventories, selected farm facilities and equipment, selected farm expenditure, farm values, and mortgage debt. On the average, each farmer is asked about 100 questions, many of which can be answered by simply checking "yes" or "no."

Boy Scouts To Re-organize Monday Night

All the local boys between the ages of 11 and 18 years who are interested in joining or continuing their Boy Scout work are requested to meet at the Boy Scout Home in Ranger Park Monday evening, November 16, at 7:00 p. m.

Head Coach R. C. Smith has accepted the duties as Scoutmaster, assisted by Assistant Coach Douglas McArthur. Mr. Smith said the first meeting would be for organizational purposes only, and the meeting would last about one hour.

The local Boy Scout organization is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The Troop Charter is in the process of being prepared.

On the following Monday night O. K. Reynolds, Boy Scout Executive from the Abilene office, will meet with the boys and their advisors, and present the charter.

Parents of the boys are also invited to attend the meeting with their sons.

Jake McCreary Not Here To Receive The $50

Jake McCreary of Rockwood was not present the past Saturday to receive the $50.00 in merchandise coupons. The amount will be increased to $75.00 for the program the coming Saturday. The program will be held in the Payne Building beginning promptly at 3:00 p. m.

J. W. Fulton won the Texaco Tank Truck, contributed by the Wristen Service Station. Mr. Fulton donated the truck to the Salvation Army or the Red Cross, to be used as needed.

The windows in the Payne Building have been decorated with the large number of gifts that will be given away Christmas Eve, by the local merchants. You are invited to stop a few minutes and see what is being offered at no additional cost. Just ask your local merchant how you can be eligible to win one of the more than 60 prizes.

Christmas Cheer Contributions Now Being Accepted

During the past several years the Lions Club and the Santa Anna Fire Department have combined forces to bring a little cheer in the homes of the needy in Santa Anna. This has been done by fixing nice Christmas baskets of groceries and taking it to these families on Christmas Eve.

There has been individuals who have indicated they would like to contribute to this annual Christmas Cheer Fund. In fact, last year three or four checks were received for the fund.

It was decided to open the fund for volunteer contributions this year. Those of you who would like to contribute to a fund of this nature may now do so. Your contributions will be accepted in the name of the Santa Anna Fire Department by three of its members: Montie Guthrie, Ray Owen or Doug Moore. You are requested to get your contributions to one of the above-named sometime this month, as purchases for the Christmas Cheer Baskets will be made soon after December 1.

New Telephone Directories In The Process

Work on the new telephone directories for the Coleman County Telephone Cooperative gets underway this week. The new directories will be completely manufactured in The Santa Anna News office. They are scheduled to be completed in December.

Mrs. W. S. Stacy is in the process of selling listings in the Yellow Pages now. Anyone interested in a listing in the Shopping Department of the new directories is requested to contact Mrs. Stacy or the business office of the telephone cooperative.

Juniors Win Final Game Tuesday Night

The Junior Mountaineers came from behind Tuesday night to take a 16-12 win over the Juniors from Goldthwaite, in their final game of the season. The Junior Eagles had the local boys in the hole 12-0 at half-time.

However, they came to life in the second half and played more like they have been through the season. The first TD came on a long pass from Sudderth to Bill Horne that covered about 60 yards. The other TD came on a pass play, but Sudderth couldn't find an open receiver and decided to run. He went about 60 yards also. Both extra points were made.

The Juniors ended the season with a 6-1-1 record. They lost to Mason and were tied by Jim Ned.

Actually, the local boys scored a TD on their first offensive play, but it was called back on an infraction.

Coach A. D. Donham said the junior boys and girls are now working out for basketball. No games have been scheduled yet. As soon as a schedule is arranged it will be announced.

Band To Enter UIL Marching Contest November 21

The Santa Anna Mountaineer Band will participate in the Interscholastic League Marching Contest in Sweetwater, Saturday, Nov. 21. The local band is scheduled to march about 4:00 p. m. This is the culmination of marching activities for all hands over the state. Over 30 bands will take part in the Region II contest, which is a very colorful event. There is also twirling competition for all twirlers.

Bands and Twirlers are rated: Division I, Superior; Division II, Excellent; Division III, Average; Division IV, Below Average; and Division V, Methods of organization and leadership should be reviewed.

Pat Patterson, Sweetwater Band Director, is chairman of the Marching Contest. James A. Mallow, local Band Director, is chairman of the Region II Association.

The Santa Anna Band has consistently made the Division II ratings for the past several years, and hopes this year to reach the top rating of Superior for its class. This year's band is better than ever—but only one band in Santa Anna's class made the top rating last year. Judges are very reluctant to give out the I Division ratings and that is as it should be.

The Mountaineer Band performed for the Howard Payne Homecoming Parade and the Homecoming Football Pre-game activities Saturday, Nov. 7. They received many nice compliments on their performances.

Dad & Lad Banquet To Be Held November 21

The second annual Dad and Lad Banquet for all Scouts in the Southern District of the Chisholm Trail Council will be held at Camp Tonkawa Saturday evening, November 7. Plates are only 50 cents each. Those who can attend are requested to send their reservations to Travis Bohannon, 402 East 10th Street, Coleman, no later than Tuesday, Nov. 17th.

It appears the Scouting movement is about to get underway in Santa Anna again. All interested persons are especially urged to attend this meeting if at all possible.

Santa Anna territory is invited to enter a float in the parade. Prizes of $50.00, $25.00 and $15.00 are offered for the top three floats, and each float entered in the parade will receive a cash prize of $10.00, to help defray expenses of decorating the float.

All organizations are requested to discuss the Christmas Parade Float at your next business meeting. When you have decided to enter the float, you are requested to notify W. Ford Barnes at the Chamber of Commerce office. This is requested in order for the parade marshal to have details to arrange the parade by.

There is a few vacant windows available for clubs and other organizations to decorate this year. If you are interested, you are invited to discuss it with Mr. Barnes as soon as possible, as there are only a limited number, and they will likely go pretty fast.

The Home Decorating contest will also be another feature for the Christmas season. Everyone is urged to participate in at least one of the contests. There is cash prizes in all of them.

Cemetery Working In Progress This Thursday

A large scale cleaning job is underway in the Santa Anna Cemetery. A lot of folks are due to be there all day Thursday to help get the cemetery in good shape. This has all been brought about by the re-organization of the Santa Anna Cemetery Association with plans to keep the cemetery in the best condition all the time.

Everyone who has loved ones in the cemetery, or who owns lots there, is urged to either be present, or have someone there to represent them, during the day's work. Every effort is being made to get all the work done in one day.

All the cemetery is put in good condition, a person will be employed to care for it all the time. The new association will request each lot owner to pay a minimum of $12.00 a year to care for their lot and the cemetery in general.

Some heavy equipment is to be purchased. The association is asking contributions for this project. They will need several hundred dollars. Anyone who desires to make contributions for the project is asked to contact Mrs. Bill Griffin.

The Mountain City Garden Club is serving dinner on Thursday to all who are working on the cemetery.

Mountaineer-Burnet Game Played In Extreme Cold

Well below freezing weather was experienced throughout the Santa Anna-Burnet ball game Friday night at Burnet. Attendance was very light from both towns. We would guess there was less than 100 people there to see the game.

However, the cold weather did not seem to have much effect on the boys. The Mountaineers punting was not up to average, but the local boys did not fumble once during the game. Burnet fumbled only two times, and as cold as it was you might expect both teams to fumble considerably.

The Mountaineers really threw the ball, 34 times, and completed 17 of those passes for 219 yards and three touchdowns, but one of them was called back on an infraction. The Mountaineers made a total of 16 first downs while the Bulldogs made only 15.

The Bulldogs scored seven times on runs of 4 yards, a pass for 64 yards, 1 yard intercepted pass return of 72 yards, intercepted pass return of 42 yards, 2 yards and 5 yards. They had one TD called back on an infraction, but went ahead and scored in the series.

The Mountaineers came up with a good pass play they had not run before this year. It was a tackle-eligible play, where Jimmy Niell would go straight down field from his tackle position and Eddie Hartman would pass down field to him. All three TDs were made this way.

The Game
The Bulldogs kicked to the Mountaineer 6-yard line with a return to the 24-yard line. Gaining only 5 yards, the Mountaineers punted to the Burnet 46-yard line. In just five plays the Bulldogs crossed the double stripe the first time then passed for the 2 extra points.

The Mountaineers took the kick off on their 15-yard line and returned to their 35-yard line. Failing to gain again, they punted to the Bulldog 32-yard line, with a return to their 45-yard line, but an infraction put the Bulldogs back on their 36-yard line. One long pass was all that was needed for the Bulldogs to go all the way, and the try for extra points was good for 2.

The Mountaineers took the kick off on their 10-yard line and returned to their 30-yard line. They made their first down on the 41-yard line, then failed to gain another and a short punt went over to the Bulldog 41-yard line. The Bulldogs drove to the Santa Anna 20-yard line, then had a TD called back for an infraction as the quarter ended.

It took the Bulldogs four plays in the second to cross the goal line. The try for extra points was good for 2. (Boy it sure was cold.)

Burnet kicked to the Mountaineer 16-yard line with no return. The Mountaineers made a first down on the 29, then Hartman connected with a nice pass to Tink Dockery for good yardage to the Bulldog 32-yard line, and the Mountaineers finally drove to the Bulldog 9-yard line before losing the ball on downs. Burnet punted out to the Mountaineer 49-yard line with a return to the Burnet 31-yard line. Attempting to get another drive underway, the Mountaineers connected with one pass, then tried another that was intercepted. The Bulldogs drew a 5-yard penalty that put them back on their 14-yard line and they punted to their 34-yard line. On the first play their right end intercepted a pass and went 72 yards for the TD. Try for extra point failed.

The Mountaineers took the kick-off on their 22-yard line and returned to the 34-yard line. On the first play the same man intercepted a pass and handed off to a half-back who went 41-yards for the TD. The try for extra point failed.

The Mountaineers took the kick-off on their 20-yard line and returned to their 48-yard line. They drove to the 30-yard line and Hartman passed to Niell for the first Mountaineer TD, but it was called back on an infraction. On the next play Hartman again passed to Niell for the TD and Tink Dockery went wide around right end for the 2 points.

A short kick-off was taken on the Burnet 34-yard line and returned to the Mountaineer 45-yard line. A 5-yard penalty put the Bulldogs back on the 50-yard line, then they drove to the 38-yard line and received another 5-yard penalty, they drove to the 34-yard line and fumbled with the Mountaineers recovering. On the last play in the first half the Mountaineers lost 3 yards.

The Mountaineers kicked to the Burnet 18-yard line and an infraction on the run-back resulted in the ball being brought to the 18-yard line. From that point the Bulldogs drove the 82-yards to the TD in 11 plays and 5 first downs.

The Mountaineers took the kick-off on their 24-yard line and returned to their 37-yard line, made 2 yards, lost 4 yards, then attempted to punt and it was almost blocked, picking up only 5 yards on the punt. The Bulldogs gained a yard, lost 3 yards, received a 5-yard penalty, then lost 7-yards and punted to the Mountaineer 28-yard line with a 4-yard return. The Mountaineers gained a first down on a 10-yard pass, then Hartman connected with Stewardson for 26 yards and tried two more passes with the second being intercepted and run back to the Mountaineer 44-yard line. A 5-yard penalty put the Bulldogs back on the 49, then the Mountaineers recovered another fumble. On the last play in the quarter a pass was good to the Bulldog 26-yard line.

Another pass was good to the Bulldog 14, then the Bulldogs intercepted a pass on the one-yard line and run it out to the 7-yard line, and punted to their 40-yard line. The Mountaineers drove to the Bulldog 4-yard line and lost the ball on downs. The Bulldogs punted to their 35-yard line with a return to the 31-yard line. A pass put the Mountaineers on the Bulldog 15, then Hartman passed to Niell again for the TD. Try for extra point failed.

The Mountaineers kicked to the Burnet 21-yard line and a return to the Mountaineer 31-yard line. A 15-yard penalty put the Bulldogs back on the 46 and they drove to the Mountaineer 37. A 15-yard penalty against the Mountaineers put the Bulldogs on the Mountaineer 23. They gained 5, lost 5 on a penalty, then gained to the 5-yard line and went over for the TD. Try for extra point was no good.

The Mountaineers took the kick-off on their 14-yard line and returned to their 29-yard line. A 5-yard penalty and 3 completed passes put the Mountaineers on the Bulldog 39-yard line. The Mountaineers lost 3 yards, gained 5 and missed the last two pass attempts of the game.

This completes the Mountaineer football games this year. Only two boys will be graduating this year, Eddie Hartman and Byrl Fellers. All the others will be back for next year, and prospects look real good.

FOOTBALL ROUNDUP
Goldthwaite was idle over the weekend, but are still proud of their 6-6 tie with the Burnet Bulldogs the previous weekend. And of course Burnet is proud of their 48-14 lacing of the Mountaineers. Discussing the Goldthwaite - Burnet tie with some of the school officials at Burnet Friday night, they indicated the Bulldogs had a tremendous let-down after their good game with the Mason Cowpunchers the week before. Several said they just were not in the mood for playing that night, and thus their tie with Goldthwaite. They apparently couldn't do anything right. Mason continued their undefeated season by handing the Llano Jackets a 19-0 defeat. Mason will likely go into the by-district play-offs after this week. The Cowpunchers will entertain Goldthwaite and Burnet and Llano will play for second place in the district. The Mountaineers have completed their season, and all the other teams in the district will complete their conference schedule this week.

SCHEDULE CHANGE
Menard cancelled the scheduled game with them for next year. They finally ended up in Class B, and had one more team in their district than in their Class A district. So the game with the Mountaineers was cancelled. Attempts are being made now to get another home game in the place of Menard.

BASKETBALL SEASON
The basketball season will get underway Tuesday night of next week. See the schedule published elsewhere in this issue of The News.

Attend church regularly.

TAX-MAN SAM SEZ:

There is a large number of excise taxes that are enforced by the Internal Revenue Service. The use tax on highway motor vehicles passed a few years back to finance the new highway system is creating several thousand audit cases a year. These taxpayers protest, in many cases, that they do not know of the tax and that they should not be required to pay a penalty and interest for failing to file on their truck. Here are some of the instructions.

A tax of $1.50 for each thousand pounds or fraction thereof is imposed on the use of public highways of any highway motor vehicle having a taxable gross weight of more than 26,000 pounds. The tax year begins on July 1 each year and ends with the following June 30. The tax is payable by the person in whose name the vehicle is registered or required to be registered under the laws of the state in which the vehicle is operated or situated. Form 2290 is the tax return prescribed for reporting the tax. This form can be secured from your Internal Revenue Service office.

Mrs. Ora Hunter spent Sunday and Monday in Abilene with her son, David Hunter and family.

YOUR EYES and VISION
By A. L. SPERRY, O.D.
Director Public Education
Texas Optometric Association

Cataract Not a Growth

DID YOU KNOW: That the eye itself is only an instrument of vision? Sight is a brain process dependent for its correct functioning on the normal reaction of the nervous system.

Cataract is a word most people dislike. To them it is synonymous with blindness. When asked what a cataract actually is 99% will say "it is a growth on the back of the eyeball which causes blindness." This is not true.

A cataract is not a "growth"; it is not "on the back of the eyeball"; and it doesn't necessarily result in blindness although very often it does.

A cataract is formed in the manner following. Directly behind the pupil of the eye there is a clear, round, little lens about the size of an aspirin tablet. This little lens is soft in the young and will change its shape from flat to round when pulled by the muscles which attach it behind the pupil. This change in the thickness of the lens causes a change in its focusing power, thus letting us change our gaze to different distance and retain clear vision.

At ages 40 to 45 this little lens begins to normally harden and will no longer focus properly for the reading distance. Then it is that the individual has to have the bifocals or reading glasses which are so common and necessary to the middle aged and older.

It is the same little lens in which forms a cataract. Normally the lens is clear and light passes easily through it. When this lens for any reason becomes cloudy, obstructing passage of the light, the condition is known as Cataract.

The lens becomes cloudy in the same manner as a glass of drinking water will become cloudy if one gradually adds milk to it. The nerves at the back of the eye are not affected and if light could reach them they would function properly restoring vision.

The cloudiness of the lens does not always become so bad that the patient is completely blind. The amount of cloudiness can become static and change very little for years or it may change very quickly to cause blindness.

So we see: Cataract is not "a growth," but a physiological condition of a normal part of the eye; it is not "on the back of the eyeball" but rather in the front third of the eye; it does not always progress to blindness but may stop and become stationary at any stage between perfect vision and total blindness.

More about Cataracts next week.

Texas Lions Camp For Crippled Children Honored

The Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children at Kerrville was honored Tuesday with a special program at the regular Lions Club meeting.

James A. Mallow and Roy Mathews showed a film of the camp and Elgean Harris paid tribute to the members of the Santa Anna Club and the other Lions of Texas who are providing the handicapped children of Texas with a camp of their own.

The camp was opened in 1953 and accommodated 236 crippled, blind, deaf and mute youngsters the first year. Since then, the camp has grown steadily until it is now serving up a summer filled with fun to 720 children each year.

Since it was opened, the unique camp has given 4,284 youngsters the thrill of a lifetime as they learn to swim, to camp out doors under the stars and develop new skills in various handicrafts.

The camp represents an investment of $600,000 in 16 permanent buildings. It is financed by dues of Lions and gifts from members, clubs and friends of crippled children everywhere.

For the past three years, the camp has been in operation the year around. During the other months, the camp is used as a training center for the adult blind.

Mrs. Fred Murray and Ricky spent Sunday in Brady with her mother and other relatives.

On Saturday, Sue Kingsberry had a check-up with her doctor, Mrs. Milford Harris accompanied the group to Dallas where she visited in the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McNeil and sons.

ery and Mrs. Annie Lou Vaughan were all guests of their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Lee Dockery and H. B. Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson visited Mrs. Kingston Sunday afternoon. It was wonderful to see Harry walking by himself, with the help of a walking stick. They say Bud Laughlin can walk some now, with someone holding him just a little.

Some other visitors with me during the week were Mrs. Oll Martin, Rev. Charles Miller, Mrs. Zona Stacy, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stacy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haynes, Mrs. Clara Cupps and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Ford.

Some of you old-timers will remember Mr. "Rev." Jim Wright. His father was a Methodist preacher who lived here when I was just a small child. Jim got saved and sanctified in the same revival meeting here that I did in 1906. He then felt a call to preach, and has been preaching all these years. Later he and his family moved to San Bernardino, Calif. His wife, Carrie Garmes Wright died several years ago. After that he and a daughter run a mission, and had services every night for three years. Saturday I received a card from the daughter saying, 'Dad passed away today, Nov. 3, '59, just before noon. He preached Oct. 4, had a stroke that night and never regained consciousness.' He was 84 years of age.

He has been writing to them about once in 3 or 4 months, telling them all the news about their old friends. She said "We received your last letter the day before he had his stroke, and he enjoyed me reading it to him."

As I have been a shut-in since Sept. 20, I have thought I must write and tell Jim and Velma this and that, but did not. How do you feel after someone is gone, and it's too late to tell them things?

Students Write Themes About Fire Prevention

Editor's note: Following is the third in a series of top themes by Santa Anna students on fire prevention. This theme, by Naoma Henderson, was the third place winner in the Senior Class.

IMPROVEMENT OF FIRE DEPARTMENTS AND FIRE EQUIPMENT THROUGH THE YEARS

By Naoma Henderson To have efficient fire prevention and protection through the years the American people have found it necessary to maintain fire departments. Throughout the past several years many people have worked to improve fire prevention. They found fire departments must have equipment equal to the standards of our day.

In the early days of the United States every able-bodied man was required to fight a fire when it was started. Some communities required property owners to have leather water buckets and other fire equipment. In 1764, George Washington bought the first fire engine in the United States for a fire department in Virginia. Now we have about a thousand fire departments which receive pay and many voluntary fire departments. The voluntary fire departments are supported by the community they serve. Now many factories and large companies have their private fire departments.

Now many states, have fireman's training which trains men to use the latest fire equipment. The equipment used most is fire engines, ladder trucks, water towers, chemical engines, hose, fire alarm telegraph systems, high pressure water systems, and automatic sprinkler systems and extinguishers.

The modern fire engine consist of pumps to discharge water on fires through hose. Some of them may discharge one thousand gallons of water a minute at high pressures. Here as is many fire fighting devices good hoses are necessary.

Now many ladders are used which may extend to one hundred feet and can be raised in half a minute. Compressed coil springs and hydraulic power are used to raise these ladders. These ladders are built on trucks.

In large cities water towers are used. These are constructed on special trucks and can be raised to high altitudes. The water can be pumped into these trucks at a rapid rate and also pumped out at a great force to assist in large fires.

Fire alarms are of great service to citizens who live in cities. They are operated by electricity and owned by the city in most places. Alarms turned in on street fire boxes go to the central station and then to the district fire stations.

We also have many chemical fire engines in successful use. Nearly all fire stations have one or more chemical devices. One of the most common is the carbonic acid gas extinguisher. Here a large tank is filled with water. Soda bicarbonate is dissolved in the water, then sulfuric acid which is in a container inside the tank is allowed to escape. When these two come in contact, they form carbonic acid gas which is used to put out the fire. There are also several other chemical devices similar to this one.

High pressure water systems may be used to fight fires where there is a lot of water. The general water pressure is not enough to fight fires, so high pressure systems are installed that can be used to get more water when it is needed. New York has the largest system of this type in the United States.

You can see by the fire fighting equipment we have studied that the equipment has advanced a long way since the leather bucket days. Today we have much to be thankful for.

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"

By G. WILSON HARDER

In a recent talk in Washington, Earl Kintner, Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, announced that this bureau is preparing to crack down on abuses of co-operative advertising allowances.

This is somewhat tantamount to the situation that would prevail if J. Edgar Hoover made an announcement that the FBI is preparing to take some action against bank robbers.

For a long time now, the C. W. Harder misuse of co-operative advertising allowances has been so open and flagrant that it had become a national scandal. Seemingly, everybody but the FTC, which is supposed to prevent this sort of economic depression has known about it. Presumably, now by a Pony Express in reverse, the word has now reached Washington.

Co-operative advertising allowances are sums that a manufacturer agrees to pay, usually on a unit basis, to reimburse retailers for advertising they run on the manufacturer's product, or products. There is supposed to be proof that the retailer actually spent the money for this purpose in a legitimate fashion.

This, in itself, is not bad, and properly handled, gives everybody a square deal.

But with the growth of the big chain retail outfits, co-operative advertising has deteriorated into nothing by a big cumshaw system whereby some manufacturers get distribution in these chains only by paying out big sums under the guise of co-operative advertising allowances, and never getting inquisitive as to proof that the money paid out was actually spent in advertising.

The fact remains that without this "side money" many chains would be hard put to stay in business against aggressive independent competition. At one time, many years ago, there may have been some economies affected by chain operation. But that was before retail store help was organized into unions.

Today, a chain store operation is a very costly operation in many areas, due largely to fact unions force them to pay high wages on a par with top industrial wages.

But whereas in industrial operations, mounting wages are partially, or in whole, offset by automation, or other labor saving devices, there so far has been no great strides in saving labor costs in a personal service business such as retailing.

Yet, chain operations feel they must at least maintain the illusion of lower prices, and thus, there is constant pressure on suppliers to get something not offered to independents.

Any salesman, or sales manager for a manufacturer knows of these facts. In fact, every day he is braced by chain buyers to special cumshaw. Every retailer knows about it, and presumably every yellow hound dog in every business community knows all about it.

Yet, the strange paradox about the entire matter is that the FTC, supposed to stop this sort of thing, is just waking up to what is going on, and is now preparing to do something about it. The big question now is how soon FTC will act.

YWA Met At Church
For Weekly Meeting

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church met in the Young People's Department at the church Wednesday evening of last week for their regular meeting. Clois Cullins was in charge of the program.

The group sang "My Jesus I Love Thee", and Sonja Dunn offered the opening prayer. The program, "Land of Morning Freshness," was one of the most dramatic stories of modern times, concerning Korea and the Korean people. Miss Cullins closed the program with a prayer.

A short business meeting was held. Ruth Radle read the minutes of the previous meeting, and several items of business were disposed of.

Members present were: Clois Cullins, Reta Ing, Sonja Dunn, Peggy Hawkins, Lula Hawkins, Roberta Morgan, Barbara Allen, Ellen Lewis, Carole Campbell, Ruth Radle, Mrs. James Mallow, and one guest, Carolyn Bates.

The Floyd Gilbreath family, who moved here recently from Gulfport, Miss., have moved to the Charlotte Scott place west of the high school. The two children have enrolled in the Ward School.

CATTLE CYCLE NEARS STAGE FOR CAUTION

A significant note of warning about the cattle outlook was delivered before the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture in Nashville, Tenn., not long ago by Oris V. Wells, administrator of the Agriculture Marketing Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Wells summed up his facts and figures by warning that "the cattle cycle is fast moving to a place where farmers, ranchers and feeders should be careful."

It was pointed out that cattle and calves have been the largest source of farm sales for several years now, and that we are all aware of the sharp rise in cattle prices, in 1957-58. The number of cattle on farms and ranches was up 3.5 million head, or almost four percent, on Jan. 1, 1959, as compared with Jan. 1, 1958.

Present estimates indicate a two percent increase in the 1959 calf crop, which is the first increase in the calf crop from the previous year since 1954. Although cattle slaughter for all of 1959 probably will be somewhat smaller than last year, there are prospects that slaughter in the fourth or last quarter of 1959 will show an increase over the last quarter of 1958. This would be the first increase over the corresponding quarter of the year before in nearly three years.

However, Wells predicted that "prices will continue to be supported by retentions for herd expansion, and our analysts now expect a significant increase in the number of cattle and calves on farms as of Jan. 1, 1960, perhaps as much as five to six million head above the estimate for Jan. 1, 1959."

"All of this means more beef for American consumers some time in the future, but it also means that the cattle cycle is fast moving to a place where farmers, ranchers and feeders should be careful."

These words of caution are seconded by spokesmen for the American National Cattlemen's Association such as Jay Taylor of Amarillo, former president, and John Marble, head of the fact-finding committee.

"Sure we're going to get a break," says Marble, "and it will come when we quit holding back heifers to build up our breeding herds, either in late 1960 or 1961. But the break doesn't have to be a bust."

Mrs. W. R. Mulroy is visiting this week in Houston with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Horton and children.

Detail Survey On Mukewater Now Being Completed

Detail survey work began Monday morning on Site No. 9 of the Mukewater Flood Control Project. This is the preliminary work before boring is begun on a site to determine the exact location of the flood control dam, its height and depth.

Marvin Daniels, Soil Conservation Service Representative in Coleman County, said the other four sites could be scheduled for detail work and construction scheduled if all easements were cleared soon.

Coring of the six sites that have all the easements cleared is scheduled to be completed about November 23.

Bids on the construction of the six sites is due to be asked for in February, with construction to begin about March 1, 1960. Sites where the easements are cleared are: 1, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 9.

Use Caution In Buying Electric Xmas Decorations

Austin — With some retail stores now carrying stocks of low wage cost imported Christmas tree strings and sets from Japan and other countries, the Texas Safety Association reports that consumers would do well to use care when buying such imported electrically lighted Christmas decorations.

Although on the surface some imported sets and strings may appear to be almost identical to similar products made in the U. S. A., this is not always the case. Hence, a careless purchase of imported Christmas decorations may result in serious damage or loss of life.

To be sure that a Christmas tree string or set is safe, the purchaser should check to see that the label of the Underwriters' Laboratories is affixed to the wire of the equipment. This label indicates that all wiring, sockets, etc., in the set meet the UL test requirements, and therefore are regarded as safe for decorative use.

Friends of Mrs. Eva Conley will be glad to know she has been moved to her home at 214 Alamo Courts, Temple, Texas, after almost two months in a hospital there.
