Aunt Sarah, I love you.

Remember my 10th birthday, when you gave me that funny piece of green paper and everybody made such a fuss over it. (Except me.) Frankly, it was a pretty disappointing present for a kid. I couldn't eat it, couldn't play with it, couldn't wear it—and Mom took it away from me practically the minute I got it.

And every birthday after that (and Christmas, too), you gave me another one of those Bonds, you called them. I thought you were pretty gooney.

At least, I never had to guess what I was going to get from good old reliable Aunt Sarah.

And what I got was good old reliable U.S. Savings Bonds.

What I didn't realize then was that you gave me a gift of security for the future. Thanks to you and those Bonds, I had extra funds for college. And they helped when I bought my first new car.

Next week, I'm giving my nephew, Harry, his first U.S. Savings Bond. I know the kid is gonna think I'm some kind of nut. But, someday...

Federal Tax Questions And Answers

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q) I sold my home last December at a $5,000 profit. Do I have to report this as income when I file my 1971 return?

A) Not, if, within one year before or after the sale you buy and occupy another residence that costs as much or more than the sales price of the old residence. Additional time is allowed if you construct the new residence or you were on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces. In such a case, the tax is postponed, not forgiven. Any gain not taxed in the year you sell your old residence is subtracted from the cost of the new residence giving you a lower basis to be used in the event of a later disposition. If you sell the new residence in a later year, and again replace it, under similar circumstances, any tax on the gain you realize may continue to be postponed.

Q) I won a new car last year in a radio contest. Do I have to pay tax on this prize?

A) Yes. Prizes and awards you receive in goods or services must be included in income at their fair market value.

Q) I paid my daughter's medical insurance premiums last year. Do I include these premiums in the amount of support I furnished her when figuring out whether or not I can claim her as a dependent?

A) Yes. You may include as an item of support medical insurance premiums you paid, as well as other expenditures you made for her medical and dental care. However, the benefits received from medical announcements now being heard on Texas radio stations. Also on the new record of announcements, the third in a series, are Ed McMahon of the "Tonight" show and Dallas Cowboy stars Bob Lilly and Bob Hayes.

insurance policies are not included in support.

Q) After four years of attending college full-time and working part-time to help pay for it, I graduated last year and took a full-time job. Can I use income averaging to reduce my tax?

A) Before you can consider income averaging, a basic requirement is that you must have furnished 50 percent or more of your own support during each of the four years prior to 1971. IRS Publication 506, "Computing Your Tax Under the Income Averaging Method," explains all the details of income averaging. It's available free by dropping a postcard to your IRS district office.

Q) I sued to recover damages for injuries I incurred in an auto accident. I settled for $7,500 before we ever got to trial. Is the $7,500 taxfree?

A) Yes if it is compensation for personal injury or illness. Such compensation is not taxable, whether you receive it after trial or through settlement.

Q) Are there any limits on how much you can deduct as a charitable contribution?

A) Yes. In general, contributions to most charities such as churches, educational organizations, hospitals, etc., may be deducted up to 50 percent of your adjusted gross income. However, contributions to certain private nonoperating foundations, veterans organizations, fraternal societies, and cemetery organizations are limited to 20 percent of adjusted gross income. The organization itself can tell you which of the two categories it falls into.

There are also certain limitations on contributions of property, such as stock. For details, see IRS Publication 526, "Income Tax Deduction for Contributions," available free from your IRS district office.

'71 Screwworms Worst Since '68

Texas recorded 444 screwworm cases in 1971, making the year the worst since 1968, according to officials of the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Program at Mission. However, in 1969 and 70, the state had recorded the fewest cases on record.

Fifty-six counties had the screwworm outbreaks in 1971, with Val Verde County leading with 67 cases.

Outside of Texas, only Arizona and Arkansas had confirmed screwworm cases. Arizona had four infestations and Arkansas recorded 25.

States in the screwworm eradication area that recorded no cases were California, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Louisiana.

A total of 255 screwworm cases were chalked up in Texas in September and October of last year. This was in contrast to the two previous years when screwworms were most active in May, June and July. January was the only month last year without a case although February had but one.

The seven states in the program submitted a total of 2,584 non-screwworm samples to the Mission Lab in 1971. Of these, 2,133 samples came from Texans, the second lowest total since the program got under way in 1962.

More than seven billion sterile flies were released last year with some 5.2 billion being dropped on northern states in Mexico. More than .6 billion were dropped on Texas.

Officials at the Mission Lab continue to urge all livestock producers to be on the alert for worms, pointing out that 60 months really are entirely free of this livestock blight. In fact, six cases have already been reported in Webb County.

Producers noting worms in open wounds on their livestock are encouraged to submit a sample to the Screwworm Eradication Program, Box 969, Mission Texas. Collection kits are available at any county extension office.

How come this kid has more money saved than you do?

Because over the years his parents have invested in U.S. Savings Bonds—in his name, for his future—by participating in the Payroll Savings Plan at work.

He probably doesn't even know. And right now, he couldn't care less. But when he's older, that money can be used for a lot of things—a car, a college education, or even a new home.

The Payroll Savings Plan is an easy way to save money for you and every member of your family. When you join, an amount you designate will be automatically laid aside from your paycheck and invested in U.S. Savings Bonds. It's a painless way to save.

And now there's a bonus interest rate on all U.S. Savings Bonds—for E Bonds, 5 1/2% when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year). That extra 1/2%, payable as a bonus at maturity, applies to all Bonds issued since June 1, 1970... with a comparable improvement for all older Bonds.

Join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work and make your son the richest kid on the block.

Bonds are safe. If lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace them. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Tax may be deferred until redemption. And always remember, Bonds are a good way to save.

Accent On Health

Your heart is the sturdiest, toughest muscle of your body. The work it does is almost miraculous. Yet too many Texans are neglecting the health and conditioning of that heart muscle. In this computerized age, exercise has become the uncommon thing, and our urbanized society and the fast pace of living that society demands adds tensions and stresses to that tough heart muscle that it cannot tolerate indefinitely.

State health officials are increasingly concerned over the large incidence of heart disease in Texas and across the nation. "Each day, on the average, heart disease kills some 1,400 Americans, and cerebral brain strokes take another 500 lives," said Dr. Jaems E. Peavy, Texas Commissioner of Health. "In total, the toll is more than one life a minute. Uncounted hundreds of thousands are crippled every year."

Many of these people actually lived their way into a premature heart attack, by habit or choice running certain risks that raised their chances of being stricken. Their seemingly sudden heart attack had been building up to crisis for years.

Many heart attacks could have been prevented. By simple knowledge, and action, most heart attack victims could have reduced any of nine risk factors which make a man more susceptible to a heart attack far too early in life.

After many years of medical research we know heart disease is due to a conspiracy of factors. There is no single cause, but a combination of causes.

County Agent's News...

Our 4-H lamb feeders had a rather disastrous day at San Antonio. However, all was not lost, the weather was beautiful and San Antonio has more good eating places than any city in Texas, as far as I'm concerned, so we all had a good trip.

Mike Bragg picked up a 3rd place cross in the Junior show and a 3rd place cross in the Open show. The Wise boys showed finewools to 6th and 7th in the open and 11th and 17th in the Junior show. Cara Blackmon had a 12th finewool.

We're leaving with a load of lambs and steers for Houston next week.

The calf feeders had a real good day at San Antonio and we were real proud of them.

These are the chief suspects; High blood pressure. High levels of cholesterol, a particularly dangerous fatty material, in the bloodstream. Overweight. Excessive eating, especially of certain types of fats and cholesterol. Too little exercise and physical activity. Diabetes. Excessive cigarette smoking. Tensions and stresses. Heredity. Those are the nine risk factors of heart disease.

"A man's chances of having a heart attack before age 65 are only about one in 20 to one in 50 if he is normal in these nine risk factors," said Dr. Peavy. "If he is shadowed by two or three of these risk factors, such as high blood cholesterol, high blood pressure, or heavy smoking, his chances rise to one in two—or 50 percent."

"It is important for every Texan to take measures now to avoid heart disease by avoiding as many risk factors as possible," said Dr. Peavy.

There is no law requiring Justices of the Supreme Court to be lawyers.
