W. C. T. U.

The Womans Christian Temperance Union had a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. A. L. Oder last Wednesday afternoon. There was a fine attendance. Mrs. G. A. Morgan conducted an interesting devotional appropriate to the New Year. Mrs. W. O. Garrett presided. Mrs. G. F. Barlett read a fine article stating how the organized young people of Kansas under the slogan "Keep Kansas Dry for Kansas Youth" rolled up a majority of 90,000 against repeal. Talks were made or clippings read by all present. The next meeting will be at the C. P. church, February 6, 3 o'clock. The program will center around the life of Frances Willard. The unions are in a five year campaign of renewed activity leading up to the one hundredth birthday of our great leader to be celebrated in 1939. All women of the community are always welcome to the meetings.

NOTICE

There has been quite a bit of complaint by the business men of electric light globes being shot out by air rifles. Boys with air guns will please be more careful where they shoot, or suffer the consequences of law. By Order of City Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Eubank returned this week from a several days visit in the states of Alabama and Tennessee. Mr. Eubank reports a splendid visit and apparently improved conditions in the states visited.

Bridge and "42" Benefit Party

Members of the Thursday Thimble Club are sponsoring a Benefit Bridge and "42" Party Tuesday night, January 15th, at the W. O. W. Hall. The proceeds of the party will go toward purchasing miscellaneous items needed at the Sealy Hospital.

The tickets are on sale at the Phillips Drug Company, and the price of admission is 25c per person. Tables and chairs will be arranged, and those who are fostering the move are anxious to have a large attendance.

While this will be a benefit party, and the proceeds will go to a very necessary and deserving cause, the entertainment is expected to be worth the price of admission. Many people will purchase tickets who will not likely attend the party, but the party will be worthwhile, and the good ladies fostering it will appreciate your patronage.

We might add that the Hospital has not been appraised of such a party, and the management know nothing of its plans and intentions. It is purely a volunteer move on the part of friends of the institution, who constantly visit it and know of its needs.

Charity work at the hospital is a large item, and these little treats coming in unexpectedly are greatly appreciated.

WARD SCHOOL P. T. A.

The Ward School P. T. A. will meet next Tuesday afternoon in the Ward School auditorium, beginning at 3:30. A thrift program will be rendered in addition to the regular study course in Mental Hygiene.

All the parents of Ward School children are cordially invited to attend. We appreciate the splendid attendance at our Christmas program, and wish to thank the teachers and mothers who made the program possible. Let us continue this splendid co-operation through the New Year.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this method of expressing our thanks and appreciation to our many friends who were so thoughtful during the illness, death and burial of our dear husband and father. May God's richest blessings rest on you.

Mrs. W. A. Brandon and children.

Dr. C. C. Moody, originally of Norfolk, Va., but more recently of Chicago, came Sunday and is a member of the Sealy Hospital Staff and the School of Nursing faculty.

Surprise Wedding

John W. Berry, prescription pharmacist at Walker's Pharmacy, and Miss Mildred Stewardson of the Turner Ranch community, stole a march on their friends Sunday, drove to Ballinger and married.

The happy young couple were married in the Presbyterian manse, with the Rev. McClarin officiating. After the marriage ceremony the couple drove on to San Angelo, returned here Monday afternoon and paid a visit to the lady's parents.

Mr. Berry is a son of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Berry of San Saba, a graduate of the Dansworth school of Pharmacy in Fort Worth, and has been one of the trusted employees of the Walker Pharmacy for several months.

The charming bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stewardson of the Turner Ranch community, a member of one of the pioneer families of Coleman county, and is one of the popular younger set in these parts.

The Santa Anna News joins other friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy married life.

Texas Does Not Need Federal Child Labor Laws

Texas has what is known as a model Child Labor statute, making it quite unnecessary for any Federal activities, in the opinion of many of Texas' leading industries.

The announcement from New York that leading members of the American Bar Association believe that the Child Labor Amendment movement has been stopped in its tracks has been hailed with great delight by forces in Texas.

It is estimated that there are in Texas 2,200,000 boys and girls under eighteen years of age who, if the Federal amendment is adopted by thirty-six states, would be under the direct control of Federal agents, who could pin badges on boys and girls and regulate the kind of work they do in the homes and on the farms.

It has been pointed out also by the Texas Committee that nearly 400,000 young married women, who are under eighteen years of age, would be under Federal jurisdiction and their housework and private lives would be regulated by Federal inspectors.

Many states have their own Child Labor laws and if they are enforced the Committee believes there is no need for Federal interference.

"Texas laws permit orphaned children over 12 and under 15 with fifth grade schooling to work and support self or widowed mother," State Labor Commissioner Charles H. Poe said, "except in dangerous occupations. To work children under 15 during school session a permit issued by the County Judge is required. Children of any age can be worked during school vacation except on hazardous occupations."

News from New York during the last week in December looks as if the Child Labor Amendment is definitely disposed of, because the opinion is given that such an amendment would be unconstitutional.

It is very plain to anyone reading excerpts from the intention of the Federal Children's Bureau—the bureau which would have charge of the administration of a federal child labor law in the event of ratification of the so-called child labor amendment—is to control and regulate the work of children as well as youths up to 18 years of age, on the farm and in the home.

It should also be apparent from these excerpts that the propaganda now being circulated in behalf of the amendment is misleading and entirely contrary to the official report of the child labor problem prepared by the Federal Children's Bureau itself. —Sam P. Harbin in Texas Press Messenger.

Mrs. Eunice McGahey returned Friday from Belton, where she has been visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Howard and son visited Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Callahan in Cross Plains Sunday. They also went to Cisco.

Wallace, Mrs. Burgess Weaver, Ben W. Yarbrough and M. A. Edwards. The first five were re-elected. Mr. Edwards was added to the board, making six directors in the future.

At the directors meeting the following officers were elected. W. R. Kelley, president; W. E. Wallace, vice president; M. A. Edwards, active vice president; D. L. Pieratt, cashier; R. W. Balke, assistant cashier.

The financial statement of the condition of the bank at the close of business December 31, 1934, will be found elsewhere in this issue of the News.

The body was carried to Coleman by Stephens Undertaking company and prepared for burial. Interment was made in the Brown Ranch cemetery Monday afternoon.

W. A. BRANDON

Funeral services were held here Monday afternoon at the First Baptist Church for W. A. Brandon, who passed away at his home eight miles southwest of here Sunday morning.

He was married to Miss Lou English, of May, Texas, December 22, 1892. Eleven children were born to this union, seven boys and four girls. Two boys preceded him in death, T. C. in infancy, and Sam in young manhood, being buried August 28, 1929. Mr. Brandon died Sunday, January 6, 1935.

"He is survived by his companion, five sons: Johnnie, Arthur, Melvin, Ellsworth, and Alton; four daughters: Mrs. Jim Jones of Brownwood, Mrs. Lige Goyer of Santa Anna, Mrs. Wayne Sparks of Wichita Falls, and Mrs. Elton McDonald of Coleman. Also fourteen grandchildren, four sisters, three brothers, numerous other relatives, and a host of friends. A sister, Mrs. F. E. Demere, of Merkel, is present.

"He was converted in 1894, at Holder, Texas. He has lived around Santa Anna since 1912. He has been more or less a sufferer of physical infirmities for five and one-half years, and for the past two years has suffered continuously. He was a member of this Church at the time of his death, and had been for many years."

Such a meeting will be sponsored locally by the P.T.A., City and County Medical Society, and Hospital Staff, and will be held at the Coleman High School Auditorium Friday night, beginning at 7:30.

The meeting will be open to the public and all are invited to attend.

JAMES P. COPELAND

S. Allen of Fry, and Miss Alma Copeland of Santa Anna. He is also survived by seven grand-children, three brothers: Frank Copeland of Gouldsburg, and J. D. and F. R. Copeland of Austin; and two sisters, Miss Rebecca Copeland and Mrs. Laura Tumey of Austin.

Mr. Copeland has been a member of the Church of Christ for about twenty years. Flower bearers were Mesdames Dave Banks, J. H. Gowin, Burl Havner, and Otis Havner. Pall bearers were Henry Pittard, Fred Rathjen, Elbert Rathjen, Bill Reams, Dudley West, and Alden Patton.

SURPRISE SHOWER

Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hill returned to their home near Whon after spending the afternoon in Santa Anna, they were greeted by a surprise caravan of their friends who had apparently moved in on them, bag, baggage and furniture, for they had even brought the piano, over which Miss Inez McIver presided during the evening.

There was a reading by Miss Era Hill, sister of the groom, a duet by Mrs. Joe Christie Barnes, another re-ent bride, and Mrs. Jim Gill. Several piano selections were rendered in addition to the various games which were directed by Mrs. Dick Griffin.

The miscellaneous selection of gifts presented to the honorees was composed of various housekeeping equipment. At the close of a delightful evening, cake and hot chocolate were served to the many guests. Mrs. Hill was Miss Mattie Zue Featherston of Whon before the marriage Christmas Eve in Brady.

The Texas Ranger Memorial Park

(By Mrs. Beatrice Gay) From the inception of a dream to its consummation is usually a long and tedious trail. The more complicated its character the longer it takes to unravel the tangled skeins of circumstances which retard its realization and fit them together. The story of the park which is being built on the east end of the Santa Anna Mountain is no exception to the general rule. No one could have lived at the foot of this beautiful little mountain for near half a century, watched the shadows come and go across its rugged sides, and the gorgeous sunsets which like a benediction marked the day's passing, without becoming imbued with a love of the beauty, and a reverence for the traditions of this historic old landmark and Pioneer guide-post. Truly, with its gurgling springs and abundance of game was it always a "Rock in a Weary Land" to the restless traveler who felt the urge to "go west." If this hoary sentinel could open its long silent lips, what stories it could tell of joy and tragedy of the countless generations of life which comes within its scope down the ages. As it is, there are many signs indelibly traced and preserved in the clay and rocks for the initiate to read.

There is an Indian mound on the west end of the mountain near the place where, in the knowledge of oldtimers, a spring used to gush. Tradition says it was left by a tribe of Kiowa Indians, whose chief was named Satanta, and from whom the mountain gets its name. One authority gives us a Comanche chief, "Santa Anna," another says the mountain was named after Chief Santander. Be that as it may, the Postal authorities said the folks down here could not read or spell much anyway so they named it for the Mexican General, Santa Anna. When Coleman county was organized in 1870 we lost the County seat because the Rangers could not vote. To a man they all wanted to locate near their signal post of Ranger days. However, the powers that be being the cattlemen who had settled in the west part of the county, and offered land as an inducement, decided otherwise. And so, as we were left to shift for ourselves, and become a "self-made" town, we cherished all the more our one claim to distinction, our mountain with its memories and traditions.

When the discovery was made that Santa Anna Mountain was rich in a fine grade of glass, and the spirit of commercialism began its work of disfiguration by digging great holes in its sides. I, as a daughter of one of those old rangers, have been regaled from childhood by stories of the days when an Army Post or Ranger Camp held all the white people in the County, felt a real pang as each new wound was cut into the side of our faithful old sentinel. I so longed to preserve it in all its original splendor as a heritage for future generations. For a long while it seemed an idle wish, with no hope of fulfillment. Suddenly the way opened and I saw a chance to save perhaps a part of it.

Texas began planning a Centennial, and one of the first steps toward a general plan of preparation was a Statewide Highway Beautification project. The State was divided into Districts of so many counties each, and a plan for a number of Wayside Parks to be built and maintained by the State was evolved. The Women's Federated Clubs of Texas appointed committees to take the matter up with all the Clubs in the Federation.

The Self-Culture Club of Santa Anna, being a member of the Federation, appointed me chairman of our Committee, and with such a fine field to work in we enthusiastically embarked on our mission.

It was an easy matter to interest the Highway Department through Mr. Leo Ehlinger, Division Engineer of District 23, (in whose division we are) in our historic mountain as a suitable location for a Wayside Park. The Lions Club accepted the idea and pledged assistance, and we then started out to procure the 25 acres of land requested by the Highway Department. The land was owned by Mr. W. E. Wallace, who had to be talked into selling it, which he consented to do only because he realized the value of such a beauty spot to our town.

After several months of hard work, and quite a bit of money from a few of us, the last ball of red tape has been wound up, the deeds recorded, and work actually begun on the Park. Not until work was actually started did we ever feel sure of anything.

I wish to add my word of thanks and appreciation to those already expressed by my faithful Co-workers, Mr. Turner and Mr. Gregg. I should like for the people of Santa Anna to know that "those two gentlemen" are the kind that never stop in the middle of a hard job, they just go on to the end of the row. So don't set them to doing anything you don't want finished.

In the final analysis it was Dr. Sealy who came to the rescue and put us over the last hurdle, by buying the fourteen acre tract adjoining the park-site, thus clearing the title for us to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Mr. Ehlinger very graciously allowed me to name the Park. All the time I wanted it known by. It is called the "Texas Ranger Memorial Park," an enduring monument to the old Rangers of Texas, and Coleman County in particular. Those who take the trouble to climb to the top of the ledge overlooking the Park can trace the names of at least two of them, and the date, 1874.

Our next move in the Highway Beautification project is to get to work doing the many small things every town can do for its own beautification. We have a Centennial Club, organized for that purpose, and composed of representatives of all City Organizations. We must now get busy and inaugurate a real campaign of Spring Clean-up and Beautification, in which it will be necessary to have the co-operation of the whole town and community.

ON TEXAS FARMS

Because the work done by the farm demonstration agent in terracing proved so valuable to farmers in Montgomery county, the County Court has employed a terracing assistant for a period of 50 days and invested in a crawler type of tractor and a grader to be used only in terracing.

In the drought emergency of 1934, D. G. Vick, Young county rancher, found cotton to be the cheapest and best feed he could raise for his 17,000 head of sheep. As used by him the cotton was stripped and stored for winter feeding which he values at four cents per pound. In 1934 his plantings averaged 250 pounds per acre. No other lands planted in feed stuffs produced so much, Mr. Vick states.

Tanning has taken firm hold in Runnels county according to Elmo V. Cook, farm demonstration agent. More than 700 pounds of hides were tanned and cattle producers in the county still have 600 hides being held for tanning leather. The

If you were the only student who did not bring up class work?

If you were President of the United States?

If you were a college professor?

If you saw Ernestine Thames coming to school wearing anklets?

If you heard that Lula Mae Cadv did not have a letter to write?

If you were told that the juniors were going to present their play?

If you were as tall as Scott Wallace?

If you were as small as Gwen-dolyn Oakes?

JUNIORS TO RECEIVE PINS JANUARY 15

Lately the juniors have been smiling and murmuring, "Only four more weeks to wait!" For a long time no one knew what the mystery was but at last it has been solved. The juniors, who ordered their pins in December, will receive them on January 15.

English II Finishes Literature

The English II classes have completed the "Literature and Life" book by Greenlaw, Elson, Keck, and Miles.

For the past sixteen weeks the classes have been studying literature. Tuesday, January 8, the study of grammar was begun.

DO YOU KNOW WHO—

J. T. Oakes claims—all the girls claim him?

Could he be more studious than Mildred McDonald?

Paye Routh likes? That is to question at all.

Max Price makes eyes at now? Is it Evelyn K? Mary Hoopes would know.

Makes the most noise in Spanish II class? Winston Hal ought to have made a New Year's resolution to calm-down.

Thinks E. W. Polk is handsome? Sarah Williams could not deny it.

Was the senior that made "35" on a test in Constitution? Snooping Sue is?

Was the girl (a senior) changed her famed red sweater for a red suede coat? Perhaps Santa Claus did it.

The freshman is that is as slick as a button and knows it?

The senior is that wears that bright orange coat trimmed in black?

Although Sue's column has been missing in the last two editions of the "Mountaineer," it has not been for the lack of news but due to the fact she has been delving deeper into the mysteries of the campus.

After doing some first class snooping during the holidays, Sue wishes to ask the following questions: Did anyone accept Holland Cheaney's offer and write him a term theme in English? If Sue had been Miss McClendon, she certainly would have been tempted—for what a proposition she received. Durwood, did you bring your kitty to school? As all the students probably noticed, Mr. Scarborough was more anxious than Sue about the kitties. Miss McClendon, why are you so interested in correcting the proofs for the paper? Could it be that you just really enjoy the life of a newspaper?

Sue has noticed that Winston Hall has of late had much business in the office, and she wonders if he is to be appointed office boy. She heard that this was his life's ambition—and is he making headway?

As the last statement, Sue wishes to ask Miss Naugle an important question. It is a question that all the students will be intensely interested in. She wishes to know why Miss Naugle is wearing two diamonds on the left hand. She must have important girl friends—what do you think?

Marilyn Baxter Entertains Scribblers Monday Night

Miss Marilyn Baxter, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Stafford Baxter, entertained members of the Scribblers Club and several other students of Santa Anna High School with a buffet supper at her home last Monday evening, January 7th.

Early in the evening Georgia Frances Balett and Augusta Bond arrived with the extras, which kept the group laughing at the "Jokes" and "Can You Imagine" columns. This diversion, with lively conversation, music and several games furnished employment until the guests were invited to supper.

All the guests, which were as follows, reported a very enjoyable time: Miss Mattie Ella McCreary, Emma John Blake, Elizabeth and Doris Rollins, Beth Barnes, May Campbell, Aurelia Tweedle, Evelyn Evans, Ruth Conley, Anita Kirkpatrick, Elva Lou Smith, Ruth Goen, Rhea Boardman, Gale Collier, Lenora Golston, Augusta Bond, Frances Gregg, Georgia Frances Barlett, Mary Lee Ford, and Kathryn Wylie.

Mrs. Alice Phipps Cannon and Mrs. J. M. Hopkins of Abilene were Santa Anna visitors Monday. They attended the Christian Aid Society meeting in the afternoon.

Baptist Church

Last Sunday was a fairly good day with us, with increased interest in B. T. U. We have organized an adult union and hope to enlist more adults in this phase of church work.

The prayer meeting on Wednesday evenings is to be different this year. For thirty minutes on each Wednesday evening the pastor will discuss some book of the Bible, beginning with Genesis this week. This is an effort to create interest in Bible study. Such as date, author, purpose, central teaching, peculiar characteristics of each book will be considered. Any question concerning any book may be asked by any attendant night book is discussed.

We hope this year to make our church services mean more to the individual members and the community at large. Come and worship with us.

HAL C. WINGO, Pastor.

Vocational Agriculture Teachers Make Report On November Activities

Vocational Agriculture Teachers in the Brownwood District and their boys have been busy with their work this year, according to E. W. Scott, District Reporter.

A summary of all activities for the month of November reveals the fact that the program is broad and that each man realizes his responsibility to his department and his boys and community.

Some of the high points of the summary report on the month of November are:

E. W. Scott, Williams, E. J. Hughes, Pioneer, and Barron, at Bangs, attended a four day slaughtering school at Stephenville (which met on Saturdays). News space for November—90 inches.

250 acres terraced. 16 acres cover crops planted.

Seven sows selected for breeding purposes.

Santa Anna Dept. aided in locating sows and jack.

May H. S. reported 13 boys feeding balanced ration.

Five evening schools were under way in November. The topic for discussion was principally the A. A. Program.

Five chapter officers attended officers training school at Brownwood.

Santa Anna Chapter put on horse and mule show.

Bangs Dept. has worked out a plan for campus beautification.

Let the Vocational Agricultural Department in your school help you with your problems. You will find the teachers pleasant to deal with, and the boys willing to work.

Don't fail to see the new spring dresses at Mrs. Shockley's store.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met in Bible Study Monday afternoon. Mrs. T. M. The attendance was splendid. Those who do not attend these Bible Study meetings will surely miss a very interesting study.

ACCIDENTS THAT COULDN'T OCCUR DID DURING PAST YEAR

CHICAGO, Jan. 6. (AP)—Accidents that couldn't occur did during the past year.

Some of the mishaps of 1934 were the kind that "just couldn't" occur.

But they did, and here are a few oddities collected from the records of the National Safety Council:

Nine-year-old Henri Guyot was sucked up by a wheat blower in France. He came out unharmed in a sheaf of grain.

An automobile hit a baby carriage in Jersey City. Philip Romano, 3 months old, and a pair of pillows flew through the air with the greatest of ease. The infant landed on the pillows; nobody hurt.

William McFadden, Chicago, started up a flight of iron stairs. A step broke. He was hanged, his head caught in the superstructure.

A dog fell from a tenth-story window in New Jersey, landing on Albert Barrett. The man's skull was fractured.

A Dayton, Ohio, woman was blinded by smoke from her cook stove. She ran into the street. A car killed her.

Mrs. Janet Ward's auto shot over a 178-foot cliff on Economy Mountain, rolled over 14 times and smacked into a tree. She was bruised a bit.

A Los Angeles youth decided to end it all with gas. He lit a cigaret and was blown out of the house.

John Bliesky sat on his front porch. A passing car flipped a stone against his head. It killed him.

Harvey Pontus of Kendallville, Ind., scratched a match on oil-soaked trousers. He required new pants and a doctor.

A dog in Murphysboro, Ill.,

LOCALS

committed suicide by turning on the gas jets of a kitchen stove.

They had to operate on Usher Schupack of Brooklyn. He swallowed a toothbrush while hiccupping.

Joseph Pittus, New Philadelphia, Ohio, extricated himself from what was left of his car. The undamaged radio blared: "I'll Be Glad When You're Dead, You Rascal You."

A practical joker shoved a paintbrush under the nose of Gabriel Bernard, author of "Terror" works. He died of fright.

Florine Lavelle—she scoffed at death from a lofty trapeze—fell down stairs and was fatally injured.

But wait until you read this one:

Beulah Hopkins was taking a bath in Gary, Ind. She stepped on the soap, plunged through a window and dropped three floors to a sand pile.

She suffered some embarrassment.

Miss Velma Oder left Saturday for Throckmorton County where she resumed her school teaching Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Brandon and daughter, Dolores, and Miss Elsie Kelley of Putnam were here for the funeral of Mr. W. A. Brandon held Monday afternoon.

Misses Glenda Ford and Florence Niell returned to Dallas last week after spending the holidays with relatives here.
