EASTERN STAR

(Written for last week) Following a custom of several years standing, the Santa Anna Chapter No. 247, O. E. S. observed their annual Christmas celebration Monday evening. The chapter hall was gatly decorated with Christmas dress, including a beautiful tree in the center of the room, which was laden with gifts for everyone.

Three visitors from other chapters were given a special welcome. They were Sister Huss of the Menard Chapter, Sister Glasscock of Paint Rock, and Sister McAden of Indian Creek.

At the close of the regular business meeting, the members' families, who were waiting down stairs, were invited to assemble for the program of Christmas, earols.

Refreshments of cake and hot chocolate were served to the large crowd. Plate favors were Eastern Star emblem cards, hand-painted by Marshall Sister Annie Childers.

After wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year, the members declared this one of the happiest celebrations this Chapter has ever observed.

-0--P. T. A. Has Interesting Meeting

(Written for last week)

The P T. A. met Tuesday, December 11 in the High School Auditorium. The meeting was opened by a prayer. We discussed a way to get the mothers interested in P.T.A. and what we are doing.

The children, teachers, and sponsors are doing their part to get mothers to come.

Are you mothers going to fail your children? Let one of your New Year's Resolutions be: Never fail to attend P. T. A. in the year of 1935.

We are having a wonderful study that every mother should hear. The year's topic is on "Adolescent Development." Next meeting's topic will be on "To What Extent Should the Adolescent Enter into Family Financial Problems?"

The friendly thoughts that always cling to this good season prompt us to voice the wish that yours may be a very happy New Year.

May good cheer, good friends and happy thoughts be with you in abundance during this gay season, and may the Bells ring out to you thousands of joys you've never known before, and may their echo of friendliness and good cheer resound to your household every day of the coming year.

We Thank You Sincerely for the Many Kindnesses Shown Us During The Past Year

May we take this opportunity of expressing our sincere thanks for the splendid patronage you have given us during the past year and pledge anew our earnest efforts toward serving you better during the New you and yours.

The End of the Year

As the year draw to a close, we pause to reflect on the elements that have entered into it, and it is indeed a privilege to extend to you our gratitude for the success of our work, realizing full well that you have played a great part in making possible our activity and may the coming New Year be a Happy and a Prosperous one for
