Election To Settle Controversy

The Coleman County Commissioners met on Monday and the main item of business was the continuing ambulance service saga. When all was said and done, the Commissioners Court had set a called election to take the issue to the people. The non-binding referendum election is set for August 1.

The Commissioners will act according to the results of the referendum which will ask if an ambulance subsidy should be paid, County Judge Pete Skelton said.

The court had listened to emotionally charged pleas for the subsidy at the public meeting attended by 170 people.

Ed Freeman, who opened the Coleman County Emergency Medical Services in February, has said he can't operate without a $5,000 monthly subsidy. Freeman has asked for the subsidy at several commissioner's meetings.

The commissioner's, however, have been reluctant to pay it because Jimmy Eisenhower of Santa Anna says he is operating an ambulance service without a subsidy and because Freeman's subsidy will supposedly require a 10 percent tax hike.

Freeman has said he would close the Coleman County EMS Wednesday if the commissioners refused to pay a subsidy. After the meeting, however, he said he will operate until the subsidy issue is resolved.

"I owe it to the citizens to stay," he said. "Two more months won't hurt me that much more." Freeman didn't say how much money he had lost.

During the meeting, several county residents pleaded for the subsidy Freeman had requested.

"How much is an ambulance worth?" asked Earl Smith, a Coleman resident. "You tell me how much is a life worth."

The spectators cheered his remarks. Bob Turner, a Voss resident, said the ambulance company should be treated like the sheriff's office - as a necessity regardless of the cost.

"I don't worry about taxes for the sheriff's department," he said to loud applause.

However, Jimmy Eisenhower, who owns Santa Anna Funeral Home, told the commissioner's court that he doesn't need a subsidy for his ambulance service.

But Mike Korzenewski, who owns Steven's Funeral Home of Coleman, said, "You will never make money in the ambulance business without a subsidy."

His funeral home operated an ambulance service until February.

Freeman told the spectators that he is losing money because he doesn't refuse service to people who can not pay and because the cost of operating ambulances is increasing dramatically.

When Freeman said he charges $75 per run, several spectators began to argue among themselves.

"That's pretty high," one woman said. "Would you rather die?" another woman snapped.

Thus the saga continues. The August 1 referendum will let the Commissioner's Court know what the people of Coleman County want in regards to the issue.

First Annual Tennis Classic Rousing Success

The first annual Santa Anna Alumni Tennis Classic was a rousing success judged by response and by comments made by those entered and by those just watching.

Tennis has long been a popular sport in the Santa Anna and Central Texas Area. The local High School tennis program has helped to put Santa Anna "on the map" and when former graduates of that program gathered over the weekend for friendly competition the local tennis courts were filled with old friends in competition with each other for the trophies to be handed out for the first ever Santa Anna Alumni Classic.

The event was held July 11th and 12th. Twenty nine former Santa Anna High School tennis players of all ages participated in fun and fellowship. Seventeen of those entered were former state qualifiers.

The tournament was organized by Dick and Karen Smith of Rotan. Dick is the son of former Santa Anna Tennis coach R.C. Smith. He and Karen are both former state qualifiers.

The tournament was highlighted by a lot of good tennis, a dance at the Lions Club Saturday night and some very sore muscles.

Winning was nothing new to the netters who came out on top in the tournament. Tommy DeLeon won the men's singles division by defeating Terry Day, 7-5, 3-6, 6-2. Men's doubles winners were brothers Jody and Terry Day. They won over David Robinett and James Hartman, 6-4, 6-2.

The women's singles was won by Karen Smith. She beat Lori Smith 7-6, 7-5. Lori and Karen then teamed up to win the women's doubles 6-1, 6-1, over Nola Hughes and Irma Castillo.

David Robinett and Lori Smith beat Chris DeLeon and Irma Castillo 6-2, 6-2 to win the mixed doubles event.

Participating from Santa Anna were David Robinett, Lori Smith, Jr. and Janis Salazar, Nola Hughes, Ronnie Hartman, James Hartman, Irma Castillo, Steve and Kelly Malaer, Stephanie and Stanley Hartman, Jeanie Jones, R.C. Smith and Chris DeLeon.

Out of Town participants were Terry Day, Tommy DeLeon, Paulie Vasquez and Raymond Vasquez all of the Dallas area, Dick and Karen Smith of Rotan, Mike Hartman and Doug Warnock of San Angelo, Jody Day of Monahan, Rusty Buzzard of Pflugerville, John Devaney of Coleman, and Richard and Tony Malaer of Albany.

Organizers and tournament workers were very pleased with the participation and for the help and cooperation of local organizations and individuals.

Can You Identify Mystery Lady In Portrait?

Warren Bruce Wallace and wife Twylia have purchased what is known in Santa Anna as the old Gipson house. They are residents of Seagraves and are renovating the house in hopes of some day moving back to Santa Anna and making their home in the house. In clearing out the house in preparation for some of the work to be done, the couple ran across this old portrait above a closet. They are very interested in finding out who the person in the picture might be. In checking with previous owners of the house, they have not found the answer to their question. The house was built by a Dr. A.B. Strozier in 1909. Dr. Strozier was associated with Dr. Richard Sealy. The house later belonged to Mrs. J.R. Gipson who ran a boarding house and a flower shop. The most recent owner of the house until Wallace purchased it was Robert Stewardson. Wallace is the son of Joe Wallace of Santa Anna and the late Dorothy Hibbetts Wallace. He is the grandson of Ruth Hibbetts of the Cleveland Community. He is very much interested in hearing from anyone who may be able to identify the portrait.

Rodeo Clowns Visit Library Reading Club

Janet Neff welcomed the clowns. She and her family have known Quail Dobbie for several years.

Mr. Dobbie has been a clown for 20 years and was named 1978 Clown of the year for the P.R.C.A. Quail is one of only two clowns to ever work the National Finals Rodeo.

Clown Chuck Kinney was moving about easily. He is recovering from injuries that a bull gave him. Born in Cajon Country of Louisiana, Chuck has been around rodeos all his life.

He began his clown act in 1975.

Gary "Roach" Hedeman is an El Paso native and was making his first appearance at the Coleman Rodeo.

Quail Dobbie performed with his dog. The three clown explained the duties of a rodeo clown. They answered questions. Did you know that rodeo clowns wear shoes with big cleats to help run the bulls? Did you know that there is a school for rodeo clowns? Quail Dobbie is a bar-relman. He jumps into a heavily padded barrel that bulls can hook with their horns. Chuck and Gary are bullfighters. Clowns call this American Bullfighting. They use their bodies like a cape to tease the bulls away from fallen cowboys. Many rodeo men owe their lives to these brave men.

Every boy and girl received a free ticket to the Coleman Rodeo and a large autographed picture of Quail Dobbie.

City Sales Tax Rebates Down By 37 Percent

Comptroller Bob Bullock sent checks totaling $53.6 million in sales tax rebates to 1,039 cities that levy the one-percent city tax. Bullock said the 1987 payments were down 6.5 percent compared to payments made in the same period last year. July checks represent taxes collected in May and reported to the Comptroller by June 30.

Santa Anna received $982.90 as compared to $1,216.01 at this time last year. Payments received by the city to date this year have totaled $2,922.50. The 1986 total at this time of the year was $35,721.83 making the figure to reflect a 37.61 percent decrease in the 1987 receipts as compared to this time in 1986.

The largest check sent out by Bullock for the Sales Tax rebate was that sent to Houston in the amount of $2.8 million bringing that city's total for the year to date to $75.2 million, down 4.2 percent over 1986.

Clown Kinney, Coleman counted a check in the amount of $24,407.11, down 1.0 percent over last year at this time.

Letter To The Editor

Madam Editor;
To the Citizens of Santa Anna who were not aware of the first Annual Santa Anna Alumni Classic Tennis Tournament held here last Saturday and Sunday and did not see any of the action, you really missed something.

There were at least 17 former Texas Class A Men and Women State Champions, Runners-up and State Qualifiers from Santa Anna High School playing some great tennis of years past at various times this past weekend.

How many other towns the size of Santa Anna can boast of that many good high school tennis players? Much less returning home for a tennis tournament where they learned to play and represent their school and community so well.

Many times citizens of small towns envy large towns and what they have but this is one of the many things we in Santa Anna can be proud of.

Hats off to Dick Smith and Karen Smith for bringing a well planned and well run event with lots of outstanding tennis home to Santa Anna.

Thoughts From Our Pastors

(In the absence of a message from any of our pastors, we hope you will enjoy the following).

Science and-or Faith

The Bible begins with this grand and sweeping statement, "In the beginning God created the heavens and earth" (Genesis 1:1). This is a critical element of faith! And the Bible believers insist that Genesis 1:1 is truth and not poetic myth! This means, that from the perspective of Bible believers, Genesis 1:1 involves science. It must! Because here we have the basic fact regarding the origins of the universe. It was created by God! It did not evolve! And mounting scientific evidence supports the Bible believer.

But many of those committed to evolution argue that Genesis 1:1 is a matter of faith while evolution is science. Is this really the case? The noted astronomer Carl Sagan has done a great deal to popularize the theory of evolution. But he says, "Today it is far easier to believe that organisms arose spontaneously on earth than to try to account for them in any other way. Nevertheless, this is still a statement of faith rather than of demonstrable scientific fact." Here is a noted proponent of evolution who states that holding to evolution is a "statement of faith."

In other words, belief in evolution is just as much a matter of faith as belief in creation! And the clash between the Bible and the theory of evolution is a clash between two different faiths!

Monique Spillman Studies With DeBakey Team

Monique Spillman has been in Houston since June 7th participating in the Baylor Summer Surgery Laboratory Program--the Dr. DeBakey program.

Students attending college and universities all over the U.S. make applications to attend. The applications are screened and Dr. Michael DeBakey presides over the selection of 25 to 30 participants.

These students are assigned to different areas of the Methodist-Baylor Transplant Center. Some are assigned to the four surgeons who are members of Dr. DeBakey's team. Monique is one of two students who are working under Dr. George Noon. She accompanies Dr. Noon through the routine days of the Cardiovascular Surgeon.

During Surgery, she acts as an assistant to the surgical team. Some of the procedures that she has participated in are coronary artery bypasses, heart valve replacements, gland removals, lung biopsies and aneurysm resections. She thinks the most interesting experiences have been with transplants of heart, kidney and liver.

Monique Spillman

In spare time students study in areas of records, communication, supplies and laboratory. Days run from 8 to 14 hours.

The program will conclude on August 9. After a short visit home, Monique will return to Austin where she will be a junior student at the University of Texas with a biochemistry major.

Not The Same Person

The News would like to clarify that Walter (Dudley) Sansom, a resident of Santa Anna and a local farmer is not the same person as the Thomas Dudley Sansom who was reported to have pleaded guilty in a court case in Brownwood.

The court report listed that person as a resident of Santa Anna when in fact he is a resident of Brownwood. Walter (Dudley) Sansom of Santa Anna is a retired civil service employee after having served 31 and a half years. He was born and raised in Mercury and returned to this area after his retirement to make his home and enter farming.

We are sorry for any inconvenience this report may have caused Walter (Dudley) Sansom.

Mrs. Cline Smith

Lisenell Brown - Cline Smith Wed In Winters

Lisenell Brown and Robert Cline Smith were married on Saturday, June 6, in a ceremony at First United Methodist Church in Winters. The Rev. Gary F. Turner, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Brown of Winters. Mrs. Floyd Smith of Santa Anna and the late Mr. Smith are parents of the groom. He is the grandson of Mrs. Delinda Smith of Santa Anna.

Church decorations included peach ribbon rose trees on each side of the altar table. Brass candelabras were on each side of the altar area, with green plants and peach ribbon bows used as other decorations at the altar and on the pews.

Mrs. Susan Connor was organist for the ceremony and accompanied Laura Brown as she sang "MY ONLY LOVE" and "THE LORD'S PRAYER." The prelude selections were classical music, and traditional wedding march and processional were played before and after the ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a candlelight formal gown of slim design. The princess neckline of satin was encrusted with lace and pearls. Pearl buttons fastened the lace sleeves at the wrist. A lace overlay covered the slim skirt that was softly sheered at the dropped V-shaped waistline. An overskirt of satin and lace with applique designs extended to an afternoon-length train.

A veil of six layers of white bridal illusion was attached to a circlet of silk roses and pearls, designed and made by the bride and her mother. She carried a bouquet of white silk roses and pearls that cascaded with white laces, ribbons and pearls. Two long-stemmed red roses were carried by the bride and given to her mother at the beginning of the ceremony and to the mother of the groom at the conclusion of the ceremony.

Ms. Cynthia A. Brown of Houston, sister of the bride, and Ms. Carla J. Brown of Winters were maids of honor. They were attired in tea-length dresses of peach satin with lace-covered bodices that were shirred to the waist and attached with a peach rose. Double rows of ruffles formed the skirts. Their bouquets were of silk roses in shades of peach decorated with peach pearls.

David Krazer of Abilene served the groom as best man, and Neil Tatum of Abilene was groomsman. Ushers were Winston Kenworthy of Odessa, Forest Herndon of Midland, J. R. Foster of Abilene and Sam Rhodes of Abilene.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents were hosts for a reception in the church fellowship hall. Mrs. Debbye Minzenmayer presided at the register.

Floral arrangements in the church and at the reception were made by; Ellen Moore, Debbye Minzenmayer and Lise Smith. Tables were arranged by Mrs. D. J. Goetz of Winters who also made the bride's cake, mints and punch. Mrs. Goetz also served the cake, assisted by Mrs. Mary Mjos of Austin, Ms. Kathy Rogers of Houston and Ms. Susan Knutson of Korea.

Family friends and members of the wedding party were entertained with a wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents following the reception. They also hosted the rehearsal dinner at their home following the rehearsal.

Following a two week honeymoon in the East, the couple are at home at Odessa, where the groom is employed by Concord Technology. A graduate of Santa Anna High School, he holds bachelor degrees from Abilene Christian University in biology, agronomy and animal science. He also received a bachelor degree in geology at the University of Texas at the Permian Basin in Odessa.

Local Flag Corp Attends Camp

Approximately 170 young people from over 20 Texas high schools and junior highs spent four days, July 7-10, at Howard Payne University in concentrated practice sessions designed for band drum majors, flag corps and rifle corps.

"When this camp was established at HPU 14 years ago, it was the first of its kind," said George Strickland, camp director. "Since then, other camps of this type have been established at other universities." Strickland is the high school band director in Henrietta and an HPU graduate.

Campers are given hands-on experience with their equipment and are also taught leadership techniques, musical interpretation, and how to plan routines for their various groups' performances, according to Strickland. A special feature of this year's camp was a style show of various types of uniforms, he added.

Attending the camp from Santa Anna were: Laura Frausto, Selina Cook, Eva Frausto, Melissa Cook, Holly Hoffman, Jodi Watson and Kim Gunter.

"This camp is the first activity of the year for these groups," Strickland said. "It is an opportunity for them to develop unity and spirit, as well as performance techniques and routines, all of which will be of great help to them during the school year."

Keeping Cool This Summer

COLLEGE STATION - Trying to stay cool this summer doesn't have to be as difficult as it sounds. There are many ways to beat the heat, and expensive energy costs.

According to Dr. Peggy Owens of the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service, turning up the air conditioner isn't always the best way to try to keep cool, though it is often the easiest. Rather, a little effort in other areas may be the 'coolest' thing to do, the housing specialist says.

Air conditioners remove heat and moisture from a room and blow it outside, but closing windows, doors and fireplace dampers tightly and cutting long steamy showers short will help the air conditioner run more efficiently, she claims.

To save on air conditioning costs, the specialist suggests turning up the thermostat a few degrees. The savings from this small sacrifice can add up over a long, hot summer.

Fans are regaining their popularity, Owens says, and ceiling fans and portable fans circulate air around the room and often make a room feel much cooler than it actually is. They can effectively cool a room or a home and are less expensive to run than air conditioners, she added.

According to Owens, the whole house or attic fans were widely used before the invention of air conditioning and are making a comeback. These fans are mounted in the attic to pull outside air through open windows and exhaust it through the attic.

Host A Foreign Exchange Student Through YES

There is no amount of money that can be placed on education. Hosting a foreign exchange student is a truly unique educational experience that perhaps your family has not considered. By hosting an international student from a country such as Argentina, Denmark, Hong Kong, Mexico, only to mention a few, you are opening up your home to an invaluable educational profit for your entire family.

Think of the cultural enlightenment that would evolve amongst your family members by sharing your home with a 15-18 year old high school student. The Youth Exchange Service, a nonprofit organization, presents these students who will arrive in early August, with exceptional accidental-medical insurance. YES also arranges enrollment for the students at your local high school. These well educated young ambassadors provide their own spending money, leaving the host family responsible for providing love, understanding and a home.

What a small price to pay for gaining an international friend and family for life. Help teach our children the importance of intercultural communication and harmony by taking advantage of this special opportunity. Host a foreign exchange student through YES. Fannies Funnies

By Fannie Gilbert

The paratroopers were aloft for their first jump. Everything went off in perfect order until the last man came forward to jump. "Hold it!" shouted the commanding officer "your not wearing your parachute." "Oh that's alright, sir" retorted the recruit, "we are just practicing aren't we?"

The young housewife was complaining. "These eggs are very small, she said as she stood in front of the egg case at the grocery store. "They are straight from the farm this morning, madam," said the grocer. "That's the trouble with these farmers," she replied, "they are so anxious to sell their eggs, they take them off the nest too soon."

A mother saw her small son romping on the lawn with a small puppy. In exasperation she called to him, "Billy take that puppy right back to it's owner and bring home your baby sister."

The seven year old was giving his little sister some advice before she started first grade. "Whatever you do" he said, "don't learn to spell CAT. After that the words just get harder."

How many eggs can a giant eat on an empty stomach? One, because after that his stomach isn't empty.

Mrs. Bruce Lee Burianek

Stephanie Horton June Bride of Bruce Lee Burianek

An altar table banked with a large fern basket, baskets of greenery accented with lighted circular floor stands formed the background for the noon ceremony in the chapel of Second Baptist Church in Houston, Texas. Carrying the all-white floral theme were pedestal baskets of gladiolas, stocks, agapanthus, Queen Anne's lace, figi mums and variegated greenery. A wedding brunch for the bridal couple and guests was held immediately following the ceremony. The newlyweds flew to Knoxville, Tennessee and honeymooned in the Smokey Mountain region.

Parents of Mrs. Burianek are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wayne Horton of Houston, Texas, both natives of Santa Anna. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. William Mulroy of Houston, Texas and the late Mr. William Mulroy. Paternal grandparents remembered here are the late Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Horton, all former residents of this area.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Burianek of Sun City, Arizona, who were in attendance at the wedding. Given in marriage by her family, the bride chose a lace tunic gown by Bridal Boutique of Houston. It was of white embroidered lace over satin. The scalloped decolletage and long fitted renaissance sleeves were accented by a wedding bank yoke collar of iridescents and seed pearls. To compliment her gown the bride selected a satin headpiece by Bianchi of waterfall pearl sprays and shimmering crystal sequins with a tiered fingertip veil if illusion. Her white satin pumps were covered with tiny seed pearls. Mrs. Burianek carried an all white cascade of ten phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis flowing from an English ivy stylized base. Helping to carry out the tradition of something borrowed and something blue, the bride wore her grandmother's garter that Mrs. Mulroy wore in her wedding, sixty years ago.

The bride's sisters were her two honor attendants. Jennifer Horton Rachac of Houston was matron of honor. Her maid of honor was her youngest sister, Gretchen Horton also of Houston. They were gowned alike in tea length pale peach satin and venice lace over-dresses with scalloped hems. The long-sleeved gowns were completed with large peach satin ribbon sashes. They carried mixed spring bouquets of yellow daisies, lavender fnesia carnations, peach Gerdo roses, Blue delphiniums with cascades of English ivy.

The processional was "Trumpet Voluntary" as the groom, his best man, Gary Hamilton, and groomsman Ron Droll entered the sanctuary. Duet musical selections sung by friends of the groom were "He Has Chosen You For Me", "In This Very Room", "The Lord's Prayer", and "To Me". The song "Household of Faith" was sung as the couple lit the Unity candle.

The bride is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin University and is a legal accountant with Jones-Granger, Houston. The groom is a native of Ohio graduating from Akron University. He owns his own business in Houston where the couple will make their home.

Special out-of-town family guests besides the groom's parents were the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Mulroy, Jr. of Georgia and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mulroy of Arlington, cousins of the bride.

SALAZAR-RIVERA ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED-Mr. and Mrs. Robert Salazar, Jr. of Santa Anna are happy to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Elvina to Jeffrey P. Rivera, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sipes of Enreka Springs, Arkansas. Elvina is a graduate of Santa Anna High School and her fiance is a graduate of North-East High School, Armon, Kansas. He is presently an enlisted member in the U.S. Army and stationed in Garistadt, Germany. The wedding is planned for 4:00 in the afternoon, July 28, 1987 at Sacred Heart Catholic in Coleman. All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Frank Mills: West Texas Lawman

(This is the third in a series of articles taken from a book written by Billy Mills about his father Frank Mills, a one time Coleman County Sheriff. Billy Mills has been sheriff at Ozona for over thirty years.)

Although the following case did not develop in Coleman County, Sheriff Mills was called in to help solve it. This case known as the "Hanging Skelton" Case developed in Eastland County MAY 1, 1933 when H.L. McBee disappeared from his home. About a year and a half later his skelton was found hanging in a tree near Rising Star. After careful investigations and later admissions, it was found that Raymond Henry, Mrs. McBee's suitor and later husband, had killed McBee by stabbing him with an ice pick. Henry, Mrs. McBee, and five others then buried McBee May 1, 1933. About three weeks later they disinterred the body and hanged it in a tree in hopes that it would be found soon and the act of suicide would be presumed.

However, as a result of the excellent work of lawman Mills, it was proved that murder and not suicide had taken place. Mills had gone to the scene of the hanging. Here the sheriff had measured carefully the wire by which the body hanged. He found that a slip knot, which was essential in a hanging could not have been made with that length of wire. He then concluded that suicide was out of the question. By using a piece of quilt which was found near by Sheriff Mills built up a case piece by piece which eventually sent Henry to prison for fifty years. Another accomplice committed suicide.

Because of his work on the McBee case, Sheriff Mills again received a lot of praise. Special investigators Joe Thompson and John T. Cope of the Texas Public Safety Commission were very high in the praise for the Coleman County Sheriff. These men said they sought the aid of Mills in this and another murder case about the same time because he was the "best sheriff in Texas." Sheriff Mills also received further praise from the criminal district attorney Grady Owen and the special attorney for the prosecution Allen D. Dabney. They wrote Mills:

"Please permit us to extend our thanks and grateful appreciation for your excellent work in connection with the solution of the H.L. McBee murder case in which your assistance was recently requested.

You have given unstintingly of your time and efforts in this connection, and the highly satisfactory results obtained in your efforts speak well indeed for your energy and capabilities as a man, an officer and an investigator.

If the state of Texas had more sheriffs and peace officers of your calibre, energy and ability, we certainly would have a greater efficiency in solving crimes, and in bringing about more law abiding conditions in our great state."

Therefore, we again desire to extend to you our very great appreciation, and assure you that if there is anything we can do that will partially repay our debt of gratitude we will be happy to favor you."

Disabled SSI Recipients Keep Checks While Working

Many blind and disabled supplemental security income (SSI) recipients may not be aware that they can work without losing all their SSI checks or Medicaid coverage. Also, recipients whose SSI checks were stopped because their earnings made their income too high to get checks may be able to receive checks again if they find they no longer can work.

Special temporary provisions of the Social Security Act—Section 1610—were designed to encourage blind and disabled SSI recipients to try to work. These provisions are now permanent parts of the law.

Recognizing that a disabled recipient's return to work may not follow a steady progression, the law allows the recipient to sue SSI as a stepping stone to employment. While testing his or her ability to work, the recipient may continue to receive some money from SSI. The amount received depends on the amount of earnings—as earnings increase, the SSI payment decreases or stops. A recipient who finds his or her work attempt is unsuccessful, however, may have payments started again—often without filing a new SSI application.

In addition, many blind and disabled recipients can keep their

BENNY GUERRERO OF SANTA ANNA tags first base before the throw gets there as the Coleman County Little League All-Stars defeated Winters Monday night 8-4 in the opening round of Area III competition. Chris Nunez pitched the full game with 15 strike-outs. Vicente Frausto of Santa Anna and Nunez both had over the fence homeruns, with Frausto's being a two-run shot over center field. On Tuesday night the county team beat Ballinger 20-1 in a rout. Vincete Frausto pitched the full game, with 11 strike-outs and had another home run. The team will be in Ballinger Friday night for a 7:30 game with the winner of the Ballinger-Winters game. Santa Anna boys on the team are Frausto, Guerrero, Billy Diaz and Bobby Diaz. Billy Diaz of Santa Anna is manager of the Coleman County All-Star team.

eligibility for Medicaid coverage even when their checks stop because their earnings make their income too high to get checks. To keep Medicaid coverage, a recipient must continue to be blind or disabled, meet all other non-earnings SSI eligibility requirements, depend on Medicaid coverage to continue working, and be unable to purchase similar medical care.

Because making these "work incentive" provisions available to recipients is of little value unless they are aware of them, Social Security will notify recipients about the incentives. Information will be included with all notices to new recipients. Disabled and blind recipients will be given a reminder notice when they earn at least $200 a month.

The SSI work incentive provisions mean that many disabled and blind recipients can try to work without fear of losing all their benefits before they have proved they can succeed. And by making it easier for disabled recipients to work when it is possible for them to work, they can realize their full potential in our society.

More information about these SSI work incentives can be obtained at the Brownwood Social Security office, located at 300 N. Main. The telephone number is 646-7533.

Almost all Social Security matters can be handled by phone. Medicare questions or filing of medicare claims can be taken care of by calling toll free 1-800-442-2820. You may file an application to establish your eligibility by call 915-646-7533 in Brownwood.

Motley To Play At Texas Shootout

Novice basketball star Matt Motley has been invited this summer to play on a team challenging the Texas Shootout field in Houston on July 16, 17, 18 and 19. Motley, a 6-3 senior at Novice, will be one of 12 players on the team. Three players are from Paducah, the defending Class A champion in Texas. Bryan Barnes, a member of that team, will be one of the players competing. Barnes played his junior high basketball at Novice.

There will be 200 teams competing in the Shootout. A week later, Motley's team will be entered in the National Shootout in Phoenix, Arizona on July 23 through the 26th. Sixty-two teams have entered the fray.

Motley was an all-district pick at Novice last year as a junior. He was third team, all-region as well. Matt is the son of Paul and Wanda Motley of Novice. His big brother Butch was a member of the Aggie 12th Man squad at Texas A&M the past three years.

Don't Be A Vacation Victim

Vacation time is here and many Texans will be leaving their homes in search of fun in distant places. There is always the possibility that you may find serious problems when you return if you fail to take certain precautions before you leave on your trip.

Experts suggest that you burglar-proof your home before leaving. The odds of being burglarized while you are away will be reduced.

SAFETY CHECKLIST

The following checklist is suggested as a vacation crime-prevention measure:

1. Check with your local police if you plan an extended vacation trip; many police forces offer a "close patrol" of homes where persons are known to be away on vacation. You will need to tell them what cars or persons, if any, will be making authorized visits to your home.
2. Avoid mentioning to casual acquaintances or strangers that you will be on vacation. Also, avoid telling your newspaper society editor of your trip until you have returned.
3. Stop mail, newspaper and other delivery services.
4. Have someone come by every few days and pick up any circulars that might accumulate.
5. Leave a few lights on or buy an automatic timer that will turn certain lights on and off after dark. The newest timers on the market can switch on and off at different times each night.
6. Cut your lawn before you leave, and if you will be gone for a long time, make arrangements with someone to have it cut periodically during the course of your vacation.

7. Lock all windows and doors securely. A sliding glass patio door can be more securely fastened by wedging a stick or metal instrument at the top or bottom of the door.

8. Leave blinds, shutters or curtains open or partially open. Windows that are tightly covered all day, every day, are an indication no one is home.

9. Tell a neighbor or your apartment manager that you will be gone and ask them to keep an eye on your place for you.

10. Before leaving, engrave all valuables in your home and those you will be taking with you in the car with your drivers' license or social security number. Some police forces will lend you an engraver to mark your belongings, so register your number on their master list and they will give you a bright sticker for a window or door which shows that you are protected. This may discourage burglars from taking your goods, and it will make identification of recovered items much easier.

11. Keep a list of all items of value with an estimate of their cost. Many insurance companies suggest this be done and that photographs be taken of the valuables as well. This can be of major importance if you have to file a claim for loss with an insurance carrier. Your insurance agent can provide you with information on how frequently such lists should be updated.

Beauty Tips For The Mature Face

It's a positive sign of the times: If you've seen a terrific-looking mature woman lately, you may not be so sure of her age. You are sure that she looks wonderful—active, vital and carries herself with confidence. Achieving a truly timeless beauty is the special forte of beauty experts at Lydia O'Leary, makers of Covermark cosmetics, who offer these makeup tips for older women:

- DON'T rub with a washcloth or massage the skin. Avoid facial masks that peel off too roughly; try a water-soluble mask instead. Pat on cleansers and moisturizers.

- DO wear makeup that helps moisturize your skin and cover those imperfections—dark circles, freckles, age lines, broken veins and brown spots—that can make skin look older. The waterproof, opaque foundation creme called Covermark can be applied with a sponge, Q-tip or brush. Apply the Covermark crayon in a lighter shade to fill in special areas, such as crow's feet.

- Shading creme helps restore natural shading such as shadows under and over the eyes and along the nose. Seal and dry this super concealer creme with Covermark Finishing Powder. For more information, call toll-free, 1-800-524-1120.

- DON'T forget that skin tone is related to hair color—the lighter your hair, the brighter your makeup can be. Skin color can fade slightly with time, so some additional warmth in the makeup color can make a beautiful difference.
