Heros

If we were in the business of making nominations for Heros of the Week, Month, or whatever, our nomination this time would have to be for Tommy and Sandy Williams. On Tuesday of last week, as they arrived to attend to business at the bank, they noticed smoke rising in the interior of an automobile parked beside the building. Sandy saw a youngster in the car and hurriedly ran to yank the little tike from the danger. When she got the child out, she suddenly realized there was another and yelled for Tommy to grab the second youngster. By that time the vehicle's interior had burst into flames. However, due to the quick response by the couple, the children were unharmed. Thanks Tommy and Sandy!

Speaking of heros, we also salute the farmers and ranchers of our agricultural community. This week, March 17-23, is National Agricultural Week. National Agricultural Day, March 21, will be marked by many special programs that increase awareness of the role of agriculture today and challenges it faces in continuing to meet the world's food and fiber needs. We encourage each of you to salute those who work against sometimes overwhelming odds to provide food and fiber for domestic and global needs.

In recent years, farming has not been an especially profitable business to be in, but there are many who have hung in there because of their love of the land and way of life, and the importance of what they contribute.

They are an efficient lot. According to a report from Texas Agricultural Extension Service, one American farmer provides food and fiber for 114 people. This compares with one farmer who provides food and fiber for 3.5 people in China, 3 people in Japan, 8 in Argentina, 4 in Brazil and 11 in the Soviet Union.

Our hats are off in salute of these hardworking guys and gals!

Tennis Here This Weekend

The SAHS Tennis teams will be hosting a tennis tournament here Friday and Saturday. Play will begin at about 9:00 a.m. Friday and at the same time on Saturday morning.

With more than 20 schools sending teams, matches will be played on the local courts and at Coleman High School, Coleman City Park and perhaps other locations in Coleman if necessary to accommodate all entries.

Santa Anna is in a tough district for tennis this year and several of those teams will be involved, say tennis coach David Robinett. Some real fine matches are expected. R.C. Smith is assisting Robinett in coaching duties.

Funtier Days Set For May 11 & 12 Talent Contest Added To List Of Activities

Santa Anna's annual Funtier Days have been set for Saturday and Sunday, May 11 & 12 and the Chamber of Commerce will be adding a new feature to their list of numerous fun-filled activities for the annual event.

A talent show will be launched on Sunday, May 12 at 2:00 p.m. at the Funtier Square. Trophies will be presented to the 2nd and 3rd place entries. The 1st place winner will walk away $500 richer for his or her efforts!

You read correctly, $500 cold cash will be handed over to the top prize winner! Individuals and groups will be eligible to enter the contest. A $50 entry fee will be required for entry. Any member of the Chamber of Commerce, their family members, or anyone affiliated with the Chamber will not be eligible to enter. Interested parties will need to acquire an entry form and list of contest rules by contacting Kay Gay at HCR-78, Box 169, Santa Anna, TX 76878, or by calling her at 915-348-3136 during the day or 915-348-3454 after 5:00 p.m. The deadline for entries is April 26.

This year's edition of Funtier Days will again coincide with the ever popular Antique Tractor and Farm Machinery Show, with Bill Garrett and Clint Day heading up that main attraction. People come to Santa Anna from all areas across the state of Texas and beyond to show their prize antique machinery and attract a large crowd of interested onlookers. Funtier Day organizers are quick to emphasize the importance of the tractor show to their annual event.

Committee chairmen working on Funtier Day activities are: Scott Patterson, publicity; Earlene Scott, games; Mike Simmons, booths; Mary Vasquez, talent show; Charles Moore, parade; and Monte Guthrie, Rod Run.

Of course, the Fun Run is expected to be even bigger this time around with participation growing each year.

The Delta Omicron Sorority will sponsor a dance on Friday night, May 10, to start off the activities.

Everybody get set for a good time in Santa Anna, Funtier Days, 1991!

One School Board Candidate & Another For City Council

As of Tuesday afternoon there was only one candidate for the two places open on the Santa Anna ISD Board of trustees. Deadline for filing as a candidate was Wednesday, so there will probably be more to report on next week.

Sharon Guthrie, owner and operator of Sharon's Beauty Salon has filed as a school board candidate. She is a lifetime resident of Santa Anna. She and her husband, Lane Guthrie, have three children attending Santa Anna schools.

The places now held by Danny Kellar and Danny Cook are up for grabs in the May 4 election.

Danny Kellar has announced he will be a candidate for City Council. Kellar is manager of Coleman County Telephone Cooperative and will be retiring from the school board in May after having served 6 years there.

Mayor Gale Brock is seeking another term in the City election as is councilman Jim Spillman. As reported last week, Craig Terry has filed for one of the two places on the council. Councilman Quinton Daniel is not seeking another term.

Marker Will Honor All Who Have Served

The Yellow Ribbon Support Group is planning to put up a granite monument that will honor all those from this area who have served in the Armed Forces of the United States. It was erroneously stated in last week's paper that the marker would be in honor of the Desert Storm troops and would be engraved with their names. However there will be no names engraved, and the marker will be in honor of all who have served at any time. The engraving on the monument will read, "Dedicated to All United States Military Personnel Who Have Given or Risked Their Life For God And Country and To The Rebirth Of Patriotism In This Great Nation, May 27, 1991" (The monument will be placed on that date.) Cost of the marker will be $600. The Lions Club is helping with the project and has made the first donation toward the cost. All other donations will be gratefully appreciated and may be given to any Lions Club member. The marker will stand 4 feet tall and will be three feet wide, 9 inches thick. A lighted flag will be placed behind the marker. Dedication day has been tentaviley set for May 27, 1991, Memorial Day.

It is hoped to find the oldest living veteran in the community to raise the flag at the dedication ceremony. Please contact Gary Absher, Jan Brixey, Jo Jones or Corine Eubank if you know who that oldest veteran might be.

The support group has planned a cleanup day at the downtown park for this Sunday beginning at 1:30 p.m. You are invited to come help. Bring any tools that might be helpful in cleaning and trimming.

The support group will meet once a month now at the Christian Life Center of First Baptist Church. Next meeting date is Monday, April 8. For more information on the group or its projects contact Jan Brixey, Jo Jones, or Corine Eubank.

Stenholm To Address Santa Anna Students

Charles Stenholm

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Congressman Charles Stenholm will be in Santa Anna Wednesday, March 27, for a school assembly in the Santa Anna High School auditorium.

"The young people in Santa Anna and around the 17th District are the future of our country," said Stenholm. "It always impresses me how our young people are really concerned about what is going on and I feel privileged to listen to their concerns and answer their questions."

"The more I hear from all my constituents, the better prepared I am to represent their views in Washington. I would like to encourage everyone in Santa Anna and surrounding areas to take the time to come and visit with me about the issues that are concerning them," he added.

The assembly will include the secondary grade students and it is also open to the general public. It will be from 1:30 to 2:25 p.m., Wednesday, March 27.

According to one of the Congressman's aides, the meeting will include a question and answer session with Stenholm answering questions asked by members of the audience.

Dear Editor

Hello again from the land of never ending sand.

Listening to the one radio station and reading the few newspapers we receive, I've noticed a decline in support by the American public. We here have one question, "Has the American public learned nothing from the Vietnam War?" It was not the soldiers that didn't want to win. It was the American public. Now here we are again, American soldiers on foreign soil and support at home is dwindling. In the beginning there was overwhelming support for President Bush and for us. Now that Hussein hasn't balked, is it the consensus of the American public to back off? The reason he didn't balk is that he knows these protesters are a political response.

Over here we are all soldiers willing to fight for and preserve our country's values, freedom, and way of life. We, as soldiers, would rather face this bully now before he develops more capability to destroy millions of innocent citizens within our own boundaries. We would rather lay our lives on the line now than for our friends and families to lose theirs later. If we can't have the support of those blinded by their own fears as well as the expressed fears of others, then give us the support of a few courageous individuals. Individuals with the backbone to support the leaders of our great country and their sometimes unpopular decisions that have to be made. This will be the strength that brings us back home.

We, as soldiers, must have your continued support and prayers.
Thanks,
MSG Sonny Baker

Editor's Note: The preceding letter was dated Feb. 18, before the ground war in the Persian Gulf began on Feb. 23 and was over by the 27th. The letter arrived in our office last Friday, March 15. By now we hope Baker is realizing that the overwhelming majority of Americans supported the troops in the war and for that matter also, it seems, the President's decisions in handling the situation.

Check it Out
By Betty Key
Our library has received two copies of An Indecent Obsession by Colleen McCullough. From our San Antonio connection comes a new hard bound copy and a local person gave us a paperback copy. This book by the well known author of The Thorn Birds, is set in the mental ward of an army field hospital. It tell about the relationship of an Australian army nurse and her patients.

Both copies of this book will be placed in our library. We have a large collection of paperback books. Many readers prefer them. They are easy to carry and to hold. They are not expensive and are readily available in many stores. At our library many people check out a grocery bag full at a time and return them when they have finished reading them. We are glad to provide this service and welcome new books for our collection.

Paperback books don't hold up very long when they are read by a number of people so we are trying to update our collection of paperbacks. There is a feeling of quality and durability about a hardback book. They are usually printed on better paper, sometimes in large print, and have other features not found in paperback books. The book I am reading now has a map on the inside cover which helps me follow the story. There are many wonderful books that are not available in paperback form. At our library, hardback books must be checked out individually. There is a limit on how many you can check out at a time and they are due back in the library by a certain date. This helps us know who has the books and helps keep them from getting lost.

We have some very popular best selling books in paperback form that must be checked out individually and returned on time because others are waiting to read them. These include the books in the Wagon West series, the books in the White Indian series and some of our new westerns. In the near future we hope to put these books on a special shelf so you can easily tell which ones must be returned on time.

The library has a building full of books just waiting to be read. You are invited to come in, look them over and check it out.

HUNGER, THIRST, AND MYSTERY

Operation Desert Storm probably has not changed the lives of very many people significantly for a very long time. What it has done is reveal who or what we are. As the news of the ground war hit the airways, I, like many others, was eager to hear the results. It seemed as though things were running too smoothly and apprehension was high as to why there had been virtually no resistance. Everywhere one went, the talk was the same, "Have you heard about the ground offensive?" "Have you heard about the surrender of many Iraqis?" "What was the last report you heard?" etc. Americans were eager, yes hungry and thirsty, to hear about the latest development. And each one was hoping for the best news, the news of victory and the soon conclusion to the entire unfortunate mess. We tuned in whenever and wherever we could.

Then came the announcement that the Pentagon had reversed its earlier promise to keep the public fully informed. Now, due to the nature of the operation, and for military and security and safety reasons, there would be no more public briefings for an undisclosed time. However, the eagerness to know, the hunger and thirst for the facts, news and knowledge, did not subside. We longed to know what was happening and paid a certain price to find out. We simply had to trust that everything was going as it should be.

Reflecting on this scenario, it dawned on me that this should be the attitude of a Christian longing for God. The Psalmist said, "As a deer longs for cool water, so my soul longs for Thee, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God." Psalms 42:1-2

Wouldn't it be great if we Christians hungered and thirsted for God and His Word even as much as we did news from the Persian Gulf? And wouldn't it be great to long to spend time with God even as we longed to spend time with those who will soon be home now that the war is "over"?

When God, if for reasons known only to Him, sought to withhold information about Himself, could we simply trust that He is still the Sovereign and good God of all creation? And could we take that which has been revealed and do with it as we should? "The Secret things belong to God, but those things which have been revealed belong to us and our children forever, that we may DO them," Dt. 29:29

Many times at prayer meetings and at prayer time during worship services, prayer requests are offered. Pray for someone who is sick, hospitalized, recovering at home, lost a loved one, lost a job, is traveling a great distance, and so forth. That is as it should be as we obey our Lord to pray for one another. There is however, one prayer request that is seldom made; that is that we would develop a genuine longing for God. A sincere hunger and thirst that would compel us to spend time in His Word and on our knees. A prayer request that we could really relax in the mysteries of God, with the full assurance that for now, it is enough to be joyfully obedient to that which has been revealed. My prayer is that these would become benchmarks of our church families. For if they do, many lives will be significantly, and above all, changed eternally.

Around & About

A group of Santa Anna teachers were in Copperas Cove on Friday, March 15, to observe that school district's "Writing to Read" program. Copperas Cove initiated the program into their school several years ago. Santa Anna is offering it for the first time this year and it has been a big hit with teachers, students and parents.

Making the trip were Principal Jack Burns, Gail Loyd, Angie Hernandez, Coyita Bowker, Sharon

Greenlee, Pat Smith and Betty Smith.

Ken and Coyita Bowker were in Anson over the weekend visiting with their son and family, Scott and Karen Bowker and Trent. The six-month-old grandson is naturally the apple of their eyes and they take every opportunity they can to visit with him and his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gregg of Santa Anna, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gregg of Ingram, and Mr. and Mrs. of Austin, all met in Llano last Thursday and enjoyed lunch together.

Visitors in the John Gregg home the past week were Carla Gregg and Juanell Stiles, Michael and Annie, all of Coleman. Michael and Annie spent the weekend with their grandparents while their parents, Juanell and Emmitt Stiles, took Christie to Dallas to attend a 3-day leadership seminar.

Fire Dept. Begins Associate Membership Drive

You are encouraged to become a part of the Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Department by saying yes to their annual plea for associate members. They have expressed their appreciation for your support through the years and list accomplishments they have made with your help.

The Fire Dept. Building has been insulated so that the pumps on the trucks won't freeze in bad weather. They have also finished equipping on of the rural trucks with a new foam unit. This is the unite used to fight car fires, oil field related blazes and grass fires. It makes for a very versatile and effective firefighting unit.

A new project to be completed in the next few months is the converting of another small rural truck over to the foam system, which is so effective against all types of fires. The department will also continue to update the firemen's protective equipment.

They state in a letter that went out this week, "We know that to better serve the people of the county and community, we must continually improve and maintain the equipment. We will again need you help to do that."

Variety Of Business For Council

All members of the city council were present for the regular meeting of the group on Tuesday night of last week. Also present were secretary Alys Pelton, and Supt. of Operations, Derriel Warnock. Mayor Brock called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m.

The group heard a request from Nathan Starr and Kathy Pearce who were present representing the Seventh Day Adventist School. Seems that the SDA School had a fence across Pine Street before the street was opened up and the fence section was removed when the street was opened several years ago. The school shared a fence with another property owner just north of the street and the section that was removed is that which went across the street to join that of the other property owner. The school would like for the City of Santa Anna can put a section of fence back up. It

Santa Anna Classifieds 1st Section

Many have already realized that the Santa Anna Classified ads have been put in a separate section (No. 25) at the very beginning of the classified pages. For a while they had been placed in among the ads you find there from Brownwood and some of our readers were unhappy with that format. Our publisher was gracious enough to change the format when he heard of the problems and now we are ready to serve all those who said they would advertise if and when we changed it.

Now that spring is upon us and you are thinking about spring cleaning and yard work, you can probably think of several things you need or would like to get rid of. Classified ads work. Try us and find out!

was also brought to the attention of the council that a tank just south of school property was breeding mosquitos and the two asked if the city had any way of controlling the problem. It was decided that both matters will be looked into before any decisions are made or action taken.

A representative with Lone Star Gas was present to ask the council for their final decision on the gas rate increase. After a motion by Councilman Spillman and second by Karen Morris, the council voted four for and one opposed (Hayes) to suspend the increase. The suspending action allows the increase to automatically go into effect in 90 days. With another 30-day period for bonding, the increase would actually take effect in 120 days.

David Huggins, representing the Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Dept., requested that the dept. be allowed to check the fire plugs in order to know which may be bad. Approval was given and request made that the City be advised when the testing would take place and that it would be a coordinated effort between the City and the Fire Dept. A discussion was held on color coding the plugs. The council agreed that the City will furnish the paint for the color coding.

Thelma Brooker spoke on behalf of the Yellow Ribbon Support Group in asking permission for placement of a monument in the downtown Garden Club Park in honor of those serving in Operation Desert Storm. After a motion by Karen Morris and a second by Jim Spillman, unanimous consent was given.

Police Carlos Torres reported that he had been writing tickets, more than in past months, and that numerous arrests had been made. All in all, February was a busy month for him. There also was a matter of a dog being removed from what was believed to have been a vacated Santa Anna Housing Authority apartment. The owner later returned and asked for the dog back and was granted that wish.

Derriel Warnock presented the council with maps showing the land for the sewer farm project. The original plan for land to be obtained has been changed. The change benefits both the City and the landowner, Dr. Jones who has agreed to the new plan and has stated he will agree to waiting for payment until all legalities for bonding and State o.k. has been completed.

Warnock also brought to the attention of the council a new State requirement of a tracer system for the water system which is to be done by 1993. This will trace water through the supply system by putting a chemical at one location and "tracing" it to another location. SK Engineering has agreed to propose a plan and do a first study and send it to the State for approximately $3,000. No action was required as this is not a decision that has to be made at the present time. Mr. Warnock just wanted the council to be aware of the new requirement in advance of the time when it would have to be taken care of.

He reported that other maintenance work was routine with 3 small water leaks taken care of in February. Warnock advised the council that the owner of property behind the Dairy Queen had requested that the city dig a trench so he could safely burn the remainder of what is left of a burned out house. Since this would eliminate the lumber being hauled to the City's landfill and would help clean up a part of the town, the permission was granted.

Appointed to the Housing Authority Board for two year terms were Gary Patterson and Joe Wallace.

Appointed to the Park Board were Betty Sue Cupps, Pearl Wilson, Susie Voss, Shirley Taylor, Thelma Brooker and Wanda Bible.

The appointment of members to the Library Board was postponed until next meeting of the council.

The Council officially set May 4 as City Council election day and named Glen Copeland as election judge.

Repairs were approved for the residence of the pump station superintendent at Santa Anna lakes.

Approval was given for payment of accounts in the usual manner.

Screening Program For Spinal Deformities Offered To Santa Anna ISD Students

The legislature passed a law in 1985 that requires all fifth grade and eight grade students to be screened for spinal deformities. Early detection of abnormal spinal curvature can prevent serious health problems. This is a problem that may begin during the early adolescent years (from 10-14 years of age), with an estimated 1 in 10 adolescents having some degree of abnormal curvature. Curves that are detected early may only require periodic observation by a specialist. Moderate curves may require wearing a brace, which is usually supervised by an orthopedic specialist. In most cases, the need for major surgery for this deformity can be eliminated through early detection.

Children will be screened for two types of deformities: Scoliosis and kyphosis. Scoliosis is a condition in which the spine is twisted, causing misalignment of the upper body and lower back. This condition can worsen and lead to pain, as well as complications of the heart and lungs. Kyphosis is an exaggerated rounding of the spine. Progression of these two conditions can often be arrested if detected early.

In the Big Bend region of Texas, Terlingua's graveyard is the final resting place for mercury miners of the early 1900s. The town of Terlingua is a ghost town with a general store that serves as the central meeting place for people who live in the area. Each November, the world's best-known chili cookoffs are held near Terlingua, attracting thousands of chiliheads and tourists alike. All visitors eventually stop at the graveyard to reflect on the lives that were spent in this seemingly barren land. Texas Department of Commerce photo

Medicare And You

Questions and Answers U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Health Care Financing Administration

Q. What is a Medicare "participating" physician or supplier?

A. One who agrees to accept the amount approved by Medicare as full payment for services and supplies for all Medicare beneficiaries.

Q. May a participating physician or supplier bill beneficiaries for more than the amount paid by Medicare?

A. A beneficiary must first pay a $100 deductible for the year, then Medicare pays 80 percent of the amount approved for the service. The patient is billed for the remaining 20 percent.

Q. Does Medicare pay for long-term care in a nursing home?

A. No. But Medicare can help pay for acute care and rehabilitation services in a skilled nursing facility certified by Medicare. Even in such a facility, Medicare will not pay if the services are mainly personal care such as help in walking, getting in and out of bed, eating, dressing, bathing and taking medicine.

Q. Three years ago I chose to take Medicare Part A only. Can I now also get Part B?

A. You may still enroll in Part B but the monthly premium will be higher, unless you continued to work beyond age 65 and were covered by an employer's health plan at the time you were first eligible for Medicare. In that case, you can get Part B on the same terms as you would have three years ago.

Q. Where can I learn about insurance to supplement Medicare?

A. The Social Security office or state insurance department can provide you with a copy of the Guide to Health Insurance for People with Medicare. Developed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and the Health Care Financing Administration of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, it explains what Medicare pays and does not pay, discusses private health insurance and offers tips on shopping for such "Medigap" insurance.

Ranger Park Inn By Dorothy York

Along with our regularly scheduled activities at Ranger Park Inn, residents enjoyed Thursday afternoon's dominoes and 42 games with Senior citizens from Coleman. Local ladies, Wilmoth Russell and Lora Russell joined the group for games. The residents really enjoy this activity.

We are proud to see members of the community to come visit on Thursday evenings when the Weems Gospel and Bluegrass musicians and singers entertain the residents. You are all welcome.

Friday was tacky day at Ranger Park Inn. Residents and staff alike dressed for the occasion. We had mismatched clothes and color combinations that were unbelievable. From gentlemen farmers in work clothes with ties on, to the one lady who came dressed as Carol Burnett when she played secretary to Tim Conway. She went around saying, "I am the new secretary, I can take ten words per hours if you don't talk fast." Those were just some of the strange looking folks around on Friday.

You could hear a lot of laughter and fun time was had by all. WE look forward to having more of these type of activities.

Trickham News

By Anna York

Measurements of rain during the weekend were very, very few here. Some folks said they received a scant one tenth of an inch but it did wash the dust off the grass and brighten it up. We are thankful for that, but would like to see a good rain as the farmers will be wanting to plant feed soon and could use some moisture as the ground is getting wet.

John and Sharon Boyd and family of Waco spent Monday night with Sherrie and Jim Blake and Megan.

total nutrition Do It Up Rice

Over half of the world's population uses rice as the principal grain food. For example, the average Burmese eats 500 pounds a year, while the Japanese consume about 175 pounds per person a year. In all of Asia, few meals are served without rice.

Rice is becoming more popular among Americans, too. Recent figures show that rice consumption has risen by 95 percent in the last decade. According to Mary Helen Gunkler, registered dietitian and staff nutritionist for Total cereal, the increased use of rice is a positive addition to the American diet. Rice, like all grains, is a low-fat, cholesterol-free source of complex carbohydrates.

Throughout the world, there are about 7,000 varieties of rice that can be classified into three main types: polished, white, parboiled (converted) and brown.

Polished white rice is the most common type. The outer hull, germ and bran have been removed by polishing.

Sometimes polished white rice is enriched with added vitamins. It may also be in precooked (or instant) form, which is cooked, dehydrated and usually also enriched.

Parboiled, or converted, rice is milled using a process that forces nutrients from the bran layer into the center of each rice kernel. When the bran is removed, important nutrients remain in the grain. It will require slightly longer cooking time than polished white rice.

Brown rice includes the bran for fiber as well as vitamins and minerals. You'll need to allow more cooking time than for white rice.

All of these types of rice come in different lengths: long, medium and short. Long-grain rice is dry and fluffy when cooked and is best used in baked rice dishes and salads. Medium- and short-grain rice are more moist and chewy, ideal for Oriental dishes.

The grain called wild rice is not really rice but rather a seed from aquatic grasses. Wild rice, like other grains, provides complex carbohydrates, protein, potassium, phosphorus and B vitamins.

On your next trip to the supermarket, check out the rice section. You'll find that rice is versatile, easy to use as well as a healthful addition to meals, concludes Gunkler.

Eligibility Update

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, which provides service to all veterans, advises that eligibility rules for access to Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) outpatient treatments, inpatient care and nursing home placement differ.

The VA is now permitted to recover from health insurers the cost of care furnished to all veterans, including those who are service connected, for all non-service connected conditions, if the veteran has private health insurance coverage.

As far as inpatient care, recent legislation eliminates the three categories of selectivity for care which have been familiar since 1986. Now, eligibility is either "mandatory" or "discretionary." The difference is mostly based on income except for service connected veterans; former prisoners of war; veterans exposed to herbicide or ionizing radiation; veterans in receipt of VA pensions; veterans of the Spanish-American War, the Mexican Border Period or World War I; and veterans eligible for Medicaid.

Questions can be directed to VFW Department Service Officers.

Routine Business At Tax Board Meeting

Routine business was on the agenda at the Monday, March 11, meeting of the Coleman County Appraisal District Board. Barbara Kingsbery, chairman, led the meeting that was attended by all members, being Dwight Nanny, Jack Knox, Max Home, and D.G. Allen. Also present were Chief Appraiser Bill Jones.

Mrs. Jones reported that tax collections had been good during the month of February with 112,000 collected during the first month after the deadline, which included penalty for late payment. Since October, over three million dollars have been collected at the local office for the eight entities in the county.

The group reviewed the proposed budget for 1992, and will continue study at the next session. The budget for the coming year must be complete by June.

The next monthly session of the board will be Monday, April 8, at the District office at 5:00 p.m. Visitors are welcome to attend meetings of the group.
