Mountainside Viewpoint Your Vote Is Important!

By Polly Warnock

Saturday is a very important day for those living in Coleman County. We are about to possibly decide the fate of the one and only hospital in the county, Overall-Morris Memorial Hospital, located in the city of Coleman for over 60 years.

If you are a registered voter, it is most important that you take the time to vote your convictions on this issue of whether or not to create a Hospital District for taxing purposes. Don't let someone else do the deciding for you!

County Clerk Glenn Thomas calls attention to the fact that regular voting boxes will be used for the election. In Santa Anna the polling place will be Coleman County Telephone Cooperative with Rose Bass as election judge. The polling place in Rockwood will be the Community Center with Mrs. Bill Bryan as election judge. The only change of location in the county will be the Coleman 2-East box which will be located at Coleman County Land Company on South Commercial. Polls will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

The hospital is in dire straits after "going in the hole" for several years and, according to the board and administrators, will need the revenue generated from a hospital district tax to sustain its service to the residents of the county.

Therein lies the dilemma for many of the county's voters. The tax base will be supported by the property owners of the county, however all citizens, property tax payers or not, will be voting in the election.

This point can be argued to and fro for many a day and the question remains the same, do we want to pay the price to keep the medical facility operating as is, or do we not.

Many questions have been raised and many answers given in the past couple of weeks. It is up to each individual voter to look at these questions and the answers to analyze if the questions have been answered to their satisfaction. There is a hotline number available if you still have problems on some point. You may call 625-2135 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. State your name, telephone number and question. One of the panelists will return your call with an answer to your question. If you did not read the statement from Glen Bunn, administrator of the hospital, in last week's edition of the NEWS, you may wish to obtain a copy and study it. That edition also contained an Audit Report.

By whatever means you come to a conclusion on how to cast your vote, just be sure that you do vote. Your vote will make a difference!

Well Said

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Deal of Rockwood, whose wedding vows were "well said" on June 24, 66 years ago.

Vote Saturday In Hospital District Tax Election

Santa Anna Polling Place At Telephone Cooperative

Santa Anna area voters will be casting their votes in the Saturday, June 29, Hospital District Tax Election at Coleman County Telephone Cooperative. Rose Bass will be election judge.

Rockwood voters will cast their votes at the community center with Mrs. Bill Bryan as election judge.

Polls will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Be sure to take time to vote in this important election!

Over 1,100 absentee votes had been cast by Tuesday with Coleman County residents being asked to subsidize Overall-Morris Memorial Hospital, for the first time in its 68-year existence. The hospital was created with a $100,000 endowment in 1923 and is now averaging a deficit of $49,000 each month. Interest revenue from the endowment can no longer keep the hospital in the black.

A small patient load and inadequate Medicare and Medicaid reimbursements are forcing hospital officials ask for help from the taxpayers and turn the hospital into a public operation.

"We've had a health care facility here all these more than 60 years and never had to pay a tax," said board president, Mike Eddington. "People just have to make up their minds that if they want to keep a health care facility here, they are going to have to subsidize it," he said.

On the other hand, some county citizens are arguing that the hospital can be operated more efficiently than has been for the past several years when patient load has been down. Administrators rebut this by saying they have to meet certain governmental regulations as to number of personnel to fill places on the staff.

The hospital is licensed for 48 beds but presently has only 18 in operation. Another six are set aside for "Inn Care," which treats elderly and handicapped people who are not sick enough to require regular hospitalization. The Inn-Care unit averages two to three patients a day.

Another concern of opponents of the tax proposal is the expense of caring for poor people as a public hospital is required to do.

However, Edington said that the hospital has been providing care for low-income county residents since its creation because that was one of the requirements established by the endowment.

Another concern brought up is that "we are told that the tax will be between 25-30 cents per $100 valuation.....this year." The ballot states that a maximum of 50 cents per $100 valuation can be levied.

In a news release issued on Tuesday of this week by hospital administrator, Glenn Bunn, some of these concerns are addressed.

Following is that release in which are responses to some of those concerns in answers given by panelists over the hospital "hotline" operation in the past couple of weeks:

QUESTION: "A lot of people seem confused about the tax rate, what will it be?"

ANSWER: As reported earlier, an actual amount cannot yet be determined since Coleman County tax valuations have not been set. Based on last year's county valuations, a tax rate of 25¢ to 30¢ per $100 valuation will be sufficient. The State requires that a maximum be placed on the ballot. Legal counsel advised to state a maximum in order to avoid an election each year. Example: Property valued in the low $30,000, would cost between $6 and $8 per month. Example: Average pasture land on 1,000 acres would run between $7.71 to $9.05 per month.

QUESTION: "Some have said that all we need is an emergency clinic. What would it cost?"

ANSWER:

An emergency room physician cost $40.00 per hour up 24 hours times 365 days a year times $40.00 per hour would equal at least $350,400 for doctors salaries alone.

Add to that an office, utilities, equipment, supplies, professional liability and nurses and staff around the clock (24 hours a day, 365 days a year). Total expenses for an emergency clinic could run hundreds of thousands each year and all patients needing hospital treatment would have to be transferred. Taxpayers would be asked to bear the financial expenses of any such emergency clinic.

QUESTION: "Without a hospital, what would indigent care cost taxpayers?"

ANSWER: No one can really say as indigent healthcare has been provided for over 67 years by Overall-Morris without tax dollars.

However, a county has to set aside 10% of the General Revenue Tax Levy for indigent healthcare.

Without a hospital, a county would have to contract a "mandated provider relationship" with a hospital outside the county to provide for the county's indigent.

Contracted hospitals to take care of indigent healthcare for Coleman would expect adequate payment even if the total exceeded the 10%. There would be additional expenses transporting indigents to hospitals outside the county. "There is a per patient limit of 30 total days of inpatient hospital and/or skilled nursing care, or $30,000 per patient for all services, whichever comes first, in a fiscal year." "Counties, under state law, have a responsibility to see that their indigent populations receive health care, but prior to the passage of the CIHCP there was no specific legislative directive interpreting what this responsibility entailed." (Information from Rural Health Reporter, Sept. 1991)

QUESTION:

"Would our nursing homes be affected without a hospital?"

ANSWER: Mr. Glen Jones, administrator of Canterbury Villa Nursing Home of Cisco said, "the Cisco Hospital closing has adversely affected our nursing home because the doctor moved and referrals are now being made to urban centers. The hospital closing has adversely affected Cisco."

Youngsters attending Camp Wanna-Read, the library summer reading program, are shown here with junior and adult leaders, conducting a flag raising ceremony during a recent session. All children in the community are invited to attend. The group met again Wednesday of this week and will meet Wednesday, July 10, for their next session, 9:30 a.m. at the Telephone Cooperative meeting room. ## 54th Annual Coleman Rodeo Starts With Bang On July 4

Coleman's 54th Annual PCRA Rodeo is slated for Thursday through Saturday, July 4, 5, and 6 — night performances only, beginning each evening at 8:00 p.m.

The Coleman Rodeo Association owns 33 acres of land that adjoins the city limits of Coleman on the south. This land and facilities are used for the Rodeo, Livestock Show, and other related events. This is one of the finest outdoor facilities in the Southwest. It seats 6,000 people and has free parking adjoining the dust-free arena.

The Coleman Rodeo is strictly professional and always has been. This means that it is approved by the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association and the Women's Professional Rodeo Association.

This insures that some of the top cowboys and cowgirls in the nation will be competing in the Coleman Rodeo for some $5,600 added prize money.

The queen for the 1991 Rodeo is Tish Taylor, daughter of Ted and Sonjia Taylor.

Stock will be furnished by the Don Gay Allstar Rodeo of Mesquite, Texas owned by Mr. Don Gay. Gay is an eight times World Champion Bull Rider and a member of the Pro Rodeo Hall of Champions. Several of Don's horses and bulls were selected to the 1990 National finals in Las Vegas.

Charlie Throckmorton of Grandview, Texas will serve as rodeo announcer this year. He was the 1990 National Finals Steer Roping Announcer.

The clowns for the 1991 Rodeo are David Burnham and Ron Craver. Dwain Le Bouef will serve as barrelman and he will also perform specialty acts.

The rodeo events this year will include Bareback and Saddle Bronc Riding, Calf Roping, Steer Wrestling, Girl's Barrel Racing, Bull Riding, and Single Steer Roping. Team Roping will be added this year as a new event. The Kid's Goat Scramble will be held each night also.

Of special note to local people is that former Santa Anna residents, James Allen and son, Gip and Guy, will be contestants in the steer roping at the Coleman Rodeo. Guy is a five time champion in PRCA single steer roping and is currently

Dear Editor

Operation Desert Storm will probably go down in history as one of our most successful military efforts ever. That was due in large part to the participation of the U.S. Army Reserve.

Beginning in August 1990, thousands of Army Reservists were called upon to perform the missions for which they had been trained. By now the whole country is aware of the tremendous contributions they made to the United States' Operation Desert Storm effort.

Their success was, in turn, made possible by the generous support of the American people. First, and perhaps most important, was the wide-ranging support by the communities of the Army Reservists who were activated. Local communities were particularly supportive of hometown units as they deployed. Without that, the activation would have been much harder to accomplish. But our Army Reservists went with the blessings and good wishes of the American people. We all realize just how important that is.

Without a doubt, one of the most significant factors in informing the public was the news media coverage of reserve activations. Overall, both the print and the electronic media presented a fair picture of the issues and activities surrounding the mobilization. As a result, the public saw how well prepared Army Reservists were and learned how important they were to the total Army effort.

The understanding that our Army Reservists have received from their employers has been most encouraging. No one likes to lose a valuable employee suddenly for an extended and indefinite period of time, especially in times of economic uncertainty, but the response of the great majority of employers has been very positive. And many companies went beyond the requirements of the law and generously extended additional benefits to their Reservists. As a result, Army Reservists were able to deploy without worrying about their job security. Now, as they are returning, we are seeing that support continue as employers are welcoming them back into the work force.

And finally, the families of our reservists deserve special recognition. They bore the emotional, fi-

Today will be the second day at Camp Wanna-Read. We do hope that all you children were learning about books. If you missed, don't forget to check out more books. Keep your time chart. Bring these to each meeting so that you can add a bead to your awards necklace. Parents, please help your children!

Tami Starr and Monique Spillman were helpers last week who gave up one of their few days of vacation. Tami is a councilor at youth camp and Monique returned to medical school. We could use other volunteers.

Older reading club members last week heard stories from a book donated by M.L. Guthrie Jr. "Famous Trees of Texas" tells the history that grew around them. Have you seen Chocktow Robinson Oak or the Heart of Texas Oak? Both are nearby. Read about them and visit.

Recently Alice Spillman and I were working at the library when a lady came in with books from her neighbor in Abilene. This was my high school friend who has given us boxes of wonderful books.

The neighbor lady was Mrs. Peggy Edwards who grew up in Santa Anna and even has mutual kinfolks with librarian Letha Martin. Another of Peggy's neighbors are Max and Shirley Eubank, former longtime residents of Santa Anna.

Thanks to friends like these, we continue to gain good books for the library. Here are some of the Chuck Weeth books.

FOR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL AGE CHILDREN:

Tillie Comes to Texas by Evelyn Hopenheimer, fiction. The story of a Canadian blue spruce that comes to Texas to be a Christmas tree. Wish this had been available for the first reading program when we talked about trees.

Harry S. Truman by David R. Collins. This is a large print book, easy to read and understand biography of the man from Missouri who became president of the United States in 1954. Illustrated with financial and physical burdens of their soldiers' absence. They supported their soldiers and that made a real difference.

Once again, Army Reservists have shown themselves to be dedicated to serving their country. They sacrificed their time, they were separated from their families, and many lost income when they were activated. They needed your support and they got it.

On behalf of our fine Army Reserve soldiers, I am privileged to thank all of you whose support made it all possible.

WHAT IS A SAINT?

A saint is not someone who is perfect. Not at all. In fact, saints are people who realize they are far from perfect. You see, it's not perfection that makes a saint.

A saint is a person who is set apart to God. And so, saints are individuals who have been transferred by God from the domain of darkness into the kingdom of God's Son. This involves what the Bible calls being "born again." And this means God's Holy Spirit is placed in you. As a result, you repent of sin and trust in the sacrifice of Christ for your salvation. And so, a saint is a person who is set apart to God to a life of holiness. Saints understand the command to be perfect as God is perfect. As a result, saints strive, by God's grace, to live a life worthy of God's holiness.

But saints are also people who, although set apart to God, realize their shortcomings. Saints know that perfection is impossible in this life. They know perfection comes only in heaven. But they do not use this as an excuse for failure. Rather saints confess their failure to meet God's standards. And they gladly accept God's forgiveness. Saints are Christian men and women, and boys and girls on the narrow road of the truly Christian life. Are you a saint?

WTU Regrouping Doesn't Change Operation Of Local Office Or Staff

According to a statement from Charles Moore, manager of the local West Texas Utilities office, the new regrouping of operation for WTU will not offer any major change for the local office staff or crew members. The only change they will see is that the local office will be working out of the San Angelo District rather than the Abilene District.

West Texas Utilities Company has completed a study to determine the best organization and staffing levels to meet future electric service needs of its customers.

The study's purpose was to improve WTU's efficiency and achieve an optimum staffing level. A seven-member employee task force completed the study in April, and the recommended changes were begun immediately.

Overall, WTU plans to reduce its work force by about eight percent over the next several years through attrition, like resignations and retirements. The company will do this by reviewing various positions throughout the company. The work force had already been reduced by 10 percent during the last five years through attrition.

Other basic changes include regrouping operations into four divisions from six districts; establishment of business operations areas within each division to supervise groups of local offices and produce a smaller and more manageable span of supervision; and the creation of an Operations support group to consolidate the customer accounting and various engineering functions that support customer operations activities. Several departments in WTU's General office in Abilene have undergone restructuring and reorganization.

4th Of July Freedom Festival & Junior Rodeo Slated At Rising Star

This year's Rising Star 4th of July Freedom Festival promises to be bigger and better than last year. The day begins with a downtown parade at 10:00 a.m. Festivities will continue at Colquitt Williams Memorial Park area west of town on Hwy. 36.

Those attending were: Angie, Gene Johnson and boys; Ken and Rene Wells; Sonya and Johnny Baker; Ray, Joy Bible and boys; Sherry Fulcher and Shae; George and Billie Wheatley, Wanda Markham and Darla; LeeRoy and Johnnie Howard; Jackey Sansen and family; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sansen; Lena Gunn; Eugene and Shirley Baker.

Jimmie and Pat Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Pilkington, Charles and Daisy Wells and children, Geneva Barnett, Alma Alexander, Lynn and Billie Bible, Cinda and Don Mitchell, Allen Wells, Richard White, Carmela Crawford, Au-ther Crawford, Carrie and Darrel

Concerning specific local changes, the new Southern Division includes the present San Angelo district and the towns of Winters and Santa Anna from the Abilene district. Jamie Rainey will be division manager. The two areas in the division are the city of San Angelo and the Three Rivers area, which includes the rest of the division. Fred Hernandez will be business operations manager for the city of San Angelo, which will be district headquarters, and business operations manager for the Three Rivers area will be Mike Martindale.

Rainey came to WTU in 1975 as an office clerical trainee in San Angelo. She was promoted to management trainee, energy efficiency consultant, to San Angelo local manager in 1984 and to marketing manager in San Angelo in 1990.

Hernandez started at WTU in 1984 as a temporary laborer at Fort Phantom Power Station. He became a management trainee in Abilene District the following year, then worked in various areas throughout the company as a management assistant II.

Martindale's 20 years of service to WTU began in 1971 with a serviceman position in the Stamford office. He was promoted to local manager at Moran in 1974 and in 1976 was transferred to the Aspermont office as local manager.

The re-drawing of its district lines is not a new concept to WTU. The company has had as many as 10 districts in its history and has several times consolidated its districts—in 1929, 1962, and 1976. Each time, the changes were made for the sake of economical company operations, just as today's changes attempt to improve WTU's efficiency to its customers now and in the future.

WTU serves 177,000 customers in 52 counties stretching from the Red River to the Rio Grande.

Estimating Your Hospital District Tax If Measure Passes Saturday

The Overall-Morris Memorial Hospital Board of Directors has projected the tax needed for operation of the hospital through a Hospital District will be 25-30 cents per $100 valuation of your property.

Of importance to landowners is the fact that according to a statement made last week, fair market value on average pasture land is $330 per acre, and it goes on to say that most of the pasture land in Coleman County is taxed as "Average Pasture Land" (Native pasture #2). Average pasture Agriculture Use valuation is $37 per acre per year. If you owned 1,000 acres of pasture land and the tax rate is set at 25¢ per one hundred dollar valuation, your tax would be $92.50 per year. If the tax rate is 30¢ per one hundred dollar valuation, the tax would be $111 per year.

According to Bill Jones, Chief Appraiser of the Coleman County Tax Appraisal District office, classes of ag use value in Coleman County are as follows:

- Cropland #2—$75
- Cropland #3—$56
- Improved pasture—$56
- Native pasture #1—$48
- Native pasture #2—$37
- Native pasture #3—$26

If you have further questions about this, or any other matter concerning the election, please call the hospital phone bank, 625-2135. Leave your name, phone number and question. A panelist will return your call with an answer. Call between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. through Friday of this week.

The following is a chart for estimating your Coleman County Hospital District Tax at the projected 25-30 cents per $100 valuation if the measure passes on June 29.

If the taxable value of your property is:	Tax Rate	Your hospital tax is:
10,000.00	25-30	$25.00-$30.00
20,000.00	25-30	$50.00-$60.00
30,000.00	25-30	$75.00-$90.00
40,000.00	25-30	$100.00-$120.00
60,000.00	25-30	$150.00-$180.00
80,000.00	25-30	$200.00-$240.00
100,000.00	25-30	$250.00-$300.00

Survey Shows: Barbecuing Offers "Cheap Thrills"

To keep their cash from going up in smoke, many Americans are firing up the barbecue as an inexpensive way to feed the family and entertain, according to a recent survey of what's sizzling this year in backyards nationwide.

At a time when it's becoming harder to bring home the bacon, more families are staying home to cook it. According to an annual survey commissioned by Weber-Stephen Products Co., manufacturer of gas barbecues and charcoal kettle grills, 72 percent of those surveyed said that barbecuing was a good alternative to spending money in a restaurant.

"The '80s fad of going to trendy restaurants is being replaced by the '90s appetite for at-home dinner parties. People are more interested in spending quality time together at home and, let's face it, it's less expensive, too," said Jennifer Poor, director of marketing at Weber. "It's now hip to go back to the basics, and nothing's more basic than cooking food over an open fire."

The back-to-the-basics mentality seems to be catching, as the survey found that more Americans are altering their leisure activities with cost-conscious measures in mind. In fact, the top five leisure activities, according to survey results, are spending time at home, renting videos, clipping coupons, watching for sales and barbecuing.

Barbecuing Brings Big Bang for the Buck

Cease the sautéing, ban the broasting, forget the frying—barbecuing delivers more delight for the dollar. Sixty-three percent of barbecuers said grilling was an inexpensive way to cook. Survey respondents agreed that from pork chops to corn-on-the-cob, barbecued meals imply economy because barbecuing imparts a special taste to economical foods they often cook on the grill.

"Typical barbecue fare is really affordable, especially if you're grilling hot dogs and hamburgers or more casual menu items," said Betty Hughes, consumer affairs director for Weber. "Unless you're creating gourmet alfresco feasts, barbecuing can be a cost-effective way to feed your family."

Beef Selections Abound For Summer Grilling Season

Summer in the city means grilling season. The same goes for a day at the lake, a week at the beach or an hour in the country.

Wherever you are when the weather gets hot, nothing satisfies hunger more than a tender, juicy steak. Combine that steak with a Texan's easy access to aromatic woods like mesquite, oak or hickory and a barbecue grill, and you've covered all the basics of a perfect summertime meal.

There are beef cuts that go straight on the grill to combine the subtle flavor of wood smoke with the great taste of today's lean beef. There are also cuts that benefit from a marinade to enhance flavor or tenderness or both before grilling.

In fact, your hardest decision may be what cut of meat to use. Beef offers so large a variety of cuts that customers may become confused about which are suitable for outdoor grilling.

"Some consumers may choose their beef cuts for tenderness", Pam Wortham, programs coordinator for the Texas Beef Industry Council, says. "Of beef's 10 most tender beef cuts, eight are steaks ideal for outdoor grilling. These selections are tenderloin, top blade, porterhouse, T-bone, top loin or strip, round tip and top sirloin. If you can't remember those names, ask your meat market manager for cuts from the rib and the loin. All the most tender selections, except top blade, come from those parts of the beef carcass.

They are tender whether they are quality graded Choice or Select."

Another important factor that consumers consider is price. Although tenderloin is always a good choice because it is the essence of tender beef, consumers will find that other cuts offer a high degree of tenderness at a lower cost. For instance, top blade, which comes from the chuck, often sells for $6 to $7 per pound less than a comparably sized tenderloin. Many other cuts are also good buys during July when supermarkets traditionally feature beef for grilling.

Some consumers may enjoy complementing beef's flavor by marinating it in spices, herbs, vinegars, oils or other ingredients. Consumers who enjoy marinades can literally shop the entire beef case at the supermarket for the best buy. The reason is that all marinades that include acid from vinegar, lemon or lime juice, wine or salsa also tenderize the cuts.

"When you add tenderizing marinade to many cuts from the chuck and the round, they can be upgraded into an easily grilled steak", Wortham said. "When cooked to medium or rare, you have a tender, juicy and delicious steak that was a great buy."

For more ideas on how to enjoy beef in the summertime, write for "Marinate and Grill Beef Recipes", Texas Beef Industry Council, 8310 Capital of Texas Hwy. N., Ste. 440, Austin, TX 78731.

A Vote For Overall-Morris

OVERALL-MORRIS MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

COLEMAN, TEXAS 76834 • 310 SOUTH PECOS • TELEPHONE AC 915/625-2136

June, 1991

Dear Coleman County Voter:

The state of our hospital is now in the hands of the residents of Coleman County.

For over 67 years, the people of Coleman County have been afforded quality medical care because of the contributions, benevolent donations and foresight of interested citizens.

Coleman is not the first rural hospital to face financial crisis because of Federal reimbursement of Medicare and Medicaid programs. In recent years, scores of hospitals throughout the State and Nation have closed because of insufficient funding.

The hospital has had to "write-off" an average of $49,002 each month this year due to Medicare, Medicaid and Medicaid programs. The majority of that amount ($36,002) is due to closed because of insufficient funding.

The Board has projected the needed tax for 1991 would be between 25 cents and 30 cents per $100 valuation. Based on this rate, the following is a list of property tax as based on the taxable value of property.

If the taxable value of your property is:	Tax Rate	Your hospital tax is:
$ 10,000.00	25-30	$ 25.00 - 30.00
20,000.00	25-30	50.00 - 60.00
30,000.00	25-30	75.00 - 90.00
40,000.00	25-30	100.00 - 120.00
60,000.00	25-30	150.00 - 180.00
80,000.00	25-30	200.00 - 240.00
100,000.00	25-30	250.00 - 300.00

The Board strongly feels that the hospital is vital to the growth and development of this county. A stable hospital is vital for the recruitment of physicians.

The danger of not having a hospital threatens our individual lives and the life of the communities in our county. The hospital is one of the larger employers in the county. There are 50 full and part-time employees which with a closure would increase unemployment. Industry and businesses do not choose communities without hospitals.

Last year, most of the hospital's $633,000 payroll went back into the county's economy. Employees paid taxes, house payments, rent, bought groceries, traded with local businesses and paid utilities.

The Board feels that it is our civic and Christian duty to support our hospital and medical community. The Board respectfully requests your support of the hospital district election on June 29.

Oak Wilt Control Proves Effective

BY KATHLEEN DAVIS
COLLEGE STATION—By December 1989, some 80,000 acres of Hays County trees were dead or dying, a disease that raced unchecked there for almost a decade.

"I was pretty well in a bad mood over the thing", recalls Hays County Extension Agent Cliff Caskey.

But, his temper and the deadly oak tree disease are under control now, Caskey said, because county residents got together on the problem.

"I feel like it has been contained. It's not spreading like wildfire like it was when we first got involved", Caskey said, crediting his network of volunteers for whom saving sick trees is "near and dear to their hearts".

Oak wilt is a fungal disease that enters the tree's vascular system, blocking the flow of water and nutrients. The disease enters the trees either through roots shared by an infected tree or by contaminated insects that land on open wounds or pruning cuts.

Hays County volunteers use trenching, tree removal, and more recently, tree injections of Alamo, a chemical labeled one year ago, after successful research by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

"We have seen nothing to change our minds on this product", said Dr. David Appel of College Station, the Experiment Station's lead researcher on oak wilt. "We are even more confident about it than this time a year ago".

Appel, who announced the successful oak wilt treatment in March 1990, said every experimental plot of sick trees injected with Alamo in four years of research has suffered less crown loss than unhealthy trees left untreated.

But, Appel noted that crown loss sometimes occurs at levels even in the treated trees.

"If we can pull a group of trees through the disease with 10-15 percent crown loss, that is considered a successful treatment", Appel said. "A group of treated trees with 40-50 percent crown loss is considered a failure even though the untreated trees have 80-100 percent crown loss".

In his research in Austin, Comfort and Round Rock, Appel pointed out, eight groups of treated trees had crown loss from 2 percent to 41 percent. Five groups of untreated trees had from 61 percent to 100 percent crown loss, he added.

"In any disease control, from cancer to oak wilt to heart worms, nothing is infallible", Appel said. "We know that the initial health of the tree is important to its recovery. But, it's hard to judge to what degree the tree already is infected when all we have are the leaves to look at. Leaves aren't like a thermometer that can measure a fever".

The possibility of saving a higher percentage of the tree is the gamble Hays County volunteers are willing to take, Caskey said. Extension Service training sessions on the use of Alamo have been widely attended.

"It's like trying to count baby pigs with two or three mother sows running around", Caskey said. "I have more people show up than I know what to do with".

Caskey estimates that oak wilt may eventually claim 100,000 acres of the county. Newcomers to the fast-growing population center between Austin and San Antonio have to be continually educated on prevention methods, and application costs in a couple of locations within the county have kept some residents from treating trees, Caskey said.

But trees in the bulk of the 433,000-acre-plus county will be saved because of the volunteers' actions, he added.

Statewide, Dr. Jerral Johnson, Extension Service plant pathologist, estimates that some 5,000 people have been trained in the 36 counties where oak wilt has infected or killed millions of trees.

Although the training enables people to inject trees, Johnson said, probably more than half will opt for hiring the job done.

Self-application costs about $3.30 per one inch of trunk diameter for the chemical, he estimated. Commercial application usually costs from $5-$12 per inch.

For an average 20-inch tree, the injection treatment may range from $66-$240, Johnson indicated.

Other control measures incorporated with the overall program include trenching to sever common roots between sick and healthy trees and removal of dead or hopelessly sick trees. Johnson developed two videos, available in the affected counties' Extension Service offices, to demonstrate oak wilt control.

Control is progressing well but researchers still are trying to understand the disease, Appel said.

"We know that oak wilt is caused by a fungus, but there are a lot of mysteries", Appel said. Researchers do not understand how the fungus enters a tree through the root system, the response of the tree to the fungus, or precisely when a tree gets the disease, for example.

"We can say now that oak wilt is a manageable problem if people are willing to take the time and money to control it", Johnson said.

Dessert Without Guilt!

Reducing fat in the diet no longer means saying "bye-bye" to those homebaked goodies we all love so much. Karo corn syrup has unlocked the mystery of baking without fat. The secret is in the way corn syrup interacts with flour, sugar, egg whites and other traditional baking ingredients to produce cakes, cookies, muffins and more that you'll be proud to serve...all fat free!

Fat-Free Pineapple Upside Down Cake is a newfangled approach to an old-fashioned favorite. It looks pretty, tastes great and is a snap to prepare! For more Karo Fat-Free recipes, write to: Karo Fat-Free Recipes, P.O. Box 307, Dept. K-FFP, Coventry, CT 06238.

Fat-Free Pineapple Upside Down Cake

Mazola No Stick cooking spray	1 cup flour
1/3 cup firmly packed brown sugar	1/4 cup Argo corn starch
2 tablespoons Karo light corn syrup	1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon lemon juice	1/2 teaspoon salt
7 canned pineapple rings, well drained	1 cup sugar
7 maraschino cherries (optional)	2/3 cup skim milk
	2 egg whites
	1/3 cup Karo light corn syrup
	1 teaspoon vanilla

Spray 9-inch round cake pan with cooking spray. Prepare topping. In small bowl stir together brown sugar, 2 tablespoons corn syrup and lemon juice. Pour into prepared pan. Place in 350°F oven 3 minutes or until sugar is melted. Arrange pineapple rings. If desired, place cherries in centers. Set aside. Prepare cake. ## Little George Havens' 25th Annual

Cowboy Camp Meeting

George Havens
Late Founder & Director

In the days of the Old West, cowboys and their families would periodically come together for worship and fellowship under the stars in frontier style. There was nothing fancy or modern; just their wagons or buggies, a bonfire, a couple of "pickers 'n' fiddlers," and a lot of good Bible preachin'. In the spirit of this great tradition, the COWBOY CAMP MEETING was born and will continue as did those great heroes of the faith who blazed trails of evangelism across the early American frontier.

Summer Camps Must Meet Standards

Summer camps in Texas can be compared to little cities, which must meet all the sanitation and safety needs of the campers.

This season the Texas Department of Health (TDH) will regulate more than 500 summer camps through its licensing and inspection program.

As might be expected, TDH inspectors will check for safe drinking water supplies, adequate garbage and sewage disposal facilities and sanitary food service operations. But the inspectors also ensure that the camps meet the specific standards of the Texas Youth Camp Safety and Health Act.

"The Act specifies that camp activities such as swimming, archery, horseback riding and riflery must be conducted by experienced counselors whose qualifications are on record at the camp," said Travis Mansell, a chief sanitarian with the TDH Youth Camp Program.

"Also, each camp must have an infirmary or first-aid facility to handle health and emergency cases," he said.

The infirmary must keep a health record on every child and a physician must be on call at all times. Any serious accident, illness, or death must be reported to the camp inspection program.

Food- or water-borne diseases, such as dysentery, salmonellosis, shigellosis or infectious hepatitis, must be reported immediately.

Recently, the 72nd Texas Legislature passed a bill amending the Texas Youth Camp Safety and Health Act by establishing standard license renewal fees and allowing administrative fines for violators.

Under the new law, camp operators can be assessed an administrative penalty not to exceed $100 per day if the Commissioner of Health, following a hearing, finds them in violation of the law. Violators also may be subject to a fine of $50 to $1,000 in civil penalties.

Free Booklet Offers Info. About Trees

The National Arbor Day Foundation has announced its publication of a free booklet showing how to make your home more valuable, livable with trees.

You can add thousands of dollars to the value of your home, bring songbirds to your neighborhoods, and cut your energy costs up to 25 percent by planting and caring for trees. A free booklet from The National Arbor Day Foundation, Conservation Trees, will show you how.

"Conservation Trees" is a colorfully illustrated, easy-to-use guide. It will show you how to cut fuel bills by properly locating shade trees so they provide cooling summer shade, but don't block the warm winter sun. It describes how to plan a windbreak for maximum winter protection and a minimum of upkeep.

You'll learn how to create a natural habitat to attract songbirds to your backyard — how to provide cover, create needed habitat variety and grow trees for good. Seven tips on maintaining a year-round water supply are included.

The design of the booklet makes it easy to browse through to pick up tips. You'll discover how to protect trees during construction projects...correct tree planting steps...the importance of shading your air conditioners...how to prune shade trees...and where to get local tree-care assistance.

The booklet even includes advice on managing tree plantations for Christmas trees, black walnuts, fuel wood or timber, and how shelterbelts can save topsoil and help farm profits.

To obtain your free copy of this valuable booklet, send your name and address to: Conservation Trees, The National Arbor Day Foundation, Nebraska City, NE 68410.

The art of quilting, still popular today, has been practiced for thousands of years. Soldiers of the Middle Ages wore quilted coats and hoods under their armor.

A Time-Consuming Schedule

I have finally figured out what is wrong with my life. I made the discovery when I sat down to work out a weekly schedule for myself — one that would make me more organized and allow me to accomplish more.

I decided to try a weekly schedule because my past efforts at daily schedules have not worked well. I can't seem to fit everything in on a daily basis without getting up too early or going to bed too late.

I figured that a weekly schedule might allow me to spread out the workload.

First, I divided my life into three categories: "personal/health," including sleeping, exercising, eating, bathing — 81 hours; "work," accounting for the time I spend on career-type work, volunteer work and household work, like cooking and cleaning — 60 hours; and "relaxation/recreation," under which I listed reading, gardening, talking to my husband, etc. — 28 hours.

I threw in an extra 15 unategorized hours for "the children," not knowing how to calculate the many moments here and there when my time belongs to them.

Adding it all up, I found that I needed 184 hours a week. That would be out of a total of 168 hours in a week.

Hmm. As you can see, math was not my best subject. I discovered that while my old daily schedule provided too few hours, my weekly schedule was short by nearly a day. Monthly calculations proved even worse. The more time I tried to give myself, the less time I had.

Obviously, something had to go — 16 hours of something, to be exact. My first thought was to eliminate the hours of exercising that were part of my New Year's resolutions. A quick look in the mirror told me that wasn't a good idea.

Sleeping was a big part of the problem, and some of it surely could be removed from the schedule. But I have noticed that the less I sleep, the longer it takes me to do everything else.

Eliminating nearly all but the essentials, I was still left with a half-day deficit unless I cut into the time I tried to set aside for advancing my career and, thus, our financial security. Or, I could spend less time with the children, ignoring their pleas for a game of ping-pong or a trip to the pool.

I long ago decided that those freckle-faced grins and "Thanks, Moms" were worth more than a healthy bank account. It looks like the career will have to flounder along slowly for a little while longer.

Unless I can eat and sleep at the same time. Or attach a lap-top computer to my exercise bike. ■

ATTENTION: Coleman County LANDOWNERS

Most of the pasture land in Coleman County is taxed as "Average Pasture Land."

Fair market value on average pasture land is $330 per acre.

BUT

Average pasture Agriculture Use valuation tax rate is $37 per acre per year.

QUESTION:

What would my hospital tax be if I owned 1,000 acres of average pasture land?

ANSWER:

If tax rate is 25¢ per one hundred dollar valuation, it would be $92.50 per year, or $7.71 per month. If tax rate is 30¢ per one hundred valuation, the tax would be $111 per year or $9.05 per month.

Annual meeting bylaws excerpts

• For our membership's information, following are excerpts from the Coleman County Electric Cooperative bylaws pertaining to the members' meetings:

Article II Meeting of Members

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of members shall be held at such time during the month of July as the board of directors may direct, and such meeting shall be held at such place in the Cooperative service area as shall be designated in the notice of the meeting for the purpose of electing directors, passing upon reports covering the previous fiscal year, and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting. If the election of directors shall not be held on the day designated herein for any annual meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, the board of directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the members as soon thereafter as conveniently may be. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the Cooperative.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called by the president, by the board of directors, or by a majority thereof, or upon a written request signed by at least ten per centum (10%) of all members and it shall thereupon be the duty of the secretary to cause notice of such meeting to be given as hereinafter provided. Special meetings of the members may be held at any place within the County of Coleman in the State of Texas specified in the notice of the special meeting, or elsewhere within the area served by the Cooperative as may be designated by the board of directors.

Section 3. Notice of Members' Meetings. Written or printed notice stating the place, day, and hour of the meeting and in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten (10) days nor more than twenty (20) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the secretary, or by persons calling the meeting, to each member, provided, however, that with respect to all meetings at which directors are to be elected such notice shall be so delivered not less than ten (10) days nor more than fourteen (14) days before the date of the meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the Cooperative, with postage thereon prepaid. The failure of any member to receive notice of an annual or special meeting of the members, shall not invalidate any action which may be taken by the members at any such meeting.

Section 4. Quorum. As long as the total number of members does not exceed one thousand (1,000), at least fifteen per centum (15%) of the total number present in person shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the members. In case the total number of members shall exceed one thousand (1,000) then at least one hundred fifty (150) of the members present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the members. If less than a quorum is present at any meeting, a majority of those present in person may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

Section 5. Voting. Each member shall be entitled to one (1) vote and no more upon each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of the members. At all meetings of the members at which a quorum is present all questions shall be decided by a vote of a majority of the members voting thereon in person or by mail, except as otherwise provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation of the Cooperative, or by these bylaws. If a husband and wife hold a joint membership, they shall jointly be entitled to one (1) vote and no more upon each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of the members.

Section 6. Voting by Mail. In addition to the method of voting for directors of the Cooperative as provided by the existing bylaws and by a member being present and voting in person, each member shall be and is hereby permitted to vote by mail for directors of this association. At the time notices of members' meetings are given as provided by Article II of these bylaws and with a notice of members' annual meeting, or any postponement thereof, there shall be sent to each member either personally or by mail a ballot which shall contain the names of all members who have been nominated as candidates for directors with a statement of the number to be elected and with appropriate instructions to the member to vote for such members. Such member shall be instructed after voting for the required number to sign said ballot and return same to the Cooperative at its office prior to the date of said meeting. Said ballots when so received shall be retained and placed in a locked ballot box until the date of the members' meeting at which time shall be delivered to the inspectors of election and counted together with the votes cast in person at such members' meeting.

Section 7. Order of Business. The order of business at the annual meeting of the members, and so far as possible at all other meetings of the members, shall be essentially as follows:

1. Report the existence of a quorum.
2. Reading of the notice of the meeting and proof of the due publication of mailing thereof, or the waiver or waivers of notice of the meeting, as the case may be.
3. Reading of unapproved minutes of previous meetings of the members and the taking of necessary action thereon.
4. Presentation and consideration of, and acting upon, reports of officers, directors and committees.
5. Election of directors.
6. Unfinished business.
7. New business.
8. Adjournment.
