Overall-Morris Hospital Closes

In spite of last minute efforts by a private industrial group to keep the facility open, the doors of Overall-Morris Memorial Hospital in Coleman closed Tuesday afternoon at 3:00.

of $49,000. This according to earlier reports from CEO, Glenn Bunn.

The private group had asked the hospital board to postpone its planned closing on Monday until they could meet with them and try to propose a plan for keeping the hospital open for another month, hoping something might materialize in that time period that would prove to be a cure for the hospital's woes.

Along with the private industrial foundation, some management groups approached the board with proposals to keep the hospital open. However, as Dr. Mike Eddington, board president, said, it was not management, but money that was needed.

Milton Autrey, president of the Coleman Development Company, Inc., declined to say how much the private industrial foundation had offered to keep the hospital operating for another month.

The board decided, however, that closure was inevitable and now was the proper time, while the health care facility could be closed debt free.

Voters in the county had said no to creating a hospital taxing district that proponents of the hospital said would allow it to operate debt free.

According to another report, Ed Freeman, owner of the ambulance service that is subsidized by the county, says he doesn't know if he will continue to base his operations out of the hospital, but will continue to run his ambulance service at least until September 30 when the company's contract with the county is up.

A small patient load, inadequate reimbursements by Medicare and Medicaid, and a high indigent care load had created a situation where the hospital had a monthly deficit

Lions Club Fish Fry Friday

Yes, It really is!

I can tell you for sure that I am ready for that vacation I am about to take because here I am apologizing again. In last weeks edition of the NEWS was an announcement that the Lions Club would hold their annual fish fry on that Friday evening, when in fact, I am told it was the Coleman Lions who were serving their fish supper last week.

5:00 p.m. at the Lions Club building on Wallis Ave.

The Santa Anna Lions Club will be offering their "fish fry" benefit supper tomorrow evening (Friday, July 12) with serving to begin at

The "all you can eat" meal will consist of catfish, beans, fries, bread and drink for the price of $5.00. I am told they have on hand twice as much fish as usual, so be ready for a big feast! Children under 12 years of age can eat for $2.00.

All proceeds raised from the event will be used to benefit the community through the Lion Club's charitable projects.

Congratulations go to Joyce Elrod for being selected Honor Coach of the Year by member volleyball coaches of the Texas Girls Coaches Association. The award is presented annually to a coach who is not presently active in coaching, for outstanding service to the TGCA and contributions to girl's athletics in Texas.

Grab your pocketbook, the Texas Legislature will be back in session on Monday. Governor Ann Richards has called the session so state lawmakers can tackle a so-called $4.7 billion deficit. Actually, as I understand the dilemma, the state is not in the hole by that amount, because our Texas constitution calls for a balanced budget.

The "deficit" represents money that lawmakers want to spend but have not yet found a way to come up with. And, as in typical fashion, you can bet the deficit will not be resolved with budget cuts, but by deeper bites into your checking account.

In preparation for the special session, Governor Richards appointed a Task Force on Revenue. That in itself sums up the Austin attitude—more favorable toward raising taxes than in cutting spending.

Nonetheless, the task force investigated two plans, one put forth by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and another by Former Governor John Connally.

According to a report received in our office, a family earning $35,000 is currently paying $1,874 in state taxes with the Hobby plan upping that figure to $3,160 and the Connally proposal increasing the tax burden to $2,095 annually.

The Hobby plan would impose a personal income tax of 6 percent, with an exemption of $4,000 per person, and replace the franchise tax for businesses with a 6.5 percent corporate income tax. It would be tied to a 40 percent reduction in school property taxes.

The plan would increase the 6.25 percent state sales tax to 7.25 percent for 15 months, and then drop the rate to 5.75 percent.

Tax on motor fuels would increase from 15 cents to 20 cents under the Hobby proposal.

The plan is projected to raise an estimated $11.5 billion over the next two years.

Connally's plan would raise an estimated $5.8 billion by raising the motor fuels tax to 35 cents per gallon and doubling tuition to public colleges and universities.

The plan would increase motor vehicle sales and hotel/motel taxes from 6 percent to 6.25 percent and replace the franchise tax with a gross receipts tax.

While it is almost certain that neither plan will be adopted as currently proposed, there is no doubt that a tax in-

CCEC Annual Membership Meeting Will Be In Coleman

CCEC—Coleman County Electric Cooperative's Annual Membership Meeting will be back in Coleman this year on Friday, July 19. The meeting has been held in the Ballinger High School Auditorium the last two years. This year it will be in the Coleman High School Auditorium, located on the south edge of Coleman, close to the Rodeo Grounds where the meeting was held for so many years.

The meeting is shaping up to be another good one, with air conditioned auditorium and comfortable seating. The popular homemade freezer ice cream and cookies will be back again. Also a very good entertainer will be here to entertain the members after the business meeting. There will be the usual prize drawings for adults and children with on major drawing prize. There will be an attendance gift to each member registering, as well as attendance gifts for children.

The last two meetings at the Ballinger High School has been two of the best ever. Please make plans now to attend this year, and enjoy the fellowship with your fellow members, while participating in the business activities of your own Electric Cooperative.

Texans are probably not going to swallow a huge tax increase until legislators put forth a true, all-out effort to curb spending like we, the tax-paying citizens, have to do when we are faced with such a problem in our personal lives.

Hospital Employees Donate Proceeds From Recent Bazaar

Hospital employees have donated proceeds from the Overall-Morris Memorial Hospital Bazaar to the hospital, according to Terry Crater, Bazaar Chairman. A check for $4,760, representing proceeds from the bazaar and the employee sponsored baseball tournament.

Mrs. Carter said the original plans were to assist the hospital in expanding the dining services, however, the committee voted some time ago to donate their proceeds for public education thru the media concerning the election for a hospital district.

"We felt it more important at this time to assist the hospital with public education than any other project." Last year the employees worked and donated bazaar proceeds to equipment.

Chief Executive Officer, Glen D. Bunn, said, "Our employees are the finest. They worked long and hard planning and conducting the bazaars and baseball tournament." on behalf of the board, he expressed appreciation to each and every employee who contributed their time and talents for the worthwhile efforts.

Senior Stars Win Play Wed.

The Coleman County Senior League All-Stars jumped all over Breck last night in the opening round of the District V, Area II tournament in Coleman, 16-4.

The local stars pounded out 16 hits, eight in the first two innings to mount an early 11-0 lead and then coasted to victory in the 5 1/2 inning contest. Right-hander Stephen Gonzales fired a three-hitter, fanning eight while walking four in going the distance for Bruce Ransberger's blue-clad stars. All four Breck runs were unearned as the locals committed six errors, mostly the throwing variety.

Shortstop Lance Ransberger belted three singles, good for three RBIs for the victors while Johnny DeLeon, Jason Walker, Glen Donham, and Miguel Flores added two hits each to the attack. Catcher Mitch Todd had an RBI double and Sac Fly while other RBI contributors were Jason Walker (1), Glen Donham (3), and Miguel Flores (1).

Coleman tallied four runs in the first on RBIs by Walker, Ransberger, Todd, and Flores. The locals fashioned a seven-run second on RBIs by Ransberger, Donham and Todd and a three-run error on a Starsky Jauregui fly ball to center. Breck was charged with eight bobbles during the fray.

Coleman now meets the winner of the Clyde-Albany contest on Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.

Cotton Meeting Tuesday, 16th

According to news from the office of County Agent, Kerry Shropshire, there will be a Cotton Turnrow meeting next Tuesday, July 16th, at 9:00 a.m. County producers are asked to meet on the east side of the courthouse. They will then travel to certain cotton fields in the county where they will discuss cotton production and current situations.

Kerry Shropshire and an extension specialist from San Angelo will conduct the program that day. This will be an excellent time for all cotton producers to get an update on the current cotton and insect situation in Coleman County. This is also an excellent opportunity for private applicators to receive 2 CEU credits (15 CEU's are required before you can renew your private applicator's licence).

If you need additional information on the cotton meeting or Private Applicator's CEU's, call Kerry Shropshire at (915) 625-4519

Eyes May Be Damaged By Looking Directly At Eclipse

A partial solar eclipse will be visible throughout the Southwestern United States on Thursday, July 11. In those states, the moon will cover about 60 percent of the sun. A full eclipse will be visible in Hawaii, making this the last total solar eclipse visible from the United States in the 20th century.

"Never look directly at the sun, not even for a second," warns Wayne E. Fung, MD, an ophthalmologist and spokesperson for the American Academy of Ophthalmology.

"Staring at the eclipse can burn the retina, the membrane at the back of the eye that senses light," Dr. Fung said. "Though you won't feel any pain, you may be permanently damaging your sight."

Dr. Fung likened the retina to film in a camera. Once the film is damaged, no pictures can be taken. "There is no treatment for the vision-impairing scarring and permanent blind spots that result from staring at the sun," he said.

He stressed that sunglasses (with or without ultraviolet-blocking coating), welding goggles or smoked glass WILL NOT protect the retina. "Viewing the eclipse directly through a telescope or binoculars is even more hazardous, since these devices increase the intensity of the light."

Watching the eclipse on television may be the safest way to enjoy this natural phenomenon, Dr. Fung said.

"Many planetariums, science museums, and university astronomy departments will use optical instruments to project large, bright, focused images of the eclipse from a telescope onto a screen," noted Bing Quock, assistant chairman of the Morrison Planetarium in San Francisco. "These eclipse watches are open to the public and are a ways supervised to ensure safety," he added.

The eclipse will last approximately two and a half hours. At maximum eclipse, the sun will appear as a crescent, with its "horns" pointing south. The time of maximum eclipse varies:

LOCATION MAXIMUM ECLIPSE
 Albuquerque, NM 12:51 p.m.
 Austin, TX 2:13 p.m. Dallas, TX 2:12 p.m. Flagstaff, AZ 12:41 p.m. Houston, TX 2:18 p.m.

The full shadow of the moon will move from Hawaii across the Pacific to the southern tip of Baja California, then through Mexico and Central America into central Brazil. For people living along this path, the sun will gradually be blocked from view as the moon slowly moves in front of it. The moon will completely cover the disc of the sun, leaving only its outer atmosphere or corona in view.

SIMPLE, SAFE WAY TO OBSERVE ECLIPSE—A simple device for viewing the eclipse safely can be constructed from two sheets of white cardboard (see diagram). First, make a pinhole in the center of one of the pieces. Standing WITH YOUR BACK TO THE SUN, hold the pinholed sheet up so that the sun shines through the hole and on to the other sheet. A small image of the sun will be visible on the cardboard. Focus or change the size of the image by changing the distance between the sheets.

Bus tours are taxable

Guided bus tours are taxable amusement services. Tour companies will sometimes separate the cost of their services from the fee for the bus, but itemizing shouldn't change the amount subject to sales tax. Tax is due on the total cost of the tour.

Study tax records before you buy a business

If you're planning to buy an existing business, find out if it owes any state taxes beforehand. A little research may keep you from being stuck with a second-hand debt you knew nothing about.

Texas law holds the buyer of a business responsible for any tax owed by the previous owner. The buyer is also required to withhold money from the purchase price to cover a tax liability.

There's an easy way to find out if the business you are purchasing still has a tax liability with the state. Just contact the Comptroller's Office.

Our office will send you either a Certificate of No Tax Due or a statement of the amount of tax that must be paid before a certificate can be issued.

by JOHN SHARP
TEXAS COMPTROLLER OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS

Road trips can be taxing

Many Texans rent trailers and vans for summer vacation. Texas has an abundance of private campgrounds to park these recreational vehicles.

No sales tax is charged for RV and trailer hookups at these campgrounds.

But sales tax is due when you rent RVs. The tax rate is 6 percent, but no local tax is charged. Even non-profit organizations that do not usually pay sales tax must pay tax when they rent RVs.

For more information, call the Comptroller's toll-free tax assistance hotline at 1-800-252-5555.

Don't pay the baby-sitter tax

When you hire someone to look after your children and home while you're away on vacation, no taxes are collected.

Most personal services such as house sitting, haircutting and manicuring are not taxable. Even if you take your children to a day care for babysitting, no tax is due.

However, commercial maid and lawn maintenance services are taxable. When you hire a commercial maid service to clean your house or office, or a gardener to take care of your lawn and garden, you owe tax. These folks are hired to provide a specific taxable service.

WTU Offers Summer Relief

Those of us trying to hold off the effects of summer temperatures received some welcome news Monday from West Texas Utilities Company. The electric utility has lowered the cost of electricity 7.8 percent for July through September compared to costs for the last year.

According to Charles Moore, WTU's local manager, the interim decrease is part of WTU's request to lower the fuel cost portion of the bill to reflect the price it is paying for gas and coal to generate electricity. The Public Utility Commission of Texas will decide whether permanently lower costs should go into effect beginning in October, Moore said.

Those final costs are expected to be about 2.5 percent lower than they were during the last 12 months. July through September are typically the month of highest use as air conditioners and heat pumps work overtime to keep inside temperatures as much as 30 degrees lower than outside temperatures. The actual size of each customer's bill will be determined by their use.

WTU also offers energy saving tips which can reduce costs through lower use. These include replacing air conditioner filters monthly; closing drapes to keep out the direct sun; using heat producing appliances (such as oven, washer, dryer, and dishwasher during the cooler morning and evening hours; and many more ideas. For booklets and tips on conservation, contact the WTU office.
