FFA Week To Be Observed Feb. 20-27

Recently Governor Price Daniel proclaimed the week of February 20-27 as FFA Week in Texas. This follows the National trend to observe the week in which Washington's birthday comes as the week set aside to honor future farmers. Purpose of the week is to focus attention on the work of the Future Farmers of today, who will be the successful farmers of tomorrow.

A. D. Pettit has been the local Vocational Agriculture teacher for 20 years. As head of the Agriculture Department, he is also advisor to the FFA Chapter. During the years Mr. Pettit has supervised boys who have won top honors in lamb divisions in just about every major stock show in Texas. Many of his former students are successful farmers today.

Members of the Vocational Agriculture Department and FFA now are: Eddie Hartman, president; Travis Buse, vice president; Collins Steward, secretary; Byrl Fellers, treasurer; Kenneth Harris, reporter; Glendon Eppler, sentinel; Jimmy Niell, 2nd vice president; and Dayton Jackson, 3rd vice president.

Other members are: J. C. Bible, Alfred McCrary, Donnie Henderson, Randy Brown, Carl Cowen, Terry Moore, Clayton Jackson, Kenneth Elliott, Don Rutherford, Billy Williams, Bobby Squires, Tommy Stewardson, Harold Walker, Larry Fowler, Danny Wylie, Tinker Dockery, John Dillingham, Donald Williams, Mickey Dodson, Ronnie Hardy, Bobby Boyet, Tony Tucker, Weldon Haynes, Milton Drake, Barton Goodwin, Larry Makuta, Denny Densman, Bobby Wardlow, Harry Walker and John Dockery.

This nation must have a constant supply of new farmers every year to replace those who die, retire, or otherwise leave

Patsy Clifton Named Local "Home Maker of Tomorrow"

Patsy Matalene Clifton has been named the 1960 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow at Santa Anna High School.

She received the highest score in a 50-minute written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes taken by graduating seniors in her school. She will receive an award pin, manufactured by Jostens and representing the slogan, "Home is where the heart is." Her examination paper will be entered in competition with other high school winners to name the state Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Meeting Called For Employment Of County Trapper

A meeting of all farmers and ranchers of Precinct No. 2 and other citizens interested in the control of predatory animals in the county, has been called for Friday night at 7:30 p. m. in the Community Room of the Santa Anna National Bank. Four trappers have already been approved for the county, and in this meeting discussions will be held concerning the control of the animal.

Also efforts will be made to raise the money to pay the trapper to operate in the precinct. J. Odgen Brown of Coleman, is secretary of the county organization, and will meet with the local group Friday night.

Cemetery Assn. Now Has 180 Paid Members

Mrs. W. B. Griffin, secretary and treasurer of the Santa Anna Cemetery, reports the association now has 180 members with their dues paid. The new organization has been functioning since about the middle of last November.

During the time they have purchased and paid for a tractor, shredder, tiller, trailer, power lawn mower, new rakes and built an addition to the cemetery tool house, painted it and put a new roof on it. They also have one man employed full-time in the cemetery.

Lots of improvements have been completed, and lots more are planned.

The only thing the association needs now is more members. Dues are only $1.00 per month, or $12.00 per year. This money guarantees you your lot will be kept in good condition all the time, and also the roadway and public property near your lot will be kept in good condition.

A new program has been underway during the past few weeks, and that is getting all the tombstones in the cemetery set up properly. A large number have been fixed already. The directors said anyone interested in getting their tombstones set up right should contact them right away. They have a man doing the work, and his work is very reasonable. Those who are in charge of lots that have the tombstones either fallen over or getting out of shape are urged to contact one of the directors, Mrs. Griffin, Bill Griffin, Jim Daniell, Emzy Brown or others, as soon as possible, and make arrangements for yours to be straightened.

The directors are putting in a lot of their time in an effort to get and keep the cemetery in good condition. Not one of them receive any pay what-so-ever for their services. They are donating their time and energy because they see and feel the need for the final resting place for many of us, to be as beautiful as possible.

The rate of $1.00 per month is almost unbelievable, but the directors feel they can carry on their efforts if they get 300 or more members in the association. For only $1.00 per month, every family who own a lot or plan to own a lot there, should be members.

$10 More Added To March of Dimes Total

Another contribution was received this week, to be added to the March of Dimes drive. This brings the final total to $596.05.

If there is still others who have not yet got their contributions in to the drive, there is still time. You are invited to leave your contribution at the Santa Anna National Bank or The News Office.

The money will be divided with the National Foundation sometime in March. Until this takes place, we will continue to hold the drive open, and hope we can reach a minimum of $750 before it is closed.

Boy Scouts Visit Lions Club

About 25 members of the Boy Scouts and Explorer troops were guests of the Santa Anna Lions Club at their noon luncheon Tuesday. The occasion was in observance of Boy Scout Week and the 50th Anniversary of Scouting in the United States.

Scoutmaster R. C. Smith introduced O. K. Reynolds, Council representative for this area, who discussed some of the Tax Election Called in Water District

An election has been called by the Directors of the Coleman County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1, in Coleman County, for the purpose of setting a fixed and established Ad Valorem tax rate for the district.

The election will be held at the Community House in Trichham Saturday, March 26. Polls will be open from 8:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m. and all resident qualified tax paying voters are urged to study the proposals and vote your convictions.

Some several months ago the district voted a proposal that the tax on property in the district would not exceed five cents per acre, but this was not an Ad Valorem tax. It just set the limit that could be collected. Now the proposition of actually setting the tax rate goes to the voters.

The proposed rate amounts to 30 cents per each $100.00 valuation, based on the state and county renditions. At first glance this may seem exceedingly high, but when figured out it will actually amount to about 2 1/2 to 3 cents per acre, depending upon the amount the property is rendered for in the county tax office. According to Elmer Cupps, president of the organization, 3 cents per acre will be the most any property owner will pay, and most of the land will be taxed at an average of 2 1/2 cents per acre.

An example will give the property owner a means of figuring exactly what his tax will be. Say a qualified tax paying resident owns an even 100 acres of land and it is rendered on the county tax rolls at $10.00 per acre. This would amount to a total of $3.00 or a tax of 3 cents per acre. Land rendered for less than $10.00 per acre would be taxed at the same rate according to the rendition.

John Skelton, County Tax Assessor-Collector, said all the land in the district averages $7.00 per acre on his tax rolls. It is estimated the tax will bring about $2,000 in to the district, for operational purposes.

The proposal to limit the tax rate to a minimum carried by a vote of 51 for, to 3 against. The proposal offered now is well under the maximum, and it is hoped the voters fully understand the proposals. Further information can be obtained from any of the directors.

Mayor Barnes Urges Citizens Support Of Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up Campaign

Mayor W. Ford Barnes, today proclaimed Monday, Feb. 22 through Saturday, April 30 Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up time in Santa Anna and urged every citizen, child and adult, to participate in the program.

Mayor Barnes pointed out that the aims of the campaign are everyone, prevention of fire, safeguarding health, promotion of safety, building the ideals of good citizenship and improvement of property.

City Wide Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up Campaign Will Begin Monday

The City Wide Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up campaign will get underway in Santa Anna Monday, February 22, and continue through Saturday, April 30, according to an announcement this week by W. Ford Barnes, Mayor. The campaign is sponsored by the Community Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the City of Santa Anna, the Lions Club, the Public Schools and the Garden Club.

The first phase of the program will be an effort to get every resident in Santa Anna to clean up their property and get all the trash hauled away. City trash trucks will do the hauling, but each resident is urged to cooperate by burning everything that will burn, then placing all other rubbish where it can be easily loaded by the city trash crew.

A second part of the program is an effort to get trees and shrubs set out at every home. The Garden Club is going all out in this effort and offer their cooperation in every way possible. They urge everyone to set out at least one red rose of some variety and at least one peean tree.

Mrs. Edith Golston and Mrs. Lee Hunter will accept orders for either of the above in the name of the Garden Club, and will then order them from nurseries they have contact with. In addition these ladies or other members of the Garden Club will be available to give you suggestions as to where and how to plant the shrubs and trees. The club is also offering a book, "Guide for Gardening in West Central Texas," and that has a wide and varied number of suggestions that cover almost any kind of flower or tree you might want to put out. They have offered to sell the book for just what it costs them, $1.00 per copy. Their supply is very limited right at the present, but more are available within a few days time. Mrs. Golston and Mrs. Hunter also have these books.

Everyone is urged to begin the Clean Up part of the campaign now, and to make preparations for the Paint Up-Fix Up part to follow when spring weather arrives.

Tuesday night the Llano girls won over Mason in their final scheduled conference game. The Santa Anna and Llano girls will be co-champions of the district. The winner of the game will play the Clyde girls in the first game in bi-district next Tuesday night. The game will be determined after the Friday night game.

Tuesday night the girls went to Jim Ned for a practice game and lost by a score of 56 to 54. Gayla McIver had 25 points and Judy Bryan had 23 points.

New Pension Law To be Explained In Meeting Sat.

Ben F. Cox, Veterans County Service Officer for Coleman County, today issued a warning to veterans and widows who will soon be confronted with a choice in electing pension benefits for the future.

Cox said, that the Veterans Administration will send each veteran and widow who is receiving pension at this time a form at the end of February. By completing this form and returning it to the Veterans Administration, those who are receiving pension may elect to receive benefits under the new pension law from the date it becomes effective on July 1, 1960.

While the new law may provide increased benefits for some, there are many others who would realize a decrease in their pension benefits at a future date if they choose to receive benefits under the new law. Cox added, it is not necessary for the form to be completed immediately, and Cox has urged that each veteran and widow carefully consider every possibility before making a choice. Once an election is made and one check is cashed by the veteran or widow, that person may never return to benefits under the law now in force.

A county-wide meeting will be held at the Courthouse in Coleman, Texas at 2 p. m. Saturday, February 20, for the purpose of fully explaining the new law to those who are interested. Cox urges that every person who is receiving pension benefits from the Veterans Administration, as well as those who might become eligible in the near future, attend this meeting before completing the forms that will be sent to them by the Veterans Administration. He also stated that each veteran and widow who receives such a form should contact him, for advice and assistance before the form is completed.

the farm. These must be men with experience and training, for the successful farmer today is both a scientist and a businessman; mechanic and laborer, and at the same time capable of leadership in the affairs of the community. Generally, they must be men who have begun farming at an early age, so by the time they are ready to marry and start a family they will be firmly established in a farming program that promises a good future.

Vocational Agriculture and the FFA constitute the most effective program yet developed for training boys to be good farmers and helping them to become established in the farming occupations of their choice.

In view of the nation's need for new farmers, it is fitting that recognition be given these young men who are preparing for careers in farming. Encouragement at this time will do much to stimulate them to harder work and greater achievement.

GOVERNOR PRICE DANIEL presents proclamation proclaiming FFA Week, February 20-27 to James Frewitt, State FFA President, Kirbyville, and Elaine Pennington, State FFA Sweetheart from Athens.

Straight Talk

by Tom Robinson

Have you ever lived higher on the hog than you're living now? Some friends and critics ask, "What're you so upset about? Relax and enjoy it!" Such people who profess to believe the nation is in the best shape ever remind me of the story of Ol' Joe. Ol' Joe's doctor told him he'd have to move to Arizona for his health. He did. And three weeks later they shipped his body back. Two of Ol' Joe's friends were standing in front of his open casket. One said, "Don't Ol' Joe look fine?" "Yeah," the other replied, "them three weeks in Arizona sure done him a lot of good."

The road we're traveling is the road to Socialism, insolvency, and surrender. How can we avoid it? We've got to get to the cause. The cause of excessive spending, borrowing, and taxing is the huge, complex federal bureaucracy which has mushroomed beyond the control and comprehension of the people.

Did you know that none of the $39 billion collected by the federal personal income tax program is used to finance any activity which is authorized by the Constitution? That it doesn't pay a soldier, buy an airplane, or pay a single governmental salary authorized by the Constitution? That it's used to finance 700 tax-free, rent-free, unauthorized-by-the-Constitution government corporations (such as TVA), which lose $9 billion a year? That the Federal Government could operate without the federal personal income tax?

Did you know that our government spends 1,300 times more now than it did in 1940? Have you figured out what the government is doing for you now that it did not do in 1940 that's worth this awful price? And how much more "good" you can stand at that rate?

Did you know that the recent great increases in federal spending have been for non-essentials, not for defense? That since 1945, expenditures outside of defense, atomic energy and foreign aid have grown from $19.1 billion a year to $33.4 billion, a 75% increase?

America's Menace: Neutrals, Within and Without

Did you know that the 271 Americans engaged in our ICA giveaway in Pakistan have been provided with 229 cars, 529 refrigerators, 650 stoves and 666 air-conditioners? That these 271 bureaucrats hired 1,021 natives as gardeners, chauffeurs, guards, clerks—and sent the bill to you? That in the past 10 years we have given $1,375,000,000 in aid to socialist-neutralist India and that India takes our gifts and then buys from Russia? That although our federal debt is larger than the combined debt of all other nations, we are sending foreign aid to 73 of the world's 86 nations? That our past and present foreign aid programs are taking one out of every five of our personal income tax dollars?

Did you know that 85% of the tax load is carried not by the rich, but by the poor people who make $6,000 a year or less? That the average American worker who makes around $4,000 a year pays about $1,200 of that in federal, state and local taxes, most of which are hidden? Did you know that there are 151 taxes on a loaf of bread? That even if the farmer donated his wheat, white bread would sell for 17 cents a loaf?

If your answer to the above is "so what?", then there is no need to finish reading this. If your answer is "Yes, I know it—but what can I do about it?", here's what you can do. Demand that your congressmen work actively to accomplish the following:

Make it illegal, in peacetime, for the Federal Government to spend more than it takes in. Kill federal aid and return to the states or to the people all those powers, rights, privileges and responsibilities not expressly delegated to the Federal Government by the Constitution. Give up all non-urgent government spending projects and subsidies. Put all urgent projects on a pay-as-you-go basis. Restore the Constitutional checks and balances between the three branches of the Federal Government by curbing the Supreme Court and the Executive.

Apply anti-trust laws equally against all monopolies — business, labor and cooperatives — restoring the right to compete in a free market and on an equal basis.

Redouble defense efforts to make America once again invincible. Serve notice now that should America ever face surrender or defeat, our leaders will be tried for treason.

Insist that our foreign policy be for freedom, for right and for America.

Tighten immigration restrictions by strict enforcement of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act. Kill Civil Service, so a million unnecessary, incompetent and un-American federal employees can be fired.

Get the Government Out, Set the Farmer Free

Repeal the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and set the farmer free. Guard the integrity of the dollar just as we do our moral integrity. Support Herman Tamnadge's proposed Constitutional Amendment vesting exclusive control of the public schools in the states and local governments. Prohibit mass picketing, violence, coercion, forced union membership, secondary boycotts, industry-wide bargaining, union monopolies, feather-bedding and other make-work rackets.

Teach your children Americanism, old-fashioned patriotism. See that your schools and public libraries have plenty of the books and magazines which unmask the Socialist-Communist conspiracy. Never again vote for lesser of evils. Vote for the best man, regardless of his chances. If no good man is running, try to get one. Failing that, write-in a name.

See that the libertarian publications are placed in your doctor's waiting room, your library, your barber and beauty shop and other public places.

Read editorial pages, letters to the editor. Learn the true nature of Communism by reading several books on it, like I Was a Slave in Russia, The Communist Manifesto, Communism and Christ, Masters of Deceit. Join the fight with one of the several good libertarian organizations, such as Americans for Constitutional Action, The John Birch Society, Citizens Foreign Aid Committee.

We must use our greatest weapon, spirituality. Horace Greeley said: "It is impossible to mentally or socially enslave a Bible-reading people. The principles of the Bible are the groundwork of human freedom." It's hopeless? Suppose Washington, at Valley Forge, had taken that position? And Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson?

from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

© THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Read Psalm 103:2,4

Bless the Lord, O my soul, who redeemeth thy life from destruction. (Psalm 103:2,4)

A young surgeon and I had been bobbing up and down among the ocean waves, as one after another formed and spent themselves upon the sandy beach. Now we were walking along the seashore.

"The sea's so strong and restless," I said.

"Yes," the surgeon replied, "and so old."

"Compared to the ocean," I added, "we seem so small and weak, and our lives so short."

"True," the surgeon said, "but in God's sight we are of more value than the ancient ocean."

"Can it be," I asked, "that our earthly lives are really important since they are so brief?"

Put it this way," the surgeon answered: "the ocean points up the importance of life and the value of time because we have here so few years for living."

The experience of all Christians is that we can add to the value of our lives by dedicating them to God. We can redeem our time by putting heart and hand into work that shows our devotion to Christ and our love for our fellow men.

PRAYER

Our Father, we thank Thee for the gift of life. Help us to dedicate ourselves to Thee. Guide us in the use of our time. Teach us to honor and glorify Thee by using unselfishly the talents Thou hast given us. In the name of Christ our Redeemer. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

I will dedicate my life to God, who alone can save it from destruction.

Nobody really likes to pay taxes. But we like the feeling of security we get from knowing that police and fire departments are on the job — because of the taxes we pay. Girls Scouts To Have Cookie Sale Feb. 19-27

Mrs. Donald Ray Howard of Coleman, Cookie Chairman for the 7th annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale, asks the support of all friends of Girl Scouts in the Santa Anna and surrounding area. Girls from Scout Troops in Coleman will be selling the cookies after school and on Saturdays during the week February 19 through 27.

The girls will be selling two kinds of cookies: the delicious cream-filled sandwich cookies (chocolate and vanilla) and the original Girl Scout Cookie Mint, which is a pleasant mint wafer. Plans are for the girls to make a door-to-door canvass. Brownie Scouts will be wearing a brown uniform and the Intermediate Scouts will be wearing a green uniform.

The proceeds from the sale are used to sponsor a camping program for all girls who are now Scouts or who will be in the future. The established camp for girls of this council is located at Camp Wood Lake, on the shores of Lake Brownwood. Weekly sessions of camping are held throughout the summer months for active girls who have reached the Intermediate Scout level.

Coleman is the only place in the county that has an active Girl Scout unit at the present time. However, considerable interest has been shown in forming the organization in other communities and it is the desire of the Coleman group to give their assistance to any community or group wanting to get their organization underway.

This can be done by contacting Mrs. Howard or any member of the Coleman Girl Scout Association.

Failure to type or print your information on that Federal income tax return for 1959 could cost you a lot of money.

This word came today from Virgil W. Newman, of Internal Revenue Service, Brownwood.

"Right here in this area hundreds of taxpayers had to be located last year so Uncle Sam could pay them refunds amounting to several thousand dollars. This business happens every year," Mr. Newman says, "because people either don't write legibly, or they move to new addresses and neglect to leave forwarding addresses with their postmasters."

Mr. Newman said that Revenue is using more electronic devices than ever this year to speed work, but hurriedly scrawled numbers such as 1 and 7 carelessly closed loops in letters e, l and f, often short circuit the entire IRS production line.

So type or print your return and notify your postmaster of your new address if you should move. These simple precautions will save everybody lots of time and money," Mr. Newman said.

Agriculture is a Science

by Jarrell Gray
A & M College of Texas

High school vocational agriculture programs are making a valuable contribution toward developing scientific farmers.

Such a contribution is the result of formal classroom work, activities conducted by the Future Farmers of America, and young and adult farmer educational programs.

Modern farming demands that farmers have a scientific knowledge of such things as insects and disease control of crops and livestock, fertilization of crops, operation of motors, etc. In high school vocational agriculture programs, training in these scientific aspects of farming is provided for youths preparing to become farmers.

Teachers of vocational agriculture have long realized the importance of training scientists. Without agricultural scientists, it would have been impossible to have made the progress in agriculture that has been made during the past few years.

There is still a great need for scientists in agriculture. Each year in agricultural research there is a need for approximately 1,000 more research workers than is available. The future will probably demand even more than this.

A study of vocational agriculture can be the beginning of a career in science. A very large portion of the material studied is of a scientific nature. In studying animal production, students learn about nutrients, vitamins, reproduction of animals, digestive processes, and many other such things.

When studying crop production, students learn about the chemistry of fertilizers, plant reproduction, the science of genetics, and other scientific facts.

Each high school student enrolled in vocational agriculture receives approximately seven hours of instruction each week in various agricultural subjects. These subjects pertain to the science of producing crops and livestock, developing farm mechanics skills in welding, electrification, shop, farm buildings, conservation of soil and natural resources, and farm machinery. In addition, many F. F. A. contests are provided in these areas to give students training above and beyond that received in the classroom.

Such scientific training in agriculture is on doubt largely responsible for the high degree of perfection we have reached in Texas and the United States in producing farm commodities. This perfection also is making a very important contribution to our national economy and to the national leadership the United States is available to demonstrate among world powers. History had demonstrated that for a country to be a world leader, she must have a strong program of agriculture. Consequently, it is important that we train an adequate number of scientific farmers to produce the food and fiber needed by our people. And even though we will need fewer farmers in the future, these farmers that are needed must be highly trained in the science of agriculture.

March Plentifuls Involve 16 Diet-Important Foods

College Station — A ready-made shopping list for hearty March appetites is implied in the 16 diet-important foods listed as plentiful this month by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, College Station.

Pork and eggs are two high-protein foods expected to be in abundance. These will be featured in Texas during March as production continues high. Both were plentiful in February, too. Shrimp, especially frozen shrimp, will be plentiful. Peanuts and peanut products continue on the list. And milk and dairy products join the plentiful this month as production increases seasonally.

Plentiful fresh vegetables include cabbage, carrots and celery, as warm-winter garden areas provide heavy harvests. Oranges and orange products, canned freestone peaches and cranberry products will be in sufficient supply to encourage frequent use of these fruits.

Rice is the versatile cereal grain that takes plentiful honors this month. Almonds, filberts and raisins are on the list to provide added flavor and intrigue to March menus. And lamb, right along with pork will be in good supply all month.

vision, works closely with producers and the food trade in determining the monthly plentiful foods list for each state. Food markets in many areas feature special sales on these foods as the industry tries to bring demand and supplies into balance. Economy and wide selection are in favor of consumers who serve plentiful foods often.

Lamb Grading To Continue

San Angelo — Lamb grading, with revised standards becoming effective, is to be continued, officials of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association have been informed. Revision of the standards is a compromise on which most segments of the sheep industry agreed.

The National Wool Growers' Assn. in Salt Lake City, further informs that the new standards will become effective March 1, 1960.

The TS&GRA joined with the NWGA, the National Lamb Feeders' Assn. and other groups in seeking suspension of grading, but protest from other organization prevailed in the United States Department of Agriculture's decision to revise and continue grading.

Nation Faces Shortage of Doctors Soon

By Dr. John E. Truslow
All medical educators are faced with the fact that fewer young men and women are attracted to our profession than before, and that we in medicine are not getting the choice of the cream of the crop formerly enjoyed.

There are many reasons for this, of course. One is the lure and glamour of competing sciences, each with its own importance. Another is the length and expense of the medical course in an inflated economy, and 65 percent of my students are married. The problem is currently aggravated by the fact that we are drawing from a numerically restricted age group, resulting from the reduced birthrates of the Depression years.

Modern developments in medical practice have made it intrinsically a less friendly profession, compared with earlier generations, but the same developments made it greatly more efficient. This has naturally resulted in a less friendly public attitude, affecting the desire of youth to become doctors.

In my opinion the answer lies in improvement of attitudes, by deed and example and intent, upon the part of the student, the adults who advise and guide him and the professional educator and medical practitioner.

Doctors and educators, consciously or unconsciously have left the impression in recent years that the medical profession entails too much hard work, that it has become one clouded with an atmosphere of tax, litigation and maybe eventual socialization. The impression has been given that there are a lot of other careers in which you can get as much satisfaction without going through the hell you have to become a doctor these days.

What hell? What's the matter with us? Is there anything in the world more exciting than the study of how we behave like human beings? Is there any experience more exhilarating than the capacity to think logically, physiologically and psychologically? Is there anything more thrilling than the dignity the physician in our society possesses, based upon the fact that people instinctively trust a physician with their confidence, their hopes, their lives?

Is there anything more wholesomely humbling than to live in the presence of scientific advances which can bring comfort and relief to human beings in pain and suffering — if we administer wisely and well? Anything more wholesomely humbling than to keep in touch with the edge of the known where it seems to touch the unknowable — some segment of which may become known tomorrow?

Emphasizing the positive in medicine — the opportunity to serve, and achieve and contribute — without regard to the hardships, the complications, the criticisms — is something to which we must return, and return fast if the doctor shortage and the resulting national health and well being is to be protected.

Social Security Taxes For Farmers and Ranchers

Social Security rules also apply to farmers and ranchers. According to Virgil W. Newman of Internal Revenue Service, Brownwood, farm and ranch employers must report and pay Social Security taxes on cash wages paid to each farm and ranch worker whose total wages amounts to $150 a year, or if the worker performs agricultural services on 20 or more days and receives cash wages on a time basis.

Mr. Newman said that Internal Revenue has two free booklets for farmers, ranchers and their employees: Circular A, or the more comprehensive Farmers' Tax Guide, 1960 edition. Although self-help by taxpayers is stressed again this year by Uncle Sam's collection agency, the Internal Revenue phone number is 2-7639, Brownwood. Special taxpayer assistance day for especially knotty problems is every Monday from 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. The IRS office is located at Room 611, Citizens Natl. Bank Bldg., Brownwood.

City Appearance Key to Future

"A Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up campaign not only makes present living more pleasant but it is a key to a more profitable future." Ozro Eubank, President of the Chamber of Commerce said today at the campaign kick off.

"As our community improves in appearance, health hazards are reduced, and fire losses go down, it will be apparent to all that our citizens are progressive and civic minded.

"There will be an increase in economic activity — tourists will be attracted to our beauty and cleanliness and will stop in Santa Anna for lunch or a day or two. And the money they spend during their stay will be another source of income for the community.

"As you probably know," Mr. Eubank, continued, "when industrial plants consider expansion of existing equipment or new sites, a specially trained staff is sent to examine various communities. A clean, attractive city or town rates high because it is apparent that its citizens are interested in better living. And this attracts a fine type of employee who wants to raise his children in a healthy environment.

"Needless to say, we want new enterprise in Santa Anna. The Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up campaign is a specific road toward making our hopes a reality.

"It's good business for every one of us and an investment for the future — therefore, I urge each one to support the current Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up campaign," Mr. Eubank concluded.

"Get the Name Right"

"We don't much care what you call us as long as you get the name of our grocery correct on checks and money orders," Virgil W. Newman of the Brownwood Internal Revenue Service office says with a smile.

In conversation the hard working men and women of the IRS are used to hearing other taxpayers refer to their organization as "Internal Revenue," "Eternal Revenue" and some terms that wouldn't go through the mails.

However, Mr. Newman says, well appreciated if checks and money orders in payment of Federal income tax are made payable to Internal Revenue Service.

This is the seventh year that Uncle Sam's collection agency has used that official name, he added.

State Capital NEWS

Austin, Tex. — Democratic County Executive Committees will decide on March 14 whether to change the old custom of holding rural precinct conventions in the daytime.

New election law passed last year has already doomed a number of Texas political traditions — like announcing when the dogwood comes out and serving watermelon at election rallies.

Primaries are now held the first weeks of May and June, instead of the last weeks of July and August, as before.

Another change is that a person who wishes to participate in a Democratic precinct convention must already have voted in the Democratic primary held the same day in order to have a poll tax stamped "Democratic."

City precincts won't be affected. There, customarily, the precinct conventions have been held after the polls close at 7 p. m.

In rural areas conventions usually have been held in the afternoon. This enabled people to come in, attend the convention, vote, buy their groceries, all in one trip, and get home in time to do the milking.

Now there is the necessity of giving everyone time to vote before the convention can be held. State Democratic Chairman J. E. Connally has suggested county committees give thought to holding rural precinct conventions later — possibly not until after the polls close at 7 p. m.

LEGISLATIVE RACES

With 120 of the 150 House members making a bid for reelection, each of the two leading candidates for Speaker claims that half or more of these probable returnees is pledged to him.

Most active in the speaker's race are Reps. Wade Spillman of McAllen and James Turman of Gober. Some are predicting the race may be as long and hard as the last one between Waggoner Carr and Joe Burckett.

Thirty House members are either retiring from public life (including Burckett) or seeking another office (including Carr). Of the 120 who are running again for the House, 32 have opponents. This means there'll definitely be no decision on the speaker's race until after the primaries.

Neither Turman nor Spillman has an opponent for his House seat.

Of the 16 senators up for reelection, all are running again and ten have opponents.

Unless there should be an unusual number of "upsets," legislative turnover should be about the same or less than usual. "Normal" replacement is about one-third of the House (or 50 members) and a very small number of senators, usually not more than two or three.

TROJAN HORSE

Consideration of a federal aid to education bill in Washington has Texans reacting with mixed emotions.

It also adds new urgency to the efforts of those who want to see Texans shoulder school improvement responsibility through passage of the Hale-Aikin program.

Gov. Price Daniel said Texans should accept U. S. Senate passage of the federal aid bill as "fair warning" that Congress will step in if states don't take the necessary action.

If the states "let in federal money, they will let in federal control of schools, the governor declared. He called "impossible" the idea of "federal money without strings attached."

Under the aid bill pending in Congress, Texas would receive $62,000,000 largest share of any state, from a $1,833,000,000 appropriation. Thus far, very few Texas school districts have refused to take the federal aid now available — for science teaching equipment, school lunches, etc.

STICK WITH GUNS

State Board of Insurance has announced five minor changes in the safe driving insurance plan, but in broad effort, the plan remains the same. Board stuck to its guns despite a barrage of criticism.

Main change is that an insurance company cannot deny liability on a policy if false or inaccurate information is given by the policy holder. For instance, a person taking "out" a policy might intentionally or unintentionally fail to tell the insurance company how many accidents or traffic violations were on his driving record.

However, the company would be entitled to collect the higher premiums or damages from fraud if the policy holder had not admitted to his true driving record.

Premiums go up in proportion to the number of accidents and PROSPECTS FOR A DAM on the Rio Grande, near Del Rio, advanced last week with three days of hearings on my bill to authorize the project. The Diablo, or Amistad, dam would be built just below the confluence of the Devils river and the Rio Grande.

Popular interest in the project was evidenced by 17 witnesses from the Del Rio area, plus a greater number from Eagle Pass, Laredo and the lower valley.

Citing the loss of many lives (around 200) in the 1954 flood, and the high annual flood damage losses on the river, I urged the committee to approve the conclusion of negotiations with Mexico which would lead to early construction. My bill was strongly endorsed by President Eisenhower in his annual budget message to Congress last month.

FLEET ADMIRAL Chester W. Nimitz is being honored in San Francisco on February 24, on the occasion of his 75th birthday according to an invitation just received from Mayor George Christopher. It will be one of the big events of the year on the West Coast. Even though not present, thousands of Texans, particularly in the Fredericksburg-Kerrville area, will be saying "Happy Birthday" to a great Texan and a great American. And many happy returns!

NEW PARTY LEADER

Albert B. Fry, Houston oilman, shipbuilder and rancher, succeeds Jack Porter of Houston as Texas Texas Republican national committeeman.

Porter came to power in the party in 1952 as an Eisenhower supporter when the "Old Guard" supporters of the late Sen. Robert Taft were swept aside. Porter stepped down this year because of his health.

Besides electing Ray, the GOP State Committee promised to field a challenger to Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson in the general election next fall. Johnson has no Democratic opponent for his senate post.

Republicans will nominate their candidates at a state convention May 30.

NO LOSS FOR FLU

Not the least of the worries in schools hard hit by influenza was that the district would lose a hunk of state aid money which is based on average daily attendance.

State Board of Education, however, has worked out an emergency "epidemic formula" to help ease the problem.

In flu-stricken schools, the average attendance for the epidemic period will be adjusted to reflect the percentage difference between actual school attendance and attendance which would have been expected had there been no epidemic.

TAX-MAN SAM SEZ:

The new Form 1040W was made for wage earners who want to itemize deductions. The tax folks report some self-employed taxpayers are using the Form 1040W. These tax returns will have to be returned to the taxpayer because they don't have a report on the self-employment social security part. If you have a farm or a business, you must use the Form 1040 and a 1040F or a 1040C. The Form 1040W will serve your purpose if you have only wages and salary.

About Your HEALTH

Henry A. Hollis, M.D., Consultant of Health

What should you have on hand by way of first aid supplies and medications? There's no stock answer to the question. It depends on many things.

Family composition must be considered. Are there older people? Children? Handicapped persons? How much do family members know about the care of ill and injured? Is there a nurse in the family—or someone with advanced knowledge of first aid? The delicate tools of a craftsman are of little value in the hands of a novice.

Building a useful inventory of first aid supplies and medications calls for first casting out the old and useless accumulations in the medicine chest, the half full and labelless bottles of liquid and pills the purpose of which has long since been forgotten.

It's hazardous to use old medicines for symptoms that "sound just like Aunt Thelma had when the doctor gave her some stuff in a green bottle like this." Aside from the danger of taking the wrong medicine, even the right one may tend to lose its potency with age.

If someone in the family has diabetes, asthma, a heart condition, epilepsy or other manageable ailment, be sure to have specific instructions for their care prescribed by the family's physician. Having a physician available on call is important to every family. Children especially are bound to require a physician's services more or less frequently.

To care for the usual cuts, scratches, bruises and minor burns you'll need these items on hand: a few sterile gauze compresses, an assortment of band-aid type bandages, a couple of triangle bandages and a roll of adhesive tape.

You'll also need an antiseptic for cuts and scratches and an ointment for minor burns. To make sure you get the right type, call your doctor and ask him exactly what he recommends.

Some common table salt, some baking soda and perhaps a bottle of plain calamine lotion to soothe insect bites and minor skin allergies will supplement your home first aid supplies to where they will be adequate to handle the majority of mishaps which befall the ordinary family.

Add to the list a copy of a standard first aid textbook to refresh your memory as to the best way to proceed on the various emergencies and you're in business.

Don't forget that a medicine chest is a real challenge to most curious youngsters. The safest place for medications is locked in a box somewhere out of reach of children.

NATIONAL ELECTRICAL WEEK
FEB. 7-13, 1960

"WHADDYA MEAN ELECTRICITY WILL BE A BARGAIN IN THE '60s?"

"Look at this bill. It's higher than it was last year, isn't it?"

Yes sir—it is. But let's see why. Do you have a new appliance, perhaps? A present for your wife?

"Well, yes. I got her a dishwasher and a new automatic washer last summer."

Lucky wife. Is there anything else?

"Well, yes. We've got a new TV set, too—and I guess we've been watching it a good deal."

Yes. In other words, you've been putting more electricity to work for you, and getting more value out of it than ever before?

"You're right. I guess we have. Never looked at it that way. Why, maybe electricity is a real bargain."

No doubt about it, sir. It is.
