Predictions Say 29 to Be Killed In Traffic Accidents

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced the official prediction that 29 persons will be killed during the weekend in Labor Day holiday traffic in Texas.

Garrison said some 125 extra patrolmen from the department's other uniformed services will join the regular Highway Patrol force in attempting to halt traffic law violations — which figure in most fatal accidents.

"We hope the driving public will help this Labor Day weekend to prove that we have overestimated the number of traffic fatalities that will occur in the three-day period," he said.

"Department patrolmen and all other law enforcement officers in our state will do everything possible to make the streets and highways safer by removing lawless drivers — but the statistics prove the main job is up to the individual behind the wheel."

"It is significant to note that in each of the 14 fatal accidents which occurred outside city limits last Labor Day weekend, at least one law violation was involved."

N. K. Woerner, manager of the department's statistical services, reported that excessive speed over the posted limits was involved in 10 of the 14 rural fatal accidents during the holiday last year and that drinking was involved in seven of the 14.

"Men who are interested in travel under the Army's Choose It Yourself program may see Sgt. Evans at the US Army Recruiting Station, 900 North Third, Abilene each day, Monday through Saturday, or they may call him collect at OR 2-5665, Abilene.

Army Offers Travel to New Enlistees

The US Army Recruiting Service offers travel to young men enlisting during the month of September, Sgt. Leonard M. Evans local Army Recruiter announced today.

Your travel is guaranteed under a unique new Army program called "Choose It Yourself", which allows you to choose assignment to either of two major geographical areas covering most of the Free World. Under this program you can choose to serve in the Far East where we have units in Japan, Korea, Guam and the Philippines; or you can choose Europe where personnel are stationed in Germany, France and Italy. "No matter which area you choose the Travel experience you'll gain there is bound to be exciting," the Sgt. said.

Also under this program, young men may choose to train in Infantry, Armor, Field Artillery and be assured of schooling or on the job training in any of these three vocational fields will prepare you for a position in the Army's national defense program.

This program is offered in addition to the normal enlistment programs given by the U. S. Army Recruiting Service.

Famous San Antonio Fort
Teddy Roosevelt trained his famous Rough Riders in Texas in the same fort that housed such outstanding generals as Grant, Lee, Sheridan and Hood.

It's the 3,000-acre Fort Sam Houston, the greatest Army post in the United States. It is located within the confines of San Antonio.

Old "Fort Sam" dates back to the pre-Civil-War days and still is active today. Much of the old atmosphere remains.

It's a sight to see, whether you're interested in the activities of today or yesteryear.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil King and daughters of Brownwood spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Kate Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Aldridge visited his sister, Mrs. Horace Bailey, a patient in the Hendricks Hospital in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Everett and daughters, Shelly and Sheridan, of Abilene, spent Sunday with their grandmother, Mrs. Frances Everett.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther McGary have been: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gray and Ida of Stanton, Miss Elizabeth Smith of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Campbell and children and Mrs. Zada Dixon, all of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Montgomery and sons of Sweetwater, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and son of Lovington, N. M. and Larry Smith of Cross Cut.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harris visited during the weekend with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Medlin, and family in Odessa.

Dove Season Now Open

Dove season in the North Zone, which includes Coleman County, opens at 12 noon Thursday, September 1 and continues through October 30, both days included. The daily bag limit for mourning doves is 15 per day, not to exceed 30 in possession. The Texas Game Commission increased the bag limit for this year and also increased the number of days for shooting.

Shooting hours in this area are from 12 noon to sunset each day. All shotguns must be permanently plugged to three-shell capacity and must not be larger than 10 gauge. Hunting doves with files is prohibited.

There seems to be an exceptionally large crop of doves through this area again this year. However, there are still many of them nesting and hunters are urged not to shoot into the nests or disturb those on their nests.

There is a number of game reserves in this area and no hunting is permitted in them. Hunters should get permission from land owners to hunt on their property before hunting.

Annual Calf Tour Successful Event

The annual Coleman County 4-H and FFA Beef Calf Tour, held on Thursday of last week, proved to be a big success. Between 60 and 65 club calf supporters made the entire tour, viewing a total of 25 fat steers and one Hereford heifer.

Everyone on the tour participated in judging two classes of young bulls at the Gill Ranch. Winners in the Junior Division were Del Davis of Abilene and Charles Alcorn of Talpa. J. A. Baucom of Coleman won the Senior Division. Prizes were awarded by Jim and Faye Gill.

After everyone inspected the club calves and participated in a weight judging contest, Patsy Morris, Zeno and Jo Hemphill served the visitors a fine barbecue lunch.

Four stops were made during the afternoon tour, ending at Billy Riley's. Showmanship Judges, C. T. McClatchey of Trickham, Lynn Steakley and Bill Sneed of Coleman, decided Jack B. Horne would receive the first place award. Becky and Jo Pat Hemphill received the second place award.

Prizes for both the weight guessing contest and Showmanship were furnished by the Coleman County Electric Cooperative and were presented by Don Hart.

Cross Plains will play at Rising Star on Saturday night, Sept. 24, rather than on Sept. 30 as announced. Cross Plains will have an open date on Sept. 30th.

Carl Autrey Car Stolen

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Autrey spent most of last week in New Mexico visiting relatives. They returned home about 8:30 p. m. Monday. They went in their pickup truck and left their car, a 1957 Buick at their home near the overpass in the west part of town.

Upon their return, they discovered the car was gone. Autrey called Deputy Sheriff M. R. Simmons, and upon investigation, it was found that who ever took the car had broken in the front door of his home and took the car keys off a dresser in the house.

Just what day the car was taken has not been determined. It was thought the car was in the garage Saturday morning, but this was not for certain.

Apparently nothing else in the house was missing. Very little damage was done to the door, as the Autreys entered the house through the front door and did not realize it had been broken into.

The Sheriff's Department put out a description of the car, but at last report, had found no trace of the car.

Savings Bond Sales Reach 65.7% of Goal

Sales in Texas for July were $12,204,662 which was 6% greater than the same period in 1959.

"A part of every American's savings should be invested in Savings Bonds, to provide for his future and to add strength to the National economy," stated Mr. Bowen, County Chairman.

Alfred Williams Brings First Bale to Town

Alfred Williams brought the first bale of 1960 cotton to Santa Anna Monday afternoon. It was baled by the Santa Anna Co-op Gin about 2:00 p. m. The baled bale weighed 543 pounds and was ginned in a total of 2,150 pounds of picked cotton.

Williams said the cotton was gathered from about 7 acres of land. He estimated his 32 acres of cotton would make about 1,000 bales to the acre. The land this particular bale was picked from was planted about May 12. His farm is northeast of Santa Anna.

W. Ford Barnes, manager of the Community Chamber of Commerce, is now in the process of making up the annual premium for the First Bale. It may not be completed in time for publication this week.

Williams said this was an extra good bale of cotton, and was extra clean. He estimated the regular market price would be about 30 to 31 cents per pound. It will be purchased by the Co-op Gin for 40 cents per pound, as a part of the annual premium.

Williams said he had another bale open now, but was waiting until after next week to begin regular picking. The crop should be opened good by that time.

The annual PTA Fun Carnival is scheduled to be held the latter part of September, and the date will be set at this meeting.

The Fall school term will get underway Tuesday, Sept. 6 in Santa Anna. Supt. Cullen N. Perry said a general assembly will be held in the high school auditorium beginning at 8:30 a. m. All students from both schools should be present and parents are especially invited. All school buses will make the regular runs that begin at the close of school this morning.

Immediately following the general assembly, all high school students will go immediately to the preparatory classes. Elementary school students will go to their home rooms for registration. The high school registration was completed on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Mr. Perry said the lunchroom would begin operation on Thursday. A large new oven has been installed in the lunchroom, and will be used this year for baking bread. The superintendent said they should have hot bread for every meal served during the school year.

During the summer months, a number of improvements have been made to the school buildings. Most of the wood floors have been sanded and varnished, and considerable other painting has been done. The Homemaking girls redecorated their rest rooms in the high school and added some mirrors and clothes racks.

Mr. Perry said the typing and bookkeeping rooms would be changed this year in order to give better working facilities for both groups.

All the faculty is complete and ready for the school term to begin.

Livestock Producers Should Prepare For Winter

College Station — This is the traditional season of "dog days" — it is too hot to work and too dry to fish. Farmers and ranchers, however, cannot afford to be dull and lazy during these late summer days. Winter is not very far away, and now is the time to make preparations for carrying the livestock until next spring. B. J. Ragsdale and G. O. Hoffman, extension range specialists, have offered a few suggestions that will help the livestock owner prepare for the months ahead.

Rangelands needing an increase in the number of better perennial forage grasses should be deferred until the end of the growing season, the specialists say. This deferment will insure seed production and natural vegetation as well as increasing the vigor of existing plants. Vegetation produced before frost will furnish winter forage as insurance against a hard winter.

Grain and hay stubble fields may be utilized to facilitate deferment of native rangeland. This is also a good time to plan for temporary winter pastures to supplement native range. The specialists also recommend an intensive fall livestock selection program to cull low production and lessen grazing pressure. Late summer is a good time to secure hay and grain for winter supplemental feeds, Ragsdale and Hoffman continue.

Hot, dry weather during August and September will greatly increase fire danger, and the specialists warn that range fire prevention and control campaigns should be continued.

The specialists conclude by saying that now is the time to plan for fall harvesting of seed from tall perennial grasses. After all of these things have been done, the extra labor can be used for noxious plant control.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goodgion attended services at the Evangelical Methodist Church in Abilene Sunday morning and later visited with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Yates.

Mrs. John Campbell has returned home after a visit with Mrs. Virgie Loudermilk.

A WORD OF WARNING TO THOSE TEMPTED TO QUIT SCHOOL

MANY of the high school students of Santa Anna and Coleman County obtained jobs when school closed last spring. They enjoyed the sense of responsibility which those jobs provided; and they found that the money earned allowed them to buy luxuries which their families could not provide.

UNFORTUNATELY, this experience has in the past caused some young people to decide against going back to school. Those who do not think farther ahead than tomorrow or next week have decided that continuing to work will give them the money for cars and entertainment which, at the moment, seems most important.

BUT the boy or girl who does quit school will regret it later... when it is too late to do anything about it. A little extra education often makes the difference between success and mediocrity. The world today wants, and needs, trained and educated men and women. Go back to school — go on through college. Prepare yourself to take your place — in the world of today — tomorrow!

Film Available on New Artificial Respiration

By Vern Sanford

Texas Press Association News and by far the best method of life saving in case of drownings, heart attacks, stroke or suffocation — is mouth-to-mouth respiration.

We've just seen a short film on the subject which every one in the state should view. It tells how, in a graphic way, to apply this greatly improved method of artificial respiration.

We can't explain it as clearly as the film portrays, but we'd like to relay this message to you and the time comes when you too can view the picture.

First step is to free the victim's mouth of any obstructions. Food, if the victim is choking, can be dislodged by the person on his back, sit behind him, tilt the head far back, lift the chin high, grasp the nose to close it tightly, then take a deep breath, blowing enough air into his own lungs, so sure that he has air in his lungs, take a mouthful of air, hold it for you and from your lungs into his.

Then, just as you open your mouth, take another deep breath, open the victim's mouth wide and again force all the air you can into his lungs.

Keep his nose closed all the time you are blowing into his lungs.

Repeat the resuscitation procedure until you see the first signs of life returning.

Learn air gets into the victim's stomach, press gently on his stomach to force the air out.

Here's hoping that this film will be shown before every youth men's organization in Texas, in the youth camps, before every civic group, women's club, the boy scouts, girl scouts, school groups everywhere, including the Red Cross, Junior Red Cross and the military.

Many a life lost from drowning, suffocation and the like, would have been saved had knowledge of this revival process been widely known.

There is one important fact about this method of revival — the only equipment needed to do the job is always with you, it's you.

The film, entitled "That They May Live," is available for any and all gatherings, free of charge, from the film library of the State Department of Health, 100 West 49th Street, Austin, Texas. The telephone number is GL 3-6631. If you want to make an LD call, ask for the division of health education.

Whether you're an outdoorsman, or an indoorsman for that matter, you need to view this film. You need to learn this method — for your own good and your family's good, if for no other reason.

While deaths by accidents outdoors — on our lakes and streams and our hunting grounds — are many, fatal accidents in the home occur even more frequently. So, whoever you are, wherever you are, there is a good possibility that you or those dear to you may find this lifesaving method useful. We urge you to re-read, again and again, the simple procedure outlined above, learn the steps by heart, so that you can perform them quickly. Then, if at all possible, see the film!

It was our good fortune to witness the showing at the recent Austin meeting of the Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas. It received a tremendous ovation. Everyone agreed that it should be circulated throughout the length and breadth of Texas.

Regardless of your station in life, it is important that you have knowledge of the methods of performing artificial respiration. In fact, your own life may some-day be in the hands of someone you taught how to do an efficient job of artificial respiration.

We repeat, at your first opportunity, see the film "That They May Live."

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carthers of Pasadena spent the weekend with her father, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hill and with her sister, Mrs. Kate Holmes.

This suit.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the mandates hereof, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Coleman, Texas, this the 29th day of August A. D. 1960.

Attest: G. A. HENSLEY, Clerk, 119th District Court Coleman County, Texas

About Your Health

School for most Texas children begins today or next, Tuesday. Back-to-school means more than pencils, paper and new-shedding blue jeans.

The September issue of the Texas Health Bulletin, a monthly publication of the Texas State Department of Health, is devoted to matters of school health.

All articles in the Bulletin were written by persons with wide experience in their respective fields, including school nurses, environmental engineers, teachers and a physician.

There are many hints that will come in handy for parents as well as school personnel.

A common problem is estimating the ideal weight for a child. The solution suggested in the September Bulletin says multiply the child's age in years by seven, and add one-half pound each month past that year.

This will hold true from ages 2 through 12. For example, boys and girls who are eight years and eight months old will average close to 60 pounds. Eight times seven is 56, add a half-pound for each of eight months and it totals 60 pounds.

Of course there is no set rule that a child has to weigh 60 pounds at that age because build and current rate-of-growth must be considered.

All information which pertains to the health or growth of a student should be kept in a permanent record all through school.

Items such as immunizations, sickness, sight or hearing handicaps as well as teacher observation reports should be included.

The importance of teacher observation of children for physical disorders and handicaps should be a routine procedure, because in addition to catching a physical disorder before it becomes serious, the teachers is often able to uncover emotional difficulties at home.

How school environment affects the learning activity of school children as well as their health is discussed in a key article.

Lighting, campus grounds, toilet facilities, heating, cafeteria cleanliness — all are carefully scrutinized by highly trained inspectors.

Indeed, school health is more than a few shots in elementary school — it is the consideration of the whole child all the way through school. (A weekly feature from Public Health Education Division, State Health Department.)

Civil Service Wants Student Trainees Now

The U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced that applications are now being accepted for Student Trainee positions from students enrolled in the 1960-61 school year.

Student Trainee positions, paying from $67 to $77 a week, offer high school seniors and college students an opportunity to combine their college study with training on the job in one of two types of programs. In the vacation work-study program, students attend college during the entire scholastic year and work in a Federal agency during the vacation periods. In cooperative work-study programs, students alternate their college study and work periods during the entire year. Written tests for Student Trainee jobs are given each month.

Jobs to be filled in the Washington, D. C. area, are in such fields as engineering, physical science, agriculture, accounting, statistics, and other technical fields. Further information is given in civil service announcement No. 205 Revised, Information about Student Trainee positions with the National Park Service at various locations throughout the United States is given in Announcement No. 239 B. Closing date for acceptance of applications for the Park Service is March 13, 1961.

Civil Service announcements and application forms may be obtained from college placement offices, many post offices throughout the country and the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

Adults Urged To Protect School Children

With more than 2,250,000 children attending Texas schools this September, motorists were being urged to adjust their driving habits accordingly by J. O. Musick, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association.
"Give a break to our youngsters when hearing a school," he urged.
"It is very appropriate for us to pause at this time of the year when children begin their training to prepare themselves for life, that we prepare ourselves through better driving habits to make it possible for them to live," Musick said.
Almost 200,000 youngsters full of anxiety will be going to school for the first time and will be a particular hazard from a safety standpoint. Although there is a tendency to think in terms of youngsters entering school for the first time, each age level has its particular safety hazards.
"While we have 200,000 starting, there is another 115,000 driving age. Congestion around Junior High Schools and High Schools is presenting greater traffic hazards each year," Musick pointed out.

Elementary schools will show a total enrollment of approximately 1,598,000. Children on bicycles present a particular hazard around these schools.
Parents were urged not to send children to school without going over basic safety precautions such as cross streets only at intersections and on direction of the Safety Patrol, ride bicycles on the right hand side of the road and move in the same manner direction as automobiles, use hand signals when riding bicycles, walk facing (or on the left hand side) traffic; and above all else, "Don't turn your youngster loose behind a ton of steel and bolts unless you can depend on him to obey traffic laws, exercise reasonable judgment and has in his possession a valid driver's license," Musick cautioned.
While parents are cautioning children about traffic problems, they owe it to the children to examine their own driving habits. "One of the best safety devices we know of is a child who watches the speedometer while his parents drive," Musick declared. "Whenever you have a child in the car with you, drive as if you were teaching him to drive — because you are," he said.

NEVER leave an infant at home alone regardless of the weather, "Far too often we hear of cases where a mother doesn't want to take a small child out in rainy weather and thinks it will only take five minutes to run over to school and back," Musick said. The result too often is that mother gets tied up in a traffic jam at school and gets home 15 to 20 minutes later to find the home ablaze.
School is a thrilling experience of learning for children. "Let's help children learn the thrill of finding out that adults care for them — and are willing to protect them through safety," he said.

Today's MEDITATION

from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Read John 16:29-33.
In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world. (John 16:33.)

Not all the early Christian martyrs were sent to the stake or thrown to the lions. W. E. Sangster, of England, reminds us: Some were condemned to the mines of Numidia, now known family, also of Houston. Mrs. Wimpy Watson and Mrs. Earl Cozart visited Mrs. Gardainer Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Sammie Shields was in Brownwood attending church services Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Turney and children of Santa Anna visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Turney Monday night.

Linda Sue Rutherford visited Cheryl Fitzpatrick Thursday afternoon.

as Algeria. They were made to row their own galleys to North Africa, then trek through the scorching mountains to the mines.

On arrival, their chains were shortened so that never again could they stand upright. They were branded with irons. Given a lamp and a mallet, they were whipped underground, never to return.

Many wrote messages on the walls of the mines — prayers, names of friends. One word appears again and again, vita! — life! They had it, even there under such appalling conditions! Their tribulation could not rob them of their joy and victory in Christ Jesus.

PRAYER:
Gracious God, our heavenly Father, with whom there is neither near nor far, but one eternal presence, we thank Thee that Thou art with us, wherever we are. Grant us in all things the joy and victory which come through knowing Christ Jesus as Saviour and Lord. In His name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
"This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith."
