To carry out this responsibility the Division has duties that are many and varied in addition to being statewide.

The philosophy guiding the inspection of nursing homes is one of copperation between home and agency. Seldom is legal action necessary.

For instance during the last quarter — June, July and August - the Division issued 20 original licenses covering new op erations; issued four provisional licenses; and renewed 163 licen-

During the same period 35 lecenses were cancelled. Only in two instances was it necessary to file complaints against persons found to be operating in violation of the law.

The primary reason for license cancellation was that buildings currently in use were sub-standard and the licensee voluntarily went out of business.

Some have already re-located in remodeled buildings, and in two cases new homes have been

> However, 170 licensed homes are located in 87 countles without the services of a recognized full-time local health depart: ment. This means the Division field staff must assume primary responsibility for keeping these 170 licensed homes under routine supervision.

> In addition the Division receives dally requests for the inspection of potential facilities and for the investigation of illegally operated homes.

> The Division is also responsibile for processing and issuing emergency ambulance permits (A weekly feature from the Division of Public Health Education, Texas State Department of Health.)

TAX-MAN SAM SEZ:

The Internal Revenue Service still has several thousand refund Fair Saturday. checks that belong to North Texans. Every year a lot of taxpayers fail to write plain enough for the tax folks to read. Then, the electronic machines fail to spell some taxpayers' name right on their refund check. Due to several causes the Internal Revenue Service ends up with quite a few thousand rework hard at trying to find the taxpayer's correct name and address, but a lot of folks also address, but a lot of folks also add to the confusion by moving ball game in Brownwood Saturand not telling Internal Revenue day night. of their new address. If you were due a refund check this year, if you have not received your refund check yet, if you have not been notified that your return is being given a pre- refund audit, you should write to Internal Revenue. You may be one of the several thousand who was in Abilene Saturday and may be pleasantly surprised by participated in the Band Day having a refund check forward- parade in the afternoon and in ed to them.
