Two youths, apprehended near Cross Plains Thursday of last week, admitted breaking the glass from the front door of the Elkins Service Station here late Wednesday night and taking some money and other items. They also admitted taking a tire and wheel from Page Mays' car.

Juniors Win Over Goldthwaite Tuesday Night

The Junior Mountaineers won their first game this season Tuesday night, when they scored two TDs and one extra point, to win by a score of 14-0. One TD and the extra point was made in the second period, the other TD was made in the third period. Both clubs had one TD called back because of an infraction of the rules.

Coach A. D. Donham said the teams were evenly matched in weight and size. The local boys looked much improved over what they had in their three previous encounters.

TWO GAMES NEXT

Tuesday night of next week, the Juniors will play two games on the local field. Blanket will come here. Coach Donham said they would play a first game at 7:00 p. m. and the 6th Graders from both schools will participate. Most of the boys will weigh less than 100 pounds, although both teams will have one or two boys over that weight. The regular scheduled game will be played immediately following the "B" team game. It will get underway about 7:30 p. m.

Mountaineers To Host Bangs Dragons Here Friday Night

The Mountaineers will be the favorites when they engage the Bangs Dragons on the local field Friday evening, beginning at 8:00 p. m. This Homecoming encounter should be one of the better games of the season.

After opening the season with impressive wins over Goldthwaite and Rising Star, the Mountaineers suffered two big losses to Bronte and Hamilton. They should be ready to bounce back in the win column Friday night.

Depending on the weather conditions, the largest crowd of the season is expected to be present.

The Dragons opened the season with a 36-24 win over Cherokee, then the following week were upset by Rising Star 6-8. The next week Early took them

Texans for Nixon And Lodge Form Organization

Austin — Texas Democrats for Nixon and Lodge opened state headquarters here this week with Former Governor Allan Shivers as chairman.

Emphasizing the vast differences between the National Democratic platform and the state platform, Shivers said he does not believe that the Los Angeles document is in Texas' best interests.

"As I said in 1952," Shivers remarked, "when it comes to deciding between a party label and what's good for our people, I will vote for Texas."

The former governor reported that response to his Dallas television broadcast last week has been very great and enthusiastic, and he has received thousands of letters, telephone calls and telegrams from citizens endorsing his views.

Texas Democrats for Nixon and Lodge will conduct a vigorous campaign, Shivers said, promising that he will make many speeches and personal appearances throughout the state and in some other states.

Calling for the help of all who are interested, Shivers repeated from his television speech the thought that "the name under which you work and vote is not important. We will gladly work with Volunteers for Nixon, Texans for Nixon, Citizens for Nixon. We are all of these, and more."

"We are Americans, exercising our right to stand for and vote for the leaders of our choice. Remember — in spite of specious arguments, in spite of jibes and threats and synthetic appeals to 'party loyalty' — you have that right."

"You have that responsibility. You have that high and solemn duty."

False Income Tax Returns Send Man to Prison

Federal Judge Joe W. Sheely sentenced J. Bradshaw Willingham of Tyler recently to serve one year each on the first 13 counts of a 21 count indictment.

Judge Sheely gave Willingham two years each on 8 counts to run consecutively to the other sentence, suspended him. Willingham had plead guilty to the 21 count indictment against him in Federal District Court in Tyler, Texas, on September 14, 1960. The indictment was for preparing false and fraudulent income tax returns, as well as for himself, by claiming false dependents.

Willingham who is about 56 years old has resided in Athens and Henderson County almost all his life. He was formerly associated with the office of the Henderson County Tax Assessor and Collector.

Willingham was instructed to report October 21 to begin serving the one year sentence for the first 13 counts which run consecutively. Probation on the last 8 counts will start when the sentence has been served on the first 13 counts.

Legion to Meet Thursday Night

The Jack Laughlin Post No. 182 American Legion, will meet in the Library Building Thursday evening, October 6, at 7:30 o'clock.

Primary business for the evening will be the election of officers for the 1960-61 term. All members are urged to be present and visitors are invited.

Mountaineers To Host Bangs Dragons Here Friday Night

0-14 and after resting a week, the Dragons lost their first conference game last week to Menard, in a 6-8 upset victory.

The only paper figures that can be compared is the Bangs-Rising Star and the Santa Anna-Rising Star games. The Wildcats upset the Dragons 8-6, then the following week the Mountaineers took the Wildcats to the tune of 26-8. That would tend to make the Mountaineers about a 4 TD favorite, but the Mountaineers and Dragons have been near rivals for many years and paper statistics do not work in their case. The Dragons are going to be out to take this Homecoming Classic, and the Mountaineers are going to have to play every down with the team spirit they showed in the first two games, to come out with the better score.

433 Pay Fines For Fishing Without Permit

Austin — Wardens will begin another crackdown on persons who fail to buy their hunting and fishing licenses, according to the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. New licenses were required after Sept. 1.

Last month 433 persons paid fines for failure to have fishing licenses, according to the monthly report of the law enforcement division. There were 548 arrests for the month, with fines and costs amounting to $9,075.42. Five persons paid fines for "telephoning" for fish. This is the illegal use of electrical devices in shocking fish.

Licenses were revoked on a dozen violators, including those who "telephoned" the fish. Others who killed deer out of season also got their licenses revoked.

"There is little excuse for a person to get caught without a hunting or fishing license," the director said. "Everyone knows such a license is required. They think they can get by without one, and then get caught."

State Capitol NEWS

Austin — Neither Texas civilians nor the armed forces can afford the losses incurred through traffic accidents involving military personnel in the state.

On this note, the Texas Military-Civilian Traffic Safety Council was formed in Austin with a goal of reducing the accidents.

About 200 persons, civilian and military, attended the Council's first meeting, called at the behest of Gov. Price Daniel. Servicemen have more auto accidents than any other population group in Texas, said Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety.

Last year servicemen drivers were involved in 103 fatal accidents in which 130 persons were killed.

A great many of the servicemen in Texas are in the 18 to 25-year-old age bracket, said Gen. Edward T. Williams, Fourth Army commander. People in this age bracket generally are the most inclined to have auto accidents.

Gen. Williams urged vigorous enforcement of traffic regulations so that the driver knows he will be caught and punished if he breaks the law.

Brad Smith, director of the Governor's Highway Safety Commission, outlined the five-point program recommended by the governor to improve highway safety.

1. Driver education for all high school students.

2. A law to permit chemical tests to determine if a driver is intoxicated.

3. At least 200 additional highway patrolmen.

4. Revision of the drivers' license law.

5. A system of traffic courts.

WATER PROGRAM STUDIED

Texas' 7-man Water Development Board is considering whether to ask the next Legislature to expand and liberalize its program of lending financial aid to local water projects.

Decision is to be made at the Board's Oct. 28 meeting.

Board presently has authority to issue $100,000,000 in bonds and use the money to make loans to local governments for water conservation projects. Loans are limited to one-third the cost of the project and cannot be more than $5,000,000 for any one project.

Under study is whether to ask the Legislature to step up the program by authorizing the Board to lend as much as $15,000,000 per project and to issue another $100,000,000 in bonds to purchase water storage space in federal reservoirs.

When the Board was created, the law provided that another $100,000,000 in bonds could be authorized by a two-thirds vote of the Legislature.

DANIEL HONORED

Governor Daniel is the newly-elected chairman of the 46-state Southern Governors Conference.

He is the second Texan in a decade to head the group. Former Gov. Allan Shivers was chairman in 1951-52.

Conferences are devoted to the study of problems which the member states have in common. This year the protection of home industries against ruinous competition from imports has been a prime issue.

Governor Daniel said he felt much could be accomplished by the conferring governors, "if we stand together."

HURRY-UP HOSPITALS

With a long, long waiting list of mentally retarded patients, the State Hospital Board is studying short cuts toward providing housing for them.

A contractor-member of the Board presented drawings of one possible approach — semi-permanent one-story, concrete block cottages. They would provide for 40 persons, cost $38,000 apiece and could be ready for occupancy in 20 months.

More than 1,000 children are now on the state homes' waiting list.

Board has authorized getting an estimate of the cost of putting an automatic sprinkling system in the Conference Home in Austin, now used for mental patients. Home has been called a fire trap, but if it could be made safe, the cost of replacing it could be postponed.

Also voted by the Board was a policy of preventing tuberculosis patients, by force if necessary, from leaving state hospitals until they are well enough not to infect other people.

A recent attorney general's ruling held that the hospital system does have authority to make TB patients stay in the hospital until they are no longer contagious.

EDUCATION SUPPORT SOUGHT

Texans will be penny wise and pound foolish if they try to avoid the cost of establishing a top-notch system of higher education.

This was the theme at an Austin meeting of the members of governing boards of state colleges and universities. A series of regional meetings are planned during October and November to rally public support for better appropriations for state colleges.

Regrettably, the regents pegged Texas state-supported colleges as less than best. A survey was cited showing that 65 percent of the top jobs in Texas industry are held by graduates of out-of-state colleges. Texas is training the hired hands, other states are training the bosses, said Reagan Houston III of San Antonio.

Texans will pay, said John Newton of Beaumont, whether they ante up for good education or not. In an age of electronics, automation and exotic fuels, good educational and research facilities are a prime attraction for new industries, said Newton.

"Cost of losing major opportunities for growth will be at least as great as the cost of providing what we really need," he said.

PRISON PROBLEMS CITED

Seventy-five percent of the inmates of the Texas prison system are in "tanks" or dormitories which crowd impressionable young offenders in with hardened criminals, says the chairman of the Department of Corrections.

More housing to correct this situation is urgently needed, H. H. Coffield told an Austin audience. On the bright side, Coffield said the Texas system had pulled up from one of the worst to one of the best in the nation; in the past 10 years — a period when the prison population skyrocketed. Yet per-prisoner cost is far below the national average.

As an "ounce of prevention" Coffield urged citizen support of such local agencies as churches, Scouts and Salvation Army.

Farmers Can Improve Yields By Selecting Better Seed

Waco — "Wheat farmers can take two simple steps to improve their yield of this important cash crop," says R. J. Hodges, Extension Service Agronomist. "First, they can plant the recommended variety. Secondly, they should plant high quality seed of the recommended variety. Certified and Registered Seed assure high quality planting seed."

Hodges explained that the recommended varieties make more net profits, since they have the best baking qualities and have produced highest yields in experiment station tests. They also have advantages as early maturity.

A new variety, Tassara, recently released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has the qualities wheat farmers are looking for, Hodges said.

"It shows high test weight, high yielding ability, strong straw and outstanding baking quality. And it is only slightly later than the present early maturing varieties. Millers will like its high test weight, strong gluten, good flour yield, good absorption and good loaf volume," Hodges said.

We recommend that growers use certified seed of a recommended variety. However, if a farmer has clean, fertile land, can harvest without the danger of mechanical mixture, and has ideal storage conditions he may be safe in planting a few acres of certified seed each year for seed purposes," Hodges said. "It should be pointed out that all farmers do not have the conditions to grow good planting seed," cautioned Hodges.

State Fair Opens Saturday

Dallas — It'll be a big weekend in "Big D", as the State Fair of Texas opens its 16-day run Saturday, Oct. 8, with the gigantic Diamond Jubilee Exposition celebrating its 75th anniversary year.

Two of the major State Fair events get under way on the eve of the opening. "Flower Drum Song" in the Music Hall and the State Fair Horse Show featuring Arthur Godfrey will both open Friday night, Oct. 7.

The big opening day parade through downtown Dallas will take place Saturday morning and will include the riders and wagons from the first annual Shawnee Trail Drive. Following the parade, Gov. Price Daniel will snip a ribbon at the main gate to officially open the 1960 State Fair.

The Texas-Oklahoma football game, one of the nation's classic gridiron rivalries, will be played before a capacity Cotton Bowl crowd Saturday afternoon.

Arthur Godfrey will appear with his famous Palomino stallion, Goldie, at the Horse Show performances at 8 p. m. Friday and Saturday, Oct. 7 and 8, and at the 2 p. m. matinee Sunday, Oct. 9.

"Flower Drum Song", the Rodgers and Hammerstein Broadway musical hit, and "Ice Capades," the greatest show on ice, are on the top theatrical attractions of the 1960 Fair and each will have numerous performances throughout the run of the Fair.

A total of 5,137 entries will compete in the various livestock and horse show events. Premiums total more than $120,000 for the Pan-American Livestock Exposition Oct. 8-16, the Junior Livestock Show the second week and the three series of Horse Shows.

The Women's Department will display prize-winning entries of home-making skills and will present daily free fashion shows.

There'll be literally a world of exhibits, including those of sixteen foreign countries in the Texas International Trade Fair. The new 1961 model cars will be introduced and the latest electrical and gas appliances for the home will be demonstrated. The Agriculture Show will focus on "chemistry in agriculture." Museum exhibits will range from "art to zoology."

Special features for the Diamond Jubilee Exposition include the beautiful "Diamond Lagoon" with its splashing fountains and scenic illumination, the nightly torchlight parades around the fairgrounds and the daily Lagoon band concerts by the Air Force "Band of the West."

Mrs. T. L. Huggins returned Saturday from Brady, where she had spent two weeks in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mack Elliott, Sandra and Pat.

All Hunters Must Possess Tags for Deer

Austin.—If you hunt deer you must have deer tags, even though you are entitled to exemption. This is the warning of the fiscal director of the Game and Fish Commission, whose job it is to provide hunting and fishing licenses.

For persons entitled to an exemption, the license is required only if you hunt deer or turkey. The exempt license is not required for other types of game.

The following are exempt from buying a hunting license. If you hunt entirely within your own county (except for deer and turkey; if you are over 65 or under 17 years of age. If you qualify for hunting without a license under these conditions you do not need a permit.

Tags are necessary, because it is illegal to possess a deer that does not have a tag. These tags must be securely attached to the deer immediately after it is killed. Just having the tag in your pocket is insufficient. As soon as you reach your deer, the tag, properly filled in, should be attached to the antlers. If a buck, or a leg if a doe, where does are legal. It can be securely wrapped with string, or fastened with adhesive tape. And the tag should be put on so it will not become loose with handling the carcass in either the ice house or the automobile while in transit.

The deer tags are non-transferable and must bear the name of the shooter.

A "boar's nest" was the cowboy's name for a line camp. It got this name because the man who occupied the camp was more interested in his duties as a cowhand than in housekeeping.

TAX-MAN SAM SEZ:

Even though farmers have been covered by the Federal Social Security Law for several years, a lot of farmers still need additional information on paying self-employment tax. The rate of the self-employment tax is 4-1/2%. Farmers and other self-employed taxpayers are required to pay self-employment tax if their net earnings from self-employment amount to $400 or more for the year. No more than $4,800 — of — self-employed taxpayers' earnings is subject to tax. The self-employment tax is in addition to income tax. If you were self-employed you must have a social security account number. You can get an application blank, Form SS-5, at your Post Office. You use this blank to apply for your Social Security number. You pay your tax for the entire year along with your income tax return.

Pick Up Birds Is Advice From Warden Chief

Austin — "Pick up those birds," warns the director of law enforcement, Game and Fish Commission. Some hunters are careless about recovering their kills when they go into the field to hunt doves and whitewings. These people are detrimental to the honest and responsible hunters and fail to see the damage this causes to the bird crop.

The director encourages every hunter to make an honest attempt to search out any and all birds killed or wounded. He reminds shotguns that picking a stand is important to the recovery of birds. First, don't shot a bird if it will fall into heavy brush. "It's best to let the bird escape than to waste it," he said.

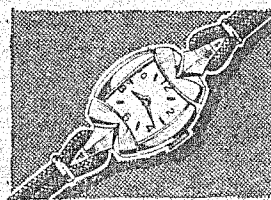

Second, if you shoot a bird, be certain to mark it even if it falls into an open field. "Get a line on something in the background and walk straight toward it keeping a sharp eye on the ground. A dove blends well with the soil in most areas."

Mountaineers Take Tough Beating From Hamilton Bulldogs Friday Night

The Hamilton Bulldogs took advantage of every opportunity, plus a much heavier and more experienced team, to whip the Santa Anna Mountaineers by a 42-12 score Friday night. The score actually represents just about the type of game it was.

The Class AA Bulldogs have not played in a close game this season. This was their third win of the year and all of them were by big scores. They won over Goldthwaite 60-6, then took Glen Rose 40-0. They lost to Gatesville 0-40, then lost to San Saba 18-36.

The Mountaineers made very little yardage on the ground and not much more in the air, while Hamilton made tremendous yardage on the ground and fair yardage by the air lanes.

The Mountaineers fumble record was not as bad as it has been being. We lost the ball two times by the fumble route and two times through intercepted passes. The Bulldogs lost the ball five times through fumbles and no times by interception. Both Mountaineer scores came after recovering fumbles, and on another occasion in the second period the Mountaineers pushed to the Hamilton 2-yard line after recovering a fumble on their 38-yard line, but could not manage the other two yards. The Bulldogs did not score as a result of the Mountaineers losing the ball on fumbles, but they did score once as a result of an intercepted pass. So the record is much improved in this department, and we hope to see it improve much more before the game this week.

The two Mountaineer scores were made in the first period and the last period. Midway in the first period Stewardson got off a beautiful punt that went past the deep men and the Bulldogs fumbled the ball and it was recovered on the Hamilton 4-yard line. It just took Harold Walker one try to make the 4 yards and the TD, but the try for extra points failed and Hamilton led 8-6. This was a 37-yard punt by Stewardson. He also got off a 46-yard and 40-yard punt in the first period.

The Bulldogs' fullback, Travis Cooby, was the main spark during the evening. He scored four TDs and made three extra points for a total of 30 of their 42 points. He broke into the clear on several occasions for good yardage, but not being a fast man, he was usually overhauled by one of the faster Mountaineers. The Bulldogs scored twice in the first period and made one extra point. They scored twice and made two extra points in the second period, then in the disastrous third period they scored three times and made only one extra point.

Only one score was made in the fourth period and that was for the Mountaineers. The final ads recovered a Bulldog fumble on the Hamilton 31-yard line. A pass from Simmons to Brown was good for 19 yards, but a clipping penalty put the Mountaineers back on the Bulldog 44-yard line. On the next play Simmons handed off to Brown and behind fair blocking Brown circled his end and broke into the clear and went 44 yards for the TD. It was a beautiful run.

Several of the local boys received minor injuries during the evening, apparently from a little extra use of hands during pile ups on tackles. Don McCullough suffered a cut lower lip and missed all the last half of the game and about half of the second period. Don said he did not know how he managed to get the injury. However, he will be back in the line-up this week.

The Bulldogs received 10 penalties for a total of 80 yards. The Mountaineers received two penalties for 20 yards.

Other Games
During the past weekend Bangs lost a close one to Menard at the Bangs Homecoming, 6-8, and it was claimed to be an upset. Bangs had been picked to win. Early trounced the Rising Star Wildcats to the tune of 28-0. Cross Plains, Clyde, Albany and Eastland all had open dates the past week.

Standings

| Team | W | L | T | Pct. | Pts | Op |

Next Games
This will be the final weekend before the conference season gets underway on October 14. Santa Anna will entertain Bangs on the local field in the Homecoming game. Albany travels to Anson, Clyde goes to Jim Ned, Eastland goes to DeLeon. Cross Plains plays hosts to Ranger, and the Early Longhorns enjoy an open date.

church work by providing growth incentives. Outstanding achievements by pastors and churches in areas of church, community and world improvement are recognized locally and at the annual BGCT convention.

More than 790 Texas Baptist town and country churches entered the program last year. Some of the churches recorded twice as many baptisms per member as the Southern Baptist Convention average. Others recorded outstanding increases in Sunday school attendance and gifts to missions.

Goals for advancement are adopted by each participating church for the three improvement areas. An inventory questionnaire furnishes suggestions for projects, such as health education, community recreation programs, citizenship training, race relations studies and world missions.

Pastors recognized in each of the denomination's 17 geographical districts receive parchment scrolls and the churches receive achievement certificates which may be displayed in prominent position.

Churches in the open country and in towns up to 2,500 population, and all Latin-American churches and missions are eligible to enter the program. About two-thirds of the denomination's 3,376 churches are classified as town and country congregations.

Records and scrapbooks of program progress are made under the direction of three special committees. The scrapbooks are the basis for judging on the associational, district and state-wide levels.

Darwin Farmer, direct missions associate for the BGCT, Dallas, is in charge of the program. He said, "the enlistment of a church's total membership in active service" is the program's primary value.

Texas Residents May Obtain Proof of Age From Census Bureau

Last year 10,610 residents of Texas turned to the U. S. Bureau of the Census for help in proving they were born. These persons were among an estimated 30 million United States residents who were without proof of age or birth. The historical records of the Census Bureau provide the only source of this information for most of these 30 million people.

Proof of age or birth is needed today to collect social security and other retirement benefits. It is needed to obtain passports. It is needed to qualify for jobs carrying certain age or citizenship requirements. It is needed for some forms of insurance.

Since 1920, the Census Bureau has provided more than three and one-half million persons with copies of their Census records on age, place of birth, citizenship, or kinship. Persons seeking such records, or facts about themselves should write to the Personal Census Service Branch, Bureau of the Census, Pittsburg, Kansas, for a Census Records Search Application Form. A fee of $3.00 is charged for a search of not more than two censuses for one person and for one copy of the information found. Additional copies cost $1.00 each. An expedited search costs $4.00. Expedited searches are usually completed within a few days while the routine $3.00 search may take up to 30 days, depending upon the backlog of requests and the ease or difficulty in locating the information.

The personal information in the records of the 1900 and later Censuses is confidential by law and may be furnished only upon the written request of the person to whom it relates or, for a proper purpose, a legal representative such as guardian or administrator of an estate. Information regarding a child who has not reached legal age may be obtained upon the written request of either parent.

Rural Fires Take Heavy Toll Each Year

Rural people of Texas have a tremendous stake in National Fire Prevention Week being observed Oct. 9-16, according to Sam Whitlow of Dallas, president of the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council.

Farm fire losses in the nation increased by 37 percent during the past ten years, with one-third of this increase occurring during 1958. Farm property losses from fire last year amounted to about $75 million.

Whitlow said 515 people died in Texas from fires last year.

"This means fire is a dangerous enemy," he added. "Fires annually cause considerable damage on Texas farms and ranches. Authorities agree the best way to cut down on fire losses is to practice a sound prevention program. The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council urgently recommends that rural homes put into practice a safety inspection program to diminish the possibility of fire damage. Let's cut down on fire losses," Whitlow urged.

The Texas Farm Bureau, through its farm safety department, is initiating a new program of providing fire extinguishers to members at cost. TFB Safety Director Joe Smetana of Waco said the new program is expected to cut down appreciably the economic loss from farm fires in Texas. "Rural areas as a rule are without adequate fire protection," the farm safety specialist said. "It is up to each farm operator to provide his own fire fighting equipment, and Fire Prevention Week would be a good time for each farmer to set up his own fire prevention program with adequate equipment."

Interested farmers are urged to contact their county Farm Bureau office or service agent to obtain the extinguishers.
