Swine Production Short Course at R'wood in March

A. D. Pettit, instructor for the Vocational Agriculture Department of the Santa Anna High School, announced this week that a short course on Swine Production would be taught in the Community Center at Rockwood beginning March 13 and continuing through March 17. The course will be taught by Mr. C. M. Laywell, swine specialist from A. & M. College.

The course will cover the complete swine program, from selection of breeding hogs to marketing the hogs. Mr. Pettit said this will be the only program of this kind in Coleman County this year and invited all swine producers to attend the 5-night course. This shortcourse represents a cooperative effort of the Texas Education Agency, The A. & M. College of Texas and the local school system, to provide needed adult education. It is designed to fill a real need in adult education and to serve to create closer bonds between the school and community.

Mr. Pettit said the course would be held at Rockwood because most of the swine producers of this area live in that community. However, all swine producers of the county are invited to attend. Anyone interested in attending is invited to contact Pettit or Supt. Cullen N. Perry at Santa Anna High School.

Pettit said Mr. Laywell would be in the area during the entire week, and during the daytime would be free to go to individual farms and discuss and help work out any problems connected with the production of swine.

FFA Week to Be Observed Feb. 18 to 25

The annual FFA Week will be observed throughout Texas beginning February 18 and continuing through Feb. 25. No special local observance is planned, other than to note the occasion in regular activities at school. Members of the Vocational Agriculture Department have been busy during the past two months, making preparations for the livestock shows and have had little time for other outside activities.

Governor Price Daniel issued an Official Memorandum designating this week for the observance, and stated that it is vital to our well-being that we train skilled farmers and ranchers to provide a plentiful supply of food products in years to come. He said the 900 active FFA Chapters with over 36,000 members and more than a quarter of a million former members, has performed a valuable service to our State by developing leadership, encouraging cooperation, promoting good citizenship, teaching sound methods of farming and inspiring patriotism among its members.

Total of $648.17 Raised During MOD Drive

A total of $648.17 is now on deposit in the Santa Anna National Bank in the March of Dimes Account, for the 1961 March of Dimes drive. This amount exceeded the expectations of all those who worked on the drive. It is an indication of what the people of Santa Anna can and will do when called upon to help their fellow man.

More money has been contributed to the Mother's March during the past week, bringing the total to $466.34. The Delta Omicron Sorority presented the March of Dimes with a check for $90.98 Tuesday morning, which is the money raised in their "Snatch Coffee" held Saturday, Feb. 4, less the expenses for items used during the day. A total of $26.35 was realized from the coin containers in a number of the local business houses and $75.50 was contributed by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Eeds and a number of organizations in town.

There may be some who were missed on the Mother's March who would like to contribute to the fund. If so, you are invited to either deposit your contribution to the March of Dimes at the bank, or leave it with Mrs. Billie Guthrie or at The News Office. Either way you will receive credit for the contribution and it will be appreciated.

Your local director has not been notified by the National Foundation as to how the money will be divided this year, but it will likely be in about the same manner it has been divided in the past several years.

Four Boys Show Lambs at San Antonio Show

John Dillingham, Collins Steward, Randy Brown and Stanley Hartman showed lambs in the annual San Antonio Livestock Show over the past weekend. Each of the boys had lambs entered in the Coleman County group of 15 that placed 4th in the show. Their teacher, A. D. Pettit, said this was very good, as there were eight places in the car-load lots.

John Dillingham showed the 5th place Hampshire lamb in the Junior Show. Collins Steward showed the 11th place South-down and the 25th place fine-wool lamb.

Palbearers were cousins: Jim Tom Vinson, J. G. Williamson and Bobbie Owen all of Fort Worth, Jimmy Berry of Lipsan, Dick Keeter of Hamilton and Joe Benton Vinson of Abilene. Your Editor... Not in Hospital

Beginning Friday morning and continuing through the first part of the week we had a number of friends drop by to see us and inquire as to how we were getting along, and ask about being in the hospital. Fortunate to say, your editor has not been in the hospital, but we appreciate the many who have dropped by to ask about us.

What actually happened, it was announced over the radio station that John CRAIG was admitted to the Coleman Hospital on Thursday of last week, and the name being similar to your editor's, it was somewhat confusing. Mostly, I think, because so few are familiar with Mr. John Craig. He is a brother of the Rev. E. L. Craig, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and makes his home with his brother.

We hope Mr. Craig's health is restored by now and that he is back in his home.

CORRECTION

In giving the names of the ladies who helped on the Mother's March last week, we accidentally left off the name of Mrs. James Ford. We regret the error on our part, but are happy to make the correction.

The work of all the ladies who helped on the drive is certainly appreciated.

Cub Scouts to Visit First Baptist Church Sunday

Most of the members of Santa Anna's two Cub Scout Dens will attend services at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning in a group. All the members attending will be in uniform and will receive special recognition during the service. The Rev. Raymond Jones, pastor, said he was not sure yet just what the recognition would consist of, but that he was glad to have the group attend the church in recognition of Boy Scout Week.

It had been planned for the Scouts to attend church services the past Sunday, but the program had been postponed because of the weather condition in the early part of last week.

Den Mothers of Pack One are Mrs. Harrell Cupps and Mrs. Lee R. Huggins. Den Mothers of Pack Two are Mrs. Fred Hicks, Mrs. Catherine Horner and Mrs. Pat Hosh.

Services for J. A. Hester Held Tues.

Everett, officiating. Burial was in the Brown Ranch Cemetery under the direction of Stevens Funeral Home of Coleman.

Hester died in the Santa Anna Hospital at 1:30 a. m. Monday. He had been admitted to the hospital on Sunday.

He was born November 2, 1889 in Williamson County and had been a resident of Coleman County since 1904. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Survivors include two brothers, Walter Hester of Santa Anna and Alvie Hester of Cisco; five sisters, Mrs. H. A. Kenley of Burney, Mrs. W. A. Southerland of Santa Anna, Mrs. H. T. Adams of Electra, Mrs. W. C. Rushing of San Antonio and Mrs. R. F. Tomlinson of Coleman. Several nieces and nephews also survive.

Blakely and Tower Lead in U. S. Senate Campaign

Senator William A. Blakely of Dallas and John G. Tower of Wichita Falls are the leading candidates in the U. S. Senate race according to a private poll conducted by the Belden Associates, well known Texas research organization.

The statewide survey announced Saturday also showed Blakely is the favorite in several possible runoff combinations.

Attorney General Will Wilson of Dallas ranked third in Belden's poll. State Senator Henry B. Gonzalez of San Antonio was fourth and Congressman Jim Wright of Fort Worth was fifth.

Blakely leaders said the poll bears out their contention that Blakely, now serving an interim term in the Senate, is "the leading Democrat in the race." They declared he will "substantially lead Republican Tower or any other candidate."

In the event of a runoff between Blakely and Tower the poll showed Blakely leading with 47 percent to Tower's 30. Twenty-three percent of the voters said they were undecided.

Wilburn Anderson Promoted to Airman Second Class

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Anderson received word a few days ago that their son, Harry Wilburn Anderson, had been promoted to Airman Second Class. Anderson is a graduate of Santa Anna High School and a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Damon Jackson.

Lt. Jerry W. Chisholm, Commander of the 11th Combat Defense Squadron, said in his letter that the Anderson's son was promoted because he has shown a desire to advance himself and has demonstrated a devotion to duty, which was recognized by the Commander.

Connie Granad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tension Granad, visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Granad at May, the first of this week.

Ray D. Morgan, 72, City Engineer for the City of Santa Anna in the late 1940's and early 1950's, died at his home in Temple early Thursday morning of last week after an extended illness. Many residents here will remember him working here during the time the first city streets were being paved right after the war.

He also helped establish the Veteran's Housing Program in Santa Anna that helped build about 20 new houses here during the same time. This was during the time Geo. M. Johnson was serving as Mayor.

Funeral services were held at 9:30 a. m. Saturday at the Hewitt Funeral Chapel. Burial was in Bellwood Memorial Park in Temple, with Masons in charge of graveside rites.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, a sister, three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Local School Tax Rate Set At $1.85 Per $100

The Board of Trustees of the Santa Anna Independent School District met in regular session Thursday night of last week and set the tax rate for the 1961-1962 school year at $1.85 per $100.00 valuation. The voters of the school district authorized the board to increase the tax rate above the $1.50 maximum in an election held in early December.

Under the authority of Article 2784e-1 (SB 116, 1955) Revised Civil Statutes, it was determined that a tax rate of $1.50 per $100 assessed valuation would be levied for local maintenance and $0.35 per $100 assessed valuation would be levied for the interest and sinking fund. The motion was made by Tony Rehm and seconded by J. W. McClellan. All members present voted for the motion.

All members of the board were present with the exception of Mrs. Catherine Markland, secretary, who was on a business trip to Mexico.

Film on Tax Troubles Ready For Showing

The Internal Revenue Service has produced a new documentary and instructive film called "The Inevitable Day." This 27-minute film is a part of the tax folks' effort to help create better taxpayer understanding of the Service's problems. The film not only gives many tax pointers but also shows some of the difficulties encountered in processing millions of tax returns and solving millions of tax problems for the individual.

This film will be shown on most TV stations but copies are also available for civic organizations and schools. You can obtain the film by writing Jim Hodges, P. O. Box 594, Dallas, Texas, giving the organization or school and the date of showing.

The Santa Anna girls completed their regular season Tuesday night by defeating the Early girls 54 to 27, to remain undefeated in district play. Actually, they have lost only one game the entire year. They have won about 24 games.

They won the district title Friday night in the local gym when they defeated the Eastland girls by about 10 points.

At the present time Goldthwaite and Mason are tied for district honor in District 9-A. The local girls will play the winner of these two teams, at a date to be announced later.

Tuesday night of next week the Santa Anna girls will entertain the girls from Class 3-A Stephenville in the local gym. The Stephenville girls also won their district title and are waiting for the bi-district game, the same as the Santa Anna girls. Unless the bi-district games are scheduled before Friday night of next week, the Santa Anna girls will return the game to Stephenville.

The Santa Anna boys brought home a victory from Early Tuesday night also. They defeated the Longhorns 45 to 31, giving the boys their third win of the season. The boys also won the 'B' team game 54 to 27.

New Hardware & Appliance Store To Open Soon

Santa Anna will soon have a new hardware and appliance store, the owners announced early this week. The store will be located in the former Shaw building, first door east of Phillips Drug. The building is now in the process of undergoing a complete remodeling and redecorating.

Owners of the store will be Mr. and Mrs. Chester Galloway and Miss Pauline Eubank. To be known as the G & E Hardware & Appliance, the owners announce they have purchased the entire stock of the Blue Hardware and will begin moving it to the new location the first part of next week. They hope to have the new store ready for a formal opening about March 1. They plan to carry a complete line of hardware, small and large household appliances along with a gift shopping center.

Hardy Blue established the Blue Racket Store in 1913 and operated it under that name until about 1925, when he changed the name to Blue Hardware Store. He and Mrs. Blue operated the store until his death a few months ago. Mrs. Blue said she decided to sell the store stock and assume management of her farm, and would not go back into business.

Jim Daniell purchased the new store location from Mrs. Albert Shaw of Christoval recently for the purpose of the establishment of the new store. The remodeling is just about complete.

State Capitol NEWS

Austin — House of Representatives, which must make the first run at putting together a money-raising program, is finding its path land-mined with fractional feuds. Hard feelings, largely because of the speaker race, has reached Hatfield-McCoy proportions between liberals and conservatives. Until new events jar the factions into realignment, action and agreement on anything of importance is unlikely.

House Revenue and Taxation Committee began gradually by passing out two unopposed bills to speed up and cut down the paper work of tax collecting. More sand will be stirred up with the February 15 hearing of a bill to levy a two-factor franchise tax on interstate corporations.

Two other committees are the focus of tax interest. Proposal for a referendum on broad-based taxes at the April 4 election was referred to State Affairs Committee. Its chairman, Rep. Bill Hollowell, of Grand Saline, has shown no great eagerness to get to it.

Constitutional Amendments Committee, however, moved with unusual speed. It passed out a measure that would allow the people to vote on whether they want a constitutional ban on state income and payroll taxes.

Among new money measures introduced are a 2 percent sales tax on items costing more than $50 and a 3 percent excise tax on utility companies selling gas, electricity, telephone or telegraph service. Both are by Rep. Tony Koriath of Sherman.

WATER BILLS HEARD
Two bills aimed at making more money available for water projects met no opposition before a House committee.

One would raise from $5,000,000 to $15,000,000 the maximum amount the State Water Development Board could lend for a water project. Another would allow the Water Board to invest funds on hand in government securities.

Both bills, which were recommended by Gov. Price Daniel's water advisory committee, were sent to subcommittee.

INVESTIGATING PANEL APPROVED

House State Affairs Committee unanimously approved a resolution to create a new House General Investigating Committee.

Previous investigating committee, which made headlines in Beaumont and Amarillo, expired with the start of the new session.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., Director of the Department of Public Safety, and numerous Jefferson County people appeared in favor of a legislative group to watch for places where local law enforcement fails to cope with crime.

Named to the committee by Speaker James Turman are: Rep. Charles L. Ballman of Borger, chairman; Reps. Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline, DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi, Bill Pieratt of Giddings and Menton J. Murray of Harlingen.

MORE ELBOW ROOM

Building of new state buildings is relieving the always-crammed conditions under which the legislature has had to work.

Under a bill adopted by both houses, the Senate will get the third floor Capitol space vacated by the Court of Criminal Appeals. House members are to have offices where the Supreme Court used to be. Both courts and the attorney general have moved over to the new Courts Building.

When the second new state office building is completed, the State Pardons Board and Agricultural Department are to move there, leaving still more Capitol space.

Also under way finally is the new state insurance building. Contracts totaling $1,227,000 were let by the State Building Commission.

Annual Texas 4-H Roundup Set for June 6 and 7

College Station — The annual Texas 4-H Club Roundup will be held at Texas A&M College on June 6 and 7. The big day will be the 7th when hundreds of young Texans will vie for honors in the 25 judging and demonstration contests.

The two high ranking teams or individuals from each Extension District are eligible to participate in the statewide contests scheduled for Roundup. The district winners will be selected in district elimination contests held prior to the state meeting.

The boys and girls who attend Roundup will be accompanied by either their county extension agent or agents or by adult leaders.

Many of the state winning teams and individuals later in the year will represent their state in national contests and will, therefore, have an opportunity to add further to their training and 4-H experiences.

Program details are not yet available but will be announced well in advance of the June meeting, according to Extension Service officials.

Resort Bird Shooting Open Until Mar. 31

Austin — If you failed to get your quail during the open season on wild game birds, you still have an opportunity to get in plenty of shooting at numerous resort areas throughout the state, according to Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

Under the law quail, pheasant and pen raised mallard ducks may be shot at these resorts until March 31. Quite a few of these shooting resorts operate as clubs. Others, however, take hunters on either a daily or a per bird basis. You can take your own dogs, or dogs and trainers are available at additional fees.

A list of the Texas shooting resorts and their addresses can be obtained from Joe Davidson, Box 661, Tyler, local representative of the Sporting Arms Institute.

TRAINING PLACE FOR DEMOCRACY

The training place for Democracy is in our public schools. Take a look at the technique used by our teachers during the week of March 6 through March 10, 1961, designated by the Governor as Public Schools Week. Plan to visit a school, meet the teachers, the football coach and the principal. The doors are always open and you are certain to receive a hearty welcome.

Southwest GROWTH
Excellent yardstick to determine plant location
In the past decade a quiet revolution has taken place in the Southwest. Suddenly, the region is booming with growth. In addition to a population increase 25% higher than the nation...
... personal income rose over 65%
... retail sales increased 64%
... value added by manufacture up 65%
This phenomenal growth means there is probable opportunity here for industry today, and above average potential for the future.
As an industry operating in and serving the CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST, we benefit from and contribute to the growth of the area. Our KWHI increase of 165% in the past decade is a vivid picture of the industrial opportunities.
Because we are a part of the area, we have information about markets, labor, taxes, climate, distribution, community attitudes and growth factors. We are prepared to compile market data, business facts and plant location studies designed for your specific needs.
Let our area representatives start to work for you in confidence and without obligation.

INVITING NEW INDUSTRY
is one way we work to help build this community

The advertisement reproduced above is appearing in a number of national publications to promote the industrial advantages of this area. It is the first of our 1961 area development national advertising schedule which is to run throughout the year.

THIS year, West Texas Utilities Company is expanding its area development activities because we believe the growth opportunities ahead demand it.

We believe our service area faces growth unlimited because we are the center of the Southwest, and the Southwest is growing faster than the Nation.

This is the kind of story we are telling American industrialists in our national area development advertising. It is being supplemented by colorful folders depicting the industrial advantages of the area, and by personal visits which our representatives will make during the year.

Through the expanded area development program, we are working to help build this community, because as the Southwest grows, so should West Texas Utilities grow... and the communities we serve.

© THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Read I Corinthians 4:1-7

What have you that you did not receive? If then you received it, why do you boast as if it were not a gift? (I Corinthians 4:7, RSV.)

Toscanini was rehearsing Beethoven's Ninth Symphony with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. He gave his musicians such a new insight into the music that, when the rehearsal ended, they rose and applauded him. Desperately, Toscanini tried to arrest their ovation, waving his arms wildly, crying to them to desist.

When there was a lull in the ovation, Toscanini's broken voice could be heard exclaiming — and there were tears in his eyes as he spoke: "It isn't me, men... it's Beethoven. Beethoven is everything — Toscanini, nothing."

The great souls of this world are the humble. The rest of us, even the best of us, have our little pride and our not-so-little arrogance. Sometimes when I catch myself in the act of boasting, I think of the Pharisee and the publican. Modesty becomes us, for we have much to be modest about! Nothing to be puffed up about!

PRAYER:

Be patient with us, our Father, as we come humbly into Thy presence. Dwell in our hearts, helping us to be like Thy Son in thought, attitude, and decision. In His name we make our prayer. Amen.

WHOSE BIRD IS IT?

Who has the rightful claim to game shot by more than one hunter?

This question has plagued sportsmen since time began.

There is no single answer. Proper etiquette is observed differently according to the section of the country.

Most widely accepted is that the deer, bird, or other animal belongs to the one who first wounds it. Other shots are supposed to kill... but only to prevent waste or suffering.

Planning Required In Farming As In Industry

College Station — Modern farming is a competitive business and the individual operator should keep this in mind when planning his enterprises, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist. In order to obtain maximum profits, operators of commercial farms should study every available means of boosting returns.

The first step in this plan-for-profit program is to weigh the price prospects for the farm's major cash enterprises and determine how seasonal price variations will affect potential returns. The decision of whether or not a greater volume of individual output will result in maximum net profit must be made, Bates explains.

Generally, higher production per acre or per animal should mean higher profits, but greater risk is involved in seeking the very highest yields for some crops. It is therefore wise to count the extra cost and consider this risk before aiming at the top production figure.

Regardless of the price situation, however, the greatest emphasis should be toward the highest degree of efficiency — cutting labor and other unit costs, the specialist continues. This can be accomplished by taking advantage of the latest technological advances. Replacement of hand labor with machines and the use of proven fertilizers and insecticides are ways of putting this technology to work.

In short, every opportunity must be taken to assure lower production costs per unit, says Bates. This requires a strong desire on the part of the operator to improve his decision-making skills. More barnwork is an essential ingredient.

The county agricultural agent is ready to help with any of these problems. If you have a plan to increase profits, talk it over with him. This is another example of taking advantage of modern technology, Bates concludes.

The width of United States ships is determined by the Panama Canal, and the height by the Brooklyn Bridge.

FFA WEEK WHY STUDY AGRICULTURE?

By Teddy Carruth, National Vice President, FFA, Tullia, Texas

Why study agriculture? Only about 10 percent of our people are farming. This is only one of the many comments that have been voiced in America since the beginning of the great exodus from the farm to urban areas. Yes, only about 10 percent of our working force is engaged in the actual production of food, food and fiber. Yet 99 percent of our agricultural production is accomplished by only 2.1 million farmers.

However, agricultural education and the vocational agriculture training programs in 9,000 American high schools includes an even broader concept of the agricultural industry than production alone. This concept envelops three main segments: (1) suppliers of production resources to farmers, (2) processors and distributors of farm products, and (3) the actual farm producer. This combination of functions is a new term in our vocabularies - agribusiness. It is America's largest industry, employing not 10 but 37 percent of the U.S. working population.

It is essential that recognition in education be given all three of these major segments of the agricultural industry. One should also realize that agriculture is becoming more closely tied to other important industries of the nation. Farmers alone are a 14 billion dollar customer of labor and industry each year. In many areas agriculture is the largest industrial customer. For example, in Texas the largest user of petroleum products is the agricultural industry.

With these facts in mind we cannot easily push agricultural education aside. The tremendous studies that have been made in the field of agricultural education, the result of the cooperation of research and education, have shown that the farmer is the backbone of our nation. He has the right to be informed on such important matters.

In past years, the farmer has gained needed information through a process that passed from farmer to farmer. Twelve years passed before the benefits of hybrid corn trickled down to the mass of all farmers. Under modern conditions, the agribusinessman cannot afford such delays. This slow routine process had to be replaced with a more effective educational system. Today's farmer consults newspapers, magazines, experiment stations and colleges on the latest developments. And among the farmer's greatest direct source of information is the vocational agriculture student who receives daily instruction in more effective methods and practices. Besides assisting the established farmer in accepting better practices and devices, the agriculture training programs in high schools and colleges teach young men to be successful farmers, processors, or suppliers of tomorrow.

Although America has a constant supply of young farmers to replace those who leave the farm either by death or retirement, the nation is not as fortunate in supplying sufficient workers in many of the other agricultural occupations. And many of those who enter agriculture professions do not have the educational backgrounds that are prerequisites for success under modern conditions. Vocational agriculture and the Future Farmers of America are the most effective programs yet devised to train boys to be good citizens and leaders in the ever-changing American agriculture.

Agricultural education should not be passed over lightly. It is essential in the twentieth century. It is a necessary ingredient for continued progress and prosperity.

Unused Cotton Allotments a Community Concern

College Station - Cotton is a commodity which creates a good "multiplier" effect in the economy, says Cecil Parker, extension economist, because most of the cotton farmer's dollar is usually dropped into the money stream of the community. Though the dollar's identity may be quickly lost, it tends to circulate through all the avenues of trade and commerce.

The loss of cotton income, on the other hand, can adversely affect a community's whole economy, points out Parker. For that reason, he adds, unused cotton allotments are a matter of community concern. The law under which cotton farmers are now operating contains provisions for the voluntary release and reallocation of 1961 cotton allotments. Where the release is made, the released acreage is retained on the releasing farm as history and used in figuring future allotments. But, Parker points out, it will not qualify a farm for an old farm allotment as having planted cotton in one of the three previous years. If all the farm allotment is released for three consecutive years, the farm loses its eligibility for an old farm allotment.

In order to expedite the release and reallocation of 1961 acreage allotments, the state has been divided into five zones by the State Agricultural Stabilization Committee and final dates set in each for releasing cotton acreage. The final date for releasing allotments in the San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Laredo area is February 17. In Zone 2, the Austin-Houston area, the final date is February 24. Final date in Zone 3, Northeast third of the state, is March 3. April 7 is the final date for Zone 4, Far West and West Central Texas and April 14 is the last day cotton producers in Zone 5, Northwest Texas, can release allotments.

These same dates, points out Parker, are also the final dates for producers in the different zones to file applications for additional allotments. That is, acreage in addition to the cotton allotment already established for a farm.

Because of the complex situations which exist on many cotton farms, Parker strongly recommends that producers contact their county ASC office for details on plans. Some mighty important decisions are involved, he says.

VA to Pay Early Dividends on G. I. Insurance

The President has instructed the VA to advance the schedule for payment of the regular 1961 dividends due USGLI and NSLI term and permanent plan policyholders. The rate payable per month will be that set forth in the current VA dividend schedule.

In the past, dividends have become due and payable on the anniversary date of the individual policy. This year many dividends will be paid in advance of the anniversary date. The VA Insurance Service plans to make early payment on policies with anniversary dates in April, May and June. In addition, policies with anniversary dates after June will be paid not later than June 30, 1961, and many will be paid in advance of that date.

The latest dividend option selection made by the insured will govern the method of payment. If he has selected cash, a check will be sent to him. If he has advised the VA in writing that the dividends be used to pay premiums in advance, the dividend will be credited under the option he has previously requested.

The VA emphasized that veterans could aid in the speed-up of payments by not making advance individual inquiries about dividends. The answering of inquiries, it is explained, would divert personnel from processing the dividends, and thus create a delay in payments.

Light for Safety

College Station - If you plan to remodel your porch or other entrances to your home, include safety in your plans, says W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer. The entrance or porch landing should be large enough to permit standing space on the standing side of the door. This usually requires a minimum area of about five by seven feet, the specialist points out. Be sure, if there are more than one or two steps, to provide a hand rail for the steps and a guard rail around the porch platform.

Good lighting for the entrance is also essential for safety, Allen continues. Such outdoor lights should provide for good visibility on the steps, landing and nearby outside area.

A well lighted yard and walkway is desirable for accident prevention, as well as for convenience. One or two yard lights, located near the driveway or on the corner of the house, will provide illumination for the entire area and will help provide night-time security, convenience

About Your Health

A 60-year-old grandmother refused her physician's suggestion of a chest x-ray to help him diagnose her ailment.

She had heard how x-ray might affect the health of her grandchildren. They were healthy youngsters, she explained, and she wanted to keep them that way. The incident has become a classic example of a disconcerting misconception about radiant energy.

Just for the record, the physician would have thought long and seriously before ordering x-ray if the patient had been an expectant mother. But it could hardly have been dangerous for grandchildren who lived somewhere up north at the time.

Radiant energy is like fire or electricity. Used unwisely it can kill or maim. Used with caution it becomes man's servant, bringing him fabulous benefits.

For decades, radiation devices in the hands of skilled persons have been tools of unparalleled importance in medicine and dentistry. X-ray and fluoroscopic machines, properly operated, actually permit a physician or dentist to photograph the interior of the human body. "Aimed" beams of deep-penetrating rays - sometimes pushed by two million volts of electricity - may efficiently treat cancer in practically any body organ.

Within recent years industrial uses of radioactive isotopes - another type of radiant energy - have grown to enormous proportions. More than 400 individuals and firms in Texas are presently registered to use them under State Board of Health rules and regulations.

With isotopes oil men can locate underground leaks, and engineers can detect flaws in structural steel or measure the life of cutting tools. The thickness of paper, the fullness of a sealed can, the effectiveness of a washing machine, the wearing quality of floor wax can thus be gauged.

These endless advantages are the reasons for possible peril. It is simple arithmetic: the more you use anything, the greater is the chance for misuse.

But the very fact that danger exists is a sort of safety factor. Persons engaged in peacetime uses of radiation equipment and materials, acutely aware of the chances of a misuse, handle them with extreme caution.

Since radiation usage is increasing, it makes good sense for everyone to be alert. And this much is certain: Unnecessary exposure to radiation - using x-rays to judge Miss Good Posture contest and in personnel monitoring against theft of company property, or full-body x-ray as part of new baby care - is sheer folly. Got "Grandparents" Eyes?

You may not have any grandchildren, but if you are past 50 the chances are that you are becoming farsighted... can't see very well to read or do close work. And did you know that only about 4 people in 100 can get the correction they need from self-chosen, "store-bought" glasses? The only safe way is a professional eyesight examination and prescription glasses made for your eyes, alone.

Blakley Proposes Federal Plan to Help Schools

Texas would gain $100 million a year for its schools under a federal aid to education plan proposed by US Senator William A. Blakley — and get it without new taxes.

The Texas senator, who was appointed to an interim term starting in January, is working to provide needed aid without hamstringing public schools with restrictive federal controls.

Blakley's plan, incorporated in a Senate bill he is sponsoring, would permit each state to retain five percent of collected income taxes for educational purposes. The money would be administered by state and local school districts, not by Washington.

"I think this method would be a better way for the assistance the schools are needing," Senator Blakley says, "and it will avoid any possible interference on the part of the federal government. Also it will not require any additional taxes."

Blakley's school plan is attracting Washington attention as a possible alternative to direct-aid education bills.

Disease Control Necessary for High Quality Greens

Alternaria leaf spot and white rust of mustard greens are likely to be common diseases at this season in commercial producing areas. Alternaria leaf spot is recognized by small, roundish brown spots on the leaves. The disease usually starts on the older leaves and may, when severe, kill entire leaves.

With white rust there are small, raised, white spots on the under side of the leaves. The presence of any amount of disease lowers the quality and market value of the greens. Disease spots may develop on unsprayed but apparently healthy leaves after the vegetable leaves the grower.

In an effort to consistently provide the consumer with a high quality product, many growers use a preventive spray program. Sprayers should be used that develop at least 250 pounds pressure. Spray booms and nozzles should be arranged to provide good coverage on both sides of leaves, and from 75 to 150 gallons of spray per acre used, depending on size of plants. Start applications before that time of the year when leaf spot or white rust usually appears and continue at 7 to 10 day intervals as needed. Leaf protection is more important during time of above average rainfall or high humidity. Do not apply later than 7 days before harvest.

Use zineb (75 percent) at the rate of 3 pounds per 100 gallons of water. Nabam plus zinc sulfate used according to manufacturers' directions makes tank-mix zineb. The nabam plus zinc sulfate is more economical but is a little more troublesome to use. Zineb is compatible with most insecticides. Growing mustard greens, turnip family more often than one year in three on the same land is not advisable. It is best to obtain seed produced in dry areas where disease seldom occurs.

Pictures of Game Wardens In Magazine

Austin — A directory of Texas game wardens is one of the leading features in the February issue of Texas Game and Fish magazine, according to T. D. Carroll, director of information and education.

Each February the wardens' names and addresses are published along with their pictures. This better enables the hunter or fisherman to become acquainted with the warden.

This year there are pictures of approximately 200 wardens in the magazine.

Other stories include articles on last season's elk hunt in the Guadalupe mountains, mule deer hunting in the Trans-Pecos and the teen-age hunt in Mason County.

Another interesting item is on the question of baiting fishing holes for carp and buffalo. This baiting, or chumming is approved by biologists as good conservation practice. Directions for making baits are included in the article, under the title of "To Bait or Not to Bait."

Sure is a difference between good, sound reasons and reasons that sound good.

Our
WASHINGTON
Letter
By Congressman
O. C. FISHER

TWO SUBJECTS OF INTEREST are being pressed right at this time in Congress, in which there is much public interest. One is a proposal to increase the minimum wage law to $1.25 per hour and add about five million to coverage. Another, by Senator Paul Douglas of Chicago, would expend about $3 billion a year to help "distressed areas."

With five million unemployed, it looks like a bad time to increase the minimum wage and expand coverage. Some say that with the expanded government relief program, the tens of thousands who admittedly would be thrown out of work with the increase, welfare agencies would be able to take care of the new charges, and that it would cause more money to be circulated.

That would, of course, simply cause the government to get deeper and deeper into the welfare state business, and would solve no problems.

Likewise, even though every effort should be made, in line with good business, to help distressed areas, the better approach would seem to be to study the cause of the distress, then treat the disease rather than the symptoms. In studies conducted in several afflicted areas it has been found that factories have been closed down because of high wages and high taxes and other costs. When it is no longer profitable to operate the plant closes down and seeks other locations where the labor market is more to their liking, and unions are not so prone to engage in strikes.

STRETCH TROTTLINE TIGHT.
How you stretch the main line of your trotline is very important. Market catfishermen know this and their catches are generally big.

Stretch line tight, so that when a fish bites, the hook will set at once.

Fish may mouth hook loose if line is slack.

THE ENTERING WEDGE
The "Liberals" continue to clamor at Washington for Compulsory Federal Health Care For The Aged. This despite the fact the Voluntary Medical Care Plan (enacted in the dying moments of the '86th Congress) seems to be working very well.

This voluntary plan calls for Uncle Sam and the individual States to split the cost. It is up to each state to embrace the plan or not. However, West Virginia, the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Oklahoma and New Mexico have already adopted this voluntary plan. Twelve more states are about to participate, and it is under consideration by five additional States.

Further, in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1960, needy persons under the regular Old Age Assistance program, received payments for medical care ALONE totaling $283,265,000.

And still further, some 31 regular insurance companies now offer guaranteed renewal health policies for our senior citizens.

And even still further, some 132 million Americans, including 8 million who are 65 years or older, are now covered by health insurance.

In view of all the foregoing facts, why the continued clamor for compulsory health insurance for our oldsters? Why take the risk of instituting this entering wedge for "Socialized Medicine" to the whole population? You can bet your last dollar that is the ultimate, if not openly proclaimed objective of our "Liberal" friends (?).
