Special Program Honors the J. W. McClellans

A special occasion program was held at the First Presbyterian Church Saturday evening, June 10, when a special tribute was paid to Mr. and Mrs. Jasper McClellan.

The pastor, Dr. Ben H. Moore, began the festivities with a talk, paying tribute to all the workers of the church and extending special recognition "to one of our members" who was observing her birthday anniversary and her 35th wedding anniversary on Saturday.

The identity of the honored subject was revealed as the group present sang "Happy Birthday" to Veva McClellan and "Happy Anniversary" to Veva and Jasper McClellan.

Mrs. McClellan was recognized for her many years work in the Presbyterian Church, where she has served in many capacities since childhood. Dr. Moore recognized the fact that she has been the church secretary and treasurer for 34 consecutive years. She has been the church pianist for 25 years and has filled many other necessary places where the work is always done, but mostly overlooked and forgotten.

Both the Oakes and McClellan families are pioneer residents of this area and were early day members and founders of the church. Several old-time friends of both families gave testimonials of remembrances through the years.

Members of the church choir sang an original composition they had written as a tribute to Mrs. McClellan, who still serves the church as pianist. A gift was presented Mrs. McClellan and a joint anniversary gift was presented to Mr. McClellan.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served to the large crowd attending. Mrs. John Bray, Mrs. Ross Kelley and Mrs. Helen T. Goodloe were in charge of refreshments and decorations.

DAUGHTER BORN TO MR. & MRS. JERRY SPARKS

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sparks of Stamford are the parents of a daughter, born Monday, June 12 at 1:45 a. m. The new arrival weighed 9 pounds, 11 ounces and has been named Jerrilyn Kaye. Local grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cullins. Mrs. Sparks is the former Clois Cullins.

Attend church regularly.

Summer Program Gets Underway

The Summer Recreation Program got underway the first of this week, with about 35 boys taking part in the first part of the swimming program. The boys will go for three weeks, then the girls will have a three weeks period of swimming.

Fifteen mothers attended a meeting at the City Library Friday afternoon of last week, and it was decided that the program would continue as it has in the past. The children ride the bus from the high school to the Coleman Pool and back.

The bus leaves the high school at 9:30 a. m. and returns about noon. All boys of school age are invited to participate in the program. Instructors working with the boys are Danny Wylie, Nelson Perry, Bob Clifton and Freddie Cullins.

The wading pool will open around July 1, with Mrs. Sybil Huggins as chairman.

Mrs. Catherine Markland is president of the organization. Other officers are: Vice President, Mrs. Martha Thompson; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Betty Keeney; and Swimming chairman, Mrs. Ollie Moore.

Beginning on Thursday, June 15, Mrs. C. D. Bruce will be in charge of a program for teenage girls. Various speakers will conduct an interesting program and all teen-age girls are invited to attend. The program will be held in the City Library from 3 to 5 p. m. On June 22 and 29 conversational Spanish will be taught by an outstanding Spanish student, who will be using this course toward her hours of a study course.

The officers of the Summer Recreation Program are encouraged by the interest shown the past week. With the end of Vacation Bible School this week, it is expected that more students will be participating in the programs.

Four Local Youths Taking Army Training

Austin — Four Santa Anna men are participating in the Texas National Guard's popular "Take Six" program, 36th (Texas) Infantry Division Headquarters here announced today.

The "Take Six" program consists of two phases of sixes, a division spokesman explained. Under the program, a young man may volunteer for six months active duty with the US Army, then spend the remainder of his six year military obligation as a member of the Texas National Guard.

During active duty the Guardsman receives eight weeks basic training and spends the remainder of his time for his assignment with his local Guard unit.

The Santa Anna men are Howard S. Voss, Tommy L. Lane, James C. Bible and Steven L. Botts. They are members of the Santa Anna Guard unit, Combat Support Company, 2d Battle Group, 142d Infantry.

Most Taxpayers Voluntarily Pay Their Taxes

The Internal Revenue Service emphasizes voluntary compliance with our nation's tax laws. The tax folks collect billions with only a very small percent due to their enforcement activities. Most taxpayers never hear from the Internal Revenue Service folks except to receive a tax form in the mail. In spite of the success of voluntary compliance, the highly skilled tax men continue to work on enforcement to keep our tax system fair and just.

The arrest of Ralph L. Kirkpatrick of Sherman, Texas on June 6, 1961, ran the total number of Dallas District taxpayers arrested for income tax evasion to eleven for 1961. Kirkpatrick was indicted on three counts covering the years 1954, 1955 and 1956. He is charged with having evaded $6,255.89 taxes for the three year period.

Don Davis and Linda Denny of Childress visited over the weekend with his father and sister, Mark Davis and Patricia. They returned to Childress Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thompson of Dallas spent Sunday with Mrs. A. R. Brown and other relatives.

H. H. Barnett New Methodist Minister Here

H. H. Barnett of Meridian was officially assigned as the new pastor of the local First Methodist Church at the annual conference last week. Rev. and Mrs. Barnett will arrive in Santa Anna Thursday of this week and he will have charge of the services at the church Sunday.

Rev. E. L. Craig, who has pastored the church here for the past year, retired from being an active minister. He and Mrs. Craig and his brother moved to Lubbock Monday, where he will act as visiting minister for the Lubbock St. Luke Methodist Church for the time being.

The Rev. and Mrs. Barnett do not have any children they will bring here with them. They have some children who are married and away from home. They have one son who is a Methodist pastor.

More Local Residents May Get Social Security

Several Santa Anna residents who are past the social security retirement age (62 for women, 65 for men) are failing to claim their money, because of a misunderstanding, according to R. R. Tuley Jr., Abilene district manager for the Social Security Administration.

He added that the 1960 Amendments made a significant change in the retirement test. As before, benefits are payable for any month the insured person earns no more than $100.00 in wages and is not very active in self-employment, no matter how high the annual earnings, and are due for all months in the calendar year if earnings are not over $1,200.00.

He gave these examples:
Mr. A is 67 and his wife is 62. He is due $100.00 retirement benefit and she is due $37.50. He is still regularly employed at $200.00 per month. Under the 1960 Amendments they can be paid $600.00 in social security benefits.

Mr. B is 65 and still earning $150.00 per month. His social security benefit is $75.00 per month. Even though he works all of 1961 at $150.00 per month, he can still be paid $450.00 in social security checks. If he had a wife and child also due payments, the three of them could collect $1,086.00 in social security checks.

Miss C is 62 years old and now earning $1,750.00 net profit per year from her music studio. Her social security benefit, based on earlier and higher earnings, is $80.00 per month. She can collect $560 in social security benefits in 1961.

But none of the three persons described above can be paid any social security checks until a claim is filed. A representative of the Abilene office will be in Coleman at Department Public Welfare on Mondays in June, at 10:00 a. m. Tuley suggests all interested persons past retirement age check into this matter now, so that no checks will be missed that could be paid if a claim were filed.

Mrs. Ed Spencer spent last week in Austin with a sister, Mrs. T. H. McGary, while Mr. Spencer was in Houston to see a specialist. His daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kalsek and children of Lovington, N. M., came and took them to Austin and Houston, then brought them home. Nancy Smith returned to Lovington with them to spend the summer.

Mrs. Fred Turner, Mrs. Helen Goodloe and Mrs. John Bray left Tuesday for a few days visit in Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Simmons of Abilene spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McClellan.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. DeWitt of Fort Worth were weekend guests with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Buse and Earla Jean. Mrs. Buse and Earla Jean extended a weeks stay with her sister and mother, Mrs. Marie Avinger, also of Fort Worth.

Dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Buse and Earla Jean Tuesday of last week were Bill Williams and Dock Mathews.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Aldridge and Van spent Sunday in Lawn, visiting relatives and attended church there.

Change To Dial Operation Set For Midnight Tuesday

Business Teacher Employed for High School

Mrs. Beth M. Manning of Brownwood was employed by the Santa Anna School Board at their last regular meeting, to teach commercial subjects in the high school beginning with the Fall Term. Mr. Manning is a partner in an implement company at Brownwood and they have two young children.

The Mannings plan to move to Santa Anna sometime in August, just before the new school term gets underway.

Mrs. Manning graduated from the Leonard, Texas High School with honors and received her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Education from the Texas Woman's University in Denton, graduating with honors again. She received her Masters Degree from Howard Payne College in Brownwood. She has three years teaching experience, having taught at Early in the years 1954-56. She has not taught since 1956, but came here very highly recommended by the Superintendent at Early.

The school board also accepted the resignation of Mrs. Beulah Sparkman, who has taught in the elementary school for a good many years.

Mrs. Manning will replace Mrs. Avis Hays, who has been the Commercial teacher here for the past several years. She resigned and moved to Washington, D. C. with her husband and family, immediately when school was out. Another teacher will be employed to replace Mrs. Sparkman.

Supt. Cullen N. Perry said the average Daily Attendance the past year was high enough to allow the school system an additional teacher for the coming year. However, during recent years the local board has been employing two teachers from the local fund, and Mr. Perry said it was not definite yet just what course would be taken this fall. It could be possible the school will not have to employ another teacher, and can move one of the ones carried from the local fund to the state aid fund, thus relieving some of the load carried from the local tax fund. The average daily attendance was 428.76.

Adventist Hold Camp Meeting Last Week

The annual Camp Meeting of the Seventh-day Adventist was held from June 2 through June 10 at Southwestern Junior College in Keene, Texas. A number of local people attended all or part of the meeting.

Speakers for the occasion included a number of world-wide travelers, authors, television and radio personalities.

Local folks attending the full time were Mrs. Fred Murray and family, Mrs. Don Casheolt and family and Mrs. Esther Davis. Others attending a part of the services were Miss Sarah Barntzke, Mrs. Stella Stanford, Mrs. Esther Stillwell, Miss Maureen Drake, Miss Josephine Millwee and Mr. Fred Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Welch, Mrs. Edna Mae White and Mrs. Merle Welch of Coleman visited their brother, Roy Welch at Jarrell, Texas Sunday.

Area 4-H Team Wins Honors In State Management Contest

Roger Columbus and Dale McClellan, Mozelle 4-H Club members, won first place in District Seven competition in Farm and Ranch Method Demonstration, a feature contest of the annual Texas 4-H Club Roundup, held last week at Texas A&M College.

The Mozelle team made a presentation of sheep management. A visual presentation was used in conjunction with the oral portion of the team's entry.

Columbus, 13, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Columbus of Fisk. McClellan, 13, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McClellan of Route 1, Gouldsbusk. Both are students at Mozelle High School. Columbus and McClellan received pen and pencil sets for their first place finish in district

At midnight Tuesday, June 20, the old style manner of telephone operation in Santa Anna is scheduled to go out and the new dial system will go into operation. Crews at the Coleman County Telephone Co-op have been working almost night and day for the past several weeks in order to get all the equipment ready for the change-over.

Because of the fact that so much work has to be completed before the new dial system is ready for operation, no formal program has been planned or proposed for the present cut-over date. However, Allyn W. Gill, manager of the telephone company, said the co-op would have their first annual meeting of the membership late in August this year, and the formal observance would be held at that time.

There will be representatives from most of the manufacturers of the equipment on hand Tuesday and up in the night to help with the change-over, which will take a good little bit of time.

During the past several months a new building has been completed to house the new equipment and all new equipment has been installed. New lines have been strung all over the city area and into many of the rural areas where old lines were in operation. New dial telephones have been installed in most of the local homes and the installation will be completed just as rapidly as possible.

New telephone directories are also in the process of being completed and are scheduled to be ready for delivery by the end of the week, provided nothing goes wrong. The new directories will be mailed to every subscriber during the weekend and should reach all homes and businesses by Monday. You are urged to watch your mail for the new directories, and when yours arrives you are requested to take a few minutes and study the instructions carefully, before attempting to operate the new telephone.

You will not be able to telephone by using the dial system until after midnight Tuesday, but at that time you are requested to follow the directions carefully, and become acquainted with your new telephone system. The most important thing is to be sure you have the correct

Billy Don Haynes Places at State 4-H Contest

Billy Don Haynes of Santa Anna, tied for 7th place in the Soil and Water Conservation Demonstration at College Station last week. Anthony Strawn, Peggy Avants, Ellen Crain and Sara Sue Taylor, all of Coleman, also tied for 7th place in Landscape Plant Identification.

The Share the Fun Contestants from Mozelle 4-H placed in the Second Division. They were Mignon Rogers, Polly Simonton, Linda Lawrence, Leta Fay McClure, Judy McClellan, Terry Williams and Sharron McCarty.

All or nearly all of the contestants had competition from each of the 12 Extension Districts in the state. Each district sent two entries who had won first or second in their district contests.

The competition was extremely keen and each of the 4-H'ers are to be commended on the job they did.

number and that you dial the correct number. All subscribers to the telephone service through June 10th are listed in the new directory. You are urged to look up the new number carefully and then dial the number.

If you are dialing a number on the same exchange, you do not have to dial the prefix letters, but you must dial all five of the numerals in the number. In dialing, you should put your finger in the hole of the dial on the letter or number you want to dial, pull the dial all the way around to the stop, then remove your finger from the dial and let it go back on its own accord. Do not tamper with the dial on its return to normal, or you will likely get a wrong number. This procedure should be followed for each letter or figure you dial.

It will not take long to become accustomed to the new operation, if you are careful to follow the instructions to begin with.

If you would like to, you may practice dialing the numbers before you pick up the receiver. But, even in practice, be sure to completely release the dial so it can return to normal position without being tampered with.

Added to the convenience of having dial operation for local telephone calls, all the rural exchanges will be connected with the local office and toll-free service will be available between all the exchanges. This will give free telephone service to almost three-fourths of Colman County. About the only area excluded from local toll-free service is the Coleman, Talpa and Novice areas.

Ceramics Course Offered in Summer Program

A new summer recreational project will be offered to interested young people and adults during the month of August. Mrs. Cullen Perry has offered her services as an instructor in a course of ceramics to those who might be interested.

If enough persons are interested, courses can be arranged in the following groups: (1) Grade School (2) Junior High School (3) High School and (4) adults. The groups are for boys and girls and men and women.

A suitable time for the course for each group can be selected, to best suit the interest of each group. The instruction will be free of charge, but the individual will be expected to pay for some materials, green ware, glaze and firing.

Prices of ceramic pieces can range from 50 cents up, for completed articles according to the individual interests and pocketbook.

Those who might be interested in the program are requested to see the display window at Phillips Drug Store, and to indicate your interest by signing your name in the correct age group.

Austin — See Texas first this summer. Texas Highway Department will help you plan a good time.

"Many Texans have never seen their own state through a tourist's eyes," says State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer. They're unaware of the pleasures immediately available to them via Texas' excellent highway system.

For example, Greer noted,

TASK FORCE FOR TAXES

Gov. Price Daniel has named a 19-member committee to study Texas tax problems and recommend a plan for raising some $350,000,000 for the next two years.

All the 19 appointees are in positions causing them to have a strong interest in seeing sufficient money raised for coming state appropriations. They include the chairmen of the governing boards of the state's educational, welfare and hospital systems and officials of a number of school-connected associations.

Their report is to be ready prior to July 10, opening date of the special legislative session.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

Pro-sales tax legislators declare that Governor Daniel is merely calling "a rose by another name" in his labeling of what is and what is not a sales tax.

Sen. Wardlow Lane and four House members presented "their side of the story" in a formal answer to the governor's report to the people on the regular session failure to pass a tax bill.

Any $350,000,000 tax program, including the governor's, will have to run heavily to sales taxes, whatever they're called, said the lawmakers. They recommended "telling the truth about it."

Governor Daniel announced he had received a heavy volume of mail since his talk, with the sentiment running 6-to-1 in favor of his program.

Several legislators said this was contrary to the way their mail was running.

TROUBLES ALL OVER

To make matters worse, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert reported that some of Texas' prime sources of tax revenue seems to be dwindling.

Oil production taxes for the nine months ending May 31 were $92,110,769, down by $3,000,000 from the same period a year ago and down $12,000,000 from the year before that.

Gasoline taxes, which have spiraled up at about 5-percent a year, have hit a slow-down. They are expected to be about $129,000,000. This is identical to the same nine months period of a year ago.

Corporation franchise taxes were also down to $51,542,964 for this year, a drop of about $7,000,000 from last year.

One bright spot was in "sin taxes." Cigarette taxes brought in $7,821,931 during May compared with $6,310,562 for April. Taxes on alcoholic beverages (beer, wine and liquor) were up from $2,672,947 in April to $2,835,650 in May.

But poll taxes were down from $2,818,527 in 1960, the presidential election year, to only $1,827,574 for 1961.

Despite everything, the deficit in the state general revenue fund dropped in May to $78,848,137 from a high of $102,000,000 in April. Hopes are that it will go even lower, not to exceed $63,000,000 by August 31, the end of the fiscal year.

SOME CHANGES MADE

Despite the bog-down on tax

ills, the Legislature did add quite a bit to the law of the land in its recent session. Among noteworthy changes:

1. Old age pensioners, beginning next January 1, can receive help with their hospital, doctor and nursing home expenses. Any state-licensed hospital or nursing home will be eligible for participation in the program.

2. Filing fee for candidate for statewide office will be $1,000. Previous fee for candidates in special statewide elections was $50. This brought out 71 candidates in the recent special senatorial race.

3. Persons who refuse to hang up when a party telephone line is needed for an emergency call will be subject to fine. Notice will be printed in this year's new telephone directories.

Not all these bills have been signed, but the governor has indicated no opposition.

SMALL LOAN LAW URGED

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has urged Governor Daniel to add loan company regulations to the list of subjects which may be considered in the upcoming special session.

At present the governor has limited the session to revenue and appropriations bills. Only subjects included in the governor's "call" may be considered in a special session.

Wilson said that, by beginning where the last session left off, lawmakers should be able to pass a loan bill quickly. A regulatory bill was passed by the House last session, but opposing forces came to a deadlock in the Senate.

Governor Daniel has evidenced coolness toward considering anything else until a revenue-and-appropriation agreement is reached — not even his pet escheat bill.

Also being asked for special session consideration is a bill to increase unemployment benefits which failed in the regular session. It passed on second reading in the House, but never got any further.

HE'S STILL JUDGE

A district court conviction cannot be thrown out because the judge of the court had not paid his Bar dues, the Court of Criminal Appeals ruled.

In the case at issue, the defendant was sentenced to 10 years for theft. He sought his freedom on grounds that the judge of the trial court, because of failure to pay dues, was not a member of the State Bar of Texas.

Appeals Court ruled that the judge was qualified for his office under the requirements of the Texas Constitution and the conviction was upheld.

YOUTH TAKES OVER

On the heels of the Legislature's departure, the Capital was invaded by two new contingents of politicians — the youngest and most vigorous it sees from one year to the next.

They are the delegates to Boys State and Girls State, outstanding high school seniors who come to Austin each summer to gain experience in government. And they learn to do by doing. Each group (separately) forms political parties, nominates candidates, holds elections and sets up a state government — all with realistic zeal.

SHORT SNOOTZ

Car-jammed Texas cities are getting sympathy and an offer of help from the Texas Highway Department. Commission announced that cities may use the space under elevated expressways for parking lots — to be operated by the cities or under contract by private parties.

Noting that the number of 1961 polio cases in Texas is up 9 percent above the same period last year, State Health Department is launching a new campaign for inoculations — especially for "babies and breadwinners."

"Moonshining" is not just a part of the colorful past. Texas Liquor Control Board reported that it seized eight illegal stills and confiscated 2,970 gallons of mash and 34 gallons of liquor in April.

Texans launching an insecticide war against garden pests should take care that it doesn't backfire, warns the State Health Department. Among tips: (1) Read labels carefully, (2) Keep sprays away from children and pets, (3) Don't smoke while spraying, (4) Don't inhale insecticide or get it on your skin, (5) Avoid contaminating food or water supplies, (6) Throw away leftovers.

NEW WORD COINED IN ERROR(?)

One of our good editor friends recently failed to catch a typographical error made in his back shop. Thereby, unwittingly he may have coined a new word to add to our American version of the English language.

His blunder had slipped up on the word "government," a mistake in one little vowel. In error he set it "GIVERNMENT" and it got by the proof-readers.

Now, we ask you what better word can describe our Administration and Congress of today than this inadvertently, newly-coined word "GIVERNMENT"?

Uncle Sam, the great giver — the greatest the world has ever known — right now is in the throes of expanding his largess, both to his nephews and nieces at home, and his cousins abroad.

Already due in large degree to his generosity, Uncle Sam is in debt for almost $290 billion — a sum larger than the debts of all the other nations of the world COMBINED. He's asking that the debt ceiling be raised another paltry (?) $5 billion to $295 billion, so that he can not only make larger gifts to those already on the receiving end of his bounty but add millions to his list of donees.

On second thought, being of a suspicious mind, could it be that the linotyper made an intentional boo-boo and deliberately set that word "government" as "GIVERNMENT?" Could be!

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Watkins of McCamey visited Tuesday and Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cobb.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Milligan and Mary were business visitors in San Angelo Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Varrell McClain and daughter, Thelma D. of Midland spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Ema D. McClain.

Bob Patterson of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, will preach at the Baptist Church next Sunday, June 18.

PRITCHARDS VISIT HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pritchard, Robert and Sue of Post came Friday and spent the night with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Don Pritchard and Mike. On Saturday the Pritchards and his sister, Mrs. Opal Little, went to Temple to visit his mother and another sister, Rhoda. Mrs. M. A. Pritchard is at her home now, after undergoing surgery in the Scott & White Hospital. She fell here about two weeks ago and broke her hip. She is a home now and able to get around some in a wheel chair.

Saturday night the Pritchards and Mrs. Little went to Grandbury to visit another sister, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Blanton. They returned to Santa Anna Sunday and after enjoying dinner with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vanderford, returned to their home.

Milton Drake returned home with them. He plans to work in West Texas this summer.

Turner Oakes returned to his home here Friday after spending most of the week with his son, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Oakes and family, in Pasadena. During his visit he saw many of the sights in that part of the state.

about their Communism.
The same Justices dissented in that blow against the pro-Communist tactics — Warren, Black, Douglas and Brennan.

As a result of these and other recent decisions it begins to look as if the balance of power on that court has been tilted to the right, following a long series of pro-Communist decisions by a majority of the Justices.

Plant Disease Of the Week

Harlan E. Smith,
Extension Plant Pathologist

SMUT MAJOR THREAT TO GRAIN SORGHUM

Head smut disease of grain sorghum occurs in all areas of Texas. Losses are likely to range from 0 to 25 percent in the Coastal Bend area of Texas. The disease, in recent years, has been building up in other areas, and losses of 5 to 10 percent are not uncommon. The value of badly infested land is lowered.

Close examination of the stalk near harvest is necessary to determine disease loss. With many infected varieties and hybrids, the head is sterile. In such cases, the blackish, powdery smut is found by pushing the leaves and checking lower on the stalk. On other varieties and hybrids, the main head will be smutted and destroyed.

In harvesting a badly-infested field, smut comes from a combine in a black cloud. When the smut gall first appears, it is covered by a whitish membrane. The membrane soon breaks and allows the black dust (spores) to be scattered by the wind and rain. The fungus disease overwinters as spores in old plant trash or in the soil. The following spring and summer the spores germinate and produce smaller spores of another type, which in turn, infect the sorghum plants through the roots. The fungus grows up through the roots and stalk to complete its life cycle. Infection of the root may occur at any time during the growth of the sorghum.

In the absence of grain sorghum, disease spores in the soil gradually die. However, some may remain alive for an undetermined number of years. The fungus builds up in the soil when regrowth is allowed to develop.

When head smut is expected to be serious, it is recommended that growers avoid the use of highly susceptible varieties and hybrids. Highly susceptible are Combine 7087, RS 610, RS 608, AMAK R-10 and AMAK R-12.

The use of rather susceptible varieties and hybrids such as F 62a, E 56b, Redbine-60 and Texicoa 54, in heavily infested soil is questionable. The growing of adapted hybrids with a higher degree of tolerance to head smut is highly recommended. Resistant hybrids may be observed in experiment station tests and in demonstrations conducted by county agents. Several strains of the fungus occur and this has made more difficult the development of resistant hybrids.

According to Meekma, in the oldest writings known to man, the Vedic hymns written in Sanskrit on tablets of stone, the earliest known form of King was a Gopatis or Lord of the Cows. Gopatis owned the cows but milking was a sacred rite. One priest stood at the cow's head while another held her tail. The third was of the highest ranking and did the milking.

Dairy Cow Walks With Man Through Pages of History

The story of man is closely related to that of the dairy cow. A. M. Meekma, extension dairy specialist, said today in a June Dairy Month tribute to the nation's greatest dairy industry.

It's a story that goes back to the very beginning of civilization, as far as recorded history. There is evidence that the ancestors of modern man followed the ancestors of modern cows from pasture to pasture, thousands of years ago.

According to Meekma, in the oldest writings known to man, the Vedic hymns written in Sanskrit on tablets of stone, the earliest known form of King was a Gopatis or Lord of the Cows. Gopatis owned the cows but milking was a sacred rite. One priest stood at the cow's head while another held her tail. The third was of the highest ranking and did the milking.

Gopatis referred to the moon as the "milk goddess of the night." The stars were defined as 5-horned cattle. As Gopatis watched the cow-studded Heavens, another visible proof of the holiness of the cow appeared. Across the sky there flowed a great river of soft whiteness which to this day is called the "Milky Way."

The great Greek physician Hippocrates prescribed milk as a medicine 500 years before Christ was born.

Without the dairy cow, Meekma said, more than half of the colonists who first came to America's shores from England in the years 1607-1610 did not survive. They imported food but their supplies of butter and cheese were entirely inadequate. The first shipment of dairy cattle arrived at Jamestown, Virginia, in 1611.

From that time forward, he continued, the health and wealth of America was on the upswing. As man moved westward across the continent, the cow was tied to the tailboard of the covered wagon and her brothers, the oxen, furnished the pulling power. Today, the dairy industry provides America's consumers with about 28 percent of their food stuffs and contributes mightily to their well being, concludes Meekma.

Havner in Brownwood for the past two weeks, returned home with their mother, Mrs. W. D. Aldridge, who came Friday to attend the Havner reunion. Today's MEDITATION

from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

© THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Read Luke 12:41-48.

The Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his Lord shall make ruler over his household? (Luke 12:42.)

If we are not experiencing the blessings of Christian stewardship, we have missed the essence of Christianity. Jesus instructs us in becoming better stewards.

I recall seeing a woman so crippled that she had great difficulty getting about. I saw her sweeping snow from the church walks. Here was a person who loved the Lord so much that despite her handicap, she offered her willing hands in service.

This is the kind of dedication which will be rewarded. The sacrificial gift is the one most precious in God's sight.

This type of steward will be the one of whom the Lord says, "Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

PRAYER

Dear Lord, we thank Thee for the blessed opportunity of stewardship. Help us joyfully to fulfill our responsibility as Christians. In the name of Jesus, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven... Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Being good stewards is the essence of Christian living.

—Jeanne Roberts (California)

MILK MONTH IN TEXAS

Just as June is the big month in marrying, so is it the big month for dairying. June Dairy Month is probably the most regularly recognized observance in our state and nation of any segment of agriculture.

Thanks to the fine promotional work done by the American Dairy Association and our own Texas Milk Producers' Associations, June Dairy Month is practically a household word. And this is good, because dairying really is special.

Milk products provide a larger part of our total food supply than does any other class of food products. Not only that, but milk and its products are likely more essential to us than any other food from a nutritional standpoint.

In support of the high importance of milk in our national diet, the record shows that milk and foods made from it supplied approximately 28 percent of the total food supply in 1960. In other words, out of the average of 1,488 pounds of food each American consumed last year 414 pounds were in forms of milk.

It is interesting to note also that Texas milk consumption was considerably above that national average. In 1960, Texas dairymen produced more than 850 million pounds of milk, a good yield, but millions of additional pounds were shipped in to help supply Texans' needs. Texans may Eat Beef Every Day, which is good, but they certainly drink milk or eat something made from milk — several times a day.

Government estimates of milk consumption indicate that each American ate 8.2 pounds of cheese last year. Ice cream was eaten at the rate of 18.4 pounds per person during the same period.

Fluid milk, of course, was the big item, with an estimated 342 pounds taken in by each American in 1960. Evaporated milk, of which less was consumed than in previous years, accounted for 15.1 pounds per person, and nonfat dry milk, which made up the loss, was up to 6.2 pounds per person.

Cottage cheese use has grown from slightly less than 2 pounds per person 20 years ago to over 5 pounds in 1960.

There is no finer food than milk and those things made from milk. It would be good for each of us to not only look for extra ways to enjoy milk during June, but also to take time out to be thankful that we have it to enjoy.

Some Children of Deceased Vets Eligible for OEA

Children of deceased peacetime veterans may be eligible for Orphans' Educational Assistance providing their veteran-parent died under certain conditions of disease or injury incurred or aggravated in line of duty during active service. P. J. Mims, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco said today.

This program originally called the War Orphans' Educational Assistance Program was amended by Congress to include those children whose deceased parents had served in the period just before or after World War II, and since the Korean Conflict, with no service in actual war periods.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Miller of Andrews were weekend visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Upton Sr., and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Upton Jr. They returned home by way of Cross Plains.

Visitors in the A. E. McCarroll home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kastler, Leonard Jr. and Clayton and Steve Johnson, all of Tyro, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Johnson and baby, Rayburn Johnson, of Irving; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McCarroll of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McCarroll of Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Edmond McCarroll, Edwina, Ronnie, Kay and Mrs. Jerry Clark of Santa Anna; Harold McCarroll of Rockwood; Mr. and Mrs. T. The American Way

THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY

By George Peck

(Editor's Note: George Peck is Honorary Chairman of the Laymen's National Committee, sponsor of National Sunday School and Bible Weeks.)

Were you tuned in on Robert Welch on Sunday evening, May 21, when he appeared on the "Meet The Press" program? If so, whether or not you approve of Mr. Welch and his John Birch Society, your American sense of fair play must have received a severe jolt.

If ever an American citizen faced a stacked inquisition, Robert Welch did so on that radio program. All of the panel did their level best to "pin his ears back." Their questions for the most part incorporated in them statements which Welch had not made. The reporters sounded more like so many criminal lawyers putting forth their best efforts to confuse a witness, rather than a panel trying to get opinions from a "guest."

It was quite apparent that the members of the panel do not like Welch or his John Birch Society, and they made no attempt to hide their dislike. Not only were their questions offensive, but they practically snarled at their "guest" in asking them.

But Robert Welch was equal to the occasion. He slugged back, toe-to-toe, keeping his temper while doing so, and in our book, he gave the panel a trouncing—a thorough trouncing.

In this column we have previously refrained from commenting on the John Birch Society. We feel that the time has come to break that silence. We have read all of the comment pro and con that has come our way, and there has been a plenty of it. No sound argument has been advanced against it. On the contrary, the very criticisms that have been leveled at it, to our way of thinking, are arguments in its favor. This, plus the type of individuals or organizations (with rare exceptions) that have raised their voices against the John Birch Society have induced this columnist to proclaim publicly that its objectives and methods being used to attain those aims, make it worthy of the support of every patriotic American.

The "Meet The Press" panel following the lead of the Communist Party and the several other subversive organizations, kept asking Robert Welch if he had stated in a confidential letter that Dwight D. Eisenhower, John Foster Dulles, Chief Justice Warren and several others were card-holding Communists. This Welch emphatically denied, and rightfully so, because he did not make any such charge in that confidential letter.

Readers may ask: "How do you know that Welch tells the truth in refuting that charge?" The answer is that Robert Welch sent us a copy of that letter requesting that we treat it confidentially and return it to him. We read that letter several times, kept it confidential as requested and returned it to him, again as requested.

We testify that nowhere in that document did Welch allege that the aforesaid Americans were card-holding Communists. What he did write was that unwittingly they were aiding the cause and because of their prominence and the esteem in which they were held by their fellow-Americans, they were more helpful to Communism than card-holding Communists.

Town and Country Church Conference Set

"The Enduring Values of Town and Country Life" is the theme for the 16th annual Town and Country Church Conference scheduled for June 19-21. All sessions will be held in the Memorial Student Center at Texas A&M College.

According to Reagon Brown, rural sociologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and a member of the Conference Committee, attendance is expected to be near 200.

Two out-of-state speakers will be featured and each will make three program appearances.

Shifts in population, farm and small town community trends, the church's role in community life and the enduring values of rural living are among the major subjects to be discussed.

Always a highlight of the annual conference is the naming of the Rural Minister of the Year. This will come at a luncheon on June 20, according to Brown.

Veterinarians Need Information from Poultrymen

Texas has several poultry diagnostic laboratories and several private practitioners who offer their services to the poultry producer. Dr. C. F. Meinecke of the school of veterinary medicine at Texas A&M says these people have a common complaint concerning case submissions by poultrymen. This complaint is that all too often poultrymen submit cases without providing any information.

Hiring a diagnostician is much the same as hiring a private investigator, says Meinecke. If he is to do his best work, he must have all of the facts concerning the case. Be sure you give him your name, address and all other information such as data on vaccination, feeding and medication. Also, tell the veterinarian the symptoms from the beginning of the disease. Some details may seem foolish to mention, but they may hold the key.

Another important point to remember is that birds submitted should be those that represent the condition of the flock. Most diagnostic cases should have at least three birds submitted. These should be spaced as nearly as possible to represent the earliest to the latest stages of the condition. Meinecke says a flock owner has been unfair to his veterinarian, but more important, he has been unfair to himself, when he submits culs instead of birds truly affected.

Something else to realize is that your veterinarian is not insulting you if he tells you your husbandry leaves something to be desired. You hired him to tell you what is wrong, and that is exactly what he is trying to do. He is trying to make you more money by pointing out trouble spots.

It only takes a minute — to call 45 and let us know that you have entertained visitors.

Confidential document, Robert Welch asked for our opinion regarding the various statements made therein. The manuscript came to us by registered first-class mail, return receipt requested. In a letter to us dated January 30, 1959, announcing that he was sending the manuscript, Welch wrote:

"... This manuscript is not intended for publication at all. But I am putting it into the hands of a quite limited number of patriotic Americans — mostly close friends of mine — who can be depended on to treat it with the reasonable precautions to safe-guard the document while it is in their possession. For I believe it will give even so well-informed a man as yourself a certain amount of additional insight into some aspects of the conspiracy we face."

Can there be any justifiable quarrel with Robert Welch having sent this confidential document to his friends? We believe not.

We did not join the John Birch Society when invited. However, as a result of the inquisition to which Robert Welch was subjected on "Meet The Press," as this column is being released we are mailing our application for membership together with check. And do you know something? We have a strong hunch that an awful lot of folks who listened in on that vicious attack on Robert Welch have already done likewise.

Letter to The Editor

Editor's Note: The following letter was received early this week and was appreciated very much. Mr. Conley, a son of Mrs. Eva Conley, is another home town boy and we are proud of the stand of our home town boys in their fight against the communist attempt to take over this great nation.
Dear Editor:

Your reprint of the article recounting Oran Lewellen's efforts to fight off Communist enslavement was heart warming and inspirational. I consider it not only a privilege but a duty as an American citizen to applaud the deeds of anyone who speaks out in the name of freedom.

For too long we who are citizens of this and have regarded the freedom that we enjoy as an endowment provided for us through the blood and tears of our forefathers. Today a small portion of America is awakening as though from a deep sleep to find that freedom is something that every individual has to maintain for himself in his time. Let us pray that more of our people will awaken from their pleasure infested materialistic slumber.

Though the hour is late, there is still hope if more Oran Lewellens will become motivated to man the battle stations in this so-called cold war that is hot with contempt for God and Country.

I say thank God for Oran Lewellen and for you too, sir. May your paper bring more such messages to people who are in need.

Yours truly,
C. W. Conley
