THE KOHLER STRIKE

By George Peck

(Editor's Note: George Peck is Honorary Chairman of the Laymen's National Committee, sponsor of National Sunday School and Bible Weeks.)

Sylvester Petro, who in 1959 gave us "Power Unlimited—The Corruption of Union Leadership" (a report on the McClellan Committee Hearings) has just authored another book: "The Kohler Strike." In this book bearing the subtitle: "Union Violence and Administrative Law," Petro summarizes the history of the Kohler strike, one of the longest, most violent labor disputes on record; then explores the reasons behind the National Labor Relations Board decision. In his incisive and well-reasoned account of the Kohler case, the author holds up to public gaze, the inequities and unfairness of the nation's present system of administrative law in labor disputes.

Before going into further details of the book, "THE KOHLER STRIKE," a few words regarding its author would seem to be in order. Sylvester Petro is eminently qualified to give an unbiased account of the Kohler strike. Born on Chicago's South Side in a steelworkers' neighborhood in 1907, he worked in the steel mills after leaving high school and took an active part in the CIO's organizational drives of the mid-1930's. He financed his college and law-school training at Chicago University largely by working in steel mills and on construction crews.

Armed with a Doctor of Laws Degree from the University of Chicago, in 1945 he was admitted to the Illinois bar, and practiced law in Chicago for the next five years. After earning an LL.M. degree from the University of Michigan in 1950, he went on the faculty of New York University as a professor of law, where he still labors. He has served as a specialist in labor and anti-trust law and as a consultant on labor legislative matters since 1944.

Petro, born in a steelworkers' neighborhood, has been a steelworker, labor union organizer, practicing attorney, professor of law and labor relations consultant. Most certainly his humble origin and his varied training and experience should make him an impartial observer of and commentator on the Kohler strike.

And now something about Petro's book: "THE KOHLER STRIKE." We can figure no better way to briefly describe it than to quote a part of the preface of the book.

"I have followed the Kohler Company's struggle with the United Automobile Workers Union for years, as stage after stage of the dispute has demonstrated the things that have gone wrong in the labor policy of the United States. But its full value as a textbook illustration of the defects of our labor policy was not complete until August 26, 1960, when the National Labor Relations Board handed down its decision on the charges brought by the UAW against the company. With that decision, the dispute acquires a historic significance, for now it points up in a dramatic way all the principal shortcomings of our present labor policy.

"These are four: the toleration shown to union violence by government; the governmental favoritism which has encouraged union officials to fall into greater and greater anti-social excesses; the unfair and sometimes impossibly heavy burdens which have been placed on employers, all coming to rest eventually on the consuming public; and finally the reposing in administrative agencies of judicial functions which those agencies have abused, to the infinite harm of society.

"During its dispute with the Kohler Company, the UAW engaged in sustained violence which covered almost the whole range of illegality, stopping just short of murder. It violated the laws at all levels of government, from local trespass laws to the federal government's National Labor Relations Act. The Kohler Company, on the other hand, despite the burdens placed upon employers by our labor relations laws and the provocations of the union, pursued throughout the dispute a course of legality. Yet the decision of the NLRB rewards the union and punishes both the company and many of the employees who came to work for it during the strike, at a time when it took considerable courage to do so.

"I submit this document as evidence that our labor policy stands in compelling need of reform. ... I hope this book will serve also to correct the historical record concerning the Kohler Company and Kohler Village. ..."

We recommend this book, and we wholeheartedly agree with its final paragraph: "The era of childish rebellion against our fundamental institutions has produced only strife, chaos, and tragedy. Let us then look again to the Constitution and its noble intent to establish justice and to insure domestic tranquility." We doubt you'll be able to find this book in your local bookstores. But you can obtain a copy of "THE KOHLER STRIKE" by Sylvester Petro, from the publisher, Henry Regnery Company, 14 East Jackson Blvd., Chicago 4, Ill. ### Most of Social Security Changes To Be Automatic

Most of the Santa Anna area residents who will directly benefit at this time from the Social Security Amendments signed into law by the President on June 30 do not need to write or contact their social security office, according to R. R. Tuley Jr., Abilene district manager for the Social Security Administration.

He has furnished us the following summary:

AUTOMATIC CHANGES:

1. Aged widows already receiving benefits on their late husbands' accounts will get a 10% increase in September, for August, 1961.

2. Beneficiaries with no dependents, who are receiving un-reduced benefits of less than $40 will be raised to $40 in September, for August.

3. Women receiving reduced retirement benefits because they started being paid before the age 65, will get some increase if their basic rate, before reduction, was less than $40.

Persons in the above age groups do not need to take any action at this time.

NON-AUTOMATIC CHANGES:

4. Men may now receive benefits at age 62, on retirement, as dependent widower, or dependent parent. Men with continued high earnings (over $1,200 per year) should check to see whether some payments would be possible despite such high earnings.

5. Some persons whose claims were denied before this month because they did not have enough credits under social security should make new inquiry. The minimum requirement of 1½ years of credits was not changed; however, for those who needed more than that many credits, the number was reduced from ½ of the time to ¼ of the time after 1950 and before age 62 for women and before age 65 for men. Men must have slightly more creditable time in the system than women. Persons in group 4 or 5, should write to the social security office in Abilene, giving their dates of birth and social security number. Arrangements will then be made to talk with them when a representative of the Abilene office is at or near their home towns.

Summer Program In Full Swing

The Summer Recreation Program is now in full swing, with the girls taking their three weeks of swimming instructions. About 40 girls are participating in the program. Mrs. Leland Thompson and Mrs. Robert Robinson are the mothers in charge this week.

Mrs. Robert L. Markland, president, said plans are still being made for the Junion Lifesaving Course, and those who are interested in taking the course are invited to contact her. Definite arrangements will be completed next week.

Refreshments of punch will be served at the Conversational Spanish Class, which meets Friday at 4:00 p. m. at the City Library. Mrs. Markland said this would be the last session in this series, but if enough interest is shown another class will be scheduled later in the summer.

County to Buy Road Right-of-Way

Austin — The Texas Highway Commission today directed State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer to enter into agreements with local officials in Coleman County for the purchase of required right of way on U. S. Highway 84 at an estimated State cost of $35,000.

The portion involved on U. S. 84 is from Farm to Market Road 702 southeast to U. S. 283 and State 206, one mile north of Coleman, a total distance of 13.4 miles.

ADDITIONAL TRICKHAM NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Haynes of Brownwood were recent guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haynes. Mr. Fred Haynes condition is reported to be improving some. He is able to sit up a part of the day.

For a short period from 1835 to 1837 the United States government was out of debt.

Mrs. R. C. Gay Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. R. C. Gay, 82, died at her home here about 8:30 a. m. Saturday, after an illness of a number of years. She fell about three years ago, breaking a hip bone and has been bedfast since.

Beatrice Grady was born to the late Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Grady in Brownwood December 12, 1878. She was married to Robert Coleman Gay in Santa Anna January 20, 1898; and has made her home here since. Mr. Gay preceded her in death in August, 1948. Their only daughter, Trixie (Gay) Pieratt, preceded both in death in 1937.

Mrs. Gay's father was one of the early-day Texas Rangers who worked throughout this area of the state. In 1936 Mrs. Gay authored and published the book, "Into The Setting Sun," which was a history of Coleman County and included many accounts of Texas Ranger battles with the Indians. Mr. Grady was one of the Ex-Texas Rangers for whom the park just east of town was named and Mrs. Gay served on the board of directors of the park from the time it was formed until her death. She was also well versed in other phases of Texas History. She was a member of the First Baptist Church and took a great interest in a number of local civic organizations until her health failed her.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church at 10:00 a. m. Monday, July 3, with the pastor, Rev. Raymond Jones, officiating. Burial was in the Santa Anna Cemetery, under the direction of Hosch Funeral Home.

Survivors include two sons, Coleman Gay of Austin and Leeper Gay of Prescott, Ariz.; three brothers, Guy Grady of Brownwood, Jim Edd Grady of Port Arthur and Bob Grady of Walnut Creek, Calif.; four sisters, Mrs. May Scott of Brownwood, Mrs. Kittie Walker of San Antonio, Mrs. Ruby Westerman of Albuquerque, N. M. and Mrs. Brownie Lee Roberts of Fort Worth; two grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Emzy Brown, O. L. Cheaney, S. K. Moredock, Louis M. Guthrie, Harry Crews and J. L. Boggus.

LARGE CUKE

Paul Arnold is another one raises large cucumbers. Wednesday morning he presented your editor with the largest one thus far — 2½ pounds in actual weight. It measured 12 inches long and 10¼ inches around.

Judge D. B. Wood and his sisters, Mrs. Cynthia Murray and Mrs. Virginia Southerland, all of Georgetown, visited briefly with their cousin, Mrs. John C. Gregg and family Friday morning. They were returning to Georgetown after taking part in the 75th anniversary observance at Ballinger on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Morgan and children of Silver Springs, Md., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Curry. Other visitors with the Currys during the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Curry of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ogle of Lubbock.

To Find Squirrels—Hunt Nest

In the South, most squirrels build their nests around a vine, either a grape vine or whatever sort comes handy.

Smart hunters look for these vines, then shake them vigorously. If there is a squirrel in the nest, out it comes into the open.

Quick as Jack Robison

Here's a quick way to skin a rabbit for the pot. Slit across rabbit's back with a sharp knife. Grab hold of each side of slit and pull.

The skin comes off as easily as you skin a banana. Cut legs off at lower joint and your rabbit is ready.

To De-burr Dogs

Next time your setter or spaniel comes in from the field with its coat full of cockleburs, remove them with a two-tined kitchen fork. The burrs can be removed in a jiffy time, without so much as a yelp from the pooch.

Public Opinion On State Taxes Poll Published

A public opinion poll on State taxes, covering all major legislative proposals, will be sponsored by the Citizens for Fair Taxation, Chairman J. E. Connally announced last week.

It will be distributed and published throughout Texas to determine the majority views on taxation, he said.

"Our poll will be strictly non-partisan and will give the public an opportunity to express opinions on a variety of revenue proposals," Connally said. "We are confident that such a poll will reveal that Texans overwhelmingly favor a compromise tax program."

Connally said many people have been misled as to the basic issues involved in the tax controversy. He declared: "Already, lobby-dominated 'sales tax' organizations have poured thousands of dollars into an 'anti-compromise' campaign. They are sending out so-called 'polls' to selected special interests with instructions to rig them in favor of a general retail sales tax, which is the only revenue proposal listed on their poll."

"The Citizens for Fair Taxation poll lists 11 tax categories and proposals. It is a public service project and distribution of the polls will be general throughout the State. Our chief concern is to help in every way we can to determine majority views and build support for a compromise, broad-based tax program that places the revenue burden fairly and equitably on consumers and business alike."

"Members of the Legislature are responsible, devoted men and women, and I have every confidence in their ability to resolve conflicting views."

The poll is published elsewhere in this issue of The News. You are invited to fill it out and mail it to the address shown.

Doctor Tells What Scares A Driver

Austin (UPI) — Fear of death does not scare drivers as much as the fear of losing a license does, Dr. C. MacGeyer of Wichita Falls believes.

Writing in the current edition of the Texas State Journal of Medicine, Geyer said a Connecticut program is effective in cutting down on highway fatalities.

The "Connecticut Plan" takes away a driver's license for 30 days for first conviction of speeding, Geyer said. A second offense costs a 60-day removal of license. Indefinite suspension comes with a third conviction. For drunken driving, first offense costs a one-year suspension; second conviction, five years, and third conviction, permanent suspension.

"Statistics show that excessive speed, the greatest killer, causes 37 percent of highway fatalities and drunkenness causes 30 percent," he said. Geyer said Connecticut initiated the program in 1955 and by 1959 had the lowest traffic death rate in the nation.

Band Rehearsal Called for Monday Morning

Band Director T. K. Martin announces a band rehearsal to be held at the Band Hall at 9:00 a. m. Monday, July 10th. All members of the senior band are urged to be present. Mr. Martin said there would be several new march numbers on hand for practice and that the rehearsal would last about one and a half hours.

BIG PRODUCE

Mrs. Milton House brought a large cucumber and squash for your editor to view on Saturday. Her father, B. K. Riggs, raised them in the garden spot at the House home.

The cucumber weighed 2 pounds and measured 12 inches long by 8¾ inches around. The green squash weighed four pounds and measured 13 inches long and 13 inches around.

"The Jazz Singer" starring Al Jolson was the first talking picture.

Fire Does Heavy Damage To Clover Grill

The Clover Grill was heavily damaged by fire early Saturday and could have been completely destroyed except for the diligent work of the local volunteer fire department. The Grill has been closed since the fire, but will be reopened as soon as necessary repairs are made.

The fire apparently started from defective wiring, reports Fire Marshal L. J. Clark. The actual extent of the damage has not been announced yet.

The fire apparently started under the floor of the building, and because of the almost airtight construction, smoldered for sometime before gaining enough headway to burn through the floor. The fire alarm was sounded about 12:30 a. m. and when the fire boys arrived they quickly extinguished what flames they could see, but spent about three hours hunting out flames under the building and keeping watch in order to see that all of it was extinguished.

Clark said the lack of oxygen being available to the flames was the only thing that saved the building.

Some Postal Rates Increase As of July 1

Postal rates on special delivery of second, third and fourth class mail and on postal money orders increased July 1, as instructed by Postmaster General J. Edward Day. These changes can be made by the Postmaster General under his administrative authority. The actions are to help put the Postal Service in a more favorable fiscal position, in accordance with the Postal Act of 1958.

Special delivery fees on first class mail up to 2 pounds costs 30 cents, the same as it has for the past several months. Special delivery fees on second, third and fourth class mail increased 10 cents in each fee bracket, as follows: up to 2 pounds, 55 cents; over 2 and up to 10 pounds, 65 cents; over 10 pounds, 80 cents. This increase is due to yield about $2.5 million in additional postal revenue, based on the current volume.

Money orders up to $5.00 and over $5.00 increased 5 cents. The new money order schedule combines the old 15-cent and 20-cent fee brackets into one at 20 cents. It also splits the old 30-cent bracket at the $50.00 level, raising to 35 cents the fee for denominations up to $100.00. These changes will affect more than 100 million money order transactions, and are designed to increase the revenue about $5 million.

Trickham News

By Mrs. J. E. York

What's the old saying, "Live and learn, and die and forget it all"? Well, I find out I learn more day by day. You don't have all childhood diseases when you are a child. Nikki had the mumps two weeks ago and I told myself I wouldn't take them as I had had the opportunity to many times before. Anyway Friday morning I got up looking like I had been in a bee's nest and feeling like something awful. Well, I've spent the last three days in bed, so please excuse all mistakes.

It seems like there was a mix-up last week in my news about the new baby of Peggy Ford Lancaster. The baby was a boy instead of a girl. The little fellow would probably be humiliated, being called a girl, so I apologize.

Mrs. Desta Bagley and daughter, Patricia of Brownwood and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stacy visited their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Zona Stacy Saturday afternoon and night. Mrs. Keetie Haynes of Santa Anna visited Mr. and Mrs. Grady McEver and Terry Sunday afternoon.

Little Stanley Calcote called and said he and his daddy, Otis Calcote, went fishing Saturday night on the creek south of Trickham, and caught at 20 pound yellow cat. Stanley was rather excited. Can't say I blame him. I wouldn't mind catching one like that myself.

Miss Jane Vaughn of San Antonio spent a few days last week with her uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. (Bill) Vaughn.

Mrs. Elmer Woods and girls, Joanna and Margaret of Brownwood visited her mother and brother, Mrs. Lea Dockery and H. B. on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lefty Adkins of Midland, the former Larue Laughlin, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson and Grey Laughlin. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sheffield of Brooksmith were dinner guests of the Wilsons.

Mrs. Wiley McClatchy visited Mrs. Beula Kingston on Friday and brought her some cat fish that Wiley had caught in his tank, not with a hook, but with his hands. I ask him how much it weighed, he said ten pounds. It sounds fishy doesn't it.

Sunday-afternoon visitors with Mrs. Kingston were Mrs. Mary Boenicke, Walter and Carrie Stacy and Mr. and Mrs. Nesbit Rice of Brooksmith.

Whon News

By MRS. TOM RUTHERFORD

Several from our community attended the Brady Jubilee.

Mr. and Mrs. Micky Chilton and children of Arlington are visiting through Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Turney. Mrs. Sylvia Herring and daughter, Lesa of Santa Anna visited with the family Sunday night.

Mrs. Yaniss Bull and Mr. R. A. Baker visited in the Darwin Lovelady home Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Wynn of Coleman spent Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Avants.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Rutherford and Rocky of Brownwood were Sunday guests with his parents, the Tom Rutherfords.

Mrs. Mary Avants and daughters, Viola, Oleta and a granddaughter of Mrs. Avants, all from Hamlin were Friday and Saturday night guests with Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Avants.

Mr. Arthur Switzer of Texas City visited during the week with his granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Yancy, David and Sandra.

Gary Woods of Brownwood is visiting Randell Lovelady a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hull of Santa Anna visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Turney briefly Sunday morning.

Gary and Dale Hunter of Fort Worth are visiting with David and Sandra Yancy this week.

Last Tuesday I visited with my grandmother, Mrs. Annie Smith in Brownwood. I found her feeling very well. She is up in a wheel chair some. Also I visited in the home of our son, the Hilary A. Rutherfords.

Mr. and Mrs. Bean Radle of Santa Anna and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Avants and children of Brady visited Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Avants Sunday.

Mrs. Lura Williamson of Santa Anna and her daughter and family visited in the Bert Turney home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wimpy Watson of Waco are in their home here over the July Fourth holidays. They will return to Waco Tuesday.

Mrs. Buster Wynn of Coleman visited Mrs. Tom Rutherford and Lynda Friday morning.

Mr. Oscar Lovelady has been with his sister and brother, Guy and Alta Lovelady, in Santa Anna quite a lot the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cozart visited with Mr. and Mrs. Babe Gardainer Sunday afternoon.

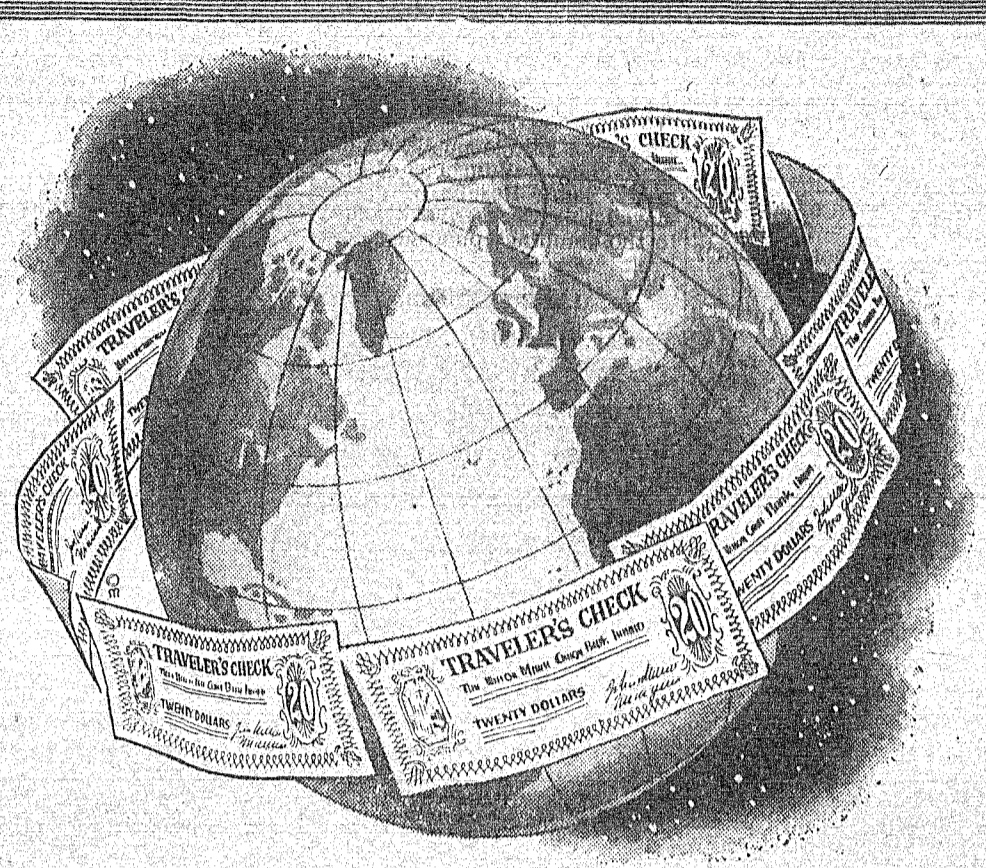

Mr. and Mrs. Wimpy Watson visited with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cozarts Saturday afternoon.

CATTLEMEN ORGANIZED

Forty men organized the Cattle Raisers Association of Texas in 1877 under an oak tree that still stands in Graham, Texas, northwest of Fort Worth.

A stone monument now stands by that Young County tree, commemorating the site as the beginning of this great organization. On the monument are the names of the association's first officers.

For many years Texas has had an "escheat law" providing that unclaimed and abandoned funds belong to the state when no owners or heirs exist. Do you believe enforcement procedures should be enacted by the Legislature so that such money can be returned to the lawful owners or heirs, or be turned over to the state if none exist? ### A COUNTER SUGGESTION

At last, believe it or not, a suggestion emanates from Soviet Russia with which we are in perfect accord—to move the United States headquarters to Vienna.

American opinion is divided as to the worth of the UN, but seems to be almost unanimous that a sad blunder was made in permitting it to locate in New York City. The principal objection is that it opened the gates for a flood of espionage agents to enter the U.S.A.

Unfortunately, this salutary suggestion of the Reds seems to be impractical. In order for Vienna to house UN, that Austrian city would have to build hundreds of new hotels and thousands of new apartments.

Then there is the costly matter of duplicating the present New York headquarters which are reported to have cost from $75 to $100 million. However, the building in New York City could be sold to private owners for an amount somewhere nearly sufficient to finance the building of new headquarters in Vienna.

But, wouldn't it be a dirty trick to play on our good friends, the Austrians, to saddle them with this monstrosity? Every time we pleasure ourselves with listening in on one of the Strauss waltzes, we feel a "warm glow" for the country that gave the world, this great composer. We have a counter suggestion—why not move UN to Havana, Cuba?

are wrought designs that present a panorama of Texas development. There's an Indian with tomahawk, branding irons, dueling pistols, the first Capitol (a small frame house), an early locomotive, and a windmill on the prairie. Last block shows a gushing oil well.

Building of the State Library and Archives Building was authorized by the Legislature in 1957 with an appropriation of $2,500,000. Project has been carried through by the State Building Commission for which E. E. McAdams is chairman and Gov. Price Daniel and Atty. Gen. Will Wilson are members.

Admiral H. R. Nieman is director of the Building Commission.

State Archives Building is the fourth of the new edifices erected since the building program began in 1957. It is neither the largest nor the most expensive, but because of the historical designs, it is attracting the most attention. Those who have had an advance peek believe that it will, as intended, be a fitting residence for the heritage of Texas' 125 years.

TOLEDO BEND DAM STUDIED

Texas Water Development Board has given tentative approval to a $15,000,000 state loan for the building of a $60,000,000 Toledo Bend Dam on the Sabine River.

The dam will create the largest man-made lake in the south and supply water and power for residents of both Southeast Texas and Louisiana.

One of the first obstacles to be faced is obtaining a permit from the State Board of Water Engineers. In this, the Sabine River Authority is opposed by the owners of timberland which would be flooded by the reservoir.

Louisiana will be a partner in the project, if it materializes. Louisiana voters already have approved a $15,000,000 loan to meet its share of the cost.

END OF AN ERA

One of the most colorful and controversial names in the 20th century Texas politics passed from the scene with the death of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson.

Though she preferred house-keeping and flower raising, Mrs. Ferguson was the first (and only) woman governor of Texas. Also one of the only two women governors ever to be elected in the nation.

Beginning of the "Ferguson era" was in 1914 when her husband, Jim Ferguson, was elected governor, as the champion of the Texas tenant farmer. He was re-elected in 1916 but impeached in 1917.

In 1924 Mrs. Ferguson ran for governor, with the announced purpose of clearing her husband's name. She was elected in 1924, defeated for re-election in 1926, but won another term in 1932.

With her to the last was the nickname she disliked — "Ma". Her husband (who died in 1944) was known as "Pa" or "Farmer Jim."

RATE INCREASE EXPLAINED

Texas who are irked at the prospect of an auto insurance rate increase should take note that they've had a year's reprieve since the increase was indicated, says the Insurance Board chairman.

Claim costs indicated that a rate increase was justified last year, says Chairman Tom Ferguson, but the Board postponed making it because the safe driving plan had just gone into effect.

In that 12-month interval, said Ferguson, drivers actually have paid $20,000,000 less in insurance premiums than cost figures show they should have. As a consequence, he said, companies absorbed a $20,000,000 deficit.

LAST ROUND

Legislators waxed both heated and hopeful in the last round of public hearings before the committee appointed by Governor Daniel to study all tax plans and suggest a compromise.

Committee, mostly made up of board chairmen of state agencies, is to select ideas or merge them into a recommendation to be offered at its final meeting July 6 and 7. Special session to enact a tax plan begins July 10.

Rep. Reed Quilliam of Lubbock said he felt the people should see clearly what their choices are — a sales tax, income tax or sharp reduction in state services.

Reps. Charles N. Wilson of Trinity and Maco Stewart of Galveston suggested a plan that would combine a 2 percent general sales tax with exemptions, and a 6 percent corporation profits tax.

Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo apparently favored a sales tax. He told the committee he thought the governor had been asleep, Rip Van Winkle fashion, since 1939 when Governor Daniel, then a House member, was one of the "Immortal 56" who blocked a sales tax. Hazlewood pointed out that the state has had a population explosion and an 800 percent increase in cost of government since then.

BUS INQUIRY POSTPONED

An Austin court of inquiry into the prices being paid by the state for school busses has been postponed until July 10.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson called for the inquiry, noting that Texas paid from 10 to 25 percent more for busses than some other states.

Judge granted the postponement on the defendants' statement that they had not had the required 10-day interval between the issuance of the subpoenas and convening of the inquiry.

GUARDS NEEDED

O. B. Ellis, general manager of the Texas Department of Corrections, reports that the prison system is in urgent need of officers.

Physically fit men 21 to 55 years of age are desired. They must have a 10th grade education at the minimum.

J. N. Crawford Jr., at the Huntsville prison, is in charge of hiring.

Battle of the Bugs Fought Many Ways Including 4-H Clubs

Chicago — (Special) — The world of insects remains unconquered by man and science. The challenge is as old as time itself. Locusts, ants and caterpillars mentioned in the Bible written 2,000 years ago are still plaguing the Holy Land.

The fact that bugs outnumber people, even in this space age, is reason enough for stepping up biological, chemical and atomic research. The future of our planet may well depend on the results.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture, private industry and education are seeking the same answer: how to destroy harmful insects and improve helpful species. Another important segment of society indirectly related to these seasoned researchers is also seriously pursuing the study and control of insects.

They are 4-H Club members engaged in a nation-wide entomology project now in its 10th year. Supervised by local club leaders, and county and state Extension workers, hundreds of boys and girls, in virtually every state are collecting, identifying, exhibiting and exterminating pests that annually destroy more than a billion dollars worth of crops, trees, animals, birds and property.

Proof that the subject has grown in importance is reflected in enrollment figures which tripled during the past decade, reports the National 4-H Service Committee. Current enrollment is expected to reach 60,000 in 48 states. (Alaska and Idaho 4-H Clubs do not participate, according to the 4-H Service Committee.)

MINING GHOST TOWN

Head for them that hills men, they've found silver.

Matter of fact, they're mining it at Shafter, Texas, right now.

Most interesting however, is the ghost town of Shafter itself. It's located in Presidio County in far west Texas, near the Mexican border.

You can wander along the river gulch and find old mining machinery in the deserted homes of the former silver miners. Seeing it is just like reading an historical book or western novel.

State Capitol NEWS

Austin — Within a few weeks the tourists and school children who flock to Austin will be able to get a lesson in Texas history by visiting the most beautiful of all the new buildings on the state capitol grounds.

It is the State Library and Archives Building, now nearing completion on a site directly east of the Capitol.

For many years history-minded Texans decried the fact that the priceless early documents of the state had no real home. Finally these documents were moved from a mouldy basement to a Quonset hut. There many feared their safety.

Now, the new edifice provides the state's historic documents with a magnificent home. In addition there are quarters for the State Library and the General Land Office.

More interesting to the visitor will be the way in which Texas history is dramatized in the architectural decor of the building. On each side of the entrance are six large flagpoles. From them will fly the flags of the nations which have ruled Texas — France, Spain, Mexico, the Republic of Texas, the Confederate States of America and the United States.

Embedded in the stone of the front are bright-colored mosaic shields. These also represent the same six nations. Smaller bronze emblems decorate the heavy metal doors at the front. Across the back of the structure, even larger shields, bearing the six nation's seals in colored ceramics are mounted on the face of the building.

Pink granite, the "official" stone for state buildings, is used for the entire exterior. Carved in the granite across the left front are these words:

"The People of Texas do now constitute a free, sovereign and independent republic and we fearlessly and confidently commit the issue to the decision of the Supreme Arbiter of the destinies of nations." (Texas Declaration of Independence, 1836)

On the right front side is carved: "All political power is inherent in the people and all free governments are founded on their authority and instituted for their benefit." (First Constitution of Texas, 1845.)

Although the building has four floors, there are seven "stack floors" where the building is divided for storage of books and documents.

One end of the main floor will be devoted to the library. There you will find a charge desk and a large reading room.

Another large room will house the archives. In it there will be a large work room where researchers may look at old papers.

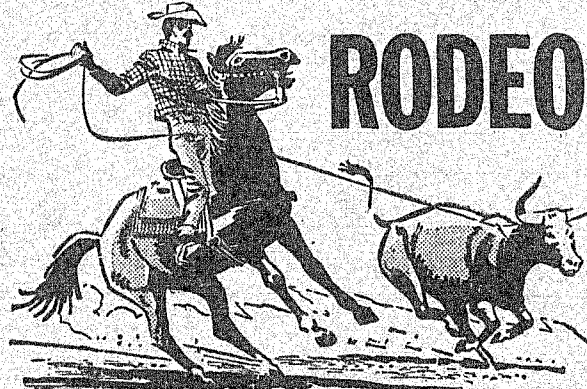

Land Office, to be on the third and fourth floors, will have a separate entrance at the south end of the building. (Building faces west.)

First floor lobby, like the Capitol rotunda, will be a Texas showcase. In its terrazzo floor is the familiar wreath and star emblem of Texas. Main walls are polished granite and upper wall is sandstone. Above the center of the area is a huge, spectacular oval light fixture of red, white and blue colored glass in a sunburst design with a border of 50 stars.

Museum cases, recessed and lighted, are built into the walls around the lobby. Opposite the lobby entrance is a large bronze screen with 15 blocks on which

INVASION OF THE STATES

By Willis E. Stone
(Editor's Note: Willis E. Stone is author of the "Proposed Liberty Amendment" and Chairman, National Committee for Economic Freedom, Los Angeles, Calif.)

Did you ever stop to think about what you get for the tax dollars taken from you?
If and when you do, you are very apt to join the rapidly growing clamor for the LIBERTY AMENDMENT which will get the Federal government out of direct competition with its own citizens and thus pave the way for the repeal of the 16th (income tax) Amendment.

It may come as a surprise to learn that governmental costs can be cut more than half by stopping Federal competition with private enterprise. This will more than offset the revenue lost when the federal individual income tax laws are repealed. FACT SHEET, P. O. Box 2948, Los Angeles 28, California, has compiled extensive data to support this viewpoint.

An issue of FACT SHEET just released (copy on request) cites how your tax dollars are being used by the FOREST SERVICE to invade the States and for the political exploitation of the land. This is but one of more than 700 Federal agencies grown rich, fat and arrogant through the use of our tax dollars to take over our lands and enterprises, although they have no constitutional authority for so doing.

The official recorded costs of maintaining the invasion of our States by the FOREST SERVICE indicates that, although operating the finest timber and grass lands in the nation on an interest free, rent free and tax free basis, it manages to lose fantastic quantities of out tax dollars. The ten-year loss record cited in FACT SHEET amounts to over one-half billion dollars and this does not include the losses of various "fund" activities directly competitive with private enterprise.

Statistics drawn from official records indicate that the FOREST SERVICE now holds more than 8 percent of the total land and water area of the United States and all its territories and possessions. It has no constitutional authority for invading the States, yet it has taken over 38 percent of Idaho, 21 percent of Colorado, 20 percent of California and Montana, and lesser percentages of all but six of the fifty States.

The States, therefore, have become the wards of the Federal agencies simply because they have lost jurisdiction over their own territory. The people of the States have been milked by income tax levies used to subjugate both the people and the States. This has been done despite the many Supreme Court decisions (15 US 391, 1 Wheaton 325, 221 US 559 and others).

The FOREST SERVICE is not the only invader of the States. Over 700 Federal agencies combined have taken over 40 percent of the land area and 20 percent of the industrial capacity of the nation, and to sustain these political empires they consume more than half the total revenue of the Federal government every year.

When the temper of the people indicates that they are about to apply the terms of the LIBERTY AMENDMENT and take back the powers usurped, these agencies author endless statements to scare people and state legislatures, inferring withdrawal of "Federal aid." An analysis will prove that "Federal aid" is a mere return pittance, compared to the income taxes taken from the States.

A smoke-screen of misstatement and untruths about the LIBERTY AMENDMENT has been foisted upon the members of the Legislatures in various States where consideration of the Amendment was in process.

Actually, the LIBERTY AMENDMENT does not add to, nor subtract from, the original Constitution, but will give it full force and effect. It is currently pending in Congress as H. J. Res. 23 and has been formally approved by Wyoming, Texas, Nevada and Louisiana. It provides that:

"Sec. 1. The Government of the United States shall not engage in any business, professional, commercial, financial or industrial enterprise except as specified in the Constitution.

"Sec. 4. . . Congress shall not levy taxes on personal incomes, estates, and/or gifts."

It was against the law to observe Christmas in the U.S. in 1659.

About Your Health

Austin — It may seem early, but school is just around the corner and parents with children entering for the first time should begin preparing right now.

The right preparation for those first school days is vital to the future satisfaction and adjustment of your child to his new environment.

If he has an older brother or sister, the task will be easier. But there are many steps for getting ready for school which should be taken before September.

Some effort should be made to make clear to the child that he will be on his own — without Mom or Dad there to watch over him all the time — a good while before that first day of school.

Clothing should be given much thought. Check the habits of your local school and find out what is the predominant mode of dress. If all the boys wear long pants, by all means make sure your youngster has them, too.

Make sure everything is large enough, but not baggy or his classmates will make fun of him.

Proper nutrition is very important. When school starts, allow enough time in the morning for a wholesome breakfast. A good breakfast includes citrus fruit or juice, milk, whole grain cereal or bread, eggs or bacon or both.

Lunch and dinner should be leisurely and pleasant, too. The new adventure of school is pretty fast paced, but mealtime offers an opportunity for the family to pause and enjoy being together.

Now is the time to check your school's requirements regarding vaccinations or other health measures and take care of them well in advance.

Also, many Texas school districts require proof of age for first year students in the form of a certified birth certificate. You may obtain a copy from your local registrar, county clerk, or from the Section on Records and Statistics, Texas State Department of Health, 410 East 5th Street, Austin.

Send one dollar with the name of the child, his or her date of birth, place of birth, father's name, and mother's maiden name.

It would be a good idea to get a copy of your youngster's birth record just as soon as possible to avoid the August rush. (A weekly feature of the Public Health Education Division, Texas State Department of Health.)

Liberty Home Dem. Club Meeting

The regular meeting of the Liberty Home Demonstration Club met in the Community Center at 2:00 p. m. Wednesday, June 28th. Hostess for the meeting was Mrs. W. H. Pittard and the president, Mrs. J. M. Field, presided.

During the business meeting Mrs. Field presided over a discussion on activities the club might use to replenish the club's funds.

Mrs. Cecil Curry gave a program, held over from a previous meeting, on Citizenship. Mrs. Field then gave the regular program on Making The Best Possible Use of Your Time.

She stressed six main points, as follows: (1) plan your work well in advance, (2) use the best equipment suitable for each job, (3) have working area well lighted, (4) use your knees instead of your back, (5) by all means wear comfortable shoes, and (6) double recipes and keep things in easy reach of your working area.

Refreshments of pink lemonade and devil's food cake were served to the following members: Mrs. Field, Mrs. Pittard, Mrs. Vernon Penny, Mrs. Nora Goen, Mrs. Roy Stockard, Mrs. H. W. Gray and Mrs. Curry.

Cattlemen to Look At Proposed New Farm Legislation

Fort Worth — The effect of the omnibus farm bill upon the livestock industry will be in the spotlight at the quarterly director's meeting of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association in San Angelo June 30-July 1.

Traditionally, cattlemen have opposed any price supports and production controls on cattle. Discussions at the TS CRA meeting are expected to center on the effect the new bill would have upon those in the cattle business, and to what extent the bill embraces practices which are related to beef production and marketing.

Other action at the meeting will include a review of the present brand laws in Texas, consideration of submitted samples for an official emblem for the Association, an analysis of activities of the National Livestock and Meat Board, and committee reports on a number of other subjects of particular interest to cattlemen.

Progress being made by the newly-formed cattle feeder division also will be reported.

Friday, June 30, will be devoted to committee meetings, and the regular meeting of the Board of Directors is scheduled at 9 a. m., Saturday, July 1. This meeting is open to the membership.

The meeting will be held in the Cactus Hotel in San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Neely Evans and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stephenson visited Sunday afternoon and evening with the Clyde Weathers family in Cisco and the Albert Deans at Bangs.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

Former Resident Describes 1st Auto In Santa Anna

(Editor's note: Mr. R. G. Hollingsworth of Coleman herewith gives a vivid description of the first automobile to arrive in Santa Anna. This is in connection with the 75th anniversary of The Santa Anna News. We hope others are preparing articles of the early days in Santa Anna as you remember them, for publication before the end of the year.)

By R. G. Hollingsworth
Santa Anna had the first automobile between Brownwood and San Angelo. That was in 1904. It was a Franklin Air Cooled model, chain driven, body like an old time surrey with fringes around the top. Brownwood had a White Steamer at the time and San Angelo had two Oldsmobile Aristocrats. Henry Hollingsworth, who built the first telephone exchange here and who organized the old West Texas Telephone Company with Brownwood as headquarters, was the owner.

Henry had worked himself down and had decided to take it easy for a while. He and his brother, Robert, wrote to all the manufacturers of automobiles that they could think of for catalogues. They probably had catalogues from fifty or more makers. After studying all the catalogues, from Wintons, Locomobiles and Packards, through Marions, Maxwells, Hupmobiles, Elmores, Pope Toledos and Flats, with probably a dozen more, cars whose names have been forgotten long ago, Henry went to Chicago to look them over at the show. After spending a week or more there he chose one that he did not even have a catalogue for, the Franklin, mentioned above.

He had it filled with benzine and, taking an extra five gallons of the fuel in a can, he took off for Texas. It was the middle of May, and contrary to what he had expected, the weather was warm and humid. When he got to Des Moines, Iowa, he decided that it was not all fun. There were no self-starters in those days, and the thing had to be cranked on the side by hand. This was just one of the tasks that he, apparently, had not figured on. He spent a day or two resting, then took the thing down to the railroad station and had it shipped home. He took the train arriving several days before the car.

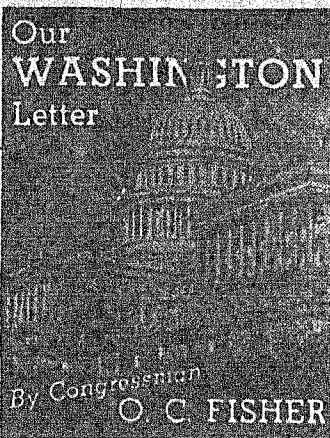

When it arrived all the boys in town were ready and anxious to have a hand in unloading it. This was no teasy. It had to be turned this way and that to get it out of the car, then lowered to the ground. But there were plenty of willing hands and the job was soon done.

There was some question at first with the boys as to whether it would really run. The cranking process seemed to be quite difficult, but with a multitude of minds, this was soon resolved. About four of the boys got behind the contraption and gave it a good push, and off it went. Naturally those boys got the first ride, something never experienced by a native before. Henry's only trouble thereafter was getting it started at home. When he got to town there was plenty of boys to "push it off."

There was another trouble in those days. Horses, cattle, and even folks, had never seen anything like it. There was a good deal of talk that a law should be passed making it unlawful to drive, one of the buggers on streets or highways. And in cases motorists were held responsible for injuries caused by frightened teams. You have probably heard the story of the time Henry met a farmer in his wagon with his wife. Henry parked his car as usual in such cases and went to help the farmer with his team, whereupon the farmer told him to let his team alone, that he could handle them, to go catch his wife.

But there were some good things about it. On one occasion the car was driven all the way from Santa Anna to Coleman and back without a single puncture. Tire punctures in those days were the ban of the motorist's life. Roads were mostly just trails through the pastures and even grassburrs would cause a slow leak, a good sized sandbur or a prickly pear would bring a tire down right now. Three hundred to five hundred miles was a very good life for a tire. And it took two or three weeks or a month to have a new tire come from the factory. In those days the only tires carried locally were bicycle tires.

Hand punches at the News office.

The Administration's Farm Bill was completely overhauled last week by both the House and Senate Committees on Agriculture. The controversial Section 1 was almost completely deleted. The Committees' refusal to accept the proposal was expected. For weeks the majority of the members of the House Committee had held out against the measure, and finally a show-down vote was taken.

This is taken to mean there will be no sharp change in farm policy direction this year. There will be a program that will cut wheat production by 10 percent and reduce the production of corn and other feed grains by about 25 percent.

The Wool Act a section of the omnibus bill, remains intact. It is up for extension this year, and has been tentatively approved by the House and Senate committees. It is due to be included in any farm bill that is reported.

The First Negro District Commissioner for the District of Columbia is due to be appointed this year. President Kennedy ran into trouble on his first effort. He sent to the Senate the name of Frank D. Reeves, Democratic National Committeeman for the District of Columbia, and it looked as if his confirmation was in the bag. But questions were asked about his tax delinquencies, numbering four instances in recent years, and a housing transaction, and the White House promptly announced his withdrawal.

It developed during hearings that Reeves had recently borrowed $40,000 from Milton Kronheim, Washington's largest wholesale liquor dealer, for payment on a home. And since the three-man City Commission has a lot to do with the licensing of retail liquor stores here, sparks began to fly. The next day the withdrawal was announced.

Some Adults Get "Children" Pension Of Deceased Vets

Veterans Administration officials explained today that grown men and women may receive pension payments as "children" of deceased war veterans.

Ordinarily, pension payments to children of deceased veterans cease when the children reach age 18, or earlier if they marry. When, however, such a child becomes mentally or physically incapable of self-support before reaching age 18, the pension payments continue until that child marries or improves physically or mentally to the point of being self-supporting.

Many of these "children," victims of incurable illness, live on to old age, the VA officials said, and still continue to draw pension payments.

The VA explanation was issued to answer inquiries from persons puzzled over recent printed reference to Civil War "children."

Cattle Raisers Oppose Farm Bill

Fort Worth — The Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association went on record today as being against the Omnibus Farm Bill and voted to commend the members of the House and Senate Agricultural committees who voted against the bill while in committee.

The vote came during the quarterly meeting of the TSCRA Board of Directors in the Cactus Hotel at San Angelo July 1. The meeting was open to all TSCRA members and some 200 cattlemen from areas throughout Texas voted on the resolution. The resolution was offered by Tobin Armstrong of Armstrong, Texas, and strongly endorsed by J. T. White of Hearne, Texas and a number of others.

It read in part: Be it resolved that the Board of Directors of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association commend and express its deep gratitude to those members of the House and Senate Agricultural Committees, who, in spite of tremendous pressure from those advocating this measure, had the courage to stand in the defense of American Agriculture and its traditional system of free economic action.

The resolution also directed officers of the Association to actively oppose any future agricultural legislation that embodies these alien concepts. It pointed out that under provisions of the Omnibus Farm Bill producers of approximately 250 commodities presently not regulated and representing the healthiest segment of the agricultural community, would be forced to abandon their freedom to compete in the free and unregulated market.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Armstrong emphasized that legislation of this kind continues as a constant threat to the cattle producer and called on the TSCRA members and the Association to vigorously oppose further encroachment by the Federal Government.

In other action at the meeting President Dolph Briscoe Jr., of Uvalde, said the Association would re-apply for its present authority to inspect cattle shipped from or originating in the State of Texas for brands, marks and other identifying characteristics in order to determine ownership.

This authority expires September 1, according to word received by Briscoe. The Association has had this authority since 1943 and under the present ruling is allowed to re-apply during the interim period.

The Association's brand committee was directed to consult officials from surrounding states in drawing up plans for an improved brand law in Texas which would be presented at the next quarterly meeting of the Board of Directors.

Retailers Saluted For Efforts in Bond Programs

Washington, D. C. — America's retailers were saluted today by the Treasury Department for their contributions to the U. S. Savings Bond program since 1941.

The tribute was expressed in a public service newspaper ad announcing July as "Retailers' Month" in the bond program's 20th anniversary year calendar of salutes to prominent volunteer groups. The ad recalled that local merchants had played a key role in mobilizing community support for the early defense bond program and for the bond drives which helped finance the Nation's war effort.

"Few groups were as well qualified to promote bonds as the retailers," the message said. "They sold over the counter, staged street rallies and parades, sponsored movie premieres, and used all their selling talents to get every citizen on the bondwagon and help speed victory... The job they did has paid big bonuses. Since 1941 Americans have invested $121 billion in Savings Bonds, spent $78 billion for the things they wanted as the bonds matured and are still holding a large $43 billion reserve as buying power for the future."

Responding to the Treasury tribute, Alfred C. Thompson, president of the National Retail Merchants Association, stated: "As citizens, we retailers are proud of the part we have had in the 20-year success story of the U. S. Savings Bond program.

As merchants, we are grateful for the rich reservoir of buying power the program has provided for the business community — and the security it has provided for the nation. We earnestly recommend that Americans keep buying and holding U. S. Savings Bonds."

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Curry visited their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ogle and Janice, in Lubbock last week.

Read John 10:11-18.

Ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. (I Corinthians 6:20.)

A woman I never met influenced my life. She was a Russian nun by the name of Sister Maria.

During World War II, she was the head of a convent school in Paris during the Nazi occupation. Utterly unselfish and valiant, she sought to relieve the suffering, not only of her fellow Catholics, but of the persecuted Jews, some of them in her school.

One day the Nazis came and demanded that she turn over all her Jewish students. Sister Maria knew that it would mean for them concentration camps and death. One high school girl was overcome with fear. Sister Maria quickly took off her nun's habit and put it on the girl. Then she herself put over her head the yellow scarf of the Jew and said, "I'll go for you. I'll take your place," and Sister Maria died as a Jew.

How few of us have such courage, to put ourselves in other people's places when it involves suffering, pain and loss. Yet that is what Jesus said was the way His disciples must take in following Him.

PRAYER:

O God, as Christ laid down His earthly life that we might find eternal life in Thy love, so infuse our spirits with sacrificial dedication. Through us may Thy love be a conquering power over prejudice and hate. For His sake. Amen.

Make Your Farm Pond Safe

To youngsters, summertime is swimming time. This is especially true of rural children, many of whom have a convenient farm pond available. Unfortunately, many of these swimming excursions end in tragedy. All too often you read stories about children drowning while swimming in a farm or ranch pond.

W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer, says most of the drownings that occur in farm ponds could be prevented if a few simple safety precautions were taken. The first thing to remember is to never let anyone, adult or child, swim alone. Children should never, under any circumstances, be allowed to play alone anywhere near the pond.

It is also a good idea to keep life preservers, handy, and to insist that non-swimmers wear them when playing in the pond. "Life preservers do not mean plastic bags," Ulich warns. Although a plastic bag will support a person when inflated, they puncture easily.

Simple rescue equipment should also be kept at the pond. A long lightweight pole is very good for reaching swimmers in trouble. Another item that should be available is a length of light, strong rope. This rope should be at least as long as the pond is wide at its widest point. A lightweight float attached to the end of the rope will help if you want to throw it to a person in distress. Most ponds already have one good piece of rescue equipment — a small boat. If your pond does not, it would be a good idea to get one if at all possible.

July 23-29 is Farm Safety Week, and Ulich points out that making the farm pond a safe recreational area would be an excellent way to start preparing for it.

It is warmer to wear two thin garments than one thick one because the air between them serves as insulation.

China adopted tea drinking because the water was impure.

Ballinger Firm Gets Contract on Road Improvements

A contract for 2.9 miles of construction on F. M. Road 568 and S. H. 206 in Coleman County has been awarded to a Ballinger firm, it was announced in Austin this week by the State Highway Commission.

F. A. Seidel submitted the low bid of $56,516 on the project. Base and surfacing FM 568 from intersection with Commercial Ave. east to intersection with U. S. 84, S. H. 206 from "Y" connection with U. S. 84 and 283; 1 mile north to Coleman, east 1.4 mile is expected to take 50 working days, according to E. M. Pritchard District Highway Engineer at Brownwood.

Erle C. Mayo, Resident Engineer at Coleman will be in active charge of the project while it is under construction.

Visitors in the R. L. Todd home during the weekend were: Mrs. Todd's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Black of Torrance, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Todd Jr. of Glen Cove; Mrs. R. R. Lovleady of Coleman; Mrs. Roger George of Brady; Mrs. Eunice Longbrake of Texas City; and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dunn of Santa Anna. Mr. and Mrs. Todd also visited in Glen Cove with his son, R. L. Jr. and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Aldridge Jr. of Jal. N. M. and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Aldridge of Kermit, were brief visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Aldridge Sr. on Thursday of last week. Don and Andy Aldridge, who had been visiting their grandparents, returned home with their parents.
